LAKE HOLDS WATER FROM AREA RAINS

ABOUT
Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Speaking of rain—and who isn't—we would just like to mention rain gauge troubles that have cropped up with the good rain.

It seems that Eastland, a n d Eastland county for that matter, have about six gauges for each person, and there are not two of them that register the same reading.

Now, Jimmy Don Huckabee keeps the official reading for the U. S. Weather Bureau, and we always quote him. However, Jimmy Don's readings just don't please some folks. He apparently is too conservative for some of us.

—vem—

Jimmy Don checks his gauge and his thermometer at regular intervals. But, when the weather's hot, he doesn't seem to make it hot enough, and when the weather's cold, he just can't seem to make it cold enough. And when it rains well, that's when he really is all wet. This, at least, is what other weathermen in the area tell us.

—vem—

Anyway, Jimmy Dons official reading was too low for a lot of folks. Even some of the big city newspapers gave Eastland more rain than Jimmy did. And all of the gauge owners around town got more rain.

Now, we think we know the answer to it all. Jimmy reads his gauge on the level with the water, and most of us get below the water level and look up.

Anyway, it was a good rain.

Quote of the Day — "Conscience is God's presence in man."

The Chamber of Commerce managers Convention went off fine. Only trouble was it left local chamber workers dead tired. We noticed the C-C office was closed Tuesday afternoon. Everyone went home and went to bed.

—vem—

Mrs. Wilma Sparks left Rotarians and Lions in awe Tuesday following her reading of the play, "Dust of the Road." Not only was the story moving, the memory work done by Mrs. Sparks was amazing.

We had to ask Mrs. Sparks how many pages she had memorized. If you are wondering, too, it was 12. We were more than pleased with the program—we were envied.

Ray Harbin and Brett Johnson Arthur are listed on the B and D Boosters' Birthday today. Tomorrow S. F. Owen celebrates his birthday.

—vem—

Understand the only people unhappy about the rain are the Easter egg hunters. And even they don't seem to be downhearted.

—vem—

Eastland got a million dollars worth of publicity out of the West Texas Managers' Association's convention held here over the weekend.

Herb Tanner, manager of the Eastland C-C, was met by a flock of congratulatory letters Wednesday morning—just a day after the convention ended.

Here's one signed A. C. Bishop, manager of the Sweetwater C-C, that will give you an example:

"Dear Herb... Golly! You and your people did a fine job in taking care of CCMAWT. It was the best one ever, I do believe. I enjoyed it and I am sure everyone did. Your Woman's Club did a fine piece of work. Please convey my thanks to them for all their fine work."

By the way, we might mention that Tanner is taking credit for the rain that fell over all of West Texas. On Tannre's invitation to all of the managers, he put this at the bottom of the page: "Lying Weather Forecast... RAIN."

—vem—

Tanner asked us to convey his thanks "for the splendid cooperation given by the people of Eastland." He made special mention of the Eastland High School band and (Continued on Page Six)

Enthusiasm Needed Now, States Furr

"We must sell ourselves on how to get the job done and then resell ourselves to the people," Donald Furr, personnel director and assistant to the vice president of Furr's, Inc., told West Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers at the noon luncheon of the organization held Monday in the First Christian Church annex in Eastland.

Furr, a member of the family which founded the Furr food chain, was speaking of common problems which confront "all of us."

He told the group his firm de-

Mrs. W. Sparks Presents Play To Two Clubs

Mrs. Wilma Sparks entertained Eastland Lions and Rotarians Tuesday in a joint meeting of the two clubs held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church. "Dust of the Road," a play written by Goodman, was presented by Mrs. Sparks.

The four characters of the play, Prudence Steele, Peter Steele, the old man and the tramp were all portrayed by Mrs. Sparks. Her entire presentation was by memory.

The play had an Easter theme, and Lions and Rotarians both expressed their enjoyment.

Gene Haynes, who was to have been program chairman, was ill.

Speaking of talk of a drop in income, Furr said, "We felt the drop in our customers' net income. People are now buying staples, such as potato beans, instead of fine foods. Last year Furr's profit was only nine-tenths of one per cent. Does this mean that we should fold our tent and steal away? No, it means that we will have to use enthusiasm in selling now."

Furr was introduced by Delbert Downing, Midland C-C manager.

Les Fleener, Houston, market administrator, announced today.

Entertainment was supplied by Joy Lynne Robinson, who gave a song and dance number, "Just Blew in From a Windy City."

Convention Stripe and Gripe Skit Bring Down The House

Mrs. A. F. Taylor, president of the Music Study Club of Eastland, greeted the guests as they arrived at the Woman's Club, Monday, at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Marene Johnson and Mrs. Joseph Perkins were in the receiving line with their typewriters to register the guests. Mrs. D. L. Houle pinned the typed cards on the back of the incoming guests.

Mrs. Grady Pipkin and Mrs. R. L. Carpenter placed a paper bag on the right hand of each guest and securely fastened it with a rubber band. Each person was then allowed to remove the bag only after it was thoroughly worn from shaking hands with each one present.

The Keys of the City (always presented at every Chamber of Commerce Convention) were earned by the key hunters. Hundreds of keys were hidden around the club room. The first place winner was Mrs. Douglas Orme of Big Spring who brought forth the 88 keys of the piano. The second place went to Mrs. Charlie Young of McCamey who added to her collection the 32 keys of the miniature piano. Mrs. A. B. Davis of Lubbock remembered the 26 keys in the typewriter and won third. Each of the winners was presented a balled key ring.

Mrs. A. F. Taylor in her welcome expressed her appreciation for the women's coming to Eastland to join in the various activities and enjoy them with the Eastland women. She then told them that Eastland would soon have two more conventions.

Mrs. Taylor mentioned that she had two ladies present who were very typical delegates and attended all conventions. She then pre-

Fort Worth Trip Is Enjoyed By Junior High School Seniors

By FROTILLA SCOTT

"What a wonderful day! I've never had so much fun in my life! How wonderful to be with the kids all day!" These remarks could be heard during the trip April 10th to Fort Worth. The Eastland Junior High graduating class was enjoying the second in a series of entertainments for them. The first stop was at Chandor Gardens.

Started in 1936

Lovely the year around, the Douglas Chandor gardens in Weatherford, is at its most enchanting in the spring. It is a large garden, really several gardens with in a garden, each one different from the others and with a charm all its own.

The garden began on paper in 1936. The land which is now refreshed by eight beautiful pools originally contained nothing but rock, dismal tree or two, an occasionally trash pile. Over the years, holes were blasted, soil brought in, levels altered, until at last a sort of paradise like that of Kubla Khan developed.

Mrs. Chandor explained, "the late Mr. Chandor envisioned it as it would look when it was finished. During the last two years, he almost completed it all but the last ten or fifteen feet of the mountain and the waterfall that will bring a circulation of water into the eight pools throughout the entire garden."

Territorial Waterfall" a Must

Now Ms. Chandor has set herself the task of finishing the mountain and achieving the "territorial waterfall," as her husband planned, with the water tumbling from this forty foot of sandstone cliff into a lagoon near the cave entrance.

The guests were invited to enjoy coffee and home-made doughnuts. A copper kettle, copper bowl of scarlet red roses, and huge copper trays, and red napkins were on the polished table. Arrangements of scarlet roses were throughout the club room.

The guests were Mmes. Charlie Young, McCamey; Larry Timble, Quanah; John Mayfield, Perryton; Millie Muchanan, Spearman; E. F. Smith, Jr., Coleman; Rex Jennings, Brownwood; Dave Hallstrom, Dumas; J. W. Martin, Olney; Woody Wilson, El Paso; Douglas Orme, Big Spring; Charles G. Cotten, Ft. Worth; Jack Pridgen, Pecos; Pat Mann, Gainsville; M. D. Fannin, San Angelo; Jeff Henderson, Necona; Frank Craddock, Colorado City; A. B. Davis, Lubbock; J. A. Doyle and Frankie Lambert of Eastland.

The next stop was the Fort Worth Zoo in Forest Park. The spitting monkey caught the eyes of Saul Pullman and his buddies. The penguins in their scale-like full dress black and white tuxedos fascinated another group.

Some of the boys and girls rode the trains and hobby horses while others spent their time exchanging greetings with the talking cow.

Fried chicken, potato chips, pimento cheese and banana-peanut butter sandwiches were enjoyed along with cookies and cokes.

Children's Museum

The next stop was the children's museum. The first live animal was a homeless puppy which was whining and wagging his tail. His box bore a sign which read, "I need a home."

Everyone looked longingly, but the group moved on.

The raccoon, the flying squirrel,

the mother rat with her babies,

the featherless owl dozing in the box, and some snakes were interesting live exhibits.

Another section contained exhibits of stuffed animals in their native habitat. The foxes, the owls, the javelinas, and other interesting stuffed animals drew the attention of each student.

but for the trickle of a fountain which the artist made for the sum of three dollars and eighty-four cents and equal to any anywhere.

The English part of the garden is left as we stroll toward the south and east. There we find oriental mood and design.

Oriental Section

Throughout the garden, one encounters the Chinese influence. Mr. Chandor was a great admirer of the Chinese simplicity in line and design, and of the perfect gardens created by the greatest of the world's gardeners.

In perfect keeping with the design of "White Shadows," the wooden, oriental bridge spans a water garden that surrounds the house like a moat. Bronze pagodas, little rock islands and clipped flowering trees dot this intimate precinct. Above hangs a canopy of wisteria which extends a full acre, the wisteria and peonies hobnobbing with English scillas.

There is a grotto in the rocks, which may be reached by huge round stepping stones leading across a wisteria-bordered pool. There are huge rocks resembling animals, and there are mounds of azaleas and trailing rock plants and violets.

The Chinese plants and pagodas, the Chinese lanterns, and the goddesses bring a sense of peace.

Alpha Delphians Study Atomic Ag

The Alpha Delphian Study Club met in regular session at the Woman's Club April 8, 1954. Mrs. LeRoy Arnold gave the invocation.

Mrs. Henry Van Geem, vice-president, presided over a short business session. She urged all the members to be present for the one act play which will be the last regular program for the season.

A panel discussion on "Paradise on Doomsday" was led by Mrs. Luther Bean, the program chairman. Mrs. Bean stated, "If we have peace, we will have paradise. If we have war, we will have doomsday." She mentioned that this attire's age has changed our every day way of living. Scientists are making working hours shorter, and there is time for recreation for adults as well as the youth. What will we do with our time in the next few years? We have atomic electrical power plants, cars driven with atomic energy, locomotives moved by this energy, and home appliances geared to atomic energy. Foods are now being tested with the atom.

Mrs. J. H. Parker gave the atomic uses in medicine. She pointed out that the atomic vary had made rapid progress in the last five years. Now we have special reactors designed for treatment of the sick.

Mrs. Ray Young gave the sociology of this atomic age. She questioned the possibility of this becoming a racial age. Further she asked if this age of totalitarianism or isolationism could give any security. Almost all of the people strive for security economically, psychologically, or nationally. She stated, "A nation that work together is likened unto the family that prays together and stays together."

Those present were Mmes. J. LeRoy Arnold, Luther Bean, L. C. Brown, D. J. Flensy, Carl Jones, George Lane, C. M. Oakley, J. H. Parker, E. S. Perdue, N. N. Rosenquist, Henry Van Geem, W. C. Vickers, O. M. White, W. B. White, R. L. Young.

SPECIAL GUARDS FOR SCHOOL CROSSINGS

CHICAGO — A recent survey by the Civil Service Assembly shows that at least 122 cities with more than 50,000 population have school crossing guard programs.

The study shows that as a result of this system, larger cities are able to get children across streets safely at school crossings four times a day without using police.

Eighty-eight departments have had no traffic injuries or deaths among school children since the program was adopted. Other departments report minor injuries. A few serious injuries to guards only were due to circumstances which could not be prevented, such as a runaway truck.

Guards are carefully selected on the basis of physical and mental character, and in some cities are fingerprinted.

This is the 1954 Chevrolet Bel Air 2-Door Sedan. With 3 series, Chevrolet offers a model to meet every individual and family need.

These facts about the New Chevrolet can help you make an important decision

Don't you agree that buying a new car calls for careful consideration? Regardless of make, it involves a substantial amount of money and a lot of future satisfaction. This information can give you a better idea of comparative value and help you decide which make to buy.

A good customer of ours was telling us the other day how he sizes up a new car. Because he's bought a number of them over the years, we were interested in what he had to say. We think you will, too.

Actually, what he does is to ask about seven basic questions. The answers give a pretty complete picture of the car and its comparative value. Here's what he wants to know:

How well do I like its looks?

That's one question, of course, that only you can answer. You're the one who buys the car and you, above anybody else, should be proud of its appearance.

All we can tell you is that we hear a lot of nice things about Chevrolet's new styling. People seem to like the new front-end and rear-end designs, and the way the bumpers curve even farther around the fenders. They like the new styling touches all around the car and the wide choice of bright new colors and two-tone combinations. A good many tell us that Chevrolet has a decided edge over the other cars in its field for smooth and graceful lines.

Who makes the body?

This question takes in much more territory than the appearance of the car. It involves the quality of the interior as well as the strength and safety of the body construction. That's why we think it worth your consideration that Chevrolet has the only Body by Fisher in the low-price field.

You can see the difference outside and inside. We'd especially like you to look over the new interiors. Just sit in the car, if you will. Feel the quality of the fabrics and notice the more generous use of vinyl trim.

In all these ways, you'll find evidence of superior quality and workmanship. And after all, isn't that what you would expect in Body by Fisher? As you know, Fisher is the largest and most famous manufacturer of automobile bodies in the world. Doesn't it stand to reason that Fisher can build extra quality into the Chevrolet body? It's there and you can see it.

What's under the hood?

You hear a great deal of talk these days about engine power. The truth is that the number of horsepower isn't nearly as important as what the horsepower does for you.

In this year's Chevrolet, you get increased power in two finer engines. There's the "Blue-Flame 125" engine teamed with Powerglide automatic transmission.

And, in the case of this new Chevrolet, you do not have to sacrifice economy for finer performance and more horsepower. That's because the Chevrolet engines are high-compression engines. Their compression ratio of 7.5 to 1 is the highest in any of the leading low-priced cars.

This means simply that the engine compresses, or squeezes, the fuel mixture to a greater degree in order to wring more work out of it. That's how Chevrolet is able to give you an important gain in performance along with money-saving gasoline mileage—and on regular gas, of course.

Is it up to date in features?

We can't think of a new feature or development you might want that you can't have on the new Chevrolet.

Now you can have Chevrolet's zippy and thrifty Powerglide automatic transmission on any model. In gearshift models, you get the more powerful "Blue-Flame 115" engine.

But, actually, the increase in horsepower is only a sort of by-product of design changes made for other reasons. Chevrolet engineers were after greater engine efficiency, not just greater power. So, you get improved acceleration, with greater and safer passing ability. You get quieter, smoother operation. You climb the steep hills with new ease.

How hungry is it for gasoline?

A car's reputation for, and record of, economy of operation is certainly an important consideration to most people. We'd be glad to have you compare Chevrolet in this respect with any car at any price.

Well, as you may know, Chevrolet is by far the most popular car in this country. That's true today and it's been true for a good many years now.

But it couldn't be true—or wouldn't be true—unless Chevrolet gave its owners an extra measure of satisfaction and value.

How much does it cost?

There's a short, sweet answer to that one: Chevrolet is priced below all other lines of cars. This lower cost is made possible by the greater production facilities and purchasing power of the world's largest manufacturer of automobiles. That is why Chevrolet can offer you all the advantages we've told you about here—and many more, too.

We'd be more than glad to have you see all these things for yourself and to try out this new Chevrolet on the road. We'll be happy to see you at any time.

Dairymen Face Milk Surplus

Texas dairymen may face near-record milk surpluses this spring and unseasonable warm weather gets most of the blame.

"Dairy farmers should give thought now to the possibility of surpluses since the overflow will increase later in the spring," says R. E. Burleson, extension dairy husbandman.

Surplus conditions can be greatly relieved if operators will put more emphasis on production per cow instead of cans of milk per herd.

Burleson advises producers to dry up all cows giving 10 pounds of milk daily or less. DHIA records indicate that a cow producing 10 pounds in her tenth month will approach a 5,000 pound record in a 305 day lactation. Such animals, he says, just about break even and a cow which produces less than 10 pounds stands a more remote chance of being a profitable milker.

New Jobs for Texans

Texas industries have been providing new jobs for Texans at the rate of about 70,000 a year. That's about 200 new jobs every day.

All kinds of jobs . . . in offices, on construction work, in manufacturing plants, in the development of the natural resources of the State. Jobs for riggers, for secretaries, for engineers, for truck drivers, for accountants, for lawyers, for crane operators, for decorators, for sailors . . . all kinds of jobs.

And the reason why these new jobs have been, and continue to be available is this: Texas industry is expanding, and industry makes jobs.

On the average, each new job created in Texas requires the investment of $12,000 capital*. Thus, Texas industry invests over three-quarters of a billion dollars each year in new plants and in plant expansion to create 70,000 new Texas jobs.

Much of this annual investment in new jobs for

Chicken Philippine

In the South Seas they have a way with chicken, and no one who has ever tasted this savory dish can easily forget it. Straight from the tropical isles, comes this exotic chicken dish.

CHICKEN PHILIPPINE

2½ pounds chicken, cut for frying 1½ cups shredded coconut
Seasoned flour 2 pounds fresh spinach
1½ cups water or margarine 2 tablespoons finely
1½ teaspoon salt chopped onion
1 cup milk ½ teaspoon salt
1 cup water

Roll chicken in seasoned flour. Melt butter in heavy skillet; then fry chicken until lightly browned. Add 1 teaspoon salt and 1 cup water. Cover and simmer until chicken is tender (about 30 minutes).

Meanwhile, combine milk and coconut in a saucepan; bring to a boil. Remove from heat and let stand 5 minutes. Drain well; then simmer the milk 10 minutes.

Wash spinach and remove stems. Place spinach in a saucepan with onion, ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ cup water. Simmer 2 to 3 minutes. Drain. Add spinach and the hot milk to the chicken. Simmer 3 minutes longer. Serve chicken on bed of the spinach and sprinkle with ½ to ¾ cup of the drained coconut. Remaining coconut may be discarded, since most of the flavor has already been absorbed by the milk.) Makes 4 to 6 servings.

*Quick-frozen "frying" chicken, thawed, may be substituted for the fresh chicken.

LACK OF TIME KEPT FARMERS ON THE JOB

HOVEN, S. D.—When the Rev. A. C. Hembrecht arrived here in 1928 he found only a few board shacks and a dilapidated little board church.

The Catholic priest told friends in later years that "if there had been a train out of here that first night, I would have been on it." But Father Hembrecht stayed.

This spring he celebrates his 60th year as a priest and his 46th year in charge of the local parish. The 84-year-old priest now has charge of a Roman-style $250,000 Cathedral of the Prairies which towers over this prairie village.

Fish Are Bigger Down At The Old Fishing Hole

Many fishermen will travel hundreds of miles this year to their favorite fishing spots, but the farmer or rancher who owns a good pond can solve the travel problem without ever leaving home.

Stock tanks all over Texas soon will become mighty popular hangouts for the country type fisherman.

R. E. Callender, extension wildlife management specialist, says now's the time to give farm ponds a little attention so they'll be ready when the fish commence to bite within the next month or so. Remove all trash around the pond so the surroundings will be attractive to the family and friends.

Farm ponds can be fertilized the same as farm crops. And, the results are equally as promising. An increase in food supply increases the pounds of fish raised.

Callender recommends a pond treatment of 400 pounds of cotton seed meal plus 200 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate per acre of water per year. Make the first 800 pound treatment of this mixture early in March, he says. Broadcast the materials over the surface of the pond. Then, three subsequent applications of 100 pounds should be made at three to four week intervals.

In addition, 600 pounds of high grade commercial fertilizers applied similarly to the above recommendation may be substituted instead of the above treatment.

Callender says that properly treated ponds take on a green-brown color. He says a good test is to plunge the arm into the water up to the elbow. If the finger tips are visible through the water, make the next application.

The wildlife specialist says a program of farm pond management paves the way to ideal fishing at home and added summer recreation for family and friends not to mention the addition to the family menu.

There are over 4,000,000 records of births, deaths, marriages and divorces of New Hampshire residents on file at the state house in Concord. The records date back to 1692.

BONDED WAREHOUSE HOLDS ONE BARREL

FRANKFORT, Ky. — The smallest government-bonded whisky warehouse in the nation was dedicated recently at a Frankfort distillery, to hold just one barrel of bonded bourbon whisky.

This particular barrel happened to be the two millionth barrel of bourbon produced by the distillery since the repeal of prohibition. No other distillery has reached that mark.

The warehouse, built of Kentucky limestone, meets 30 pages of government specifications for a bonded warehouse, and is radiant heated to keep the barrel at an even temperature the year around.

Each barrel of whisky receives a government-stamped serial number before it is placed in a warehouse for aging, so there was no question about whether or not this one was actually number 2,000,000.

So sang the builders of our nation generations ago . . . in time of distress, of thanksgiving . . . with faith!

So sing the youth of America today . . . in spirit of reverence, of praise . . . with hope!

Between the America of yesterday and the America of tomorrow stands our generation. To us has fallen the duty to preserve the honor, the strength, the glory that is America.

So guided, we will have faith in God . . . faith in Ourselves . . . faith in Our Fellow Men . . . and faith in Freedom.

So guided, we will best serve America's destiny . . . and the world's

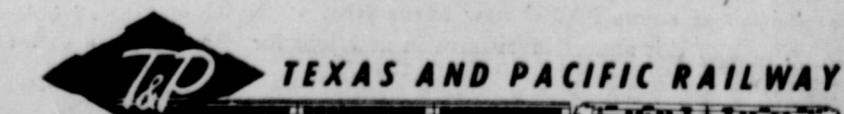

By looking to God, by seeking Him in His temple weekly . . . by dedicating ourselves to His teachings . . . we and our children will be filled with renewed and strengthened faith.

Thus may we ultimately achieve this glorious ideal — "on earth, Peace to all men of good will."

For Safe Vacation Try New York City

PORTLAND, Me. — A physician who has made an extensive study of accidents advised members of the Maine Medical Association, "If you want the safest possible vacation take it in August in New York City."

Dr. John H. Powers of Cooperstown, N. Y., explained that New York City has 53 per cent of the Empire State's population but only 40 per cent of the fatal accidents.

The physician said he suggests August for vacationing in New York City because that's the month when rural accidents are most numerous.

Built-In Sewing Cupboard Brings Order Out Of Chaos

cabinet can be converted into a compact sewing center. The table which has a recessed slot for the machine is hinged in the center so that it folds inside the cabinet. Spindles for spools of thread, compartments for patterns and shelves for material are all important features of this space-saving cabinet.

Outstanding convenience is the adjustable 150-watt ceiling flood-light which provides a four-foot circle of light on the table and machine. Placing the adjustable fixture in this position is important to help throw shadows away from the stitching area. This position also helps light the background for additional visual comfort.

The light above the machine could also have been an adjustable bullet type, mounted on the ceiling. It too would be positioned just as the recessed light is. Thirteen inches to the left of the needle and seven inches toward the user.

General Electric lighting specialists point out that this method of lighting can be applied only to machines that are located in a fixed position. For most comfortable results, it is also best to have your machine facing a lighted wall.

Rural Chairman's Red Cross ReportRanger Eagles Take Close Win

Four communities are way over the top in their quotas for the 1954 Red Cross fund campaign according to Mrs. Bill Tucker, rural chairman. They are, North Star, $45.31; Cheaney, $43.00; Shady Grove-Ward, $40.50; and Corinth, $26.00. Others meeting their quotas are Flatwood, $25.00 and Colony, $19.00.

A note of appreciation is due all community chairmen for a job well done whether their community is large or small. A few more communities have not sent in a final report, but the overall quota raised to date is $337.71.

Olden did not report in the drive but they have contributed cash and clothing and necessary shelter and comfort to a local family whose home was destroyed by fire during the drive in March.

The game ended with a score of 3-1 in favor of the Eagles.

Batters for the Eagles were Littlefield and Allen and for the Strawn team Merron and Morris.

Morris pitched the game for Strawn allowing only 5 hits and struck out 9 men.

The pitcher for the Eagles, Jack Allen, put three over to twelve men at the plate and allowed only two hits.

TWO POLICEMEN CARRY OLD HABIT TOO FAR

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. —

Two city policemen, Harold Stonewell, 29, and Urban Craft, 27, were fired for going too far with the policeman's age-old habit of helping themselves at the fruit vendor's stand.

Chief Vern Story said the two admitted taking two cases of strawberries, worth $9, from a Benton Harbor fruit market.

One Thing After Another—

... can and does happen in the insurance business. Changes come often and are necessary, for they are the very essence of progress and improvement. Rates, for example, are constantly changing because conditions upon which they are based are one thing today, another tomorrow. The so-called Deductible applicable to some coverages serves to keep rates in balance and lower. The $50.00 Deductible on windstorm and hail is an excellent buy if bought on time. But act now.
