TRIA AND HUNGARY IN RECORD NOW

By United Press
BUDAPEST, Hungary, Dec. 15.—A series of significant conversations between Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg and Premier Gyorgy Kallas of Hungary were held today with announcement that Hungary agrees to support the political independence of Austria.

An announcement by Baron Waldeneck, foreign minister of Austria and a member of the ruling party, was regarded as a sensational development in the maneuvering in Europe.

Hungary steadily refused to sign a declaration by Italy, France and Great Britain, guaranteeing the freedom of Austria.

Waldeneck's statement followed three days of conversations in the center of European politics, which recently has been intensified by Hungary's dispute with Yugoslavia over expulsion of Hungarians by the Belgrade government.

While contrary to Belgrade officials here said the expulsion of Hungarians from Yugoslavia in retaliation for alleged acts of terrorism, originating in Hungary, was continuing. Twenty expelled Hungarians arrived in Belgrade on the frontier this morning. They said they had been three hours to leave Horgos.

Approval? Just Matter of Form

Approval, of course, was just a matter of form when Anita Thompson, statuesque blond, shown here, went into Los Angeles court to get action on her film contract. She was so busy with her work that she didn't have time to change from her beach suit-slacks attire, but the judge looked over that.

SEVENTEEN IS TOLL OF SHIPS CREW IN STORM

ABOARD THE S. S. JEAN JADOT (By Radio to the United Press), Dec. 15.—A lifeboat upset by high waves in an oil-coated sea cost the lives of 17 sailors, most of whom choked on fuel oil, in the destruction of the British freighter Usurth by a storm in mid-Atlantic.

The Jean Jadot, standing by to take 26 men off the Usurth, rescued 11 survivors of the British freighter.

Huge waves which capsized a lifeboat from the Jean Jadot after several attempts to reach the Usurth, accounted for the most of the victims.

A radio message said that the Askania had nine survivors and the Jean Jadot two others.

Finland Is Only Nation to Pay Its War Debt On Time

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The United States collected a bare $228,538 out of $159,729,976 due today from 13 war debtors.

Finland alone paid, maintaining her perfect record. She arranged transfer of the $228,538 to the treasury's credit at the New York Federal Reserve bank.

The others sent only notes explaining why they could not pay. The latest revealed was from France. She expressed hope "the situation will develop sufficiently to justify in the near future" negotiations for a settlement acceptable to both parties.

Lorenzen Well at Caddo To Be Shot

CISCO, Dec. 15.—The Lorenzen well on the F. E. Clark ranch at Putnam, this week was plugged back for a 100-quart shot in the Caddo lime, second pay horizon, after penetrating the Ellenberger 250 feet to a depth of 4,183 feet.

This pay produced naturally between 25 and 50 barrels of oil and a quarter million feet of gas with a gasoline content of two and a half gallons to the 1,000 feet.

Missionary and Wife Publicly Hanged by Bandits

By United Press
SHANGHAI, Dec. 15.—John Stam, young American missionary, and his wife were executed publicly by Chinese bandits, it was reported to the China Island missions here today.

Details of the executions were lacking, missionary officials said. Meanwhile 10,000 government troops pressed westward into the interior of China to chase the bandits who kidnaped the Stams' daughter, Helen.

The child was found abandoned but safe at Wuhu, near the Tsingting mission station, which the bandits had pillaged after the Stams were executed.

EASTLAND COUNTY FARMERS VOTE AGAINST CONTROL ACT; STATE FARMERS VOTE FOR IT

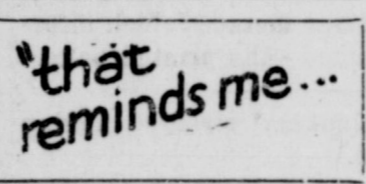

Farmers of Eastland county cast votes against continuance of the Bankhead cotton program Friday. Votes cast against the program led by a majority of 119. For the program 443 votes were cast against, and 324 voted for.

Only one box in the county indicated was in favor of the program and that at Rising Star. Seventy-nine voted against and 81 for.

O. W. Ewing, cotton adjustment assistant, stated that the vote was a little surprising. He stated that it was thought that the vote would be 50-50.

The vote was considered representative of farmers' views. Seven hundred and sixty-seven farmers cast votes. It was estimated in the county agents' office that there were about 2,000 cotton producers in the county.

The box vote: Eastland for 43, against 61; Ranger for 24, against 41; Cisco for 71, against 87; Rising Star for 81, against 79; Gorman for 60, against 108; and Carbon 45 for and 67 against.

Now comes the last lap before the grandest and most sacred day of the Christian world. During the coming seven days there will be great preparation in every phase of life to climax the day of the birth of Christ. To the busy masses the days will be measured in dollars and cents, buying gifts of every kind, and all thoughts turn to doing something worth while for the other fellow—be it the tiny baby or those whose declining years have brought them near the brink of the beyond, they will be remembered—if not with some gift remembrance, at least with a grateful smile. All of which goes to make for the Yuletide season. Of course there will be those who mean anything to them, because the money is not available to make it so. Yet after all that is the weakest excuse of all to be melancholy and discouraged. About the only thing that could possibly offset the idea is the possibility that some of those who were such would be because they couldn't do something worth while for someone else. That of course denotes the unselfish atmosphere of life, and is a beautiful sentiment of kindness and service. But just a token in words of esteem and kindness are worth more than all the king's treasures in the world that may be thrown at our feet.

Three Political Killings Reported In Trouble Zone

VIENNA, Dec. 15.—Three political killings were reported today from the provinces.

Then, Perhaps, A Wedding!

A star role and a big contract have taken Lillian Harvey out of the dumps she has been in lately. Furthermore, that new contract takes her to England and closer to her sweetheart, Willie Fritsch, so perhaps there'll be a wedding soon. Meantime, Lillian expresses her joy in this pose beside the pool in her expensive home grounds in Hollywood.

Teachers' Secretary May Be Ousted

FORT WORTH, Dec. 15.—It was believed here today that R. T. Ellis, veteran secretary of the Texas State Teachers association, had been ousted in a two-hour closed session of the executive committee at the association building here.

Ellis and reporters were required to retire shortly after the opening of the session this morning.

At the noon recess President C. N. Shaver said the association committee had voted to divulge none of the proceedings until the conclusion of the meeting today.

Oil Allowable May Be Raised

TWO AVENUES ARE OPEN FOR BUDGET PLAN

Many Witnesses Heard Before Recess Is Called To Get Its Bearings.

By United Press
AUSTIN, Dec. 15.—The senate tax research committee recessed today to get its bearings.

Two avenues to a balanced budget for the state government faced the committee after it heard scores of witnesses varying from captains of industry to farmers and a home demonstration agency.

The legislature may reach its goal of making the state income catch up with the expenditures.

1. By a sales tax or
2. Equalizing the present tax system and patching gaping leaks.

The tax research committee expects to recommend which way the state shall go by Jan. 8, when the 44th Texas legislature convenes in regular session. Hearings will be resumed Monday and will end Dec. 19.

Sales tax advocates probably will be frustrated by an antagonistic legislature and by Gov.-elect James Allred's promise to veto. A 2 per cent tax on retail sales has been suggested for the committee as the substitute to the state ad valorem tax, which now rests heavily on building and land owners. A sales tax would require every person to pay part of the cost of state government.

The ad valorem tax raised $20,560,000 in state revenue during the fiscal year ending Aug. 31, 1933. A 2 per cent sales tax would have raised about $19,311,220, based on retail sales totaling $965,561,000 during 1933 as reported by the United States department of commerce, the bureau of the census.

Retail sales in Texas dropped from more than $2,000,000,000 in 1929 to $965,561,000 in 1933. It was generally conceded the volume of sales is again upward and a sales tax will bring in more revenue than the ad valorem tax as now administered.

Sheriff Believes Born Was Slain

By United Press
TULSA, Okla., Dec. 15.—Sheriff Charles Price's belief that Sidney Born, Jr. was a murder victim rather than a suicide was supported today by an insurance company investigator.

Born was the second fatality in the "society gang" mystery here which brought murder charges against Philip Kennamer.

MORTON VALLEY SCHOOL OPENED WITH PROGRAM

Morton Valley's new $27,000 edifice was formally opened Friday evening at dedicatory services held in the institution's auditorium.

The principal address of the evening was made by Allen Dabney Sr., of Eastland. Other speakers were County Superintendent B. E. McGlamery, County Judge Clyde Garrett, Claiborne Eldridge and J. A. Beard, member county school board. Lewis Smith, superintendent and principal of the school, was master of ceremonies.

Piano music for the occasion was played by Mrs. Florence Davis, member of the school's teaching staff.

The school building of brick construction embodies many of the features of modern day construction methods. The auditorium will accommodate between 350 and 400 persons.

The school is now practically the best in the rural section of the county. County Superintendent B. E. McGlamery states.

Two hundred twenty-two students attend the school. Seven teachers are employed on the teaching staff.

A gymnasium will be constructed in the near future, the county superintendent says.

Police 'Muss Up' Suspects While Law Remains Lax

How far is a policeman entitled to go when he bumps into a man known to be a desperado, but whom the courts can never seem to touch?

Police Commissioner Valentine of New York has the idea that the cop can go just about as far as he likes. He complains that his police have been too polite to racketeers, gunmen, and such like, and he wants to see these gentlemen mussed up a little.

The commissioner expressed himself in this vein after watching a man named Harry Strauss brought into a police lineup at headquarters.

Strauss has been arrested 18 times in the last seven years, on charges ranging all the way from homicide to possessing narcotics. He has never been convicted of anything, however, and when he was pinched he gave his occupation as a house painter.

He came in dressed like a fashion-plate, and it was his sartorial magnificence that exasperated the commissioner.

"This man is a paid assassin," said the commissioner. "Men like him should be marked up and mussed up. Blood should be smeared all over that velvet collar. Instead, he looks as if he had just got out of a barber's chair."

Very few persons will quarrel with this idea, in itself. Unfortunately, when the police set out to muss people up, they aren't usually very discriminating.

For that reason, telling any police department to be brutal is a mistake. The brutality is certain to hit the wrong parties, sooner or later.

Nevertheless, we haven't answered the commissioner when we say his idea is dangerous. We must find some way of taking care of these outlaws who can be arrested 18 times and yet remain free to follow their own devices.

Something pretty shocking must be wrong with our criminal law and our method of administering it when a man can be accused three times of homicide, six times of carrying a gun, and nine times of felonies ranging from grand larceny to assault, without even so much as standing trial before a jury.

So long as such conditions obtain, the police are going to be brutal out of sheer exasperation. We can never abolish the third degree until we take a few of the kinks out

SOW MOTHERED CHICKENS

By United Press

BROADUS, Mont.—It's kind of a funny idea in the first place—that of a sow pig which mothers chickens. But then, George Rule has two sows. One mothered a flock of chickens when their mother died. The other goes berserk at the sight of chicken feathers, kills and eats them.

Letters for Santa Claus

Dear Santa: I hate to ask for anything. I haven't got anything to give you. Daddy said we get what we deserve in life. If you think I deserve it, bring me a train. I want a little boy's "doodle bug" kind, not a big one. Norris wants a truck and Jimmy wants a truck. Bring me a little wagon and I will give Norris and Jimmy part of it. Bring us all a new sweater just alike, and some candy. If you can't bring Norris and Jimmy anything don't bring me any. If you will do this I will do something nice for some little boy that don't get anything. Thank you. Farnis Hendricks, Eastland, Texas.

Large Onion Crop Planted In Valley

CARRIZO SPRINGS, Tex. — A larger onion acreage this year than last was predicted here as the work of transplanting the sets was well underway.

Most of the acreage increase this year will be on the large farms it was predicted, as many of the smaller farmers have had difficulty in financing their crop.

The plants are of good quality this season, farmers said, and those already in the ground are getting a good start.

Too Good to Be True

DANVERS, Mass.—It was too good to be true, so Edward S. Marshall notified police. Under his shop floor was a check for $1,000 made out to a Charles Ingraham of Danvers with the signature of another Ingraham. Marshall knew none by this name. He said, "No one owes me $1,000, and if they did probably wouldn't pay it."

Three Youths Vie For Scholarships

AUSTIN, Tex.—Arts, science, law and journalism departments are represented by University of Texas nominees for the 1935 Rhodes scholarship at Oxford University in England. Final state eliminations will be held at Waco in January.

Wickliffe Fisher of Austin is a second-year law student. William Malcolm Logan of Brownwood is a bachelor of arts. Charles Richard West, Jr., of Cisco is a graduate in journalism, and Gordon Worley of Austin holds a bachelor of science degree. West and Worley are assistants in their departments.

West is a varsity tennis player and Logan is a member of the university debate team. All are active in campus affairs.

From these and about 50 representatives of other Texas colleges, two will be chosen to be considered in the final elimination. The Rhodes scholarship will choose four from six southern states, Texas (Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas and Oklahoma). Each state is allowed two candidates for final consideration.

The four finally selected will go with 28 other American college youths to England where they will receive a three-year course at Oxford with 500 pounds per year for expenses. Final choice will be made at New Orleans January 7. State nominees are chosen January 3 or 5.

The University of Texas' last recipient was Wilson Elkins of San Antonio, football captain and Phi Beta Kappa scholar, who received the award in 1933.

Only the birth of the Dionne quintuplets, whose survival has made him famous amazed Dr. Allan R. At right, he emulates a native by trying out the subway strap hanging technique in a lurching train far below the city streets.

A Word From Henry Ford

We expect to announce our new 1935 cars, and have them in dealers' showrooms where you may see and examine them, on Saturday, December 29th. The cars are coming off the line now and distribution will soon commence.

I have never been very much in favor of the custom of yearly models. Good motor cars do not become obsolete simply because the calendar turns a leaf. Our former custom was to put improvements on our cars as soon as we developed and tested them, so that there was continuous refinement and progress. The custom of introducing new models annually is justified when they are really new, and not merely equipped with new talking points for the purposes of salesmanship.

Last year's Ford V-8 was a good car, the best we had built up to that time. We don't say to any customer with a last year's car that his car is out of date. If it is giving him service, and if he is not in the market for a new car, there is no reason for him to feel that he is behind the procession. He still drives the fundamentally latest thing in cars. The new car has all the qualities and advantages of last year's car, with something added.

The improvements we offer are not experimental in any sense; they were thoroughly tried out under every conceivable circumstance before we finally adopted them. That, in fact, is our job all the year 'round—refining, improving, making new balance of qualities, always adhering closely to our principle of continuous growth in the basic purpose of the Ford car.

The 1935 V-8 engine is practically the same engine we built in 1934, because we have not learned how to build a better one. It has, however, some refinements; amongst which are the copper-lead connecting rod bearings, and the new type of crankcase ventilation.

A WORD FROM HENRY FORD

We expect to announce our new 1935 cars, and have them in dealers' showrooms where you may see and examine them, on Saturday, December 29th. The cars are coming off the line now and distribution will soon commence.

I have never been very much in favor of the custom of yearly models. Good motor cars do not become obsolete simply because the calendar turns a leaf. Our former custom was to put improvements on our cars as soon as we developed and tested them, so that there was continuous refinement and progress. The custom of introducing new models annually is justified when they are really new, and not merely equipped with new talking points for the purposes of salesmanship.

Last year's Ford V-8 was a good car, the best we had built up to that time. We don't say to any customer with a last year's car that his car is out of date. If it is giving him service, and if he is not in the market for a new car, there is no reason for him to feel that he is behind the procession. He still drives the fundamentally latest thing in cars. The new car has all the qualities and advantages of last year's car, with something added.

The improvements we offer are not experimental in any sense; they were thoroughly tried out under every conceivable circumstance before we finally adopted them. That, in fact, is our job all the year 'round—refining, improving, making new balance of qualities, always adhering closely to our principle of continuous growth in the basic purpose of the Ford car.

The 1935 V-8 engine is practically the same engine we built in 1934, because we have not learned how to build a better one. It has, however, some refinements; amongst which are the copper-lead connecting rod bearings, and the new type of crankcase ventilation.

We have always had three fundamentals—Durability, Economy of operation and maintenance, and Comfort. Safety, of course, is taken for granted. The Durability is just what it always was; no one needs to be told at this late day that Fords are built to last. The Economy is even greater than before—an 8-cylinder engine with the economy of a four. As to Comfort, however, there has been a very considerable advance, as I think you will agree when you have tried the car out.

We built more than 20,000,000 cars previous to the V-8. We have built 1,300,000 V-8 cars. The V-8, we believe, is the proper engine for the low-price car field, which is our field.

This 1935 car will be on display December 29th, with all details ready for your information. It is entirely probable that the prices will start at lower levels than in 1934. We want them lower because we expect to build a million cars and better next year, and the price must be right. If the price is right, people will buy; men will go back to work; a thousand related businesses will feel the new impulse. At least, we are trying to make 1935 a busier, happier and more hopeful year.

Kingfish Amuses British Public

LONDON.—British public opinion is observing with considerable interest and amusement the political "reforms" of Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana.

The "Kingfish" is one of the best known among American politicians here, where news of his activities always is lengthily reported.

General consensus seems to be that "despite his buffoonery Long is an astute demagogue," as the News Chronicle wrote when the intention of the "Kingfish" to stand as a presidential candidate in 1936 recently was reported.

Although other metropolitan newspapers refrained from commenting on the news of his "absolute dictatorship" in Louisiana through the speedy passing of 44 bills, the liberal Manchester Guardian came out with a stinging editorial.

"Senator Huey P. Long, dictator, or 'kingfish'—in his own term of the state of Louisiana, is a demagogue with a sense of humor," it wrote. "He knows and uses all the tricks of the American political 'boss' without fear or scruple. No one can tell just how far he is a mere self-seeking politician, how far he really believes in his crude remedy for the present discontents.

"In a state where people take life easily he is a whirl of energy. In a country where public speaking tends to be pompous and funeral he is a vigorous and racy speaker. He has no dignity to lose. Long's measures might be challenger in the supreme court, on the ground that they are against the constitution; but then there is nothing to suggest that they are. Senator Long's presidential aspirations are not yet taken seriously. But 10 years ago no one ever thought to see him rule even Louisiana."

Muirhead Motor Co. Announces Four Lines of Cars

Muirhead Motor company announces four lines of motor cars by the Buick Motor company for 1935, covering the broad range from the low medium to the high medium price fields and offering the largest variety of body types in the history of the Buick organization.

The new cars, keyed to modern requirements of style, comfort and performance, are being displayed simultaneously throughout the United States in the showrooms of Buick dealers and distributors. With the factory in full production on the 1935 models, adequate stocks are now in dealers' hands and representative models of the complete line are on display. Dealers, consequently are able to make prompt deliveries.

For the first time, the Buick Motor company enters a new year with four distinct groups of automobiles, all similar in design and construction, varying only in details of dimension and price class. The extensive line gives price coverage of approximately 27 per cent of the entire automobile market, a condition expected greatly to increase Buick volume during the coming year.

The 1935 Buick cars consist of the following groups:

1. The new series 40 Buick on a 117-inch wheelbase, having a valve-in-head straight-eight engine developing 93 horsepower at 3200 revolutions per minute.

2. The series 50 Buick for 1935 is built on a 119-inch wheelbase chassis and is produced in five body types.

3. In still another price area, and one in which the company has dominated throughout its manufacturing history, is the Series 60 Buick, distinctly a fine car and a standard bearer of Buick quality.

Mechanical perfection is clothed in exceptional beauty of design in the new Buicks. The 1935 styling, which has been changed only in minor detail, is considered striking. It is based on the principle of modern streamlining, wind resistance being reduced to a minimum by means of narrow V-shaped radiators, sweeping valenced fenders, bullet shaped headlamps, slanting windshields and tapered anti-suction backs. No obstruction, except thinly tapered door handles, protrude from the car body to cause wind noises. Silent as the wind are the powerful Buick engines. Soft as air cushions are the perfectly balanced springs, which, with other exclusively Buick features, give the cars their "gliding ride."

See Those Beautiful Electric Lamps at Corner Drug Store

Refinements and changes in the 1935 Buicks have been executed mainly for the purpose of increasing passenger comfort and convenience. More room has been provided in one sedan model by redesigning the front seat. Extensive changes have been made in upholstery and interior trim, particularly in the lower priced groups. A new type of rubber engine mounting that more effectively insulates the engine from the frame is one detail of the engine's contribution to the pleasure of driving Buicks.

The four outstanding mechanical features that combine to produce the Buick "gliding ride" are retained in the 1935 cars. They are "knee action" wheels, balanced springing and weight distribution, the sway stabilizer and low pressure tires.

Independent front wheel suspension, pioneered in this country by Buick and now regarded as one of the most important recent advances in automotive engineering, has been tested in the proving ground of public use. The improvement in riding quality resulting from independent front wheel suspension is so pronounced as to render obsolete cars not sprung in this manner. Buick's knee action wheels likewise have brought attention to center point steering, a redesign of former steering gear assembly that adds greatly to the ease of steering and is an important safety factor.

By independently springing the front wheels of the car, Buick engineers were able to "soften" the springs to balance those of the rear wheels, thereby eliminating car pitch, one of the principal causes of riding fatigue. To accomplish this it was necessary to relieve the front springs of all work except that of springing the car, as Buick's torque tube drive has done for the rear springs. The result is a uniform up and down motion that gives the effect of gliding.

Body roll and side sway are eliminated in the new Buicks through the use of a sway stabilizer mounted across the frame near the rear cross member. This is a spring steel bar, the torsional action of which keeps the car body on even keel when rounding curves or when driving on highly crowned roads.

For the alert man, Eastland can boast of one of the best stocked exclusive men's shops in this section. Julius Krause, manager of the Men's shop, states that they have without question the most wonderful line of men's merchandise that they have ever handled since in business here. All high quality nationally advertised men's suits, overcoats, shirts, hose, and accessories are included in the stock. A feature of the entire stock is that everything is priced so reasonably low regardless of the high quality of the merchandise. Enro, Arrow and Van Housen shirts are included, Cheney cravats, as well as the new reversible ties, Enro silk pajamas in all colors, Bostonian, Fortune and Commonwealth footwear, as well as a beautiful line of remarkable fine fabric suits, in all the latest styles. The Men's Shop is really a worthwhile store for men to do their shopping and women will find just the gift for their husbands and friends, and courteous salespeople to wait on them and assist in their selections.

By independently springing the front wheels of the car, Buick engineers were able to "soften" the

It is, indeed, interesting to mingle with the evening sidewalk crowds which can always be found here, admiring the toys and the many gifts on display.
 Upon entering this store, it does not take one long to become saturated with the Christmas spirit. Massive colorful overhead decorations have been very appropriately placed. A glance around the ledges reveals a galaxy of toys of every description, with an ever-green tree on the center ledge, surrounded by dolls and other toys. Pretty booths with a large variety of gift items, from novelties to the most substantial wearing apparel are located throughout the entire store. Tables and shelves are all stacked high with new merchandise, conveniently arranged to facilitate the customer's selection. The attractiveness of all of this is well evidenced by the large crowds that are always present during store hours and it is understood that many people are taking advantage of this store's lay-away plan, which requires only a small deposit to hold the merchandise to suit the customer's convenience.

In commenting upon the matter, Manager Ferguson says: "It has by no means been a man's job to put our store into the condition you now find it. Each of my associates here have played their own particular part, in our endeavor to give to the public the very best in merchandise at the lowest possible price, in the most pleasing manner. We have endeavored to create within this store a cheery Christmas atmosphere and we want every man, woman and child to feel perfectly at home when they come to see us."

Fashion Claimed As Place to Buy Women's Presents
 The Fashion Store, says co-proprietor Mrs. Dave Wolf, is the spot to visit when shopping for young ladies' and women's gifts.

Clothes for any form of social entertainment down to a house dress is in stock at the Fashion, it was said. Furs that look expensive and yet are not too high priced for the average woman are among the big line of women's apparel found, they say.
 If a woman were to choose her own gift, her path would lead to the Fashion, it was hinted to the considerate male gift purchaser.

Shoppers Likely to Visit Penney Store
 J. C. Penney's in Eastland and its manager, G. W. Hipp, are expecting a big play from shoppers this year. Past years have indicated that it is one of the most avored centers during the Christmas season.

 That fact, coupled with a better economic situation prevailing over Eastland and a better spirit generally, are reasons for the expectation.

Economy Store Said To Be Bargain Spot
 Carl Johnson, manager of the local Economy store, has announced that in the store are displayed unusual clothing at reasonable prices that will make worthwhile Christmas gifts.

Though Christmas shopping for many is generally considered an arduous task, the case is said to differ if one picks the Economy as their purchasing headquarters.
 The Economy store is noted for the friendly spirit weaved by the employees. The manager, Carl Johnson, is said to know every resident of the rural communities in the county, chiefly because he takes it upon himself to meet all Christmas gifts, say Economy employees, that are useful and afford satisfaction to persons, can be found at the business. Only local persons are employed at the Economy.

Korner Store is Called St. Nick's Drug Headquarters
 Apparently, judging from appearance, Santa has designated F. M. Kenny's store as the drug headquarters for Santa.

It is said that the most elaborate displays of the Yuletide season are found at the Korner Drug. Toiletries such as Houbigant's, Coty's and other well known brands are on display at the store.
 Attractive Christmas wrappings adorn the articles that will be suitable for gifts.
 Kenny believes Eastland residents will have no need to leave town to find articles in the drug line. He believes, as he says others will find, the line of Christmas gifts carried this year is the largest in the store's history.

"KENTUCKY KERNELS" NEW COMEDY HIT WITH WHEELER & WOOLSEY
 Laid in a realm where fierce feuds are as common as mammy songs, "Kentucky Kernels" brings Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey to the Lyric theatre in their newest comedy hit.

The popular pair are seen as two vaudeville magicians who become involved in a family feud when their ward inherits a vast Southern estate. Thus Wheeler and Woolsey inadvertently step into a busy feud with an opposing clan. When Wheeler falls in love with the daughter of the hostile leader of the enemy, Woolsey attempts to reconcile the foe. Then hilarious events are said to pyramid into a side-splitting climax.
 Mary Carlisle, one of the up-and-coming younger stars, appears with the comedy team as the pretty daughter of the enemy clan, portrayed by Noah Beery. "Spanky" McFarland, bright child actor, plays the orphan.
 "Kentucky Kernels" introduces the catchy "One Little Kiss," which serves as a background for a garden dance by a galaxy of beautiful girls, and as a vocal number for Wheeler, Woolsey, Miss Carlisle and Beery. The melody is by Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby, who are also credited with the story and screenplay.

TEXAS MOHAIR MARKET LIVELY

By United Press
SAN ANTONIO. — The West Texas mohair market, stagnant for 14 months, opened up when 600,000 pounds were sold in Uvalde recently. The lot was sold to Collins & Aikman of Bristol, R. I. It brought 20 cents a pound for homair and 30 cents for kid hair.

DUAL ROMANCE THEME OF RAFT FILM AT THE LYRIC

A gripping, melodramatic tale, set in the eerie confines of London's world famous Chinatown, Paramount's "Limehouse Blues" brings George Raft back to the screen with two leading ladies: the beautiful Chinese Anna May Wong and demure Jean Parker. The picture is playing at the Lyric theatre Sunday.

It is a tale of tangled threads of love and devotion, set against a background of smuggling, oriental luxury and strife between the underworld and the police.

The film presents Raft as Harry Young, who, under the disguise of a respectable cafe owner, has become king of the notorious London underworld.

He has a tender devotion for Jean Parker, a Limehouse waif, who he is protecting, but she arouses the jealousy of Anna May Wong, who is devoted to Raft.

When Jean Parker falls in love with Kent Taylor, and out of devotion to Raft attempts to suppress that love, Anna May Wong reveals her secret to Raft.

Raft, blinded by jealousy, lays careful plans to do away with Kent. But at the last moment he discovers that the happiness of the girl he loves means more than even her returning his love.

Defying a trap which the London "bobbies" have set for him, Raft races to right his almost fatal error and in the close of the picture, after a gripping climax, the lovers are happily reunited.

Montagu Love is prominently cast in a supporting role of "Limehouse Blues." Alexander Hall, director of the smash success "Little Miss Marker," directed the film.

"MUSIC IN THE AIR" OFFERS VIVID SCENE

With a score contributed by that master of light music, Jerome Kern, and that brilliant lyricist Oscar Hammerstein II, the new Fox Film spectacle, "Music in the Air," starring Gloria Swanson, John Boles, Douglas Montgomery and June Lang, will begin an engagement at the Lyric theatre Monday.

"Music in the Air" ran for a year on Broadway. Now, as an Erich Pommer production for Fox Film, it is rated by preview critics as one of the outstanding musical pictures of years.

Its star-studded cast has rated superlatives from everyone who has viewed the film, for in addition to such stellar names as those of Gloria Swanson and June Lang, the company includes Al Shean, Reginald Owen, Joseph Cawthron, Hobart Bosworth and Jed Prouty.

Joe May, celebrated German director, was imported to Hollywood by Producer Erich Pommer to handle the production. To judge from advance accounts, he has made of it a glamorous and colorful narrative. The story, adapted from Oscar Hammerstein's libretto, is a consistent and convincing one—with tears as well as laughs woven into its texture.

From this story, a trio of screen writers has evolved a noteworthy vehicle for the talents of both stars and director. Blended with its episodes are such magnificent tunes as "I've Told Every Little Star," "The Song is You," "One More Dance," "There's a Hill Beyond a Hill" and "We Belong Together."

The action of "Music in the Air" is laid in the Bavarian Alps and in Munich. Jack Donohue, brilliant young dance director, has staged what are described as enchanting dance routines for several scenes in the film.

The screen play was written by Robert Liebmann, Howard I. Young and Billie Wilder. William Darling designed the settings.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER CHURCH

Mass on Sunday will be at 8 a. m., by Rev. Joseph Fernandez.

Sunday will be the third Sunday in Advent. The epistle is from the Philippians 4:4-7; the Gospel is from St. John 1:19-28. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of next week are days of fast and abstinence because it is Ember Week.

The pagans thanked their gods at certain times during the four seasons of the year for the blessings of good harvest, vintage, seedling. The church christianized these customs and hence we save the Ember days of fast, abstinence to thank God for His blessings.
