RICHBERG NOW MAN OF POWER IN RECOVERY

Clay Williams Is Chairman of National Industrial Recovery Board.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt today swung administration shock troops toward a vital test under a new general staff ordered to coordinate emergency police and rescue NRA.

Clay Williams today was named chairman of the National Industrial recovery board, the new organization created to take over Hugh S. Johnson's duties.

The president set up a commission government for the NRA and created a super-recovery board to direct NRA policies and unify the entire new deal.

Donald R. Richberg, as chairman of the industrial emergency committee, emerged as a figure of importance, second only to the president.

Two executive orders presented the start of the reorganization. The president's objective was seen as coordination of new deal agencies and revamping of the NRA so that it would once again carry its full burden in the fight against the depression.

Mr. Roosevelt named two committees. The industrial emergency committee was directed by the president to direct and coordinate "problems of relief, public works, labor disputes and industrial recovery, together with allied problems of agricultural recovery."

The second committee will have charge of the actual routine of administering the NRA. Its work will be similar to that of the committee of deputy administrators which has been in technical charge of the recovery unit for considerable periods since last June, in the absence of Johnson.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Donald R. Richberg, 53-year-old lawyer, emerged today from the shakout of the new deal as an untitled but actual president of the United States.

Mr. Roosevelt scarcely would concede that there is an assistant president. Richberg would deny it. But here are his responsibilities:

- 1—Director of the industrial emergency committee, reorganized last night.
2—Executive secretary of the executive council.
3—Executive director of the national emergency council.
4—General counsel (on leave) of NRA.

His pal, Glenn Hunsucker, was the actual slayer, he said. Hunsucker was killed in a battle with New Mexico officers.

Program Helped to Make Fair Success, Letter to Davis Says

Eastland's program presented by merchants at the Rising Star fair did much to make the affair a big success, a letter to H. C. Davis, secretary of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce from the mayor and chairman of the Rising Star fair said.

"We are writing you to thank you on behalf of our city and our free fall fair association for your stirring band organization Friday night.

"You helped us in a big way to put over our fair and the entertainment was unusual and much appreciated by the audience, and we are under much obligation to you for your co-operation.

- "Signed: W. E. Tyler, Mayor of Rising Star, and E. C. Wilcox, Chairman of Rising Star Free Fall Fair."

Fort Worth School Children Revolt at Cafeteria Meals

FORT WORTH, Sept. 28.—Said high school students to the school cafeteria authorities today: "Your food's too high, and besides it's not so good. We are going out-side." And that is what they did. At W. C. Stripling High school, students, including members of the football squad, brought canned food from home and opened it on cafeteria tables. They merrily spurned the school bill of fare.

COMMUNITIES RESPONSIBLE FOR RELIEF

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The primary responsibility for community relief needs rests on the community itself, President Roosevelt said today in an address before representatives at the mobilization for human needs.

In reiterating this well defined policy the president explained that "no thinking or experienced person insists today that the responsibility of the community shall be eliminated by passing on this great and humane task to any central body at the seat of federal government.

"You and I know that it has been with reluctance and only because we have realized the imperative need for additional help that the federal government had been compelled to undertake the task of supplementing the normal methods in use many generations."

SEYMOUR, Texas, Sept. 28.—A district court jury here today found Miss Ruby Britain, 39, guilty of murder in the fatal shooting of Horace E. Nichols, 38, prominent Seymour banker.

The verdict fixed punishment at 12 years imprisonment. The defense motion for a new trial was overruled and the defendant was released under $10,000 appeal bond.

The verdict was reached at 11 o'clock last night, but was not opened until court convened today.

Miss Britain, prominent in Seymour society, exhibited no emotion as the verdict was read. Her attorneys went through the procedure preliminary to appeal.

The jury's decision came at the end of a four-day trial in which state witnesses brought out that Miss Britain shot Nichols as he sat parked on a country road with an 18-year-old girl the night of Aug. 15.

Witnesses Are Rounded Up In Hauptmann Case

BOLTER MOVEMENT NOT SEEN

While the bolter movement has not shown itself so far, democrats were quick to find out of the little-noticed republican state convention the other day, the republican state platform adopted in exact words two important campaign planks of the late Candidate Tom F. Hunter.

One of these planks was to abolish the poll tax, and throw the bars down. The other was to abolish all state ad valorem taxes—a measure in the interests of big property owners, since the little fellows already have been taken care of.

By contrast, the democratic platform declared against abolishing the ad valorem taxes. Its policy is that those owning property should pay some of the government's cost of preserving and protecting that property for their enjoyment.

This republican platform, if there is to be a bolter movement, is the keynote and signal for it. It at least is a friendly overture, a gesture of aid and comfort to the defeated and disgruntled; a gesture toward that excessive liberalism that Texas democrats repudiated at the polls and in convention.

There were many losers and one winner in the democratic party. Democrats will be alert to see if the usual defeatist-bolter movement develops, and if so, from what quarter it is instigated.

REPUBLICANS MAY CAMPAIGN

Whether the customary election-year coalition of independents and republicans will try the usual fight against the democratic nominee for governor of Texas will be disclosed within the next few weeks.

Absence of such a move would be more surprising than its customary recurrence. So far, the demoralized and almost inert republican forces in Texas have shown no public disposition other than to follow their Nominee Waggoner to a nominal 50,000 votes in November.

So far, the losers in democratic primaries have made no overtures, discernible to the public eye, towards leading a bolter movement in November. There have been soreheads many times before; bolters rebelling from the nomination of the Fergusons; and bolters leaving the party under the inspiration of Ferguson's magic words.

The soreheads have lost unanimously and regularly in state contests, even when the republicans had such a fine, outstanding leader as Dr. George C. Butte.

In many cities cyclists on the streets are a source of danger to motorists and pedestrians. Some of them seem to think that signals and stop signs are not meant for them to obey.

Troupe Defies Law Of Gravitation

The Jordan troupe of acrobats, said to be the most remarkable troupe of its kind ever presented, will be seen this season with Tom Mix Wild West and Sam B. Dill's circus combined which is scheduled to give two performances in Eastland, Saturday, Sept. 12, at the Conlee race track.

From the dizzy heights of the big-top the Jordans (seven in number) perform feats of balancing that actually seem to defy all laws of gravitation.

Among the other feature acts with the big show this year will be with acts of international reputation as the Flying Arbos with Jimmy Arbo in a double somersault and side twist at the same time; Miss Irma Ward, winner of the Lillian Lett medal and diamond-studded belt which denotes world supremacy on the high trap and zupan rings; Buddy, world's most intelligent sea lion; Sahara, largest performing pachyderm; Ethel Harris, aerialist supreme; Capt. Marion Graves and his Darwinites performers and a host of other equally prominent acts of fame.

Tom Mix, the distinguished film star, a total of millions throughout the world, will appear and perform in person at every performance of the main show.

MCLENNAN COUNTY FARMERS WILL GET $1,700,000 FROM COTTON

WACO, Tex.—McLennan county farmers will have been paid a total of $1,700,000 when total cotton checks from the government are in, according to County Agricultural Agent R. S. Miller. This total represents the amounts received from both the plow-up program of last year and the payments under the Bankhead law of the current season.

The government cattle buying program has placed an aggregate of $140,000 in the pockets of McLennan county farmers. Miller stated, a total of 14,000 head of cattle having been sold by 1,200 farmers of the county.

ENTER THE HERO

In Paramount's "You Belong to Me," which comes Saturday to the Lyric Theatre, Lee Tracy plays the role of a genial and sympathetic second-rate vaudeville comic, but as you can see from the looks in the eyes of Helen Mack and six-year-old David Holt in the photo above, he's something of a hero to these people who love him for his true worth. Helen Morgan, Lynne Overman and Arthur Pierson appear in the supporting cast of "You Belong to Me" which was directed by Alfred Werker, director of "House of Rothschild."

Soldiering With The Fifth Cavalry As Described By One From Eastland

Edith's note: (The following is a description of every day routine of soldiers in the Fifth Cavalry at Fort Clark and comments on same by Roy D. Horn who with Zack Meek represent Eastland in the camp.)

By Roy D. HORN, Private 5th Cavalry, U. S. Army, Fort Clark, Texas

Perhaps the most regrettable moment of every soldier's career is when he is brought back from his dream with the old folks at some well among the many familiar scenes down on the old farm, or with his best girl in the old home town, by the clear blasting notes of the bugle, "First Call for Reveille!"—The lights immediately come on in the barracks and the white still improving thoughts are racing back and forth through his semi-conscious mind as he is finally brought back to earth by the loud gruff voice of the Sergeant in charge of quarters. "On yer feet, with full uniform, boots laced—outside for Reveille Roll Call, make it snappy!"

After Reveille and Reveille Roll Call comes "Mess Call" and that (together with "Pay Call") is one call that all good soldiers endeavor to answer—then policing quarters and tidying up of bunks. Mounted drill at 7:30 and usually last until 1:30 a. m., which consists of problems in warfare, extended and close formation drill or cross-country hikes and pistol charges. After chow the First Sergeant makes up the detail for the next 24 hours, which outlines the duties for the next 24 hours. Detailing of new guards, K. P.'s and regimental fatigue work, etc. Wednesday, Saturday evening, all holidays and pay days are off days for soldiers; however in the event that someone has violated some regulation or made some military blunder, knowingly or unknowingly, he is likely to find his name on these days detailed to extra duty.

Full pack is one of the most dreaded inspection in the Cavalry. This inspection is mounted with full pack, consisting of shelter half, rain coat and saddle bags, properly placed. The Regimental Commander and his staff inspect all the articles that compose a mounted full pack, together with personal appearance, saddle and mount, and we be to the trooper who fails to shine his buttons, saddle, boots or various and sundry other things that are included in this inspection.

After "Retreat" at 5:00 p. m., the trooper is free to go where he may (unless on guard or extra duty), until the dreaded "First Call for Reveille" the next morning.

The Fifth Cavalry is of the old school and to date has not been modern motorized. Information from the war department is to the effect that it will be partially motorized in the near future, but it occurs to this writer, that whatever may be the progress of the motor and armored vehicles, whose use is also based on mobility and speed, cavalry keeps its whole value, because it fears neither the vexatious breakdown nor the lack of oil and gasoline.

The tendency is more and more towards the mechanization of cavalry. This does not mean that the role of cavalry as a mounted arm is diminished—far from it. It is evident that the speed and mobility of mounted troops will still play a very important role in the war operations of the future and that the cavalry must be able to displace itself on horseback fast and far.

The "Precepts of a Soldier" made familiar to the Army by that valiant officer, Major General R. P. Davis, and which are impressed upon the minds of all recruits enlisting in the 5th Cavalry, and which if adhered to by all soldiers, the Army would be one of the finest organizations in the world.

DRAMA OF "THE MAN WITH TWO FACES" AT LYRIC THEATRE SUN.

"The Man With Two Faces," a First National melodramatic murder mystery thriller opens at the Lyric theatre Sunday with Edward G. Robinson in the stellar role.

The picture is based on the stage play by George S. Kaufman and Alexander Woolcott, which was one of the hits of Broadway in the past season. It is said to be one of the most baffling mysteries ever presented, with a strange and unusual denouement.

The story deals with a theatrical family, the identity of which are several brilliant players. In addition to the mystery angle the picture takes the spectators behind the wings, giving them a peep into the private lives of the folks of the stage. It also carries a strong romantic angle.

The mystery evolves about the strange murder of the husband of a brilliant actress, a man of evil mind and with a hypnotic influence over his wife. There are several suspects, including the wife herself, as well as her lover, and brother.

Mr. Robinson, the star, is supported by an unusually large and talented cast. Miss Astor has the leading feminine role opposite him, while Ricardo Cortez plays the heroic role of Miss Astor's lover. Louis Calhern is the diabolical husband who comes to an untimely end while Mae Clarke has an important part as an actress in the play which is the background for the drama.

Other important players include Arthur Byron, John Eldredge, Da-

Texas Farmers are Making Payments On Production Loans

Texas farmers are making an excellent record in paying their production credit crop loans when due, according to Tully C. Garner, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston. In spite of drought and, in many cases, poor crops there is every indication that most of the loans made to Texas farmers will be paid when their crops are sold this fall.

For example, in a report received from the Austin Production Credit Association H. H. Onstot, secretary-treasurer, says:

"At this early date, (September 15) 75 per cent of the total amount of our crop loans are paid. More than 50 per cent of our crop loan borrowers have paid their loans in full. About 35 per cent of our unpaid balances are covered with ginned cotton which will be sold within the next few days. There are only 14 of our borrowers who have made no payment and most of these have enough cotton picked but unsold to pay their loans.

"Our borrowers seem well pleased with the handling of our loans this year and with very few exceptions, they will be borrowers next year. Some of our crop loans are being paid from the sale of cotton allotment tickets where practically no crop at all was made. The morale among our borrowers is excellent and we ex-

Nerves

Do they torture you by day? Keep you awake at night? What is it that keeps hospitals open and doctors busy? NERVES.

Nerves

Do they make you Cranky, Blue-give you Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache? When nerves are over-taxed, you worry over trifles, find it hard to concentrate, can't sit still.

Nerves

Do they interfere with your work; ruin your pleasure; drive away your friends? You're cheating yourself and the man who pays you if you work when your NERVES are not normal.

PICTURES OF SILVER By BEULAH K. HICKS

Review: God In Hebrew History

From Ahijah to Isaiah This study of ancient leaders or prophets under divine guidance has been a series of pictures of God's love and grace and also of His wrath on His disobedient children.

These lessons are taken from seven books: 1 Kings; 2 Kings; 2 Chronicles, Amos, Hosea, Micah and Isaiah. We are promised that the lessons next year will be taken from Isaiah through Malachi, finishing a wonderful course in old Bible study.

Ahijah was a very dramatic prophet, tearing his garment into twelve pieces to teach Jeroboam the lesson of the twelve tribes. Here God promises judgment on rebellious people, but warns Jeroboam to be patient with Solomon.

PREACHING AT OAKLEY Rev. Ephraim D. Conway will preach at the close of the Sunday school hour at the Oakley school house, on Sunday afternoon.

BRING BING TO YOU

When Bing Crosby and Kitty Carlisle lifted their voices in melody for this scene of Paramount's "She Loves Me Not," coming Monday to the Lyric Theatre, the scene was aswarm with 23 studio workers. They were all there to assure the perfect recording of "Love in Bloom," the Ringer-Rubin hit, and the two Gordon and Revel songs which are featured in this picture.

Thursday Afternoon Club Opens New Season

The Thursday Afternoon club opened their present year of study in an original and charming way entertaining with a breakfast Thursday in community clubhouse, honoring Mrs. F. M. Kenny, president.

The program committee, Meses. W. B. Pickens, A. H. Johnson and E. R. Stanford, with Mrs. Kenny, received the club members. The clubhouse was decorated in Texas wild flowers, Texas and national silk flags, and the foursome breakfast tables patterned in sunflower design, centered with bud bases filled with small sunflowers.

The year-books bore name of each club member and were used as place cards. Mrs. W. B. Pickens opened the breakfast with a brief greeting and introduced the toastmistress, Mrs. A. H. Johnson.

The club sang "America," followed by the club song, before being seated. Tomato juice cocktails were served prior to the breakfast of fried chicken, French toast, baked pineapple, with fig topping, and coffee.

Mrs. W. S. Poe offered a toast to "Loyalty," and a greeting to the president, Mrs. Kenny, who responded graciously.

Mrs. W. B. Colitt, legislature chairman, toasted the women as voters and called attention to laws coming up. Mrs. E. Roy Townsend gave a pleasing toast to the officers, all of whom were asked to stand and were applauded.

Mrs. Ray Larner in a charming talk toasted the presiding officer, and Mrs. J. M. Perkins, sixth district president, responded to the district toast.

Mrs. Grady Pipkin sang De Koven's "Winters Lullaby," with Mrs. Perkins at piano.

Mrs. Pickens summarized the duties of officers and explained the various points of the year-book, regarding assigned roll call response, etc., and Mrs. Kenny concluded with a charge to the standing committees and their duties. Mrs. Pickens, year-book chairman, and the toastmistress, Mrs. Johnson, closed the program.

Announcement was made of the open meeting of the Civic league, on Wednesday, Oct. 10, 3 p. m., in community clubhouse, and an invitation extended the club personnel to attend.

The theme, "Texas a Great Open Door," had several subjects condensed in talks as several on program, were unable to attend on account of the funeral services held that afternoon for the late Mr. Hearn, father of A. H. Hearn.

Rebekah Lodge Plans For Association

The Rebekah lodge held an intensive business session Wednesday night conducted by their noble grand, Mrs. George R. Pate.

The time was devoted to rounding up preparations for the coming hosting of the Eastland County association, Mrs. W. C. Marlow, president, and which convenes all day and evening Oct. 4, in this city, at I. O. O. F. hall.

SHOOTING THE MAVERICK

Many Eastland fans tonight will have the opportunity of seeing the Mavericks in action for the first time. The San Angelo game was a little distant for many and its falling on Friday night proved a barrier to many who otherwise would have gone.

Little has been heard from Stephenville Yellow Jackets whom Eastland meets tonight. The game from reports hot off the Maverick camp, will be one in which fans' eyes will be trained up in the atmosphere by aerial play of the Eastland group.

The Eastland coterie will be out for the game practically en masse tonight. Band, pep squad and fans. Enough interested plenty one would say on the part of Maverick supporters.

A former Eastland resident, Maverick observer, and still to some extent from his present site, Bill Mayes, said Thursday, to-wit: "Eastland, we understand is mildly excited over the fact the Mavericks defeated San Angelo last week, and when the Mavericks get excited over football they can be as tough as tough. They have some fast-running backfield men, whom some of the Bulldogs remember from last year and a good line, as far as we can learn, and might go places at that. They are rated to be one of the candidates for dark horse honors."

Former gridiron football players of Eastland have dedicated their ability to be one of the participants against Cisco and have Eastland win. Cisco for many years, they have tromped Eastland, consistently and relentlessly. There is, many say, a psychological reason for their defeat. To win against Cisco wasn't meant to be, it seems if the old school thought. The players were awe stricken by Cisco each year, it has appeared.

A former Maverick said this week that chances of defeating Cisco was more likely this year than ever. There is a new group on the team now. Cisco means nothing more than just another Oil Belt aggregation. Cisco may this year see for the first time, in at least a decade, their boys go down in defeat.

That Reminds Me

ready and willing at any time to get into the saddle for any of them to help them put things over in their respective communities that will enhance the livelihood of its people. Eastland needs its neighbors every day of the year, and they likewise need Eastland. No community can build a fence around it and shut out the good will of its neighbors and get very far.

Rising Star has been ahead of Eastland in many things—for instance Rising Star has a good sound bank. Eastland hasn't had one in over three years. If the good natured editorialist of Rising Star had been pouring it on Eastland for not having a financial background he would have been driving home some of those things that folks don't like but have to take whether they like it or not and admit that they were sorely lacking in the manner of doing something about it. That kind of criticism usually makes folks mad enough to do something about it and after it is over shake the hand of the fellow that caused all the rumpus.

Eastland is going to have a bank in the near future somehow, and when the word goes out that such has come to pass we want Rising Star to come up with bells on an ahlep us celebrate the occasion and above all Eastland will not be found wanting in being host to the good people of that fine community. With this we pay our respects to the editorialist and close with the good wishes for all and "we're not mad at anybody."
