After Eastland's score made, Stephenville's first initial score came by way of Captain Lowell Wood who received a pass to clear over the line. Stephenville's kick failed.

WOMAN NOW QUESTIONED IN KIDNAP PROBE

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Lindbergh kidnap investigators, arranging to question another woman purported to have talked hysterically of "kidnaping and murder" advanced so rapidly today that it was announced the trial of Bruno Hauptmann on extortion charges might begin about October 10.

District Attorney Samuel Foley's announcement of progress came before it was disclosed a woman known as "Mary" would be questioned at Mr. Foley's office, probably today, in connection with reports that she acted and talked strangely after Hauptmann's arrest.

The woman, who is not under suspicion, according to officials, will be questioned on the basis as many other persons in the hope she may be able to offer new information in the case.

Bitterly he referred to real estate speculators who have retarded the government's $150,000,000 housing and slum clearance program.

LUBBOCK IS WINNER OVER RANGER 27-14

The Ranger Bulldogs, for the fourth consecutive year, traveled into the Panhandle country, and for the fourth consecutive time they put up a good game, but were defeated, this time by the Lubbock Westerners.

The game was closer than the 27 to 14 score indicated, because Ranger came from behind twice to take the lead in the see-saw game, but in the last quarter they failed in their attempt to even the score and the Westerners got the breaks to account for their touchdown after Ranger had lost the ball on a fumble on the one-yard line.

Lubbock scored easily early in the game, taking the first kickoff and advancing it on one first down after another to the five-yard line, where the Bulldogs held. A fumble on the 17-yard line gave Lubbock the ball and they converted for a touchdown when Morris White stepped over the goal line.

In the second quarter a short pass from Anderson to Britt was completed and Britt raced across the goal line. Anderson kicked goal for the extra point and Ranger too a 7 to 6 lead.

Just before the half ended the Westerners scored again when two passes were completed, the first from Hill to Calhoun for 21 yards and the second from Hill to White for 14 yards and a touchdown. Aycok kicked the goal.

In the third quarter Ranger took the kickoff and marched almost the length of the field to score. Anderson plunging across for the marker and kicking goal to put the Rangerites one point in the lead for the second time in the game.

Lubbock almost immediately took the lead again when they recovered a fumble on the 30-yard line and passed twice to White, who went over for the score, while Aycok converted for the extra point.

Panor failed to score after getting the ball on the one-yard line when a bad passback got away from Anderson and Lubbock recovered, and another fumble paved the way for the last score, with Lubbock recovering near midfield and Hill racing the last 10 yards to score. Aycok again kicked goal for the final score.

Starting lineup: Ranger—Payton and Jacoby, ends; Donoho and Love, tackles; Carroway and Warden, guards; Bunton, center; Captain Anderson, quarter; Walsh and Agnew, halfbacks; Britt, full.

Lubbock—Griggs and Whitehorn, ends; D. White and Dowell, tackles; Phillips and Aycok, guards; (Captain) Young, center; M. White, quarter; Calhoun and Hill, halfbacks; Barnes, full.

A BEER PARTY REPORT BRINGS OUT CRITICISM

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 29.—A board of temperance reports that Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt "set an example" for America's youth with a hilarious beer party at the White House, created a controversy today at the Methodist conference.

After an hour of bitter debate, during which time the White House issued a denial of the report, the conference rejected the board's findings, and several delegates criticized the board chairman, Rev. L. L. Hand.

Rev. Hand read the report: "How it hurts the whole make-up of a true citizenry," the statement read, "to read in bold headlines 'beer floods White House,' and then to read 'the White House gave a Christmas dance for the younger members of the Roosevelt family. The stately front hall was piled with kegs of beer as the dancers drank to gaiety of the Rooseveltian beverage.'"

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The White House party characterized by the New Jersey Methodist board of temperance as a beer party, was actually sedate and formal, according to one who was present.

"There were two kegs of beer, the unsightly portion covered with napkins," the eye witnesses of the young people's dance said.

Cotton Checks Kept Workers Up Late

Preparation of cotton certificates which were initially distributed Friday morning caused work until 2:30 Friday morning by the workers in the Bankhead administration office in Eastland.

The certificates Friday morning were distributed at Rising Star, Carbon and Eastland. In the afternoon they were distributed at Cisco, Gorman and Ranger.

DALLAS TO ENTERTAIN

DALLAS.—The American Petroleum Institute will hold its annual convention here Nov. 12 to 15. More than 1,500 of the 5,000 delegates expected have made hotel reservations. R. B. Whitehead, chairman of the reservations committee, said indications were the 1934 meeting would be the largest in the institute's history.

RELIEF PLAN WILL BE THE MAIN TOPIC

Will Be Fifth Session and Fourth Special Session of Legislators.

AUSTIN, Sept. 29.—Texas legislators will be in session again by October 8 to launch a $100,000,000 unemployment relief program, it appeared certain tonight. It will be the 43rd legislature's fifth session and its fourth especially for relief.

A call for its assembly awaited further reports to Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson from lawmakers. She sent home Wednesday with word to "sound out" sentiment on relief legislation.

The governor is dissatisfied with relief for winter made by a legislative session ended this week.

In contrast with the contemplated $100,000,000 relief campaign, legislators issued $6,000,000 relief bonds, budgeted to a million a month for three months and $1,500,000 for the next two months.

The governor approved a simplified relief setup enacted, but vetoed its resolution attacking federal relief regulations.

"We either must go along with the federal government and be nice, or get along alone," she said.

Most of the proposed $100,000,000 relief fund will be sought from federal sources. PWA loans and grants are to be asked if the legislature agrees.

Biggest of the projects is to harness the Brazos river with 13 dams.

It is a combined irrigation, water power and flood prevention plan costing $50,000,000.

A $4,500,000 loan and grant is proposed to complete a power dam on the Colorado river. Both were voted down at the last session.

A 1926 Centennial celebration of Texas independence with a $15,000,000 exposition is another work relief plan for the session.

Cattle Purchases Will Start Monday

FORT WORTH, Sept. 29.—Government purchase of cattle in West Texas probably will be resumed Monday, Dr. H. L. Darby, director of U. S. Animal Industry in Texas, said today.

Dr. Darby said he expected to receive the new cattle buying program with quotas to be allowed counties in time to start purchases Monday. The program will be reinstated only in those counties which have not received rain and are in serious drought condition.

DRIVE ON NEW LABOR HOURS TO BE STARTED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—A general drive to reduce working hours to 36 a week and increase wages of skilled workers greeted the new National Industrial Recovery board today as one of the first and most difficult problems.

The first test of the hourly reduction probably will come in the cotton garment industry. The industry was granted a stay until Oct. 15 on order of President Roosevelt reducing hours 10 per cent, increasing piece workers' wages and maintaining regular wage scales.

With emphasis on reassurance to industry, the board, already organized, prepared to launch its administration early next week.

The unemployment situation was seen as one of the most pressing tasks before the new board. Under Gen. Hugh S. Johnson about 3,000,000 persons were estimated to be back at work, 10,000,000 more are idle.

GOAT IS CHAINED

CLEVELAND.—"Billy" is tied with a heavy chain now and Mrs. Anna Przybyls, 50, is still recovering from painful back injuries as the result of Billy's rambunctiousness. Billy, of course, is a goat. His owner, Walter Uhnick, chained him in a vacant lot to graze. But Billy got loose just as Mrs. Przybyls walked past. Police said she was knocked down twice.

CLOCK SAVED TROUSERS

WACO, Tex.—Claude Burns set the alarm clock for 5 a. m. and thereby retained his trousers. A burglar had Burns' trousers in hand and was ready to make off with them when the alarm clock rang out. Started, the intruder dropped the pants and fled.

WOMAN, 67, CROSSED U. S.

HARTFORD Conn.—At 67 Miss Harriett E. Willard, Long Beach, Calif., bought an automobile and learned to drive. This year, desiring to return to Wethersfield for the tercentenary of her native town, she drove across the continent alone. After a visit of several months with friends, she started back, alone.

that reminds me...
Friday's ramble of the Mavericks St. Stephenville didn't turn out as expected, and they had to come home with the lost end of the stick. That always can happen however to the best of them and a defeat occasionally simply makes them fight harder next time if the fault lies in lack of enough push. That's O. K., though everybody is for the boys and the next game will find the football fans again on the sidelines.
Another special session of the Legislature in sight. "My Gosh" wonder how many sessions it takes to run this state of Texas.
Appears like if they can't get together one time that there will be discord all the other times. Funny how legislators can spend their time quibbling and fussing over important matters that affect all the people and yet pass the regular bill for their own salaries and expenses in practically two minutes. The lame ducks are the chief concern as to when the next session will be called. That's more important than get the business of the state in order. Texas has been "specialized" to death during the past several years and we can't see why the law isn't changed so that they will be in continuous session and to make them comfortable just build each one of them a nice home, suggest near the Colorado river so they can jump in from time to time and cool off after a "hot" session.
Anyway the "dear peepele" have to foot the bill so what's the difference.
In all seriousness the legislature should come to agreement and terms on the major things that are to the people's interest. They should have passed a bill authorizing all of the balance of the relief bonds instead of putting it out piece meal. The question of tax remittances to come up should be taken to serious consideration and deliberate lobbying by county officials should be ignored.
Property tax relief is an all-important question and is legislating the very foundation of a nation's existence. That legislation should be looked at from the standpoint of how to protect the home owner against confiscating his property rather than an eye to see that he pays more to live in his home.
Approximately 2,000 children
tickets were sold by the Eastland community at the price of a dime.

By special arrangement with the management of the Tom Mix and Sam Dill circus this represented a saving to the kiddies of fifteen cents on each ticket, as no tickets were sold on the ground for less than twenty-five cents. The Telegram is glad of the opportunity to render this service and the big circus with Tom Mix the kiddies didn't disappoint the happy crowd of little and grown up folks that took in the show. The circus was up to standard in every respect and the cities that are fortunate enough to have this wonderful entertaining aggregawill be satisfied and pleased to the limit.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

To study the flood of propaganda let loose on the people by different government and parties in the hopes of finding a little gleam of light which will give an inkling of the real truth and what is behind it is something most people don't bother about.

Some days the people are insistently told of one set of objectives making for the benefit of all. Propaganda goes out and public opinion is credited to back some particular thing that is being advocated.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

Most cities need more harmony and less friction; more wide-awake people and less sleepy ones.

It is said that boundless energy is built on sound sleep. Some cities must have much energy stored away. Now is the time to release it.

Time waits for no man. Don't put off until tomorrow what you should do today. You won't live forever.

Some cities should wake up, get into a constructive frame of mind, turn loose some of their stored up energy and get busy.

The citizens of some cities need to get a better vision of their city's present and future greatness.

They should bear in mind that the future of the home city is a public trust.

As the world progresses so should the home city progress. Business must be improved, industries encouraged and a spirit of progress developed in such a way that will lead to greater things.

If you don't want to be known as a back number, do your share to keep your city ahead.

I note that an Eastern Congressman recently returned home after many months in Washington and was given a reception which was entirely friendly, but the crowd was small.

BEGIN HERE TODAY BOOTS RAEBURN, 15, clothes with HESS LUND, swimming instructor. When Raeburn goes to Florida, promising to send for her later, Boots goes to work in a department store.

NEW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XLV VERONICA KERRIGAN twined a fresh pillow-slip in place and glanced down the hall in the direction of the hospital room from whose open doors echoed gusts of merriment.

Just why that fiancée of his, that blond girl from Larchneck, didn't sing for joy because she'd been so lucky as to snag him Veronica simply did not understand. She herself got down every night on her knees and prayed to St. Joseph to find her a good husband.

Miss Raeburn (if you asked Miss Kerrigan about it, although nobody would) was pretty keen on that dark chap who ran her up to the hospital in his rattly little roadster.

He'd be going home soon and she'd miss him. His chauffeur had driven up that very afternoon in the long car and taken away the music box and about a ton of personal equipment his mother had sent up before she left for Florida.

SHE flushed because the floor head, standing in the doorway and smiling indulgently, seemed to be reading her very thoughts. The Head was a sculptured beauty who had no use for men at all, although she had been known to waste 15 minutes chatting to Edward Van Sciver when there were no tempers among them.

"You did that beautifully. Just be-yoo-lifully," she caroled. "Oh, I'm getting there all right. All right."

WHEN Boots came the next night she was alone. Denis hadn't telephoned. She had come down on the bus.

There was a lump of ice where Boots' heart had been. She man aged to say naturally enough, "I guess he never stays in one place for long. But how about Kay Chillingford? I thought he was waiting around for her to come back."

So all the time she had chafed him about Kay he'd known this and hadn't told her. Why?

"There are lamb chops, too," urged Miss Kerrigan in a maternal, coaxing voice. "If they're not sizzling I'll pop yours up in the diet kitchen."

As she fluttered down the hall she treasured the thought of that impulsive little gesture. Probably didn't mean a thing, though. He was just a great big kid. . . .

Bus Drivers to Be Given Safety Awards

Safety buttons and plaques will be awarded to nine bus drivers of the Southwestern Greyhound lines Sept. 29 as a reward for driving four consecutive years without an accident of any kind, according to an announcement by Paul W. Tibbets, president of the company. In addition to the four-year buttons, the company will award 16 three-year buttons, 26 two-year buttons, and 20 first-year buttons, making a total of 71 safety awards. The buttons will be presented in safety meetings at the various divisional headquarters all over the Southwestern Greyhound lines system. The rigidity of the requirements for these awards is indicated by the fact that even a scratched fender is counted as an accident. The national Greyhound system has won the national intercity bus fleet safety trophy awarded by "Bus Transportation" magazine every year since it has been offered. The statistics of the National Safety Council show that bus travel on an average is seven times safer than travel by private automobile, and the record of the Greyhound Lines is even better than the average.

Appetizing Foods... prepared in less time, with less work and less fuel expense! The New WATERLESS WAY. While the New Utility Cooker brings to you the possibilities of enjoying old-fashioned meals in addition, it permits you to prepare foods by the newer methods of cooking without water. Science has discovered that there is so much natural moisture in all meats, vegetables and fruits that it is entirely feasible to cook them with little or no water. About the only reason why we have cooked with water was to avoid burning. Water distributes the heat evenly, conducting it away from the point nearest the fire. However, after we have cooked our foods we have poured off the excess water and with it we have poured the bone-forming, teeth-building minerals; the iron, calcium and phosphorus that constitute the essential elements which the human system must have. With the new perfected Utility Cooker you can prepare foods deliciously tender and full of these health-building elements. The Utility Cooker is ideal for the housewife who wishes to practice this modern, more healthful and more economical way of cooking. Look! HERE'S HOW YOU GET ONE OF THESE COOKERS... FREE! DRAMA OF "THE MAN WITH TWO FACES" AT LYRIC THEATRE SUN.
"The Man With Two Faces," a First National melodramatic murder mystery thriller opens at the Lyric theatre Sunday with Edward G. Robinson in the stellar role.

The picture is based on the stage play by George S. Kaufman and Alexander Woolcott, which was one of the hits of Broadway the past season. It is said to be one of the most baffling mysteries ever presented, with a strange and unusual denouement.

The story deals with a theatrical family, the identity of which are several brilliant players. In addition to the mystery angle the picture takes the spectators behind the wings, giving them a peep into the private lives of the folks of the stage. It also carries a strong romantic angle.

The mystery evolves about the strange murder of the husband of a brilliant actress, a man of evil mind and with a hypnotic influence over his wife. There are several suspects, including the wife herself, as well as her lover, and brother.

Mr. Robinson, the star, is supported by an unusually large and talented cast. Miss Astor has the leading feminine role opposite him, while Ricardo Cortez plays the heroic role of Miss Astor's lover, Louis Calhern is the diabolical husband who comes to an untimely end while Mae Clarke has an important part as an actress in the play which is the background for the drama.

Other important players include Arthur Byron, John Eldredge, David Landau, Emily Fitzroy, and Henry O'Neill. Archie May directed the production from the screen play by Tom Reed and Niven Busch.

Legal Reserve Life Insurance Has Grown in Texas

DALLAS, Sept. 28.—How the legal reserve life insurance business of the Texas legal reserve life companies has developed and placed this home-owned industry in the forefront of the state's financial institutions, under the protection afforded during the past 25 years by the Robertson insurance law, is shown graphically by the recent survey of the Texas Life convention.

The Robertson law requires all life insurance companies operating in Texas to invest 75 per cent of the legal reserve on policies written upon Texas citizens in Texas securities.

Under the terms of this law, the development of the Texas life insurance companies has been rapid and impressive. Today, the home offices of these companies are an important part in the sky-lines of virtually all of the state's leading cities.

The survey shows further that the Texas legal reserve life companies:

- Have total investments in approved securities in Texas (including buildings, real estate, mortgage loans on city property and farms, and state, county, and municipal bonds, amounting to approximately $83,000,000.
- Have paid out to Texas people in death claims, surrender values, endowments and annuities a total of $175,000,000.
- Made purchases and paid in taxes in 1933 alone a total of $2,115,000.
- Employ more than 10,000 persons, with a total annual payroll of $8,000,000.
- Thirty-four thousand people, employees and dependents of employees of the Texas legal reserve life companies, gain their livings directly from the activities of these companies, the survey shows.
- There are more than 1,200,000 policy-holders of the Texas legal reserve life companies—an average of more than one policy to each family residing in Texas. The total of insurance in force by these companies is $1,150,000,000, and this risk is backed by approved assets of $184,000,000, the survey shows.

The strength of the Texas insurance structure, according to officials of the Texas life convention, and the wisdom of the Texas laws which govern the operation of the legal reserve life companies of the state, have been demonstrated throughout the depression period, by the record of adequate protection for all policy-holders, and complete fulfillment of all their contracts, during the greatest period of economic stringency in history.

Not only have the Texas legal reserve life companies met their obligations to their policy-holders fully and promptly but their sound position has enabled them to render many other public services, such as the purchase of more than $1,250,000 of the state's "bread bonds," to provide cash for feeding the hungry unemployed of Texas.

Value of Play to Pre-School Child
We are told that play at its best is both recreative and creative. It develops in the child the sense of imagination, neatness, obedience, kindness and manners. It teaches co-operation. We want to make it possible for our children to live with us and each other, and later with fellow adults harmoniously, happily and effectively.

COLLEGE MOVIE HOLDS TO FACTS, BUILDS COMEDY
Something new and different in motion picture history has been accomplished; a college story has been filmed without a football game, a football player, or a college musical show in the entire production.

The picture is "She Loves Me Not," produced by Paramount with Bing Crosby and Miriam Hopkins starred. It opens Monday at the Lyric Theatre.

"She Loves Me Not" is adopted from the widely-read novel which appeared in serial form in the Saturday Evening Post, and also from the Broadway play of the same name. In addition to Crosby and Miriam Hopkins, Kitty Carlisle, Edward Nugent, Henry Stephenson, Warren Hymer, Lynne Overman, Judith Allen, George Barbier, and Vince Barnett are included in the cast.

Elliott Nugent, who directed "Three Covered Moons," directed this film from the screen play by Benjamin Glazer.

Besides giving Crosby ample opportunity to sing several brand new, typically Crosby tunes, the film is also full of comedy and suspense. A young night-club girl sees a murder committed and, fearing to be questioned by police, she runs away, getting as far as Princeton, New Jersey.

Bob's hungry and desperate she walks "dilly dilly" into the room of Crook, a student. By a clever ruse and a little disguise, he attempts to file her in the dormitory. She discovered and the events that follow involve Crosby, the dean and the entire college in an uproarious series of events.

Dutch Will Use New Streamline On Their Windmills

AMSTERDAM.—When the number of windmills began diminishing rapidly in Holland during the last 25 years, Doctor P. G. van Tienhoven of Amsterdam, formed a society called "The Holland Windmill," for the preservation of the Dutch windmill.

At first this society was not very successful. Then A. H. Dekker, of Leuten, thought of making the old-fashioned windmill more efficient by streamlining. He invented a stream-lined wing, which is plated with aluminum or zinc. All sharp corners are rounded.

The result has been astonishing. Before, the mills needed a fairly strong wind to make the wings go round and when the wind dropped they had to fit on the "sails," to make the wings catch more wind. As soon as the wind dropped more the mill came to a standstill and had to wait for more wind.

Now the stream-lined wings catch the wind so easily that the mills that have them can work practically under all conditions. As windmills in Holland are used not only to grind corn, but also to keep the water in the small canals at a certain level, the streamlining solved a problem.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer
DON'T think just because summer has gone its way into the limbo of nearly forgotten things that you must stop serving salad. Autumn offers materials as luscious for the salad maker's art as spring or summer. There are apples, for instance, ripened now to the perfect crisp, firm texture. Just peared, tomatoes at the best, round, red and superbly-fleshed, celery, the new crop of nuts, turnips, cabbage, all to be used in endless succulent combinations.

In fact, here's an autumn salad that uses several of the lot. For it, take 2 ripe pears, 2 tart apples, 4 teaspoons minced candied ginger, 4 tablespoons diced celery, 2 tablespoons chopped walnut meats, 4 cups shredded cabbage, 1 tablespoon blanched and shredded almonds, 1-2 cup seeded Tokay grapes.

Pare and dice pears. Dice apples without paring if you have those with bright red skins. Mix pears, apples, ginger, celery and walnut meats. Mix with French dressing and let stand on ice for 30 minutes. Shred cabbage very fine and let stand in cold water for 10 minutes. Drain and mix with almonds and enough mayonnaise to make moist. Make nests of cabbage on individual salad plates. Fill each nest with fruit mixture and garnish with seeded grapes.

Celery Salad
This is splendid dinner salad. Two cups shredded celery, 4 tablespoons green olives, 4 tablespoons shredded sweet red pepper, 2 tablespoons Roquefort cheese, French dressing, curly endive. Cut up celery, olives and pepper into cubes and combine with dressing. Mix vegetables in nests on bed of endive.

Turkey Salad
This depends on new turkey, but unusual flavor. Two medium sized white turkeys, 1 cup shredded celery, 2 slices ham, 1 green pepper, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 tablespoon grated horseradish, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, paprika. Pare turnips and boil in salted water to which a little lemon juice has been added. When tender drain and plunge into cold water. Drain and cut in cubes. Combine oil, lemon juice, horseradish, salt, pepper and paprika and pour over prepared turnips. Let stand on ice an hour or longer to chill. When ready to serve add celery, green pepper cut in threads and pineapple cut in small pieces. Serve on lettuce and garnish with maraschino cherries cut in halves.

Monday's Menu
BREAKFAST: Chilled tomato juice, cereal, cream, fried dried beef, chili rye toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Bagel with cheese on toast, autumn salad, ginger bread, milk, tea.

Theatre Man Is Seeking Mr. Kelly

By United Press
MT. VERNON, O.—Has anyone seen Kelly? That is, has anyone seen Jack Kelly? If anyone has, Jim Platt, theater manager, would be interested.

Platt was standing in front of his theater one afternoon when a young man walked up. "Do you know Jack Kelly?" he demanded. "No, I don't know Jack Kelly," Platt answered, disinterested. "You're sure you don't know Jack Kelly?" the questioner persisted.

"No, I never heard of him."
"Well, I'm Jack Kelly."
"Oh, you are?"
"Yes, here, take this," and the stranger handed over a roll of bills.
"I don't want this," Platt said. "That's all right, take it anyway."
"But, it isn't mine."
"No, of course not, it's mine."
"What'll I do with it?"
"Hold it for me. I'll be back tomorrow after it."
A fortnight later, Kelly hadn't returned. Platt called all the Kellys he knew, inquired widely. None knew Jack Kelly. Platt still has Jack Kelly's money.

NEW YORK—Tristram Speaker picks a winner at this stage of the campaign for the first time in his life. Spoke does a good job while about it, and picks two.
 "But I no longer consider naming the Tigers and Giants a prediction," explained Speaker, now in the wholesale liquor business in Cleveland, to which city his Indians brought the west's last American League pennant in 1929. Clubs with their get up and go that have hovered around the top all season as they have, lead now, and which are to play the important month of September at home, rarely miss out."

Speaker had been reading where Tristram Raymond Cobb, upon his return to Detroit for an exhibition game the other day, had watched a team that carries on the tradition that he established—speed, flaming competitive spirit, determination and doggedness, flashing courage and daring—a club that picked up the lines of battle where the Georgia Peach left them, an outfit molded in his fashion, and patterned after his standards.

Follow the Leader
 "ONLY one kind of manager could build a team like that," mused Speaker, "the emotional, dynamic type of player manager like Mickey Cochrane."
 "That's an advantage both the Tigers and Giants have over the opposition—remarkable players having big years directing and inspiring them."
 "Bill Terry has all of Cochrane's fire in a different way. He long ago learned how to make up his mind, and the Giants have as

In 1929 there were 1,655,847 golf balls manufactured in this country. Now we know how many were lost that year.

Control of Power

Big league pitchers know that power is not enough. The important thing is to control that power—particularly in tight situations where you've got to bear down to win.

The Ford V-8 gives you all the power you need—and some to spare. But that's only half the story. It performs superbly because it gives you sure, effective control of that power.

Speed that takes you over the pathways of the world and brings you safely home, as fast as you want to go. Stability on curves and a feeling of confidence in every tight situation. A quick change of pace that saves you minutes in traffic.

The Ford V-8 shortens distance, not so much by its potential top speed, but by the swiftness with which it resumes running speed after the inevitable stops and pauses.

It's a seasoned campaigner—this Ford V-8—and it has proved it can take it in many severe tests. It has scored important victories in road races at Elgin, Jacksonville, Los Angeles and Targio Florio. On Labor Day, three Ford V-8 cars broke all previous stock car records for climbing Pike's Peak. The Fords in this climb were equipped with high-compression cylinder heads, optional equipment for altitude driving. The V-type engine holds every major speed record on land, on water and in the air.

Every day—on every road—in the hands of hundreds of thousands of motorists—the Ford V-8 is proving its leadership both by outstanding performance—and by low cost of operation. Drive it yourself and see what a tremendous difference the V-8 engine makes.

MICKEY COCHRANE
 Manager of the Detroit Tigers says: "I've caught a lot of great pitchers and they've all had two things... power and control. That's what has put us up there this year. All top-notchers have it—in baseball and in other lines of sport."

DIES, PLAYED WITH MATCHES
 DOVER, O.—Virginia May Jones, 4, died because she liked to play with matches. The child's clothing became ignited when she held one too near her dress. She was burned severely, dying later, when efforts to save her failed.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Jones, of Dundee, near here.
 Frank Buck would be a decided asset to the New York Giants baseball club. He's experienced at taming tigers.
