Moore... ABOUT Eastland

By Virgil E. Moore

It is interesting to note that the same engineering firm which did the engineering work on Lake Leon is also the firm which is planning Fort Worth's long-range water plans. Presce and Nichols, a firm which the Fort Worth Press editorially refers to as "an eminent firm of consulting engineers," has told Eastland and Ranger officials that the two cities would have plentiful water from Lake Leon if it didn't rain in the next 10 years. They also say that the lake here will provide enough water for a population of some 100,000 people.

Which reminds us again of the fact that a number of local citizens still think the water rate is too high. Frankly, we do not think that Eastland's rate is high, but then we have been further out in West Texas where they really have water rates. But, regardless, a number of local citizens do. From what we can find out, most people feel that a cheaper rate should be used in the summer months.

We are not pessimistic. In fact we don't like anyone who is. With that in mind, maybe there is a solution to the problem. At least it might be wise for the city commission to appoint a citizens committee made up of individuals who would study the problem with an open mind and present their findings to the commission. If such action is to be taken, it should be done soon, for the committee will need at least two months to study the problem and come back with their findings. Then, of course, the commission still must study their findings and decide if they think the solution (if one is found) is workable. A published report would, if nothing else, make everyone a lot happier family.

See where the Safeway building is fast nearing completion. We understand the super market will easily meet their estimated December opening date. Work has now started on the super service station in front of the store, and the familiar Safeway sign has now gone up.

We received the following chain letter in the mail this week:

"This letter was started by a man like yourself in hope of bringing relief and happiness to tired husbands. Unlike most chain letters this does not cost anything. Simply send a copy of this letter to five friends who are equally tired. Then bundle up your wife and send her to the man whose name is at the top of the list and your name to the bottom of the list. When your name comes to the top of the list you will receive 16, 47 1/2 women and some of them are dandies. Have faith, don't break the chain. One husband broke the chain and got his wife back."

Wonder what the rules say about just shipping your wife off and not putting your own name on the list?

A tip from the PO Department: Christmas parcels for members of the armed forces who are overseas should be mailed between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15, to assure delivery before the holidays.

What say someone here works up a list of all the boys overseas and see that they get more packages and postcards than any other boys from any other town. Someone volunteer and we will print the names and addresses front page. Too often we forget the boys in peacetime.

Don't forget! Tuesday midnight is the last time you can write us and tell us why you like Elvis Presley. The person writing the most convincing letter gets 16 of Mr. P's top rated recordings.

SIDNEY A. GAINES Rotary district governor

Rotary Governor To Address Local Club

The Rotary Club of Eastland Monday will be host to Sydney A. Gaines, governor of the 57th District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the 36 Rotary Clubs in Northwest Texas.

Gaines will address the local club and will confer with club President Tom Wilson, with club Secretary Earl Stephens, and with committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

A member and past president of the Rotary Club of Wichita Falls, Gaines was elected a district governor of Rotary International for the 1956-57 fiscal year at Rotary's 47th Annual Convention in Philadelphia last June. He is one of 248 district governors supervising the activities of more than 9,100 Rotary clubs which have a membership of 431,000 business and professional executives in 99 countries of the free world. Gaines is general manager of United Electric Company in Wichita Falls, and for many years has given leadership to civic, fraternal, religious, and business activities on both local and state levels.

Wilson, in discussing the district governor's visit, pointed out that wherever Rotary clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Eastland club. All Rotary activities are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and the professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Wilson stated that Rotary International continues to grow in numbers and strength each year. During the past fiscal year, 351 new Rotary clubs were organized in 48 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa and the islands of the Pacific. Seven countries were added to Rotary's roster—Angola, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, Netherlands, New Guinea, Ruanda-Urundi, and Swaziland.

Joe H. Jones, Former County Judge, Buried

Funeral services for Joe H. Jones, formerly Eastland county district attorney and county judge, were held Saturday morning at 11 a.m. in the Cox Memorial Funeral Home chapel in Dallas.

Mr. Jones, 59, first entered politics in Eastland county, when he was elected district attorney in 1929. He later served as Eastland county judge, then as county judge and again as district attorney. He ran for Congress against Tom Blanton in 1932 and was defeated.

In 1933 he became assistant U. S. Attorney at Dallas and went to Fort Worth as assistant U. S. district attorney in 1943. He served until 1945, dividing his time between the Fort Worth and Dallas offices. In the early 1940's he was in law partnership with Clyde O. Eastus, then U. S. District attorney.

Born in Gorman, Mr. Jones was a graduate of Cumberland Law School in Cumberland, Tenn. He was a member of the Methodist.

Seven County Boys to Show Turkeys at Fair

Seven Eastland County 4-H club boys have 30 Thompson white turkeys entered in the Junior Market Turkey show at the State Fair in Dallas, which opened Saturday, according to County Agent Jim Cooper.

The seven club boys are among those who received poulters 1 a s t March under the Kincaid turkey plan. The Kincaid brothers and their dad are among the largest turkey growers in the county and in this section of the state.

The turkeys were trucked to Dallas Thursday and entered in the show, after passing a very careful examination by poultry officials at the fair. They were taken down by Don Kincaid, Cisco; Billy Charles Caraway, Carbon; R. A. y Woodall, Gorman; Mike Herrington, Ranger; C. L. Boase, assistant county agent, and Cooper.

Besides Caraway and Woodall other club boys who will have the big birds on exhibit include Larry Campbell, Gene Snider and Roger Woodall all of Gorman, Jack Callaway of Rising Star and Kurt Clark of Morton Valley.

The turkeys will be auctioned at the end of the show.

Rural Mail Service Serves 358 Locally

Three hundred and fifty-eight families around Eastland are served everyday but Sunday by two of the 1642 rural post office routes in Texas, Postmaster Marlene Johnson pointed out Saturday.

Mrs. Johnson's observation came on the 60th birthday of the rural delivery service. She said more Americans than ever before in history are being served by the service.

Experimental rural delivery service began October 1, 1896 with three routes at Charles Town, W. Va., and two routes at Hallstown and Uvilla, near Charles Town.

These sites for the initial experimental routes were picked by Postmaster General William L. Wilson, a native of West Virginia.

Old records show that in its first week the three Charles Town routes provided for surprised farmers delivery of 214 letters, 290 papers, 33 postal cards and two packages. Previously, they would not have received this mail until they went into town to pick it up, often a matter of weeks or even months.

That was a far cry from today's mail load handled by rural delivery carriers. For example, in a recent 12-month period, nearly eight billion pieces of mail were handled for rural patrons.

Today, there are 31,888 routes serving 34,930,000 mail patrons over more than 1 1/2 million miles of routes that extended into virtually all the counties of the United States, as well as into territories and possessions of the United States. And, during the fiscal year ended last June 30 alone there were 594,900 patrons added to rural delivery routes, while a total of 11,798 extensions of rural routes were made to provide more and better service.

There are 1,642 rural routes in Texas covering approximately 90,000 miles and serving some 430,000 families, and service is being extended every day, according to Regional Director George A. Gray of Dallas. Rural delivery was first officially suggested by Postmaster General John Wanamaker in 1891.

The first bill authorizing rural delivery service was introduced in the House of Representatives on January 5, 1892, by James O'Donnell of Michigan, but it failed to pass.

A bill by Congressman Thomas E. Watson of Georgia became law March 3, 1893, appropriating $10,000 for experimental rural delivery. This, together with $20,000 appropriated for the same purpose on July 16, 1894, was not immediately used, the Postmaster General deeming the amount insufficient.

Eastland's Mavericks, with a good case of traditional Rangeritis, fumbled on the first play of the game Friday night and then played the same brand of ball for most of the remaining game to take a sound 28-12 licking from their arch rivals to the east.

Ranger, rated as a so-so team, convinced Eastland and Ranger fans alike that they were too much for the Mavs. The game saw Eastland with their backs to the wall almost throughout the full 48 minutes of play. The Mavs would get out of one hole only to fall into another, as a trio of small, but good Ranger backs ripped them to pieces.

The Mavericks didn't run but 22 offensive plays in the first half and made only two first downs and 42 yards—15 of that in the air—while doing that. Meanwhile Ranger marched all over the field, making 11 first downs and 186 yards, but managed to get across just one touchdown.

It was the ninth consecutive win for the Bulldogs over Eastland. Not since 1947 has a Red and Black team managed to out-score Range. The Mavs did get one consolation prize out of the game. They managed to score on Ranger for the first time in five years.

A big lumbering end, Jerry Cantrell, made life worse than it was in the depression for Eastland's overated backs. Cantrell came in time after time to tie a Nav's shoestrings together and leave him far back of the line of the line of scrimmage. Jimmy Phillips, Eastland's great guard, played his usual fine game, but the Mav line had more holes in it during the game than a wool coat would have after returning from a moth's convention.

Eastland, playing in their class AA opponent's back yard, simply didn't have what it takes as far as the Bulldogs were concerned.

Robert Veal jumped on a Maverick fumble on the first play of the game and Ranger took over on the Mav 20. In two plays Jerry Basham took it to the 14 and then David Wharton went to the 10. Hinds gave Basham the call again and the 125-pounder carried to the seven. Then Wharton failed to gain on third down and Hinds moved it to the six on fourth.

Eastland couldn't move the ball, and on third down Quarterback Harvey Lewis booted out to the 46. This time Ranger wasn't to be stopped. They drove to the five in 11 plays, and then Wharton raced wide around right end, getting hit on the one. He fell across the flag for the score. Hinds then booted its first of four extra points to make it a Ranger 7, Eastland 0.

Neither team scored in the second period, although Ranger drove to the Mav 10 before being thrown back to the 16. The Mavs couldn't move and were forced to punt. Taking the ball on Eastland's 44, Ranger moved to the seven before Saul Pullman intercepted a Hind's pass on the two.

Eastland kicked off to Ranger to begin the third quarter, and the Dogs had to punt, making just seven yards in three tries. Halfback Jimmy Martin tucked in the ball for Eastland on first down, slid wide to his right and was put out in the clear by two good blocks. Martin ran into Robert Veal jumped on a Mav-

THIRTY-FOUR FROM EASTLAND COUNTY ATTEND STATE FAIR

Thirty-four 4-H club boys and girls and eight adults of Eastland county attended Rural Youth day Saturday at the Texas State Fair in Dallas.

According to Charlene Eckert, Assistant County Home Demonstration Agent, and Curtis Boase, Assistant County Agent, the majority of these 4-H club boys and girls were selected on the basis of their outstanding club work during the past year. Some of the projects participated in included raising turkeys and pigs, leading at County 4-H Camp, clothing, bedroom improvement and several others.

The club girls attended the State 4-H Dress Review and saw many useful and interesting exhibits pertaining to home economics. The club boys saw the livestock exhibits, poultry exhibits and other farm and ranch exhibits.

4-H girls attending the fair were: Sandra Pogue, Kathy Jones, Susan Johnston, Linda Sue Dalton, Alice Frazier, Loeusta Love, Willie Pearl O'Stein, Martha Walker, Mary Carolyn Berry, Dora Gore, Winona Gore, Patsy Thompson, Joyce Robertson, Donna Pugh, Tassie Goodwin, Vicki Goodwin, and Georgia McCleskey. 4-H boys attending the fair were: Ray Woodall and Roger Woodall from Desdemona; Mike Herrington from Ranger; Jack Callaway from Sipe Springs; Larry Camel, Gene Snider and Harold Hilly from Gorman; Kurt Clark and D. o. n Massengale from Eastland; Jerry Morgan from Scranton; Joel Graham and Roland Ziehr from Cisco; Billy Charles Caraway, Don Hooper, Lynn Gray, Larry Morrow and Jo Paul May from Carbon.

The 4-H Club boys and girls were accompanied on the Fair trip by Mrs. Frank Ziehr, Mrs. Tommy Gore, and Mrs. John Love 4-H adult leaders; J. M. Cooper, County Agent; Curtis Boase, Assistant County Agent; Minnie Mae Hart, County Home Demonstration Agt.; Charlene Eckert, Assistant County Home Demonstration Agent, and Don Hart, Agricultural Representative of Texas Electric.

Final Rites for Mrs. W. Vickers Are Held Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. W. C. Vickers, 67, were held Friday afternoon in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Harvey Kimbler, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Vickers died Thursday at her home after a lengthy illness. She suffered a heart attack several weeks ago. Burial was in Eastland Cemetery with Hammer Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. She is survived by a daughter, Miss Norma Frances Vickers of Eastland, and a son, Richard, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

IN LONG DROUTH

Records Show 1956 May be Worse Year

Eastland rainfall during the past month was the smallest amount registered in September since 1951. Official figures show that only .44 fell during the month.

The city had two different showers, an .08 sprinkle and a .36 shower, during the month to keep from drawing a blank, something that has never happened in the city, at least in the past 45 years that figures are available.

The rainfall brought the total for the year to 10.85, which is more than most persons realize, but still far below normal. With just three months remaining, the city must get 15.20 inches of rain to record an average year. The 45 year average, since 1911, is 26.05 inches. Unless the unusual rainfall does come, this will be the seventh consecutive year that the average has not been reached. In fact, the last six years have dropped the average from 29 inches a year to the 26.08 figure.

As stated earlier, the 44 represents the smallest rainfall recorded here since 1951, when .46 fell. The most ever recorded in September was 13.42 back in 1936, and the smallest amount was a "trace" in 1933.

Game Preserve Meeting Tuesday

The Sabanna Valley Game Preserve Association will meet Tuesday night at 8 p.m. at the Center Point community house, Berry Greenwood, secretary, has announced. Greenwood said everyone was welcomed, and urged a big turnout.

October has been one of the better rain months during the present drouth. Last year only .62 was recorded, but in 1954 the measurement was 2.78, and the year before that, 1953, it was 5.98.

Total rainfall in 1955 was 19.99 inches. In 1954 the measurement was 16.33; in 1953, 24.32; in 1952, 17.02; in 1951, 18.25; and in 1950, 23.04.

In 1949 the area had better than an average rainfall when 31.62 inches were recorded. Two more dry years preceded, 1949, however, but from 1938 through 1946, with the exception of one year (1943) better than average rainfall fell.

The 10.58 inches this year haven't been enough to help farm crops too much. In January the measurement was 1.74; February, 1.94; March, .10; April, .330; May, 2.50; June, .33; July, .30; August, .20; and September, .44. You can see that in the last four months only 1.37 inches have fallen here.

Weather Bureau records also reveal that the high temperature reading for the month was a warm 102, recorded the nineteenth. Coldest temperature reading was 41 degrees on the ninth.

Methodists Can Burn Up Mortgage On Building

They can burn the mortgage on the First Methodist Church building now. The last payment has been made.

Final payment on the church was made Saturday following a successful "unorganized" drive among church members to pay off the indebtedness so that the church building could be remodeled.

As Rev. Richard Smith III puts it, "The members just decided that they would raise enough money to pay off the indebtedness. It wasn't any organized drive, members just put on rummage sales and did such things as serve refreshments during the election."

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH ... they can burn the mortgage now

Organized or not organized, the Methodist got the job done. Now plans are being made to remodel the 28 year old building. The building was completed in 1928 and the first service in the auditorium of the church was held April 22 of that year. Members had been meeting in the basement even before that, however.

The First Methodist Church was organized in 1919 when members began meeting in a Tabernacle on East Commerce. Rev. Roy Langston was the church's pastor. Later members began meeting in the old high school building on the hill where the Eastland Memorial Hospital now stands. Then they moved to the Mickle building, now owned by Victor Cornelius. About that time, Rev. H. L. Munger became pastor. He took over in 1922 and stayed two years. From the Mickle building, the members moved into the basement of their new building, and then on April 22, 1928 they moved into their present home.

The first annual conference in the church was held in 1930 when Rev. George W. Shearer was pastor. Other pastors of the church have been Rev. Thompson, E. R. Shanford, P. W. Walker, Lance Webb, Durwood Fleming, J. Daniel Barron, J. W. Bond, John W. Ford, J. M. Bailey, J. C. Oglesby and Richard R. Smith III.

Today the church building stands as a credit to the men who planned and built it and to the members of the church.

Asked if paying off the church felt anything like making a last house or car payment, Rev. Smith replied, "Yes, only better."

A near capacity crowd was on hand for the tradition - packed game, which for all practical purposes crowned Ranger as the Eastland county champs. The Dogs must still play Cisco, but there is little doubt concerning that one.

Midway in the final quarter, Hinds got his third touchdown for the night, going over from the one. He earned the score, doing some beautiful faking three plays earlier to set up the TD. business about re-routing Highway 80 through Eastland county. Surveyors have been busy lately along the base line road. See a lot of stakes south of the road, indicating they figure to buy right-of-way on that side. Guess they'll announce their plans one of these days soon.
Quoting Virgil Moore: What about those public meetings the Highway Department was gonna have in each city concerned?

And that also reminds us of something else. Wonder what caused the postponement of the chamber of commerce breakfast, for "all of the members," which was to have been held "the first week in September."

They tell us the Ground Observer Corps has decided to use the top of Eastland High School for their observation post. Better visibility, Billy Jack Johnson, says. ### Pink and Blue Shower Honors Mrs. N. Watson

A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Norman Watson was held Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Bill Collins, 200 South Oaklawn. Mrs. A. L. Gallagher assisted the hostess in serving pineapple nut biscuits, cheese fruit, bacon, olive tidbits and coffee.

At the foot of the plate was a pink corsage which was presented the honoree. An elephant fashioned from an orange held the tidbits. White napkins cut into the shape of baby bibs were presented the guests.

Those attending were members of Group Four of the First Christian Church and were: Mmes. Hugh Neeld and Karla, Charles Freyschlag, Charles Beskow, Bernard Hanna, S. G. McCullough, Howard Gill and Lucy, Neil Hurt and Gerald Ables. Special guests were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Robert Vaughan and Paula of Robert Lee, her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Watson and Mrs. Jack Horn and Debbie.

Music Study Club Begins Years Meetings With Presidents Tea

The Music Study Club opened the first meeting of the season Wednesday with a Presidents Tea honoring the president and past presidents.

The club president, Mrs. R. L. Carpenter extended greetings to all and introduced the program chairman, Mrs. A. D. Dabney.

A short memorial service was given in memory of Mrs. Lina Satterwhite, past president of the Music Study Club. Past president Mrs. A. F. Taylor gave a brief biography of Mrs. Satterwhite and read Edgar A. Guest's poem, "Our Departed Friend." She closed the service with a prayer.

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, past state president of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs and first president of the Sixth District, reviewed the book "The Life of Toscanini" by Samuel Chotzinoff, husband of Pauline Helferty. In her review Mrs. Perkins painted an intimate portrait of the maestro, how as a little boy the Toscaninis were very poor and the family diet consisted mainly of soup. He liked soup and bread all his life and beamed "I am a peasant like Verdi."

"His life was touched personally by Verdi, Hitler and Mussolini," Mrs. Perkins said. "At one time Toscanini and Mussolini ran for office on the socialist ticket. Both were defeated. Toscanini became the great Maestro and Mussolini, the dictator.

"Toscanini cast a spell on everyone," she went on. "He could be gay or grave, vengeful or beneficent. He magnetized alike, players, page boys, servants, executives, friends and his family. On N.B.C. his every wish was attended to in the spirit of a favor conferred by him."

Mrs. Grady Pipkin, charter member and past president of the Music Study Club gave two solos, "The Moon Behind the Cottonwood" by Codman and "Were I a Star" by C. B. Hawley.

Mrs. Dabney distributed the club yearbooks and announced that "Music Lovers Hand Book" by Elie Siegmeister would be the course of study for the year.

Record music was played during the tea hour.

The tea table was artistically arranged with a cream satin cloth and hand flowers in a hand painted container accented with two hand painted figurines. Punch, canapes and cookies were served.

The yearbook committee served as hostesses. They were Mmes. Dabney, T. T. Richardson and D. L. Kinnaird. Guests were Mrs. Maud Brawley and Mrs. May Harrison.

Members present were Mmes R. L. Carpenter, Kinnaird, Taylor, Perkins, Pipkin, Bill Brasher, Don Russell, B. W. Patterson, Dabney, Richardson, Dudley L. Houle and Miss Marjorie VanHoose.

Breakfast Opens Thursday Club Season Thursday

The Thursday Afternoon Club, held its opening meeting of the club year Thursday morning at 9:30 in the club house with a breakfast hosted by the year book committee, Mrs. W. P. Leslie, Mrs. Cecil Collins, and Mrs. James Horton.

Decorations for the large T shaped table were centered around the theme of the year's study "World Affairs Are Our Affairs." A large globe of the world was the centerpiece, with many ships and airplanes posing for take-offs into this year's anticipated study.

The club celebrates its fortieth anniversary this year, using as a quotation for this program "Life Begins at Forty." Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins brought the program in the nature of club life in Eastland and Texas for the past forty years. Each member answered roll call with reminiscences of her club life, and incidents which have taken place in the past in this Thursday Afternoon Club.

The business session was presided over by the president Mrs. Frank Sparks. The year's budget was presented and accepted. Plans for the anniversary party, two weeks hence, were discussed by the general chairman, Mrs. E. R. Townsend.

Those present were Mmes. Frank Castleberry, Earl Conner, Sr., Cecil Collins, Turner Collie, Fred Davenport, Ben Hamner, C. W. Hoffman, James Horton, D. L. Houle, Donald Kinnaird, Milburn S. Long, Frank Lovett, W. A. Martin, W. B. Patterson, Joseph M. Perkins, Robert G. Perkins, Grady Pipkin, F. N. Sayre, Virgil Seaberry, Jr., Frank Sparks, E. R. Townsend, M. A. Treadwell and Tom Wilson.

Mrs. B. Walker Hosts Sunday School Class

Mrs. Blanche Walker was hostess to the Friendship class of the First Baptist Church in her home Thursday.

A short business session was held, presided over by the president, Mrs. Walker after which the group enjoyed crocheting and mending. Refreshments of Cokes, iced cream, sandwiches and cake were served.

Those present were Mmes. J. W. Wallace, C. H. McBee, Winnie Wynne, Ola Stiles, Ellen Horn, Ruth Butler, Ruby Denny and C. W. Mayo.

The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. Horn on the Cisco Highway, October 18.

Former Eastland Girl and Vernon Clarence Parker Exchange Vows

Neva Del Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ward of Abilene, formerly of Eastland, became the bride of Sgt. Vernon Clarence Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parker, Chicago Heights, Ill., Sept. 28 at 8 p.m. in the First Church of the Nazarene in Abilene. Rev. Dick Litterell performed the ceremony.

The altar was centered with a greenery arch lighted with an arrangement of white gladioli and stock. Flanking the scene were candelabra holding burning white tapers garlanded in greenery.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length dress of white taffeta. The fitted bodice was overlaid with white chantilly lace and the skirt was layered in net and scalloped with a lace pelerum overskirt. Her fingertip veil was attached to a rhinestone studded cap and she carried a white Bible topped with a white carnation bouquet.

Mrs. Terry Mae, matron of honor, wore a blue taffeta ballerina length dress overskirted with net. She carried a French colonial of white asters.

A. I. C. James L. Mathis was best man. Ushering were A. I. C. Darrel J. Ellozier and A. I. C. Nelson. James Terrell played wedding music on the organ and Kenneth Leatherman sang "Because," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Don Rodgers, 3182 S. 19th St. in Abilene. Pat Chaney ladeled punch and Mrs. Sue Huff cut the cake. Others assisting in serving were Mrs. Curtis Baxter and Billie Hewett of Stamford.

A white cutwork cloth covered the table that was appointed in crystal and centered with the attendant's bouquet.

On a wedding trip to Carlsbad, N. M., the bride wore a rose faillie sheath with brown accessories.

Stalk Poisoning May Cause Cattle Deaths This Fall

Cattle owners in some areas of the country will be faced with possible serious losses from corn stalk poisoning again this fall, the American foundation for animal health warned today.

"Death losses from this condition may strike especially in some of the drought areas," a spokesman said.

"Livestock farmers in drought areas may be tempted to turn cattle or sheep into fields of stunted corn. It is often in these cases that trouble may develop. The damaged corn is high in nitrates and also often contains mold which may prove to be poisonous to livestock. Some molds may contain a toxic factor that makes the corn a complicated and deadly poison."

The poisoned stock show an unsteady walk, are extremely nervous and alert in appearance, but after a short time they may go down.

Farmers wanting to salvage drought-damaged corn by turning stock into fields were advised to first check with a veterinarian or to test the fields by turning in just a few animals.

If the test animals do not become sick after a reasonable length of time, then the rest of the herd may be turned in with a fair assumption that the corn stalks are safe for feeding. However, the foundation urges close observation during the time when stock is eating such feed and prompt action if signs of sickness appear.

Winsome Class Installation Service Is Held

Mrs. Harold Dillender was elected president of the Winsome Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church Tuesday morning at a meeting held in the home of Mrs. Harvey Kimbler.

Mrs. Henry Sims, installing officer, placed a flower to represent each officer in a vase to make a large arrangement. This carrying out that all officers must work together.

Other officers elected besides Mrs. Dillender were Mrs. Charles Layton, vice president; Mrs. Dema Harris, secretary - reporter; Mrs. Jack Hoffman, assistant secretary and group leaders, Mmes. Bill Kendrick, Bonnie Maynard, W. K. Cooper and John Whatley.

The hostess served refreshments of punch and cookies.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. Layton, Maynard, Stanley Lynn, Doug Kelley, Bill Kendrick, Harold Hitt, Hoffman, Dillender, Kimbler, Sims and Cooper.

CHURCH SERVICES

Christian Science

God's healing and redemptive power will be emphasized in Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson - Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will include the following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (472:24-30): "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made. Therefore the only reality of sin, sickness, or death is the awful fact that unrealities seem real to human, erring belief, until God strips off their disguise. They are not true, because they are not of God."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (67:1, 2) "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."

First Methodist Services for Week Outlined

The following services will be held this week at the First Methodist Church:

Church School begins Sunday at 9:45 for all ages. Morning worship starts at 10:30 with the pastor, the Rev. Richard E. Smith in the pulpit. Sunday is World-Wide Communion Day with all Protestant churches taking part.

Rev. Smith's subject will be "The Gospel of the Altar." The choir will sing the anthem, "Ave Verum" by Mozart. Al Lotspeich will play a cello solo, "The Swan," by Saint-Saens. The organ numbers will include "Chorale" and "Lento" by Schumann. The Youth Fellowship meets at 6:15 with Ellen Whatley leading the Seniors.

Evening service starts at 7 o'clock with the pastor bringing the message on "The Forerunner." The youth choir will lead in the singing of hymns under the direction of Wendell Siebert.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at the church Monday at 2:30 for the Mission Study "Youth in a Responsible Society."

There will be a meeting of the official board Monday evening at 7:30. All members are requested to be present. Hubert Jones is chairman.

The Wesleyan Guild will hold its meeting at the church Tuesday evening at 7:30. Wednesday evening the pastor is conducting a study on the book of Revelation. The choir meets at the church also on Wednesday night at 7:30.

Thursdays after school Mr. and Mrs. Lotspeich meet with the Junior choirs at the church. There is to be a special meeting of annual conference Thursday in Fort Worth at the Polytechnic Methodist Church at 9:30 a.m. The pastor and lay delegates are to be present to consider important business. The meeting will be over by 4:30. Non-delegates are also cordially invited.

VISITING PARENTS

Jeanie Pittman, Mary Hardin Baylor College, Belton, is visiting in the home of her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pittman and Anne over the week end.

First Baptist Services For Week Listed

The Sunday School will meet at 9:45 Sunday morning in 13 departments at First Baptist Church with A. J. Blevins, Jr., superintendent. Adults promoting from one class to another or from department to another will report to their new classes Sunday morning.

Harvey Kimbler, pastor, announces the sermon topic for Sunday morning to be "The Changeless in a Changeable World." Sunday evening at 7:30 the church will observe the Lord's Supper. There will be a sermon in song, "A Matchless Life," which will depict the life of Christ through scripture and song. The Carol, Cherub and Church choirs, a mixed quartet, and the ladies trio will sing special numbers under the direction of John Dickey, music director of the church. Brother Kimbler will read the scriptures.

The Carol, Cherub and Celestial choirs will rehearse Sunday at 5:30 p.m. Training Union will begin at 6:30 and the evening worship service at 7:30.

WMU Circles will meet as follows: Monday - Holmes Circle with Mrs. Frank Lovett at 3:15; Tuesday - Shoemaker Circle with Mrs. A. G. Crosby and the Logan Circle with Mrs. Frank Sayre at 9:30 a.m.

The board of deacons will meet

Presbyterian Church to Hold Communion Here

"World Communion Day will be observed at the First Presbyterian Church. It is a day in which most of the branches of the Christian Church join in the celebration of the Lord's Supper - around the world. Before partaking of the bread and the cup, at the morning worship service at 11 o'clock, a brief message will be brought by the minister, the Rev. Eugene H. Surface, on "The Names." "All are welcome, and all who love the Lord are invited to partake."

Sunday Church School begins at 10 o'clock. It is the first Sunday in the new year on the theme "The Church," in a closely graded curriculum for all.

The church session meets, at its regular time, on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, in the minister's study. Elders who are to assist in the distribution of the communion elements are reminded to meet in the study at 10:45.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Educational Building.

There will be a special conference for class and department secretaries at 7 p.m. Wednesday evening during the time the Sunday school teachers and officers and youth organizations are meeting. The monthly church conference will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

3,771 Entries In Women's Dept. Of State Fair

A total of 3,771 individual entries in the Women's Department of the 1956 State Fair of Texas have been judged, and will be on view in the Women's Building when the fair opened Saturday.

This total figure does not include home frozen foods, which are judged Oct. 5, and entries in the annual Rose Show, which will be held Oct. 14 in the Women's Building Auditorium.

All entries will be displayed during the fair, with the exception of the art division, where lack of exhibit space permits only the display of winning paintings.

The traditional skills are evidently still favorites with State Fair entrants, since the needlework division easily took first place in popularity with 1,233 entries, including knitting, quilting, crocheting, cut work, embroidery and bead work. A newly popular feature of the needlework division is the Holiday Parade, with classes for Christmas accessories of all kinds - place mats and tablecloths, Christmas tree decorations, stockings, door decorations and skirts. All entries in the various Yuletide classes will be displayed around an old-fashioned hearth.

Another traditional skill, that of hand painting China, also ranked high with distaff exhibitors. The division totalled 505 entries. There were 494 entries in the hobby collections; foods, 367; antiques, 335; art, 291; miscellaneous arts, 282; and designer-craftsmen, 264.

The Women's Building will also feature glamorous commercial displays, a miniature greenhouse filled with exotic blooms, daily free style shows in the auditorium, and demonstrations of the revolutionary new microwave oven.

A tribute to the American housewife

"Just a housewife" is a term we hear too often. That's about like saying "just a doctor" or "just a company president." The job you're doing as a housewife is one of the most important anybody is doing in America today.

Who is mainly responsible for your family's health?
 It's you - the housewife. And our fine national health record testifies to the good job you're doing on this score.

Who sets your family's standing in your community?
 You do. You not only create an attractive home for your family and plan the entertaining, but also make most of the outside social contacts in church, club and community. How far would the charitable operations of these groups get without your help?

And your family's financial standing depends as much upon your ability to manage money as it does your husband's ability to earn it. Your family savings program is as much your responsibility as it is your husband's.

That's why so many women today are urging their husbands to invest in U. S. Series E Savings Bonds. They know that the principal invested in Bonds is safe - not subject to market fluctuations. And the returns are sure - an average 3% interest, compounded semi-annually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months). With the automatic extension privilege, Bonds will continue to pay that same high interest for 10 years more. That means $1.80 in returns for every $1.00 invested.

Remember, you can help your family win financial security tomorrow - by encouraging your husband to invest regularly in Savings Bonds today.

And the next time you hear someone say "just a housewife," stick up your chin and speak up for the job you're doing. Where would your family or your country be without you?

For the big things in your life, be ready with U. S. Savings Bonds
