

Complete Reorganization of Relief Planned

COUNTIES MAY NOT HAVE ANY LOCAL HEADS

Thirty-Eight Districts May Replace 254 County Organizations Under the Plan.

Plans for the new organization have been drawn by K. S. Wendler, field supervisor for Texas relief commission.

Under the present system each county has its own administrator. They would be substituted by a district office and subordinate forces of four to six employees in each county.

Shift of the employable relief burden from the state to WPA is responsible for the reorganization plan. Last check on employables who will be left for the state to support, according to the latest Washington reports, showed 55,850 cases of more than 250,000 persons.

Relief was granted to nearly 950,000 Texans last month, however. There were 97,328 direct relief families, some of whom had employable members.

ARMED REVOLT IS FEARED IN MEXICAN TOWN

BROWNSVILLE, July 24.—Rifle men and machine gunners manned the roof tops of Matamoros, Mexico, today as farmers picketing the city threatened to march in and take possession unless Mayor Raphael Munguia resigned by 4 p. m. today.

Munguia issued a statement saying he believed General Cerera, commander of the federal garrison, would intercede and prevent the march on the city. He added he was confident the situation would be worked out without bloodshed. The mayor refused to resign.

Explosion Blasts Hopes for Pay in Breck Men's Well

BRECKENRIDGE, July 24.—A premature explosion in the Pitzer & West well on the George DeLafosse ranch, around which had revolved high hope for a new oil field in this section, ruined the well and the hole will be plugged.

This was the unfortunate circumstance surrounding the bringing in of the well reported this afternoon by C. K. West of local firm of operators.

Mr. West said that one shell had been run into the hole Monday when the 20 quarts of nitro-glycerin exploded about 1,200 feet off bottom in the 4456-foot hole. The theory, he said, was that the latch failed to trip and the shell started back and fired by friction.

Whether another hole will be sunk on the company 5,400-acre lease remains a matter yet to be decided, Mr. West said. "We just cannot say anything about that at this time," he added.

WORMS PLAGUE FARMS GOLDEN VALLEY, Ont.—This farming section has been attacked by a plague of army worms. Living mounds of worms, six to eight inches deep, are a common sight.

SCHOOL MAN OPPOSING FREE TEXT BOOK IDEA

Assuming the stand of the Texas State Teachers association, C. S. Eldridge, county school superintendent, has expressed opposition to the proposed free text-book amendment to be voted on in the Aug. 24 election.

The proposed amendment will read as follows on the ballots: "For or against the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting the furnishing of free text-books to each child of scholastic age attending any school in this state."

County Superintendent Eldridge believes that:

1. It would compel the state to spend tax money for text-books to be used in schools over which the state has no control, either as to the subjects taught, standards of instruction, or as to the qualifications of teachers employed.

2. If this amendment should carry, the funds used to purchase text-books for private and parochial schools would be taken out of the available school fund of the state.

3. The proposal would set a dangerous precedent in that it would violate a well established policy of both the state and the nation, viz., the policy of refusing to subsidize, even indirectly, a private or sectarian educational enterprise.

It is urged that every scholastic in Texas is entitled to free text-books. True, provided he exercises this right under the regulations set up by the state. Like-wise every scholastic is entitled to free tuition, provided he avails himself of this privilege upon the terms prescribed by the state.

If it is proper to spend public funds to provide text-books for pupils who do not attend public schools, it must logically follow that these same pupils, not in public schools, have a right to have their tuition paid at public expense. The latter suggestion would be generally opposed we are sure, yet it is as reasonable and as logical a conclusion as can be drawn from the first proposal.

Such a policy would inevitably lead to confusion, bitterness and strife.

The body hopes to maintain the same values of 1934, Judge Garrett has stated.

COTTON LOANS MAY GO UP ON THE 1935 CROP

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Sen. John Bankhead, Democrat, Alabama, today said the government would lend cotton farmers at least 12 cents and possibly 13 cents a pound on this year's crop.

He said official announcement would be made as soon as the AAA amendment bill reaches the president.

"The administration is prepared at least to sustain last year's purchasing power for the cotton farmers and to protect cotton now under government loans by making a loan on this year's crops," Bankhead said.

"That loan cannot be less than 12 and it is hoped it will be 13 cents. Announcement has been withheld pending the continuance of the Bankhead act. That is being continued in the AAA amendment."

Bankhead said confusion growing out of court decisions has caused general demoralization of the cotton trade, resulting in a downward price trend.

Both Sides Say They Have Won Terre Haute Strike

By United Press TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 25. Both sides claimed victory today in the Terre Haute strike.

The controversy between employers and employes that cost about $1,000,000 and shut down all business, ended 43 hours after it began with neither capital nor labor satisfied.

The walkout was called in sympathy of demands of striking workers in the Columbian Enameling & Stamping company that armed guards be removed from the plant. When the walkout was called off amid rioting last night it was admitted the status of the strike at the Columbian plant was unchanged.

The court has granted Lake Cisco Amusement company privilege of retailing beer, authorizing a license to be issued by the tax collector's department.

Case of O. D. Dillingham vs. Z. B. Morgan has been dismissed for want of prosecution. Court costs were assessed the plaintiff. Cross action of Morgan was also dismissed because of want of prosecution.

BUFFALO GAP SELECTED AS ELEVEN CAMP

Buffalo Gap has been selected as the encampment site for the Eastland Mavericks, C. A. Hertig, school business manager, announced Wednesday, following his return from the camp.

Definite date has not been set for the encampment but it will be held the latter part of August, the school business manager indicated.

Hertig, with Rev. Charles W. Estes, inspected the site Tuesday and was accompanied by Rev. E. B. Surface of Abilene.

The first encampment of any Eastland football team, as far as could be recalled by school officials, was made possible by the Eastland Athletic association, the Chamber of Commerce, and football fans.

First assurance that the gridsters would have an encampment was seen Saturday when receipts of a benefit minstrel showed over $150 netted.

Thirty boys will go on the encampment with their coach, Johnny Kitchen, and stay from one week to 10 days.

Fans to Inspect Maverick's Field Sunday Afternoon

Inspection day at the Eastland football field will be held Sunday afternoon, C. A. Hertig, school business manager, announced Wednesday.

The field was recently completed by relief labor under sponsorship of the Eastland independent school district. The field is located on the Eastland-Ranger highway.

The plaintiffs ask that the court issue a writ of mandamus compelling the county superintendent to make transfers of students of the two districts to enable attendance at Cisco High.

Also asked by petitioners is approval of teachers contracts in their districts in the elementary grades.

Petitioners set forth their version of the case as follows: The Eastland county board in September, 1929, grouped Nimrod, Haskell, Seranton, Dan Horn districts in Eastland county and Zion Hill and Atwell districts in Callahan county, forming the Seranton Rural High school district.

The Callahan county board concurred with the Eastland group in the grouping in September, 1929.

In June, 1934, following protest of residents of the Nimrod and Dan Horn districts, they were detached from the Seranton Rural High School district. Callahan county concurred in this action.

TEXAS UTILITY HEAD HEARD IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Chairman Hugo Black thumped the table with his fist and snapped abrupt questions at a Texas power company official today when the senate lobby investigation took a mysterious turn about a "cigar box wrapped in newspaper."

Shifting back to the unexplained box, Black asked John W. Carpenter, president of the Texas Power & Light company:

"Do you still say that in the morning of the day before the vote on the utility bill death sentence you didn't give a congressman a box wrapped in newspaper?"

Carpenter, gray-haired, wearing tortoise-shelled glasses, answered, "I don't think I did, unless it was a few cigars."

Black abruptly recessed until tomorrow after asking Carpenter to "refresh his recollection" and to return for further testimony regarding his story of hotel conferences, dinners, and a trip down Chesapeake bay in which utility men and congressmen participated prior to the death sentence bill vote.

Doubtful Glance Cast As Youths Say 'Truckdriver'

They say they're truck drivers but Crigler Paschall, assistant district national re-employment service manager, believes they are delivery boys.

In conducting the recent county-wide unemployed employables registration many youths would state their occupation as truck drivers and cite their experience as maneuvering grocery and bakery trucks.

Knowing well that they would not be capable of handling dual wheel hydraulic and heavy trucks, they were given other classifications.

The registration, tantamount to employment in the coming works program, is 98 per cent completed, Paschall stated Tuesday.

Initial estimate of employables remains at 5,500. Of the number about 500 are women and 1,200 "white collar" workers.

Office records show some have been unemployed for over four years, yet have not accepted relief.

Unemployed employables may still register at the office located in the courthouse basement at Eastland. Registration at Rising Star, Gorman, Ranger, Carbon and Cisco offices closed last week.

Eastland Youth Is Club Entertainer

Edmund Herring, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Herring, played accordion solos Tuesday when Lion Club members held their weekly luncheon on Connellee hotel roof.

that reminds me...

Texas is beginning preliminary work for delving into the experience of a show for 1935 of National and International "Magnificence." That experience is going to be Texas as a whole not results that will make the future profit from the standpoint of profitability look like world war fighter figures and then some. It is the thing that comes to mind that the fact that thousands of Texans are going to have the experience of parting with their dollars the wise and cunning policies of kinds of film flam ideas promoted by those who don't give a cent about the Centennial nor Texas. Some guy is going to enter a town and have in his brief case a big idea that will ring your town on the map. He's going to make it up in book or something and he's going to tell all the folks in the United States about your nice little town—and he's going to see to it that these 20,000,000 people who expected to visit the Centennial will all stop over and buy everything the town has to offer. All a town's folks have to do is to pay so much money to defray the expenses of getting out there. That number one.

Number two is that all kinds of schemes are going to be put in motion by crooks to go about raising funds for this and that to have a presentation at the Centennial. We don't know what it will be, but look out, its going to be something. When a thing is hot, it's the time to strike—and the folks know that and they get in their work early. Every town and street is going to be visited by henchmen with some kind of frills, it using the background of the Centennial as sales argument.

Here's what we are trying to put on. No matter who, what and how—don't pay a bit of attention to outsiders to anything that'll cost money regarding the coming Centennial unless it has the credentials directly from the Centennial committee. The minute at one is first approached the thing to do is to wire the Centennial headquarters at once to let them know what is going on. The only way to safeguard against outside invasion where money will be drawn away is for each community to get together with their members of commerce if they have any, and their local newspaper and your own propagating and work out your own publicity plans. The Centennial committee will be glad to advise any community the proper procedure to capitalize the community by virtue of the millions who will visit Texas in 1936.

Every community should get in the thing now with the spirit of the occasion and see that they are not overlooked in the scramble to be the Texas' first statewide effort to bring before the world its rehabilitation of its pioneer days and standing.

Eastland, which is on a direct line of the Broadway of America East and West from coast to coast, has much to bring before the chambers of commerce of the nation. Direct highways North and South with highway feeders from all states would do well to be in formulating plans as to bringing folks in this direction when traveling by automobile. Some kind of publicity calling attention to all facts worth while should be placed in the chambers of commerce of all key cities in the United States. It is a well known fact that whenever folks start out on a journey they go to the chambers of commerce and ask for places they intend to visit and the best route. From the chambers of commerce of the highway industry on a direct line of national highways to Dallas the city. The fact that we are in a direct line to Dallas makes it a worthy of consideration.

Also already started their construction along this line. A special bill for an inland form will be issued soon in the near future. Congressional Leaders Hope to Adjourn in Mid-August

President Roosevelt invited his congressional advisers to go on a Sunday picnic at one of his hideouts. Politics, it is said, was not the issue uppermost for discussion. It was admitted by all "the invited guests" that there was no lessening of a heavy legislative program "complicated by business antagonism to wealth tax plan."

McCraw As A Collector of Hot Oil Money

Chairman E. O. Thompson and his fellow commissioners are making it hot all along the line for violators of the oil conservation laws of state and nation. Attorney General McCraw is the last word as a collector of hot oil fines and the beauty of his performance is that the fines assessed are placed to the credit of the general revenue fund.

Above the map surrounded by a border and with an arrow pointing directly into Cisco are shown the resources of Cisco, its agricultural, industrial and recreational features. Cisco has the largest artificial swimming pool in the world. It has the largest hollow type dam in the southwest. All this is shown on the front page of the edition. It is the greatest and most concrete piece of publicity for a community that has ever been devised as indicated from comments of those who have seen the engraving. The front page tells the story in pictures. Cisco is to be congratulated on its foresight and they no doubt will cash in during Centennial year as a result. This thought was all devised by the local Cisco interests and no outsider will get to pocket a big commission out of the proceeds. The money stays at home and continues to circulate around the cash drawers of Cisco's business interests. That's as it should be.

Eastland would do well to be on its toes and join in the parade of creating interest in our community. What helps any community in Eastland county helps most everybody in the county. As we sow so shall we reap and now is the time to get busy and find the right kind of seed.

GINNERS AGAINST FARMERS ARE FOR PROCESSING TAX
By United Press
DALLAS, July 24.—The Texas Cotton Ginners association today was preparing to post $100,000 bond which must be filed with W. A. Thomas, collector of internal revenue, to make effective a court order restraining collection of the cotton ginning tax.

Federal Judge Randolph Bryant who granted the injunction against collection of the tax, ruled that such a bond must be filed to protect the government in the event the gin tax is held constitutional and payment ordered.

DALLAS, July 24.—Texas farmers will challenge the legality of the tariff that protects manufacturing unless the manufacturers cease their war on the AAA.

The AAA processing tax is the farmer's tariff," H. G. Lucas, of Brownwood, president of the Texas Agricultural association, said.

The manufacturing industry has destroyed the processing tax and now the farmers propose to destroy the tariff. If the processing tax is illegal the tariff is illegal."

Jobs More Scarce For Indian Graduates
By United Press
SALEM, Ore.—Finding jobs for thousands of Americans is hard enough, but placing graduates of the Chienawana Indian school is even more difficult, said Supt. James R. Ryan.

"Public attitude toward Indians has changed little with the years," said Ryan. The present policy of the Indian Service is to fill vacancies with youthful tribesmen.

Reporters May Be In Contempt of Court
By United Press
ANGLETON, July 24.—Reporters and editors of three Houston newspapers faced possible contempt citations today for publishing accounts of the trial of Clyde Thompson, 23, charged with murdering a fellow convict.

District Judge M. S. Munson told staff correspondents of the newspapers yesterday he would hold them in contempt of court if accounts of the trial were published in papers circulated in Brazoria county.

He said it was difficult to get a jury because of newspaper accounts.

Judge Munson said today he was asked what he would do now that newspaper had published accounts of the trial.

"I am going to handle it in my own way," he said.

Big Navy Program Emulated By Youth
By United Press
NEW YORK.—The administration's big navy program apparently has been taken seriously by the nation's youths. While the U. S. fleet has been showing its strength in the Pacific, bathtub navies have been mushrooming throughout the country.

Lilliputian fleets have been best sellers, stores report. Every type of craft is taking the water in vacation ponds, backyard wading pools and bathtub regattas. Children seemingly take pride in learning the correct "salty" phraseology to describe their craft.

State Has Rested In Murder Trial
RUSK, Tex., July 24.—Defense witnesses were expected to be called today in the trial of W. O. Farrish, who is charged with murder in connection with the death of Charles Murphy a year ago.

The state rested its case yesterday after Dr. R. T. Travis of Jacksonville testified that in his opinion Murphy's skull was fractured by a blow from a small, blunt instrument.

Ozarks Folk Get First Work Center

JAMES E. HELBERT
United Press Staff Correspondent
FORSYTHE, Mo.—The New Deal in one of its newest garbs soon will make a nationwide debut here in the Ozark Mountains.

July 1 is the date set for the first government-approved work center under the rural rehabilitation program. Paradoxically, the county chosen is a banner Republican stronghold.

Back in the highlands made famous by Harold Bell Wright's "The Shepherd of the Hills," farm folk who never looked for or expected help, least of all from Washington, have expressed a willingness "to go along with the government 'fellers' and give it a try."

Drouth, floods, erosion, interest, taxes have combined in the Ozarks to batter down native distrust of government assistance. Cautious, deliberate hill-dwellers were slow to accept the federal offer but ninety Taney county farmers have agreed to co-operate in an effort to raise the common economic level.

A work center, such as the one to be inaugurated here, is "a place where a group of people may do things collectively which they couldn't do themselves individually." That is the definition given by Eric Orf, in charge of work centers for Missouri.

The project calls for the erection of a cannery here where farmers will work when the crop is harvested. Government funds will erect the plant which eventually will become the property of the community.

But the hill-folk selected to join the self-help program had no money for seed, work animals, implements, and in many cases, food and clothing.

Here's where the program began to rehabilitate and the familiar characteristics of charity and relief dispensation were avoided.

A typical farmers case: The government leased his farm for three years guaranteeing interest to the mortgage owner. Money was advanced as a loan for seed, clothing, a team of mules and other necessities needed to make the farmer an independent, self-supporting Ozark citizen.

The cannery will buy all the tomatoes and beans the farmer produces, then he will work in the plant. From his wages, the government expects him to repay the loan.

"It's a mite unusual," drawled a grizzled veteran of the hills, "but we're willin' to try it cause we've had nothin' at all the last years."
