

Big List Before Voters

Candidates For State Offices Total 57

AUSTIN, June 7 (AP)—Democratic candidates for statewide office mounted to 57, one of the largest totals in history, before arrival of the filing deadline last midnight.

The latest to pay their $100 filing fees were Lewis C. Foster, 42-year-old Fort Worth hat salesman, who hopes to be state treasurer and George H. Allen, Tyler veterinarian, who will run for commissioner of agriculture.

Vann Kennedy, secretary of the state democratic executive committee, said filings placed in the mails and registered before last midnight probably would be accepted.

Gubernatorial candidates numbered 14, which was greater than ever before. They were James A. Ferguson of Belton, Clarence R. Miller and Ernest O. Thompson of Dallas, Marvin P. McCoy and Joseph King of Houston, Attorney General William McCraw, Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson, S. T. Brogdon of Stephenville, Clarence E. Farmer, Karl Crowley and W. Lee O'Daniel of Fort Worth, Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls, P. D. Renfro of Beaumont and Thomas Self of Crockett.

Mahon And Hardeman Without Opposition

Passing of the deadline for filing for state or district office Tuesday found congressional and legislative representatives without opposition.

Rep. George Mahon, Colorado representative from the 19th congressional district, was unopposed in asking for his third term in congress. Dorsey B. Hardeman, San Angelo, was the only candidate listed for representative of the 91st legislative district, a post vacated by Rep. Penrose Metcalfe, now running for state senator in the San Angelo district.

No such easy sailing existed for other district candidates, however. The two offices open in the 70th judicial district are objects of heated contests.

Seeking the office of district judge, a post to be left vacant by retirement of Judge Charles L. Klapproth, Midland, at the end of this year, are Cecil Collins, district attorney, Clyde E. Thomas, Big Spring attorney, and Paul Moss, Odessa attorney.

Out for the office of the post Collins will vacate are Martelle McDonald, Big Spring attorney, Walton Morrison, Howard county attorney, Boyd Laughlin and Don Traynor, both Midland attorneys.

Deadline for filing for county and precinct offices is June 18, and after that the political wars will start in earnest. County speaking dates under the direction of M. E. Smith, will start two days later at Vealmoor.

AND THAT'S ENOUGH

TONAWANDA, N. Y., June 7 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rollin, who have a child in every class in grade school, decided some time ago that if another child was born it would be named "Enough."

The birth of Evelyn Enough Rollin, the Rollins' 11th child, was recorded in the bureau of vital statistics today.

Naval Funds Are Approved

Money Available For New Expansion Program

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—The house appropriations committee approved $35,802,000 today for starting the billion dollar naval expansion program.

The item was part of a $272,516,979 omnibus money bill on which the house immediately began debate after receiving the committee report.

Leaders hoped consideration of the measure to be completed late tomorrow.

Besides the naval funds, principal items in the bill were:

$94,285,404 supplemental capital for the Commodity Credit corporation.

$40,561,886 to refund social security taxes to states which did not have unemployment compensation laws in effect prior to December 31, 1936.

$50,000,000 for refunds of processing taxes collected under the original agricultural adjustment act, and the cotton, tobacco and potato control laws.

The bill would permit the beginning of work on 19 naval vessels—two 35,000-ton battleships to cost $141,500,000; two light cruisers, seven auxiliary vessels and eight experimental vessels for a "mosquito" fleet.

An initial appropriation of $16,000,000 was recommended for these ships, the total cost of which was estimated at $312,000,000.

AGREEMENT NEAR ON WAGE-HOUR BILL

Gillette, Foe Of Roosevelt Court Bill, Defeats Iowa Candidate Who Had Hopkins' Support

Winner Polling Over 50 Pct. Of The Vote

DES MOINES, June 7 (AP)—The purported drive of some nationally known New Dealers against Iowa Senator Guy M. Gillette appeared to have been swamped under a deluge of democratic primary votes today.

Senator Gillette, who charged during the campaign that New Deal strategist Tommy Corcoran was directing the drive against him from Washington, was polling more than 50 per cent of the votes as returns from Iowa's 2,447 precincts reached the three-fourths mark.

Representative Otha D. Wearin, endorsed by WPA Chief Harry L. Hopkins and "my friend" to James Roosevelt, was receiving a little more than a quarter of the total and three other candidates shared the rest.

In a statement issued at his Cherokee, Ia., home, Senator Gillette said his apparent victory "will give that left wing group, which started out to control the party nomination in 1940, a very great incentive to think things over."

LOSER—Otha Wearin. The senator said, however, that "this is no occasion for personal resentment against any person." "But I join in the resentment of some administration supporters."

Result Seen As A Rebuke For WPA Leader

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Democratic senators who fought the Roosevelt court bill were jubilant today over the decisive primary victory of Senator Guy Gillette of Iowa, first of their number up for re-nomination this year.

It was this group which focused national attention on the Iowa contest by senate declarations that WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins was trying to "put WPA into politics" through his endorsement of Representative Otha Wearin, Gillette's principal challenger.

After the votes were counted, these senators described Wearin's defeat by nearly two to one as a sharp rebuke to Hopkins.

Anti-administration legislators, in fact, regarded the primary as a distinct setback to the Roosevelt forces not only in view of Hopkins' stand but because Wearin himself claimed White House support.

The only outward manifestation of the latter was a reference to Wearin by James Roosevelt as "my friend." Some administration supporters

WINNER—Guy Gillette. He contended the issue in Iowa had not been clearcut. They pointed out that Gillette repeatedly expressed his loyalty to the president and

Blanket 40-Ct. Requirement Eliminated

Southerners Bitterly Opposed To That Provision

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Senate and house conferees apparently were near agreement today on controversial wage and hour legislation which started a North and South fight at the capital.

Senate conferees adopted a compromise taking out of the measure the requirement that a 40-cent per hour pay scale be applied to all interstate industry at the end of five years. Southerners had opposed the requirement bitterly.

Soon thereafter, Chairman Norton (D-N.J.) of the house conference group indicated clearly that the house conferees would join in the proposal.

Mr. Norton said she personally favored writing into the bill a time limit within which the 40-cent minimum would become effective but added "we must concede something somewhere."

The senate group, voting 4 to 3, approved a modified proposal by Senator Thomas (D-Utah) which would put into effect a universal wage of 25 cents an hour for the first year, advancing to 30 cents the second year.

Advisory Boards. After that, advisory boards for each industry would determine the minimum wage, advancing it to 40 cents an hour as rapidly as "economically feasible" within that industry.

One of the senate conferees said he was confident the Thomas compromise would be accepted by the house conferees, clearing the way for action on the wage-hour conference report and early adjournment of congress.

Senators Borah (R-Idaho), Walsh (D-Mass) and La Follette (Prog-Wis) were understood to have voted against adoption of the compromise. Borah and Walsh were expected to present a minority report.

The conferees adjourned until 10 a. m. tomorrow without formal discussion by the house conferees of the senate compromise proposal.

Representative Ramspeck (D-Ga.) who supported the compromise, said he believed it would be impossible for the conferees to complete their work in time for congress to adjourn this week.

Speaker Bankhead concurred in Ramspeck's opinion, telling his press conference he did not "see any chance at all" that congress would be able to adjourn by Saturday night.

Filibuster Threatened. Southern senators had hinted at a filibuster—delaying adjournment indefinitely—against any wage-hour bill which omits pay differentials.

They opposed some provisions of a compromise by which Senator Thomas hoped to break a deadlock in the joint committee appointed to redraft the year-old legislation.

Predictions were general that the committee would accept Thomas' proposal, but leaders who would like to find the session Saturday expressed concern over a statement by Senator Ellender (D-La.).

"Southern members want exemptions from the 40-cent wage granted to some industries, because they are living conditions in their region are lower and freight rates are discriminatory."

EGG BARRAGE FOR THOMAS

Norman Thomas is shown as a veritable rain of rotten eggs drove him from a speakers' stand in military park at Newark, N. J., when he tried to address a crowd of 500. A band of 100 men in overseas caps shouted down the speaker. Police disbanded the meeting. Thomas demanded an apology, police protection for another meeting. Prize Money For Rodeo Is Increased

Contract Closed For Stock For Use In Shows

Arrangements were made for 135 head of stock to be used in the annual Big Spring Cowboy Rodeo and Rodeo shows here July 2-3-4 by directors in a meeting Monday evening.

At the same time directors authorized a revision in prize awards, boosting the total purse slightly.

Contract was closed with Red Lyons, Byers, for 20 wild horses for the bronc bustin'. Lyons also will furnish 20 raw-boned Brahma steers for the steer riding events, and another 20 head of steers for use in the calf roping events.

Vance Davis, Garden City, was given contract for furnishing the roping and belling calves for the six shows. He will buy 40 head of salty Brahma calves near Cotulla for use in the calf roping competition. He has another 35 head on his ranch in Glascock county for use in the calf roping events.

Davis is due to bring his calves here five days in advance of the show, and all stock is scheduled to be in the rodeo corrals by June 30 in order to become accustomed to their surroundings.

Meanwhile, directors are ironing out prize details before announcing the final prize figures. They also authorized the immediate repair of the grounds, damaged by high winds last week, and will make several other changes and improvements before opening of the first rodeo session less than a month hence.

First Wheat Sold Here

Garlington Delivery Brings 12-Ct. Premium From Logan

First load of this year's Howard county wheat crop brought 12 cents premium here Tuesday.

Logan Feed Store bought in 6,000 pounds of wheat produced by the Garlington Farms for 62 cents a bushel, 12 cents premium on the quoted price. For several years Vernon Logan, manager of the feed store, has paid a premium on the first load and for several years the Garlington farms has brought in the first load.

The grain, cut from around the edges and in random ripe spots, was barely light for No. 1 and missed the 60 pound per bushel average.

J. S. Garlington, who with his son, Don Garlington, operates the farms that bear their name, estimated that the crop would average eight to 10 bushels an acre—average for the nation. As the wheat is cut, Garlington is summer fallowing the land.

"This is the only way to grow wheat in Howard county," he believes. "We tried it on a 500 acre piece we are now cutting and it is making three times as much as last year, although we haven't had the rains."

The current crop, estimated to be at least half under the total for last year's bumper crop, was made on about four inches rain through the winter months. It got nothing but light showers in the spring when it needed rain most.

The Garlington's have about 1,750 acres to small grain at Vincent, Bisco and Vealmoor. Of this 1,500 is wheat and 250 is barley.

ORDERS DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—Directors of J. C. Penney Co. operators of a national chain of stores, today declared a dividend of 75 cents a share on common stock, payable June 30 to holders of record June 17. Previous payment was $1 on March 24.

More Rainfall For This Area

Showers Spotted; Two Inches In Elbow Sector

Continuation of a wave of stormy weather brought additional moisture to Big Spring and surrounding area Monday in spotted thunder-showers.

The precipitation measured .38 at the U. S. Experiment Farm and .52 at the department of commerce airways weather bureau at the airport. Southward toward Elbow, as high as two inches were reported. City park streams all ran bank full and Elbow creek was still bank full at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

The Lucian Wells ranch, near the Howard-Glascock line, had an inch and a half, while the McDowell ranch, in Glascock county had only three-quarters of an inch. In isolated areas of Glascock county as much as a quarter to an inch were registered.

The area of Big Spring was visited by light and spotted showers. Occasionally, as in north of Coahoma, downpours were reported. Eight miles west of Big Spring on the C. E. Anderson farm the amount was recorded as three-quarters of an inch. The spotted condition continued westward.

Biggest of the rains south of Big Spring came from showers about 10 p. m. and not from the early evening banks which poured out on this city and immediate territory.

Another Decline In Crude Output

TULSA, June 7 (AP)—Production of crude oil in the United States declined 2,412 barrels daily during the week ended June 4 to an average of 3,166,875. The Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

Oklahoma production increased 875 barrels daily to 440,475, and East Texas swelled by 379 barrels daily to 363,248 while that of the whole state of Texas dropped 5,706 barrels daily to an average of 1,349,702.

FACE CHARGES OF IGNORING STREET BARRICADES

Ten people have been summoned to appear before City Judge Tracy T. Smith Wednesday morning on charges of disregarding street barricades.

Summons were issued after several cars had either removed, crashed through or driven around barricades on Bell street where fresh asphalt topping was down. City officials asserted that the traffic badly damaged a section of the street, now being surfaced.

Work, disrupted frequently by showers, was resumed Wednesday as workmen pushed for completion of the paving project.

Canton Casualties Go To 6,000 In New Bombings

South China City Raided Three Times For 11th Successive Day

CANTON, China, June 7 (AP)—Japan's warplanes bombed this terrorized South China city three times today and swelled the toll of dead and wounded which had reached 6,000 since the punishing series of raids began eleven days ago.

The third raid was made by moonlight, beginning at 8:30 p. m. (6:30 a. m. C.S.T.), and incendiary bombs were dropped in northern sections of the city.

Canton, including the foreign settlement of Shameen Island, was without electric light or power tonight.

The first raid came soon after dawn, when Japanese planes for ten minutes bombed the congested Tungan and Saichuen districts. Local Chinese authorities have ordered all women and children to leave the city. Thousands have gathered at railway stations and along the waterfront, patiently awaiting transport. Facilities are entirely inadequate to handle the exodus.

Canton has drawn Japanese air attacks because it is the gateway for most of China's imported war supplies.

To Continue Raids

(In Shanghai a Japanese navy spokesman declared Japan would continue bombings of Canton and Hankow because of their military importance. He denied they were undefended cities.)

After an early morning foray, the Japanese fliers returned this afternoon and methodically bombed government offices and the railroad line to Hankow, provisional seat of the government.

The bombarded areas, however, had been objectives of previous Japanese bombs and had been completely evacuated. It was believed, therefore, civilian casualties would be small.

The first raid today was brief and the damage comparatively slight.

INSURGENT OFFENSIVE

HENDAYE, France (At the Spanish Frontier), June 7 (AP)—Spanish insurgent armies today launched a general offensive against Valencia along a 50-mile front between Teruel and the Mediterranean.

The attack, unleashed at dawn, was supported by hundreds of planes and large concentrations of heavy artillery.

General Jose Varela's army in the Teruel sector smashed southeastward toward the coast, while General Aranda's Galicians struck straight to the south down the seaboard.

Between the two armies Navarre troops under General Garcia Valino fanned out to cover their flanks.

The new offensive started after five days of skirmishing in which lines had remained virtually unchanged.

ARKANAS BANK IS ROBBED BY TRIO

BRADLEY, Ark., June 7 (AP)—Three men held up the bank here today at 9:10 a. m. and fled in a fuselage of shots with $685.25.

The bandits overtook approximately $2,000.

Jack Meek, assistant cashier who was alone in the bank at the time, said the bandits headed south on the Shreveport highway in a maroon two door sedan (Ford) of 1938 model with Louisiana license plates.

Sheriff Oce Griffin of Lewisville, Ark., who was in Bradley at the time, immediately telephoned a report of the robbery to the sheriff's office at Benton, La., south of Bradley on the Shreveport highway and deputies were posted along the route the bandits had taken.

State Gas Regulation Procedure Threatened

Lone Star Tests Payment Of Special Tax

AUSTIN, June 7 (AP)—Representatives of the attorney general's department said today that state regulation of gas utilities was in immediate danger of being seriously crippled because of the Lone Star Gas company's refusal to pay the regulation tax without protest.

About one-third of the revenue for operation of gas regulatory agencies comes from the tax on the Lone Star. The company has started paying the levy under protest on grounds it is invalid. Under that condition, the money must be held in suspense until legality of the tax is settled in the courts.

Representatives of the attorney general and the gas utilities division of the railroad commission held a conference with Lone Star attorneys here yesterday in an effort to reach a compromise but nothing was accomplished. Attorney General McCraw said at Bay City he would return here in an effort to raise money to continue the gas utilities regulatory work.

One suggestion was that Governor James V. Allred advance the agencies some money out of his fund for emergencies but the governor intimated the fund already was so small that such a move would be impractical.

Randolph Field Instructors, Cadet Are Victims

SAN ANTONIO, June 7 (AP)—Two Randolph Field instructors and a student officer were critically injured in two separate airplane crashes near the main airbase this morning.

The 40-ft. Second Lieut. Arthur M. Keppler, 29, of Houston.

Second Lieut. Nathan H. Coddington, 28, of Los Angeles.

Flying Cadet William H. Conely, 25, of Washington, D. C. The student officer injured was Second Lieut. Frederick M. Thompson, 24, of Los Angeles.

Both ships were the North American BT-9 basic training ships and the two accidents happened near the same time though about six miles apart.

In both accidents reserve lieutenants on active duty as flying instructors were giving dual instruction to student pilots.

France Sends More Troops To Frontier

Premier In Personal Charge To Repel New Invasions

FOIX, France, June 7 (AP)—France rushed heavy reinforcements to the Spanish frontier today as Premier Edouard Daladier, who also is national defense minister, took personal charge of military preparations to repel aerial invasions.

Daladier, who spent last night in Foix on a tour of the frontier, made it plain he considered the repeated aerial attacks on French territory were deliberate and a grave menace of war which could be avoided only by forceful measures.

"I am convinced this bombardment was made with a double object in view," the premier said, after an investigation on the spot where power-lines and the right-of-way of the Toulouse-Barcelona railway were damaged by bombs dropped from nine planes of "unknown nationality" Sunday.

"We will not have war if we are strong and decided," he added. "If we look straight ahead and without fear we will be able to avoid it."

The premier's quick visit to the mountainous border regions, unfortified for centuries between the two traditionally friendly nations, was the result of the visit yesterday by nine unmarked planes over France's Cerdagne valley.

French anti-aircraft batteries opened fire with warning shots and the planes flew back over the border without dropping any bombs.

As a result of this, the third border violation by aircraft in two weeks, units of the 16th infantry and 404th anti-aircraft regiment arrived late yesterday at Ax-les-Thermes, center of the region 15 miles north of the border which was bombed Sunday.

Other units were scheduled to arrive on the frontier today.

COUNTY'S ACREAGE IN WHEAT GAINS

Sharp increases in wheat acreage over Howard county in the past two years were shown in tabulations completed by County Agent O. P. Griffin Tuesday.

From a low of about a thousand acres in 1935, the wheat acreage accelerated to 5,328 in 1937 when the county's largest crop was made. Griffin estimated that the 1938 acreage was equally as large if not larger.

Records by years follow: 1932, 2,069 acres; 1934, 1,544 acres; 1935, 1,078 acres; 1936, 1,470 acres; and 1937, 5,328 acres.

THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

Red Hodges, who held the distinction of playing with three ball clubs in the West Texas-New Mexico league this year, is going to his Frodo home to recuperate from an extended illness.

Red, in his ball games with Clovis, Wink and Big Spring, was clotting 400 when he retired to the sidelines and Manager Charles Barnabe thought it best that he get well and then give it another try.

Nothing But Right

Despite the fact that the Lubbock Hubbers succeeded in tying the count in the ninth inning of Monday's baseball battle in Baron park, Clarence Trantham richly deserved the victory and Umpire Rowland did right by calling the game.

The ruling brought a loud squawk from Lubbock's leaders, Harry Faulkner and Hack Miller, due to the fact that the arbiter had waited but 30 minutes to give his decision but he ruled "no-go" because of wet grounds and not because of rain.

Rowland was thinking of the fans' comfort who had stayed on to see the finish and not Big Spring's end of the deal and the Lubbock leaders had no right to give vent to such unportsmanlike feelings. A beating like that is hard to take but they should take it the right way.

Trantham was pitching under a big handicap when he went out in that final frame. He was throwing into a shapeless gloomy background and could hardly see the plate whereas the batters could easily see the ball outlined against the bright blue sky in the southeast.

"Fevins" should be congratulated on his victory. It was the first time this season that the Lubbockites had been held to one run. Had he left his change of pace with other members of the Barons' pitching staff he undoubtedly would have come away with a whitewash win.

Grabet Makes Good

Frankie Grabet, the Babe pitcher who tried to catch on here for two weeks, was signed by Lubbock and won a fine game in Wink Friday night. He threw seven hit balls at the Spudders and Catcher Miller of the Hubbers said that he had more speed than any pitcher he'd caught this season.

Miller, incidentally, didn't have so much success with Trantham's "downer" yesterday. He failed to come up with a base hit and hit into two double plays.

To Philadelphia

Red Ramsey, the All-American end of Texas Tech, was in town over the weekend visiting his brother, Rat, who plays right field for the Barons. Red says he is going to Philadelphia in mid-July where he's to begin football training with the professional Eagles of that city.

Speaking of graders, Olie Cordill, Big Spring's gift to Rice Institute, returned to Houston for the summer after spending several days here with his parents. Olie, who has two more years of college football, said he would like to try the professional game when he graduates from the Institute.

Midland's golfers took the leadership of the Sand Belt league Sunday afternoon by trimming the Colorado team, 26-14, in Colorado. Big Spring, however, has yet to play Crane and should trim that crew by an even more decisive score and regain the top honors.

The championship will be decided when Midland and Big Spring meet here July 10.

BACK IN ACTION

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 7 (AP)—Joe Louis, who already has boxed 26 rounds in preparation for his title defense against Max Schmeling, June 22, is scheduled for six more today against George Nicholson, Murray Kanner and Jim Howell.

Trantham Bests Lubbock Hubbers, 3-1; Hobbs Here For Two Games

Flood Erases Foe's Rally In Ninth

Johnny Soden Due To Take Hill Duties This Afternoon

The elements that had so threatened to ruin a masterful pitching performance by Clarence Trantham did an abrupt about-face and came to his rescue at Baron park Monday afternoon in the series finale against Lubbock and Big Spring won a ball game, 3-1. For eight innings "Pete Vink" had handiuffed the opposition completely and a double play at the beginning of the dark ninth apparently doomed the Hubbers to the worst licking they had experienced this season but Al Carr and the remainder of the invaders proved conclusively that a game is not over until that man is retired.

Carr's base hit, a "bleeder" down the first base line that Harry Siegbert fielded perfectly but Trantham failed to cover first on, set the stage for all the trouble. From there on Trantham could not get a man out. The Hubbs chased across the tying runs and had the winning run on third base when the rains came. And rain it did, a driving down-pour that left the field a quagmire yet brought a protest from the Hubber leaders. Manager Hack Miller of the invaders, when Umpire Rowland called the game on account of wet grounds at the end of a 30-minute period, argued that a decision could not be made until a half hour had passed.

Plenty Of Trouble Trantham's inability to get the opposition out can not be blamed on the big righthander. He was never better through the eighth inning, but it became so dark going into the final round that it was undoubtedly impossible to see the plate.

In chalking up his seventh pitching win of the season as against three defeats, the lanky Hico, Texas, youth bested the league's leading twirler, Charlie Bryan, who suffered his first licking in eight decisions. Three of those seven games which he won had been on Big Spring.

The Barons' inability to hit with men on sacks cost them several runs. They left 13 men stranded on the hassocks, eight of that number in the first three innings but the locals led from the start.

Bobby Decker, diminutive second sacker, signaled Bryan's downfall with a pop double into left field in the first frame. He eventually counted on Harry Siegbert's roller to short after moving over to third on Henderson's ground ball.

Al Berndt accounted for the Barons' other runs. He worked a pass out of Bryan in the fifth with the sacks populated, sending Ramsey into pay dirt, then singled Jo Saportito home in the seventh after the little Italian had taken the last of his three free passes. Trantham would probably have received credit for a shutout had he not eased up on a pitch in the sixth frame. He tossed a change of pace at Johnny Taylor after striking out Bob Mosel to begin the inning and Johnny promptly snapped the gift into center field for a double. He came home a moment later as Stevens garnered his only safe lick of the afternoon.

The Barons go out against the Hobbs Boosters this afternoon in the first of a two-game series, and Johnny Soden is expected to ride hard. Following the Hobbs show, the Wink Spudders come to town for two games Thursday and Friday.

AMBERS FIGHTS IN LOS ANGELES

Giants Obtain Greek Key Stoner For Crucial Series With Cubs

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

One of those trades that are described optimistically as helping both clubs, completed just before the Giants left Cincinnati yesterday, lends lustre to the "crucial" four-game tussle between New York and Chicago which gets underway today.

The league leadership is at stake and the Giants figure they got just what they needed when they obtained Alex Kampouris from the Reds yesterday in an even swap for big Wally Berger, a spare outfielder. Since Burgess Whitehead was laid low by appendicitis last spring, the Terrymen have been sadly afflicted by the lack of a dependable man at the keystone corner. They tried Lou Chiozza and Mickey Haslin. But neither had the answer.

STILL AT TOP The Giants, recalling an old

"hoodoo," tuned up for today's game by pasting the Reds, 11-2, in their farewell game yesterday while the Cubs retained their half game lead with a 10-8 decision over the Phillies.

The Cubs, trying to get along without using any first-run pitchers, were hard pressed to hold off the Phils as Al Epperly weakened after being given a 3-0 lead in the first inning; Charley Root went out in the seventh and Jack Russell was clubbed hard.

Jimmie Fox of the Boston Red Sox, Ken Chase and Zeké Bonura of Washington, and Roy Henshaw of the St. Louis Cardinals, were the headline performers in the day's other leading games.

Fox paced the Red Sox in a come-back that enabled them to beat out Detroit, 8-7, after trailing by five runs in the seventh. Fox clubbed his 14th homer, drove in three other counters and finally scored the winning run. HONORA STARS The Senators had to go 11 innings but they finally checked the Cleveland Indians' progress, 5 to 4, as Chase hurled seven-hit ball for the first 10 innings and Bonura doubled to score Al Simmons with the winning run. The defeat cut Cleveland's American league lead to three games as the New York Yankees, after spotting the St. Louis Browns five runs in the fourth, came back to win out, 6-4.

Henshaw, who remained with the Cards because Commissioner Landis wouldn't let them send him to Rochester, pitched six-hit ball to beat the Boston Bees, 11-2.

For the second straight day, Brooklyn had one big inning and beat Pittsburgh, 9-4, scoring seven runs on as many hits in the first inning and the other two in the second. The Chicago White Sox and Philadelphia Athletics took a day off.

MAX WANTING SECOND'S LICENSE FOR JOE JACOBS BEFORE TAKING RING WITH LOUIS

Manager Was Suspended Last Year

By GAYLE TALBOT

SPECLATOR, N. Y., June 7 (AP) One arrives here just in time to learn that Max Schmeling is preparing to make a ringing personal appeal to the New York state athletic commission to restore a second's license to Joe Jacobs.

Max has decided that he wants his manager of record in his corner when he starts taking pot shots at Joe Louis again on the night of June 22 at Yankee Stadium. He plans, he says, to button-hole Brigadier-General John J. Phelan, chairman of the commission, when the latter makes an expected appearance here in the next few days.

An matters stand, Jacobs wouldn't be permitted within yelling distance of Max's corner on the night of the big scrap. He lost his second's diploma last winter when the commission developed a temporary peeve at Tony Galento, who also is managed by the "Muscle."

An Asset Joe has been in the Schlager's corner in all of his fights in America. In fact, the little manager was given 50-50 credit the night in 1930 that Max won the heavyweight title from Jack Sharkey on a foul. It was he who swarmed into the ring and convinced Referee Jim Crowley that Max had been swatted beneath the belt.

Further, Max says, it was Jacobs who invaded Joe Louis' dressing room the evening of their first fight and saw to it that the negro wore only the stipulated quantity of bandage and tire tape around his fists instead of the lethal dose he had been administering to prior opponents.

It is seldom that the German works himself into such a positive state of mind about anything. It possibly is accounted for by the fact that he had reached top condition too soon and is on edge. From here on he is going to box only six rounds daily and will lay off entirely this coming Thursday and Friday.

"I could fight tomorrow night," he said.

MARSHALL LOSES TO LONGVIEW

By The Associated Press The Marshall Tigers, leading the East Texas league, suffered a one-game setback last night (Monday) when 49-year-old Oscar Turo, Longview currier, got a hit in the ninth inning to score the winning run in a 15-12 victory.

The second-place Texarkana Liners also lost, 15-9, to the Jacksonville Jax. The Jax got only eight safe hits off two Liner hurlers. Harvey Sublette's homer in the ninth inning gave the Henderson Oilers a 4-3 victory over the Palestine Pals.

SAM SNEAD LOW IN DRILL OVER DENVER COURSE

DENVER, June 7 (AP)—Cherry Hills' spell is broken. Par at the National Open firing range after withstanding the shelling of expert golfers since last Wednesday, finally crumpled before the power and finesse of Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. "Slamming Sammy" toured the trouble-spotted course late yesterday in 35-35-65, three strokes under par. He was the first of the contenders for the 1938 Open crown to break sand figures, which proved only were equalled but twice, by Defending Champion Ralph Guldahl and Vic Ghent, Dal., N. J., last.

Kopecky Vies With Davis At BSAC

Andy Tremaine Featured In Semi-Go With Pedigo

Like the big time fight racket in which the semifinal is waged after the main spot, the Big Spring Athletic club's main wrestling event should be the second bout tonight although Joe Kopecky and Dilly Davis are billed to go over the two-hour time limit in the last round.

Down in the 30-minute semifinal is Andy Tremaine who dropped out of the top billing through no fault of his own and whose joint with Blacksmith Pedigo should draw more interest.

The Tucson ex-grizzer is highly popular in local quarters and is expected to give the Louisville strong boy a rare licking.

Davis has twice been held to a deadlock over the shorter route so he's been stuck up there to see if he can do better as a main eventer. Joe Kopecky may not supply the kind of opposition the fans like but then he'll do in a clutch.

Davis thrashed George Hartay two weeks ago and returned to drub Soldier Thomas last Tuesday but in neither bout was he able to put over a kayo punch. He may have learned the trick this time.

Thomas and Gust Johnson debut the entertainment in a 20-minute special event which begins at 8:30. Johnson returns here after a two months' lay-off.

Courts To Be Repaired—May Stage City Tennis Tournament Here Soon

A city tennis tournament will be staged here later in the month provided enough interest can be shown among enthusiasts, the advisory council of the city's recreation department decided in its monthly meeting at the city hall Monday evening.

The city, according to City Manager E. V. Spence, will repair the two courts now in operation if such a move is successful.

Two attempts in the past to form a tennis club here have proved unsuccessful but a concerted drive by several of the leaders will be made within the near future, toward promoting the venture.

Entry fee to the meeting will be 50 cents. There must be at least 18 singles players enter before a tournament can be assured. Provided enough interest is shown among other parties a junior boys' and a girls' division may be formed.

All parties interested in tennis are asked to contact M. K. House, Sr., Jim Myers or H. C. Burrus.

Hefferman and an office assistant have been the only authorized employees of the committee, appointed to inquire into all angles of TVA and report to congress by next January 8.

Committee members predicted another public airing of the bitter dispute between Arthur E. Morgan and TVA directors Harcourt Morgan and David Lilienthal. At the BELLELEVILLE, Ill.—Mayor George Remanhard had good reason for calling off his fish fry. Hearing that fish were plentiful in a Carbondale lake, the mayor packed his rods—and simultaneously invited the council and other city employees to dinner.

His return with one fish—four inches long.

WASHINGTON—Kenneth Romney, house sergeant-at-arms, a Montanan by birth, thinks Texas has the ablest delegation of any state. He has been 23 years on the Hill and has this to say about some of the others:

Ablest democrats: Floor Leader Rayburn of Texas; O'Connor of New York, chairman of the powerful rules committee; Warren of North Carolina; Cooper of Tennessee, on the ways and means (taxation) committee; Jones of Texas, chairman of the agricultural committee.

Ablest republicans: Wadsworth of New York. (Used to be a senator.) Best lawyer in the house: Hutton Summers of Texas. (He's chairman of the judiciary committee.)

Most colorful representative: Maury Maverick of Texas. Best orator: Speaker Bankhead. Outstanding humorist: "There isn't any."

Best speaker in 25 years: Jack Garner of Texas. Romney didn't name "most useless delegation" or "most hopeless orator." He's a far better politician than the senate employes, and a few years ago wrote a piece for a magazine. Most of what that fellow said didn't matter but the members called him out on the floor to learn what he meant by one sentence saying something to the effect that "Very few senators have taken bribes."

He tried to explain that he referred to the whole history of the senate—but he lost his job anyway.

These Latin-American republics do seem to be having a good time. The latest is Panama. Ever since Theodore Roosevelt "bought" the Panama Canal right-of-way this country has been paying the little public $200,000 a year compensation.

Recently a new treaty was negotiated and submitted to the senate. It provided for increased payment as well as other changes in the treaty. But the senate has not yet ratified it so Panama still gets no money.

Meantime, it had to keep on paying interest on bonds, many of which were held privately in the United States.

Now a virtual ultimatum (strictly unofficial) has been served on the United States, saying in effect that until the U. S. resumes payment of its Canal Zone rent Panama will pay no interest on certain of its bonds held in the United States. It was simply "you pay, then we pay."

Open Book, Open Fire Peace note: Japan reorganizes the cabinet, and one general becomes minister of foreign affairs and another general becomes minister of education.

Romantic note (It is Senator Lewis of Illinois speaking): "In connection with the reference to Mr. Ickes, who is from Illinois, I should like to say at this particular moment that, from what we hear, he should be exempted from observations, as evidently he is engaged in domestic exigencies in foreign relations." (Laughter.)

The secretary of the interior was honeymooning at the moment in Ireland and England.

MRS. GARNER CAN'T SAY WHEN SHE'LL START FOR HOME WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Mrs. John Garner, whose departure for home is considered a sure sign that congress is about to adjourn, said today she had no idea when she would leave the capital.

"My magic wand don't work this year," laughed the wife and secretary of the vice president. "I'm just sitting here waiting."

When congress does adjourn, Mrs. Garner will sail from New Orleans for a 15-day Caribbean-Pacific cruise—but without her husband.

"He set his foot down," she explained. "He said he had to muck work to do to go off on a cruise."

Hollywood

Sights And Sounds by ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Romance blossoms in the funniest places—and faces. And the funnier, according to what is going on in the studios, the better.

"You can't kid love" used to be a maxim of the screen writers. You still can't—if it's young love and serious romance. But you certainly can if you're looking for a comedy love team that will do for the box office what Wally Berry and the late Marie Dressler did.

Observers see something like that in the new teaming of Joan Davis, the fall girl, and Bert Lahr, the "oh, boy, oh, boy" or "fing-ung, ung" comedian. It was coincidence when they appeared as romantics in "Love and Hisses," it may have been accident when they repeated in "Josette," but it's by careful design that they are together again in the Shirley Temple picture, "Lucky Penny."

The "straight" romance in this film is carried by Charlie Farrell (here returning to his former studio after long absence) and Amanda Duff, importee from Broadway. But the Lahr-Davis combination is almost equally featured.

Lahr, veteran of the vaudeville and musical comedy stages, staunchly upholds his right to screen romance, thus: "A lot of people think I'm an old geezer because I've been around so long. I've forgotten I started when I was a kid back in Yorkville and I'm just 43 now."

Doing Better Now His recent adventure in films has been more successful than his first talkie in which he starred. M-G-M made "Flying High" when the screen first sounded off, but it wasn't as funny as it might have been—probably because the studio took a successful stage play and "wrote around" it. Last year he came back for "Merry-Go-Round of 1938" and has been here ever since.

If you like reminiscences, he has them by the bushel. I liked especially his story about the time he was traveling in vaudeville with a midge partner. The girl traveled with her mother, and whenever (as always) Lahr got her on trains as a half-fare, she talked baby talk to mamma and convinced the conductors.

But one day a conductor demanded full fare. "That little girl needs a regular ticket," he told Lahr.

"Why?" said Lahr. "Because," said the conductor, "I just passed her in the diner. She was reading the menu to her mother, smoking a cigarette and reading 'Snappy Stories.'"

Everybody goes to restaurants... You see them in threes and sixes and sevens... Newspapers from every city in the nation, San Francisco, Denver, New Orleans... Fight managers and promoters from Miami, Chicago, Detroit... From Kansas City and Oakland and Fort Worth... You see Dempsey and Braddock and Tunney and Walker... Walker in his own restaurant, brown as a coffee bean, in a sport shirt open at the throat... Dempsey in his own restaurant, easy, jovial, well dressed... Braddock in his own restaurant, and Joe Gould, his manager... Gould, a little half-pint of a cherry fellow, and Braddock, a duel-scarred Irishman from the docks, who became Champ...

They say, "Louis is going to win this one," or "Max is going to give Louis a beating"... And they talk of the fight for a while and then slip into the endless reminiscences, the do-you-remember that never end, and are fascinating to listen to, if you know anything about fighting... They tell all the old tales, the humorous ones and the sad ones... They go back to old Sam Langford, and to Battling Siki, the black Senegalese, who was knifed on the sidewalks of Hell's Kitchen, in the heart of a city that boasts of the most advanced civilization on earth.

It is a raucous, jovial, but restless crowd, with the gamblers getting down their money, or covering up at last minute with "hedgings." Columnists and sports writers buttonhole this man and that man... They look, think, eat, talk, and breathe just one thing—Fight. They say: "Well, if those odds hold, I ought to make enough to buy a new car... If he knocks him out before the sixth, I like Max... I like Joe... But Max is too old... But Joe has never got over that other beating... You don't shake off bad beatings like that one..."

So it goes and so it will ever go, in the restaurants of New York, on the night before a big fight.

The detectives and the gamblers and the pug and the mentors, and the Plain Guys who happen to be around and like to bora in on conversations, and perhaps go home and say: "Max, I saw Dempsey..." The newspapermen and the cab drivers and the busy writers and bar captains... All talk fight talk... They remember the Long Count in Chicago... They remember Harry Greb, who licked 'em all, every when he was half blind... They talk of a hot 4th of July at Toledo, Ohio, back in 1919... And Big Jess Willard... It goes on and on and never ends until it is time to pour into tabs and go to a tiny white platform in the night shadows of a great stadium.

NEW YORK—New York is used to championship fights but it has never learned to take them in stride. On the eve of an important scrap we become a city of restaurant sitters... Everybody goes to restaurants and sits there all through the evening, and talks... It's all fight talk... It was that way before the Armstrong - Ross fight... It will be worse than ever before the heavyweight battle between Schmelling and Louis.

KNIFE THROWER NOT SO GOOD

INDIANAPOLIS, June 7 (AP)—Several children were throwing a knife at the side of a barn when a youthful stranger walked up bragged of his ability as a knife thrower.

Eleven-year-old James Dows agreed to stand with his back to the barn and let the stranger toss the blade at him.

It turned out James had too much confidence. Police gave first aid to Jimmy's shoulder where the knife was imbedded. They couldn't find the "expert."

Octagon House

BY PHOEBE ATWOOD TAYLOR

Chapter 21 MAN HUNT "Where are they?" Cummings lustily bellowed brought the trooper rushing into the kitchen from the front of the house, and behind him rushed Lorne, Peggy Boone and Mrs. Carr.

"Hanson said that Aaron Frye and the troopers were with you. Didn't he, Ding?" Cummings said. "That's right," the trooper answered. "That's what Hanson said. He said they were all of them with Assey. That's just what he said. And now—say, where are they?"

"What inspired that brain ripple of Hanson's?" Assey demanded in tones that were crisp than usual. "How'd he get that idea?"

"Why, I told him," the trooper said. "That O'Malley and Shorby had gone, and Frye and the Carrs too. I told him when I went up to tell him about the fire hose, like you ordered me to. He asked how things was, and I told him they was all gone. And Hanson said if you was here, all right, not to worry. You'd get 'em. You got one anyway."

"Go home, with all this going on, don't be silly!" "Tell you what," Assey said, "you go down the street and drop in on the neighbors, an' tell 'em we'd like some help in a man hunt. Mrs. Carr, you go along with her."

"To second the invitation? I'd love to. How many people would you want, Assey?" "As many as you can inveigle," Assey said. "But get natives, please. No outsiders—"

As soon as the group scattered, Assey slipped upstairs to the attic. "Hi," Pam Frye greeted him generally. "You don't mind if I don't welcome you with a light, do you?"

"Hi yourself," Assey said. "I'm certainly glad to know you're safe an' sound—how'd you get there, an' when?"

"Oh, I walked in the front door," Pam told him, "while the rest were on the back porch. And if you had a can opener, I could enjoy a light repast of cold beans."

Forgotten Question Assey presented her with a jack-knife, and told her about Aaron. "Is he missing?" she said. "Oh, I wouldn't worry. Assey. He often wanders. Probably in his present mental state, he had to wander or bust. Who burned up the barn?"

"Yes," Assey said, "you've both had a tough time." "And you're really not going to arrest him—oh, bless you!" she said. "He's all I've got, and I know I get myself maudlin about him."

"You've found out about Tim," she said, "and us—"

"Yes," Assey said, "you've both had a tough time." "And you're really not going to arrest him—oh, bless you!" she said. "He's all I've got, and I know I get myself maudlin about him."

"I know—" "But I don't think you do, Assey. He didn't kill her, nor did I. But you'll never know how much I yearned to—oh, Emma's followed me! I thought she was asleep in her basket—grab her!"

Assey, with the cat purring in his arms, steered Mrs. Carr up to her room. "Now," he said gently, "you go to sleep!"

Gratitude was all very well in its way, and he liked the Carr family and its cat, but right now he was too exhausted to cope with them, singly or otherwise.

A more complete mess, he thought as he resumed his seat on the porch, a more peculiar mess, he had never seen.

(Copyright, 1938, Phoebe Atwood Taylor.)

When will Assey find out about the ambergis? Continued tomorrow.

FOX GAVE ROWE BUT 4 YEARS AS PITCHER

By EDDIE BRIEZE NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—Success story: Just seven years ago a flat-broke little negro named Henry Armstrong migrated from St. Louis to Los Angeles. He spent his first night in Los Angeles in a flop house. Today he is featherweight and welterweight boxing champion and may be wearing the lightweight crown before the summer is over. He has fixed up his family, built a home for himself and has a $100,000 annuity that will be paid off this year and will net him $100 per week for the rest of his life. This corner predicts Henry will retire when and if he beats Lou Ambers. "Old Fox" Clark Griffith of Washington, could step up and take a bow if he wanted to. Even when "Schoolboy" Rowe was in his heyday, Griffith gave him four years at the outside. Which is just what it took. "He'll turn out to be a crooked arm," said Griff.

Betty To Play Dallas Matron

TULSA, June 7 (AP)—Youth and enthusiasm are pitted against veterans in the women's Trans-Mississippi golf tournament at Oakhurst Country club today. Heading the list in first round matches are Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Texas, medalist with 18 who won the title last year at 18, and Mrs. Vincent Hoechst of Dallas, a matron who qualified with 94. The most striking pair here are Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, a three-time Trans-Miss champion, and the tournament baby, 14-year-old Alice Daniels of Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. Hill was runner-up in the first Trans-Miss at Kansas City in 1927. Alice was only three years old when she defeated the Fort Worth Cats 12-4

Cats Trimmed By Herd, 12-4

Bob Uhle Tames Panthers; Oilers Beaten By Oklahoma City With only two games scheduled in the Texas league today (Tuesday), the Beaumont Exporters have a chance to boost their seven percentage point lead while the second place Tulsa Oilers are among the idle. The Exporters chalked up a trio of homers in the third inning yesterday to whip the Houston Buffaloes 14-5. The Oilers dropped a game to the Oklahoma City Indians, 10-6, while wind, dust and rain plagued the players. The Shreveport Sports bunched three hits in the 10th inning to defeat the San Antonio Missions, 4-3, after the Padres held a 2-2 margin. Southpaw Bob Uhle, recently returned by the White Sox, went to the mound for the Dallas Steers to defeat the Fort Worth Cats 12-4

Japan Biggest Purchaser Of War Goods
Passes China In Past Six Months, Figures Reveal

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Japan has become the United States' best customer for war supplies.

The state department published figures today showing that Japan had passed China during the last six months, although Brazil led all other nations in May alone, when she bought $1,494,824 worth of arms and ammunition. Japan spent $1,324,608 to rank second in May.

Exports of war supplies to China and Japan in the six months exceeded those for the entire previous fiscal year, which, for the national munitions control board of the state department, begins December 1.

From last December 1 to June 1, Japan spent $6,091,090 for war equipment in the United States, compared with China's purchases of $5,819,739 worth. Their combined total was $10,112,152 in the previous year.

Exports of war materials to all nations during the six months totaled $31,090,054, compared with $29,704,806 for all of 1937. Aircraft and parts, including commercial planes, form the largest category of exports under control of the munitions board.

Soviet Russia declined sharply as an arms customer. She was a leading buyer last year, importing of $12,446,025 in war equipment.

The state department meanwhile sought further information on a new British suggestion that the United States participate in an investigation of aerial attacks in Spain.

Secretary Hull conferred with division chiefs, but declined to say what inference might be drawn from the consideration given the proposal. Previous invitations of that nature have been declined quickly.

GUARDSMEN CALLED TO FIGHT HOPPERS

SANTA FE, N. M., June 7 (AP)—Gov. Clyde Tingley, acting quickly to aid embattled northeastern New Mexico residents fighting an invasion of grasshoppers, called out 30 national guardsmen for duty in the sector today.

He also ordered 15 national guard trucks to the area. The troops were headed by Adjutant General R. C. Charlton.

The governor announced that orders had been placed for immediate construction of 25 more poison spreaders.

"Everything possible must be done this week to lick the grasshoppers or they'll lick us," the governor declared. "If we can't get them under control this week they'll spread all over the state."

PRODIGAL MONKS BACK IN CAGE

The prodigals have been returned.

Joe and Izzy, who constitute half the monkey population in the city park cages, were recaptured Monday after 26 hours of freedom in the park.

With Billie and Lily, they escaped from the cage Sunday morning when Park Caretaker Luke Straughn entered the enclosure to give it a cleaning. They unfastened the door behind Straughn.

Billie and Lily were quickly retaken but Joe and Izzy defied a posse, remaining free until hunger made them come to terms.

the people of this state," he added. "We showed them the heart of genuine democracy is beating pretty firmly and strongly."

The senator, an anti-court plan democrat, said he believed his opposition to that measure was "the genesis of a plan to defeat him."

Wearin could not be reached for a statement. His family in Hastings, Ia., reported that he was not expected until late tonight. A campaign aide, J. Don Kerlin of Des Moines, said he (Kerlin) had sent a congratulatory telegram to Gillette.

Former Senator L. J. Dickinson piled up a comfortable margin over Representative Lloyd Thurston in the republican senatorial primary. The vote from 1930 precincts gave Dickinson 117,008 and Thurston 90,127.

The democratic vote in 1,845 precincts gave: Gillette 63,537; Wearin 34,980; J. J. Meyers 14,058; Mrs. Ellsworth Richardson 7,839; W. C. Byerhoff 4,470.

The volume of republican voting continued substantially ahead of the democratic totals. Dickinson and Thurston shared 297,135 votes, while the five democratic aspirants received 124,893.

had voted for many Roosevelt measures, albeit he declared he was no "rubber stamp" and would act in congress as he thought best.

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Chairman John Hamilton of the republican national committee said today Senator Gillette's (D-Ia.) victory in Iowa's primary "can only be interpreted as a slap by the democrats of Iowa at White House interference in purely local contests."

Simultaneously Senator Wheeler (D-Mont), whom Gillette joined in fighting the Roosevelt court bill last year, said his nomination "was a vindication for democracy and a repudiation of the backseat drivers here in Washington."

"Their attempt to pack the court failed and their attempt to pack the senate will fail," Wheeler added.

Two democratic senators who have been consistent administration supporters—Guffey of Pennsylvania and Truman of Missouri—expressed ed the belief that the results of the Iowa balloting did not represent a test of administration strength in that state.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), also regarded as an administration supporter, said "Iowa democrats made no mistake."

Senator Burke (D-Neb) said the renomination of Gillette was a clear indication "the people of the United States do not approve of politics in relief."
