any longer than anyone elses but for a United States Congressman, a lot can happen in a short span of a day.

And this is especially true with Rep. Omar Burleson, whether he's on duty at the capitol in Washington when congress is in session, at his district office in Abilene, or supposedly enjoying a holiday rest.

When you stop to consider that every minute the Congressman is in public, he's "on the job," it makes you appreciate the busy, busy schedule he must keep.

Supposedly enjoying a holiday rest, Mr. and Mrs. Burleson were very much in pubic this week for exampe. He spoke Wednesday in Fort Worth for the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, and en route back to the office in Abilene, and their home in Anson, the couple made official stops in Ran ger Thursday morning; were will present a Christmas program at 2 p. m. Tuesday, Dec. 20, at the school.

The following rooms will participate:

"Angels from the Realms of guests of honor at an informal luncheon at Lone Cedar Country Club with Eastland or West," and "Christmas ers at noon; and planned to Hymn." Mrs. Young will acstop in Cisco and Baird later stop in Cisco and Baird later that day if time permitted.

Whats the hottest item that will probably face the con gress next session? "Tax increase, Mr. Burleson said Thursday, and added, "Im of the opinion that the longer the administration waits to request an increase, the lease likely its passage. "And too, we may hear about the repeal of "14-B" and maybe "open housing," but probably not. Of course you know, some of the newly elected Republicans are pretty liberal themselves, and one
