VOLUME 90, NUMBER 98

EASTLAND, TEXAS 76448 — THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1966

TEN CENTS (10c)

IdBits

By H.V.O.

POSTMASTER MRS. Mar- Johnson is probably the best immunized person in town. For instance, she's protected from cholera, typhoid, yellow fever, jungle rot, what-have-you. Her immunization is for a USO trip to Vietnam, which will probably come for the ultra-civic worker sometime in the Spring. It had been hoped that she could be an official Good Will Ambassador to the servicemen in far-off Asiatic country Christmas, but it seems the mountains and clearings and hurdles couldn't be surmounted in time. It was noted that she could have personally packed that the Eastland County Jaycees are putting together for the county's G. I.'s. But the packages will not be less, so we'll all try to aid and abet the process in every way possible in this another worthwhile project. And then in Spring maybe our boys there will be able to take the hand of the city area's well-known and loved Mrs. Johnson.

THREE COUNTY students among the 6,580 attending Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos. They are Robert Downton, son of Mrs. W. L. Downton, who is a graduate history major; Jenice Edgar, daughter of Douglas Edgar, who is a junior elementary education major; and Dixie Hill, a graduate biology major who is the daughter of C. C. Hughson.

SHERIFF L. E. Sublet is to move into Tuesday on his physician to work four or three hours a day. The next week. Under the Deputy Roy Edgar has been authorized by the Commissioners Court to continue at least through holidays.

THE BEN McKinnis family is to move into their new home this week, scouts report. Other new homes under construction are those of the Dr. Bob Alexanders, Jack Gormanans, the Bud-Hauns, and probably a few others we're forgetting at now. Home decorations are going up just about over town, we notice, and looking prettier every day.

THE LOCAL post office reports United States Postal saving certificates totaling $789 are on deposit here, bringing little or no interest to the eight local depositors. PO Department discontinued the program in April this year, but some deposits apparently haven't taken note of the fact.

ANOTHER SANTA letter, from Melody Trout, says: "I am writing my sister. She would like this Christmas Little No Name, Cheerful, Useful, Coke Machine. The idea that she would like Thing Ding and Tiger and. She also wants clothing." We'll forward the letter to Santa, as we do all pass this way.

MAVS, BAIRD GIRLS WIN CROWNS AGAIN

Final results of the Third Annual Invitational Basketball Tournament sponsored by the Quarterback Club, and just concluded, mirrors last year. The Defending Champion Eastland Mavericks wrapped up another Championship Trophy, and the Baird girls won that division's championship. Both teams were winners last year. The Mavericks placed three members on the Girls All-Tournament Team and the Mavericks' Jim Herridge placed on the Boy's All-Tournament Team.

ENTRIES IN LIGHTING CONTEST

The annual Christmas Lighting Contest is underway and residents may secure entry blanks from the Eastland Telegram, KERC radio station, or Mrs. Jack Arrington, chairman of the Civic League.

Prizes include a yard light from Texas Electric, gifts from the League, Poe Floral and Green Street Floral. Anyone may enter and there are four divisions: over-all, doorway, yard and window. All decorations must be visible from outside the home or apartment. December 14 is the deadline for returning entry blanks and the judging will take place between December 18 and 24.

Minister Alliance Holds Meeting

The Rev. Eugene H. Surface, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, was host to the Ministerial Alliance in his study at the church Monday morning. Coffee and doughnuts were served to the following ministers: P. F. Flemings of Smith Chapel Methodist Church; James E. Emory of Assembly of God Church; Haston Brewer of First Baptist Church; and J. Lester Davenport of First Methodist Church. Members discussed commentaries on the Bible; the Thanksgiving service held at Bethel Baptist Church on Wednesday, November 23; and made assignments for the morning devotionals broadcasts.

The next meeting of Ministerial Alliance will be January 9, in the educational building of First Baptist Church.

It was Herridge's 27 points Saturday night that iced the win over Abilene High Junior Varsity, 71-59, and the championship.

Mavettes honored are Linda Perry, guard; Sue Underwood, guard; and Marsha Treadwell, forward. The three other positions on the team went to Baird girls. Jerry Watson of Ranger was the only other captain on the boys honor team. The Mavericks and Mavettes played in Ranger Tuesday night and the Junior High School Teams will play in Ranger Thursday night.

Lueders overcame Ranger 42-37 to wrap up the boys' led the victors with 19, while Jerry Watson contributed 13 for Ranger.

Baird won the girls division by downing Eastland, 48-39 in what developed into a scoring duel between Eastland's Marsha Treadwell who netted 25, and Baird's Kathy Townsend, who tossed in 24.

Gorman copped the girls' consolation by edging past Stephenville's 'B' team, 35-29. Debbie Ballow paced Gorman with 21 points, while Pat Stacy made 11 for the Yellow Jackets.

DARLENE LOVELACE . . . honored at Stephenville

A Class Birthday Gift Reflects the True Spirit of UCC Appeal, Season

A Birthday Fund has joined the United Christmas Charities.

Members of a children's Sunday School class of First Christian Church have for quite a while conducted a little program in which each child contributed the number of pennies equal to his age on each birthday.

The class voted Sunday to donate the collected amount to Eastland's United Christmas Charities. And now the benevolent organization is $110 richer for the young people's thoughtfulness.

The gesture is symbolic of the attitude in Eastland to help those in need — helping the needy at home, first, if you please.

Others are following suit: invitations to seasonal parties in homes and for organizations now invariably request, "Won't you please bring a couple of cans of food or a toy for United Christmas Charities?" These gifts are picked up by UCC representatives the next day.

All of the contributions are distributed as wisely as possible by the non-denominational, help-all-who-need-help organization.

PEARL HARBOR DAY Where were you on Dec. 7, 1941?

It was sudden, naturally. disaster is always sudden. Always unexpected. Never mind the warnings, the never expect disaster.

Later, yes. Looking back, they see clearly the signs they refused to see earlier. So they tend to think they expected this thing which has come to be.

A man is killed quickly on the highway. His wife cries, "But it was so sudden."

A second man lies ill more than a year, awaiting the death which his family has been told may come any day. Yet this wife also cries, "But it was so sudden."

And so thing thing, in the very nature of things, was sudden.

In the very nature of things, also, is the fact that anything—even the largest war in history—is meaningless to one person except in the way it affects that person.

This is why we remember not that one November day the skies cleared and a bubble-top wasn't needed on a Lincoln limousine in Dallas, but we remember what we were doing that Friday noon.

And a Sunday in December, twenty-five years ago? We've forgotten the name of the Admiral in charge of the fleet in the Pacific that day or how many Americans were killed before 1945.

Instead we remember that we got up one morning in a world which was normal and retired that night in a world which had been rent asunder. This new world was filled with terrifying new names; men and countries we had thought far removed were here, now, among us.

FULLEN Motor Co.'s Laugh A Day

A little boy went to the ballet for the first time with his father, and after watching the girls dance around on their toes for a time, he asked: "Why don't they just get taller girls?"

Who's on Who's Back?
... is a timely question in insurance circles why. Every insurance buyer knows that being to carry the load inflicted by the carrier; the homeowner who allows hazards to his premises; the person who abuses the glass privilege; the householder who over electrical circuits; the juror who is swayed tional pleas for sympathy to name only a few cause premiums to rise and be reflected in insurance costs. So do your part to help such conditions for your own welfare and tion.

PEARL HARBOR
you first heard that Pearl Harbor had been bombed by the Japanese? Did you believe it was true?
The Telegram asked these questions of many people. These are the answers.
Police Chief Ray Laney: I was at work in an oil field at Royalty, seventeen miles south of Monahans, when the news was first broadcast. I heard it when I came back to town and sure I believed it.
I entered the service at Monahans on February 2, 1942.
by Monroe Walker: Well I'd been watching the papers pretty close and I was already afraid of Japan. I didn't know they'd do that to us, but I knew they had it in for us.
three, four months before and was running a service station and wrecking company in Mineral Wells. That afternoon, I was in the shop and had the radio on.
Yes, I believe it the very first time.
by Edgar Altom: We had driven my father-in-law to Arkansas to visit his sister, who was sick at the time. It seems that the news blared throughout the house. Every adult there was too stunned to talk, or even to think.

Queen Contest Opens County Pecan Show

Thursday night's Eastland County Pecan Queen contest in Rising Star will initiate the annual Pecan Show, which will continue through Saturday in the same town.

One of the 10 young women of this county will be crowned the 1966 Queen in the contest, which will begin at 8 p.m. in the Rising Star High School Gym.

The winner will reign at the Friday and Saturday event and will enter the state Pecan Queen Contest next Spring.

Eastland County pecan growers will enter specimens by noon Friday at the Rising Star Youth Center. A total of 40 nuts of any variety constitutes an entry, said A. D. Ellington, Cisco, president of the Pecan Growers Association.

Along with the pecan exhibit, a pecan bake show and pecan plant arrangement contest will be held.

The candidates and their sponsors are: Kandy Kinder, Cisco Junior College; Haymonda Baird, Olden Future Farmers of America; Anna Bell Ratliff, Ranger Chamber of Commerce; Rosa Boland, Scranton Community Club; Kathy Sharp, Ranger FFA; Mary Jay, Gorman Chamber of Commerce; Jill Harding, Rising Star Chamber of Commerce; Karen Harris, Rising Star FFA; Nelda Harrelson, Nimrod Community Club; Bess Lee, Rising Star Farmers Union; and Darlene Lovelace, Eastland FFA.

EASTLAND CAGERS OUT PACE 2 RANGER TEAMS TUESDAY

The Eastland High School Mavericks and Mavericks were victorious in Ranger Tuesday evening, downing the Ranger High School Bulldogs and the Ranger girls.

The Mavericks won 46-25, and the Eastland girls won 74-25.

Marsha Treadwell was high pointer for the Mavericks with 34. Kathy Kincaid had 15 and Connie Coan, 12. James Whitehead led Eastland scoring with 18 and Jerry Watson had 7 for Ranger's high. Tom Fox and Charles Orms each had six points for Ranger.

TEEN TALK

by TANIA

Last Thursday at 3:15 nearly all the students of Eastland High School rushed to the gym to see the 3rd annual basketball tournament. After three days and three nights of tense games the Eastland Mavericks copped the trophy for the tournament.

Strange things are always taking place at Eastland High and I'll let you in on a couple of them. Thursday as Sherry Carroll was leaving school she happened to put her foot in the middle of a freshly made lemon pie. It took a few startled shrieks from the pie's owner to bring Sherry to the fact of what had happened. She apologized to the upset cook and then fortunately they both had a big laugh before Mr. Marshall suggested cleaning it up.

Then there was the coach who decided to wash his hair. He got the wrong bottle and Old EHS now has a partially blonde headed coach. (Harold Price by name) He claims that "only his hair-dresser knows for sure!"

SCHOOL PERSONALS: Karen and Eddie Gallagher visited relatives in Oklahoma City over the holidays. While they were there they attended the ever-famous "Battle of the Bands." Sir Frances Quintet was there singing their hit song, "RAIN, RAIN." Karen also visited her friend, Jane Irwin.

Nannette Deford and her family visited her grandmother during Thanksgiving. They live in Carbon.

Andrea Rhodes and her family went to Weatherford to spend the Thanksgiving Holidays with their cousins. They spent three days and then returned. Andrea's brother was home for the three days.

We were glad to see a familiar face in Eastland Friday after school. Bill Bass and his family came down to visit the Burnetts and their many other friends in Eastland. The Basses moved to Jacksboro during the summer of 66. They had been residents of Eastland for 3 1/2 years.

If any one has noticed the gleam in the eyes of Darlene Lovelace they have probably wondered what was wrong. There is a certain person coming home for a Christmas leave and Darlene is pretty excited. She is also happy because she is going to the FFA queen contest at Stephenville on Monday, (December 5, 1966) We all wish Darlene a lot of luck!

The Eastland Band members are doing their yearly job of collecting food for the needy. They have done this each year and have always had a fine bunch of canned foods to give. They are also planning a party and will each bring a toy to give to the children who will be unable to receive gifts at Christmas time. The band will hold their Christmas Concerts on December 16. They will have some fine music.

Teacher of the Week is Miss Loretta Morris. She has been teaching at Eastland High School since 1944. For many years she has devoted full time to teaching homemaking. She is the junior class sponsor and has been for a number of years. She is also an advisor of the Future Homemakers of America. One of her joys is to have the homemaking II girls working as volunteers at the hospital. Miss Morris stated:

"I wish every girl in high school would realize the importance of being trained for that all-important job of homemaking."

The Christmas holidays are getting closer day by day and the students are all working hard to get caught up on their work before they leave school again. Soon it will be mid-term and half the school year will be gone. School is a wonderful thing although many do not realize it. It will be proven, however, in the long run.

Resigns Church

The Rev. James E. Emory, pastor of Assembly of God Church since August, is resigning to return home to Petersburg, Virginia. He will deliver his final message at the church here on Sunday night and will move his wife and daughter on Monday.

In Virginia, Rev. Emory will serve the district as supply pastor and evangelist.

Mrs. Lon Horn Wins 1st In State Wool Contest

MRS. LON HORN

The 1966 "Make It With Wool" contest was held Saturday, Dec. 3, at Texas Women's University in Denton. Some 35 counties participated in the District 2 contest with approximately 80 contestants. There were four divisions which included Sub-Deb, Junior, Senior and Adult.

Mrs. Lon Horn, of Eastland and a member of the Flatwood Home Demonstration Club, won first place in the Adult Division. The garments were judged on construction and appearance.

Mrs. Horn modeled a wool crepe dress of emerald green which featured three-quarter length sleeves and included a green floral print hat and black kid pumps, bag, and gloves.

The "Make It With Wool" contest is held each year with participants over the state modeling beautiful wool garments. The entries included coat and dress ensembles, suits, and slacks. All work on the garments must be that of the contestant.

The State Contest will be held on January 14 at Texas Women's University in Denton, Texas. Only the Junior and Senior winners are eligible for this event.

In Denton Saturday to see Mrs. Horn win were: Mr. Lon Horn, Janet Meyers, Co. Home Dem. Agent; Wanda Chilton, Ass't Co. Home Dem. Agent; Mrs. Ray Williams, of Gorman; and her daughter, Barbara Williams, who was a contestant in the junior division.

Candle Lighting Ceremony Held

Mrs. T. D. Stewart was hostess for the meeting of Circle IV, WSCS of First Methodist Church, in her home at 3:30 p. m. Monday.

Mrs. Stewart opened the meeting and Mrs. G. O. Strong led the opening prayer. Minutes read by Mrs. A. H. Powell were approved. Reports included 58 visits and six cards mailed to shut-ins.

Scriptures, Geneses 1:1 - 3 and Luke 2:1-14 were read by Mrs. Archie Robinson during her presentation of the program. A candlelighting ceremony, introduced by Hong Kong, China in 1961, was presented. Mrs. W. M. Brown lighted the Advent Candle (red); Mrs. A. J. Ratliff, the Christmas Eve Candle (green); Mrs. Stewart, the Christmas Morning Candle (yellow) and the white Candle of Hope, by Mrs. Gaston Dixon. The program concluded with the story "The Last Melody" and a prayer.

A refreshment plate was served to Mrs. Beverley Dudley, Jr., Frank Williamson, J. L. Turner, Virginia Rayfield, Ratliff, Powell, R. E. Johnson, Dixon, Brown, Strong, Robinson and the hostess.

Shrine Club To Hold Xmas Party At Lone Cedar

The Cross Timber Shrine Club will hold a Christmas party beginning at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Lone Cedar Country Club, Eastland, announced Carl C. Garner, secretary. Dinner will be served at 7:45 p.m. Bingo and dancing will be among the entertainment. Admission charge will be $2.50 per person.

Mrs. Day to Host Ruth Group Meet

The Ruth Group of CWF, First Christian Church, will meet Monday, December 12, in the home of Mrs. Neil Day.

The group met November 28 with Mrs. Charles Beskow and discussed their missionary project.

Present were Mmes. Bernice Tankersley, Cyrus Millern L. E. Huckaby, J. W. Watson, Wayne Caton, S. G. McCullough, Day, Beskow and Miss Verna Johnson.

Tuesday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Basham were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Falk, Brenda and Sandra.

Ten-Ten Club Votes To Give $100 to WTRC

The Ten-Ten C. B. Club at the November meeting voted to donate $100.00 to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center at Abilene. The Coffee Break at Breckenridge in October was very successful and the club thanks the business people of Eastland for helping to make it a success by donating merchandise for door prizes for the event.

The rest of the money will be used to remodel the club room located at 114 N. Seaman. The annual Christmas Party will be December 10 in the club room.

Chairmen Named For Committees Of Farm Bureau

Eastland County Farm Bureau committee chairmen were appointed by president Jack Cozart at the organization's board of directors meeting Monday night.

Those appointed were: B.T. Graham, membership; Luke Palmer, policy development; Henry Fry, policy execution, state and national; John Love, service; K. F. Kirk, public information; Mrs. Henry Fry, women's committee; Mrs. Betty Claiborn, young people; Ray Norris, budget.

Serving on the budget committee with Mr. Norris are R. L. Ricks, Luke Palmer, Teddy Snider, Henry Fry, George Steels and Jack Cozart.

Cowan Hutton was elected to fill a vacancy on the directors board.

Directors voted to order potatoes for members again this year. Seed potatoes will be $5.50 and table potatoes, $4.50.

Following the meeting, the directors, their wives and office staff held a Christmas party.

Ranger Members Host DAR Meet In November

"Let Us Give Thanks" was the program topic at the November meeting of the Charles Crawford Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in the home of Mrs. Amy Brown in Ranger.

Mrs. W. C. Brashear was co-hostess. The program was presented by Mrs. T. C. Williams and concerned the story of Sarah Josepha Hale, known as the "Mother of Thanksgiving," and her successful campaign for the national celebration of Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Joe Clements, chapter Regent, presided over the business meeting. Refreshment plates of sandwiches, nuts and fruit cake were served from a table decorated in the Thanksgiving theme.

Members from Cisco attending were Mmes. Clements, T. C. Williams, Homer Slicker, Alex Spears, Robert Stewart, Guy Morris, and Celia McCrea. Mrs. Kate Wellman and Mrs. Pat Crawford of Eastland were present, and the Ranger members were the hostesses.

All members and others are invited to attend as several important matters are to be discussed and the new trapper, Mr. Bill Foster, will also be present. Please make an effort to attend, Mr. Kincaid urges. Refreshments will be served.

Farm Bureau Is Promoting More Chicken Consumption

The Eastland County Farm Bureau is supporting a nation-wide broiler chicken promotion campaign, according to Mr. Jack Cozart, president of the local Farm Bureau.

"Broilers are currently in oversupply estimated at about 10 percent," Mr. Cozart said. "Farm Bureau is spearheading a nation-wide effort to increase consumption of broilers during this critical period."

He said national grocery organizations are following through by requesting member stores and chains to participate in the promotion. Advertising and promotional materials are being furnished by the National Broiler Council.

Mr. Cozart said the Eastland County Farm Bureau is urging local retail grocery stores and restaurants to promote consumption of broilers in the coming weeks.

The local farm leader said broiler producers are offering housewives a highly nutritious food at bargain prices. He noted that growers are now receiving 15 cents a pound for broilers, as compared to about 33 cents some 20 ago.

Farm Bureau on the national level has organized a Broiler Service to assist broiler producers. A part of this service involves helping sales, including a market, and broiler production in periods of over-

IN WINGATE HOME
Deano's Show Points the Way
For Violin's Permanent Spot

It was made in Germany in the nineteenth century and is connected only with travel in the owner's memory. Now it has found a permanent home—thanks to the twentieth century custom of watching television.

The violin belongs to Mrs. Garold Wingate of South Bassett Street, who has never known quite what to do with it. A few weeks ago, she and her husband were watching the NBC presentation of The Dean Martin Show.

In the background, hanging on a wall behind a couch was a street-scene painting with a violin across it. The three-dimensional picture had no part on the show and was not mentioned at all. But LaVerne explained, "Garold, look! That's what we can do with the violin."

Mrs. Wingate, the former LaVerne Coffman, was four years old when her family moved by train from Strawn to Thurber. She was handed this violin, which had no case and no bow and which she had never seen before, and told to hold it on the train.

Five years later, in 1917, the family moved by train to Johnson City, Illinois. The violin, which LaVerne hadn't seen since arriving in Thurber, was handed to her. It was still alone. She held it carefully all the way to Illinois, and where her parents put it then she has no idea.

After the war ended, Coffmans moved by train to Fort Worth. Laverne held the violin.

A few months later the violin appeared again: the family was moving—by car, this time—to a farm north of Lake Worth.

In 1921, they moved by wagon to the Lacasa Community, north of Ranger. The trip took four days and LaVerne carried the violin all the way.

Three years later, she and the violin were back on the train: the family was moving to Los Angeles, California. Five years passed before LaVerne saw the violin. In 1928, they moved to Pampa. She carried the violin. There was no case, no bow. That same year, she came to Ranger to visit and met Garold Wingate of Eastland, who found her a job in a doctor's office here. The next year, they decided to get married and LaVerne went home to Pampa to plan the wedding.

But there was some delay. She says, "The depression had hit hard and the wolf was not only at the door—its pups were at the windows. I went to work at Wards in Pampa to help my family. In January of 1930, Garold came up and we were married in Pampa. He had to return to Eastland to his job and I had to stay in Pampa a couple of weeks longer.

"I came to Eastland alone and when I started for the train, Mama produced this violin from wherever it had been since the trip from California. Here, she said, you've carried this all your life; take it now."

In March, Garold and LaVerne moved to Cisco and the violin—still without a case or bow—was placed in an apartment there. Two years later, when they moved back to Eastland, she boxed the violin and put it in the trunk of the car.

That seemed to be a good place for it, so it stayed there.

While shopping in December of 1932, LaVerne happened to see a friend, Mrs. Elga Vaughn, in the A&P Store. Mrs. Vaughn was one of Wilda Drago's violin pupils, although she herself was already a music teacher. LaVerne seized upon this opportunity. She gave the violin to Mrs. Vaughn. "Gave it to her", LaVerne emphasizes. "As a gift. For her to take it and keep it."

The Vaughns moved from Texas. The violin was gone and it never crossed LaVerne's mind again.

By 1948, the Wingate's only son, Gary, was sixteen years old and playing the guitar. The Vaughns visited Eastland and called at the Wingate home. Mrs. Vaughn mentioned that she was no longer teaching music and would like to return the violin.

For Gary's sake, LaVerne agreed to take it back. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Day, mutual friends, went to Oklahoma some time later to visit the Vaughns.

They brought the violin to Eastland. Now it had a bow and a beautiful leather case lined in purple velvet. Gary learned to play it and even carried it with him when he went to college in Denton. But finally he brought it home to Mother.

James T. Wright, a neighbor, borrowed it. He played it and his son, Jim, played it. They brought it home. LaVerne put it—case, bow, and all—in a storeroom back of the garage. It was forgotten.

Then the Wingates watched the Dean Martin Show. They bought an M. Harnett painting of an New Orleans street scene, done in brown tones with an oak frame the color of the violin.

The picture, which is 12 by 24 inches, forms a perfect background for the violin which is across it. It hangs in the family room at the Wingate home. A table beneath it holds ivy and a tankard painted by Mrs. Wingate.

The violin looks as though perhaps it was made for this particular spot. It was a long, slow trip home.

BEVERLY NICHOLSON IS LAS LEALES SPEAKER

Mrs. Beverly Nicholson, Texas Electric Service Company Home Economist, presented a program featuring holidays decorations and foods for Las Leales Club, Monday night at the Woman's Club.

Mrs. Nicholson prepared and served Cranberry Quick Bread, Shrimp Americana, Lime Cheese Pie, and Hot Spiced Cider. Each club member was given a holiday recipe book, containing these recipes and several others.

The tablecloth, made by Mrs. Nicholson, was of Indian Head with a design of red and white poinsettias. Trim was of white ball fringe.

The centerpiece was a lighted white wicker tree, surrounded with red and white poinsettias. Red plates, cups, and napkins completed the colorful serving table.

Another table held tall hand-carved figurines of the Wise Men, a poinsettia plant, and a gold candle. These were spotlighted during part of the program.

Mrs. Wendell Siebert, president, conducted the business meeting. Miss Esther Groth read the minutes of previous meetings and called roll, which members answered with "You Might Try This". The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Wayne Caton.

Mrs. Don Kinnaird thanked the club for a silver spoon presented to her new son. Letters of appreciation were read from the Abilene State School, which received a cash donation from Las Leales.

Members were invited to a Christmas Party at 7:30 p. m., Monday, December 19, in the home of Mrs. Gene Boney.

Other hostesses will be Mrs. M. L. Forgey and Mrs. J. T. Gregory. Each member will bring food to be given to the Christmas Charities and there will be a gift exchange. A Christmas program will be presented by Mrs. John Hart and Mrs. Boney.

Mrs. Siebert read a resume of the club's history which will be sent in answer to a request from the Chamber of Commerce. She also read the quotation for the night: "Christmas itself may be called into question, if carried so far it creates indigestion" . . . Ralph Bergengren.

Present were Mrs. Nicholson, Siebert, Caton, Kinnaird, Boney, Forgey, Hart, Thura Taylor, Gene Rhodes, Floyd Robertson, James Horton, Maurice Dry, Vernon Mahan, Theron McKinsie, Rudolph Little, and Misses Verna Johnson and Groth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith have returned from Ennis, where they visited his mother Mrs. R. P. Smith, a patient in the Ennis hospital. Mrs. Smith 87 was hospitalized last week with a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith of Freeport flew to Eastland Sunday in their private plane and visited in the home of his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. M. Smith. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Smith and children and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Basham.

Assistant County Demonstration Agent the privilege of attending the 1966 Make-It-Yourself Wool Contest Saturday in Denton, Texas, and County 4-Her, Miss Barbara Williams modeled a winter white all wool ensemble. The blue plaid jacket with covered buttons and solid blue collar was worn over an empire style shift. The bodice of solid blue was attached to the plaid skirt. To complete her very unique ensemble, Miss Williams chose and made a Dutch hat with a plaid visor, beige shoes and gloves.

Contestants entering must make a garment of 100 percent American-made wool. All work on the garment must be done by the contestant. The contestants modeled their garments before judges. There are four divisions — Sub - Debs, Juniors, Seniors, and Adults. Approximately 80 contestants modeled in the contest Saturday.

We are very proud of Barbara. Although she was not in the top four of her division, she is a winner. She has learned to sew with a new fabric and has a beautiful and well-made garment.

Barbara, like many other 4-Hers her age, is learning more about sewing each year. Choosing and making accessories, wardrobe planning and co-ordinating, choosing fabrics & patterns as well as new techniques and skills.

All of the 4-Hers are to be congratulated on the work they are doing. We hope that next year we can see many more Eastland County 4-Hers between the ages of 10 and 19 at the Make-It-Yourself With Wool Contest. Plan now!!

Don't forget the Youth Division of the Pecan Bake Show to be held Friday and Saturday in the Youth Building in Rising Star. All school age youth are eligible to enter. Entries in the five divisions, pies, cakes, cookies, candy, and nutbread, must be in place by 11 a. m. Friday, December 9, 1966.

The Eastland County 4-H Council met Monday night, November 28, in the Reddy Room of the TESCO Building.

The meeting was of twenty minutes duration and among other business the election of officers was paramount. Those officers who were elected to the 1967 Eastland County 4-H Council were: Chairman: Bobby Lee of Cisco; vice-chairman: Elaine Mosely of Olden; secretary: Carter Hounsell of Rising Star; Boy's treasurer: Eddie Kincaid of Morton Valley; Girls treasurer: Kathy Kincaid of Morton Valley; the District Council Delegates: Bobby Williams of Gorman and Kay Green of Cisco.

Other business which was conducted included the repeal of the Standing Rule that the County Council meet every third month. The meeting time was then changed to every second month.

The possibility of a County-wide Christmas Party was discussed, but due to busy schedules no action was taken on this item.

Don't forget the club Christmas Party which your club will be having soon.

Gorman Airman Member of Top Air Force Unit

Technical Sergeant Bill J. Dennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dennis of Route 2, Gorman, provided essential support to help his organization win the coveted Smith Trophy as the best air defense ground unit in the U.S. Air Force.

Sergeant Dennis is a member of the Air Defense Command's (ADC) 30th Air Division, which received the trophy during ceremonies at Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 19. The sergeant is assigned at Richards - Gebaur AFB, Mo., as a weapons technician.

His division, headquartered at Sioux City Air Base and composed of 23 widely-scattered units, maintains air surveillance over the U. S. central plains with the Semi-Automatic Ground Environment (SAGE) radar system.

Sergeant Dennis and other division personnel won the trophy for the best defensive combat capability during the year by scoring 6,930 of a possible 7,000 points. One phase of the stiff competition included a computer-simulated enemy air attack.

It tested the division's operational readiness to detect, identify and, if unfriendly, intercept and destroy approaching aircraft.

The rotating trophy was originally sponsored in 1936 by the Night Fighter Association to promote, through competition, the efficiency of isolated air defense ground units. The award is named for retired General Frederic H. Smith Jr., once deputy commander of ADC and later Air Force Vice Chief of Staff. The 30th, then known as the Sioux City Air Defense Sector, won the first award of the trophy.

The sergeant, a veteran of the Korean War, is a graduate of Gorman High School. He received his A. A. degree in 1956 from Ranger (Tex.) Junior College. He attended McMurry College in Abilene, Tex.

HOMEMAKERS' HINTS

By JANET MEYERS

Home Demonstration Agent

If you haven't already baked your holiday fruit cake it should be at the top of the list of your "things to do".

Fruit cakes need time to age and develop the right flavor and texture. There are many modifications of the old fashioned fruit cake because of greater selection of fruits and nuts. Research has developed improved preservation methods for the fruit.

Choose fresh ingredients and high quality when preparing your cake. To cut the cost of the cake, you can add inexpensive raisins and currants for part of the candied fruit. Remember, though, that too many raisins and currants will give your cake a bitter or scorched flavor.

Assorted ready cut candied fruits may be a better choice than buying several different kinds of candied fruits which you have to cut. Compare the cost of shelled and unshelled nuts to find which is the best buy — considering the time needed for shelling, too.

If you make your fruit cake, a six pound standard recipe will cost you about $4.50. You can buy some fruit cakes which are quite well filled with fruits and nuts for $4. Remember that there is always a good amount of pride and satisfaction in making your own cake.

Be sure to make the best possible use of any leftovers from your holiday feasts in order to keep the food budget in balance. Beef prices remain about the same with a little less demand the past week. Best beef values may be found on chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks and roasts and ground beef.

Some markets are featuring pork loins (half or whole) at attractive prices. Fresh picnics, Boston butt roasts, shoulder steaks, bacon and sausage are worthy of your consideration.

Fresh fruit and vegetable items in good supply at moderate price levels include apples, grapefruit, oranges, cranberries, bananas, sweet potatoes, mustard, turnip greens, rutabagas, collards, dry yellow onions and carrots.

The Pecan Show is scheduled for Dec. 9-10 in Rising Star. Those interested in entering the Pecan Show — Food and/or centerpiece division — may contact the County Home Dem. Agents Office MA9-1729) for contest rules. The Eastland County Home Demonstration Club women are sponsoring the two divisions. Ribbons as well as cash awards will be presented. All food and centerpiece entries must be registered by 11 a. m. on Friday, Dec. 9.
