Primary Campaign

TOPEKA, Kas., July 27 GP-A strange, hotly disputed insue of nazism and intolerance has bobbed up on the plains of Kansas in an otherwise quiet political primary campaign to be decided at the polis Aug. 2.

The Rev. Gerald B. Winrod, seeking the republican nomination for senator, has been called a "peddier of religious and racial hatred" by William Allen White, Winrod, pamphletter and radio speaker, in turn estegorically denied fascist or nasi inclinations, maintaining that "fantastic rumors and half truths" had been circulated about him.

National Chairman John D. M. Hamilton asserted Winrod's nomination would put Kansas republicans on the "wrong side of a vital issue," intolerance. Winrod attributed Hamilton's intervention to "great pressure" from "certain powerful finaticial interests."

Winrod is opposed by former Gov. Clyde M. Reed, Dallas W.

Winrod, 39-year-old native of Kansas yet a political newcomer, campaigned by letter in 1937 against the Roosevelt court plan and published a series of books and magazines. Stumping the state he has employed a sound apparatus over which his meetings are opened to the music of "Onward Christian Soldiers."
