Mavs in Championship Round of 5th Tournament

Record crowds and outstanding basketball action was the hallmark of the Fifth Annual Eastland Invitational Tournament which wound up Saturday night.

Girls' placings hadn't been decided at press time, but it appeared as though Dublin and Comanche would be in the championship slot for girls title.

THURSDAY PLAY

The Mavericks opened up with a 39-30 win over DeLeon with Jana Rexroat scoring 16 for Eastland's high, and Nancy Sanders had 14 for DeLeon.

FRIDAY PLAY

Comanche girls defeated the Cisco girls, 70-44 with Sarah Fletcher netting 36 for the winners and Coleen Cozart getting 20 for the losers.

The Carbon girls defeated the Eastland B girls 28-25 with Debra Warren getting 14 for Carbon, and Lynn Robertson had 7 for Eastland.

The Baird A boys defeated the Eastland B boys, 76-44, with T. Varner high for Baird with 25, and Randy Rexroat had 22 for Eastland.

FRI., DEC. 13 IS DEADLINE FOR LIGHT CONTEST

Friday, December 13, has been set as the deadline for entering the annual Christmas Lighting Contest, sponsored by the Eastland Civic League and Garden Club.

The contest will have four categories, over-all, yard, doorway, and window. All entries must be visible from the street.

Co-chairman of the contest are Mrs. Walter Loudermilk and Mrs. Wade Freeman.

Out-Of-Town judges will select winners between 7 and 10 p. m., December 16, 17, and 18. Prizes will be a yard light from Texas Electric Service Company; a cash award from Civic League; and gifts from Poe Floral and Green Street Floral.

WITH THE rush of the holidays upon us, many asked: "Why is the Football Banquet being held Monday, Dec. 16 — right in the middle of the busy season?" Simple, says the sponsoring Eastland Quarterback Club, that's when the youngsters, for whom the event is held, wanted it. By the way, with a program of Tech Coach J. T. King and the prospects of visiting with Eastland's Jimmy Moylan and other Red Raider standouts, we'd better be getting out tickets early.

DOING THEIR bit to stretch the time, and make it more convenient for shoppers, particularly the ladies out at Hollywood-Vassarette are the B. W. Robertsons who have announced holiday hours at their TV Sales and Service Store as follows: 6 p. m. daily, and 5 p. m. Saturday.

THE Q. B. CLUB members who just staged a fine basketball tournament are extending thanks to many for assistance, but especially do they want to thank the fine people from Carbon who turned out in such numbers to back their teams.

THE GOOD people down at Goodyear are opening a gigantic toy sale (as advertised herein) and remind us to remind that in addition to hundreds of wonderful top toys they've also got barrels of "stocking stuffers" from 98¢.

LOOK WHO'S NEW Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Kinnaid, Jr. announce the birth of a daughter, Carol Ann, December 5, 1968, at Eastland Memorial Hospital.

The J. T. King Coaching Story

GRID BANQUET SPEAKER

When Coach J. T. King was a little boy in Hamburg, Ark., he never heard of Texas Tech but now, as head football coach, he's doing his best to see that everyone hears about Texas Tech.

His speaking engagements will include the Eastland Football Banquet, scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Monday, December 16, at Elementary School Cafeteria. Tickets are $2.50 each and may be purchased from any Quarterback Club member.

Publicity Chairman Bruce Pipkin said early ticket purchasers are urged. The Quarterback Club will host all football players on the four teams — Seventh, Eighth, Junior Varsity, and Maverick — and junior high and senior high cheerleaders and sponsors.

King's road to Tech has been long and rocky, including stints as a battling guard at Reagan High School in Houston and the University of Texas.

Now, as head coach at Southwest Conference member Texas Tech, he is being recognized for ability in the top job. His Raider teams have been so spectacular, offensively, that he has spent untold hours

16th Pecan Queen To Be Crowned Tuesday Night

She was born June 3, 1909 at Buffalo Gap. She married Floyd E. Adams May 8, 1942 in Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Mrs. Adams was a member of the Kingsland Church of Christ, Home Demonstration Club, and American Legion Auxiliary.

Adams, both of Florida; three sisters, Mrs. Mae Harper of Kingsland, Mrs. Lillie Bell Mitchell of Bloomfield, New Mexico, and Mrs. Willie Jewell two cousins, Elmo Boyett and Farrell Boyett, both of Olden.

is no admission charge for the contest, which will begin at 7:30 p. m. The contest is sponsored by the county Pecan Growers Organization and Eastland Jaycees. Chairman is Bob Cohen, assistant county agent, who is assisted by Dick Dixon.

Music will be provided by Ben Karnes of Breckenridge and the new queen will receive a floral arrangement from Poe Floral. Miss Joan Kelly, the 1967 queen, will crown the queen selected Tuesday.

The new queen will represent the county in the state contest in July.

Q.B. CLUB SETS SPECIAL MEET

Final plans for the Dec. 16 Football Banquet will be made at a special called meeting of the Eastland Quarterback Club at 7 p. m. on Monday, Dec. 9, at the Elementary School.

CIVIC LEAGUE LUNCH IS WEDNESDAY AT CLUB

Eastland Civic League and Garden Club will hold its December luncheon at noon Wednesday, December 11, at the Woman's Club. Hostesses will be Mrs. T. M. Fullen, Jack Frost, Morris Jones, Bill Leslie, F. H. Lund, Esco Walter, and Victor Cornelius.

Mrs. Janet Thomas, president, announced that a "Christmas Food Bazaar" will be held at the meeting. Each member is asked to bring Christmas baked goods or can-

As a result of his success, King continually is asked to lecture on his "I" formation. That isn't bad for a coach who once addressed the American Football Coaches Association on defensive football. He addressed the same group on offensive football in 1966. He's been a lecturer on the "I" formation to groups in Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Canada, in addition to Texas.

In recognition of the tremendous job he has done at Texas Tech, the Texas Sports Writers Association named him Senior College Coach of the Year for 1965; and he had a lot of support for similar national honors.

In view of his amazing success in a short seven-year period, what goals are left? King would be the first to answer that — a conference championship. But more important to the soft-spoken coach is a continuation of the program that has flowered so well under his guiding hand.

Polk Robison, Tech athletic director and former head basketball coach, was one of the first to recognize the potential in King. Of him, Robison says "he has an excellent blend of the qualities all look for in their ideal head coach — keen technical knowledge combined with maturity and enthusiasm, the esteem of his coaching colleagues and respect by the athletes with whom he has worked."

lecturing, not only to high school groups, but also to college coaches. And even the soft-spoken King has probed his "I" formation that has caught the fancy of the coaches and fans.

It hasn't all been as easy and as pleasant as it would seem. Coach Bear Bryant wanted to take King to Alabama with him, but Coach DeWitt Weaver thought that just maybe he'd rather stay in Texas. He would rather stay in Texas, so in 1958 he became a college assistant for the fifth time.

Then came the big break. Weaver announced his retirement following the 1969 season, and King was elevated to his first job as a head coach. He faced a bleak outlook. Tech had just finished its first year of conference play, managing one victory and a tie. Material was thin and the quality not up to conference standards.

If King was disheartened, he did a good job of concealing his feelings. He set to work to build winning football against mammoth odds. But little by little, recruiting became easier and he got more and more of the "blue chip" players.

In his first year Tech compiled a remarkable 4-6 record. It was followed by a dreary 1-9 season although the team showed vast improvement, both in material and ability.

Because We Sell Insurance—

... naturally we have a very special interest in the welfare of those who drive moving vehicles. With the period of early darkness already upon us and with snow, ice and slick pavements in prospect, and this is the season for extra care by both drivers and pedestrians. Unless more driving caution is used than ever before, this holiday season may be remembered more for its record traffic deaths than for the glorious event which we celebrate this month. So drive with care and always with adequate insurance protection.

Presbyterian Women Meet In Germany Home

The United Presbyterian Women's Organization of the First Presbyterian Church met for their Christmas program in the home of Mrs. Jack Germany Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Alex Ungvary, special guest from Abilene, gave a devotional talk, "Jesus Immanuel." She stressed the meaning and significance of the word, "Immanuel," which is "God with us."

Though we live in troubled times, she explained, Christ came into a world that was equally torn with strife. He came, she said, to bring peace to the hearts of men as he comes into the lives of men for the same purpose today.

Mr. H. T. Wilson, president of the organization, introduced Mrs. Ungvary, after Christmas carols had been sung by the group.

A luncheon was served after the program by Mrs. Germany. Assisting her as hostesses were Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. V. T. Seaberry, Jr., and Mrs. Don Pierson. Mrs. E. C. Johnston gave the invocation.

Others attending the meeting were Meses. Robert Marsh, Jack Darlington, E. G. Rice, Elizabeth Vaughn, F. L. Spurlen, L. W. Hart, Cyrus Frost Sr., and guest, Mrs. Jack Frost.

Attorney Bill B. Hart Speaks on UN for Thursday Club Meet

Eastland Attorney Bill Hart presented the "United Nations, Human Rights Year — 1968" program at Thursday Afternoon Club, December 5, at the Woman's Club.

Hart explained the discussion, education, and action methods of the UN, which is composed of 124 nations. He discussed the three basic parts and the aims of the organization and the problems which arise under the Security Council. "There are many ways Americans can help the United Nations," Hart said. "The biggest obstacle to cooperation of the American people is the lack of information to the American people."

Hart was introduced by Mrs. E. R. Townsend, program leader, who also served as moderator for a panel discussion on local issues. Mrs. Pat Crawford discussed "Clear corners and clean curbs"; Mrs. R. L. Young, "Street and home lighting"; and Mrs. E. R. Richardson, Reading and the library.

Mrs. J. M. Perkins, president, led the members in the American flag and the American creed.

Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann was hostess for the meeting. The club was decorated in a Christmas theme and the table was centered with a green and gold arrangement flanked by brass candle holders with green candles. Santa napkins and place mats were used. Christmas cookies, mints, nuts, and tea were served.

Members brought items for a box which will be mailed to the Wichita Falls State Hospital.

The annual Christmas party will be held at Lone Cedar Country Club, December 19. Members are asked to bring guests.

Members present were Meses. Cecil Collins, Turner Collie, Crawford, Ed Ethridge, Cyrus Frost, J. F. Francis, James Horton, Hoffmann, Ben Hamner, Marene Johnson, Arthur Murrell, W. D. R. Owen, Perkins, Grady Pipkin, E. G. Rice, Floyd Robertson, Richardson, Townsend, Esco Walter, and Young.

"For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the Lord; and there is none else."

The Sunday service at First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Eastland, begins at 11 a.m. All are welcome.

Civil Defense Is Subject for USDA Officials, Families

Do you think people will usually panic and "go to pieces" when disaster strikes? According to research conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the Department of Defense, panic is a rare response to an emergency of major proportions.

This and other important facts about disaster brought about by radioactive fallout, floods, hurricanes, earthquakes, and tornadoes were discussed by the members of the County National Defense Board at a program presented in the Reddy Room of Texas Electric on Monday evening, Dec. 2.

The chairman of the Defense Board, J. G. Meredith, Office Manager of the A. S. C. S., explained that the purpose of the meeting was to help adults know the best ways to prepare themselves and their families for unseen emergencies.

D. Gordon, County Extension Agent, presented a series of slides to show the safety measures to take before disaster strikes. E. E. McAlister, Work Unit Conservationist for S. C. S., discussed how people act in disasters. His remarks were based upon the fact sheet from the U. S. D. A.

"Building your own strength to handle emergencies" was primarily a lesson in Mental Health. Much to the audience's surprise, they learned that according to research, play should come before a job is finished. Upon being questioned by Meredith, the group had supposed it was best to work done first, then play.

The last section to be discussed was "How parents can help children handle emergency." This part of the program was led by O. M. Boyle, County Supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration. The fact that pre-school children are not too young to be trained how to face danger was pointed out. The attitude and philosophy of life of the parents determines how children will handle an emergency, such as fire, flood, or radioactive fallout.

County Judge Scott Bailey,

Shrine Club To Hold Xmas Party

The Cross Timber Shrine Club will hold its annual Christmas party at Lone Cedar Country Club on Saturday night, Dec. 14, according to announcement by President Joe Dennis of Ranter. The club is composed of Moslah Temple members living in Eastland County.

Plans call for the dinner to begin at 7 p. m. Entertainment will include a magic show by Noble Mallicote of Fort Worth and games of bingo. A short business meeting will be held. Carl Garner of Eastland is the club secretary.

FB DIRECTORS AND MEMBERS TO HAVE CHRISTMAS DINNER

Members of the Eastland County Farm Bureau Board of Directors and their families will attend a Christmas dinner at 7 p. m., Tuesday, December 10, at the Farm Bureau Building, Highway 80 East, in Eastland.

Mrs. Cowan Hutton of Rising Star is chairman of the woman's committee. Others on the committee are Mrs. Evelyn Fry of Cisco, Mrs. Merle Campbell and Mrs. Glenn Jordan, both of Carbon.

The dinner will be followed by games of "42" and dominos.

Who is County Civil Defense Chairman, made a few appropriate remarks.

Members of the Defense Board, their wives and families, and members of their supporting staffs and families were in attendance.

At the conclusion of the meeting, coffee and cookies were served and a social hour enjoyed.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

by Magdalene Boyle

The wind just blew us into the last month of 1968. It is a time of bare trees and night stars that seem twice as brilliant as those of summer. The chill spells Christmas, the time of the Christ Child and the time for making children happy.

I asked myself: What will be my Christmas donation to children? My answer was: I shall give each child on my list a gift that I have bought with more imagination than money, a gift that will jolt his curiosity, a gift that is outside the realm of his usual experience.

So I set about to keep this vow. I wandered from store to store and from counter to counter. At last, I found a dreamer's wonderland — the hardware store where tools of magic glistened on the shelves nestled in the showcases, and hung from pegs on the walls.

In my mind I became a boy of three. I saw a beautiful hammer with a shiny silver head and a red handle. With it I could pound the bugs on Mommy's sidewalk. (I bought the small hammer for 95c. It is a gift that will set his little boy imagination on fire! I presume it will set his mommy on fire, too.)

Then I spied the fisherman's paraphernalia: crimson floats for 20c, red bobbers for a quarter, and fishhooks at most any price. From this tempting array, I purchased a float on a nylon cord to which I added 2 bobbers, 3 fishhooks, and a spinner. Such a baby's toy you have never seen! Mother can dangle it in the breeze where the silver and reds will sparkle in the sunrays, and Baby will coo in his contented way.

A teen-age niece presents problems. In desperation I delved into every store in Cisco, Eastland, Ranger. Then came my inspiration — the sleekest, shiniest, most elegantly handled tooth-edged saw you can imagine. My niece will start a new fad for her set — playing the musical saw!

Now for the little boy who loses his mittens on icy days. A giant size, flameless pocket handwarmer in a velveteen bag. Won't he treasure this curiosity?

What to do for a seven-year-old miss who demands fowls for pets. Her parents haven't solved the problem of chickens in an apartment, so I solved it for them by buying 3 handsome decoy ducks with green heads and iridescent backs and glass eyes. They can't swim, but they can float in the bathtub.

Next on my list, a tiny blond with pigtails. One day I noticed her frustration when the dresses wouldn't stay hooked on her paperdolls. I got her an honest-to-goodness old timey metal washboard and some small magnets. The happy hours she'll spend over her washboard!

Last, a teen-age girl. The gift was at my fingertips: a box of staples, a handful of sockets, a bunch of washers, two mini-crowbars, some cute monkey wrenches (to monkey with), and a length of electric butt-welded link chain. To these I added some long nosed pliers so my teen-age friend can invent hardware jewels that are out of this world. With dainty padlock for belt buckle and tiny screw drivers for earbobs, she'll make the school paper.

Finally I picked up a couple sock stuffers: some wee oil cans with bottoms that make sounds like crickets when you push them in and out and a couple field calls of cherry wood that Junior can blow to his heart's content. These crow and duck calls will be a pleasant variation from the shrill whistles Mother has had to listen to other Christmases.

This year the children on my list will have their imaginations teased. Their parents will have their eyes opened. I will have my fun. Thus, everyone will be glad, especially the hardware store proprietors!
