GOOD NEWS: Our St. Joseph Family Almanac Calendar calls for "Thunderstorms and rain" today. But now we wonder, if that means in Hackensack, N.J., where it was printed, or in West Texas where a good rain is badly needed.

IT'S GOOD to see Parks Poe back in circulation after a siege of sickness that took him to Temple for hospitalization for a while. Enjoyed a good visit with Don Vegever, Hollywood-Vasarette executive formerly of our town and now in Paris, back helping make big plans for things down at Horton Tire Service, which he and Otis Coleman own and operate. Bright new paint and added services there are enhancing this well-known area landmark.

THE FAMILY'S looking forward to a vacation break on the coast this week, and hoping that there'll be some Gulf breeze, and receptive fish. We'll try to give you a sun, surf and sand report.

IT'S BEEN A busy week in 91st District Court with a big batch of cases processed. A second week of cases, originally scheduled to begin Monday has been postponed — AND PROSPECTIVE JURORS who have been notified to appear Monday are advised not to be in, but wait further notice, according to District Clerk Roy Lane who was busy Friday late getting out cancellation notices after having summoned citizens earlier.

Last week, three cases were tried, two were continued, and one defendant entered a plea of guilty.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Woods and Randy of Pecos are visiting in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Woods.

BREAD of Life

Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me; Father, if thou be willing, let this chalice pass from me; nevertheless not my will but thine, be done. — Luke 22:42.

Take Thou my cup And it with joy or sorrow fill As best to Thee may seem; Choose Thou my good and ill.

Attempted 'Fly-Out' Fails for Would-Be Ace

Robin R. Fox, about 20, no address given, was released from the Eastland County Jail about 7 a.m. Saturday after being held on a vagrancy charge and was arrested about two hours later after wrecking Buddy Carter's airplane. Fox had never flown before, but he said he got the urge to do so shortly before 9 o'clock. He got into Carter's airplane and managed to start it by looking at the control panel and experimenting. He did not know how to steer the plane and when he tried to turn it around, he gave it too much gas. The plane took off through a fence and finally stopped about 60 yards northwest of the hangar. The whole incident was witnessed by Jackie Wayne Collins of Olden who was working near the airport laying pipe for Smith's Plumbing. He went for City Policeman Johnny Morren, who arrested Fox running Buddy Carter's airplane, who arrested Fox running on foot about half a mile from the crash.

Viet Vet, With World's Longest Paper Route, To Speak to Lions

"Manager of the largest paper route in the world" is the claim of Sergeant First Class Gary Edward Jeffries, a veteran of two tours in Vietnam, who will speak at 12 noon on Tuesday, July 15, to the Lions Club of Eastland at the White Elephant Restaurant.

Sgt. Jeffries acquired the distinction of distributing "more papers over the greatest distance" during his second Vietnam tour when assigned to the information office at Headquarters U. S. Army Vietnam in Long Binh. He was responsible for the distribution of the Pacific Stars and Stripes to U. S. Army units—123,000 copies daily.

SALAD DAYS ARE HEAR FOR SURE

It's time for SALADS . . . anytime . . . but especially right now, when the weather is hot.

These are favorite salad recipes of some Eastland women.

Mrs. Frances Zernial likes this Frozen Fruit Salad:
1 cup cream, whipped stiff.
1/4 cup sifted powdered sugar.
3 tablespoons salad dressing.

One number two and a half can of salad fruit, drained.

Whip cream until it stands in stiff light peaks. Add powdered sugar and salad dressing and blend well. Add folding in well. Turn into thoroughly drained salad fruit freezer tray or fancy mold and freeze until firm. Cut into squares and serve on crisp lettuce, with or without dressing.

Macaroni Salad is a recipe belonging to Mrs. T. M. Alford.

Cook one small package shell macaroni in six cups boiling water and one teaspoon salt. Bring to rolling boil and cook 10 minutes. Turn off fire and let macaroni set, covered, for 15 minutes.

Blanch:
Add:
1 cup celery,
1/2 cup fine chopped onions,
1 cup chopped dill and sweet pickles (mixed),
1 can salad sweet peas,
1 cup diced cheese,
four hard-boiled eggs chopped,
three tablespoons salad dressing.

Chill and serve.

Mrs. C. L. Bigby makes this Ham Salad:
Dice two cups of cooked ham.

Add:
Cut-up celery,
Three hard-boiled eggs, chopped,
Chopped sweet pickles to taste.

1/2 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise.
One tablespoon catsup.
Pimento, if desired.
Serve chilled on a bed of lettuce.

This Kraut Salad is a favorite of Mrs. Harvey Basham.

Squeeze juice from one medium can kraut. Cut up fine with scissors and cover with 1/2 cup sugar. Set aside.

Grate:
1/2 cup carrots,
1/2 cup green pepper,
1/2 cup celery,
1/2 cup onion.

Add to sugared kraut mixture. Cover tightly and chill in refrigerator at least 12 hours. Do not use any type salad dressing.

Pueblo and Ranger Plants Of Lone Star Are Struck in Wage Dispute

'Unlucky, Lucky' Twins Plan Big Fun-Time at Lion Camp

Steve Blair has been in the school band for 3 years and will be a member of the Eastland Maverick Band. He plays the trombone and was chosen Most Improved Player in the Eighth Grade.

He has been in Troop 6 of the Boy Scouts for three years and has gone to Camp Billy Gibbons three summers. He is a Life Scout and a brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow.

Steve is active in the youth work at Bethel Baptist Church.

He has been a member of 4-H for three years and has shown lambs, pigs and a steer. He won third place with both lambs in 1967 and 1968. He served on the livestock judging team in 1968, under the direction of Bob Cohen.

Almost fifteen years ago, Stacy and Steve Blair were born here in Eastland County. They were premature and, due to an excess of oxygen supplied to the incubator, damage was done to the retina of their eyes.

Oxygen, so necessary for life, became the mysterious factor that prevented the normal development of sight during this period of time, thousands of babies were left totally blind.

But the Blair twins were lucky then.

Steve retained normal vision in one eye and has been able to attend public schools with no special aids. Stacy retained enough vision to enable him to travel without assistance. However, his education required special training and equipment. For the six years his family lived in Tucson, Arizona, Stacy attended the Arizona State School for the Blind as a day student.

When the family returned to Eastland three years ago, Stacy entered the local schools. With the aid of braille textbooks, he has had a very successful transition into regular school work.

This summer the boys are again among the lucky ones. The Eastland Lions Club has invited them to spend two weeks at the Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children in Kerrville. This camp is one of the many worthwhile projects sponsored by Lions around the world.

Stacy and Steve are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Blair and the grandsons of B. G. Blair and Mrs. Homer Williams, and the late Homer Williams, all of Eastland.

Both boys are active members of the Bethel Baptist Church youth group, the band, Boy Scouts, and 4-H.

Stacy has been a member of 4-H for three years and won reserve champion with a lamb in 1968. He fed and showed a steer in 1969.

He is an active member of the Bethel Baptist Church Youth Group.

He is a member of the Eastland High School Band and plays trumpet. He was chosen Most Improved Player in the Seventh Grade and Most Outstanding Player in the Eighth Grade. Stacy entered the Cisco Band Festival and made the All-District Band in the Eighth Grade. He is a piano student of Ben Karnes and won high-ranking boy and second place in the auditions sponsored by the National Music Guild.

A member of Boy Scout Troop 6 for three years, Stacy has gone to Camp Billy Gibbons three summers. A Life Scout, he is a candidate for Order of the Arrow.

The Pueblo gasoline plant, 12 miles northwest of Cisco, and Plant No. 3 of the Lone Star Pipe Line division at Ranger, were on strike this week as part of a walk-out in a dispute over wage and fringe benefits affecting all gasoline plants of the Lone Star Gas Company, according to information Saturday.

James A. Agnew, contact man at the Pueblo plant for Local No. 4-478 OCAW, Ranger, representing the workers, said that 10 of the 15 men at Pueblo were on strike and that a picket line had been established.

The plant, he said, was being operated by five men, three workers, one of them a union member, and two supervisors, who were crossing the picket line.

During the strike a temporary change in the superintendent of the Pueblo plant has been made with J. D. Smith, recently transferred from Oklahoma, being replaced by Alton Redwine, who has had more experience in strike handling, Agnew said.

Mr. Redwine, contacted at the Pueblo office told the Cisco Press, that he was not authorized to make any statement concerning the strike.

The extent of the strike at the Ranger pipe line plant was not learned Saturday, but the telephone at the plant did not answer.

According to information to Eastland County Newspapers, all of the gasoline plants in the Lone Star transmission division, including Pueblo, Gordon, Springtown, and Trinidad and the pipe line division were involved.

Other plants in the company's organization were not affected.

Agnew told a reporter that the company's original offer of a three per cent increase in wages had been rejected by the union on the basis that it did not equate with the cost of living increase. Other demands of the union for fringe benefits involving hospitalization and other items, were likewise in dispute, he said.

A hearing was reportedly held before a federal wage mediator in Dallas. But no information available Saturday morning on the outcome of the hearing.

The strike began Thursday. Local 4-478 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers represents company employees at Ranger, where the local headquarters are located; Pueblo, Gordon and Breckenridge.

Jury Finds Baird Guilty, 12-Year Sentence Given

Leroy Mangum and Kyndel Seaborn are scheduled for trial next Monday in connection with robbery of an automobile at Lake Cisco Park. It appeared that the State might elect not to bring this trial up now in view of the sentences passed on the two young men earlier this week.

Hoston Brewer, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Eastland, will officiate. Burial will be held in Eastland Cemetery under the direction of Arrington Hamner Funeral Home.

Mrs. Baker died at 7:30 a. m. Saturday in Eastland Memorial Hospital after an extensive illness.

She was born August 24, 1876 in Mountainburg, Ark., and had been a resident of Eastland for 26 years, moving there from Weatherford. She married John W. Baker in May 1901 in Nimrod and was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include one son, Claud Baker of Eastland; one sister, Ina Carter of Weatherford; and one brother, Sol Bashan of Brock.

Ghosts In Cell House? Prisoners In County Bastille Sure There Are Ghosts in the Eastland County Jail House?

Depends mainly on your point of view.

Most say, "Naugh, no such thing." Others are saying, "Man I know they're there."

It turns out, however, that the ones who are saying they see the strange apparitions are those who are confined within the ancient structure's bars and walls.

nearly daily reports from inmates to the effect: "It was here last night. All kinds of strange lights. I heard it. I saw it. I know it's here."

Jailer John, not one to easily excite, just laughs, and guesses that maybe younger consciences are beginning to bother some. Then too, there's the possibility that maybe the younger inmates could be getting a kick out of "putting a scare" in their neighbors.

Either way, all sorts of stories are making the rounds and cell blocks: prisoners of old; the famous and infamous who have trod those concrete and steel steps. The days are longer and the nights longer, undoubtedly, so there is time to reflect on these and many things.

Among the young, there's the tendency, too, to "manufacture" thoughts, and given just the tiniest spark of something unusual, these young minds begin going into high gear, and when the reasoning stops, with two or more difing thoughts and projections, you've got a pretty hairy situation, "fabricated" out of free-wheeling imaginations.

Of course, with the present-day interest in astrology and things occult, even some on the outside can imagine up ghosts and visions — given half a starting point.

A jail trustee has volunteered to sit up and chase anything unusual he finds stalking the quiet halls. So far he hasn't turned up any thing.

es reveal nothing unusual or anything amiss — in spite of the repeated inmate's harangue that "There's ghosts in this jail house."

Most logical, and best educated guesses are that any unusual lights that are being seen, are from patrol car spotlights and high-powered flashlights playing onto, off of and around the jail's windows irregularly throughout the night. These indeed could create images inside that could set imaginative spinning for those

Autographed County History Now On Sale

TEXAS: A Historical and Biographical Survey." By Pearl Ghormley. Rupey Publishing Co., 1725 E. 38 1/2 St., Austin, Texas. 397 pages. Illustrated with dust jacket. $9.50.

As the title suggests, this is a survey report of Eastland County, its history and its people, written by one of its native daughters.
Like an ice cream cone on a hot, summer day, there's just not enough of it — and perhaps there just never could be. But Mrs. Ghormley has done a good job of taking the first steps.

The county's history is told vibrantly through the primary source materials available, including the "Langston History" and the "Cox History" plus a good number of other fine sources. Going to the source, Mrs. Ghormley did extensive interviewing last year and searched newspaper files throughout the county as well as probing the official records, telephone directories, church rolls, and best of all, family records.

The book is well-organized, and one can but regret that there isn't more of it. The author, a Cisco native, did all the towns in detail, with the exception of Eastland, which she elected to cover lightly when she discovered that two other historians are working on history in that town.
Naturally, most space is given to Old Rip in the Eastland section; the boom in Ranger; and the Santa robbery in Cisco.

It's the little gems that W. E. Trimble, a barber, lead a barbershop quartet in Carbon years ago that make the book fascinating reading for those in love with our county or any county like ours.
When you've finished reading the good history — you wonder: Could Mrs. Ghormley or someone equally talented, do a projection an Eastland County's future, based on the foundation of its solid history? — HVO.

WELFARE OFFICIALS SPEAK 'FOR' AMENDMENT NO. 5

Leo Thames of the Eastland County Welfare Office said Monday that the success of the state welfare system in Texas depends upon the outcome of the August 5 special election. On that date, Texans will vote on a constitutional amendment on welfare programs. Thames said approval of the amendment would raise the amount for Old Age Assistance from $48,200,000 to $50,000,000 a year; raise Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled from $4,250,000 to $5,500,000 a year; and raise Aid to Families with Dependent Children from $6,150,000 to $18,100,000. Thames says grants in the AFDC program have been reduced twice in the past twelve months and further reductions are inevitable if the proposed Amendment No. 5 is defeated. "Right now, we say we should be providing $25 a month for a child's food and clothing, and we recognize this as a bare minimum. Yet we are able to provide for that child only $12.50 a month - or 50 per cent of the minimal amount we say should be allowed. "We say a family of four should have $44 a month toward rent, but we are able to provide that family only $22," Hackney says. Commissioner Hackney said that approximately 90 per cent of welfare expenditures in Texas, including medical assistance, goes to the elderly, the disabled, and the blind. "These are adults too old or too incapacitated to work," he said. "This leaves only 10 per cent of our present expenditures for the one program that helps the children, who are too young to work and who need help through education and a more wholesome environment so they will have a better chance of reaching adulthood with the preparation to become productive citizens."

Lesser Cornstalk Borer Is Threat to County Peanuts

The Lesser cornstalk borer, a destructive insect of peanuts, is now active in many Eastland County peanut fields. County Agent De Gordon reported finding infestations in the Gorman and Rising Stars areas July 10. He said full grown larvae were found in most fields. The hot dry weather is a favorable condition for the cornstalk borer. The county agent says this insect cost peanut farmers thousands of dollars in 1967, but was less destructive last year. Gordon says each producer must make a decision whether or not to control the cornstalk borer. If borers have been a problem in the past it would be advisable to apply insecticide. Many times the infestation remains low when the peanuts are irrigated. The cornstalk borer is found around the base of the peanut plant. The most noticeable sign is silken tubes or in the roots and stems of the plant. Their color is bright green to turquoise with brown stripes across the body. The insect must be controlled by applying insecticides before pegging, Diazinon, Parathion, or DDT may be applied as spray or granules. Gordon says to apply granules in a 12-14 inch band directly over row and work into top few inches of the soil. For application, he suggests using two spray nozzles per row so that the lower stems and a 6-8 inch band of soil covered on each side of the row.

Thames says the limit on these funds, combined with a growing number of people in need, has led to a crisis in the state welfare program for the needy children of Texas. The Legislature has submitted to the voters, on the August 5 ballot, a proposed Constitutional amendment which would raise the ceiling to $80 million annually. The amendment contains a built-in appropriation to make available on September 1 an additional $15 million a year for the next two years. Added to the present program, this would provide $75 million annually - or $5 million less than the proposed new ceiling.

WASHINGTON
"As it looks from here"
OMAR BURLESON
Congressman
12th District

PRESS as it looks from here WASHINGTON, D. C. — THERE WAS A TIME WHEN THE PROBLEMS of agriculture could hold the center of the stage in Washington. This was the day when the so-called "farm bloc" had great influence simply because of numbers.

IN RECENT YEARS THIS NUMBER has steadily decreased to the point that relatively few members of Congress are directly interested in the farmer and rural areas. We have turned from an agricultural oriented economy to an industrial economy. It has been a natural evolution but it has also aggravated problems, not the least of which are social. The concentration of population, according to all studies, has greatly contributed to problems of transportation, sanitation, health care, schools and other social conditions reflected in the things we see and read about in the big cities.

THE FARM PROGRAM EXPIRES AT THE END OF 1970. Next year the Congress must face up to either extending the various programs in their present form or devise other methods in an attempt to keep a healthy agricultural economy. The Agriculture Committee of the Congress is to begin hearings in the very near future as a predicate to studies of specific recommendations to be developed before the expiration of the present law. The Administration has not yet come up with proposals but some are expected within the next month. Actually no legislation of any substantial nature is expected in this year but there must be groundwork laid for necessary action in the second session of this 91st Congress.

IT WOULD BE UNFORTUNATE IF THE PROBLEMS involving agriculture, and there are many, were shunted aside by the big issues of the machine age. If such is permitted, not only would the welfare of the farmer himself be seriously affected, but the American consumers would ultimately have to pay more for food and clothing than they do at the present.

WITH ALL THE FAULTS OF THE FARM PROGRAM, and no one is likely to contend that it is perfect, farmers have been able to produce with such efficiency and abundance that the American consumer now uses only 17.2 percent of his disposable net income for food. From the standpoint of the farmers income, and in spite of the fact that a bag of groceries is pretty light as related to the cost at the check-out counter, food is a bargain in the overall family budget. If this appears to be an exaggeration, indices show that the producer of some major crops receives only about one-half of what he received for the same product twenty years ago, while prices he pays for various items that go into production have doubled and tripled. IT IS PRETTY CLEAR THAT THE FARMER, therefore, must either continue to receive some governmental assistance or he will produce less and the consumer will pay more. Apparently, the only other alternative is to turn farming over to corporations and syndicates which will produce, process and retail with the probable result of higher prices at the store. Many of our colleagues in the Congress from the cities thus far fail to take a long-range view of the results of such a situation.

IT IS NOT THE FARMER ALONE WHO IS CAUGHT IN the price-cost squeeze. It can be a lot of people. There just can be no such thing as keeping prices below the cost of production and the farmer go on buying tractors, trucks, fertilizers, insecticides and all the other things which must go into the raising of a crop.

THERE WAS NEVER A TIME WHEN THE FARMER, in addition to battling the elements, could buy on an unprotected market and sell on a protected market. The reverse is historically true—he must pay the set price on wages, profits and interest but has always had to sell for what he could get for his product. Under parts of any farm program he is to a degree regimented but it would take regimentation throughout our economy, such as a freeze on wages, prices, profits and interest on borrowed money and maybe even a guarantee against nature's elements, to put him in the economic position with industry.

THE PRESENT FARM PROGRAM IS FOR FROM PERFECT. For years the idea has been to devise a balance between production and demand; to stabilize the agricultural economy and at the same time give the consumer a break in the cost of food and fiber. This goal will be sought in the future but solutions are not easy or simple.

Sunday Sermon Is Announced

A communion service will be held Sunday, July 13, in all Christian Science churches. All are welcome. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Sacrament" and includes Jesus' words, "Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word."

Services will be held at First Church of Christ Scientist, Corner, Lamar and Plummer Streets, Eastland, Texas, at 11:00 a.m.

Related passages from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy include the following: "That he might liberally pour his dear-bought treasures into empty or sin-filled human storehouses, was the inspiration of Jesus' intense human sacrifice. . . . The purpose of his great life-work extends through time and includes universal humanity".
