FOR THE first time in history. Eastlanders will be able to go "downtown" for the annual County Pecan Show. One and all are welcome, invited & encouraged to come in and see the choice exhibits. Best times to visit says County Agent Dee Gordon is Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. It's been an unusual pecan crop year, according to Chester Marrs of the Chaney orchard (formerly Freeman's), with weather causing late maturing. Crops to the south are reported to be about only one-half of normal.

The show site is 111 West Main St.—read handy for visiting.

CARBON, CISCO and Eastland played members on the All-Tournament teams at the recent Eastland Invitational, Cisco Queen Colleen Cozart was the only countian to make the girls All-Tourney. Ronnie Pack of Carbon, and Bill Hoffmann and Eddie Kincaid, both of Eastland, were named to the boy's All-Tourney team.

The Eastland teams are playing in the Ranger Junior College Tournament this week end.

MR. JOS. M. Perkins brought a very interesting program for the Lions Club at the Tuesday noon meet, in showing beautiful color slides of his travels in Australia and New Zealand. "Australia is the coming country," he says, "and the place where a young man could make his fortune today." The pictures and Mr. P's encouragement was enough to make several wonder if they could come up with a fare to Down Under. Bill Walters was program chairman. Mr. Earnest Sneed one of Eastland's best citizens, and certainly one of Lionism's most avid boosters, is becoming a most welcome "Guest-Bringer" at the local club. He seldom comes alone, and Tuesday introduced no less than six top Lone Star Producing and Gas Co. officials. Welcomed were Ronald Crawford, Dick Kenslow, Carl Peoples, George Locke, Gene Wolfe and Don Grey.

ONE OF our scouts relates the following story: Here it is winter, but there is one lady in Eastland who still thinks it is good fishing weather. The other day Mrs. Hood

BAND TEST, CONCERT HERE ON SATURDAY

The All-District High School Band will meet on the Eastland High School campus Saturday, Dec. 14.

This band is composed of the best musicians from the northern part of the U. I. L.'s region which includes Breckenridge to the north, Granbury to the east, Sweetwater to the west and Brownwood to the south. This encompasses 20 high schools.

There will be try-outs in the morning from 8 a.m. until 12 noon in order to select the best 108 students from the 217 entries.

Each student who enters this competition is required to play music which is selected by the music advisory board of the Texas All-Star band. After a student has been selected, he rehearses with the band from 1 p.m. until 5:30 p.m., and presents a concert Saturday evening, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The concert is free of charge, open to the public and it is an opportunity to hear a select band of the best musicians in concert.

Local band officials are encouraging Eastlanders to attend the concert to let the young musicians know that their work is appreciated.

7 CoFC Directors Elected -- Banquet Date Is Set

Seven new directors have been elected to the Eastland Chamber of Commerce and the date set for the annual chamber banquet, it has been announced.

Elected by the membership to three-year-term are Durel Reid, Joan Whistler, Obie Duncan, Don Stoner, Charles Freyschlag, Jeff Glazner and James O. Zuspahn.

The chamber's annual banquet will be held Thursday, Jan. 16, at the Eastland Elementary School Cafeteria, beginning at 7 p.m. Tickets will go on sale immediately at $2.50 for the Godby-catered dinner and special program.

The new slate of officers and directors will be installed at the banquet. J. T. Gregory is retiring president and Grover Hallmark is incoming president. Ben McKinnis will be first vice president.

Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann Jr. is in charge of decorations for the banquet.

Speaker, awards and other details are to be announced later.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, December 12, at the Comanche Funeral Home. Burial will be in the Oakland Cemetery, south of Gorman.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, L. T. Hagood of Comanche, and Howard Hagood of Freepport; two daughters, Mrs. Roy Marble of Flagstaff, Arizona, and Mrs. Jay Featheroff of Freepport; two step-daughters, Mrs. Dele Boesen of Bloomington, California and Mrs. Johnson Smith of Eastland; ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Arlington Hamner Funeral Chapel. Burial was in the Eastland Cemetery.

He was born December 7, 1901 in Eastland and lived here all his life. He was resident of 1310 South Simon.

Survivors include one son, Tommy J. Dabbs of Abilene; one daughter, Clara L. Tankersley of Libya, Africa; one sister, Mrs. Roy Harbin of Eastland; and three grandchildren.

Prizes will be a yard light from Texas Electric Service Company, a cash award from Civic League, and arrangements from Poe Floral and Green Street Floral.

Woman Injured In School Bus-Auto Wreck

Mrs. Thomas Campbell of Daingerfield was admitted to Monday Memorial Hospital Monday following a car-bus collision about a mile east of Eastland on Highway 80.

Mrs. Campbell was a passenger in a 1967 Chevrolet driven by her husband. The car was in an accident with the Olden School Bus, driven by Jerry Brock of Olden.

There were thirteen students on the bus, according to Highway Patrolman Bob Rivers, who investigated the accident. None was reported injured.

Attends Grand Lodge

Joseph Housson and Don Nicholas, representatives of the Carbon Masonic Lodge, number 786, A. F. and A. M., attended the 133rd Grand Communication of the Grand Lodge of Texas and Memorial Grand Lodge Temple at Waco, December 4.

Every country in the world except Russia was represented at the meeting.

BUY GRID BANQUET TICKETS BY FRIDAY, Q.B. CLUB ADVISES

Tickets for the annual Football Banquet should be bought before Friday, a spokesman for the sponsoring Quarterback Club said. Only 300 dinners have been ordered and ticket sales have been brisk. Tickets are $2.50 each and are available from any member of the Quarterback Club.

Coach J. T. King of Texas Tech is featured speaker for the event which will honor football players in the seventh and eighth grades, Junior Varsity, and Maverick teams. The coaching staff, junior high and high school cheerleaders, and their sponsors will also be honored.

The Quarterback Club furnishes free tickets to these football players and cheerleaders. Their dates must have tickets, however.

IN EASTLAND?

One question please.
If it is 37 degrees and a little boy misses school because he has no shoes, where does the little boy live?
Answer: in Eastland, Texas.

A second question, please.
If a house has no stove in it, not even a cook stove, and the family huddles under worn blankets to try to stay warm and cooks on a campfire in the backyard, unless, of course, it is raining or snowing, where is the house?
Answer: Just outside the Eastland city limits.

Another question, please.
Where could these families get help?
Answer: from Eastland Goodfellows.

A final question, please.
How much help will Eastland Goodfellows be able to give to how many families?
Answer: it's up to you.

The address is Goodfellows, Box 391, Eastland, Texas, 76448.

ATTEND GAME

Attending the Iowa Park-Reagan County football game in Abilene Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parsons, former Iowa Park residents; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hightower. The Hightower's granddaughter, Ann Kelly, daughter of Master Sargent and Mrs. Jack Kelly, is a member of the Iowa Park band.

ART CLUB DINNER

Eastland Art Club will hold its annual Christmas Party at 1:30 p.m. Dec. 12, in the home of Mrs. Y. A. Wright. All members are urged to attend.

County Pecan Show Ready For Record Participation

Murray Cox, well-known radio and TV farm editor of WFAA in Dallas, and other out-of-town guests will be present Saturday for the Eastland County Pecan Show. The pecan show will be at 111 W. Main in Eastland, Friday and Saturday, December 13 and 14.

The show will be officially dedicated to the late J. M. Cooper in a special program to be held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning. B. G. Hancock, Horticulturist from Texas A&M; John Burleson, Extension District Agent from Stephenville and Cox will take part in the program. County Agent DeMarquis Gordon said Cooper originated the first county pecan show in Texas in 1952. Other counties followed his example and this year there will be twenty-four county pecan shows, three regional shows and one state pecan show. Gordon said Cooper probably did more than anyone else to promote the culture of high quality pecans in Texas while he was County Agent of Eastland County.

Grover Hallmark, Eastland Chamber of Commerce chairman for the event, invites the public to visit the pecan show and especially the dedication program Saturday morning. The Eastland Chamber of Commerce and the county Pecan Growers Association are co-sponsors of the pecan show. Tony White, president of the association, says this is the sixteenth annual Eastland County Pecan Show and the first time for the show to be held in Eastland.

The show will consist of a display of about 200 entries of top quality pecans representing over 40 different varieties. There will also be a display of cakes, pies and candies. A third feature will be a display of centerpieces using pecans in various forms. Gordon said the best time to see the show would be Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

The pecans will be processed for judging Friday morning. Friday noon is the deadline for entering pecans in the show. Entries will be judged Friday evening and Saturday morning. The winners in all divisions will be made known sometime Saturday morning. The displays will be taken down after noon Saturday.

Mary Hubbard Is 1968 Pecan Queen

Mary Hubbard of Rising Star was named Eastland County Pecan Queen Tuesday night in ceremonies in the Eastland High School Auditorium.

Runnerup in the contest was 18-year-old Darlene Lovelace of Eastland.

Crowning the royalty was Anton White, president of the County Pecan Association.

The contest is sponsored jointly by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce and the Eastland Jaycees.

There was a record number of 18 entries in the contest.

Mavericks Win 5th Annual Tournament

The Eastland Mavericks were gracious hosts, but captured the championship trophy, defeating Abilene Junior Varsity, 60-56, in an exciting climax Saturday night to the Fifth Annual Quarterback Club Eastland Invitational Basketball Tournament.

The Comanche girls clinched their division's top trophy in downing Dublin, 55-39 Saturday night.

The Baird Bears downed Cisco Lobos, 53-51, to earn the Boy's Consolation trophy, and the Cisco girls were ousted 32-31 by the Baird girls in the girls consolation. Holt of Cisco was high for the boys with 17 and Varner of Baird had 18. Laraine Rich hit 17 for the Cisco girls and Reeves of Baird had 13.

In other Saturday action, the Cisco girls defeated the Eastland B girls, 58-14, with Reien scoring 20 for high honors. Patsy Kincaid and Lynn Robertson each had four for Eastland.

Baird girls defeated De Leon, 72-17, and Carbon girls lost to Comanche, 95-13, with D. Warren high point girl with 8 for Carbon.

The championship games went like this:

Show Dedicated To Mr. Cooper

THE LATE J. M. COOPER Agent 1946-66

County Pecan Shows began in 1952 at Cisco under the guidance of the late J. M. Cooper. Other counties organized pecan shows following the Eastland County example. This year, there will be 24 county shows plus three regional shows, and the State Pecan Show in Texas. Because of his great contribution to the promotion of sound Pecan production, the 1968 Eastland County Pecan Show is dedicated to Mr. Cooper.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For Mr. Dabbs

Claude Thomas Dabbs, 67, a native of Eastland, died Monday at Eastland Memorial Hospital.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Arlington Hamner Funeral Chapel. Burial was in the Eastland Cemetery.

He was born December 7, 1901 in Eastland and lived here all his life. He was resident of 1310 South Simon.

Survivors include one son, Tommy J. Dabbs of Abilene; one daughter, Clara L. Tankersley of Libya, Africa; one sister, Mrs. Roy Harbin of Eastland; and three grandchildren.

TIDBITS

King took her rod in hand and went to her favorite fishing hole. She baited her hook, and out it went. She watched the cork bob a few times, and away it went. She fought for three hours and finally won. She had fought so well, she had worn her fish down to three inches.

IT'S GOOD to see Clyde Benton back on the job at Coats Furniture after a siege in the hospital... It'll be pretty at the hospital now, with decorations going up. Saw H. O. Waldon buying big pretty trees the other day.

BEST WISHES for this particular week are that those afflicted with the various strains of flu have speedy and quick recovery. Young and old are being plagued, and elementary school attendance is way down, with scores at home or being sent home.

A UNITARIAN friend here gives this as his best description of what his religion is about: "Well, it's like this," he says "if a Unitarian were walking down a road and came to a fork, one route marked 'Heaven,' and the other 'To a discussion of Heaven,' the Unitarian would take the route marked for the discussion."

Shrine Club Plans Annual Xmas Party

Members of the Cross Timber Shrine Club will hold their annual Christmas party at 7 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 14 at Lone Cedar Country Club, according to President Joe Dennis of Ranger.

The evening's program will include a magic show by Noble Mallicote of Fort Worth and game of bingo. A short business meeting will also be held.

WEST TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Because We Sell Insurance —
... naturally we have a very special interest in the welfare of those who drive moving vehicles. With the period of early darkness already upon us and with snow, ice and slick pavements in prospect, and this is the season for extra care by both drivers and pedestrians. Unless more driving caution is used than ever before, this holiday season may be remembered more for its record traffic deaths than for the glorious event which we celebrate this month. So drive with care and always with adequate insurance protection.

Navy Medic Tells Of Mr. 'Typical'

"Whenever you hear someone saying that the kids of today are going to the dogs . . . H.M.2 David Gary Watson, a Navy medic in the thick of things in Vietnam, has a ready answer for that. And he puts it into words in an article, entitled "A Typical Man in Vietnam," which appeared this month in a Lutheran Church publication distributed to men and women of the Armed Forces.

The piece tells about the American youngsters — now 19, a veteran, and fighting to make 20 . . . At 23, young Watson has seen enough for several lifetimes. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wende, Star Route, Box One, Cisco, David is a Cisco High School and Cisco Junior College graduate, and was a senior pharmacy student at the University of Texas when he enlisted in the Navy in November of 1962. Stationed at Da Nang, he must be somewhat above "typical" himself. Being a Corpsman, he finds himself constantly in the midst of drama in its rawest. Where things are so bad that the chaplains can't go out, the Corpsmen perform the duties that are needed; giving last rites to dying servicemen and a million and one other things that comfortable civilians can hardly imagine back at home. He's been in Vietnam since May, and with luck he'll be home next May. He was recently wounded but reports himself "okay" now. Due to a communications break down when he was out on a rescue mission not so long ago, his parents were mistakenly notified of his death. Later they received word that he wasn't dead, but missing. Word finally came that he was alright, but when he got back to Da Nang, he learned that one of his best friends, another medic, Navyman Bubba Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Everett of Olden, had been killed in a terrific siege at Da Nang.

Corpsman Watson could have left Vietnam once, but elected to stay . . . because the younger men needed his experience." And a wiser head would agree; that he most nearly speaks their language and understands. "There are times, I'd like a shoulder to cry on, but the younger ones need one more often. Mine's usually available." If he's above typical, what's typical? Here's the way Corpsman Watson tells it:

A TYPICAL MAN IN VIETNAM
 Most of the guys over here are 18 and fighting to make it 19. The average age of the combat soldier in many units here is 18½. And what a man he is—a pink-checked, tousled haired, tight muscles fellow who under normal circumstances would be considered by society as half-man, half-boy, not yet dry behind the ears and a pain in the unemployment chart.

But here and now he is the beardless hope of free men. He is, for the most part, unmarried and without material possessions except possibly for an old car at home and a transistor radio here. He listens to rock 'n roll and 105 millimeter howitzers. He just got out of high school, received so-so grades, played a little football, and had a girl who promised to be true.

He has learned to drink beer because it is cold and "is the thing to do." He is a private first class, a one-year military veteran with one or possibly three years to go. He never cared for work, preferred waxing his own car to washing his dad's, but he is now working or fighting from dawn to dark, often longer. He still has trouble spelling, and writing letters home is a painful process. But he can break down his rifle in 30 seconds and put it back together.

er in 29. He can describe the nomenclature of a fragmentation grenade, explain how a machine gun operates, and use either if the need arises.

He can dig a fox hole, apply first aid to a wounded companion, march until he is told to stop, or stop until he is told to march. He has seen more suffering than he should have in his short life. He has stood among hills of bodies, and he has helped to build those hills. He has wept in private and in public and has not been ashamed at doing either because his pals have fallen in battle, and he has come close to joining them.

He has become self-sufficient. He has two pair of fatigues, washes one and wears the other. He sometimes forgets to brush his teeth, but not his rifle. He keeps his hocks dry and his canteen full. He can cook his own meals, fix his own hurts and mend his own rips—material or mental. He will share his water with you if you thirst, break his rations in half if you hunger, and split his ammunition if you are fighting for your life. He can do the work of two civilians, draw half the pay of one and find ironic humor in it all. He has learned to use his hands as a weapon and his weapon as his hands. He is now 19, a veteran, and fighting to make 20 . . .

Convicted Man Admits 28 Burglaries in Eastland County

At least 28 Eastland County burglaries, dating back to 1965 and 1966, have been cleared up with the conviction and sentencing of a Lubbock man, according to County Sheriff L. E. Sublett.

A Texas Ranger brought the man to Eastland County recently en route to Huntsville, where the man is sentenced to serve a 30-year term from Lubbock.

Cecil Ray Rhinehart told

Sheriff Sublett he had burglarized a number of Eastland County firms including the safe at Sandler Manufacturing Co. in Cisco. Anderson Jewelry in Cisco, the O. K. Grocery in Ranger and the Man's Store in Eastland. Over 100 suits were taken in the Man's Store burglary, but Rhinehart remembers to Sublett "only taking about 40 suits."

The man operated with a brightly-painted, rented trailer.

Two Cisco Junior College students were in Taylor County Jail and another one out on $1,500 bond as the result of charges stemming from a series of burglaries in Eastland County, according to Sheriff L. E. Sublett this week.

Charges with theft over $50, a felony, are Danny Ray Tidwell of Wink and John Paul Guinn of White Deer. Another White Deer student, Jerry Dan Grange is charged with receiving and concealing stolen goods. Guinn had made bond Monday, Sheriff Sublett said.

Reported taken during the past few weeks were two deer rifles, a .30-30 and a 264 Magnum, in Cisco, two sets of hub caps (four spinners and four "masks"), taken at the football field in Eastland the night of the Eastland - Granbury game. Persons losing such items may inquire at the sheriff's office in Eastland.

Two of the youths were first arrested in Abilene. Sheriff Sublett and Assistant County Attorney Emery Walton went to Abilene and took statements from two of the youths.

In other sheriff's department action, five registered Angus cows and two calves, belonging to Glen Hubbard of Eastland, and stolen recently at Rising Star, have been recovered in Mills County. Charges are expected to be filed immediately, Sheriff Sublett reported.
