1,428 Years of Solid Experience Rewarded at H-V Plant Ceremony

The personnel at Eastland's Hollywood-Vassarette plant are qualified by over 1,500 years experience, as evidenced by a recent awards ceremony held at the plant.

A total of 115 Service Pins were awarded for a combined total of 1,428 years of employee service. Supervisory and managerial services adds another 150 years experience to the total. During the impressive event, Plant Manager John Whistler awarded Service Pins to employees for five, ten, fifteen and 20 years of service.

Refreshments of punch and cake squares decorated with "HV" were served.

The local plant closes for the vacation after Thursday and will re-open on July 14.

Mr. Whistler said.

The Eastland employees were among 1,600 in the Munsinwear Company to be cited for service.

The award itself is a gold pin, or tie tack for men, duplicating the "M" used in the company's corporate logo. After the initial five year award is given successive service years will be recognized with the addition of a gemstone to indicate the appropriate service award period.

The company will maintain the tradition of awarding gold watches in recognition of 25 years of service and membership in the firm's Loyalty Club with that same tenure of service.

The country in which he taught math, Botswana, received its independence from Britain, September, 1966, and was formerly called Bechuanaland. Warfield said, "It is cattle and peanut country, very similar to Eastland County with its sandy soil, 20 inches of annual rainfall, and friendly people."

A native of Cisco, Warfield is a graduate of McCamey High School and Howard Payne College in Brownwood. He says the Peace Corp assignment was "a highly enjoyable and educational experience." He plans to resume his teaching in the United States.

Support Price Hike, Good Rains, Favor Peanut Crop

A substantial increase in the basic support price for Spanish peanuts and excellent moisture conditions at planting time have provided this major peanut growing area with one of its finest crop prospects.

The present good crop prospects are clouded to some degree by the delay in planting caused by so much violent weather and periodic heavy rains. In the Rising Star, May and northern Comanche counties areas, soil and conservation district workers estimated that the crop was about 50 per cent in the ground.

Elsewhere, and generally, however, planting is only about 25 per cent completed, field workers with the County ASC office estimated. Farmers were very hopeful of getting their peanut seed in the bed before further delays caused by bad weather might result in a loss of good moisture growing conditions and a diminution of yield prospects due to July and August dry heat.

In the past three seasons late August and September rains have been very beneficial in producing bumper and clean yields, but the usual incidence of summer weather in this section does not promise that this timely and crop-making moisture will usually occur.

A small section of the peanut acreage in the north of Gorman will have to be replanted because of hail damage to acres planted early enough for the young plants to have broken ground.

Total acreage planted in 1968 in Eastland county was 32,505 acres, of which about 8,000 was in irrigated peanuts. There is expected to be some increase in the irrigated crop, but the overall acreage will remain about the same.

Total yield of the 1968 crop in Eastland county was tabulated at the County ASC office as 47,913,440 pounds, or an average of 49 bushels per acre, a record yield.

The national rate of $247.50 per ton was announced on April 30. The latest rate scale listed average prices for particular kinds of peanuts.

Officials said the new schedule showed a support price range of from $238 a ton for runner types to nearly $258 for Virginia and valencias suitable for roasting.

The department said some of the prices were modified for the first time since 1962 to reflect changes in marketing and production patterns.

Virginia-type peanuts, for example, formerly were grown mainly in Virginia and North Carolina, but these have increased recently in Georgia, Florida and Alabama.

The 1969-crop basic price support rates — subject to adjustment later in the crop year — included:

Virginia $257.41 a ton for 1969 crop compared with $253.73 last year; runner $238 and $227.37 southeast Spanish $249.87 and $218.03.

TidBits
By H.V.O.

ONE OF everybody's favorite thinkers, Dr. R. C. Ferguson, offers some pithy thoughts for a warm summer day:

Since Mr. Warren is resigning, maybe we can resume Bible reading and prayers in the public schools. Thomas Jefferson was the author of freedom of religious worship. The Warren edict was a slap in his face, as well as to millions of Christians in the United States.

If public opinion could be resuscitated we could have two passenger trains thru Eastland daily. The crowded highways, the parking problem and high cost of operating your car, favor train service.

Physical tiredness brings rosy cheeks and good health. Mental tiredness brings strokes, paralysis and bad health.

WITH READINGS in the low 70s these early mornings, it's really the time to be out. For a mini-treat take your family out to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson's White Elephant Restaurant for a fine breakfast out, and being with all the going and coming tourists stopped there, it's like being on leave yourself. It's refreshing just overhearing others laugh about the wonderful fun spots of the Southwest they've just been to, or are going to. The temperature topped 100 on Sunday afternoon, in case you didn't notice it was hot — 102 at 4 p. m. and the little cooling shower Monday evening brought 1.4 of an inch of rain. Credit Jesse Ward with the best post-storm story — the wind blew so hard last Thursday, according to him, it blew the seeds right out of the watermelons down at Hamilton's Fruit Stand on East Main.

There is strong probability that the support price will be adjusted to a higher level at market time, county agricultural leaders said. It will not be any lower.

In the Rising Star and Gorman areas much of the peanuts processed come from acreage with out the county and adjacent to those communities. The Big community, thundershowers.

Swedish Pair Charms Rotary In Talks Here

Two charming Swedish Exchange Students were speakers for the Eastland Rotary Club at its regular luncheon meeting Monday at the White Elephant Restaurant.

Mary Ann Ohlsson, 18, and Eva Brammer, 17, told about their native Sweden and how much they are enjoying their visit in this area in the Lions Club Foreign Exchange Student program. Mary was introduced by her hostess, Mrs.

Gilbert Meredith, and Eva by Miss Shelley Siebert, in whose home she is staying.

Grover Hallmark was program chairman and introduced the visitors. Other guests introduced by Secretary Frank Sayre were Bob Clements and Buel Gibbs, both of Abilene.

President Joe Culpepper presided, and announced that officers for the new year will be installed next week.

Incoming President Roy Lee Smith announced that a board of directors meeting was to be held at the Restaurant Tuesday evening.

Both the Swedish girls responded: "The friendly, nice people," when asked what they liked most about this country. They also indicated they liked the food here, stating that in their country, potatoes are served at every meal; fish is the main protein food; that their dairy cattle do not provide good beef; and that they are long familiar "Texas hot dogs" in their country.

WILSON-HENDRICK VOWS SAID IN CHURCH

Miss Treva Mae Wilson and Ronnie Lee Hedrick were united in marriage on Saturday June 7 at 7:30 p.m. in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. LeRoy Blackburn in the First Assembly of God Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilson, of Victoria, formerly of Eastland and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hedrick also of Victoria. The bride is also the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson of Eastland and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crowder of Cisco.

Miss Gloria Janota, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. W. W. Caylor who sang, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of pearl de soie styled with an Empire waistline and lace covered bodice and sleeves. The skirt of the gown and chapel length train were scattered with beaded lace appliques. She wore a gold tocket and carried a nosegay of white carnations, star flowers and Stephanotis. Her veil of illusion was caught to a crown headpiece. She carried out the theme of something old and something new, something borrowed and something blue.

Mrs. Jim Moylan, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Diane Thompson of Breckenridge, and Miss Diane Young of Eastland.

The attendants were attired in gowns of deep and light pink peau de soie, with matching rose headpieces. They each carried a nosegay of pink carnations and cornflowers.

Lisa Smothers attended as flowergirl and was attired in a gown of deep pink peau de soie identical to that of the bridesmaids. She also wore a Matching headpiece. Jim Moylan, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

The mother of the bride chose an aqua knit dress with white accessories and a corsage of white glanellias. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue A-line knit dress with bone accessories and a white corsage of glanellias.

Donald Hedrick served his brother as best man and Kenneth Hedrick, also a brother of the groom, and Larry Wilson, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen. Ushers were Kenneth Kickendahl and Johnny Stafford, Candlelighters were Ronnie Russell and Johnny Stafford.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall. Serving in the houseparty were Misses Jo Ann Stafford, Ann Russell, Sharon Hahn, Ginger Meyer, and Wanda Rose.

Miss Sandra Thompson, cousin of the bride, presided at the bride's book.

For travel to Corpus Christi the bride wore a pink knit suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the bridegroom Friday night at Mammy's Cafeteria.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Victoria High School and the bridegroom is a 1967 graduate of Victoria High School and attended Victoria college.

Lawmen's School Being Planned by Commissioners

Under discussion by the Eastland commissioners during their Monday morning meeting was their sponsorship of a training school for law officers, to which they also expect to give formal approval. If approved, the school will be taught by law enforcement experts under the direction of Texas A&M University Police Training division, of which Ira E. Scott is chairman.

The two-week school will be paid for by Eastland County, with a cost of $300 for the two weeks of courses in prisoner handling, jail procedures and courtroom demeanor. Classes will be held for two hours daily, with the experts on hand later for consultation.

Judge Bailey said attendance cannot be made mandatory, but he expects most of the law enforcement officers at the county including county and city lawmen, to attend "at least some of the classes." Working schedules will not permit all lawmen to attend all classes.

There will be no cost to individual lawmen or the agencies for which they work, Bailey noted. He said he also hopes other area law enforcement officials will attend the courses, since the county will pay a flat fee for the school, rather than a per-man tuition. Successful completion of the school would "go a long way toward satisfying training credentials to be required by law in 1970," Bailey said.

Also in connection with law enforcement in the county, the commissioners are studying the possibility of making constable posts full-time jobs, rather than the present part-time jobs situation paying $125 a month. Commissioners noted that present manpower of Sheriff L. E. (Lefty) Sublett could be used more in law enforcement duties, by allowing constables to serve court papers, fill in as bailiffs for court sessions, and make some out-of-county trips (such as returning prisoners or transporting patients to state hospitals.)

Vacation Safety Quiz Covers Multitude Driving Emergencies

Suppose during your vacation trip an oncoming car veers into your lane and hurtles toward you. Which two of the following four actions do you take?

1. Blow the horn. 2. Apply the brakes. 3. Steer as far right as you can. 4. Switch to the lane the other car should be in.

In all but the rarest circumstances, moves 1 and 3 are other driver up, and a right steer is more likely to provide escape than braking or turning into the oncoming traffic lane.

If you haven't tested your safety sagacity lately, maybe you should tune up for holiday driving with these additional questions:

True-False
1. In case of a blow out, take your foot off the accelerator, immediately, then pump the brakes.

False. Ease up on the gas gradually, not abruptly. Wait until the car slows naturally before braking gently.

2. If your car, heavily loaded for a trip, seems easier to steer than usual, your tires need more air.

False. You should move some of the heavier items farther forward.

3. It is sometimes better to steer toward an object in the road instead of trying to miss it.

True. If your choice in an emergency is between hitting a moving vehicle or a minor obstruction in the road such as a rock or animal, choose the latter. If the object is small enough, straddle it rather than swerving to avoid it.

4. A light rain is often more dangerous to drivers than a heavy rain.

True. A light shower makes highways slicker than a heavy rain because road oil and grease "float" on the surface of the moisture. A downpour washes them away.

5. On turnpikes, rear-end collisions are the most frequent type of accident.

False. Most turnpike accidents involve only one car. The statement is true for two-car accidents, however.

6. When an oncoming car fails to dim its lights, you should slow down and watch the right side of the road.

True. If you look directly into the high beams of an oncoming car at night, your eyes won't recover completely from the glare for one full minute.

7. Most traffic accidents occur at night.

False. About three out of four accidents happen in daylight, on dry roads, in clear weather. Most fatalities occur at night, however.

8. For better control on curves, slow down as you begin the turn and accelerate half way through it.

False. You should slow down well before you begin the curve and gradually accelerate about two thirds of the way through it.

9. When passing, you should not cut back until you can see the car you passed in your mirror.

True. This is a handy way to gauge a safe distance.

10. In terms of traffic fatalities, the 4th of July is the most dangerous of the three weather holidays.

True. So far.

Eastland Is 1 of 30 Counties In Industrial Study Program

Eastland is one of 30 areas of the state to be involved in an intensive three-year study of the structure of the economy. Research assistants from Hardin-Simmons University's Bureau of Economics and Business Research will begin conducting interviews with selected firms at communities in Eastland County between now and next fall.

"The study is an Input-Output analysis," said Dr. Jim Vinson, head of the H-SU bureau. "It is a technical analysis of the interrelationships between industries. It is a statewide accounting system which will illustrate the sources of supplies of Texas industries, as well as the total market."

The project is being conducted through the Division of Planning Coordination of the Governor's Office. Counties involved in the study in which H-SU research assistants will be conducting interviews include the following: Taylor, Mitchell, Nolan, Callahan, Eastland, Comanche, Brown, Coleman, Stephens, Shackelford, Jones, Fisher, Scurry, Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Knox, Baylor, Archer, Montague, Clay, Wichita, Wildbarger, Foard, Cottle, Childress, and Hardeman.

H-SU is one of the eight institutions of higher learning in the state to assist in the project. Other schools include the

Early Filing, Proofs Will Speed SS Pay

"When will I get my first check?"

University of Texas, Texas Tech, Texas A&M, the University of Houston, the University of Texas at El Paso, University of Texas at Arlington, and Pan American University.

That question is high in the mind of each applicant for social security retirement, survivors, or disability insurance payments, according to R. R. Tuley, Jr., social security district manager.

New claims for cash payments have averaged about 100 a week in this area since the first of the year, he said. However, the time between filing an application and getting the first check varies from a few days to a few months.

"A worker who is planning his retirement should make his claim two or three months before he retires," Tuley continued. "Everyone should always make his application in advance of reaching age 65 to avoid the loss of any Medicare benefits, whether he's retiring or not."

"Also, an applicant can save time by furnishing exact information at the time of ing his retirement should filing," he explained.

"For example, the applicant who brings proof of his date of birth and a copy of last year's income tax return, or Form W-2 (Statement of wages, and Taxes), will speed final action."

Tuley summed up with this admonition: "Help us to help you by making advance preparation. For further details, see a social security representative in Abilene or check his travel schedule to your area at your post office."
