Tribble, Berry Vows Recited Friday Evening

were solemnized at eight o'- Rev. Tribble, church pastor, clock in the evening, Friday, after presenting his daughter July 3, in the sanctuary of in marriage. First United Methodist Church.

Parents of the couple are Rev. and Mrs. B. Thomas Tribble, 419 Elm St., Ranger, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Berry, Rt. 2, Eastland.

A wrought iron arch entwined with greenery and large arrangements of white and "The Lord's Prayer." mums completed the altar setting.

The double ring ceremony was begun by Dr. Floyd E.

Jimmy Watkins of Ranger was organist; Jeanine Monroe, also of Ranger, was vocalist. Selections included "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee,' "Somewhere My Love" form Dr. Zhivago, "A Time For Us" from Romeo and Juliet

The bride was attired in a formal empire gown a peau de soie, overlaid with nylon mist. The bodice of lace was accented with seed pearls and featured a wedding ring col-lar covered with lace and pearl appliques. The long sleeves of nylon mist ended with lace cutfs. Matching lace appliques adorned the skirt.

The chapel train, featuring lace appliques, was made of nylon mist bordered with lace and attached to the gown at the waistline with a bow. The gown was designed by the bride and made by her grand-mother, Mrs. W. M. Forston of Bardwell

The bouffant veil of illusion was held by a headdress of ace petals ornamented with eed pearls. Her bouquet of white carnations and stephonatis was centered with an orchid. She carried a wedding ring which belonged to her great-great -grandmother and n heirloom handkerchief, gift of Mrs. N. Stacke of Bardwell. She wore a cameo necklace, a courtship gift of the bridegroom.
