Olden Election, New Ranger Hospital Positions Given to Commissioners

The County Commissioners Court took action on one of three major points in a special called meeting Monday, and heard discussion on the other two.

Steele Hill of Eastland was appointed Constable, Precinct One, Eastland and Olden, to fill the unexpired term (which began Jan. 1) of the late Porter Woods. Nomination of Mr. Hill was by Commissioner Danny Woods, son of the late Constable.

Discussions were held and statements made regarding the contest of the Olden School election and the petition to call an election to form a hospital district in Ranger.

The recent Olden School election was challenged at the last commission meeting, and the matter was delayed a week for consideration. No one spoke up when County Judge Scott Bailey asked if there were anyone present to speak in behalf of the Olden school officials and the elections.

Dr. Dick Hodges introduced a statement when asked for discussion from those who are contesting the election. It was pointed out that the court's only authority is administrative and non-judicial, it was agreed that the court could and would go ahead and canvass the vote as returned by election officials. Dr. Hodges indicated that further contest of the procedures of the election which are being questioned would be pursued through the district attorney's office and the grand jury.

In a preliminary advisory capacity, Bill Marslander of Ranger presented the court a petition, bearing the names of 239 property owners asking that an election be called by the court "if and when" state legislation is passed creating a hospital district in Ranger.

Such a bill has already been passed by the House of Representatives, and Rep. Burke Muagrove notified by telephone during the Monday morning hearing that it is his understanding that the Ranger hospital district bill will pass the Senate on April 29.

The petition further asked that the court appoint a board at the time it called the election, and the names recommended are: F. P. Brashier Sr., Dr. E. W. Mince, T. C. Frimbrogh, Herman Cupp, George Falls, Bill Herrod and R. V. Robinson. These have agreed to serve, Mr. Marslander said.

Creation of the district and passage by election of the hospital funding would create a 75c tax per $100 evaluation for residents in the district it was pointed out.

Speaking generally in favor of the need for a hospital in Ranger, but voicing objection to the method, i.e., the creation of the district and the new taxing unit, were Dr. Dick Hodges, Postmaster Ross Hodges and Mr. I. J. Allen. Ross Hodges stated that their purpose at the hearing was to ask the court to handle the proceedings in sequence if and when the time comes, and Dick Hodges said that he wanted to see the care of "Our sick folks taken out of the hands of politicians."

Data was also introduced showing the real property tax for the year 1967 in Ranger including: The City, the School, Ranger Junior College, the County, E.C. Water Supply District and State.

All generally agreed that should an election evolve, it should be called and held swiftly.

Dr. Hodges said in a statement regarding the contest of the Olden School vote:

"This situation cannot be dismissed as a mere not knowing the law or some small technicality. When other similar conditions have been brought to their attention that the school board was violating laws no action was taken or effort made to correct these wrongs.

"Two years ago it was pointed out to them that the tax roll was not certified and to collect taxes under such conditions was illegal and this too was ignored. It has also been brought to their attention that one of their board members also serves as a board member of the local water district which is a violation of state laws and once again nothing was done to comply. This past year the school board appointed a tax equalization board and one of this board was also a member of the local water board. This man was serving two masters or interest but the school board allowed him to serve.

"As with all tax equalization boards the hours were long and the work confusing and no doubt some mistakes were made. One outstanding mistake was called to their attention by the tax assessor and this was not corrected — then there is some doubt that school interest were really served. The local water system was installed at a cost of approximately $85,000, and should be placed on the tax roll for approximately $25,500 and pay approximately $390 for their fair share of the taxes. This property was placed on the tax roll for $3,060 and paid $90, cheating the school district children out of about $300. The school board also failed to advertise the budget hearing and was well aware of this law having complied with it the previous year.

"The school district is furnished by the state department of education, Public School Bulletin No. 647 and Laws and Resolutions affecting public education enacted the 59 & 60 legislature. I do not know if the Texas Election Laws 1968 & 1969 book is furnished by the state dept. of education but it can be obtained from Steck and Co. or from the local political precinct chairman. The state dept. of education also has a full time legal advisor to clarify any law or give advice at no cost to the school.

"This is the condition that existed before the last election. This school has had three superintendents in the past year and this condition still exists and continues and no superintendent or clerk should be made a scape goat or allowed to take the blame for the school board.

"I did not make an answer to the newspaper or do I care to engage in such a game which serves only to embarrass the tax payers of this district and make the school district the laughing stock of West Texas. I say if any other charges are to be made, first place the one that makes them under oath.

"These are the reasons combined with election violations that I asked the Commissioners Court not to make a canvass of the votes until this is settled by court action or has been investigated by the grand jury or which course of action the District Attorney wants to follow."

Library Committee Says 'Be All You Can Be. Read'

National Library Week is here again with our interest in the specific needs of the Eastland Public Library. National Library Week in Eastland is being sponsored by the Library Committee of the Thursday Afternoon Club, with Mrs. C. C. Collings as chairman and Mrs. James Horton, Mrs. Ben Hamner, Mrs. W.D.R. Owen, Mrs. Haston Brewer, Mrs. Esco Walter, Mrs. E. G. Rice, committee members, Mrs. J. F. Francis, vice-president of the Thursday Afternoon Club; Frank Deaton, Mayor; Mrs. A. E. Cushman, librarian; Mrs. Trixie Lester, Eastland High School Librarian; the Eastland Telegram and KERC radio are all helping to promote National Library Week in Eastland.

Library Week at the Eastland Library is a part of the 12th annual program observed in all 50 states. Its theme is "Be All You CAN Be. Read."

We announce the outstanding reader of the year during Library Week and this year that honor goes to Audrey England, 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. England. Audrey read 177 books during the year which beat her own record of 147 for the outstanding reader of last year.

Also during National Library Week the library announces the Summer Reading Program. This year it will be during June and July and will be our 10th Summer Reading Program. Our emphasis again this year will be on the satisfaction and fun of reading good books. We hope to build a Library, (at least a symbolical one) brick by brick as each book is read. Each child will place his name on a brick for every book read and we will watch our Library grow.

National Library Week is announced for April 20-26 but it is hoped that interest in the Library will continue the year round.

T-1 Personnel Chief Recalls EHS Days and Describes Industry

A home-town boy returned Tuesday to reminisce about the EHS Class of 49 — but only briefly, before launching into a detailed description about the exciting world of big industry, recruiting bright talent for that industry and the almost unbelievable world that is the internationally-famous TI (Texas Instruments).

Dan Amis, son of Mr. Tom Amis, now of Dallas, is personnel director for the exotic TI and it is his job to secure the top brains to work for the enormous corporation. Speaking first at the High School at an assembly program and then to the Eastland Lions Club, Mr. Amis was introduced by Supt. Wendell Siebert, who was most complimentary of the former Maverick footballer, and his wife, the former Irma Sneed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Sneed here.

The TI executive was highly complimentary of the Eastland youth — "They are well-grounded and sharp," he said.

Looking back on his EHS graduating class, he said that of the number he'd been able to check, most are doing well: of the men, two are in personnel work, two are auto dealers, two are doctors, one is a geologist, one is a petroleum engineer, one an architect (Ted Howard who has a high-rise apartment complex in Dallas), one a construction engineer. Of the girls, ten have married EHS graduates, and one of these did quite well in marrying Professional Golfer Don January.

Final Rites Are Held Wednesday For Mr. Bassett

Funeral services for James F. Bassett, 93, were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at Rust Funeral Home chapel in Cisco with burial to follow in the Oakwood Cemetery, Elder A. E. Richards of Ralls, officiated.

Mr. Bassett, a resident of Cisco for 43 years, died at 4:30 p. m. Monday at the Graham Hospital in Cisco after a brief illness. He was a retired merchant who moved here from Desdemona. He resided at Hickman Nursing Home the past two years.

Born Jan. 22, 1876, in Alexander City, Alabama, Mr. Bassett was married to Ronnie O. Conner on May 10, 1898, in Alabama. She died in 1911, and he was married to Mrs. Eugenia Gregory in 1914. She passed away in 1936. Mrs. Ada Pittman, whom he married in 1938, died last year. He was a member of the primitive Baptist Church.

Mr. Bassett operated a store and service station in Cisco until he retired.

Surviving Mr. Bassett are one son, Herschel, of Cisco; one daughter, Mrs. A. F. Peiry, of Cisco; two step-daughters, Mrs. Marie Dickerson of Pampa and Mrs. Minnie Lee Melugin of Wichita Falls; one brother, Ben Bassett, of Eastland; four grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Describing Texas Industries, Mr. Amis said the firm started in 1930 in New Jersey and was primarily in geo-physical research until World War II. At that time it was given Navy contracts for radio and radar equipment. After the war it stayed in this field and in 1948 made the plunge into the transistor business. In 1954, its scientists developed the silicon (heat and vibration-proof) transistor. The firm presently has annual gross of some $670 million and has a goal of three billion in the year 1970. TI is one of 5,000 firms that actively recruit on college and university campuses each year, able only to devote some 30 minutes in interview to each undergraduate.

What does his company look for? "Ability and skill, attitudes, desire and creativity."

Guests introduced at the Lions meet were Joe Gray and O. B. Mon. Vice President Dale Bakker presided.

WANTED: This couple to live in Eastland. When you see 'em, let's tell 'em so. They're Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Bakker of Youngstown, Ohio. They're visiting their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bakker, and thinking about Eastland as a possible home site. Mr. Bakker is retired after 29 years with General Fireproofing Co. in Youngstown.

BRIGHTEST STATUS license plate we've seen is that of the Gene Rhodes: "EX GI 36." You don't get that kind of pride from burning draft cards. . . . Bet you've noticed Mr. Lloyd Coan's newly painted (pretty, bright red) Eastland Livestock Auction Co. It sure looks good on Highway 80 East. . . . A concentrated effort is needed to encourage Mrs. James Horton to continue on her complete History of Eastland County. Mrs. H. loves people and well, she just loves to visit and talk to her friends rather than sit at a lonesome typewriter. But she is doing such a good historical job, that it's our duty to encourage her through to completion of what is, of course, a laborious task, but one that's badly needed.

YOU'LL SEE pretty color postcards of the Stamp Mural available around our town for locals and tourist keepsakes. It's beautifully done and does excellent credit to Mrs. Maren Johnson's masterpiece of artistry up at the post office. Our town can certainly be proud of Mrs. Johnson and her Freedom Foundation Award.

The 10-inch pipe for the 5,000 foot water line to be laid to Eastland Industrial Park, one mile north of the city limits, arrived in Eastland Tuesday. Tom Wilson, chairman of the Industrial Foundation, announced.

City Manager Lewis Tiner said work on the water line is scheduled for an immediate start. The city will lay the line, contributing the labor for the industrial area, Mayor Frank Deaton said.

Tiner said the pipe is Transite, a concrete asbestos material.

Aztec Mobil Homes, Inc. will become the first occupant of the Industrial Park.

THE HELP situation is pretty bad, reports a lady caller. She's having trouble getting her yard worked. We suggested that she ought to try to hire a printer.

Scout Camporee Set April 25-26 At Lake Proctor

More than three hundred Boy Scouts and adult leaders are expected to gather at Promontory Park on Lake Proctor Friday and Saturday, April 25-26, for the 5th annual Comanche Trail Council Boy Scout Camporee, council camping and activities chairmen Kenneth Day of Bangs announced this week.

"Interest in this event has increased each year", Mr. Day said. "We urge the public to come observe the competitive events during the day Saturday, and be with us for the awards campfire Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m."

All activities and scoring in the competitions will be on a Troop or Patrol basis, starting with the "hike in" from a point one and a half miles from the camporee headquarters. In order to earn points in this event, each boy must "hike in" with all of his personal camping equipment on his back, plus his share of designated group equipment.

Cooking skills will be measured on the basis of the Saturday noon meal which must contain the items called for in the meal for the cooking requirement for First Class Scout rank.

Other Patrol competitive events will include log sawing, signalling, first aid, tree and scrub identification, flapjack cooking and flipping, poisonous snake identification (from photographs!), flint and steel fire making, knot tying, and an event requiring lashing.

Troop competitive events will gather points based on percentage of total Troop membership present, percentage of Troop membership holding summer camp reservations, Troop campsite layout and identification (including gateway).

In addition to the ribbons to be given to Patrols and Troops, each individual boy and leader attending will be given a special "camporee" segment to be displayed as part of the Comanche Trail Council badge on his uniform.

Sunday night, Earnest's Food Locker was entered by thieves who broke out windows on the east side (back of the building). City policeman Johnnie Morren said about $75. damage was done to the cash register, which had been hit with a meat cleaver in an attempt to open a drawer. A gallon jar of dill pickles was taken from the store.

The back windows of Rogers Grocery and Market were also broken, but no entrance was gained.

Monday night the U. S. Post Office was entered through broken back windows and office desk drawers were rifled, but nothing was believed taken. The office of Aztec Mobile Homes was entered and 15 six-cent stamps were taken. Pullman Supply Company was entered and about $125 was taken. Attempt was made to enter Eastland Supply Company.

Flowers Folder Is Released By Highway Agency

AUSTIN — "Flowers of Texas" — a spectacle of bloom and blossom — introduces some 60 species of Texas' most beautiful, flowers shrubs and trees in all seasons.

The Texas Highway Department, which released the lavish new color folder, expects it to be one of the most popular items among the family of recreational and travel literature produced by the Department.

The new folder was designed for two purposes — to erase any notion held by out-of-state residents that Texas is an arid, barren wasteland — and to enhance the pleasure of both Texans and visitors by identifying some of the State's most common and colorful plants.

Far from being a wasteland, the folder points out that Texas leads the nation with an abundance of blossoming plants — more than 5,000 species of wild flowers alone. Closeup color photographs illustrate tropical plants of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, wild orchids from the Big Thicket, bright plains flowers, and vivid blooms of thorny cacti.

Flower fanciers and garden clubs have frequently asked that such a publication be added to the family of travel literature produced by the Texas Highway Department. In response to that demand the new folder lists 56 species by common and botanical names, including facts about blooming season and where they are usually found. Other species are illustrated in landscape views.

County's 'Mystery Girl' Identified With Class Ring

Eastland County's "Mystery Girl" was identified Monday after a class ring was found in her possession.

The girl, who told officers Friday that she could remember falling from a truck at the Ranger Hill Cafe three miles east of Ranger and being unconscious for awhile, had been held in jail on charges of vagrancy. She claimed she did not know her nationality, origin, or name.

At a 2 p. m. hearing Tuesday, County Judge Scott Bailey ordered the girl held and examined and searched by a physician. The girl apparently became frightened after the ring was located and managed to leave the doctor's office. She got four blocks from the office before she was captured again.

The class ring, for 1969, Lovington, New Mexico, had the initials "JAW". Judge

Bailey said Lovington authorities confirmed that a girl named JoAnn Willis was missing. Officials from Lovington were on their way to Eastland Monday afternoon.

Judge Bailey said he considered the girl was "obviously faking amnesia".

The girl had told District Attorney Emory Walton that she entered the Ranger cafe to ask for a job and then could not remember a name. She said the name Myra entered her mind and she gave it as her name. Walton said the girl was apparently in her early twenties had an excellent command of the English language, calling police officers "bobbies" and speaking in what might be an English accent.

The length of her residence in New Mexico was not given, nor was it known how long she had been missing.

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the April 27 Christian Science Bible Lesson-Sermon which will be heard at First Church of Christ Scientist, Corner, Plummer and Lamar Streets, Eastland, at 11:00 a. m.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." This verse in the Responsive Reading is from John 5.

A correlative passage from the denominational textbook states: "If man is never to overcome death, why do the Scriptures say, 'The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death'? The tenor of the Word shows that we shall obtain the victory over death in proportion as we overcome sin" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy).

Evans was in excellent condition in Dyess hospital, where he is being held until Naval authorities arrive early this week.

A Marine spokesman said Evans has been on deserter status since January, 1968. He was reportedly with the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, stationed in the Far East.

County Roads To Be Improved In District Project

Three Eastland County highways will be improved in a contract let recently to McElroy Transport Co., Fort Worth, for 137 miles of seal coat work in the Brownwood District of the Texas Highway Department.

The county roads to be seal coated were listed as follows: U. S. 183, 2 miles, from the north city limits of Rising Star to the Brown County line; State Highway 36, 4.9 miles, from 3.7 miles east of the Callahan County line to Rising Star; and, Farm Road 717, 3.2 miles, from Farm Road 101 in Ranger to the Stephens County line.

The 137 miles will cost $239,392.90. B. R. Russell of Brownwood is the engineer in charge of the work. Some 60 days will be needed to fulfill the contract, it was estimated.

THRIPS ARE COMING

Beat 'em with Bidrin® Insecticide.

Heavy thrips infestations are predicted in this area. Shell Bidrin can stop them best during the critical three-week period when they can actually slow the growth of your young cotton. Here's why:

Bidrin is both a contact and systemic insecticide. This means it kills thrips (and other cotton killers) on contact to give you strong, immediate control to help your young cotton start strong. In addition, the systemic action of this versatile insecticide is proved to be effective for up to twenty-one days. So Bidrin will not leave your young cotton unprotected while thrips are still around.

This season, don't wait for thrips to threaten your cotton. Beat 'em both ways. With Bidrin.

Before using any pesticide, always read and carefully follow label directions.

Range Deferments Pay Dividends to Gregory

By RAY YOUNG
Soil Conservation Service

In 1966 J. T. Gregory purchased 210 acres about 5 miles northeast of Eastland. Of this 310 acres, approximately 262 acres were in native rangeland. J. T. could obviously see the need for improvement of his rangeland. In 1962 he became a co-operator with the Upper Leon Soil & Water Conservation District, and began a planned application on his farm.

His first job was to rid these almost barren pastures of prickly pear, weeds and brush. J. T. stated that he burned pears on this farm with no fear of burning off his pastures as there were almost bare of desirable forage. He estimated that it took around 30 to 35 acres to run an animal unit yearlong. After burning the pears, eliminating some of the brush and weed competition, and doing some range seeding, he began a 3-year long rest period for each pasture. For 3 years he rested his rangeland during the growing season, from about May until frost. J. T. said even though he deferred during the growing season, he didn't lose an entire year of grazing because forage was utilized during the winter months. He also noted as the grass increased in vigor, no pears reappeared, and he had less brush and weeds.

He also noted when his rangeland was in its barren condition, he was losing a high percentage of his annual rainfall to runoff. As the grass improved, it was noted less water was lost to runoff and more rainfall was retained for forage production.

On Feb. 19, 1965, Mr. Gregory signed an agreement under the Great Plains Conservation program in order to get government cost share to further assist him in meeting the needs of his land.

Today, J. T. has established 37 acres to Coastal Bermudagrass to graze from May thru Oct., in order to continue his system of resting his rangeland during the growing season. J. T. now estimates it takes only about 15 acres to run an animal unit yearlong on his farm. In January of this year, he purchased an additional 198 acres joining his other farm and has added these acres to his original GP Contract. He has already chopped and seeded 76 acres on his new acreage and is in the process of preparing a seedbed to plant an additional 62 acres of native grasses, and sprig 52 acres more of Coastal Bermudagrass.

J. T. believes that nowadays a partial application on a farm is not enough. He says that every acre should be treated according to its needs and capabilities, or a sound management program designed to increase forage production each year for his livestock cannot be accomplished.
