Democrats Make More Gains in House

HOME TOWN TALK

By Betty

The regrettable accident of today near Central Ward only more forcibly shows that you can't be too careful when driving near a school building. Those little fellows are liable to bolt across the street any time.

Recommendations of a special committee will be heard tonight by directors of the Chamber of Commerce relative to caring for needy people this winter. It is a problem we must solve. No self respecting city would fail to do so.

A lot of people seem to feel most everybody is going to starve this winter. It is going to be pretty tough for thousands. But, we ought to do our best to make things as well for all as possible.

One thing we cannot figure out is what comfort anybody gets out of going around talking about how awful business is, how tough it is going to be and all that.

The big idea is how can business be made better.

And the poorest way in the world to help pep it up is to growl around hanging more crepe where perhaps, a little already hangs. The fellow who wears a business suit ought to be the last to spread gloom and pessimism.

We do not mean that everybody with a few dimes ought to go spend all he's got and not do any saving at all. That is always foolish. That is not the point.

A lot of good fellows these days remind us of that dear old lady who just thrived on bad health, and enjoyed a good funeral more than anything.

People of Howard county are going to be given all the facts related to proposals to surface state highways and, improve county roads in Precinct No. 4. All the facts, the cards are all going to be on the table, face up. The Herald, for one, is going to do its best to see that all facts are presented in the news columns, without a mixture of editorial opinion, personal likes or dislikes. In our editorial columns you will find editorial opinion and only there.

First thing we know about the whole thing is that this county certainly can use some good roads. Perhaps a lot of folks who have comforted themselves with cursing our roads will go out now and do something to help improve them—that something is VOTE.

Petitions urging favorable action on the application were received by Bateman from members of the Livestock Traffic association and the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association, both of Fort Worth, and the Sheep and Goat Raisers' association of Texas with headquarters in Ozona.

Swindlers Find New Method Eubanks Learns

Swindlers find something new under the sun every once in a while, avows, L. A. Eubanks, manager of the Retail Merchants' association.

Eubanks is investigating three swindling cases, involving forgery, which have occurred in Big Spring. According to Eubanks the name of a former living in Howard county is invariably used. The "farmer" telephones to a business concern, informs the manager he has sent a man to town for a quantity of merchandise. He adds he has found he does not need the amount he sent for, and for the managers to tell the man to purchase only half the initial amount. A check made out for the order, is tendered in payment, and the cash received.

A local lumber company was victimized, not only losing 50 pounds of white lead, but the retail cost of another 50 pounds.

A local gin also lost merchandise and cash, the man purchasing feed and giving a check for twice the merchandise it received.

A hardware store was the third to report a loss by the same scheme. In all instances, the signature of the "farmer" was signed to the check.

With the reckoning of the list the Red Cross said they found nine bodies had not been identified.

The Red Cross said a number of miners are still among the missing and may have been caught, under falling debris in the tunnel. They said the bodies of some of them may never be recovered, especially those who were in the immediate vicinity of the blast.

Deposits Of Savings Grow During Year

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—In the midst of the business depression, savings in American banks and trust companies increased $267,180,000 in the year ended June 30, to a total of nearly $2,485,000,000, the highest figure on record, the American Bankers Association announced today.

This contrasts with a loss of $196,305,000 in the year ended June 30, 1929. The total number of depositors reported was 52,769,175, a gain of 5,048 over last year.

W. Eusey Abbig, deputy manager of the association, explained the rise in part on the basis of conditions in industry and employment.

"When conditions in industry and employment are not satisfactory," he said, "there is a tendency on the part of those whose incomes are derived largely from wages to go to extreme lengths in safeguarding themselves financially. They deposit most of their income in the savings departments of banks. If the depression is long continued, these deposits are slowly but gradually withdrawn."

Of the southern states, increases were registered in Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee, but the total accumulation amounted to $56,866,000. Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Kentucky and Tennessee reported more depositors, but the sectional decline was $3,790.

West Texas Peace Officers Confer At Sweetwater

SWEETWATER, Texas, Nov. 6 (AP)—Peace officers from West Texas points in a territory from Odessa to Mineral Wells and San Angelo to Plainview were gathered here today for a discussion of a problem presented by the needy transient.

The meeting, called jointly by Police Chiefs Ruck Sibley of Abilene and N. B. Hall of Sweetwater, got under way at 12:30 this afternoon, at a luncheon in a local hotel.

The problem is reported to be especially serious for police officers in cities along the Bankhead or southern transcontinental route. Checks by Abilene and Sweetwater police departments have shown that several hundred men arrive in these cities weekly, either by "highwaying" or beating their way on freight trains. Most of them are without funds and are not sufficiently clad, but officers have found that a large majority is lawfully seeking employment.

The movement has resulted in no visible increase of crime and petty thievery in the two cities.

Sheriff Jess Slaughter and Chief of Police E. A. Long are in Sweetwater today attending a conference of West Texas peace officers. The session was called by the purpose of working out uniform plans for handling transients, ditch-hikers and professional tramps. A luncheon at 12:30 p. m. featured the session.

Disappearance Of E. W. Provence, President Of Burleson College, Causes Search By Students

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 6 (AP)—Members of the faculty and student body of Burleson College of Greenville, joined with police and relatives here today in a search for Dr. E. W. Provence, president of the college, for whose safety they feared after his disappearance Monday.

Classes were suspended at the college and students and teachers hurried here when news of Dr. Provence's prolonged absence was received. They divided into groups and visited hospitals and clinics believing he could have suffered a lapse of memory.

Greenville friends advanced the theory that Dr. Provence had suffered a lapse of memory brought on by very poor financial difficulties of the college.

Acting on his suggestion, radio broadcasting stations were to disseminate a description of the president in belief he might have gone to some remote point.

The Rev. A. A. Dulaney, Greenville Baptist minister and trustee of the college, said Dr. Provence had complained the latter part of last week of being ill and refused an invitation to speak in the Rev. Dulaney's church Sunday night.

Booker at the college had been checked and everything was all right, the Rev. Dulaney said.

Dr. Provence is the father of three children and was devoted to his family, friends said.

A brother who resides in Richmond, Va., was en route here to help in the search.

Two School Frisco Youths Pupils Hurt Caught Here

Two pupils of the Central Ward school, Fourth and Scurry streets, were injured, one seriously, at noon today when struck by a truck as they were crossing Fourth street.

John C. Waldron, 48, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Waldron, 408 Johnson street, is in the Big Spring Hospital suffering from injuries received in the accident. He was knocked down and run over by the truck. He received a fracture above the hip and a broken pelvis bone. He is seriously hurt.

It is possible he has internal injuries. Joe Robert Myers, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Myers, 908 Main street, received a gash on the head when hit by the truck.

It is alleged the machine was driven by Artie Hill. The truck is said to belong to George Heffington, and is being engaged in doing dirt work for the city of Big Spring.

It is alleged the school children were crossing the street from the north as an amber traffic signal was showing. Hill was going east at the time of the accident.

School had just dismissed for the lunch period when the accident occurred.

BANKHEAD LEADS

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 6 (AP)—With less than 20 of the state's 2,115 boxes missing today, John H. Bankhead's unofficial majority over J. Thomas Heflin for the latter's senate seat stood at more than 52,000.

Bankhead, regular democratic nominee had amassed 142,983 votes to 97,789 for Heflin, who ran as an independent after he was excluded as a candidate in the democratic primary for failure to support the party's presidential ticket in 1928. Heflin has termed Tuesday's election "corrupt and fraudulent" and said he would demand a separate investigation.

The same tabulation gave B. M. Miller, regular democrat, 40,822 votes for governor to 91,502 for Hugh A. Locke, who ran with Heflin on a self-styled Jeffersonian ticket.

Armistice Day Address Heard By Kiwanis Club

An address by Judge James T. Brooks featured a special Armistice Day program at the Kiwanis club Thursday, with V. T. Anderson chairman of the day.

C. T. Watson, Chamber of Commerce manager, spoke concerning Big Spring's part in the forthcoming T&P.N. Railway hearing at Lubbock and plans for having a county road bond issue submitted to a vote.

Guests of the day were Misses Jay and the Jackson sisters; Mr. Sheppard of Sweetwater; A. C. Williamson of Sweetwater and C. T. Watson.

The Jackson Sisters, violinists, with Miss Gay playing the accompaniment, were well received in the playing of the Sextette, from Lucia, and a medley of war-time melodies.

Judge Brooks, who was captain of a troop in the Rainbow Division, serving much time in France during the world war, declared the greatest moment in his life was when the Armistice was signed and the fighting ended.

"We ought to honor the memory of the men who died by doing our part toward preventing another war, which would surely be worse than the last one," declared Judge Brooks. He was speaking in the presence of several men who served under him in France, including the club president, Dr. C. W. Deas. He said Armistice Day is and should be a great holiday and event of Thanksgiving because it marks the end of slaughter, which, he added, would have become increasingly worse had the war not ended when it did.

"I have no patience with those who say we ought to have gone on to Berlin because that would have caused the loss of many more lives," he said.

"Had the war not ended when it did men who are here today would be buried in France," he said. "I believe the people are becoming enlightened concerning war. The nations who go into future wars cannot survive. Their people will not stand for war. Let's say that this thing will be no more. We are too great a people to go into another terrible slaughter."

Mr. Watson said local men would have to put time and money into the effort being made to gain permission to build the Texas and Pacific Northern Railway. He said that the Santa Fe was doing all it could to defeat the effort and the strongest possible testimony would have to be presented.

Petitions calling for a county election to vote on a proposed road bond issue have been drawn by the commissioners court and fifty men will be called upon to circulate them, it was announced. The county has agreed to build about 25 or 30 miles of road in Precinct No. 4, on the Gall road and northward from Conhoma.

Program chairman for the next three weeks will be Loren McDowell, V. R. Smitham and R. L. Owen.

LITERATURE IN AMERICA

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 6 (AP)—Leading newspaper editors today expressed considerable satisfaction at the award of the Nobel prize in literature to the American, Sinclair Lewis.

"The academy," said one daily, "has abandoned the old viewpoint that American writers are bread-eating, sensation-thirsty, uncultured Yankees. It has realized that the truth is just to the contrary, and that old Mrs. Europe has good reason to envy the virile literary activity on the other side of the Atlantic."

Another newspaper asserted it was not entirely unexpected since "it has long been obvious that this one of the most powerful literary individualists of the age are writing in America."

FORGERY CHARGED

Republicans Three Short Of Majority

Six Kentucky Seats Go To Democrats; Loss In Minnesota

By CECIL B. DICKSON Associated Press Staff Writer

With the victory of Representative Selvig in the Ninth Minnesota district, the Republicans have captured 215 house seats, on the basis of late returns, or three less than a majority.

Only three more seats are needed by the Republicans to obtain 218 seats or a bare majority. A second Minnesota seat, that in the tenth district, is still undecided between a Republican and a Farmer-Laborer. The Democrats are leading in Kentucky and the defeat of Representative Lagley in a Republican stronghold in that state appears likely on the basis of late returns.

GARNER'S VIEW

UYALDE, Texas, Nov. 6 (AP)—Watching election returns indicating a close race between democrats and republicans for control of the house, John Garner, democratic minority leader, said yesterday if he won the speakership he would work in harmony with President Hoover in an effort to bring the nation back to prosperity.

"And I know he will do a better job of it than the republicans have done in these last two years," he said.

"Tax reforms will be advocated and everything possible will be done by the democrats to bring the nation back to prosperity," Garner favors a tariff on oil and said the livestock industry of the nation should be protected.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 6 (AP)—A lead of seventy-five votes was held by Frank (Chief) Hauke, republican, over Harry Woodring, democrat, in the neck and neck race for governor of Kansas on the face of complete unofficial and revised returns today. It became more certain as the unofficial figures were checked that the official vote, including absentee ballots, would be necessary to determine the outcome.

The unofficial totals, still subject to revision in some counties, gave Hauke 214,779; Woodring 214,704. With the result so close it was apparent that the usually negligible absentee vote would play an important part in deciding the contest. Official estimates place the absentee ballots in the neighborhood of 6,300.

Official canvases in the counties will start Friday. The count of the absentee votes will not be known until next week.

SCHALL LEADS

ST. PAUL, Nov. 6 (AP)—A sustained rural rally of ballots threw Thomas D. Schall, Republican incumbent, in the lead for United States senator from Minnesota over Einar Holdahl, Democrat, at noon today, for the first time since tabulating of Tuesday's poll began.

With only rural precincts remaining to be heard from, all strongholds of Schall support, there appeared little doubt but what the blind Republican would end the long nip and tuck battle with victory based on a small majority.

Schall leads in about 331 precincts of 3,705 had been accounted for gave him the small lead of 305 votes, his total being 263,824 while Holdahl was credited with 263,519 votes in the unofficial returns.

BRYAN VICTOR

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 6 (AP)—The name of Bryan, long potent in the politics of Nebraska and the nation's democracy, shone with some of its old lustre today in the apparent victory of Charles W. Bryan in the governorship race.

Returns from 1915 of the 2040 precincts of the state gave Bryan, a former governor and the Demo-

Before the next election the wets will know that while they may win a battle now and then, they will not be victorious in the final campaign."

Mrs. J. O. Heath entertained the members of the Dramatic Club and teachers with a Halloween party Saturday evening. Halloween decorations were used over the house. Appropriate costumes and masks were worn. After playing several games, refreshments consisting of cake and chocolate were served to thirty-two guests.

The Halloween Carnival at the Garden City school building attracted quite a crowd and in the midst of the throwing of confetti and noise of whistles and horns an enjoyable time was had by all those having a few nickles and dimes in their pockets, and high collars to keep out waste paper.

The carnival was profitable to the P.-T. A. to the amount of $30 taken in the cafeteria and the coronation of the queen.

Several cooks and waiters were kept busy in the cafeteria, where quite a lot of things had been donated, which helped to keep down expenses. The P.-T. A. wishes to thank those who contributed, and to those who helped by bringing their appetites.

On Monday morning, November 10, the Garden City P.-T. A. will observe Parents Day, at 8:45 a.m. A short program will be given in the auditorium by the pupils of the grades. The parents are invited to visit all the rooms, and are urged to visit the restorative rooms of their children.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

"A REMARKABLE REVELATION"

Says
HON. JAMES FRANCIS BURKE
General Counsel of the National Republican Committee
Congressman 1905-1915. Government Director of War Savings during World War.

"Americans love to do their own thinking—But they welcome facts from others. You are wise in letting every smoker know that you employ the modern Ultra Violet Ray principle in 'Toasting LUCKY STRIKE' tobaccos. This 'extra secret process' is a remarkable revelation."

James Francis Burke

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why TOASTING includes the use of the Ultra Violet Ray. LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so TOASTING removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing. No wonder 20,679 physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating!

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against Irritation—against cough
Consistent with its policy of laying the facts before the public, The American Tobacco Company has invited Mr. James F. Burke to review the reports of the distinguished men who have witnessed LUCKY STRIKE'S famous Toasting Process. The statement of Mr. Burke appears on this page.

John King Umpire For Texas League

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 6, (AP)—John King, veteran outfielder of Texas minor league diamonds, has been signed as a Texas league umpire for 1931. It was announced here today by President J. Alvin Gardner. King, after managing the Midland club of the West Texas league in 1929, broke in as umpire last season in the Cotton States league.

"DISCOURAGED" PETERBOROUGH, Eng., Nov. 6

The trouble with the British safecracker is that he is too easily discouraged. The constable here was amazed this morning to receive a telephone call from the Palace motion picture theater from a man who identified himself as a robber. "We've been trying to blow this safe for five hours," the voice said, "and we're sick of it. You might as well come and get us." The constable did. There were two of them.

A Question of Incomes

The pastor and parishioners of a Chicago church met long ago amused themselves by entering into a general discussion of the question: "How much income does a young couple need to get married?"

Last year this same church discussed the same question and concluded that $50 a week was the minimum. This year, taking cognizance of the times, they shaved their estimate and figured that $40 a week would do.

There are millions of men in America, grown men with families to support, to whom $40 a week would look almost like riches. Beyond any question, the number getting a lower wage than that is greater than the number getting a higher one.

All of this, perhaps, is not extremely important. But we have adopted the habit in late years of overestimating the financial resources of the average American, and it is time that we realized just how things stand.

THE ODD JOBS MAN

maligned of his foes charge him with responsibility for that disaster to the stock-jobbing community any more than they attribute to him the drought of last summer, which brought added adversity to the already impoverished farmers of the United States.

There are, however, politicians—too many of them—who are striving to attribute the general business depression, which exists in the United States precisely as it exists in England, Germany, Italy, the Argentine, Brazil, Japan and Australia, to the Republican Administration.

To such the record as set forth in the "Monitors" columns within the last few days may be commended as informative reading. It is a record of economy in governmental expenditures; of encouragement of governmental activities; of repeated contributions to the international well-being of the world; of improved enforcement of the prohibition law; of effective aid to the farmers and of encouragement to private industry in the task of meeting by-renewed and extended activities the unemployment problem which has come upon the country.

The facts do not justify the charge. No one who will study with an open mind the record of achievements of the Hoover administration will fail of deep thankfulness that so capable an administrator of public affairs was at the head of the United States government when these conditions arose.

Mollywood Sights

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD—The return of Dorothy Mackall to her former stellar position after a period of uncertainty is only another proof of fan power in controlling the destinies of Hollywood celebrities.

Dorothy was released from her studio last summer when Lester, meanwhile, threatens to tell Grannock she is the nurse who blinded him unless she marries him. Hallie, an orphan, learns from Mrs. Bartholomew, friend of her dead aunt, that her real name is Rose Conaldine, and her father was Clem Conaldine, a suspected murderer who never was caught.

She made one or two features as a free-lance player, then called for a visit home to England. During her absence "The Office Wife" was released, doing so well at the box-office that she was again signed on contract. The studio didn't wait to write her tele-graphed. The picture, whatever its artistic merits, saved her professionally. The fan voice had spoken.

JUST FOR CHEER An ardently superstitious extra of my acquaintance points out that Milton Sills, stricken within a few weeks of Lon Chaney's death, once played in a picture in which he assumed a weird make-up such as was Chaney's forte.

Therefore, he reasons, there was some astrological connection between the two deaths. And by Hollywood's superstitious "rule of three"—that is, that stellar calamities come in groups of three—one rapidly succeeded by another, the screen is due to lose another male star ere long.

But the superstitious may find some solid food for rumination in what happened to the marital ca-pital of the six stars and director of the brilliant "Marriage Circle."

MOCKERY Ernst Lubitsch made the film six years ago and, fittingly enough, rounded off its record of blasted stellar romances recently when his own ended in divorce.

Monte Blue was newly divorced from his first wife when he began work on the picture; Florence Vidor divorced King Vidor a year afterward; Creighton Hale and Harry Myers were divorced the year the picture was made, and Adolphe Menjou followed suit three years later.

And Marie Prevost's marriage to Kenneth Harlan likewise was destined to end in divorce. And there is at least coincidence, too, in the recent death of John Hare's aged father, found burned to death in the incinerator near the filling station he operated.

Authorities call it suicide, the family, murder. Ten years ago Bobbie Harron, John's brother, was found dead in New York. Accident or suicide—it's still a question.

FROM MOSCOW AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 5.—Soloman Levit, student in the University of Moscow, will enter the University of Texas, December 1, as a research fellow in zoology.

THREE DROWNED WASHINGTON, N. C., Nov. 5.—Three persons were drowned when an automobile plunged through an open draw bridge into Wilkinson's creek, five miles from Lee'sville last night. The dead are: Joe Dumar, 45, Hyde county farmer; his son, 14, and Polly Spencer, Belhaven, negro. No bodies had been recovered today.

fortune. He died intestate — that means, without making a will. "Doesn't it?" — but I am his sole heir. Oh, yes, and I think he said that the money came from an invention.

"An invention?" exclaimed Mr. Leckett. He picked up a typewritten sheet. "Hm! I'll give you the gist of this report, Miss Conaldine, though I must make one thing clear to you. Given time, we should undoubtedly have been able to produce incontrovertible accurate information about your parentage but this—" he tapped the report— "doesn't pretend to be more than a suggestion. A clue. It's a clue, moreover, that you may prefer not to consider."

"D'you mean because it's the kind of parentage I might be ashamed of?" asked Rose with unexpected insight.

"Er—yes." "I expect you've heard of him already, Clem Conaldine."

"No," Rose shook her head in its shilken helmet.

"Ah, you couldn't be expected to remember the man hunt I don't suppose," said Mr. Leckett carefully. "But you might have come across an account of the mystery somewhere."

Rose paled. "Man hunt? Mystery? Was he a—a criminal?"

"I don't know," answered Mr. Leckett with elaborate tact. "No body knows. You see, he was never caught—that is found."

"Caught? By the police?"

"He was wanted for murder, Miss Conaldine."

"Who did he murder?"

"Well, it seems he was a descendant of an old Irish-French family. He lived a lonely sort of life; he doesn't appear to have had any relations. His—er—work kept him pretty closely tied down."

Empire State Building Shames Myth Makers As She Rears Her Fantastic Head

This unusual view of the new Empire State building in New York shows the entire structure. It will be the world's tallest building when the observation mast is added.

Builders Seem But Pigmies As 85 Stories Rise to Lance The Skies

BY RICHARD MASSOCK (Associated Press Staff Writer) NEW YORK (AP)—Mythological marvels are kid stuff compared with the building of a modern skyscraper. Jason sowed a basket of dragon's teeth and saw a battlefield of armed men spring up.

But American mechanics planted steel columns on a scant two acres of Manhattan rock and in less than a year 20,000 business men, stenographers and office boys will swarm in layers around these pillars.

It is taking 3,500 men and the equivalent of 4,000 horses to put together the Empire State building, which is to be the world's tallest structure.

Its stupendous bulk makes the builders but human ants crawling through the 85 floors. Twenty elevators, 10 for passengers, the other material hoists, carry them to their jobs.

The temporary equipment provides enough power, water and light to supply a small city.

And the building, after it is opened next May, will house a working population of 20,000 tenants and possibly 20,000 tenants and possibly 20,000 daily visitors.

By overtopping work, the steel ribs have been placed and only the 200-foot mast remains to be raised to bring the building to its final height of 1,248 feet.

There will be 62 elevators, including one in the mooring mast. Now the visitor is lifted in a temporary elevator to the 24th floor, thence in another to the 64th, from which he climbs upward.

At the top he stands over 68,000 tons of steel, 204,000 cubic feet of limestone, 300 tons of chrome steel, trimmings and 300 tons of cast aluminum "panels, some of which is just being grinded to the outside of the building, completing the outer shell.

The World's Tallest Building In Capsule

The Empire State building will have eighty-five stories tall (1,048 feet) with a 200 foot observatory mast, making it 1,248 feet high.

Space for 20,000 tenants, 20,000 visitors. Sixty-seven million elevators. Thirty-seven million cubic feet. Rentable, 2,158,000 square feet.

Exterior, limestone, granite, stripped with metal. Steel frame weighing 46,000 tons. Columns supporting 10,000,000 pounds each.

Site of $3,860 square feet. Total cost (land and building) $55,000,000.

By next May 1, under the contractor's promise, the tenants are to begin moving in. They will find a gross floor area of approximately 84 acres over the two-acre site.

The whole thing will represent a cost of $55,000,000 and the civilian occupation of Alfred E. Smith, former governor and presidential candidate, now as president of Empire State, Inc., a super-landlord.

Brazil Nuts Contain Five Kinds of Oil

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 6. (AP)—In some countries a native mother may say to her child, in effect: "Go get a Brazil nut and wash your hands."

For Brazil nuts contain an oil that is made into soap. And that's not all, according to a report to the American Chemical Society by H. A. Schuette, Ralph W. Thomas and Mabel V. Duhay of the University of Wisconsin.

They analyzed Brazil nuts and found them to contain five oils. Better grades are used for food, they said, lower ones for soap and finally to some extent as oil for lamps.

The national organization has had three representatives in the state doing field work for more than two months.

Mrs. Leora Lobban Brewer, of Tucson, Arizona, formerly of Fort Worth, was in Big Spring Wednesday and had conference with the district and local officers in this city. She was enroute to Stanton and Midland, from Colorado and Coahuila, where she organized the new units.

Mrs. E. A. Bracoff is president in Colorado and Mrs. H. Noble Read, in Coahuila.

During the weeks spent in the Panhandle, Mrs. Brewer organized seven new locals and perfected the 18th district W.C.T.U. There were nine towns represented at the all day rally in Amarillo.

The 16th district W.C.T.U. was recently perfected and Mrs. Thomas Murphy of Midland, district president, will head the delegation from this section.

A hundred young people and children of Houston and neighboring cities will take part in the pageant "The Panoply of Youth," the colorful feature of the national convention. The pageant, prepared by Mrs. Flora Kays Hanson of Evanston, Illinois, one of the general executives of the national body of white ribboners, will be staged in Houston under the general direction of Mrs. J. M. Gober of Beaumont, Texas, and by Mrs. Charles J. Giezendanner, Jr., of Houston.

"The Panoply of Youth" is an allegory telling the story of modern youth and giving a prophecy as to the trend of the younger generation. Mrs. Hanson, author of the script and directing mind of the pageant is one of the best known American women in pageant work in Houston under the auspices of W.C.T.U. conventions in the past few years have been reproduced in every state in the union. U. who will deliver her annual opening address on the evening of November 14. Among those who will address the convention are Senator Morris Sheppard, Dr. Ira Landrith of Chicago, president of the International Society of Christian Endeavor; Miss Gracie Leggo Houlder, of Australia; Dr. Ernest Christington Westerville, Ohio, president of the World League Against Alcoholism; and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Mrs. Allgood Writes Club Girls

Will Meet With Schools and Groups to Plan And Outline Coming Year's Work

Dear club girls and prospective club members: Now that so many of the schools have started, I am planning to meet the following schools soon. I want to urge you to have your parents present at these meetings, as I want to make plain to girls and their parents just what the work includes for the coming year. Girls 10 years old and over may become members. I hope none of you will join, however, unless you plan to complete your demonstration.

Last Friday afternoon while I was visiting the Midway girls, Mildred Patterson told us all about her trip to the Dallas fair. I wish I were a club girl and could win a trip to the fair, see all the exhibits, ride all the things they have to ride, eat the good food they serve, and enjoy spending a few days with a group of other farm girls my age. They even did stunts one night they were there.

There are many rewards offered the girl who works. Neva Hale won a trip to College Station by making the best dress. She did not stop with one, but made three before she was satisfied. Then she won a trip to the fair also.

Club girls get your records and histories complete, and handed in to me by Nov. 21, as there is to be a chili supper in Big Spring the last Friday night of the month, and only those completing the work are invited. I sincerely hope all of you will qualify, as a large crowd would be more interesting than a small one.

Look for me at Lomax Friday 7th at 9:30 a. m. Elbow Monday 10th at 2:30 p. m. Center Point Tuesday 11th at 2:30 p. m. Moore Wednesday 12th at 2:30 p. m. Hiway Thursday 13th at 2:30 p. m. Midway Friday 14th at 2:30 p. m. Soanh Monday 17th at 9:30 a. m. If any other schools have 12 girls interested in finding out about 4-H work, please notify me. Yours truly, LOUCILE ALLGOOD.

BRECK READY TO BATTLE DESPERATE EAGLES

Expect Large Crowd At Game

We have at hand, or rather at foot, a gust of wind having just penetrated the sanctum, an epistle from one Albert Sledge, Sweetwater scribe, in which, among other things, he states the Steers of the Nolan County high school are in great spirits for the impending clash with the Big Spring Bovines. That is had news for this department having been considering a six point wager of a very small denomination for the past several days. However, after hearing that the Sweetwater ranks have been aided by a great wave of morale we think we shall take the proffered offer and chuck it in the wastebasket. It doesn't look so safe now, taking Big Spring and six points. It behooves us to ponder over the pecuniary transaction Sledge, among other things, declares the Sweetwater team has been revamped and renovated and fully expects to take the Steers in the same manner the lowly Brownwood Lions took them the past week-end. The Sweetwater advantage has one distinct advantage over the Steers, and that is that the school and the town are with them, win or lose.

Fast Moves To San Angelo For Tilt Saturday

Down in Buckarooville they are chanting a mournful hymn. It is the funeral dirge for the Abilene Eagles. Reports coming out of the Breckenridge football camp is that the teams the Breckenridge Buckaroos have met so far haven't seen anything yet.

Over in Abilene things are rather tense. The morale of the Eagles instead of being crushed and shattered, is bolstered by the unexpected and unheralded tie given them by the Eastland Mavericks last week-end.

The two teams come together Saturday afternoon at Abilene and that game holds the district spotlight for the week-end. Thousands of high school football fans are expected to travel nine upon nine to witness the great Green Wave of 1930, clash with the Abilene Eagles. It will be a case of a team with a clean slate, fighting a team that is hanging by a straw—and a thin straw—to win in the 1930 scamp.

Jarring Jim Loose

—By Pap

It is regret that we learn none other than George "Old Folksies" Blevins has departed from our midst. "Old Marster" of City League baseball fame has tied himself to Colorado or some other inland city and won't be seen hanging around Dusty Diamond next year when the bats start working, if they do. Blevins it will be recalled by those that haunted the portals of the local baseball stadium during the summer, was the catcher that couldn't catch a high twister, rain or shine, sleet or snow.

The Steers went through another strenuous practice session Wednesday afternoon. From reports looking out of the encampment it looks like "Little" Coats will be one of the greatest backs in Texas football circles today, tutored by the best coach in this section of Mother Earth.

Saturday's Realtime? Has the greatest of bearing upon the outcome of the title race. A decisive defeat of Abilene at the hands of the Buckaroos would place them in advance of the enemy, Abilene gained a 9-0 tie with Ranger and only a 5-0 defensive game of the products of Baker Curtis and Taylor Ward prevented the Eagles from dropping across and eliminating the Marston and White gang. Even now the Buckaroos are rated well above the Bulldogs, but should the administrator a sound thrashing to the Eagles, they will have virtually clinched matters just as they did in 1929 when they marched to a state championship and should have had the state flag.

The only other game in the district Saturday is the Eastland-San Angelo affair in the Tom Green Village. The setto should prove one of the most interesting of the year, despite the fact neither has gone anywhere and is expected to go nowhere in this year's encounter. Eastland with "Red" Clark slugging over shadows San Angelo with the Great Grimes. Comparative scores favors the Eastland county aggregation. The country Grimes favors the Bobcats.

However, the team that put the rays on any championship hope Abilene might have entertained a few days ago is expected to give the Bisset boys another defeat. Rex Clark is one of those "whataman" lads who are inclined to shuffle feet that are inclined to shuffle along at the most inopportune moments. It is true that the Steers shut out the Mavericks 6-0, but Clark was not in that game had he been it might have ended differently.

The Bobcats won an allegedly "moral" victory over the Cisco Lobos and the team that was called a bunch of non-fighters by the Angelo scribe after the 6-6 Big Spring game, is now "a great fighting team." Eastland should win San Angelo perhaps will as the dope has fallen in the habit of turning over when least expected to.

Now comes a threat from Texas A. & M. and the University of Texas, that they may not be among those present in the Southwest Conference next year. The doubtful note of "hired athletes" is the chief of the alleged movement. The state schools think perhaps the meat tickets are issued by Rice Institute, Southern Methodist University and perhaps others, and they don't care to play in the same back yard with them. It all revolves around to the same old point that what is sauce for the goose is cream gravy for the other sex. The University of Texas has a nice school, is located in an ideal climate, and should attract as many athletes as the others. The matrigers stand now. Texas hasn't done so badly with one of the denominational schools. The two may withdraw and join forces with other teams in the south, but when they do they will see great gaps in the gate receipts. And gate receipts seem to be the primary considerations in this day and time. Soon the great point will be carved in the shape of dollar marks.

News Item: JOHN KING HAS SIGNED AS A TEXAS LEAGUE UMPIRE! Shine up the bats, a lot of color has been injected into the Texas loop. King, who managed Midland back in 1929 when the West Texas League was scampering over this section, will have a great time umpiring with these Texas teams. A great time. Yes, verily, a great one.

We refuse to accept the allegation made by the San Angelo scribe in another of his inflammatory outbursts against this department. We refuse to admit that we are an "opa-bred, snipe-swing slinging, slip-tracking Big Spring scribe" as this usually mild young man publicly declares us to be. We refuse to admit anything like that until we have turned that statement over to the adjective department of this newspaper and received back a report. We have a good memory, unusual by good by to give our own. We can't recall anything we ever flipped a crack or cracked a flip, or Mr. Cross insinuates. We even go so far to resent the fact we are referred to as being "shallow-pated." Those are not very nice things to say about a neighbor that has always supported a movement of peace on earth, good will towards men and Angelo sports writers. However, our good nature on such a fine day as this would let those prejudicial ejections pass by with a wave of the hand, if we knew their correct meaning, but not Mr. Cross goes a step too fast. When he started comparing us with Mr. House of Ranzer he unwittily slashed his own Adam's apple. Our body guard is on his way to San Angelo and should arrive there by noon. Funeral rites will be held as soon as relations are notified.

PASSING GAME BRINGS ODD PENALTY

CHICAGO, Nov. 6. (AP)—The forward passing combination of Edward Witt and his milkman, Aaron Swanson, apparently has struck a snag.

"I don't know all the football rules," Witt told the magistrate, "but that milkman was offside or something and I was penalized two yards of window pane."

For weeks the two had been practicing. Each morning the milkman, with unerring aim, passed a quart of milk some twenty feet from the street to Witt, who always caught the toss without a miss. All of this happened each morning just as Witt was leaving for work. Yesterday, however, Witt was late in leaving for work. As he started in from the door, he charges, his daily quart came crashing through the window.

Witt asked for and received a warrant for Swanson.

CAPONE'S 'TREASURER' ARRESTED

Frank Nitti (center), Al Capone's "treasurer," was arrested at Chicago on charges of auditing the United States of income tax payments and penalties. He had been hunted since March. Left to right: Ray Roche, chief investigator for the state's attorney's office; Capt. J. D. Greer; Nitti, and Sergts. Julius Siegan and David Lavin.

LOCAL HORSE RACE WINNER

Verdevalde the wonderful horse owned by W. C. Merrick of Big Spring, added another to his long list of track victories Wednesday at Arlington Downs. W. T. Waggoner's racing paradise between Fort Worth and Dallas.

In the second race of the day the veteran P. Van Pelt brought Verdevalde home the winner in the one-mile event in 1:14.5. Under Jockey Van Pelt's calling at the stretch Verdevalde took the lead and was going fast at the finish, pulling away from Charlie McCroon with Jim Crow just one-half length behind. Purse in this race was $500.

Fast Crew To Go Against Bovines

SWEETWATER, Texas, Nov. 5.—Sweetwater high school Mustangs are in stiff practice sessions this week making ready to journey to Big Spring next Tuesday, Armistice Day, where they will make another endeavor to break into the "win" column of the Oil Belt district.

This is the second year for the Mustangs in Class A football and they have played 15 games in the Oil Belt since the 1929 season opened and have only one tie game. The remainder of the games resulted in defeats for the club.

This, the second year in "better company," has been slightly more successful than the 1929 season as the Mustangs have succeeded in tying the Eastland Mavericks. This season they have played six games and lost five. Last year the Ponies lost all nine scheduled games.

Fast Team

Coach E. A. Hennig expects to put another fast team on the field next Tuesday. Two weeks ago when the Mustangs played the Mineral Wells, he had his fastest club working and the squad outplayed the Mountaineers with the exception of the final period when a touchdown and extra point pelled defeat for the squad.

Hennig had hopes of winning the Mineral Wells games as did the Sweetwater fans and for three periods the Mountaineers were trailing by six points but the extra point meant victory for the home club on that day.

Returning home Hennig started working a heavier club into shape for the Breckenridge club, but the heavier team did not do so much and as a result he has again started working a light and fast eleven into shape for the Big Spring game. A special train, known as the

Reports Declare Cubs To Get Rhem

CHICAGO, Nov. 6. (AP)—Growing reports of changes among the Chicago Cubs today had it that Flint Rhem, veteran pitcher of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Charles "Red" Lucas, another veteran hurler from the Cincinnati Reds, would be purchased or obtained in trades.

Manager Rogers Hornsby and President William Veeck are holding secret conferences daily but refuse to discuss current reports and rumors.

Something Here

The other Armistice Day conflict at the Big Spring-Sweetwater affair to be played here. In addition to the annual encounter, the new athletic field will be officially dedicated and given a name of some kind.

Buffed and battered, the Mustangs nevertheless came here the favorites to win the 1930 conflict. Like Big Spring, the Mustangs have come to the conclusion that some changes have to be made and that the Big Spring Mustangs will be a team to watch.

The Mustangs however, have yet to win one. They don't mean any harm to the Big Spring field and they migrated to the local field and

"WHATAMAN" JOINS NEW "TEAM"

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6. (AP)—Arthur Shires, loquacious first baseman of the Washington Senators sighted his work as an actor in Hollywood yesterday long enough to obtain license to marry.

Appearing at the county license bureau with Miss Elizabeth Greenbaum, 18, of Chicago, his prospective bride, Shires exhibited none of his widely publicized self-assertiveness.

"Can't we keep the publicity out of this?" he asked newspapermen.

Miss Rosamond Rice, who received Shires' application said the ball player-fighter-actor was "very modest" and said "nothing about what a great ball player he is."

Later in the evening Shires regained some of his accustomed composure. The nuptials, he said, would take place on a motion picture in shortly after sunrise Monday at Universal City.

Shires, who gave his age as 23, said Miss Greenbaum was a University of Wisconsin co-ed. The ball player is under contract to make two pictures.

State Schools Planning New Conference Leaving Church Teams With Sack

Rumors Declare "Hired Athletes" Will Compel A.&M. And Texas To Join With Out of State Organizations

BY GAYLE TALBOT JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Nov. 6. (AP)—There are rumblings of discord in the ranks of the Southwest conference. Rumors are that the organization will split in the not distant future, the four "church" or denominational schools going their way and the three state institutions going theirs.

Gus Saper of Houston, an alumnus of Texas A. & M. College, predicted the split would come "within the next few months" in an address before the Port Arthur Aggie Alumni Club the other night. Newspaper accounts of the meeting quote Saper as having declared he had heard a prominent member of the conference appeals committee refer to the formation of a new conference because of the "hired athletes being attracted to various schools now in the Southwest Conference."

"In this new conference," the items continue, "if rumors are correct, will be Texas A. & M., University of Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana State University, Oklahoma and Oklahoma Aggies. A definite break looms, with Texas, Texas Aggies and Arkansas pitted against Rice, S. M. U., Baylor and T. C. U., Saper said."

The foregoing is not all that Mr. Saper said, but it is sufficient to show that the seed of secession has been implanted.

One of the features of the T. C. U. Rice melee Saturday at Houston promises to be the warfare between opposing sets of sophomore wingmen. The champion Horned Frogs have a pair of first-year ends of whom they are exceedingly proud, Madison Pruitt and Dan Salkeld. Rice rosters are similarly enamored of a brace of hunky soph, "Smookey" Klerner and Jeff Coker. The quartet of youngsters have earned starting berths on their respective elevens, ousting several veterans.

Klerner, a 200-pounder, is being hailed as one of the greatest end prospects in Rice history and is expected to show to great advantage against the Frogs' running attack. Salkeld and Pruitt are well known from their high school days, when they were all-state performers at Abilene and Waco, respectively. Coker hails from Temple.

Sophomores, incidentally, will predominate in both lineups at Houston. Billy Morgan, captain and guard, is about the only veteran certain of a place on the Owl

YEAR'S EARNINGS

NEW YORK, Nov. 6. (AP)—When he won the Pimlico Futurity and $50,360 yesterday, Equipoise, now racing for C. C. (Sonny) Whitney, sent his earnings for the year soaring to $157,845.

George D. Widener's Jamestown, generally regarded as the champion two-year-old of the year, retired after winning $151,025. With the fall season near an end Equipoise, the ace of the stable taken over by young Whitney when his father died, is sure of money winning honors.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

I am a girl without relatives and work in an office. A year ago I met a man considerably older than I who earns big money as a technical expert. Since then he has shown me marked attentions. He professes to be a devout Christian. I am of the Jewish faith and quite content to remain so. He asked me to become a member of his church and to that end he gave me books concerning the religion. But that happy situation did not last very long. I find he is a married man with a family and wanted in another city by his wife for desertion. I have confronted him with my information, which he admits is true and have told him repeatedly that I now wish him to leave me entirely alone. This he refuses to do and is constantly placing himself in my way intruding upon me in my rooms and otherwise making himself objectionable; the last phase of his conduct being that he now thinks he can take liberties with me. What's the best way to get rid of him?

Hands of any group as against the whole of society. The time when an alien like Joseph brought the people of Egypt to his feet, and acquired a power over them exercised by no preceding prime minister, has gone forever in free lands. Even Mussolini could not retain his authority if he advocated the vesting of property in himself and his coterie.

Believers in the right of every individual to acquire property by honest effort, and to be free from fear of its confiscation by the will of the majority. That right is basic and constitutional in every civilized government. True, a multimillionaire can secure advantages which the rest of us do not have. Immense wealth often signifies hosts of servants, allies without number, and men who hire their hands and brains for a suitable wage. If the multimillionaire could not secure such services for his riches he would be as woebegone as the penniless tramp. If, on the other hand, the worker could not obtain a livelihood almost every industrial enterprise would be paralyzed. The distribution of wealth goes on apace in the annual processes of manufacture and trade. When wealth becomes impervious or non-serviceable, it is redistributed. A hundred years ago the land owners of Great Britain and Ireland ruled those countries. Today they are disposing of their estates or forming limited companies for their management. Inevitably, since their unprofitable investments, a nation alert to the preservation of its rights and having control of legislation, will not submit to a monopolistic possession of property which results in injury to the public welfare.

Kindly omit address. Telephone for the police next time he inflicts himself on you and tell them what you have told me. This pestilential hypocrite deserves no consideration and it is your plain duty to hand him over to the law. He is a fugitive from justice whose final next to your own protection should be your chief concern. Do not hesitate about the matter. Believe yourself and also society of a slinky rogue. His presence for you as a normal and healthy minded woman is about as safe as that of a cobra.

Lexington, Ky. Is it true that in a public address you stated that Christ sometimes hid the truth? Is that not somewhat surprising in view of your position as a Christian minister? Did he not come to proclaim the truth in order that men might have it more abundantly?

It is quite possible that I said Christ occasionally revealed the truth. If so I was commending on His own words. I have many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them. (St. John XVI 12). Was not that holding back the truth for excellent reasons? And what have you to say against the Master because in His wisdom He saw fit to disclose no more than the disciples should understand and use? Wherein lies the detriment to moral and spiritual welfare in His divine economy? Isaiah declares, "Verily they say a God that hideth himself." (Is. John XXX 1).

Revelation is always partial. Read St. Paul's address on Mars Hill, and it will give you a free conception of the philosophy of history. Neither you nor I would claim that we have all the truth in hand. We admit that much of it is hidden from us by a beneficent Providence. Every wise parent for young children holds some facts from young children until they have attained a suitable development.

The door opened suddenly and her father stood before her. She saw at once that something had happened. "That is wrong," she cried. Without a word he handed her a letter, and as she read it her cheeks

COUNTY AGENT'S CORNER

Fourteen Howard County farmers have filed application for terracing 2,021 acres of land this season, it was announced today by J. V. Bush, county agent.

It is believed that should applications continue to be made within the next ten days as fast as they have during the past three days, the record of 8,000 acres for last year will be equaled during the present terracing season. The time limit fixed by the county agent is 10 days. Bush urged those applying for terracing to bring all farm levels in so that they may be adjusted.

Farmers who terraced last year were T. M. Bailey, Earl Phillips, E. W. Marlon, J. W. Sanderson, J. W. Wooten, W. A. Langley, Fairview Community, J. E. Brown, B. R. Cline, R. E. Gay, Highway Community, C. O. Jones, Knott; C. Suell, E. B. Carringer, G. A. Lloyd, N. H. Montgomery, W. F. Morris, W. R. Pickett, O. J. Brown, L. B. Raney, S. D. Oliver, Rufus Oliver, and L. S. Proctor, Richland; Tom Spencer, J. A. Clanton, Lawrence Anderson, M. C. Lyden, Luther; David L. Smith, Bisco Ben Whitaker, Terrill; J. A. Shafter, Dick Shafter, J. A. Appleton, W. V. Rutledge, John Brown, Vincent; N. E. McMin, J. T. Joyner, J. R. Thomas, R. L. Warren, Green Valley; G. H. Brown, Vincent; J. W. Davis, G. W. McGregor, J. R. Bond, Albert Eden, R-Bar; V. Phillips, Big Spring.

According to the agent, a number of others probably terraced their land but he has no record of it.

Soil and moisture conservation is the result of correct terracing farm lands, Bush declared.

Records of 4-H Club members will appear in this column in the near future. The records will show achievements of young Howard County farmers and the work they are doing in this section.

Comparative figures on the 8,000 acres of terraced land will appear soon.

Republicans

State vice-presidential nominee in 1924, a 7,000 lead over Gov. Arthur Weaver, his Republican opponent. The vote was: Bryan 297,572 and Weaver 200,222. Bryan is a brother of the late William Jennings Bryan. Except in the gubernatorial contest, the Republican state ticket was successful by a wide margin in Tuesday's election which also returned to the senate George W. Norris. At the same time Nebraska sent four Democrats and two Republicans to congress.

IN KENTUCKY
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 6 (AP)—Democratic candidates for the senate had a 30,000 lead today on returns from five-eighths of Kentucky's precincts.

ON 2,528 precincts out of 4,135 Judge M. M. Logan, Democrat, had 219,365 votes to 187,769 for John M. Robison, Republican, for the long term.

On 2,254 precincts, Ben Williamson had 200,000 to 173,533 for Robison for the short term.
About 500 normally Democratic precincts and about 500 normally Republican precincts still were out. Among the latter were 729 precincts in the Republican strongholds in the fifth and eleventh districts.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 6 (AP)—A. J. May, Democrat, maintained a lead of 1,500 votes over Mrs. Katherine Langley, Republican, in the tenth Kentucky congressional district today on 256 of the district's 326 precincts.

ILLINOIS SPLIT
CHICAGO, Nov. 6 (AP)—A congressional delegation of 15 Republicans and 12 Democrats from Illinois seemed probable today as struggling returns displaced one Republican candidate and Richard Yates, representative at large, tallied enough down state ballots to cut in half and seriously menace the lead of his Democratic opponent, Walter Nesbit.

Final compilation of the figures from the 24th Illinois district showed Claude V. Parsons, Democrat, chosen over James V. Heddinger, Republican, who had previously been the leader.

Early this afternoon Illinois had definitely elected 13 Republican congressmen, 11 Democrats, a Democrat and a Republican were ahead in two other districts and Representative Yates had 800 down state precincts left in which to wipe out the 9,000 vote advantage of Nesbit. The last 179 precincts counted had trimmed Nesbit's lead by 3,000.

Conferences Of State To Probe Irregularities

SAN MARCOS, Texas, Nov. 6 (AP)—Dean V. T. Moore of the University of Texas, addressing the San Marcos Civic club last night said that the three major athletic conferences in Texas had combined to hire a special investigator to check on alleged irregularities within the athletic departments of member schools.

The three organizations sponsoring the investigation, Dean Moore said, are the Southwest Conference, Texas Conference and Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association. There are a total of 23 member schools.

Modern college athletics were compared by the speaker to the old Roman games, and the spectators to the Romans. He declared that the early Greeks, with their Olympic games, were more to be envied.

TEXARKANA, Nov. 6 (AP)—Investigation into the mysterious death of Mrs. W. W. Sanders, 74 widow of a former Northeast Texas millionaire, was closed today with a report of the state chemist that no evidence of poison had been found in the woman's placenta.
