By H.V.O.

EASTER WEEKEND is a glorious one, primarily of course for its religious significance, but also for what is becoming more and more a Spring holiday... Youngsters out of school and much visiting about with kith and kin... High way Patrolman Jerry Mathews gussing that highways will be congested with all the visiting and urges extreme caution and extra care for all, even the short Sunday to Grandmas... Among the holiday visitors in our town is Travis Spence, former Carbon superintendent, now at Pleasanton, who reports it "wet" and hot in that South of San Antonio town... Another Carbonite home is Jack Stubblefield of Lawton, Okla., visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stubblefield, and brother Mack, all of Carbon.

SEVERAL APPLICANTS report, to fill the unexpired term of the late Constable Porter Woods, Eastland Precinct. Mr. Woods had just begun a new term at the time of his tragic death. Position will be filled by appointment of the County Commissioners Court...

VERLY BOAEN, EHS graduate and senior at SMU, looked familiar working on television sets at Robertson TV Sales and Service Friday. Home for the holidays, Verly will graduate in January next and plans to go right on into graduate work... Mrs. B. L. (Darrell) Emfinger and her operators not only help beautify the women-folk around here, but have also done a paramount job of creating a beautiful shop on the northeast corner of our downtown square. It's a beautiful addition to the downtown... Understand that contract negotiations are developing for the opening of the Gold Bond Stamp Co. redemption Center in Eastland... Supt. Wendell Siebert is enthusiastic about a new exercise book that he says will make you feel ten years younger, if you follow the directions. We've promised to read it, and hope to be inspired.

FULLEN MOTOR Co. LAUGH-A-DAY

A man was standing on a street corner waiting for a bus when he was suddenly knocked into the street by a huge St. Bernard. As he was struck again, this time by a small car. Upon finally getting to his feet, a passerby rushed over, gave him a hand and asked the shaken man how he felt. "Well, the dog wasn't so bad, but that tin can on his tail just about killed me."

The Easter Story

The Death of Jesus

"It was about twelve o'clock when the sun stopped shining and darkness covered the whole country until three o'clock; and the curtain hanging in the Temple was torn in two. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, 'Father! In your hands I place my spirit!' He said this and died." (Luk 23:44-46)

The Resurrection

"You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was nailed to the cross. But he is not here—he has risen! Look, here is the place where they laid him. Now go and give this message to his disciples, including Peter: 'He is going to Galilee ahead of you; there you will see him, just as he told you.' So they went out and ran from the grave, because fear and terror were upon them." (Mark 16:6-8)

-- thinking of Easter -- Meditations On The Resurrection

"Why Search Among The Dead For One Who Lives?"
"The women who had accompanied him from Galilee followed; they took note of the tomb and observed how his body was laid. Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes; and on the Sabbath they rested in obedience to the commandment. But on the Sunday morning very early they came to the tomb bringing the spices they had prepared. Finding that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb, they went inside; but the body was not to be found. While they stood utterly at a loss, all of a sudden two men in dazzling garments were at their side. They were terrified, and stood with eyes cast down, but the men said, 'Why search among the dead for one who lives? He is not here: he is risen.' Luke 23:55-24:5

We have been making the same mistake these friends of Jesus made on the Resurrection morning. We have been searching for the Living Christ among the dead things of this world. We have been searching for the Living Christ with a dead spirit of worship. We recite creeds when we are dead to their truth. We listen to the reading of Scripture when we are dead to its relevance. We sing hymns without hearing their theology. We listen to sermons but fail to see God. We receive Baptism and holy communion without showing a spark of spiritual renewal!

We have been searching for the Living Christ in the service of dead institutional structure. We have been searching for the Living Lord in committee meetings, commission meetings, finance meetings, banquets, covered dish luncheons, board meetings, conferences, and conventions. The institution must be served and the meetings must be held, but why must we delude ourselves by thinking that this is where the Living Christ is, and that this is the place where he is to be lived for. To believe this is to be searching for the living among the dead.

We find the living Christ among those who live by faith in him. We find the Living Christ among those who truly love God and worship him in the sanctuary and in their heart. We find the Living Christ among those who believe that God came in Jesus Christ among those who believe that God came in Jesus Christ to reveal himself to all people for all time. We find the Living Christ among those who go out to serve their fellow human being wherever they find him in need and never ask if he is a friend or if he deserves the help.

The Living Christ is found wherever people are found confronting rebellious youth with Christ instead of criticism. Wherever people are helping the lonely elderly to be lonely no longer; wherever people are reaching down into the alcoholic's despair and showing a hand of love; wherever people are found dedicated to the task of saving the black man from racial secession; wherever children are taught the Christian way of life — it is there the Living Christ will be found. Why search among the dead for one who lives?
—Len Layne

Governor's Committee on Education Releases Study Of Property Tax

The Governor's Committee on Public School Education has released its study of property tax values and assessment practices for all school districts in Texas. The study was made for the Committee by Charles Bartlett, and the report includes estimates of the ratio of assessed value to market value for seven broad classes of property, compared to the ratios claimed by the various districts.

The Bartlett report is already coming under fire by local school people and others, with the explanation that it contains many inaccuracies—due mainly, it is said, to the "spot-check" manner in which it was made. Originally it was announced that the report would not be made public.

Schoolmen were in Austin Wednesday and generally spoke against the report when it was released. The Bartlett estimate includes ratios of assessed to market values for (1) undeveloped land, (2) commercial and industrial properties, (3) business personal property, (4) utilities, (5) banks, (6) oil and gas properties, and (7) residences. The report also shows the average assessment ratio for all classes and indicates whether or not the individual district assesses privately-owned automobiles. In addition, the average assessed value per acre of undeveloped land is listed for each district.

The reports show that the property at 36 per cent of actual value when it is actually 18 per cent. Undeveloped land in Ranger I.S.D. averages $9 per acre in assessment which is 9 per cent of real value. Commercial and industrial assessments were assessed at 16 per cent, business personal property at 17 per cent, utilities at 22 per cent, banks at 32 per cent, oil and gas at 24 per cent, residential and other at 25 per cent. Only Olden I.S.D. has a lower land assessment in value and in percent. Gorman and Rising Star were under Ranger in commercial and industrial. Only Olden and Rising Star were under Ranger in business personal property while Gorman was the same.

Gorman Hospital Fund On Way to Its $100,000 Goal

The Gorman Hospital Fund is well on its way to its $100,000 goal following the hospital benefit dinner which raised another $1,625 Friday evening.

Guest of honor and principal speaker was Cong. Omar Burleson who saluted the effort of the Gorman people for their initiative and dedication. Named Outstanding Farmer was D. B. Warren, who with his wife, Idell, and sons Jerry and Wesley have more than tripled the crop yield from 608 acres of peanuts between Kokomo and Gorman. The family was honored by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce in January.

Carbon and Desdemona citizens are joining in the drive to build a new hospital in the city of Gorman to replace the 50-year-old structure there now. "Tonsil" clubs, baby clubs are organized and nearly every social and civic organization is currently working or has worked to raise the needed money for the hospital building fund.

So far $50,000 has been raised and the Friday night benefit dinner took a giant step toward the needed second $50,000 it was said. The dinner was held at the High School Gym and a reception followed in the new office buildings of the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association.

Three criminal cases have been scheduled for 91st District Court for April 14, according to District Attorney Emory Walton. A petit jury panel is expected to be announced by April 9. Cases set are Harvey Webb, charged with rape; Gerald Jones and Alan Laceyfield, both charged with armed robbery. Walton said all three are now in Eastland County jail.

Reminded his audience that "we take our freedoms for granted," saying that "in recent years we have become so preoccupied with trivia" that what is wrong and what is right with the country has been forgotten. Explaining that for a change he was to explain "what are our rights?" with a formula based on the ABC's, he led in with "A—the right to Advance, not to annihilate; B—the right to build, not to bury our talents, to Create, not to coerce."

"The right to Defend our freedom — not to destroy its foundation." "We have people chipping away under the foundation, misunderstanding what is right." Continuing via "the right to produce but not to plunder," and "the right to question but not to quibble increasing about triviality that hinders progress," he finished with "the right to Yearn for a better world — not the right to yoke mankind with all the misakes of the past," and "the right to zig-zag our responsibilities as fulltime citizens."

Letters

Dear Editor:
Drew Pearson spoke to a group at CJC on the night of April 1 and told the hearts of many of his listeners. The personable Pearson is an experienced heart stealer for according to a book I read his present wife was stolen from one of his former employers.

He made no startling statements nor exposures at CJC but seemed to be selling co-existence with Russia, no aBM, and trade in wheat to the communist block.

He tried hard to convince all that they could make treaties with the Russians as with men of honor. His fellow journalists say that Drew took his daughters' maternal inheritance for ten percent of market value and took control of the column from his partner while his partner was away losing his arm in the war. If that is the way he deals he would have to look up honor in his Funk and Wagnalls as the say on Laueh In before he would know the meaning.

He made much of his friendship with Kruschew who is not the folksey little cerub Pearson portrays but a man with a record of brutality and mass murder.

Pearson even praised Truman, Eisenhower and Johnson for sending wheat to East European countries.

I would hate to think that Americans are willingly feeding the people who are boasting of their arms and other aid to the VC so that they might better kill our young men.

Drew Pearson is a salesman but I for one am not buying.

Yours Truly

AN EASTER POEM

By MRS. HATTIE BAKER

Forgive me, my Lord:
Today you sacrificed for all Humanity,
And in Your mercy, Lord, you died,
Especially for me.
Because I am the least, O Lord, of all,
Your souls on earth.
As much as I have shown myself, to be of smallest worth
I nailed you to that tree. My Lord,
I raised the cross on high, more than the soldiers or the one who sentenced you to die;
More than the Scribes or Pharisees
who feared and hated you,
Because you taught the word of God
The only Teaching true.
Forgive me, Lord, of all my sins
Forgive the fool in me,
And give me just a tiny spot in your Eternity.

THE GORDON SPOT

By DE GORDON, County Agricultural Agent

Some ranchers are good at selling bulls and some are not so good. One of the best we know of is Irven Phippen of Cisco. A few weeks ago Irven loaded his daughter's 4-H steers so he could take them to town and weigh them. He had a young Hereford bull so he decided to load the bull with the two steers. Someone might see him and want to buy the bull, Irven thought. He drove up to the scales and walked into a local place of business. One of the employees, seeing the two show steers and the young bull, probably assumed the bull was also a show animal and not for sell. As he looked out the window at the trailer load of cattle, the employee casually made Irven an offer for the bull. To the employers surprise Irven said "You better write the check because you just bought a bull." After some kidding from bystanders, the employee kept his word and wrote the check. Irven delivered the bull. Knowing Irven's cattle as I do, I am sure the man got his money's worth of bull, but I'll bet he is a little more careful before making an offer in the future.

Scientists' Topic

"Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings?" This passage from Isaiah is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon that will be heard in all Christian Science churches on Easter. "In his resurrection and ascension, Jesus showed that a mortal man is not the real essence of manhood, and that this unreal material mortality disappears in presence of the reality." This correlative passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy is included in the week's lesson on "Unreality." Services at First Christian Scientist, Corner, Plummer and Lamar Streets, Eastland, are at 11:00 a.m. All are welcome.

We do not yet know how the recent freezes affected the fruit crop in Eastland County. I feel sure that those trees that were in full bloom when the temperature dropped below freezing for several nights will not have a fruit crop. We'll have to wait and see what the freeze did to the trees that were in the pink bud stage. In case your trees still have a crop after the freezes, you will want to be sure to control the plum curculio and other insects. The crop will likely be short this year so you will need to take good care of those that will be produced. The plum curculio is the small white grub that you find around the seed when the peaches are ripe. To prevent this insect and others start your spraying when 75 percent of the blossom petals have fallen. If you have only a few peach or plum trees, there is a simplified spray schedule suggested. Use methoxychlor or malathion insecticide. The trees should be sprayed according to the following schedule: (1) When 75 percent of blossom petals have fallen. (2) Ten days after petal fall. (3) Ten to 14 days after second spray. (4) Fourteen to twenty-one days after the third spraying. If infestations of fruit-damaging insects occur following the completion of the above schedule, Sevin can be used effectively up to within one day of harvest.

Those who have commercial orchards will use a slightly different spray program. The Texas Guide for Controlling Insects and Diseases on Fruits and Nuts will be very helpful to fruit growers. To produce a peanut crop a farmer must invest from $60 to $180 per acre each year. A complete crop failure caused by something that is not under the producers control — would mean economic disaster to most farmers. An effort is being made to get Eastland County qualified for Federal Crop Insurance so that peanut farmers may insure their investments. For more information on crop insurance see your banker, AS CS office manager or county agent.

Official U. S. Weather Observer

The storm and tornado season are once again upon us—and the Weather Bureau has timely tips for your protection and safety. Put, for these tips to be effective, you must heed and use them.

A time-proven system for reporting severe storms in your area has been recommended by the Bureau, as follows: If you have actually observed a tornado, or very severe storm, telephone immediately the information to your nearest police or fire department, giving the following information: A brief but concise picture of the storm, type of storm, exact location time observed, the intensity of the storm, its speed and direction of travel, type of damage done, injuries (if any), and be sure to give your name and your address, and exact directions for those responsible for investigating the storm so that they may find their way to your address as soon as possible.

And if you live in the country, and are on a party line, be sure to break in on the call, advising the other parties using the line that your call has a PRIORITY EMERGENCY rating.

However please be sure and report only verified and factual information, not rumors, hearsay, and other misinformation.

Also, at this time of the year the Weather Bureau reminds each and every one of us of the emergency steps to be taken in case of a tornado or severe windstorm.

For example, if our area should receive a "Tornado Watch" warning, then be sure and watch — watch for a funnel cloud that might drop from an approaching storm cloud, listen for its roar, and if you see or hear it, report it immediately as outlined above, and if our area should be placed under a tornado warning alert, this means that one has actually been sighted in the area. You may receive your warning information through several media: from a friend by telephone, from a local radio station, or area television station, which in

Flowers Folder Is Released By Highway Agency

AUSTIN — "Flowers of Texas" — a spectacle of bloom and blossom — introduces some 60 species of Texas' most beautiful, flowers shrubs and trees in all seasons.

The Texas Highway Department, which released the lavish new color folder, expects it to be one of the most popular items among the family of recreational and travel literature produced by the Department.

The new folder was designed for two purposes — to erase any notion held by out-of-state residents that Texas is an arid, barren wasteland — and to enhance the pleasure of both Texans and visitors by identifying some of the State's most common and colorful plants.

Far from being a wasteland, the folder points out that Texas leads the nation with an abundance of blossoming plants — more than 5,000 species of wild flowers alone. Closeup color photographs illustrate tropical plants of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, wild orchids from the Big Thicket, bright plains flowers, and vivid blooms of thorny cacti.

Flower fanciers and garden clubs have frequently asked that such a publication be added to the family of travel literature produced by the Texas Highway Department. In response to that demand the new folder lists 56 species by common and botanical names, including facts about blooming season and where they are usually found. Other species are illustrated in landscape views.

Free copies of the new "Flowers of Texas" folder may be obtained at all Highway Department offices and Tourist Bureaus. They are available upon request, and in limited quantities to garden clubs and similar organizations.

Requests by mail should be directed to the Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Division, P.O. Box 5064, Austin, Texas 78703.

turn received its knowledge from the Weather Bureau in Abilene.

So if a tornado warning should be issued, it is a very potentially dangerous situation, and should not be ignored. Take immediate cover below ground, if possible; if not lie in a ditch or roadside depression, or take cover in a strong brick and steel building. If caught in your house, open a few windows on the south and west sides so air pressure can be equalized inside and outside, and help prevent the house from literally exploding. Then crouch in a corner, covering your face from possible broken glass and other flying debris.

This year you will probably hear more about the weather bureau's "Sky Warn" campaign on television, FM stations, and in your newspapers.

If you will heed their warning, and not take potentially dangerous clouds too lightly you have a good possibility of not being caught in a tornado.

Mr. and Mrs. Van H. Rigby, Jr. joined his parents for a holiday outing at a fishing lodge on the Colorado River near Lampasas.

Medicare Hiked 10% As Hospital Charges Are Up

Increased hospital costs of over 13% have resulted in a 10% increase in Medicare costs to elderly patients, beginning January 1, 1969. This comes as a reminder from R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager of the Abilene social security office.

Tuley said, "The average Medicare inpatient hospital daily costs rose, nationally from about $38 in 1966 to about $43 in 1967 and continued upward in 1968. Keeping pace with these rising costs required that the deductible be increased from $40 to $44 in each benefit period.

"The patient's share of the cost from the 61st to the 90th day rises from $10 to $11. If he has to draw on his "lifetime reserve" from the 91st day to the 150th day in one benefit period, his share during that time has gone up from $20 to $22. Insured care in a skilled nursing home now costs the patient $5.50 per day after the first 20 days, instead of $5."

These increases were effective on or after January 1, 1969 Tuley emphasized. A person who entered a hospital or skilled nursing home before January 1 pays the old rate throughout his stay even if it extended into 1969.

"If you have any questions about this or any other social security matter, inquire at your social security office at Room 2321 Federal Building, Abilene. Telephone number for the Abilene office is 677-5262," Tuley said.

THE TIME HAS COME—TO CALL A HALT . . .
EITHER THE PEOPLE IN THE TOWNS IN THIS VAST AREA ARE GOING TO BE GOOD NEIGHBORS . . . OR

The people in Eastland County are getting a little sick and a little tired of the constant threat to the 11th Court of Civil Appeals being moved somewhere else. By the Temple Dickson of the Abilene District. We're just as convinced that the best way to put a stop to this nonsense, once and for all, is to let the people who are responsible for the constant threat know that we want it stopped, Right Now!!

Not all the people in the town where the noise is about stealing our court, are interested in seeing their small-town neighbors robbed, so we're going to let them know that we need their help . . . they can let their community leaders know that they are not in favor of stripping the Appeals Court away from Eastland County.

Best way to let these people know how we feel is to remind them that we plan to do business only with those who respect our rights and our institutions.

Like-minded local citizens, firms and institutions are invited to join us in our crusade to save our time-honored court in Eastland.

Speak out . . . Sign up . . . And join the crusade for our 11th Court of Civil Appeals.

YOUR FLORIST TALKS ABOUT FLOWERS

THE EASTER LILY

There is much to say about Easter. It is the most sacred day of Christendom, and celebrated by more people in the world than any other. Next to new clothes, which are a symbol of new life, flowers are an important part of Easter. The outstanding flower, of course is the Easter Lily.

The Easter Lily is a beautiful flower which has come to be the sign of Easter. It is the symbol of light and purity, and most lilies grown by florists usually have the pollen stalks removed because nonfertilization keeps the flowers white.

We will be happy to supply your Easter flowers. Phone and they will be delivered to your door.
