Capacity Crowd Anticipated For Annual Chamber Banquet Tonight

Reception at 6, Banquet at 7

Eastland puts its best foot forward Thursday evening for the Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet to be held at Eastland Elementary School beginning at 7 p.m.

A gala evening is in store with Mayor Tom Vandergriff of Arlington to be the principal speaker. Retiring President Ben McKinnis reports that several important presentations are to be made including the coveted Golden Deed Awards.

New officers including Jeff Glazner, president; Marcus O'Dell, first vice president; and Nolan DeFord, second vice president; will be installed for the new year, as well as these new directors: R. P. Haun, Saul Pullman, M. H. Perry, Monroe Rollins, Wade Freeman and J. T. Carter.

RECEPTION TIME CHANGE

Officers and directors of the chamber are being invited to attend a reception for Mayor Vandergriff at the Methodist Parsonage Home of Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Ellis beginning at 6 p.m. Rev. Ellis and Mayor Vandergriff were friends in Arlington when the Eastland minister pastored there.

A two-hour banquet program, including a delicious catered meal, are promised, according to President McKinnis.

Mr. Vandergriff was born at Carrollton, and educated in the public schools there and in Arlington. He attended Northwestern University, Southern Methodist University and the University of Southern California.

He is associated with his father, W. T. Vandergriff, in Vandergriff Enterprises. The firm operates Chevrolet dealerships in Arlington and Carrollton and the Buick dealership in Arlington, as well as a number of other related activities.

Mr. Vandergriff is serving his twentieth year as Mayor of Arlington. He has been Chairman of the Tarrant County Convention Center Board during the planning, construction and operations to date of that giant facility. He is past President of the Tarrant County United Fund and Chairman of the Board of Arlington Memorial Hospital. A former President of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Vandergriff is still a Director of that organization. He was the first President of the North Central Texas Council of Governments and served as a member of President's National Commission on Urban Problems. He is Chairman of Governor Smith's Texas Urban Development Commission.

Honors bestowed upon Mr. Vandergriff in the past include Arlington's "Citizens of the Year" award and the Distinguished Service Citation of the University of Texas at Arlington. He was once recognized by the Texas Jaycees Outstanding Young Men in Texas.

Under Mr. Vandergriff's leadership, the City of Arlington is presently involved in a most ambitious effort to develop one of the nation's leading summertime recreation and sports centers. Alongside the leading single tourist attraction in Texas, Six Flags, the City of Arlington is expanding Turnpike Stadium, in the hope of attracting Major League Baseball to the region, and constructing Seven Seas, which is to be the country's largest sea life park.

WHEN EASTLAND Manor Nursing Home opens its doors Sunday for its Formal Open House, Cowboy fans can rest in knowing that the management has taken the Super Bowl into consideration. Color televisions will be on and visitors will be able to view the beautiful new center AND keep an eye on the Cowboys. Administrator Eugene Frost is issuing a broad invitation to one and all to come out and see Eastland Manor Sunday, or when it's convenient. (Be sure to see the fish aquarium in the dining room, it's a beauty).

AN ADDED extra attraction for the open house will be an exhibit of knife and palette paintings shown by a group of Eastland women who are taking lessons in the art form which uses a blade instead of a brush to lay color on canvas. The paintings will be on exhibit at Eastland Manor for some time so be sure to see them. Exhibiting will be Laverne Allgood, Myrtle Poe, Dorothy Williams, Judy Bishop, Jeannette Wofford, Mrs. Ardis Lyles, Laverne Maynard and Willie Mae Mathis of Albany, all of whom are taking lessons a day a month from Jo Ann Hubbard of Rising Star.

NEW MANAGEMENT out at the White Elephant is Marvin Lott, who was a chief for George and Louis Von Roeder when they managed the restaurant several years ago. Father of four (two boys, two girls; all school age), Lott will be moving his family here this next week he reports.

40 YEARS LATER: We are indebted to Mrs. Joseph Perkins who loans us a copy of the May, 1930, Eastland Chamber of Commerce Bulletin, written by the late Dr. H. B. Tanner, secretary.

Remember the times? They weren't good and Eastland had just been hit by a very unfavorable census report, but you'd never know it by the optimism reflected in the bulletin. Dr. Tanner displayed an enormous amount of optimism, a quality we all need a lot more of today. He wrote: Eastland Chamber of Commerce Bulletin for May 1930. The veil has been torn asunder. The curtain was raised by the recent United States Census and we stand before the whole world with a preliminary statement of 4,641 inhabitants in our city. Dropping in the county from second to third place in point of numbers. Ranger and Cisco leading us.

Do figures lie when we look back ten years at 9,368 found in our city in the previous census?

We had pipe-dreams in those days of a great city founded on oil. A second Tulsa. Fortunately our city officials did not lose their heads, but kept our city on a safe financial basis. Consequently in spite of having the undertaker rap on our business door several times during the past ten years, today the sign that hangs out reads, "Business as Usual."

If Not Publicizing, Old Rip Believed Vandal-Napped

Not only could he be viewed easier by visitors — assuming he shows up again — but it's possible that Old Rip might be safer from frog-napping were he to be entombed "outside" the Eastland County Courthouse.

That's right, he's been taken again, reported to the county sheriff at 10 a. m. Monday. Locals scratched their heads to guess what this escape might be exploiting: The Jaycees are having a basketball game here January 19, with the Harlem Jokers, professional basketball team; the Eastland Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet is Thursday evening; the Quarterback Club's Football Banquet will be Saturday evening; and Eastland Manor Nursing Home will hold open house Sunday. None of these would seem to be cause for a frog-nap—unless, of course, Old Rip might show up at half-time at the basketball game. Who knows?

It was in 1961, just before the annual Jaycee-sponsored Peanut Bowl that fall, that Old Rip, casket and all came up missing. He was "discovered" later on a telephone tip, in a vacant office on an upper floor of the Petroleum Building. Jaycees were "hauled into court" but serious charges never materialized.

He was "given" to a gubernatorial candidate in 1962 as a publicity stunt — and lost a leg.

Locals worry now that Old Rip, in his water-thin condition, might not make it through another publicity stunt, and appeals were being made to please handle him with care. The glass tomb was opened and the frog's carcass removed.

In 1928, "Old Rip" was taken alive from the cornerstone of the Old Eastland County Courthouse after 31 years of imprisonment. He contracted pneumonia the next year and died January 28, 1929. The last 40 years his body has been entombed in the courthouse — except for the publicity excursions.

There's this too: the Eastland Jaycees are in the midst of a hot state election campaign in which the local club is sponsoring Member Richard Rossander for State Jaycee Vice President. The election will be in late January in Wichita Falls.

Many quarters were guessing that this heist might not be a publicity stunt however, since the casket itself was not taken. Some were thinking that malicious mischief might more nearly describe the disappearance.

According to Deputy Sheriff Ott Irwin, a courthouse custodian came to the sheriff's office Monday morning to report the frog loss after some travelers went to the tomb on the west wall of the lobby to discover Old Rip gone. Investigation has further turned up the fact that one outside courthouse door was open Saturday.

"The frog was in the casket Friday," the deputy said. Eastland Chamber of Commerce directors have discussed the possibility of having Old Rip placed in a safe, permanent location outside the courthouse, lobby for public display other than during regular office hours.

The town, the county, yeah, the world, awaits a dramatic re-appearance of Old Rip.

Pants Suits Okayed at EHS

The New Year, 1971, has already brought many changes. One of the most apparent of these is in the dress code at Eastland High School.

As of Thursday, Jan. 14, girls are permitted to wear slacks suits to classes. Already many of the girls have started wearing "Maxis." "They're only disadvantage is tripping on the stairs."

Another fad among the girls (and teachers as well) is wearing knee boots. "They really feel good on some of these cold mornings!" Eastland is a small town, but the latest fashions are found in great quantity on the Hill.

"Will kilts on boys be next surprise?"—by Jo Ann Baker.

P-T-O To Hear Re-Hab Speaker

The next P. T. O. Program, is scheduled at the Elementary Cafeteria, Jan. 19, at 3:30 p.m. The Program will be, "When A Child Needs Professional Help," by the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

A baby sitter will be available, it is announced.

Large Quarters in Library's Future?

Hopes For A New Year

As each New Year brings hopes for a better year, the Eastland Public Library and the Thursday Afternoon Club fervently add their long needed wish for larger quarters to be obtained in 1971.

Any organization or business that has 500 patrons; of which 330 are young people, should be of great interest to the community. The Eastland Public Library loaned 5,981 books to the people of Eastland in 1970, which were read by 500 different people.

The children read during the summer months: 1,452 books and together with the high school students, 2,659 for the year. The Library Committee under the guidance of the chairman, Mrs. Jos. M. Perkins and assistant Mrs. Cecil Collings are very proud of the children's section and choose only the best for youth to read.

291 books were added to the Library in 1970, 35 of which were Memorial books. The memorial books are placed on special shelves and now number 315 books. Year after year these memorials honor those for whom they were given over and over again.

Since 1960, 3,239 books have been added to the shelves of the Library which makes a total of more than 14,990 books! Our shelves are groaning, the floor is creaking, we need space-space-space-space.

Here is a list of our latest additions:

"Passport to Frankfurt"—Christie
"The Making of a Surgeon"—Molen
"The Winter People"—Whitney
"My Father's House"—Kunhardt
"QB VII"—Leon Uris
"Mandalia"—Pearl Buck

"Whistle and I'll Come to You"—Turnbull
"All the Best People"—Sloan Wilson
"Whitewater"—Horgan
"Rich Man, Poor Man"—Shaw
"The Secret Woman"—Holt
"The Possession of Joel Delaney"—Stewart

Two more Memorial books for little Kelly Collins have been received making memorials in her memory "The Psalms Around Us" was given by Mrs. J. F. Francis and "John F. Kennedy" was given by Mrs. Arthur Murrell.

OUR READERS OFFER THIS FOR THOUGHT

Mrs. Ita Parrish of Green St. Flower Shop submits these as being especially timely:
"Come little leaves, said the wind one day.
Come over the meadow with me and play.
Put on your dresses of red and gold.
Summer is gone and the days grow cold.
Soon all the leaves heard the wind's loved call.
Down they came tumbling one and all.
Over the meadow they danced and flew.
Singing the sweet little song they knew."

In winter I get up at night and dress by yellow candlelight
In summer quite the other way,
I have to go to bed and see the birds still hopping on the tree,
And hear the grown up people's feet
As they go past me on the street.

And does it not seem strange to you
When all the sky is clear and blue
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

New Farm Program Lets Farmers Decide On Crops To Be Planted

A new farm program has been passed by Congress for 1971, 1972 and 1973, covering wheat, feed grains and cotton, the Eastland County ASC committee points out in a newsletter this week.

The peanut program for 1971 remains as it was in 1970, the committee said.

The farm bill is a new concept so far as government programs go, the letter explains. "It is designed to let you decide for yourself, what crops you can most economically raise, and then do it without government control on the number of acres you plant."

The newsletter explains the program thus:

"When you receive your allotment notices the first thing you will see is that there has been a pretty big cut in both cotton and wheat. Now, before you come up here ready to hang me, I'll try and explain the reasoning behind this. The reason for reducing these allotments and bases is that if you don't feel that you can raise the commodity and make money then these base acres will be shifted to areas that can. Acres lost in reductions will be placed in a common pool, then redistributed the next year. In the past an allotment was established for your farm which was a limit on the number of acres you could plant. Government payments were paid on a certain percent of that allotment. This figure you receive will be the same as that percent you were paid on last year. Payment will be made on the total allotment shown and no limit on the acres you can plant. All this notice really amounts to is a payment base. You can look at this and tell what you will get payment on. All the wheat allotment shown, all the cotton allotment and one half the feed grain base shown, provided you participate in the programs.

"The basic provisions of the program are:

"1. Barley is NOT included as a feed grain for 1971.

"2. A set-aside of a certain percent of your allotment or base must be made.

"a. 20% of your feed grain base and or cotton allotment has been proposed.

"b. Between 60 and 75% of your domestic wheat allotment has been proposed.

"3. The conserving base for your farm must be maintained along with the set-aside acreage.

"4. Payment will be made on one-half of your feed grain base, on the entire wheat allotment, and on the entire cotton allotment.

"a. Proposed 15c preliminary cotton payment made soon after July 1.

"b. Proposed 29c preliminary feed grain payment soon after July 1.

"c. 75% of the wheat payment certificates will be paid soon after July 1. Rates will be established at that time.

"5. No acreage limitations on amount of feed grain, wheat, or cotton that can be planted on your farm.

"6. IMPORTANT:

"a. Failure to plant at least

45% of your feed grain base will result in loss of the base—20% last year, 20% 2nd year, 100% loss 3rd year.

"b. Failure to plant at least 90% of your wheat allotment will result in loss of the allotment—20% 1st year, 20% 2nd year, 100% loss 3rd year.

"c. Failure to plant at least 90% of your cotton allotment will result in loss of the allotment—20% 1st year, 20% 2nd year, 100% loss 3rd year.

"7. Wheat or feed grains planted in excess of the allotment or one half the base will substitute for history credit only on the commodity for which you are underplanted or short of. This applies whether you participate in the program or not.

"8. You can participate in the program on one farm and stay out on another and plant the way you want to on that farm. This is a change from last year—NO Cross Compliance.

"9. Those crops planted for program purposes must be planted and worked in a manner considered normal for making that crop in Eastland County.

"10. General Program Provisions:

a. Sign up between MARCH 1 and APRIL 9.

b. Make the required set-aside for each program in which you intend to participate.

c. Maintain the conserving base for your farm.

d. Plant the remaining cropland into any crop you desire other than those crops which have marketing quotas and here it is peanuts. This also applies to rice, tobacco and sugar cane in case anyone might like to try one of these crops.

e. REMEMBER there will be a reduction in these feed grain bases, wheat allotments, and cotton allotments if you don't do something with them. Don't wait 'till next year, then come on here and say I didn't tell you of this provision.

The sale and lease of peanut allotment provisions have been signed into law on a permanent basis. The provisions will be the same for 1971 as they have been in the past. If you are interested in establishing a yield for this purpose we are now taking requests.

Native to Do Ag Research in England

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech animal scientist Prof. Coleman A. O'Brien has devoted much of his research time to efforts to induce cattle to produce more than one offspring at a time.

He has used hormones as a stimulant, but he is not fully satisfied with the results he has obtained.

English researchers and scientists have reported some success through a modified surgical method in transferring ova from one cow to another, he said.

So, this week Dr. O'Brien will leave for Cambridge (England) University to spend several months working in one of the world's leading centers for research and study of reproductive physiology on a Texas Tech development leave.

He will work in the unit of reproductive physiology and biochemistry principally with Prof. L. E. A. Rosson of the unit.

The research and experiments have to do with treatment of "superior females with normal egg production, recovery of the eggs, fertilization by artificial insemination and the placement of the fertilized eggs in host females of ordinary genetic ability for the developing young Dr. O'Brien said.

"Cows often produce as many as 20 eggs at one time after hormone treatment. The fertilized eggs are planted in host cows in sufficient number to produce more than one offspring at one calving and the offspring are superior genetic ability."

The procedure, when successful, produces multiple births of superior animals for production of either beef or milk, the professor said.

He expects the work with English animal scientists to supplement the research he has done at Texas Tech in the area of multiple births among cattle and other meat-producing animals.

He cites the expanding population and the increasing need for meat products as reason enough to work toward multiple births to boost meat production.

He will return to his teaching and research at Texas Tech for the fall semester.

Dr. O'Brien has written extensively for agricultural and livestock magazines, official journals and other publications.

A series of articles is being carried by the Western Livestock Journal and the Western Dairy Journal. The fifth in the series appeared in January issues. They are printed under the title of "Nutritional-Reproductive Interactions in Livestock Production."

He also has delivered scientific papers at numerous meetings in the United States and abroad.

Dr. O'Brien joined the Animal Science Department at Texas Tech in 1947, transferring from Texas A&M University where he was an instructor for three years. He has been with the institution almost continuously since that time.

His special interests and teaching areas at Tech have been in reproductive physiology.

He received his Ph. D. degree in 1964 from Texas A&M University. He did postdoctoral work at the University of Tennessee-Atomic Energy Commission at Oak Ridge.

He is a native of Eastland county, a graduate of Cisco High School and attended Randolph Junior College at Cisco and Tarleton State before transferring to Texas A&M.

Who would go back to the Eastland of 1920? Let us contrast a little.

THEN: No pavements, streets choked with teams and autos struggling in the ruts and mud holes after a rain, clouds of dust and sand rolling up from South Seaman and adjacent streets when the wind blew. NOW: Twenty miles of paved streets to ride over in comfort.

THEN: A telephone system equipped with old box machines hung on the wall where you had to ring and ring to attract central's attention. NOW: a beautiful two story brick telephone building with modern equipment, buried cables in the business section and eleven hundred telephone installations in the homes and business offices.

THEN: A rickety electric light system that had the happy faculty of going out of commission at the most inopportune time. NOW: The great Texas Electric Service generating plant with transmission lines radiating in all directions serving thirty cities in whole or part, having twelve hundred meters in Eastland alone.

THEN: The public square surrounded by hitching racks and vacant lots and the old Court House in whose corner stone "Old Rip" was sleeping away his 31 years of imprisonment. NOW: A public square, solidly built up with business districts radiating in all four directions. A beautiful modern $350,000.00 Court House in which six courts function, not forgetting the horned toad that now rests in his casket in the lobby whose life history gave nation wide publicity to our city.

Sometimes, as we look toward the east, we are discouraged at the slowness of the daybreak; but by looking westward we see the whole landscape illuminated. There is the beautiful eight story, modern in every way, Connelley Hotel erected by the Jesse Jones interest, serving the public in the most pleasing way and adding luster to our record of hospitality.

The Connelley Theater the largest opera house in West Texas.

The handsome group of public school buildings, High School, Junior High School and Gymnasium all standing in bold relief on the hill top overlooking the city. A monument to the intelligence of our citizens.

The Warner Memorial University, whose buildings are nearing completion.

The beautiful church buildings, a mark of a God fearing people.

It is not possible to enumerate all the bargains in our stock, but just look for a moment at the 31 gasoline filling stations, many of them the most modern artistic creations of the times costing from 15 to 20 thousand dollars each.

As an index of our civic vigor and energy look at the 1930 building permits, $23,000, so far.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry P. McKinnerney, of 510 S. Connelley, have moved to Eastland, from Cisco. He is employed at Victor Cornelius. The McKinnerneys have one boy and one girl.

Mrs. Mabel Lybeck of 104 1/2 E. Hill have moved to Eastland from Spokane, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Landry of 211 S. Walnut have moved from Colorado City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregario Loe have moved from Spur, and are living at the Hilltop Trailer Courts. He is employed at couple have one boy and two girls.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Evelyn Daniel. The C.W.F. Prayer was given by Mrs. Daniel. Business was discussed and a financial report read.

"Citizen Communicators," given by Kitty Maxwell was the high light of the meeting.

Present were: Ressie Cramer, Grace Derryberry, Gay Reynolds, May Woods, Marge Freyschlag, Kitty Maxwell, and Evelyn Daniel.

Are we downhearted? Narry a bit. A couple of verses of poetry fit in here nicely.

"If you can't be a pine on top of the hill

Be a scrub in the valley — but be the best little scrub by the side of the hill;

Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

If you can't be a highway then just be a trail.

If you can't be a sun be a star;

It isn't by the size that you win or you fail—

Be the BEST of what ever you are!

It is said that the Census will make lars of every secretary of a chamber of commerce in this vicinity. However, be that as it may. We will stick to our boat and say that we are the best little scrub of a five thousand city in the land when you take in to account our fine modern up-to-date Public Buildings.

We are the best little bush blooming in the brush when you count the fine business blocks including the two five story bank buildings.

We are the best little trail leading to the homes of the finest, intelligent men and women in the land.

We are the finest little star twinkling in the firmament when you ride over the twenty miles of fine paved streets in our city.

It is said that "Life is largely a matter of becoming reconciled to things we don't like." So that if some chagrin is felt over the result of the census, let us take account of what we have, clean the shelves of unsalable dreams, dress our show windows with modern goods, priced right and push on for success.

Our school census just taken shows 1,255 an increase of 20 over last year.

Good bye boom days. Father LaFayette we are here.

There are men in the world who are never turned down where ever they chance to stray, they are the men who deliver the goods. Look over our splendid array of merchants who are now catering to our wants as well as the new merchants who are preparing to open new places of business in our city. They cannot be beaten for Vim, Vigor and Versatility.

It takes the fire of enthusiasm to make the pot boil. Watch us simmer, while we crawl back to the ten thousand and class as a city.

A total of 108 certificates were awarded and 36 grand officers were present.

Mrs. Eloise Zusspahn, deputy grand matron, expressed appreciation to all who helped make the school such a fine success. "We just couldn't have done this without such wonderful help," she said.

On cars delivered now through February 28, during our "What-Would-You-Do" Special, American Motors will give you a General Electric 12-Inch Portable TV with any new car you buy from us.

But that doesn't mean we won't give you a good deal, too.

Because we got the best cars we ever had this year, and we're going all-out to give you a better deal than you can get anywhere else.

Plus the TV set.

Maybe you don't expect this much from a car dealer, but, if you had to compete with GM, Ford and Chrysler dealers what would you do?

Lone Cedar Sets Board Meeting

The annual meeting of the members of Lone Cedar Country Club has been called for Jan. 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Lone Cedar Country Club.

In addition to the election of officers, an amendment has been proposed and will be voted upon, providing:

1. For an increase in the number of Directors from Ranger and Eastland.

2. That hereafter terms of Directors shall be for a period of two years, except that for the year of 1971, only one-half shall be for two years and the other one-half shall be for one year. If approved by the members this would provide that one-half of the Board of Directors would be elected each year and would prevent a totally new Board any one year. It would also provide that no Director shall be elected to more than two consecutive terms. It would also provide that each Director is to be elected to a specified place.

Keith Whitt of Gorman, president, said: "It is my opinion that we need to have new leadership and this is the reason for the amendment to limit the terms of a Director. New members on the Board provide new and fresh ideas. With this in mind,

I hereby announce that I do not want and will not accept the office of the President again for the coming year. I certainly feel that we have a large number of persons in our Club who can and will do a better job and who can provide new ideas. Another thing I hope we can see in the next few years is an increasing number of young persons on the Board."

319 New Industries Located In Texas During Year Of 1970

AUSTIN, Tex. — Despite an economic situation that kept the nation's populace holding on to all available pennies, more industries chose Texas for new plants in 1970 than in the rosier years of 1966-1968.

The Texas Industrial Commission reported that 319 new industries were located in the Lone Star State during 1970, second only to the record 1969 total which led the nation and made Texas number one in industrial growth.

"I must admit we are surprised with the total," Chester Wine of Corpus Christi, chairman of the Texas Industrial Commission, said upon hearing the figures. "We expected it to be quite low since the entire nation suffered economically during the year."

Jim Harwell, executive director of the TIC, said the 319 new plant locations compare with 309 in 1966 and figures in the 290 area for 1967 and 1968.

"We are especially pleased with the results because the total was located in the face of adversity," Harwell said. "I've always said that Texas has every natural resource any manufacturer would want and it is up to us to make sure that they find out about it. However, state-offered location incentives are becoming just as important."

As an example, Harwell said the Texas Industrial Commission and its allies were trying to attract industrial growth with nine percent conventional money, while states with industrial incentive programs, including all states bordering Texas, were offering money as low as five or six percent.

He said 40 states now have an industrial incentive program of some kind.

However, the economic situation did show up in figures on industrial expansion in Texas. Wine said existing manufacturers generally held on to what financing they had in the face of the tight money, with only 367 new plant expansions reported for the year.

This figure is the lowest during the past five years, compared with 505 in 1969, 444 expansions in 1968, 370 in 1967 and 437 in 1966.

Unemployment showed an increase during the year, but Texas was still better than the national average. Labor statisticians reported manufacturing employment down 52,000 jobs or 6.8 percent from November 1969 to November 1970, compared with a national figure showing a 7.4 percent decrease. A spokesman for the TIC anticipated more layoffs during the first quarter of 1971 due to continued expiration of government contracts.

Major employment declines came in the areas of electrical machinery and transportation equipment, just as on the national scene.

The Industrial Commission, honored only last year by the U.S. Department of Commerce for work in export development with presentation of the coveted "E" Award, continued to increase in that area.

Latest figures from the Commerce Department indicate an increase of 25 percent in the past three year period, with $1.5 billion in Texas goods being traded internationally.
