

Band Fund Is Nearing Final Goal

The needed $2,400 to outfit members of the Big Spring high school municipal band in new uniforms can be raised before the week is ended, sponsors of the fund campaign said hopefully Thursday—if a few more public spirited donors will act promptly.

The fund was just a little over $200 short of the goal, and response has been so generous to date that it appeared that amount will be raised in a day or two. Those who will subscribe any amount are urged to call The Herald or J. B. Collins, and their gifts will be gratefully acknowledged.

A total of $218.50 was added Thursday, with the "honor roll" now standing like this:

Fugitive Felon Is Sought In West Texas

Robert Lacy Cash, Identified, Flees In Stolen Car

SAN ANGELO, Feb. 22 (AP)—Robert Lacy Cash, fugitive killer who worked on a Coke county farm a month before his identity was revealed, was sought over a wide area today.

Cash, one of a trio who slugged a prison agent and escaped near Buffalo Jan. 13, was reported to have used his employer's name in an effort to purchase an automobile.

When a checkup revealed he was trying to pass a bogus check, the man fled, apparently in a stolen automobile.

W. A. Blalock of Tenbyson identified Cash from a police photograph as the man he hired to work on his farm.

The man drove to San Angelo in a pickup truck belonging to Blalock. The truck was found abandoned in Robert Lee and an automobile which had been parked near the spot had disappeared.

Cash, convicted and given a life sentence for the murder of Harry Leon Helfman, Brooklyn, N. Y., salesman, whose body he left in a sewage pit at Dallas, is a three-time Texas prison escapee.

Cash, J. W. Mann of Crosbyton, given a life term for the murder of D. T. Smith, Cochran county deputy sheriff, and Andrew H. Nelson of Abilene, sentenced for life as an habitual criminal, made their break while en route to the state penitentiary at Huntsville with Bud Crade, prison agent.

State, county and city officers here were on the watch Thursday for Robert Lacy Cash, escaped convict, who was reported seen Wednesday night in San Angelo.

The city police radio station said that Cash was reported to have traded a truck for a car at San Angelo and given a forged check for the balance. Later, according to reports, he fled to Robert Lee where a car (Texas license 186-474) was reported missing.

AIRPORT MANAGER DUE IN MARCH

Art Wintheiser, North Port, Ala., who recently reached an agreement with city officials for operation of the municipal airport, said in a communication Thursday that he planned to arrive here sometime during the first week in March.

Wintheiser, an experienced pilot who also will offer commercial plane service, will take over the port management at that time. He is to supervise flight training of 10 CAA students sometime after April 1.

Contract between Wintheiser and the city has been effected, said E. V. Spence, city manager.

British Censoring Of Mails Arouses Ire In Congress

New Demands Made For Prohibiting Landing Of Planes At Bermuda

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Senators critical of British censorship of United States airmail at Bermuda—a censorship enforced in one instance by armed marines—reinforced their protest today with new demands for prohibiting American planes from landing at Bermuda.

Senator Truman (D-Mo) proposed that flights to the island be stopped and said also that English planes should be barred from landing in the United States.

Senator Clark (D-Mo) said latest disclosures bearing on the situation "only strengthen my view that we should prohibit our planes from landing at Bermuda," and Senator Schwelb (D-Wash) asserted that "if England doesn't watch out, she will bring about a condition of definite antagonism to herself."

A virtual deadlock over censorship of American mails has developed between the state department and Great Britain and France, with one incident after another helping to complicate the situation.

It was learned last night that British marines with fixed bayonets brought about the first seizure of transatlantic airmail at Bermuda on Jan. 18.

Capt. Charles A. Lorber of Baltimore, commanding a Pan-American Airways plane flying between the United States and Lisbon, had refused to surrender the mail to British censors until the show of armed force was made.

Authoritative sources at London attributed the incident to a "conflict of personalities," and added: "You can be certain it won't happen again."

That reference apparently was to the display of bayonets, for despite a prompt protest by United States officials, censorship of air mail has continued at Bermuda. Last week 1,970 pounds of American mail were taken off one clipper ship.

Secretary Hull hinted at a recent press conference that if the practice did not cease, Bermuda might be passed up as a clipper stop.

Mail carried from the United States by boat also is undergoing similar examination. Mail from Mediterranean countries is being covered at Gibraltar and Marseille; for Scandinavian nations, at Kirkwall, Scotland; for Netherlands ports at Westmouth, England, Haifa, Palestine, is a censorship point for the Near East.

It is understood there are other censorship headquarters in Britain and France, and that mails destined for the United States are also censored at these cities.

Two German Warplanes Shot Down

LONDON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Two German warplanes were shot down by British fighters today, the air ministry announced, as Nazi airmen raided Britain's east coast for the second time in three days, drawing machine-gun fire from several little trawlers which they attempted to attack.

The fire from the trawlers gave concrete form to the warning last week by Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, that all British vessels plying the war-torn North Sea waters henceforth would be armed for protection against German bombing and machine-gunning from the air.

The downing of the two Nazi planes today brought the total German aircraft lost in such raids to an even 50, according to the British. They listed 41 German bombers as definitely accounted for and said nine others probably never reached home. The British estimated the total value of the lost German planes at more than 1,000,000 pounds (about $4,000,000).

The air ministry said the planes downed today were losers in battles with British fighter planes, one off the northeast coast and the other near St. Abb's Head, Scotland.

Four Germans who were in the second plane, a Heinkel which fell near the village of Coldingham, 2 1/2 miles east of Edinburg, were taken prisoner and placed in a local police station. One was wounded.

PRISONERS OF THE SPANISH WAR ARE BEING RELEASED

MADRID, Feb. 22 (AP)—The United States embassy announced today that the last eight American citizens held as Spanish civil war prisoners, including Harold E. Dahl, Champaign, Ill., flier, had been released and would start soon for home.

Dahl and two of the Americans, Clarence Alvie Blair of Red Granite, Wis., and Cohn Haber of New York, already are at Seattle. They are to sail for New York aboard the Exiria tomorrow.

Dahl is a native of Sidney, Illinois. Due at Seattle today and also scheduled to sail on the Exiria were Lawrence Fant Doran, born in Los Angeles, whose wife lives at Southgate, Calif.; Anthony Peter Kehrlicker, a native of Iowa; and Rudolph Opara, Cleveland.

BRITISHER WITH PROPERTIES IN U. S. SUCCUMBS

LONDON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Ferrier Mackay, laird of the Glencairn estate of Argyllshire, who was interested in cattle, oil and mining in the United States, was found fatally shot in his home on the estate today. He was 55 years old.

Mackay was a director of the Shell Union Corporation and the Anglo-Egyptian Oil company. His father was founder of the Matador Land and Cattle company of Texas.

TURKISH VILLAGES LEVELED BY QUAKE

ISTANBUL, Feb. 22 (AP)—Four villages in the Kaimari region of Turkey were reported today to have been leveled by a series of continuing earth shocks with a loss of 70 lives and more than 50 persons injured.

Shocks also were felt at Ankara and Andana.

Eighteen quakes were felt late yesterday. Tremors were reported continuing at noon today.

Tens of thousands of cattle were said to have perished in the devastation and in stampedes.

Extra Session Asked To Cure Oil Problem

Commission Must Re-vamp Proration Or Face Injunction

AUSTIN, Feb. 22 (AP)—East Texas oil field proration, battered in numerous court fights, presented another headache to Texas officials today.

O'Daniel Asked To Act

The railroad commission, oil regulatory body, had the alternative of revamping its method of distributing allowabi among the 25,000 wells in the world's biggest pool or facing injunctive orders by a three-judge federal court.

Dumped in Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's lap was a request for a special legislative session to cure the "crisis" which Railroad Commissioner Jerry Sadler said resulted from court interpretations of oil statutes.

The situation was all the more acute because the commission was working on a statewide production order for March. Sadler said no decision had been reached on the East Texas dilemma and an order could not be written before Saturday.

The three-judge court held the commission's method of allocating production in East Texas penalized the better wells in violation of law and the constitution.

Presiding Judge Samuel Sibley of Atlanta said the court did not wish to enter injunctive decrees immediately and gave the commission 10 days in which to pick one of its two choices.

The successful court attacks—added to others which have stricken down previous East Texas formulas—were brought by the Humble Oil and Refining company, operator of 2,454 East Texas wells, and Rowan & Nichols, a Fort Worth company.

They claimed, and the court upheld their contention, the commission's distribution of East Texas allowable confiscated their property.

Sadler, in asking the governor immediately to summon the legislature, contended that court interpretations of Texas statutes require the commission to prorate production in such a way as to "completely confiscate" the property of producers. He said "legislation was needed to protect the rights of thousands of independent producers."

"I won't have a statement until I see the official results," said the state's 1,703 precincts gave Jones 283,182 votes and Long 282,453, a lead of 20,729 for Jones.

Jones will be formally named to office in the general election April 16 and will be inaugurated as governor May 14. Into office with him will go a legislature purged of a majority of the men whose supine obedience to administration commands set up the old dictatorship.

Jones said his first objectives would be restoration of "constitutional, democratic decent government," and rehabilitation of state finances crippled by multiple venality of officials, many of whom are now under state or federal indictment.

Pianist Here For Concert

Hortense Monath, pianist, will present a concert at the municipal auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening, the last of a group of artists presented this season by the Civic Music association. The program is open only to holders of association membership tickets, and to those who will purchase membership tickets for next season.

Miss Monath comes from a gifted musical family, and by the time she was five years old, her mother had begun to teach her the rudiments of music and as she grew older she intensified the training.

But says Miss Monath, "I was no child prodigy. I hated to practice and would do the scales with tears rolling down my cheeks. I wanted to be out with the other children."

However, by the time she reached the age of about 12 or 13 years, she had become enthusiastic and interested in music as a career.

She studied with Ernest Hutcheson in New York and later went to Berlin to work under Artur Schnabel who regards her as one of his star pupils.

Her debut in Hamburg was followed by concerts in Rome, Florence, Bologna, Milan and other European cities. She also appeared as guest artist with the Vienna Philharmonic orchestra.

Germany Demands Rumania Gasoline

Little Nation Mobilizes Men For Emergency

BUCHAREST, Feb. 22 (AP)—Rumania ordered her already large military preparations speeded up today following authoritative reports that Germany was challenging the government's ban on export of aviation gasoline to the reich.

Dr. Carl Clodius, German economic expert, is expected here Monday for showdown conversations to insist on full delivery of Germany's 1940 quota of oil and oil products. Meanwhile, the government ordered many of 200,000 reservists originally called for March 1 to start reporting immediately to conscription centers, it was learned.

Effective March 1, Rumania will have 1,600,000 men under arms—virtually general mobilization without being so labelled.

Railways now are jammed with reservists moving toward frontiers and with long trainloads of tanks, armored cars and artillery.

The arrival of Dr. Clodius will coincide with the start of Rumanian trade conversations here with Italy, understood also to be seeking a share of this country's oil exports.

Germany, it was said, will challenge a Rumanian ban on shipments of high test aviation gasoline to the reich—a measure which Rumania was reported to have taken to placate Great Britain and France.

The German attitude toward Rumania and all southeastern Europe will depend on the outcome of Clodius' talks. Informed quarters predicted.

It was understood that a government decree banning the fuel which Germany needs for her machines of war had been issued—in this direct contradiction to a recent oil export agreement with Germany.

Allied pressure in gaining this Rumanian show of resistance to Germany's economic overtures was said to have consisted of deliberate delays in delivery of cotton, wool, jute and iron ore to Rumania, confronting her industries with serious losses.

The Rumanian ban was regarded in London as giving the allies the edge in the competition for Rumanian oil.

Both the British and the French have pointedly informed Bucharest that they might be compelled to reconsider their guarantees of Rumania against attack if King Carol's regime favored Germany on oil.

COLE BILL CALLED HARMFUL TO SMALL STRIPPER WELLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—A spokesman for small independent oil operators contended today that the Cole bill would, if it became law, put operators of "stripper wells" out of business with no compensating public benefit.

Jack L. Hamon of Dallas, Tex., independent producer and president of the National Stripper Well association, said that the stripper well operator did "not view the department of the interior with a very friendly and trusting eye."

He testified before a house subcommittee holding hearings on the bill, which would establish in the interior department a commissioner of petroleum conservation with regulatory powers over production.

Comparing the small well owners' relation to the large companies to that of share-croppers to large farming landlords, Hamon said operating stripper wells—of which there are 286,500 in the country out

Reds Continue Advance With Heavy Losses

Invaders Make Gains At Western End Of Isthmus

HELSINKI, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Red army's hammering at the Mannerheim line still is being repelled with heavy Russian losses, Finland announced today as she called up a new batch of older men to bolster her forces and placed faith in a February blitzard to help hold back the soviet military machine.

Fighting At Kamara

Two thousand Russian soldiers were killed at Taipale, eastern sector of the fortifications planted to plug the Isthmus avenue from Russia, the Finns said, acknowledging, however, that fighting on the western end had reached the Kamara railway station.

A Red army attack near the Kamara railway station, a communication center 12 miles southeast of Viipuri on the Karelian Isthmus, was repulsed, the Finnish high command reported.

Today's was the first admission by the Finns that fighting had reached the neighborhood of Kamara, although the Russians previously had reported their forces driving through that station on the main Isthmus railway to Viipuri.

The Finnish command declared that the fighting on both sides of the Isthmus had raged far into last night.

A large number of tanks were reported destroyed, and 13 Red army planes shot down.

The communiqué said more Russian strong points and 300 prisoners were captured on the battlefield northeast of Lake Ladoga, where earlier this week the Red army's 18th division was reported destroyed.

With a blitzard raising Finnish hopes of stopping the Russian military machine, Finland called the classes of 1894 and 1895—men 44 to 46 years old—to report to mobilization centers.

The three preceding classes were mobilized last week.

The Finnish high command reported new scouting flights behind the soviet lines and bombing raids on Red army troops by night.

In continued aerial activity over the war zone, the Finns said several Russian formations with as many as 50 planes each had been sighted.

OFFICIAL NAMED IN INDICTMENT

DETROIT, Feb. 22 (AP)—Gambling conspiracy indictment was against Wayne county's own prosecutor, Duncan C. McCrea, and 18 other men set in motion today a police search for him and other defendants characterized as "missing."

Long rumored to be aiming at "high places," Circuit Judge Homer Ferguson's one-man grand jury last night accused Prosecutor McCrea; Fred W. Frahm, former police superintendent, and four policemen of conspiring to operate a $1,000,000-a-year baseball pool.

The indictments climaxed six months of investigation into gambling and alleged police graft.

NO 'PURGE' SEEN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Several democratic senators expressed the belief today that President Roosevelt would refrain from any general effort to defeat anti-administration congressmen.

A hands-off attitude would contrast with his 1938 stand, when he tried to block renomination of three anti-new deal senators and one house member. The president failed in three of the four attempts.

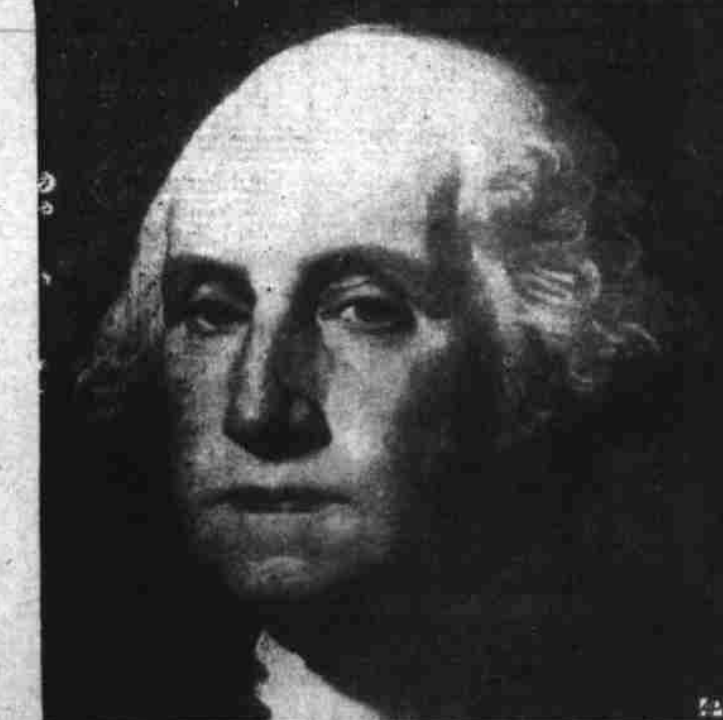

Politicians argued that White House participation in any primary congressional contests this spring might injure Mr. Roosevelt's chances of controlling the democratic presidential nomination if he declines to run himself.

Washington Was A Different Man Every Time His Portrait Was Made

CHARLES WILSON PEALE painted this miniature portrait of the first President....

JOHN TRUMBULL painted a full length (from which this is taken) in 1780....

WILLIAMS made this picture in 1794 for the Masonic Lodge, Alexandria, Va., where it remains.

By EDDY GILMORE
WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Historians will tell you that if George Washington walked down the main streets of America on his 268th birthday anniversary today, half the nation would not recognize him.

The fault is probably Washington's. As a sitter for portraits he must have been as jumpy as a jitterbug in an earthquake.

Numerous artists and sculptors of proved ability persuaded him to sit for portraits, and their results differed greatly.

The most persistent painter of the father of the country was Charles Wilson Peale, who took his paints down to Mount Vernon in 1772 and turned out the "Virginia Colonel" which now hangs at Washington and Lee university.

It shows Washington with arched eyebrows, a long straight nose and thin lips. Five years later, Peale did another portrait and the general has pursued rusby lips, curly hair and curling nostrils.

In that same year, Peale followed Washington to Valley Forge and did still another picture. The general has on a hat and looks as he did five years earlier. This picture is at the state normal school, West Chester, Pa.

Years later, Painter Peale completed still another portrait. The high nostrils have slipped down, the shape of his face has changed and his hair looks as if he had a permanent wave.

Gilbert Stuart painted Washington in 1795 and he looks like another man than the one Peale saw. His neck is long, his nose is tremendous, his mouth very wide, and his hair almost straight.

A year later Stuart painted the portrait which has become the most widely used of Washington, and it does not look like the brother of the man who sat for him a year before.

In 1780, John Trumbull went to work on Washington. He created still another man—a fellow with almost kinky hair, a petulant mouth and a dainty nose.

Two years later, Trumbull tried again. The result was a Washington with a slightly bulbous nose

Gains Shown By Southland

DALLAS, Feb. 22—Tangible evidence of the sound economic condition of Texas and the Southwest is pointed out by President A. Morgan Duke of the Southland Life Insurance company in presenting the thirty-second annual financial statement of that company.

G. MORGAN DUKE

Duke noted as being especially significant the fact that the Southland Life Insurance company has increased its capital stock and surplus to a total in excess of $1,000,000 and has shown a gain in admitted assets to a total of $30,986,493.79, the latter figure reflecting an increase in excess of $1,500,000.

and a wide mouth—a Washington who was getting a trifle bald.

The first Trumbull hangs at the Metropolitan Museum, in New York, the second at Yale university.

Historians add that it's too bad there was no camera in Washington's day—he might have been a different man.

"We are represented in Big Spring by Robert E. Lee, whose production has kept pace with the large volume written by other agents for this company," said Duke.

Presenting the thirty-second annual statement of the company, Duke said in part:

"In submitting the thirty-second annual financial statement of the Southland Life Insurance company, I am once again reminded that 'nothing succeeds like success.' Our gains have been noteworthy, indeed. We have increased our capital and surplus by the sum of $119,379.56 to a total in excess of one million dollars, besides voluntarily setting aside an additional reserve of $100,000.00 for future contingencies. This accomplishment we consider truly remarkable, and tangible evidence of our policy to so manage the affairs of the Southland Life Insurance company that the capital and surplus accounts and the other funds maintained for the additional protection of policyholders will continue to be in ample proportion to the policy reserve, thus affording an absolute maximum security to every policyholder of this company.

"Of special significance is our gain in admitted assets to a total of $30,986,493.79, which figure reflects an increase in excess of one and one-half million dollars, notwithstanding the fact that during the year 1939 we paid to policyholders and beneficiaries the sum of $3,025,952.00. While the item of cash in banks and in office is considerably larger than necessary for our operation needs, we have nevertheless adhered strictly to our policy of conservative investment of our money only in well-diversified grade 'A' securities. This course of investment procedure we will continue to follow in order that our many thousands of policyholders and stockholders may enjoy the utmost in protection.

"I am certain that you will rejoice with me because of our gain in outstanding insurance to a total sum of $186,365,375.00, representing a highly satisfactory increase in volume in force, and enabling this company to continue to maintain its position among the largest of Texas life insurance companies."

State Capitol Dry

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—The state capitol building is bone dry now.

E. C. Stewart, manager of the capitol cafeteria, quit handling 3.2 beer because sales had dropped to "not enough to pay for icing it."

State employees once drank 30 cases a day, but Gov. Leon C. Phillips banned drinking in the building. (Oklahoma still has prohibition.) He didn't mention 3.2 beer, but the employees are playing it safe.

Funds Exhausted

AUSTIN, Feb. 22 (AP)—City, county and chamber of commerce officials seeking highway improvements in their sections received bad news today.

In approving the statewide asphalt program yesterday, the state highway commission announced all available 1940 funds had been allotted and that interested parties could save time and expense by not journeying to Austin seeking projects when no funds would be available until next year.

CEREMONIES PLANNED

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—Flag day will be celebrated here Saturday with a series of ceremonies in which civil and military authorities will pay tribute to the Mexican flag.

Great political as well as patriotic significance is attached to this celebration as only a few days ago local newspapers printed denunciation of communistic activities in Mexico City.

ENTRIES REACH FOUR

DALLAS, Feb. 22 (AP)—Entries in the Southwestern A. U. basketball tournament, which will be held here March 4 to 11, reached four today with the entrance of Dr. Pepper Bottlers and Dallas Railway quints of Dallas. John Mammenburg, secretary of the Southwestern association, announced. First entries were received Wednesday from J. A. K. Wilson, and E. M. Kain of Dallas.

Would Extend New Facilities To U.S. Tourists

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—The confederation of chambers of commerce today urged the secretary of foreign relations to extend American tourists visiting Mexico greater facilities at the border.

The federation urged that American tourists coming through La-reña, Juarez, Piedras Negras, Matamoros and Nogales be excused from submitting their baggage to customs inspection.

PEACE PREVAILS

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—Peace and tranquility today prevailed in the states of Guanajuato and Queretaro as a result of the disbanding of a group of bandits which for months operated in that zone.

The secretary of national defense reported that a cavalry detachment overtook and defeated the rebels, killing three of their leaders.

The battle took place in Labor-cilla, state of Queretaro.

The bandit leaders killed were Alvaro Robles, Esteban Arvizu and Fidencio Sanchez.

WE WANT YOU TO FEEL AT HOME wherever good beer is sold

The Brewing Industry realizes that decent, respectable people prefer to patronize decent, inviting places. And we agree with them.

That is why we are taking action—in cooperation with law enforcement authorities—to "clean-up or close-up" beer retail establishments that disobey the law or permit anti-social conditions. To do this we have instituted a new self-regulation plan now in operation in a few states and being extended as rapidly as possible.

We think you will be interested in knowing something about this program. May we tell you about it in an interesting free booklet?

Last Year Was A Tough One On Stockmen

AUSTIN, Feb. 22 (AP)—Texas livestock producers passed through a year of many adverse conditions in 1939, the federal agricultural marketing service reported today after compilation of a statewide survey.

While extremely poor range feeds were mostly limited to localized areas, the service said, it was only in a small portion of the state that range feeds were considered above average and in many sections it was necessary to move livestock to more favored areas for fattening before shipping.

During the year, Texas shipped 892,000 head of cattle and calves to other states where feed crops were more plentiful and 807,000 head to Kansas and Oklahoma.

These shipments compared with 724,000 moved to feeding areas in 1938 and 871,000 to Kansas and Oklahoma.

A total market movement of 1,669,000 head was recorded during 1939 compared with 1,446,000 in 1938. Total shipments of cattle and calves to markets, feeding and grazing areas amounted to 2,582,000 head compared with 2,541,000 in 1938.

Inventory numbers of cattle and calves on Jan. 1, 1940, again showed a reduction, an estimated 4,577,000 compared with 6,955,000 a year before.

Range prospects on Feb. 1, 1940, gave a much brighter outlook for range feeds than was in prospect a year earlier.

While sheep and lamb shipments were heavy during the first 10 months of 1939, movement during November and December was light and annual disappearance of Texas sheep and lambs was about 15 per cent below marketing in 1938.

A total of 2,558,000 head of sheep and lambs were shipped from Texas to markets and feeding areas during 1939 compared with 3,006,000 in 1938.

A much smaller lamb crop was raised but reduced shipments caused further expansion in sheep population. The estimated number of stock sheep on Jan. 1, 1940, at 9,338,000 head compared with 9,646,000 head a year earlier.

BALANCED PROGRAM SHOWN IN GLASSCOCK AGENT'S REPORT

GARDEN CITY, Feb. 21—A balanced program that reached into many phases of farm and ranch life of Glasscock county during 1939, is shown in the annual report of V. G. Young, county agent, shows.

This program touched on soil and water conservation, sheep and cattle demonstrations, cotton and grain, horses and swine, wildlife propagation and farm and ranch management.

Nowhere in West Texas is there a more typical ranching section than in Glasscock county where there are 119 ranches to only 67 farms. These ranches are largely given over to sheep for the cattle population is only about 8,000. However, the stock is of unusually high quality with some $7,500 having been put into registered animals within the past two years, according to the report.

Conservation has proven a popular and profitable practice in the county. During the year, 113 ranches were run on 1,589 acres, boosting the acreage protected by contours to 3,778 or 27 per cent of the cropland. Terraces cover 852 acres. Drouth forestal plans for new trench alos, but 3,440 tons

'Rededication Week' Program Given At Lions Luncheon

Rededication to the ideals of freedom, service and peace were urged upon Lions club members Wednesday in an impressive address delivered by Harold P. Steck, chairman of the citizenship committee.

His talk was the highlight of a "rededication week" observance by Lions. Steck listed as integral parts of American freedom those of speech, press, worship and assembly; said the ideal of service was either worthless or active; that Lions could do much to promote international good-will and peace.

He asked all to reaffirm their belief in the club's citizenship code—"belief in the government of a free people whose inspiration is wisdom, whose greatest cause is justice, and whose noblest objective peace and liberty and our slogan of "Liberty, Intelligence, Our Nations Safety."

King Sides reported that beginning with March two boys from the high school would be visitors each month through May as "junior Lions."

Dr. Charles W. Deats, Chub McGibbon and Randall Pickle were named by Dr. J. E. Hogan, president, as committee for Boy Scout troop No. 7, sponsored by the club.

STATE'S HIGHWAY WORK RANKS HIGH ON NATIONAL LIST

AUSTIN, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Texas highway commission and department today were elated to learn their work ranked highly among states of the nation.

Figures released by the public roads administration in Washington placed Texas sixth in contracting projects on the regular federal aid program with only 13 per cent not under contract as compared with a 37 per cent average for the nation.

Texas was 13th on the secondary federal aid program with only 22 per cent not under contract to 49 for the nation. On the grade crossing program, Texas ranked fifth with 33 per cent not under contract as compared with 61 per cent for all states.

WHO IS PAYING WHOSE TAXES?

DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 22 (AP)—Red-faced Iowa tax officials explained that sometimes you don't even know who is working for you under the new state government consolidation program.

Iowa income tax investigators tried for several months to locate a taxpayer who failed to file a return some years ago.

They finally traced him from his home town to Des Moines where he was discovered working for you guessed it—the state tax commission.

Tax Collection 93 Pct. Of Levy

Collections on the 1939 tax roll of $28,830.08, or approximately 93 per cent of the levy, was announced Wednesday at the office of John F. Wolcott, county tax assessor-collector.

The combined state, county and school levy for the year was $255,840.71.

Of the collections through January, $103,479.73 went to the state, $74,283.07 to the county and $1,076.28 to the rural school districts.

Roll for the year is $16,190,288, a record valuation for the county. With still a few last half payments due in June, it was estimated by Claud Wolf, auditor, that the percentage collection might go as high as 97 per cent on the 1939 roll.

Collections for January, the last month before 1939 taxes went delinquent, showed $26,818 to the state, $17,497 to the county and $7,840 to the schools.

Avers Latin Americans Have Many Of The Same Faults Of Americans

DENVER, Feb. 22 (AP)—Senora Concha Romero James, chief of the intellectual cooperation division of the Pan-American Union, readily concedes that Latin Americans have some of the same faults they attribute to citizens of the United States.

"We think you in the United States have a superiority complex," the Mexican-born woman told a discussion group at the Institute on Inter-American Relations at Denver university yesterday.

"Well, we're guilty of that too. "It is said in the South American countries that people in the United States are so utilitarian. "So are we. "We like money just as well as you do."

Asserts Science Tends To Disrupt Doctrines Of Democracy

BOSTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Science, a Harvard philosopher asserted today, tends to discredit the doctrines upon which democracy is based.

"I conclude that science can lend no support whatever to the basic doctrines of human nature on which democracy is founded," Professor William E. Hocking said in a prepared address before the 17th annual meeting of the American Orthopsychiatric association, Inc., "but rather tends to discredit them."

"Perhaps they ought to be discredited; perhaps they are false; perhaps democracy is only a passing bit of moonshine, built not at all on science (for Locke and Paine, Jefferson and Rousseau were not scientists) but on the dogmatic sentimentalities of the discredited theory of the rights of man."

and motor transportation, Judge Olin Culberson today announced his candidacy for a place on the Texas railroad commission which he served from 1933 to 1939 as chief utilities rate expert and head of the gas utilities division.

Culberson, a former county clerk and county judge of Hill county, said that the same vigor and fairness that had marked his past service to the state in the regulation of gas rates would continue to be his policy as a commissioner and that the thousands of dollars already expended in assembling date upon which to fix gas utility rates and which should be used in assisting cities and towns would be utilized.

Allen said the center jump was eliminated because of tall men but "instead of driving tall players out of the game the demand for them became even greater. A team no longer is defeated in the center of the court, at the jump, but at the backboards."

The welcoming reception was at the boundary monument. A Washington birthday party pageant climaxed last night's program.

The annual street parade is scheduled today along with a music festival in which 40 bands and drums and bugle corps will participate. A bull fight at Nuevo Laredo and a night fireworks display and carnival are closing features.

Texas' Chief Business

The Wichita Times cites as "one which needs to be dinned into the ears of civic-minded folks, of politicians, of business men, until the full import of it is grasped and wrought into a constructive program" an address made recently at a Childrens civic banquet by Dr. T. O. Walton, president of Texas A. & M. college.

Dr. Walton pointed out that Texas' first need is to make farming pay.

The chief business of Texas is farming. That is the situation now, and we doubt that the day will ever come when it is not. That business is not a profitable one. Until it is made profitable, it is a drag upon the development and the prosperity of Texas. We raise too much of the wrong things, devote too many acres to products that do not bring the cost of production. We buy too many of the things that we could raise; an enormous part of Texas' income goes out of the state for farm commodities that Texas could raise for itself.

There are so many factors that seem to favor a profitable, prosperous system of agriculture. Texas has an abundance of fertile land, even when drainage is made for the wastage of erosion and incorrect methods. It has a climate that permits the raising of a great variety of products. It has a considerable urban market, close at hand. Its present troubles may be due in part to general economic conditions, but they are chiefly due to Texas' own lack of vision and purpose.

Texas must find the way to make farming—that is, small-scale farming—a profitable business and not a gamble. Dr. Walton sounded a note which it would be impossible to sound too loudly or insistently.

Robbin Coons

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—What's going on here? Are we seeing things? Has time done a back-flip and are we watching a re-make of "Elizabeth and Essex"? No, dope. This is "The Sea Hawk." This is the same place of Queen Elizabeth, but that's a different Queen Bess and that lady-in-waiting, the dark-haired beauty with the lute, the slim girl in pearl brocade, isn't Olivia De Havilland.

This Queen Bess is Flora Robson, not Bette Davis. This is quite all right, as Miss Robson was Queen Bess on stage and in pictures (see "Fire Over England") before our Bette's remarkable Bess came to technicolor life. Miss Robson was a superlative Queen Bess.

But when Queen Bess's lady-in-waiting isn't Olivia De Havilland, and Errol Flynn's leading lady in a swashbuckling drama isn't Olivia De Havilland, things are not according to Hoyle. There's a reason—Olivia was suspended for turning down "Saturday's Children."

Who's this new girl then? You wouldn't recognize her, but that's Brenda Marshall. Remember Brenda? The long-haired girl in "Espionage Agent"? No, you wouldn't know her these days. . . .

There's Brenda now, for they've finished the scene. She's a charmer, with a will about her. A will? Well, a will, for one thing, not to be Olivia De Havilland.

When she went into the role here, the make-up department probably through habit put Olivia's lips on Brenda, and started curling her black hair in an Olivia coiffure. Why not? Was a Flynn romance, and in Flynn romances the leading lady will be Olivia. Brenda took a look in the mirror and wiped off Olivia's lips and ran her fingers through Olivia's curls.

"I look like a floozy in curls," she said, or words to that effect. "I'd like my own lips, please—and a straight hair-do."

The latter request had its complications. After "Espionage Agent" Brenda had taken steps. That long wavy bob of hers loomed as a threat—a threat of "typing." Brenda didn't want to be a stereotyped glamour gal. She wanted to be different. She got a hair-cut—short. To put it up for "The Sea Hawk" the hair-dresser had to use a switch. You'd never know it, though. It looks as if it "just grew" there.

Brenda is a Texas girl (San Antonio) although she was born in Manila while her father was doing a government job there. She decided to become an actress when she was in high school, and studied dramatics at Texas State College for Women, and under Madame Maria Ouspenskaya in New York. Next she worked in summer theaters for two years, then hit Broadway in one play before she began screen-testing.

She looks like a Latin type, but her real name is Ardie Anderson, and her folks are Danish and German by descent. She hasn't told Michael Curtis, the director about that yet. When she was testing for "The Sea Hawk" Mike was enthusiastic. "Those Nordic types," said "Mike," "they are so good no 'South' We need warmth for this part. You Latins have it."

How To Torture An English Husband

BLOOD RUNS COLD By Ann Demarest

Chapter 28 AN ACCOUNTING This had to be faced again; the suspense, the questioning, all had to be gone through again. I'd slipped into a red wool dress and was just trying my ghilles when the Sergeant called me from the hall. I opened the door and when he saw me he snarled, "Well, I might have known you'd be in the thick of things. Haven't you even been to bed?" "I've been up assisting the murderer."

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—It is evident from the freshly published debates in the senate's foreign relations committee that the administration grabbed at the rising popularity of the Finnish loan to help open the door for a new loan to China.

As the bill came out of the finance committee it limited export-import bank loans to any country to $30,000,000. China has already borrowed $25,000,000, so credit would have been almost wiped out. Then came the final day of secret hearings before the senate foreign relations committee.

OFF THE RECORD

Evidently the first part of that day was off the record, for the published report begins with a string of asterisks. Then Senator Harrison of Mississippi spoke out in language that indicates aid for China had been discussed.

"I had understood," he said, "that the state department had objected to the $30,000,000 provision, because it restricts them (presumably China) from getting a little more."

James Jones, federal loan administrator, evidently also had had a part in the state department show, for as he went to attend the final session of hearings, he pencilled an amendment that deftly permitted China to get an additional $25,000,000. He did it by simply inserting that loans "hereafter" made would be limited to 25 million. The committee trimmed it to $20,000,000—and shot it out to the senate that way.

CAN TRADE FOOD FOR GUNS

Also the hearings disclose that the cagey James Jones is not going to stand in the way if Finland buys non-military goods here with the money—the only kind permitted with the loans—and trades them to England for fighting goods, such as planes and shells.

It would be a neat way for Finland to get around restrictions on use of the loans. The net result would be that American money would be used to buy British planes and guns for Finland.

Senator Clark of Missouri, evidently quite pleased with the idea, asked:

"There is nothing in the provisions of the loan or in the act which would prevent such a thing as that, is there?"

"Nothing," said Jones. "We could not prevent that."

"If that were discovered," asked Senator Wagner of New York, somewhat appalled at such international shenanigans, "would not that justify you in cutting off their credit?"

"It might," said Jones.

NONE FOR DENMARK

Already Jones has extended credit of $10,000,000 to Finland and a like amount to Sweden and Norway, both of whom are liberally aiding Finland. But Denmark, also a Scandinavian country, that in a mild way is helping Finland, is too closely pinned to Germany's apron strings to get any Yankee money.

"Denmark has been wanting to borrow," Jones told the committee, but added, "they have not been encouraged to believe that they could have any credit."

George Tucker Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—Sometimes in the list of characters on theatrical play-bills you run across the name of George Spelvin.

Actually, there is no such person. He is as fictitious as any of the characters in the play itself—perhaps more fictitious, because he has no human counterpart.

He is a cover-up, a pseudonym for actors who play two parts in the same show. For instance, if I were an actor in Uncle Tom's Cabin and played both Topsy and Little Eva you'd see something like this: Little Eva—played by George Tucker; Topsy—played by George Spelvin.

The virtue of this make-believe is two-fold: it helps preserve an illusion, and it keeps the audience from finding out how cheap the producers are, the supposition being that producers who weren't cheap would hire an extra actor to play the other part.

We've been running into George Spelvin for years, not only in playbills but also in various columns. For he is usually nominated by voluminists to play the role of the "Average American" or any other role they want.

But in all the years we've encountered him, it never occurred to us that he should form the subject of a New York letter until Norman Nelson, of Fort Worth, Texas, wrote in and inquired after this Mr. Spelvin. So, Mr. Nelson, this is on you.

Perhaps we shouldn't stop Mr. Spelvin without inquiring into his antecedents. Winchel Smith, the playwright, usually gets credit for creating this mythical bloke.

Smith never liked to have the characters of his plays listed without Spelvin's name, and on those occasions when no actor played two parts—you'd find him there anyway. Once Smith caused this line to be inserted in the playbill: "A Policeman—played by George Spelvin." There was no policeman in the play.

Fifty-second street is so crowded with noisy, rowdy bars where loud orchestras play, that it has long been known as the Street of Swing.

But there is one place, at least, in the very heart of 52nd street where the only swing to be found is in the swing of a giant negro's arm as he swings open the barbecue pit to serve ribs, barbecued pork ribs with hot, red barbecue sauce.

It's a great place for afternoon eating and after midnight eating and in-between eating. You get barbecued oysters and slaw and those big, lean, beautiful ribs with that sauce, and sweet potatoes and pie and coffee, for a buck.

You can even have a little music with your ribs if you shove a nickel into a coin machine which plays records. But that's the only music there is, just the music of the ribs barbecuing and the machine playing. And the records—well, I suppose some of them are swing, because now and then you run into one of Benny Goodman's records. Which, after all, isn't very surprising when you consider that this barbecue banjo is owned by Benny Goodman's brother.

Making faces at other people is another of the endearing jungle customs which have been taken over in Central Europe.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

"Patched pants show the Japanese war strain," says a late Tokyo advice. Kicking themselves for getting into it, would cause this.

Urges Cooperation Of Farmers In Making Census Complete

"No group has a greater degree of self-interest in the success of the decennial census of 1940 than the farmer," declared A. G. Bearden, district supervisor of the census for this district.

"Agriculture as an industry has been in bad health for a number of years. Just as a prudent person goes to his doctor for a complete checkup the farmers will in the census of 1940 get the most complete study of their symptoms that has ever been made. Facts to be collected on the seven million farms will provide the farmers themselves, the government, and students of the farm problem with a guide to the future.

"The nation as a whole cannot be fundamentally prosperous unless the farmer is prosperous, because the farms directly support 25 per cent of our population and the business of farming affects about half of all of our people. Besides being the producer of the nation's food supply, the farmer is one of the largest customers of the business man. The farmer's ability to purchase goods directly affects all business as well as their workers in the city. The farmer is one of the greatest suppliers of raw materials for industry.

"Vital changes throughout the world have directly affected the prosperity of the American farmer. Dislocation of world markets due to wars and the efforts of foreign nations to make themselves self-sufficient has made the American farm surplus burdensome by curtailing exports. Mechanization of farms has increased farm production while decreasing the number of consumers even on the farm. Greater mechanization in factories has reduced physical labor and the demand for staple food products. Lighter women's clothes have added to the cotton surplus, and reduction of physical labor has resulted in a per-capita decline in the consumption of wheat. The reduction of horses and mules from 27,000,000 to 15,000,000 in favor of tractors and trucks have made it necessary to find a market for cash crops from 30,000,000 acres formerly used to raise horse feed. The greatly reduced birth rate from 25 babies per 1,000 population to 17 means fewer mouths to feed in coming years.

"The farmer is therefore confronted with the problem of adjusting his production to meet these vital changes and the census will tell him what these changes are. The census figures will tell him what crops are being over-produced; what progress is being made to use more of his crops in industrial plants.

"Industry has developed a fine statistical record which guides its future operations. No one of the 7,000,000 farmers can develop such a set of records for his own guidance because he has only his own figures. Census records of 7,000,000 farms combined is the only complete national picture of farm operations to tell the farmer which way he is going, and to provide students of the serious farm problem with the facts to meet this problem."

Bearden urges all of the farmers of this section to cooperate with the enumerator so that a complete record of farm operations in this section can be made. He suggests that farmers acquaint themselves with the essential facts about their 1939 operations such as number of acres farmed; number of acres owned or rented; value of the production of each item; number and classification of all livestock; quantity and value of all products including milk, butter, eggs, and even the volume of foods produced and consumed on the farm. The enumerator will want to know the number of acres in use for each crop, pasture land, land lying idle or fallow, woodland, amount of farm mortgage, interest rate, expenditure for feed, farm implements, automobiles, trucks, building materials and equipment, fertilizer and gasoline.

Gas Stocks High, Price At Low Levels

TULSA, Okla., Feb. 22 (AP)—The oil industry was deep in its winter headache today — high gasoline stocks and low prices.

The American Petroleum Institute reported that stocks of finished and unfinished gasoline reached 93,000,000 barrels during the week ended Feb. 17 for a new record high.

As for prices, some marketmen professed to find a better feeling although the market still was soft. Natural gasoline quoted universally in Oklahoma at 2 cents last week was hitting 2 1/4 cents on some occasions this week. Some refiners reported heavy use of natural for blending had aided in keeping down costs of motor fuel during the winter doldrums.

There also has been some slackening of offerings of higher grade gasoline on the spot market, with one source reporting strength in spot sales in Illinois. Demand for heating oils continues good. The proposed Cole bill still is being watched closely, with some quarters expressing the view that the controversial issue of the measure will aid opponents in delaying final action this session.

Illinois production continued to shoot upward. The API estimated last week's production at 408,300 barrels daily, over the 400,000 mark for the first time.

The Texas Pipe Line Co. has organized a subsidiary, the Lawrence Pipe Line Company of Delaware to construct and operate a 53 to 60-mile six-inch gasoline line from Lawrenceville, Ill., to Evansville, Ind.

In the field, the Oil and Gas Journal reported 465 completions for the week ended Feb. 15, compared with 405 the previous week and 416 a year ago.

Allison Advocates Raising Truck Load Limit

Continued effort to bring about an increase on the Texas truck load limit is listed by Alvin R. Allison, candidate for the senate major platform plank.

On this matter, The Herald has from this district, as one of his received a communication from Allison, in which he says in part:

Of vital concern to me is the truth that under present load limits, individually owned farm trucks work under a hardship. Farmers and cattlemen, under the 7000 lb. limit, are forced to make a number of trips to deliver their products. This adds to the cost of production and marketing; lowers the farmer's profits; and increases his labor cost. I am against such harmful effect to the backbone of West Texas—the farmer and the rancher.

Another factor that gains my support for an increased load limit is realization that distances in West Texas are of such consequence that truckers and others engaged in transportation of products, sometimes actually lose money. Such being the case, I am in favor of raising the limit to a reasonable tonnage, enabling those who truck and transport, a fair return on the money which they have invested.

Transportation of perishables is another vital industry which is hampered under the present load limit. Companies say that transportation costs, if excessive, harm the farmer and cattlemen, by limiting his market. To any limitation that keeps the farmer or rancher from realizing best returns from all he produces, I am opposed.

Celebrate Washington's Birthday With This Grapefruit Cherry Pie

Here's something new, something different, something unusual, something tempting! Spices and brown sugar have been blended with tangy grapefruit to make a wonderfully scrumptious combination of flavor. Wonderfully attractive, too, with bright cherries peeping through the lacy golden crust.

This grapefruit cherry pie has so much zip and zest, it's the perfect dessert for a hearty winter meal. It will pep up lagging appetites, too. The recipe calls for canned grapefruit, so you can make this pie any time of year. Pastry making used to be an art in which only a few housewives were successful, but that time is

Farm Loans Being Repaid

AMARILLO, Feb. 22—Farmers who purchased farms in Region XII of the Farm Security Administration under the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant purchase program repaid more money than was due on their loans in 1939, according to L. H. Hauter, regional director.

This record of former tenants who borrowed money from the federal government with which to purchase land and make improvements, includes both the fixed and variable payment plan.

The fixed payment is based on a stipulated plan of repaying an exact amount against the sum borrowed regardless of farmer's income for the year.

The variable plan provides for a payment schedule in keeping with the farmer's net income for the year. In bad years the farmer is required to pay less against his loan than in good years when he is expected to make up for the bad years.

"This splendid repayment record of farm tenant purchase borrowers was made in a year that was not especially prosperous for the farmers in this region," Hauter said.

"Although we are proud of this achievement," he continued, "it does not tell the whole story. At the time the average borrower was meeting his obligation to the government in a satisfactory manner, he also made promising gains as revealed by increased inventories."

Hauter said that after deducting debts, these new farm owners are now worth a great deal more than when they first began operating their new farms.

GRAPEFRUIT CHERRY PIE
2 1/2 cups canned grapefruit, drained
1/2 cup brown sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 recipe pie crust
1 tablespoon butter
3-ounce bottle maraschino cherries, drained
Combine grapefruit, juice, sugar, flour, and spices.

Roll 1/2 of dough and line a 9-inch pie plate. Fill pie shell with grapefruit mixture. Dot with butter.

Roll remaining half of dough and cut into narrow strips. Place strips on top of filling to make attractive open top. Moisten edge of pie, place strip of dough around rim to hold strips in place. Pinch into a fluted rim or press together with tines of fork. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 50 to 60 minutes.

Cut cherries in fourths and press lightly into open sections of lattice top, or around edge.

PIE CRUST
2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
5 tablespoons cold water (about)

Sift flour and salt together. Add 1/2 of shortening and cut in until mixture is as fine as meal. Add remaining shortening and continue cutting until particles are size of navy bean. Sprinkle water gradually over mixture. With a fork, work lightly into a dough. Add just enough water to moisten.

(All measurements in these recipes are level.)

Report Leche Profited In Sale Of Trucks

ALEXANDRIA, La., Feb. 22 (AP)—The federal government reported that former Governor Richard W. Leche and 11 other persons, most of them prominent in public affairs, shared in a $11,370.56 profit on sale of trucks to the state highway commission.

Leche, L. P. Abernathy, former chairman of the highway commission, and George Younger, Alexandria truck dealer, were indicted for mail fraud for allegedly selling the trucks at 10 per cent above the market price and realizing "an unusually large and unearned profit."

The three defendants in federal court yesterday sought to quash the indictment.

Thousands Gather At Valley Forge

VALLEY FORGE, Pa., Feb. 22 (AP)—Reverent thousands assembled today at the place where General Washington spent perhaps the least cheerful of his birthdays. Traditional ceremonies by patriotic groups were held at the Valley Forge shrine, commemorating the travail of George Washington and his ragged soldiers when they wintered here while General Howe and his redcoats enjoyed the comforts of nearby Philadelphia.

Washington was 46 then. His headquarters—a colonial stone house near the banks of the Schuylkill river—today was thronged with visitors seeking glimpses of many of the general's personal possessions.

JIMMY DEMARET OUTSHOOTS TONY PENNA AT HOUSTON

TEXAN LEADING CANDIDATE FOR VARDON HONORS

By WILLIAM T. RIVES
HOUSTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Dimpled Jimmy Demaret, his test case proven, took his position today in the company of golf's impressive names.

Through wind, rain, cold, mud and sunshine, Jimmy carved his way to the Western open championship.

Demaret had the Texas PGA several times and each of the past three winters had won tournaments in California. But he never had made the complete tour with his fellow, so there lingered the suspicion he might lack lasting fitness.

Today, however, he has a stranglehold on competition for the Vardon trophy, is the year's biggest money winner, and there is not a pro who will deride his game.

There was one situation Jimmy regretted—he had to trim a dear friend and frequent golfing partner, Tony Penna, of Dayton, Ohio, to win the Western in an 18 hole playoff yesterday over the River Oaks course. Tony shot a 74 for the par 71 layout, four more than Jimmy required. They had tied at 293 for the regulation 72 holes.

Penna, whose sole major tournament victory has been the Kansas City open, two years ago, putting the finishing touches to Demaret's case. Said "He's one of the greatest golfers in the game from tee to green, and will be for another ten years."

White Is Medalist In Houston Meet

To Oppose Ossie Carleton In First Round

HOUSTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Nerveless Ed White, former national intercollegiate champion, faced the wisdom of long experience in the first match in defense of the Houston country club invitation golf tournament today.

White, home course player who won medalist honors yesterday with a smooth par 71 while most of the field blew up, collided with crafty Ossie Carleton, former state champion, who has played the game more than 20 years.

Carleton shot a 78, seven strokes higher than White, in the qualifying round, but he knows the links as well as the champion.

Four other promising matches as the field got away paired Harry Todd, western amateur champion of Dallas, against Ed Herron of Houston; O'Hara Watts of Dallas against John Barnum of Houston, runner-up to White last year; Loraine Young of San Antonio against Don Schumacher of Dallas, former Trans-Mississippi champion, and Mac Bennett of San Antonio against Ellsworth Vines of Hollywood.

One of the biggest surprises was the failure of Captain Ken Rogers, United States army aviator who beat White in the championship finals two years ago, to qualify.

Muddy Track In Prospect For The Derby

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 22 (AP)—The sixth edition of the $50,000 added Santa Anita derby drew a brilliant field of three-year-olds and the prospect of rain and a muddy track today.

Eighteen colts and two fillies were named but it appeared that several short of this field would try for the rich prize in the mile and one-eighth feature of the holiday racing program.

The two fillies, the Foxcatcher Farm's Fairy Chant and Nell S. McCarthy's Augury, carried great favoritism and it seemed safe to guess that one of the so-called weaker sex might triumph in the west's biggest derby attraction for the second straight year. Texas-bred Glenda won the derby in 1939.

Coupled in the betting booths were the strong entries of the Milky Way Farms and McCarthy, Los Angeles attorney. Milky Way had its Galahadion, expected to run regardless of track conditions, and either Tough Hombre or Chatted.

McCarthy's Augury was coupled with Certainty, while the Foxcatcher entry boasted Fairy Chant.

Rain or shine, the Milky Way entry was expected to go postward the betting favorite. Jockey Ball James drew the mount on Galahadion, and is the leading rider at Santa Anita this season.

Pro Golfers Not In Class Of Bob Jones

By DILLON GRAHAM
NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—Every serious follower of golf remembers the highspots along Bob Jones' grand slam sweep of the British and American Open and amateur championships in 1930 but few will recall the other tournament of that year in which Jones gave the professionals their worst lacing in links' history.

It was in the Southeastern Open in March at Augusta, Ga. Jones won the 72-hole medal play competition by 13 strokes. Jones scored 284 and Horton Smith, the runner-up, 297.

Golf's record books reveal no other victory over the pro field, either by a professional or an amateur, by such a lopsided margin.

Every Tourney A Headliner

It has been forgotten because the Southeastern was "just another winter tournament." But it really was more than that. Any time Jones stepped off the tee in tournament competition that tournament automatically became important because all the professional aces jumped at every opportunity for a crack at Jones. They all admired and respected Bob but it was the ambition of their lives to beat him. So this tournament was just as much of a real "shootin' match" as any other in which Jones played.

Bob really should have beaten the pros by 18 rather than 13 strokes. It happened this way:

When Jones' group came to the 70th tee they found the preceding threesome just walking out the green of this short hole. The fairways were jammed with hundreds who had rushed to join Bob's gallery for the finishing holes.

The day was warm and Jones was tired. So he plopped down on the grassy tee to rest until the fairway was cleared.

Cobb Calls Turn

I was standing next to Ty Cobb and the famous baseball star said, calling the turn:

"That's the worst thing he could do. Reeling like that on the ground will tighten his muscles. He may have trouble getting back in the groove again."

The Georgia Peach was right.

For Jones put his tee shot into the sand and took a miserable 6 on this par 3 hole. He scrambled to get his par on the 71st and then bumped into trouble and required another 6 on the par 4 last hole.

He had dropped five strokes to par on the last three holes. These holes were not too difficult, holes on which he normally would have got his par. Had he not given in to the desire to rest and ease up he might easily have matched par all the way in and beaten the professional field by 18 strokes.

THREE IMPORTANT MAJOR-CITY CAGE LEAGUE GAMES ON TAP IN HERD GYM

Ted Phillips' hardwood aces fight to stay in the race for the second half Major-City basketball league this evening, 7:30 o'clock, when they tangle with the Ackerly Eagles at the high school.

The game is the feature of three of the most important of the M-C schedule has offered this season. At 8:30, Montgomery-Ward and R-Bar collide in a clash for the "celina" championship. Neither team has recorded a victory in second half play.

An hour later, Coahoma's Oilers, on the high road in the dash for the title, square off against W. L. Thompson's rugged Vaughn's Piemen.

Beaten last week by Coahoma, the Phillips team must win their remaining games to keep their chances alive for the championship.

The Eagles are undefeated but will take the courts as the underdogs this evening if the Tiremen are at full strength.

Both the Ward quintet and R-Bar have chalked up impressive victories in exhibition games, the past week and their battle looms as a tossup. The Retailers smashed the West-Tex Food team of Odessa in a surprise battle at Odessa Tuesday evening while the Wranglers counted 61 points in routing the Forsan Outlaws the same evening.

The Sugar Coats will not be at full strength for their engagement with the Oilers but may make it plenty tough for Buri Cramer's crew, especially if Ray Groselock, giant center, is back on the firing line.

The Piemen will have Jake Morgan, who did not see action last week, available for duty.

Dave Hopper will be missing, however.

Skipper Thompson hopes to build a defense capable of stopping Louis Heuvel, speedy Coahoma ace, who all but wrecked the Tiremen's title dreams last week in a one-man scoring show.

Three players are staging a merry battle for runner-up scoring honors in the race. J. E. Harland, Phillips forward, apparently has sewed up the tally making laurels with a total of 116 points.

In second place is Dee Froman, also of the Phillips team, who has counted 88 points in league play but he is only three points in front of Hollis Parker, Coahoma. Alvis Chapman, an early leader, trails Froman and Parker with a total of 82 for the campaign.

Strongest Teams In Lower Bracket Of Cage Tourney

Expecting to go farther in the district basketball meeting this year than last is John Daniel's Big Spring Steers who tomorrow afternoon open their tournament campaign against the respected Ovalo quintet, champions of Taylor county.

Anchored by Billy Hotham, the Ovalo team has shown flashes of brilliance and may prove strong enough to supply a rugged test for the Bovines but the locals will be heavily favored to win.

All the tougher teams are in the lower bracket of play but fortunately one of the tournament's two favorites will be eliminated in the Sweetwater-Forsan vs. Swenson game.

The Steers must subdue Ovalo and then Ira if they expect to get a shot at the semi-finals.

The Abilene Eagles, if they can get by Hamlin in their first round game, should have easy sledding in upper bracket play.

Incidentally, don't count Brady Nix's Forsan team out of the running yet. They'll be at a disadvantage in height in combatting the Mustangs but play a hustling brand of ball that might tie the Sweetwater defense into knots.

Kansas Wesleyan Cagers Spend The Night Here

One of the middle west's outstanding college cage quintets, the Kansas Wesleyan team of Salina, Kas., stopped overnight at a local hotel on route to Chihuahua, Mexico, where it will play an exhibition game with that city's strong independent team before moving to El Paso to compete in the annual Southwestern independent tournament.

The raucous crew, sparked by a six foot, nine inch center and coached by Gene Johnson, has won 15 of 17 games this season and rules as one of the favorites in the El Paso meeting.

The Methodists competed in the tournament last year but their title bid was unsuccessful.

Track drills in most of this season's schools get underway as soon as the basketball campaigning is completed.

Howard Swatzy and Mule Stockton have been out with the local prospects for ten days or more.

Brady Nix will soon turn his attentions both to track and spring grid drills at Forsan. Nix year in and year out has the county's best crop of thiny clads.

Herd, Ponies Cage Winners

AUSTIN, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Texas Longhorns held the pace in the battle for the Southwest conference basketball title today but braced themselves for the test that's liable to make their big game with the Rice Owls an anti-climax.

Texas beat Texas A. and M. 42-31 last night to remain in a virtual tie with Rice for the lead. Rice has lost as many games as Texas but has played more, therefore holds the margin in percentage.

Saturday night Texas must invade the Baylor court. When they met previously it was all the Longhorns could do to win.

Rice rests until next week when the Owls play Texas in a game that will determine the title unless Baylor should upset the Longhorns Saturday.

Southern Methodist kept Texas Christian university's record comfortable by downing the Frogs 63-53. The Christians haven't won a game in so long that victory has become almost a legend.

Local Keglers To S'western Tournament

The local bowling team representing the Douglas hotel and composed of J. C. Loper, Jake Douglas, Pete Howze, Earl Bleakney, and Harry Hoeckendorf is scheduled to tee off in the Southwestern bowling tournament at Tulsa, Okla. at eight o'clock Saturday night and again at ten a. m. Sunday morning.

They are scheduled to play a matched game Friday night with a picked team representing the Brantley's Bowling Alleys of Oklahoma City on the Jenks alleys in Oklahoma City.

The tournament is the sixteenth annual tournament of its kind. Last year's contest held in Wichita Falls, was won by the Alamo Recreation team of San Antonio, a team that is well known in Big Spring. The all time high was shot in Wichita, Kansas in 1937 by the Metz Beer team of Omaha, Neb. The Duo of Bertram and Danforth of St. Joseph, Mo., hold the tops in the doubles event rolling 1260 in the same year. Bud Tierney is the only two-time winner winning in 1935 with a total of 720 which is also a record and again in 1939 at Wichita Falls with 714. Jim Etter of Omaha, Neb., is tops in the all events firing 2017 in the regulation nine games at Wichita in 1937.

Harry Hoeckendorf of the local team, played with a team from Dallas in 1927 and was successful in winning the singles with 656 and also won in all events with 1891. He and his doubles partner shot 1218 to win in that event besides being on the second place team.

The local team was entered last year at Wichita Falls and placed eighth in a record field, and are conceded a fair chance of placing high in the money in Tulsa and ultimately.

Nelson's Action At Houston May Injure Rep

By EARL HILLIGAN
CHICAGO, Feb. 22 (AP)—For a very personable young man whose biggest assets as a golf star appeared to be his ability to "take it" under any kind of playing pressure, Byron Nelson's action in quitting the Western Open tournament cold came as quite a shock.

Nelson, after turning the first nine at Houston in 40 strokes last Monday, knocked his ball off the No. 10 green and announced he was through—thereby creating what probably was the first instance in golf's history that a national open titleholder walked out of an event comparable in importance to the Western Open championship.

Professional golf, it seems, long has held to the tradition "play it out come high scores or higher water" and history contains more than one instance of a golf pro picking up during a tourney in a moment of anger—and regretting it for years to come.

On Jan. 21, 1938, Sammy Snead went five over par playing the first nine at the Pasadena open. He picked up at No. 12, said "to hell with it" and walked off the course. He apologized later, but he took a verbal beating from the boys for quite a spell.

Tommy Armour picked up on the second hole of the 1935 national open tourney at Oakmont in rain and a near-hurricane. Tommy needed two pars on Nos. 17 and 18 for a July 90. He quit and ever since has been sorry about it.

Ky Laffoon shot a 77 at South Bend, Ind., in the 1935 Western Open and packed his bags. Ky probably has often recalled that Willie Goggin also had a 77 but stuck around and wound up in second place.

Nelson, in the past, has given the fans his best—and probably will make more of an effort than ever from now on. After all, spectators don't come to see the champion lounging on a veranda. They pay to see him play.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BRIEZE
NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—Ambers is 5-8 over Al Davis tomorrow night and that's about the way it looks from here. . . . The Oklahoma Aggies cagers (22 straight wins) are as good as invited to the invitation tournament in the Garden next month. . . . Only thing is, pressure may be brought to keep 'em home for the N.C.A.A. meet. . . . Since he took charge of the Dodgers in 1938, Larry MacPhail has spent $430,500 for playing talent.

The very ideal!

Certainly Mike Jacobs is not going to call off the Buddy Bearer-Vaughn's Campolo fight because Valentin was knocked down six times and beaten by Jack Marshall the other night. . . . Bossox Ready To Test Yanx

SARASOTA, Fla., Feb. 22 (AP)—Just how far the Boston Red Sox get in the 1940 American League pennant chase, Manager Joe Cronin believes, depends entirely on the pitching staff.

As for the rest of the lineup, which will include young Dominic DiMaggio, the Red Sox boss and shortstop says it's "all set."

"With fellows like Jimmy Foss, Bobby Doerr, Ted Williams, Jim Tabor and Roger Cramer, we have plenty of power," Cronin explained. "We haven't a great catching staff, but it is good enough. Everything depends on the pitching."

"Everybody" said Bill Butland and Herbie Hash of Minneapolis were the best looking pitchers in the minors last year," the Boston pilot recalled, "and we've got them both. Lefty Grove appears able to go on forever, and we're counting on him again."

Dominic DiMaggio, brother of the New York Yankee's Joe, will start in leftfield, replacing Joe Vosmik, waived out of the league and sold to Brooklyn.

Cronin said the club would bring the largest squad in its history to camp here. The first training session is scheduled March 1.

OTT REFUSES TO BECOME ROWDY

By MORTIMER KREGER
NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 22 (AP)—Mild-mannered Melvin Ott, the quiet little New York Giant ball-player with the loud bat, declared today he couldn't be a big-mouth even if it meant a higher standard of living for the Ott family.

"Maybe it would help me get a better contract sometimes," he conceded, with an air more of politeness than of conviction. "Some fellows seem to think so. But I just can't talk about myself that way. I feel if a man gets on playing pretty good ball he'll get credit for it."

Modest Mel has sometimes been a headache to sports writers and reporters who wish he'd do something colorful besides setting National League home run records.

His sincerest admirers criticize his failure to advertise his wares verbally, and assert that in such circumstances as his present salary difficulties a little publicized big-headedness might swing a few votes in the Giants' front office where a cut in his $20,000 stipend is reported under consideration.

You can almost hear the bashful basher apologizing to a pitcher. "Gee, I hated to spoil your afternoon, but the ball just bounced off my bat and over the fence."

WOULD BE PREACHER AND BRIDEGROOM, TOO

It just isn't being done, or rather that's the way O. R. Bridges, negro, was answered by the staff members in the county clerk's office in reply to his query about marrying himself.

Bridges, a negro, said he was a former preacher and wanted to know if he could marry himself to Willie May Harris. The clerk's force looked upon it as highly irregular and probably illegal.

SWELL LETTERS, BUT OUT OF DATE

CHICAGO, Feb. 22 (AP)—The love letters Blaine Johnson sent to his wife, Lela, in an effort to regain her affection carried ardent and tender messages but the wrong dates. Two weeks ago when Johnson sought a divorce the judge suggested he patch up the quarrel and renew courtship of his wife. Johnson began sending her letters, one a day. Mrs. Johnson complained in court yesterday the idea left her cold. The envelopes, she explained, were fresh and recently post-marked but the letters were the ones he had sent her 15 years ago. He dug them out of her trunk, she said.

Warehouse Job Progressing

With time of the third annual district club boy livestock show less than a month away, those interested in the affair were heartened Thursday by progress made on the construction of a county warehouse which may be used as an agricultural exhibit place.

Thursday 37 of the 100 center spans which will be set at two-foot intervals on the 200-foot length of the structure, had been constructed. The second of six sections of concrete floor had been poured and all footings were in and ready for use as soon as span work is finished.

The building will be 50x200 feet and will be used to house the livestock show if far enough along by show dates on March 18-19. A caretaker's cottage on the same five-acre tract purchased by the county is well along toward completion. Bids will be opened on March 4 for fencing around the property. The place will be profusely landscaped when finished.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—Federal narcotics agents claimed today they had ended a seven-month chase by placing behind bars the "brains" of a $12,000,000 year narcotics ring which centered in Kansas City.

Joe Olivio, alias Joe Oliver, was the man they described as kingpin of the organization. First public knowledge of Olivio's connection with the ring came late yesterday. He appeared in federal court and pleaded guilty to an indictment returned secretly last July. He was sentenced to five years in prison by Judge John Caskie Collet.

SAYS REDUCTION OF BENEFIT PAYMENTS SPURS TENANCY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—A southwestern farmer testified today that congressional attempts to reduce large benefit payments under the crop control program might force the sharecropper and tenant system of the deep south onto irrigated cotton lands of Arizona, New Mexico, and California.

Dean F. Statmann, Las Cruces, N. M., told a senate agriculture subcommittee this probably would be the result of legislation already passed by the house. The bill would reduce the present maximum payment of $10,000 to any one farmer or corporation to $5,000 and scale down all farm benefit payments of more than $1,000.

PAINTINGS DESTROYED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—Police investigated today an outbreak of vandalism in which 13 paintings on exhibit in the Billmore hotel were destroyed with an estimated loss of $4,300.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—Investigators had newly discovered insurance policies totaling $150,000 paid for by a self-stain art dealer on the life of his business associate—to consider today in their latest move to clear the mystery of the art galleries.

Discovery of the valuable policies provided the authorities with a tentative motive for the all-but-fatal attack last Monday on Milton B. Logan, art gallery president, in a fantastic auto ride shortly before John T. Geary, a fellow executive, shot himself in his suburban home. A third man, John Foggi, brassy news dealer, is being held without bail on a charge of suspicion of felonious assault in connection with the attack.

WOULD PUT GAS TAX MONEY IN ESCROW

An agreement is being sought by the city with local gasoline dealers to hold the four-cent gas tax on municipal purchases in escrow pending outcome of litigation before the state supreme court.

The tax on the city's gasoline amounts to around $1,000 per annum. The city seeks to have the tax money put in escrow so that the amount will be saved to the municipality in event the appellate court holds municipalities are exempt from payment of the tax.

Hanson Team Sets Record

Ward Hall and his Hanson Haberdashery team set a season record at Billy Simon's bowling lines last firing a tremendous 1,025 total in the final game of their series. They also took over undisputed possession of first place in the league standing and set a new three game total record of 2883.

Jim Eason had a good night bumping the sticks for a nice 254-648 and takes care of a couple of individual records himself besides a share of the three way tie for high average with Ben Daniels and Mel Richards at 191. Rat Ramsey, Skeet West, and Jake Douglass are docked at 187 for the next.

Tuesday night also welcomed in a new sponsor for a Classic league loan when the Big Spring Motor Company took over Harry Hoekendorf's gang. White Swan Laundry has been transferred to Jimmy Eason and Company.

Rotary Chief To Be Honored At Abilene Monday

ABILENE, Feb. 22—To celebrate the fourteenth anniversary of the establishment of the Abilene Rotary club, the 35th anniversary of the founding of Rotary International, and a visit of Walter D. Head, Montclair, N. J., educator who is international president of Rotary, West Texas Rotarians will gather here next Monday.

Elaborate plans for a banquet assembly at the Hilton hotel here, with President Head as principal speaker, were sent into final stages today.

Preparations are being made by Don Morris, vice resident of the Abilene Christian college, who is president of the Abilene Rotary club, and by Hiram Arrant, professor of chemistry at Hardin-Simmons university, who is governor of Rotary district 127.

Invitations to every Rotary club in Texas, and to border clubs in Oklahoma, New Mexico and Mexico have been extended, asking all to be represented at the banquet, which several hundred are expected to attend.

The Abilene speaking date is the first of five in Texas for President Head. On Tuesday follow-

45,000,000 Trees Planted in Texas In Seven Years

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Civilian Conservation Corps, noting that today was celebrated in Texas as Arbor Day as well as Washington's birth date, announced that 45,000,000 trees had been planted in the Lone Star state by the CCC in the past seven years.

It was in 1933 that the CCC began forest rehabilitation in Texas. James J. McEntee, acting director of the CCC, stated that replanting of valuable forest lands left idle by past cutting and burning had been one of the greatest single contributions of the agency in Texas.

Enroute to Abilene from a California visit, he will spend a day with international director Edd McLaughlin, at Ralls. An informal reception for visiting Rotarians will precede the dinner here. For this, the H-SU Cowboy Band will play.

To give due recognition to the Rotary anniversaries and President Head's visit, Mayor W. H. Hair has proclaimed next Monday as Rotary Day in Abilene.

to talk to him for a couple of minutes. He had tried to persuade the boy to go to bed.

Mr. Kimball raised his eyes to the Sergeant. "Yes," he said "unfortunately that is true."

Biting off the end of his cigar, the Sergeant said, "I'll talk to you later."

It seemed strange that the Sergeant was so easily convinced that everyone was in the house and in bed all night. He seemed almost disinterested in the inquiry and paid scant attention to the perfunctory replies to his questions. And when Sarah poked her head in the door, her pale eyes popping, he told her to get on with her work.

"The rest of you may leave," he said. "And, Miss Rogers you stay in your room. I want to talk to you."

When he and Dirck and I were alone, he sat down and puffed on his cigar with a satisfied air. "Well, it's pretty clear now, Koiff," he said.

"Suicide," the Sergeant said tersely.

"Suicide," I echoed, amazed. It hadn't occurred to me, and from the expression on Dirck's face it was a new idea to him, too.

"Then he murdered Joan?" I gasped.

The Sergeant nodded.

"But how...? My throat was dry. How did he kill himself?"

"That's obvious. He jumped out of the window."
