Harry Hines, Wichita Falls, apparently had decided against running.

For lieutenant governor: G. H. Nelson, Lubbock; Coke Stevenson, Junction; Pierce Brooks, Dallas. John Lee Smith, Throckmorton, had announced. George Purl, Dallas, apparently had decided not to run.

Attorney general: Walter Woodul, Houston; Lewis Goodrich, Shamrock; Robert Calvert, Hillsboro. Gerald Mann, Dallas, and Ralph Yarborough, Austin, have announced and begun active campaigns.

New Machine Will Build Highways Along the Coast

SARITA, Kenedy County, Tex.—Highway construction of a new type will be tested within the next few weeks when work begins on the first portion of the Kenedy county link of the Hug-the-Coast highway between Houston and the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

State highway engineers, seeking to make use of the millions of cubic yards of sand in the surface soil through the county, have obtained a new machine which is designed to mix cement with the native sand for surfacing material.

The machine is driven by a tractor motor and tread, around which its other component parts are closely grouped. It includes a device which mixes the cement and sand, then lay the liquid cement to any desired depth. The machine is especially designed for use on highway projects where sand is a major obstacle.

The highway department displayed the machine to a group of newspapermen during a survey of the roadway through the Norias section of the huge King ranch. More than 50 miles of the northern section were covered in the survey.

Practically all of the section surveyed has been cleared and graded during the past few months. Because of the unceasing southwest winds across the fine white sand, the freshly graded roadbed was ruined in several places. Branches of trees placed on the roadway to hold the drifting sand failed to accomplish the purpose and most of the road was covered by sand dunes.

Clearing of the southern 15 miles of the stretch, between the Norias ranch headquarters and the Wilkay-Kenedy county line on the south, was under way and grading will start within a short time.

In addition to the Norias ranch, there are four other great ranches for the cattle domain known as the King ranch. They are the LaBrea ranch, the Santa Gertrudis ranch, the Encino ranch (formerly known as Lasater ranch), and the San Antonio Viejo ranch. Their 900,000-odd acres sprawl over Kenedy, Wilkay, Kleberg, Jim Wells, Jim Hogg, Nueces, Hidalgo and Starr counties.

The new highway, long desired by South Texas residents, will provide a more direct route between the Lower Rio Grande Valley and Houston.

The ranch game preserves, the cause of long-standing bitterness between the ranch operators and their neighbors, will be maintained, however.

The highway also will be carefully fenced off to keep cattle and highway vehicles separated.

Boy, 16, Charged in Child's Death

Held for investigation since shortly after the mutilated body of 6-year-old Shirley Ann Woodburn was found near her home in Cincinnati, Lindbergh Heist Trent, above, has been charged with the murder of the child. Detectives announced that the 16-year-old Trent had confessed stabbing the child to death, but the youth told reporters he couldn't remember committing the crime.

Local directors of the West Central Texas Oil and Gas association have been notified by J. C. Hunter of Abilene, president, that the organization will have a business meeting June 25 at Brownwood.

The meeting will be in the afternoon at the Lake Brownwood state park clubhouse and a dinner is on the schedule for the evening at the same site.

Freak Accident Injures Parachuter

CARROLLTON, Ohio.—Miss Marthie Modranski, 18, of Amsterdam, Ohio, "landed" in Stuebenville hospital as the result of a freak airplane accident during an air show.

Miss Modranski was waiting to do her first parachute leap when the plane which was to carry her aloft swung out of control, while landing, and knocked her to the ground.

Rod Rider Pays Fare; Gets Excursion Rate

VANCOUVER.—Canadian National Railways received a pleasant shock when a "rod rider" wanted to pay his fare.

They received a request to name their price for a ride stolen on a freight train to the coast from a small Saskatchewan town last spring. The rider remained anonymous.

Grateful railway officials, seeking to name the lowest fare, checked back to the date mentioned and found there was a cheap excursion in operation at the time.

It is believed the rider obtained work in the lumber industry on Vancouver Island after the stolen ride.

CLUE BELIEVED FOUND IN A KIDNAP CASE

PRINCETON, Fla., June 3.—Searchers discovered a blood-stained fragment of cloth in a water-filled rock pit at Tavineel near the Florida Keys today. Federal agents sent divers into the pit in an effort to learn whether it might reveal the fate of kidnapped Jimmy Cash.

G-men, rushed and massed here for the most intensive kidnap drive in several years, rushed south upon learning of the discovery.

They took the cloth fragment for immediate analysis, while divers and boatmen began investigating the deep pit.

Federal agents refused to discuss whether the discovery had major significance in the man who kidnaped the five-year-old boy and failed to return him after collecting $10,000 ransom.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va.—A survey of automobiles in the restored colonial capital of Virginia has disclosed that out-of-state cars far outnumber local and state vehicles.

The check of 400 automobiles showed visitors from 21 states, all viewing the $15,000,000 restoration work made possible through a gift of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., while only 83 cars were from Virginia and 29 local.

The District of Columbia and Canada also were represented.

New York headed the list with 129 cars.

Receive Approval For Yellow Mound, Lake Road Route

Final approval for the Eastland-Yellow Mound and Bedford school house road project has been received by A. F. Taylor, county engineer, and work will start Saturday.

This project is in precinct one, of which Henry Davenport is commissioner, and constitutes 9.5 miles.

Starting at the point near the Magnolia Petroleum company warehouse, the roads will be widened, hills cut down and fences moved back.

The entire project, costing $50,773, will take eight months to complete. It will consume 77,888 man-hours of labor, employing 118 men on the project. There will be 14,600 yards of road grading, 9,000 yards of fill and 498 yards of stonemasonry. Three carloads of cement will be used on 24 drainage structures.

An important feature of the construction will include raising the approaches and the bridge over the City lake two feet.

Commissioner Davenport has made untiring efforts to bring this project to a head and the able assistance of Engineer Taylor and members of the commissioners' court, and the full cooperation of the WPA administrators brought the project to begin work.

The entire area covered will open new trade territory for Eastland and will improve the travel of those who previously have been compelled to put up with bad roads during the rainy season.

Welles revealed he had discussed the statement with President Roosevelt, thus giving direct presidential approval to the statement denouncing the aerial bombings.

Jurors Favorable To Defendant In Fall Damage Suit

Special issue answers in favor of the defendant were returned Thursday afternoon by 88th district court in the damage suit of Roy Scott of Abilene against the Pipkin Grocery company.

Scott was seeking damages, asserting the cause of action was a fall on the Pipkin grocery store floor at Odessa, Nov. 16, 1937, resulting in an alleged injured knee. He alleged the floor was slippery.

Judgment is yet to be prepared although it was conceded that the plaintiff take nothing against the defendant.

South May Lose Its Place In the Cotton Industry

HOUSTON.—Unless it changes its policies, the South faces the prospect of losing its dominant place in the cotton industry, according to W. L. Clayton, the world's leading cotton merchant.

In ten years, the South's cotton exports have dropped more than 50 per cent, Clayton pointed out in an address before the Foreign Trade Association.

"The cotton industry is now very sick," he said. "Its future in this country is not very bright."

"We have to supply cotton of good quality at competitive prices and we have to make it possible for our foreign customers to pay us."

The administration's policy of making reciprocal trade agreements must be maintained and must be defended against the attacks of persons "who would throw the tariff back into politics."

Clayton believes that government control of the cotton industry should be abandoned, however, except for administration of the soil conservation act.

"Government control of marketing and production of cotton, except such incidental control as may come from administration of the soil conservation act, should now be abandoned in order to permit the free flow of the commodity in world markets at competitive prices," he said.

The farmers also must grow better cotton, he added.

"We must grow better cotton at less cost," he said. "Markets for cotton go to those suppliers who can furnish the best quality at the lowest price."

"The conservation and rebuilding of the soil, better seed, and insect control mean better quality with better yields, hence a lower cost of production."

Emphasizing the necessity for regaining markets that have been lost in recent years, Clayton pointed out that cotton, under normal production, gives employment to more than twice as many persons as are employed in the growing of wheat, corn, oats and tobacco combined.

SEVEN KILLED; FOUR MAY DIE IN ACCIDENTS

The death list in two Texas highway accidents stood at seven Friday and at least four other persons were so critically injured that physicians gave them little chance for recovery.

They were victims of two accidents occurring late Thursday. Bodies of six of the victims of wrecks near Stephenville and Huntsville were burned.

Four persons died near Stephenville when a bus chartered by Eddie Martinez and his orchestra, enroute to Oklahoma City for an engagement, collided with a cattle truck.

The bus overturned and was burned.

The dead were W. W. Matthews, 30, San Antonio, driver of the bus; Frances Valdez, 18, and Flora Garcia, 20, members of the orchestra; and Herman Lemons, 18, Junction, the truck driver.

Bodies of all the victims except Miss Garcia were burned badly.

Sixteen other victims of the same accident were receiving treatment at Stephenville today. Doctors said they expected them all to recover.

The other crash, near Huntsville, involved three trucks. Dr. W. M. Rush, 50, veterinarian at the Texas state penitentiary; S. E. Abley, Houston, the truck driver, and an unidentified hitch-hiker were killed.

The wreck occurred when Ables, driving an oil transport, struck a light truck and was knocked into a prison truck.

Dewey Fowler, a trusty from the prison, suffered critical burns. The hitch-hiker, riding with Ables, was burned beyond recognition.

Fugitive Holds a Cell Key for Two

HUNTSVILLE, June 3.—The G-men rate Charles Chapman, escaped convict and once a respected Arkansas road contractor, as one of the cleverest robbers at large today and would like to catch him to set at rest the fears of bankers throughout the country.

But Ovid Mathis and I. L. Sutherland, serving long terms in prison for bank robbery, want him captured for an entirely different reason. They believe that prison bars for Chapman would mean freedom for them.

Before leading a spectacular escape from Eastham prison farm on July 8, 1937, Chapman confessed to officers that he robbed the First National Bank of Atlanta, Tex., on June 6, 1934—the crime for which Mathis received a 30 year sentence and Sutherland 60 years.

Legal machinery was in motion in federal court at Beaumont to reopen the robbery case and free Mathis and Sutherland when Chapman escaped with 27 other convicts from Eastham. He was the only fugitive who was not captured or killed.

Mathis has been working in the cotton fields at Central State conviction in September, 1934. Sutherland has been working in the prison print shop here since October of that year.

Chapman was a road contractor and suffered financial reverses during 1932. He tried to recoup his fortunes by robbing a bank at Camden, Ark. After several more robberies, he was captured in Mississippi on Oct. 20, 1934, and sent to Arkansas prison.

He escaped on Aug. 25, 1936, from Tucker prison farm, Ark., and six days later was shot and captured after robbing the bank at Atlanta. He was given a 60-year sentence for the robbery.

After being sent to Eastham, Chapman called officers and told them that Mathis and Sutherland were innocent.

"I robbed the Atlanta bank both times," Chapman said. "I heard they had convicted some other guys in the first case, and I went back to see if they would recognize me."

On the strength of this statement, the federal grand jury at Beaumont indicted Chapman in March, 1937, for the first Atlanta bank robbery, but before he could be brought to trial he escaped.

And so Mathis and Sutherland work away the days in prison, having 27 and 47 years respectively to serve for a crime that Chapman, not they, confessed committing.

SUBTERRANEAN ANTI-AIR RAID "MANSIONS"—Zurich, Switzerland—Elaborate preparations are being made to protect this city's inhabitants from air raid attacks with the construction of special underground "mansions" which are gas and bomb proof. These "mansions" will be fifty feet below the surface, will hold 200 persons, and will be equipped on each of three floors with air pumps which can be worked by pedal machines similar to bicycles.

HERO AT THREE—Philadelphia, Pa.—Charles Ruffo, 3, and Agnes Gander, 2, shown in hospital after their rescue from the icy waters of an old reservoir, into which they had fallen. Charles clung to Agnes and an old milk box until rescuers arrived to pull them out.

UN - HAPPY NEW YEAR—The traditional gaiety of the Chinese New Year celebration is lacking from this scene as these two little Chinese girls place offerings at the altars of their ancestral shrine and offer up prayers for peace in the undeclared war between Japan and China.

PHILADELPHIA will this year open the new Atwater Kent Museum designed to illustrate the first chapter in American history, with mementoes and manuscripts portraying important events in the formation of the American government. Purchasing for the purpose a monumental building erected in 1825, A. Atwater Kent has thoroughly repaired what for a century was a monument to American scientific and industrial progress, preserving an outstanding example of early American architecture.

A HAIR-RAISER—At first glance it appears that the charming Miss Priscilla Lane's lovely hair is electrified, but no, this unusual shot was made while Miss Priscilla was reclining upon a sofa.

CUTTING THE DEATH RATE—Every time this young lady in a Pittsburgh glass factory sends another sheet of plastic binder through the washer, she's helping to prevent serious auto accidents, according to Consumers Information. This plastic forms the center layer in safety glass now used in all American cars, and prevents the flying fragments which once caused many deaths—another example of how industry tries to protect the consumer.

HURDLING LAMB—Farm workers of Westerham, Kent, England, are amazed at the ability of this lamb to hurdle obstacles in its stride.

PAUL E. HADLICK, Secretary and Counsel of the National Oil Marketers Association, the organization whose complaint to Attorney General Cummings resulted in the grand jury investigation, trial and conviction of the 16 major oil companies and 30 of their executives for conspiracy to violate the Federal Anti-Trust laws.

TRIBESMAN IN THE AGGIE LEAGUE—Buchanan, Ga.—John Whitlow (White) Wyatt, who, when not operating with the mound staff of the Cleveland Indians, finds that working on his farm here helps him keep in condition.

IN THE FEMININE WORLD—(1) Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Friedman, America's only woman cryptanalyst, who recently helped break up one of the biggest smuggling rings on the Pacific Coast, by translating twenty-seven Chinese code cablegrams. (2) Mlle. Nadia Boulanger, who will be the first woman ever to conduct the Boston Symphony Orchestra. (3) Miss Patty Berg, 19-year-old Minneapolis golfer, who has won the Grace Doherty trophy for the third consecutive year.

COME IN - THE WATER'S FINE—Maurine Shipp and Gene Loftin of Long Beach, Calif., measure the temperature of the ocean with the world's largest thermometer.

FASHION ON PARADE

(1) A dress coat of navy wool on fitted lines. The straw hat is white and navy. (2) A black and dull gold woolen one-piece dress with knife pleated skirt and cutaway bolero, the latter lined with dull gold silk taffeta. The jaunty pill-box hat completes the picture. (3) A print pleated dress in sky blue and black, topped off by a black cat heel hat.

Arkansas Case Is New Light on Gangsters

Although no American city has yet turned wholly sinless and sat down piously to await the wholesale distribution of harps and haloes, it is nevertheless true that we don't hear nearly as much about gangsters and the underworld as we used to hear.

This is partly because the G-men and other law enforcement agencies have done some pretty effective work. Even more, however, it is simply because the gangsters and the underworld have ceased to be news. Gangs and underworlds still exist; less defiant, less cocky, perhaps, but still in business.

So any new light we can get on the way commercialized crime operates is worth getting and worth thinking about. We shan't really win the long war with gangsterism until we understand fully how and why gangsterism exists; and some valuable light on the subject is provided by a recent happening in Arkansas.

There the G-men arrested five men and two women on charges of harboring Alvin Karpis, who once was rated one of the nation's most energetic public enemies, back in 1935. Among those arrested were an ex-chief of police, an ex-detective chief, an ex-detective lieutenant and the former manager of the Hot Springs municipal airport.

All of which is interesting for two reasons. First, because it shows clearly that the big shot criminals do not operate on their own. Their "gangs" are not made up solely of low-browed thugs and coke-sniffing killers; they depend for their existence on the active co-operation of respected people.

Gangsters have to move from place to place. They have to hide out from the law. And they don't slink furtively about like trembling fugitives in a moving picture. They have their friends, their "connections," who take care of them. They are able to live outside the law because supposedly decent folk help them to live that way.

Second, they can't operate an understanding with the forces of law and order. Pat Roche, the famous Chicago detective, once remarked caustically that a one-armed prohibition agent on a bicycle could have dried up Chicago in a week if he had really tried; and the implications of that remark are true of all gangs at all times and places. Crime flourishes when the police let it flourish—not otherwise.

So these arrests in Arkansas are worth thinking about. Rounding up the people who enabled a public enemy to operate is less spectacular work than nabbing the public enemy himself; in the long run, however, it is the most important part of the job of gang-busting.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM CONGRESSMAN
CLYDE L. GARRETT

Housing
The House Committee on Banking and Currency has approved a bill proposing an increase of the Federal Housing Authority's capital from $500,000,000 to $800,000,000 by sale of additional Housing Authority bonds and making the proceeds available immediately. A waiver for one year of the present requirement, that localities must put up 10 per cent of a slum-clearance and low-cost housing project was written into the bill.

Civil Aeronautics
The adoption by the House of a bill creating a three-man Civil Aeronautics Authority, advances the movement to coordinate civil aviation regulation a step further. The bill adopted matches the bill adopted by the Senate except for a clause restricting the President's power to remove members of the regulatory body. The Senate bill had removed that clause. The bill will now go to conference where it will resume the fight over an "independent" Authority demanded by Senator McCarran. A five member authority would be created by the Senate bill.

Navy Bill
The President's signature has been affixed on the Navy Expansion bill which authorizes the expenditure of $1,090,656,000 to enlarge the United States Navy 20 per cent. It is believed there will be an early appropriation of $20,000,000 for the construction of two cruisers, four seaplane tenders, and possibly an aircraft carrier.

Transportation.
Commitment to Eastman before the House Interstate Commerce Committee has advocated enactment at this session of a bill drafted by the Interstate Commerce Commission to facilitate administration of motor carrier laws. Granting of temporary operating authority to meet emergencies pending formal granting of permission would be allowed the Commission. It would permit suspension of licenses, not revocation, upon reasonable notice to motor carriers without hearings, for not complying with I. C. C. requirements.

Banking.
A bill introduced by Chairman Steagall of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, would repeal that provision of law that denies Federal deposit insurance to State banks which do not belong to the Federal Reserve System. The proposal is now before the Committee.

Dry Skim Milk for Needy.
The AAA announced that the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation has issued invitations to manufacturers throughout the U. S. for bids on 8 million pounds of skim milk powder. As under previous programs, all of the dry skim milk purchased will be distributed to needy people through State relief agencies. The 8 million pounds of dry skim milk powder spring and summer months. Marketings of well-finished, grain fed cattle are expected to increase seasonally during the next 3 or 4 months, and by summer and fall these better grades will be considerably more plentiful than a year earlier. Prices of finished cattle usually advance during the early summer. But such advance is not likely this year, partly because of the current weakness in consumer demand for meats. In the late summer and fall, however, some seasonal advance may occur in prices of the better grades of slaughter cattle.

$105,000,000 Paid to Jobless Workers

With almost $105,000,000 in unemployment benefits paid to insured jobless workers in 25 States during the first 4 months of 1938, unemployment insurance is accomplishing exactly what the proponents of the Social Security Act intended. The unemployment insurance funds are flowing back into the local communities and are being spent for food, rent, clothing, and services. They sustain to an appreciable extent the purchasing power of workers whose normal means of livelihood have been temporarily cut off, and thereby act as a brake on the downward trend of business and employment. Moreover, unemployment insurance means earned benefits to the workers, not a handout; a fact which has a very great effect on morale.

Farm Mortgages
The Federal Housing Administration has started to insure mortgages on farm properties. Amendments to the National Housing Act passed in February permit the Administrator to insure mortgage loans made on farms on which farm houses or other farm buildings are to be constructed or repaired, provided at least 15% of the loan proceeds is expended for materials and labor on building. Rules and regulations covering these loans have now been prepared by the FHA.

BREAKFAST: Strawberries are one of the finest of summer sports, and so is cooking them.

Do you know how to wash berries properly? Wash them just before you're ready to use them. To keep them from mashing, rinse the strawberries carefully, a few at a time, in a pan of water. Do not let the water fall on them with force. Lift the berries out of the water rather than pour the water off. That way the sand or oil that settles to the bottom won't lodge again on the berries. Do not let the berries stay in water any longer than is necessary or they'll lose color and flavor. Remove caps only after the berries are thoroughly washed.

Preserves for winter's breakfast
That's a lovely thought. Let's begin.

Strawberry Preserves
Select large, firm, tart berries. Wash, drain and remove caps. For each pound of fruit use 1 pound of sugar.

Combine the fruit and sugar in alternate layers and let stand 8 to 10 hours or overnight before cooking.

While heating to boiling, stir carefully. Boil rapidly for 15 to 20 minutes or until the syrup is somewhat thick, taking care to prevent burning. Remove scum. Fill hot sterilized jars three-fourths full of the berries, pour enough syrup to completely fill the containers and seal.

Strawberry Sun Preserves
These preserves can be made only if there is sufficient hot sunshine to cause rapid evaporation. Prepare choice berries as in the recipe above. For each pound of BREAKFAST: Strawberries with stems, powdered sugar omelet with garden herb buttered toast, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Hot baked rolls, sliced tomatoes, nut cookies, iced tea, milk.
DINNER: Creamed ham and green peppers, steamed rice, peas, mint and lettuce salad, peaches and cream, brown sugar, coffee, milk.

These choice berries allow 1 pound of sugar and 1 teaspoon lemon juice.

Prepare a syrup from the juice of less perfect berries and strain. To do this, crush small berries, then stir them while cooking about 3 minutes. Strain.

To each pound of choice berries allow one-fourth cup of the juice and 1 pound of sugar. Heat slowly until the sugar is completely dissolved. Add the berries to the syrup and simmer for 5 minutes.

Drain the berries from the syrup and place about an inch on shallow enameled pan or china platters. Boil the syrup about 10 minutes or to 22 after that happens. Remove the scum, was happy among the lemon juice, and pour the syrup in a thin layer over the berries. Cover with window and hard, so he prepared up about 1-4 inch onward.

This is how COMFORT COOLING works

A glance at the cut-away illustration above shows how a Comfort Cooling system brings air in through windows and out through openings in the gables or eaves. Superheated air in the attic is blown outside, eliminating the oven-like effect in rooms which causes so much discomfort. Instead, breezes in every room make you comfortable by evaporating moisture on clothing and skin surfaces—Nature's way of cooling.

Thieves Not Expected To Take Inscription On Marker Literally

By United Press

AUSTIN, Tex. — There certainly would be great consternation over Texas if metal thieves should take literally the inscription on the marker that directs travelers from Highway 112 to the site of the first shot fired in the Texas war for independence.

"Come and take it," the defiant reply given by the Texans at Gonzales to the demand of the Mexican troops for surrender of the garrison cannon, is a part of the bronze plaque on the large marker.

Should metal thieves decide to "come and take it," their attempt probably would be as disastrous to them as the Mexicans' attempt to get the cannon. Precautions to guard it are said to have been made secretly.

Cooling System Is Installed by Local Man In Restaurant

Completion of installation of an evaporated cooling system in the Mike Andrews cafe in Eastland was announced Friday by Fred Michael of the Michael Electric company. Michael assembled and installed the system.

Operating with two motors, the unit is declared capable of reducing the cafe temperature 25 degrees. It has a capacity of washing, purifying and cooling 8,200 cubic feet of air every minute.

It operates with two 1-8 horse power motors and two 19 1-4 inch fans.

The air is drawn from the outside of the cafe and passes through a specially treated cottonwood excelsior in which is pumped water. From there the air is propelled into the cafe's interior.

The cooling system may be operated at three speeds.
