Loboes, With Six First Places in County Meet, May Find Going Plenty Interesting At Stephenville.

Although the Cisco Loboes won the recent county track meet over the Eastland Mavericks, 67 to 44 it is almost a certainty that the competition between these two schools in the district meet will be much closer. It is not beyond the realm of possibility that Eastland will outscore Cisco in the events at Stephenville ten days hence.

In the county meet, Cisco captured six first places to five for Eastland. The competition is of course keener at the district meet when the cream of the athletes of Breckenridge, Strawn, Mineral Wells and other cities must be met. Consequently a lad who takes a first place in a county meet may be able to finish no higher than third or fourth in the district events and an athlete who came in third in a contest at Ranger last Saturday stands a good chance of not placing at Stephenville.

Cisco captured first in pole vault, discus, 440 dash, broad jump, javelin and high jump. Eastland finished first in the 100 yard dash, 220 dash, low hurdles, high hurdles and the mile run. Ranger is, of course, out of the running for the district championship as the Bulldogs took only two first places in the county meet—the relay and the half mile run.

It will be noted that Cisco's first places were, with only one exception, in field events—a department in which Eastland and Ranger could give the Loboes very little competition. If the other schools in the district have some weight men and jumpers, the Gold and Black team will lose some points.

On the other hand, of course, if the other teams in the district have exceptional sprinters and hurdlers, the Mavericks' total will suffer.

At any rate, the race between Cisco and Eastland will prove interesting. The odds naturally favor the Loboes' larger squad which won the county meet handily. But Eastland recalls 1926 when Ranger won the county meet and the Mavericks then captured district honors.

COBB, SPEAKER QUIT MAJORS

By GEORGE KIRKSEY, United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, April 3.—Two familiar figures will be missing from the American League this season for the first time in more than a score of years, but there are many colorful veterans left in the major leagues who are looking forward to another successful season.

After 24 seasons in the American League, Ty Cobb has announced his retirement. Cobb's life-time major league batting average is .367. Many fans regret Cobb's decision and would like to see him play again this season and be the first player to complete 25 years' consecutive service in the major leagues.

Although Tris Speaker will not play in the American League for the first time since 1908, the silver-haired outfielder is not through with baseball and hopes to come back to the major leagues as a manager. He will manage the Newark International League club this season—a post from which Walter Johnson graduated to the leadership of the Washington Senators.

There are twelve players left in the major leagues who have completed 15 years of service and seven others who will begin their fifteenth season April 16.

When the Speed Boat Title Went to England

A broken steering apparatus spelled defeat for Gar Wood, American veteran of aquatic race tracks, when he pitted his trim "Miss America VII" against Major H. O. D. Segrave's "Miss England" on Biscayne Bay, Florida. Pictured here are scenes from the second day's race, when Wood finished fourth of a lap ahead of the English speed king but lost the event because of his unfortunate showing the first day. The aerial photo at the right shows the two speedboats thundering down the twelve-mile course. Wood well in the lead. Upper left, the two crafts are shown bow to bow earlier in the race. Lower left, Wood (left) congratulates Major Segrave on his victory.

Money Will Roll in When Race Gets to "the Sticks," Promoter Says—Chambers of Commerce Will Help.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—Although C. C. Pyle beamed cheerfully as his "Bunioneers" started for Wilmington today, during the camp's stay here it was indicated his 1929 version of the trans-continental race was not being run over a road of roses.

He found some of his runners threatening to leave unless guaranteed more expense money, the crowds rather small, and his chorus girls threatening to mutiny. Pyle smiled and granted all requests for press interviews.

Ken Mullan, Philadelphia's entry in the race, served notice he would quit unless he could obtain a guarantee of more money. Other runners, sore from the three days' racing, were debating quitting.

Ranger Fishhook Followers Bring First One Home

(Ranger Times) The first fish yarn of the season has arrived, but it isn't any yarn at all, because the fish is present. Three followers of the trot-line—Wilson Connell, Alfred Glenn and Rex Abney—are responsible for the first "big-un" of the year. A 20-pound yellow catfish was on display by the trio this morning. It was caught in the Brazos river, somewhere in Palo Pinto county.

GASOLINE PLUS FIRE IS FATAL

By United Press. LUBBOCK, Tex., April 3.—A. C. Howell, 37, of Lubbock, ran out of gasoline on the highway 16 miles from town. The night was cold and, while waiting for a passing car from which he might obtain aid, Howell built a fire from twigs and dried "tumble weeds" he found by the roadside. After a few minutes, a car came along. He hailed it. "Sure, you can have some," came the answer from the driver and Howell sprawled underneath the car to drain gasoline from the gas tank. A wind was blowing and the oil was sprayed over his face, arms and clothing. With the can filled, Howell stepped back near the fire to warm before putting the gasoline in his own car. His clothing ignited and he was wreathed in flames before aid could come. He died at a hospital here Tuesday.

Improvements Being Made On The Broadway

Eastland County Witnessing Widening of Famous Highway to Add to Facilities For Ever - Increasing Traffic.

The State Highway department is now engaged in widening the highway east and west through Eastland county. A concrete/shoulder is to be added on each side of the present highway and in addition to that there will be a ten-foot dirt shoulder on each side. All this will go to make travel safer. Three cars can meet abreast with perfect safety, though of course, that is never a wise procedure, but sometimes unavoidable. Then there is that exceedingly dangerous thing of stopping the car about half way off the pavement to fix a flat or to make some minor repair on the motor. This will no longer be necessary as there will almost be room enough to pitch a tent on the shoulder. Personally the writer believes that there should be a minimum fine of one hundred dollars and an unlimited maximum fine for anyone who stops for any reason whatever with any part of the automobile on the pavement to endanger the lives of other drivers and their own, which by the way, they evidently do not value very highly to do a thing as completely idiotic. Judge B. L. Russell of Baird and a director of the Broadway of America Association has outlined a plan whereby the Broadway from coast to coast would be lighted as though it were a city street, he also advocates the planting of trees at regular intervals over the complete course. Some will say that the idea is absurd and a very pretty dream; it is pretty and we venture to say that there are many people now in their middle age who will see it before they are too old to take their regular summer tour. But the beauty is not the only thing as there is the safety it would assure for those who desire or whom necessity has caused to do night driving. Think of it; a white way from coast to coast brilliantly lighted and bordered by beautiful trees which on one part of the route would be budding out a little further on fully leaved, and on the last lap in the multitude of autumn colors. It is not impossible; start in New York state and tour through Texas and end up in California; what a variety of seasons to be encountered in a few brief days.

Prepare to Take Up Louisiana Charges

BATON ROUGE, La., April 3.—Having disposed of a concerted legal attempt to prevent or delay impeachment proceedings against Gov. Huey P. Long, leaders of the majority insurgent group in the Louisiana House of Representatives proceeded to organize today for a speedy hearing of 19 charges pending against him. By a vote of 64 to 28, the House last night upheld its action in seeking impeachment of the State executive after receiving an opinion from Attorney General Percy Saint which declared the proceedings legal. Administration supporters had protested the entire procedure on the ground that it did not conform with a statute of 1855 which, they said, required that a private citizen render an affidavit of impeachment before such action against a high official could be taken. Attorney General Baint, based his opinion on the constitution of 1921, which supersedes the older law and which, he said, gives the House of Representatives full power to bring impeachment charges.

NEW YORK, April 3.—"Wild Bill" Mehlhorn, and Tommy Armour, former national open champion, will sail for England along with the ten members of the United States Ryder cup team on the Cunard liner Mauretania a week from today. Mehlhorn and Armour will play in the British open at Muirfield, Scotland, beginning May 6.
