INVESTIGATION OF TOM HICKMAN PROPOSED

that reminds me...
A Vio Delmar...
there are always two things most any one can talk about. One is the weather and the other is how you did this morning? are as a rule automatic. Ever since we did any talking has been things happening the weather. A hot sultry phase was suddenly changed of cold and drizzly and then suddenly to one of clear cold. Now then this morning just exactly like the doctor and if it keeps up peanuts means will begin moving like his business. It is a pity that have about a jillion turn in the community and a big killing plant working day night. Lots of money in those. Well anyway, we'll make out of what we've got and it will end up good.

Mussolini's Pet Has Pet, Too

While her father molds the destiny of Italy, and her two big brothers and brother-in-law risk death in their planes over Ethiopia, Anna Maria Mussolini is apparently the picture of serenity as she plays with the family pet in her northern Italian home. She's 11 Duce's youngest child.

EASTLAND CAR WRECK INJURES SEVEN PEOPLE

One Eastland resident received a broken rib and four others received minor injuries in an automobile accident about two miles west of Eastland on the Cisco highway Sunday night. Miss Lillian Smith sustained the broken rib injury when a car in which she was riding with Miss Marjorie Spencer, Eastland, and Dick Middleton and Bill Alsop of Olden hit a vehicle with occupants from Abilene. First aid and other treatment was rendered at the Payne hospital in Eastland for the Abileneans, Paul Kay, Van Roberts and Weldon Johnson. The Abilene group were enroute to Ranger. The Eastland automobile was headed toward Cisco when the accident, which damaged both machines considerably, occurred. It was not known definitely how the accident occurred.

Supreme Court Veteran Is 79

Reaching his 79th birthday Nov. 12, Associate Justice Louis D. Brandeis, of the U. S. Supreme Court, shown here in an interesting character study, is nearing 20 years of service on the nation's highest tribunal. His lucid reasoning and liberal attitude have been a shining mark in the court's deliberations. He is today the oldest member of the body. Brandeis' influence, through his writings and contacts with younger men, has spread far beyond the court chamber.

MUSSOLINI IS SCORNFUL OF ALL SANCTIONS

Mussolini in his latest defiance of the League and its sanctions, has offered to take on all comers among the nations in economic warfare. The belligerent Italian dictator has notified some 50 nations that if they adopt the League program of penalties Italy will retaliate with penalties designed to hurt them more than they hurt Italy. There is an implied threat the economic balance of the world will be upset and recovery retarded. Probably as a sample of what he can do he has decreed that Italy cannot sell goods to France, her economic ally, except for cash. There is a boycott in effect in Italy against buying foreign goods, especially English, in Italian shops. The situation, therefore, is due to get worse instead of better after Monday when League penalties go into effect. The tension in Europe is likely to increase. The atmosphere is one of hostility in which some incident might occur to precipitate a conflict.

Loboes, Bulldogs Will Play Friday At Chesley Field

Because of the cold weather and the rain which fell throughout the morning and most of the afternoon Monday, the Cisco-Ranger football game, scheduled to be played Armistice Day, was postponed until Friday afternoon, Nov. 15, by agreement between the officials of the two schools. Only one game has been scheduled for the week-end, with Breckenridge playing at Sweetwater on Saturday, Nov. 16, so there will be no conflicting engagements in the Oil Belt when the game is played this week-end. The Loboes have been primed for the Bulldogs since early season, when it was apparent that the Ranger game presented the only chance the Loboes had of a district victory, while the Ranger team has been revamped and improved considerably since its disastrous defeats throughout the season, and Coach Moore is hopeful that the changes made in the team will give the Bulldogs enough punch to score a victory over their ancient rivals. At Breckenridge Monday afternoon the Buckaroos won a one-sided game from the Abilene Eagles in a game played in extremely cold weather, the Buckaroos, powerhousing their way through the Eagle line to a 26 to 0 victory. The victory by the Buckaroos tied the record, made by the same team in 1929, for the most decisive defeats the Eagles have sustained in modern football history. The Buckaroos have but one game, that with Ranger, between them and the district title, and feel confident of taking the district honors without much trouble, because of the poor showing made by the Bulldogs to date. A larger crowd is anticipated for the game at Cisco next Friday, if the weather is good, than would have been present Monday afternoon and since both teams have another week in which to iron out their weaknesses a better game is anticipated.

SUSPENSION URGED IN A RESOLUTION

Allred Said the Commission "Did It's Duty" After Move Started in the House. Earlier Gov. James V. Allred told newspaper correspondents he thought the safety commission "did its duty" but declined other comments on Hickman's case. Hanna's resolution, signed also by Fort Worth's representative, Clarence Farmer, met stiff opposition. Vote on it may be reached tomorrow. It asked appointment of a three-member committee with $500 as an investigation fund. "It has become common knowledge that Tom Hickman, Ranger captain in the service of the Texas Public Safety commission, has been notified of his discharge for reasons beclouded in mystery and which has given rise to many rumors, striking at high public officials, baseless of otherwise." Hanna said Hickman reportedly "found prominent men" in his fruitless raids on a gambling spot near Fort Worth. Several nights later two other Rangers raided the place and confiscated gambling equipment. Hanna cited other instances reported of dissension in the Safety Department but said, "I don't want to call any names."

State Education Chief to Attend Teacher Meeting

State Supt. of Education L. A. Woods will attend the county teachers institute in Eastland Dec. 6 and 7, County Superintendent C. S. Eldridge announced.

Churchman Tells Jury of Assault

An assault in which he was chased from his residence by Dick Pennington of Gorman was related by Rev. R. E. Bowden, Gorman Church of God pastor, to jurors Tuesday morning in 91st District court.

Armory Robbery Case Dismissed

ABILENE, Nov. 12.—A case charging the theft of personal property from the United States in which the late Raymond Hamilton, Clyde Barrow, Bonnie Parker and Joe Palmer; Henry Methvin, and Joe Bybee, sentenced for life, all notorious desperadoes, are named defendants was dismissed here Monday by federal court. The case was dismissed on motion of United States Attorney Clyde Eastus.

Bank Conditions Show a Decided Recovery Trend

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 12. Bank deposits and portfolios reflect evidence of great recovery, President Roosevelt told members of the American Bankers Association today in a letter read by Jesse Jones, chairman of the RFC. "I have watched with great interest the continued improvement in banks throughout the country in the past two years. I am gratified as I am sure every member of the American Bankers Association is gratified, to know that all banks are now in a strong position and I hope they will take full advantage of the new banking act and provide credit when it can be done on a sound basis, to business and industry and to real estate," he wrote in his letter.

W. G. Williamson Last Rites Held

Funeral services for W. G. Williamson, 75, resident of Eastland county for 28 years, who died at the home of a son, O. H., seven miles north of Eastland Sunday, were held Tuesday afternoon. Rev. K. C. Edmonds of Ranger officiated at the services in the home of the son, O. H., and burial was in the Eastland cemetery. Mr. Williamson was proprietor of the Eastland Drug store and was a large landowner. He was born March 24, 1860. Survivors include the widow, seven sons, J. L., B. L., L. G., O. H., A. W., D. F., all of Eastland, and M. D. Williamson of Troup; and one daughter, Mrs. L. Owens, Eastland. Pall bearers were R. N. Grisham, Clyde L. Garrett, Tom Preslar, J. F. McWilliams, J. H. Davis, G. C. Kimbrell. Hamner Undertaking Company of Eastland was in charge.

Baptist Workers Meet In Ranger

About 200 pastors, delegates and laymen of the Cisco district of the Baptist church met at the Central Baptist church of Ranger Tuesday in a workers' conference. Rev. Sparkman delivered a sermon during the morning session, with a meal served by the ladies of the church being served at noon. A large number of pastors from over the district were in attendance, with Rev. Hugh Blair, county missionary, having a part on the program. An even larger attendance was anticipated for the afternoon session.

Seamen Saved In Stormy Seas As Vessel Is Wrecked

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 12.—Three Hindu seamen of the ill-fated British freighter Silver Hazel, braved death today in 20-foot waves smashing across southern Luzon coast and reached safety aboard the U. S. S. Peary. The sailors brought a story of grim privation suffered by 52 survivors on the Silver Hazel wreck. The wreck victims, marooned on a small rock without food or water since Saturday when the British vessel struck a reef and broke in half, included three women. While three vessels stood by helpless to aid because of the breakers, the three Hindus launched their craft. It tossed like matchwood but escaped being smashed on the rocks.

Theories Shift In Death of Young Maryland Woman

MOUNT RANIER, Md., Nov. 12. Theories shifted rapidly in the Corinna Loring slaying today and police announced a belief that a "large and powerful" woman might have strangled and beaten the 26-year-old Sunday school teacher and bride-to-be. Police Chief Plummer said he wanted to question a woman who is said to have opposed Corinna's wedding to Richard Tear, 29, hospital attendant. "She was very intimate with the girl, at least, and I know right where she is," Plummer said.

Faculty of Colony School to Have Play Thursday

The faculty of the Colony school will present "Thru the Keyhole" Thursday evening Nov. 14, in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p. m. A small admission charge will be made. The proceeds of the play will go toward the school athletic fund.

ALLRED WILL VETO A SALES TAX HE SAYS

AUSTIN, Nov. 12.—No sales tax will get by Governor Allred's veto under the disguise of being a "selective" tax, he said today. In previous discussions Allred had limited his statements to opposition to a "general" sales tax. Today he omitted the word "general."

Afternoon Tea Hour Invades Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD. — So many American movie stars have been to England recently, either to work on the lots there or to vacation, that Hollywood has taken to a number of English habits. The climax of these is the pause in the day's occupation for a cup of tea at 5 o'clock. The present tea idea is credited to Richard Dix. This actor, returned to the states after making a picture for Gaumont at Elstree, near London, took to England's black tea while working there.

Seeks Award From Insurance Company

Appealing from the industrial accident board, Sam W. Garrett has filed suit in district court against Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company. The plaintiff seeks $2,750 for lung injuries assertedly received while unloading lime two and one-half miles west of Ranger when in employ of the Lone Star Gas Company, Aug. 14, 1934. The case was originally filed in an Eastland county district court, transferred to Abilene federal court, then dismissed in the latter court without prejudice to plaintiff before its refile in Eastland.

Processing Taxes Bring Little Money

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Failure of the treasury to collect more than $150,000,000 in processing taxes since the start of the current fiscal year on July 1, today offered serious threat to the federal government budget plans. Because of the loss in revenue the treasury reported total revenues in the first 120 days of the fiscal year to Nov. 9 were slightly under the same period of last year, although the budget calls for a $670,000,000 gain for the full fiscal year.

Indianan Has Geo. Washington Watch

LAGRANGE, Ind. — A watch once owned by President George Washington, is possessed by Milo Tucker, farmer. President Washington gave the watch to Tucker's great-grandfather, the Rev. Edward Evans, at the close of the Revolutionary War in 1781, and it has been handed down to each succeeding generation. The timepiece is two inches in diameter and seven-eighths of an inch in thickness, with a one-half inch stem. It has two cases, both of a silver color. The outer case must be removed to wind the watch. The hours are marked in Roman numerals, with the minutes marked in figures above the numerals. The days of the month to 31 are inside the numerals. The name of the manufacturer, N. Haushurst, New York, is engraved on the back. The watch ran the last time it was wound, but the winding key has been misplaced. Now that Greece has reverted to a monarchy, patriotic American restaurateurs may begin serving their potatoes a la king George. "New Yorkers startled by sight of shooting stars." And in this era of G-men pictures, too. In that new Manhattan planetarium, the public can get a slant on how things looked to Max in that fatal fourth round.

Pearce Will Address Baptist Group On Sunday

Stuart Pearce, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at the station, will address the Men's Bible Cabinet at the Baptist church Sunday at 9:45. This address is in response to request for repetition of Pearce's Armistice Day address. This speaker is a former in the regular army, and served overseas during the war. He holds a commission as major in the Reserve Corps. He is invited to visit this or this occasion.

WOMAN WRITES LETTER URGING "MERCY DEATH"

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 12.—The plea of a young woman, apparently doomed to lifelong misery that her life be ended "in the name of mercy," fell on deaf ears today. She appealed to a Buffalo Times reporter who had gone to visit her to take down a letter to the medical society. It read: "Two years ago I suffered in-dure in an hour. I am not only in agony myself, I am a burden to my friends. I have no money to pay my bills, I can never be sure where my next meal will come from. This decision was not made hastily. For 749 horrible days I have thought of death and would have taken my own life long ago if I had the courage."

Odds Always Opposed Marital Happiness

Comes now a college professor who has been looking into the state of holy wedlock, and announces that the chances are two to one against a life-long happy marriage for any given set of newlyweds.

The professor—Dr. Lewis M. Terman of Stanford University's psychology department—has studied 300 marriages. Of these, he found that 100 developed into the "happy ever after" stage, another 100 brought definite unhappiness to one or both parties, and the third hundred resulted in divorces.

So he deduces his odds and hands out the result, for the dismay and guidance of ardent young folk who may be contemplating matrimony.

It is typical of the present age, perhaps, to believe that there is something new in a set of figures like these.

Whether we did it through over-much reading of sappy novels, through too much staring at saccharine moving pictures, or simply through a process of wishful thinking, we do seem to have persuaded ourselves that a marriage ought to glide along with the utmost smoothness.

If it doesn't, we pity ourselves intensely and audibly; and if that gets us nowhere we decide that the other party to the domestic equation is an impossible person and a no-good, and we go hiking off for the nearest divorce court.

By looking on marriage through the eyes of romantic 16-year-olds, we leave ourselves utterly unable to meet the inevitable disillusionment; and so we roll up one of the most remarkable divorce records in all history, and when some professor soberly announces that the chances for a happy marriage are only one in three we are shocked and saddened.

What we need to understand is that, while these chances may be slim, they are probably as good now as they ever were or ever will be, and that no one who deserves to be called an adult ought to let such odds worry him.

We get out of marriage just about what we put into it. If we are men and women enough to accept the disillusionments, the petty annoyances, and the occasional quarrels as part of the game and rise superior to them, we can make a go out of marriage—and, in the end, discover that the effort was worth making.

The reason our divorce rate is so scandalously high is that too many people enter into marriage in the spirit of spoiled children, ready to pick up their toys and quit at the first sign of trouble.

So the chances are two to one against a happy marriage? Well, they are at least that great against a happy outcome to any other form of human endeavor. If we would simply realize that fact in advance, and guide ourselves accordingly, we would get along a great deal better.

Soviet husband with 168 wives given 10 years in jail. Authorities undoubtedly reject his plea to make it longer.

THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—No one here who knows the legal racket is taking the American Bar Association's insinuation into tactics of the American Liberty League lawyers' committee very seriously. Leadership of the A. B. A. is commonly considered to share the general viewpoint of the Liberty League boys. If the New Dealers observe anything less than a whitewash of the league committee operations as an unofficial "supreme court" and its offers to advise anyone who considers himself a victim of a New Deal law, they'll consider it a moral victory produced by A. B. A. worries about public opinion.

Nevertheless, clear-cut issues as to ethics are being raised. And it's a distinct development in American history when the young New Deal lawyers—led by the ex-Frankfurter pupils, many of whom have had enough experience in Wall Street to know what it's all about—attack the expensive pundits of the Wall Street bar with charges of chicanery, chicanery, ambulance chasing, and other brands of shysterism. Lawyers seldom give their game away like that.

THE latest charge of government lawyers is that distinguished leaders of the bar—the type who wouldn't touch a case for less than $100,000—are advising public utility holding companies to refuse to comply with the law by registering with the Securities Exchange Commission by Dec. 1.

At a recent secret meeting, it is alleged, John W. Davis—attorney for J. P. Moran and the Edison Electric Institute—urged utility executives not to register, asserting that their refusal would give

Terraces Increase Wheat Production

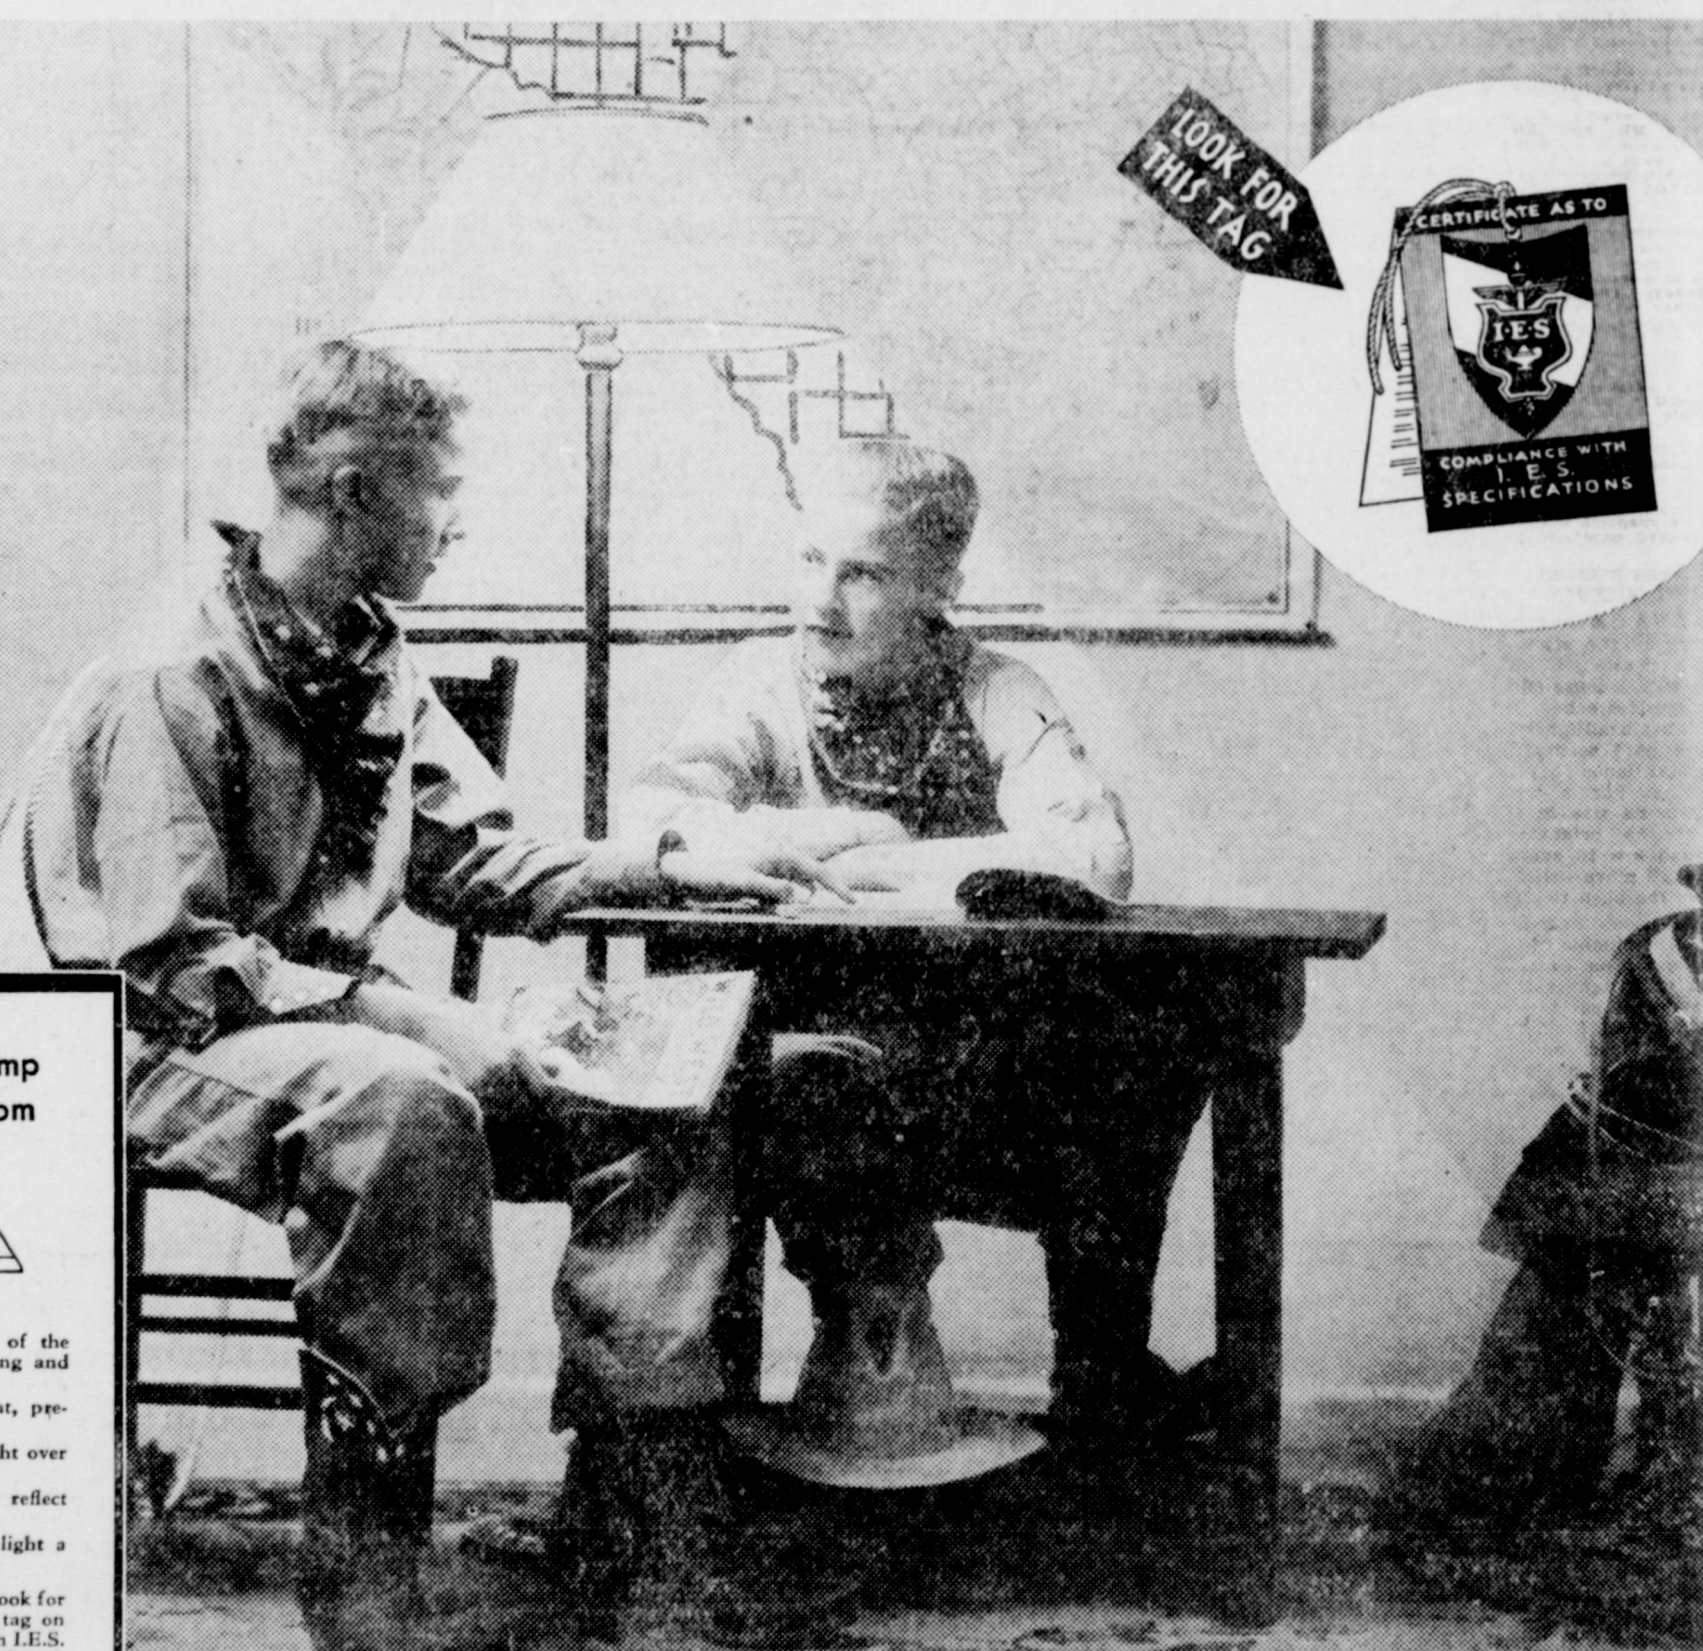

DALHART, Texas.—Terraces and contour farming not only provides the Panhandle farmer the best protection against destructive wind erosion but over a ten-year period will pay for his land, according to Harley A. Daniel, acting director of the Goodwell experiment station.

A ten-year experiment, closing this year, shows wheat production has increased and average of 31.8 bushels per acre by terracing. When the terrace gain in grain per acre was multiplied by the average annual price of grain, based on the Kansas City market, the total calculated increase in per-acre income was $23.33. Figures on increased production were learned by measuring yields on terraced soil with those on adjacent unterraced land.

Terracing costs on the Dalhart Soil Conservation project average, says H. H. Finniell, regional conservator, 77 cents per acre, (exclusive of labor which can be supplied by the farmer). Quoting Finniell further, Daniel says extra cost of cultivating contoured land is from 20 to 50 cents an acre per year. Taking the top of 50 cents, that means in ten years that terracing and contouring costs the farmer $5.77 extra, while his pro-

Killed By Automobiles In 10 Years

More than 8,780 deaths reported to the State Vital Statistics during the past 10 years.

The yearly total increased from 433 in 1925 to 914 automobile deaths in 1934, an increase of 481, or more than 100 per cent.

A tabulation of deaths by months show that the greatest number during each year occurred during October, November and December.

Juanita Sayles Is Married to Resident Of Stamford In Abilene Saturday Night

ABILENE, Nov. 12.—Pioneer families of Abilene were united in the marriage here Saturday evening of Juanita Sayles, daughter of Perry Sayles of Eastland, and Basil Thomas, older son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thomas, of this city. Mrs. Thomas is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Young, South Sayles Boulevard, and of Mrs. Hattie Sayles, 881 Highland Avenue, and the late Henry Sayles, a lawmaker of Texas. Family of Mr. Thomas, grandson of Judge and Mrs. Fred Cockrell of Lakeland, also includes distinguished members of the bar.

Rev. Willis P. Gerhart, rector, read the service at 7 o'clock in the Church of Heavenly Rest, where relatives and a few close friends of the couple were assembled. Altar candles and baskets of white chrysanthemums provided decorations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of rust wool, a Schiaparelli model, with brown beaver collar and cuffs, and accessories of brown. Her bouquet was of bronze amirrhenum and rosebuds.

Only attendant to the bride was her aunt, Mrs. Elmon Hall, who was attired in a Capri model suit of black with silver fur collar. Her corsage was of red carnations.

Fred Thomas served his brother as best man. Following the wedding, guests went to the Young home for an informal reception.

The couple will be at home in Stamford, where Mr. Thomas is engaged in government work. Mrs. Thomas, who has made her home here with her grandparents since the death of her mother in 1930, was a student for a time in Our Lady of Victory, convent, in Fort Worth, and last June was graduated from Mary Hardin-Baylor college, at Belton. Mr. Thomas was educated in Abilene schools, attending Hardin-Simmons university following his graduation from high school.
