the political year dope and is to be expected. Two more days to go... and then it will all be over but the outing for the first primary.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton spoke nearly 2,000 folks Tuesday night on the court house lawn. All were attentive and gave the speaker every courtesy of a good hearer. The Eastland band gave an hour's concert of wonderful music for the benefit of those who came early. Blanton will speak in Ran-cini Shaw tonight at 8:30.

Hon. Clyde Garrett, candidate for congress of the seventeenth district will make a swing over the county for a final drive with his friends and supporters. Friday night on the court house lawn immediately following the county candidate speakers, Judge Garrett will place before the voters his view on his candidacy. It is only this time that Judge Garrett should use his campaign in his home town and county.

Friends of "Bill" McDonald are considerably worried when news came over the wires that he was injured in an automobile crash near Longview. "Bill" has made an active campaign for the office of commissioner of state and commissioner. He is fully qualified and should have the job.
He will be unable to continue an active campaign, due to his injuries, his friends will no doubt keep the vigil of activities to see that he gets elected. Let's all go and vote for Bill.

CONGRESSMAN BLANTON TELLS BIG CROWD AT EASTLAND OF HIS RECORD IN PAST 18 YEARS

Congressman Thomas L. Blanton, making a swing through Eastland county, spoke in the home town of Clyde L. Garrett last night before a crowd estimated at more than 1,500.
In making his principal address of the day the Congressman refrained from any mention of either of his two opponents, but confined his remarks principally to the record he has made in congress in the past 18 years. His talk was enthusiastically received by the huge crowd.
The 2 1/2-hour rally at the court-house was opened with a band concert by the Eastland high school band. Blanton was introduced by J. Frank Sparks, prominent Eastland attorney.
Communism was in for a bitter attack from the fiery congressman tonight. Blanton said an effort was made by communists to repeal a law passed last year known as the "Blanton Red Rider." This law prevents teachers from receiving pay who try to inculcate communism in the schools.
"Why, do you realize that communism teaches there is no God, that churches should be torn down and destroyed, that there is no such thing as morality and that this country should be taken over by force and violence?"
Blanton reported that he held hearings, had the records printed at his own expense and mailed them to schools throughout the county to aid in defeating the communistic move.
"I have been sending you reports of the records from time to time," Blanton declared. "It is not for political reasons that I do this, I am merely trying to let the people of my district know what is actually happening in Washington. It doesn't cost you taxpayers a cent. All of the printing is done at my expense," he continued.
"Since I have been in congress I have certificates from the government printing office to show that I have spent more than $21,000 of my own money to let you people know what ought to be stopped up there."
In his speeches at Rising Star in the morning and Okra in the afternoon, Blanton stressed his position as a friend of the ex-service man and told of his fight for old age pensions.
Blanton, in discussing his sympathy with the veterans, said he was one who favored adjusted pay, pointing out that he helped pass a law to pay the soldiers an extra $1.25 for foreign service.
"The government, however, gave the ex-service men notes due in 1945 and I saw thousands of them die before they received a penny," asserted Blanton. "I then helped to pass a law to let them borrow on the notes, and voted three times for payment of the bonus bonds, the vote finally car-

YOUTH SAVED FROM A MOB NEAR HOUSTON

By United Press
HOUSTON, July 22.—Le Roy Wilson, 21, of Johnson City, N. Y., was saved from a mob which threatened to lynch him at Katy, 10 miles west of Houston, today, for beating C. K. Cott, drug store clerk, with a pistol.
Cott, little more than three and a half feet tall, was beaten on the head shortly after he opened the drug store at Katy. He screams frightened Wilson from the store. Wilson was captured several miles from town.
A mob quickly formed and attacked the prisoner. Deputy Sheriff W. E. Denney of Fort Bend county helped keep off the mob until Harris county deputies came to his aid. They lodged Wilson in jail at Houston.

McDonald Rests From Car Injury

William H. McDonald, Eastland candidate for state land commissioner, rested Wednesday in a hotel at Dallas from injuries received Tuesday when his car figured in a collision near Willis Point.
McDonald's injuries were described in a telephone conversation as "scratches and bruises," the candidate received treatment in a Terrell hospital.
A mail carrier, who was in the other automobile, received minor injuries.
McDonald was enroute from Dallas to a speaking engagement at Longview. It is believed McDonald may fill speaking dates until Saturday.
Boyce House, Ft. Worth, McDonald's press representative, was uninjured.

DALLAS, Tex., July 22.—Miss Luella Lee Weaver, 18, a sophomore at the University of Southern California, was the cause, today, of a "bitter feeling" between three of "Uncle Sam's" fighting forces stationed at the Texas Centennial Exposition. The comely, blue-eyed citizen of Los Angeles, was the Centennial's 2,000,000,000th visitor. Three officers chosen from the military units at the exposition were presented to Miss Weaver and she was told to choose one as an escort.

Oil Industry to Have Houston Show

By United Press
HOUSTON, Texas.—Oil and oil well supply men, representing 90 per cent of the industry in Houston, plan to hold an industry-controlled show here every two years.
They rejected a suggestion by a committee that Houston discontinue its show and support the Tulsa Oil Exposition, on a standing vote called by John Suman, chairman of the meeting.
W. L. Childs warned that if Houston supports an independent show, every city of consequence in the oil districts would insist on holding separate shows. This would force an increase in oil well supply prices, he said.
The oil men voted to appoint a committee of 35 leaders as governing body for the industry-controlled show, who will elect seven men to serve as executive committee.

HIGH COURT WILL RECESS UNTIL FALL

By United Press
AUSTIN, Tex., July 22.—The state supreme court today adjourned until Oct. 6, when it reopens in the fall it will have a number of cases involving construction of state laws.
Arguments on the status of dog racing, set for Oct. 6, will be followed by arguments Oct. 14 on a case to determine rights of public bondholders. The litigation is between Bankers Trust Company and the Breckenridge Independent School District to determine the relative rights of holders of successive bond issues.
The Eastland court of civil appeals held that all claims for existing bonds must be satisfied of taxes before payments on later issues.
The opposing contention is that available tax funds shall be prorated among bondholders.

University Lands Follow Trends of Business World

By United Press
AUSTIN, Texas.—Income from lands of University of Texas has followed closely the nationwide trend of depression and recovery, records of the state land office revealed here.
Since sale of the first lease in 1923 the university has received from oil companies $18,549,580.21 in royalties. In bonuses and rentals $2,026,093 has been received.
Sale of the first lease brought with it the realization that oil companies would pay large sums of money for the privilege of searching for oil on university lands. Business in leases rapidly began to pick up.
In October, 1927, the state received from two companies holding leases at that time $268,552. With the coming of the sudden slump in the oil business, receipts from this source dwindled, until in June, 1933, a record low was reached: $27,563.
Since that time the records show a fairly steady recovery. At present the total remains fairly constant at around $50,000.
Money received from royalties and rentals is placed in the permanent school fund. This fund, the interest of which is at the disposal of the university for salaries, etc., now amounts to approximately $18,000,000.
Money from land leased for grazing goes into an available fund. This fund is used to pay interest on the bonds floated by the university a few years ago to raise money for a new physical plant.
In 1929, after a difference between the land commissioner and the attorney general and governor concerning the amount of land to be leased, the legislature appointed a board to attend to the leasing of university lands. On the board were to be two regents from the university and the land commissioner.
At present there are 154,418.75 acres of university land under oil and gas leases. Of this amount only 17,920 is producing acreage.

CAMPAIGNING SPEEDS UP AS ELECTION NEAR

By United Press
Only three more days of campaigning were left as candidates for office in the Democratic primary next Saturday went at each other hammer and tongs today.
Gov. James V. Alfred was in Houston to defend his record of paroling convicts.
Tom Hunter, final gubernatorial candidate to speak at Fort Worth, will explain his gross income tax Wednesday night.
Pierce Brooks of Dallas addressed two Fort Worth audiences Wednesday.
F. W. Fisher of Tyler told an audience at Fort Arthur Wednesday that if elected he would insist on enactment of a minimum wage law for women and ratification by the legislature of the federal child labor amendment. He will speak tonight at Beaumont.
Governor Alfred's program of pension payments "is a program of discrimination," Senator Roy Sanderford said Wednesday afternoon in an address at Denton.
"Governor Alfred purposely delayed pension payments until the first of July, the first month of elections," Sanderford said.
Injuries in an automobile accident caused W. H. McDonald of Eastland to cancel all his speaking dates in the remaining days of his campaign for state land commissioner. He was still confined to a Dallas hospital as the result of a crash yesterday near Willis Point.

Romance Ebbs As Town Loses Trees

OSSETT, England.—Add this item to the "consequences of the World War":
"Because this textile town devoted itself to making millions of yards of khaki during the war, it lost all its trees, and because it had no leafy parks, no shady "lovers' lanes," the marriage rate has declined almost to zero, according to the Rev. G. H. Marshall, D. S. O., the Vicar of Ossett.
He says he has been prodding the Afforestation department of the Ministry of Agriculture to plant some trees in "the one treeless town in Yorkshire" but he finds them dumb. "They prefer to continue planting trees in the Lake District," he observes impatiently.
Not many people could trace off-hand, he says, any connection between making khaki cloth in 1917 and the local marriage rate 19 years later, but to the inhabitants of Ossett it is plain enough.
"The mills worked day and night," he states, "burning off with sulphuric acid the cotton thread in the shoddy which was later turned into khaki uniforms. That killed every tree in the place except two or three sickly elms, and the result is a cheerless, romance-discouraging place in which the marriage-bells are virtually silent."

Political Section Published Today

Perhaps This Is Last Of Teacher Baiting

The schoolmasters and schoolma'ams of the nation are taking their summer vacations these days, and heaven knows they have earned them. And as they take it easy in whatever vacation haunts they have chosen, they probably put in at least a part of their time wondering if the slowly rising tide of prosperity won't at last cause the nation to let up on them a little.

For the school teacher has had a tough row to hoe these last few years. He has been nobody's friend, the target for every crank and demagog, the No. 1 item on everybody's list for economizing. You can hardly blame him if he is hoping that things will start being different pretty soon.

When the depression came, the revenues of states and cities had to be cut. Where did the cutting start? Why, right in the little red schoolhouse, to be sure—and in the big new high school, the expensive technical school, and the university campus.

First the teachers found their pay being reduced. Then in case after case, they found that the checks weren't coming through at all. The famous Chicago situation, where teachers existed somehow for months, and even years without seeing a red cent of pay, was only the most spectacular of many similar situations. Just how the teachers lived is not quite clear; but they gritted their teeth, tightened their belts, and hung on somehow.

Then, as the worst of the economic pressure passed and things grew a bit easier along the economic front, the witch-burners began to light their torches and go out on the prowl. Here, once more, the school teachers were the first and most obvious target—an ideal target, for the average teacher simply cannot answer back when inquisitors get on the trail.

From the things that happened thereafter you would almost suppose that our teachers had been convicted, en masse, of trading with the enemy in wartime. State legislatures and city councils thought up binding oaths for the teachers to take. Investigating committees groped their way through textbooks and lectures.

Young women who had their hands more than full trying to get irreplaceable youth to pay a little attention to the intricacies of plane and solid geometry were solemnly asked if they believed in the Constitution from kiver to kiver. Only the football coaches escaped.

This wave, like the wave of economizing, is beginning to die down. The teachers have lived through it, and—except for those weary souls who are grinding their way through summer school—are taking a little well-earned summer rest.

As they rest, you can't blame them if they are hoping that the country's return to prosperity will cause their fellow citizens to leave them alone and let them get on with their thankless ill-paid, and tremendously important job.

THE WEDDING OF THE WINDS

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. As evidence of good faith inquirers must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. Where was the town of Fairview located? C. C., Yoakum.

A. In the western part of Wilson county, three miles west of the old San Antonio and Oakville road, five miles east of the San Antonio and Tilden road and some three or four miles north of the road that ran from Floresville to Pleasanton. Once a prosperous village, it is now a scattered community.

Q. Was there ever a Texas town named Hayrick? E. E., Chapel Hill.

A. It was the county site of Coke county when that county was established in 1889.

Q. When was Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College opened? A. G., Hearne.

A. In October, 1876, with only six students. The third year attendance had increased to 248.

Q. Which is the oldest of the State Teachers College? R. W., Killen.

A. Sam Houston Normal Institute, established at Huntsville in 1879.

Q. Where are apples most successfully grown in Texas? E. E., Des Moines, Iowa.

A. Apples are grown in north and west Texas for home use, but not on a commercial scale except for nearby shipments. The quality of the Davis Mountain apples equals any grown in this country.

Q. Please tell me whether the Mexican government permitted Free Masonry in Texas before 1835. R. C. S., Cleveland, Ohio.

A. There was nothing in the colonization laws or in the empresario grants prohibiting it.

Pounds Issues a Statement to the Voters of Precinct

W. G. Pounds, candidate for county commissioner from Precinct 1, has issued the following statement to the voters of the precinct:

To the Voters of Precinct 1, Eastland county:

In making my announcement for commissioner of Precinct 1, I promised to make a statement later on in the campaign.

I have not made you any rash promises as to what I would do if elected, but have promised to do the very best that I can with the funds available, and not to show any favors to a special few.

I believe that your commissioner should at all times see that each locality gets its pro rata of work and that the funds should be as evenly distributed as possible.

I have at all times advocated a balanced budget where possible to do so.

I believe in a living wage for the working man and will go on record to attain this end, when given an opportunity to vote on same.

I wish to express my regrets in not being able to attend the speakings in this precinct, on account of having no way to go and I don't think it advisable to speak in my home town after having missed other dates.

I also wish to thank the people of this precinct for courtesies shown me in this campaign and

THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—First report of alleged irregularities to the Senate committee which will investigate campaign expenditures has to do with thousands of purportedly faked poll tax receipts in San Antonio, Tex.

Pressure on the committee, chairman of which is Senator Loneragan of Connecticut, to investigate the charges has been strong, since the congressional district involved is that of Representative Maury Maverick, one of the most popular and valuable members of the House.

Maverick is having a hard fight for renomination—equivalent to re-election in this heavily Democratic territory—because of the huge sums of money being spent to defeat him.

It is understood here that Maverick is one of several congressmen marked for political death by power interests, as a result of his active participation in the battle for the public utilities holding company bill.

His most important antagonist is Ralph W. Morrison of Texas, a utility man, the only political appointee to membership on the Federal Reserve Board. Morrison is reported to have expressed willingness to spend as much as $150,000 to defeat Maverick and is said already to have spent tens of thousands to elect Maverick's opponent in the primaries of July 25.

MORRISON recently submitted his resignation from the Reserve Board, but Roosevelt thus far has refused to accept it. Meanwhile, the president on his southern trip paid a special visit to San Antonio and its Alamo "to keep a promise I made Maury Maverick," which meant as strong an endorsement as a president can give a candidate in party primaries. Morrison's chief claim to fame comes from his successful leadership of the Hamilton Dam power project on the Lower Colorado, which had been started, but uncompleted, by the Insularists. After failing in attempt to get RFC and FWA loans, he got a bill, the Texas legislature to state power authority to over. Then it was fixed up power authority to get $500,000 loan and a $7,500,000 from PWA. Morrison is said to have made a profit of $100,000 on sale of the dam to the authority, which bought PWA funds.

POLITICIANS of the majorities are keeping quiet the Union Party candidate Congressman Lemke, but Father Coughlin, and will continue to do so.

Strangely, perhaps, radio believe in a third party kind or another are bitterest denunciations at Communists have charged Lemke is a stooge for the Liberty League.

The American Guard Oklahoma City, leading weekly, charges that Lemke "definitely tied his organization to the openly Fascist 'Union Party'."

And the National is out with a critique entitled, "Lemke: Criminal." Copyright, 1934, NEA Service Staff.

The MacGregor meets an emergency...

"and hur-r-ry it over, will y'" burrs Sandy MacGregor to his telephone...

With the thermometer crowding the ceiling, the MacGregors have declared a State of Emergency for the household. Ice cream sounds like a life-saving idea. So Sandy calls the store...

And the only thing he cares a Scotsman's hoot about is how quickly the telephone and the delivery boy can do the job for him!

Those calls, so simple to Sandy on summer afternoons, still present many problems to the men and women who work for this company. It is up to them to make each call fast and clear at a price the MacGregors are willing and able to pay.

A fortunate thing it has been for Sandy that these telephone people have behind them the specialized organization of the Bell System: the help of American Telephone and Telegraph Company's staff of engineers and business experts... the use of new inventions from Bell Laboratories... standardized equipment of high quality, made in the great factories of Western Electric.

Sandy MacGregor, visioning mounds of ice cream cool as the dew on highland heather, may easily overlook what these organizations mean to the telephone calls he makes.

Yet he benefits from the work they do. Not only have they helped make his calls faster, clearer and better; but in the face of the growing complexity of the telephone system, they have helped this company hold the cost of those calls down to a reasonable price for him.

Youngster as Well As Grownup Can Enjoy Centennial

By RICHARD G. BALDWIN
United Press Staff Correspondent
DALLAS.—I took my 7-year-old son to the Texas Centennial Exposition yesterday—if I'm able I'll keep my promise and take him back today.

We entered the main gates at 2 o'clock in the afternoon; we left the same gates at midnight. He entered fresh and left apparently fresher; I entered fairly fresh and left with only one desire—to get home and rest my weary bones.

But we had a splendid time, and we spent the first four hours of our visit in the transportation group of buildings, a paradise for "little kids and big ones."

If you like miniature trains, mechanical devices of all sorts, trucks, automobiles, motorcycles—anything that pertains to transportation—you'll be right at home there.

As you enter the group of buildings you come upon numerous farm trucks, the chassis of a huge highway behemoth, and the binding apparatus that automatically ties knots in twine. We spent 20 minutes trying to figure out how this last mechanical marvel operates, but we just couldn't do it.

The mooing of a cow attracted our attention, and my 7-year-old galloped to see Bossy.

I've always been a "city feller," young Baldwin hasn't seen many cows, and we were entranced by the imitation animal that seemed so life-like.

Bossy wriggled her ears, nodded her head, switched her tail at imaginary flies and occasionally uttered a plaintive "moo" while all the time standing passively and submitting to the operation of an automatic milking machine.

Next came a display by one of the Southwest's great railroads. It showed the territory traversed by the road, the towns the line passes through, and the natural products to be found near the various cities.

All was in miniature; small trains speeding hither and yon, automobile and trucks surging along highways, a rodeo in progress, growing cotton and oil gushers. Did we have fun, and it was the youngster who pulled me away.

We found several similar displays, then wandered into the air-cooled Hall of Mirrors, one of the most beautiful exhibits on the Exposition grounds.

There we were interviewed by a mechanical man and had the opportunity to inspect a number of beautiful and expensive automobiles. There also we found soft, leather covered chairs, and listened to the soothing music of an organ and harp.

An attendant told us about a marionette show given at frequent intervals in a theater—also, air-cooled—adjoining the Hall of Mirrors.

For a fellow who weighs 185 pounds, and on a hot Texas afternoon, there's a spot. The entertainment is excellent, fast moving and a great treat for the youngsters.

We saw the show, and one or two movie shorts, then promenaded back through the buildings. About that time young Baldwin remembered something or other about a midway, midget villages and Admiral Byrd's Little America as well as a rodeo, and we were off once again.

However, here are a few things you should know: The transportation groups covers an area of about 122,000 square feet; the buildings cost $425,000; I don't know enough about architecture to tell you the type, or enough about art to describe the morals on the outer front walls. You'll have to come and see for yourself.

Feed Supplies in Nation Are Light

WASHINGTON.—A survey of drought conditions and feed supplies about July 1 has just been completed by the crop reporting board of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics. It shows that there was an acute shortage of feed in the worst drought area. In the country as a whole, however, the carry-over of feed grain on farms was close to normal and the carry-over of old hay was the largest since 1928.

With prospects for 1936 crops declining daily and still largely dependent on how soon the drought is broken, no exact ap-

Larger Vote is Expected in County This Year Than in Any Recent Year

A larger vote than has been cast in several years is anticipated by political observers of Eastland county, due to the keen interest that is being shown in the county races.

The three major cities of the county, Eastland, Cisco and Ranger, have an estimated voting strength of 4,539, while the total for the entire county is 7,014. All these may not cast votes, according to those who have observed election trends for years, but a larger percentage of them will vote than in previous years.

Eastland, political hotbed of politics in the county, which usually casts the largest vote in any election, has an estimated 1,705 votes, including those who have paid poll taxes and those who have exemptions, while Cisco is estimated to have 1,632 possible voters. Ranger, seldom perturbed by an election, and where a fewer percentage of the citizens vote than in Cisco or Eastland, has an estimated 1,202 votes.

Although there has been little interest shown locally in the races for state offices, county campaigns are expected to bring out a larger vote, while much interest has been shown in the outcome of the congressional race.

Because of the large number of lost votes in previous elections, information for guidance of voters next Saturday is given:

- No exemptions are required in this county for the purpose of voting.
- A man must have a poll tax receipt or be entitled to an exemption and must have resided in the state one year and in the county six months and no restrictions as to time limit on the precinct.
- A man votes in the precinct where he resides even though he moves the day before and must vote in the precinct where he resides, it being a penalty to vote in another precinct other than the precinct in which he resides.
- Do not put an (X) before the party you desire to vote for.
- Do not write anything on the ballot excepting the name of the person you desire to vote for. Do not sign your name to the ballot on the back, the front, or anywhere and the proper way and only way to vote is to draw a line through the names of the parties you do not desire to vote for.
- If you do not scratch the name of any one where there are two or more candidates you do not vote for anyone except those who do not have an opponent.
- If you make a mistake in your ballot, do not attempt to erase it but take it to the election judge and he will mutilate the ballot and give you another. This cannot be done after the vote is put in the ballot box.
- When in doubt, consult the election judge of your precinct.

W. S. ADAMSON ASKS SUPPORT OF THE VOTERS

In announcing my candidacy for the office of County Judge of Eastland County I did so with the knowledge that it is one of the most important offices in your county. His duties require him to preside over the County Court in the trial of civil and criminal cases, the probating of wills, administration of the estates of deceased persons, guardianship of minors and man yother matters, all of which are legal proceedings. He is also the presiding officers of the Commissioners' Court, which has charge of the finances of your county, supervises the construction and maintenance of your roads, sets your tax rate, sits as a board of equalization in placing a value upon your property for taxable purposes and many other duties.

He should be a man who is well informed in the laws of the State, of sound and mature judgment, and one who has the interest of the citizens of the county at heart. I have a college education, studied law three years and was admitted to the bar, have been a practicing attorney for twenty-two years, the past fifteen years I have practiced law in Ranger, Texas. During my twenty-two years in the study and practice of law I have devoted considerable time to the study of law pertaining to County and City governments and have a thorough knowledge of the law and procedure of the County Court and County affairs.

I served four years as County Judge of Scurry County during which time I met with and solved many of the difficult and perplexing problems that come before a County Judge and a Commissioner's Court and from this experience I have gained a knowledge of the handling of county affairs that cannot be obtained from any other source.

The past three years I have served as a Commissioner of the City of Ranger, during which time I have assisted with my counsel and advice in the management of the City's affairs. I represented the City in Federal Court in the suit brought by the bond holders on its bonds and secured a judgment refunding the bonded indebtedness of the City on a basis of 80 per cent of their original face value. We have paid cash to our employees for their services, for supplies and equipment that we have purchased, met the interest payment on our bonded indebtedness and set aside the required amount in a sinking fund to retire those bonds at maturity and have approximately $30,000.

GRADY OWEN IS SEEKING RE-ELECTION

Grady Owen, Criminal District Attorney of Eastland County, is asking for re-election to that office. He bases his campaign on his experience, training and qualifications for the job. The records show that law violations have been very materially reduced in Eastland County within the last few years. In fact, such violations have been reduced 75 per cent, there being only about one-fourth as many violations of the law as were occurring a few years ago. It is further shown that since he has held the office the present district attorney has tried a greater percentage of the cases on the docket, and secured a greater percentage of 100 in cash in the various funds and the City is in the best financial condition it has been in many years.

My friends, I believe from my twenty-two years in the study and practice of law, my four years experience as County Judge and my three years experience as a City Commissioner has prepared, equipped and qualified me to be of real capable service to you as your County Judge.

If I am elected your County Judge it will not be placing a man in that office inexperienced and untried, but one who has a thorough knowledge of the law and who has been seasoned by actual experience.

If elected your County Judge I shall at all times cooperate with your County Commissioners in the handling of your county affairs and shall counsel with and advise them upon all legal matters coming before that Court.

I shall be fair and just to every person who comes before me as County Judge and the humblest citizen of the county may feel free to come to me with problems of the county, his precinct, or even his personal affairs with the assurance that he shall receive a sympathetic and courteous hearing and it will be my earnest desire to help, aid and assist him in solving those problems.

I have visited every home and farm in the county and have made a diligent effort to see every voter, solicit their vote and express my appreciation for their vote and support, and I wish to state now that there is no one in this race who will be more grateful to you for your vote and support than I, and if elected I promise you in return faithful, honest and efficient service.

Very sincerely,

fore. Also, there have been fewer reversals. Grady Owen has made one record, at least, as a prosecutor that so far as we have ever heard, has never been equaled by any other prosecuting officer in the State. Since he has been connected with the work of prosecuting he has prepared something like 2,000 criminal indictments. Not a single one of those indictments has ever been quashed, or in any manner held defective, by any court anywhere.

Mr. Owen is exceptionally well qualified for the position he holds and to which he seeks re-election. Prior to his election to the office he served a total of about 5 years as an assistant, 4 years in Eastland County and a little less than one year as assistant county attorney of Denton County, Texas, prior to the World War. He secured his license to practice law twenty-one years ago this month. He has had a varied experience in all branches of the law including criminal law, civil law and military law. For a long time he has made a special study of the work of a prosecutor, and the fact that no major crime has gone unsolved during his administration of the office is evidence of the effectiveness of his work.

In deciding whom you will employ as your district attorney for the next two years, the experience, training and outstanding qualifications of Grady Owen merit your most careful attention and your most thoughtful consideration.

He believes in and practices cooperation. He is exceptionally well qualified. He has served you well. He is dependable and capable. His record is unequalled. He is an experienced lawyer and prosecutor.

(He is grateful for your support two years ago, and will greatly appreciate your vote and influence for re-election.)

FRIENDS RALLY TO SUPPORT OF W. H. McDONALD

Citizens of Eastland County expressed the hope at a rally this week that the residents of Eastland and other counties in this section will roll up heavy majorities for William H. McDonald of Eastland, candidate for State Land Commissioner, on Saturday.

It was pointed out that this region has never had a citizen in one of the elective State positions.

The dozen counties surrounding Eastland County have a voting strength of approximately 75,000 and speakers said that they saw no reason why McDonald should not win over a South Texan in the area by 3 to 1 and that his opponent was seeking to crystallize similar support for himself in South Texas.

McDonald, a World War veteran worked his way through college as a railway yard clerk, studied law at nights and has practiced law for nine years.

Impeachment made against him during the closing days of the campaign were answered by the fact that, after his administration as a district official ended, he was elected by unanimous vote to a position of responsibility by the State Senate, whose committee had made a study of all the fee offices in Texas. McDonald has the support of public officials, newspapers and the citizenship of his county, including both his opponents in previous races.

He is opposed to convict drilling crews and is against his opponent's plan to put the State in the oil-hunting business, which would lose so many millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money that old age pensions would be endangered. He has pointed out that $250,000.00 a year can be added to the school fund under the Sabine river bed lease.

KARKALITS IS SEEKING VOTES ON HIS RECORD

To the Voters of Eastland County:

In calling your attention again to my candidacy for assessor-collector of Eastland County I want to express my deep appreciation for the courtesies and kindnesses received and the encouragement such a large number of you have given me thus far in my campaign.

It has been erroneously reported that I have been selected at least a part of my future deputies. This report is absolutely untrue. It would be a violation of the law to do so. I want to state emphatically that I have not made a promise to anyone either directly or indirectly as to a deputyship in case of my election and shall not do so until after the voters of Eastland county have said by their ballots that I am their choice for the office of assessor-collector.

Having served you as chief deputy in this office for several years I am in position to know that I am asking you to honor me with, possibly, the most important office in the county, one that carries with it tremendous responsibilities. You are entitled to and must have a man for that office who is courteous, efficient, honest and seasoned by years of experience and old enough to be given to sound judgment.

I am 52 years old and I believe my five years' experience as chief deputy in the office in addition to more than 20 years' experience in the business world (15 years of which was as an accountant), properly qualifies me for the duties of the office and rendering you the kind of service required.

I invite and request a close investigation into my character and as to whether or not I am capable and efficient and if your investigation reveals the fact that I meet the requirements necessary to successfully administer the affairs of this important office, then I earnestly solicit your vote and influence and if you elect me your assessor-collector I will appreciate it more than I can tell you and shall ever keep in mind the fact that the office belongs to the people and not to the office-holder.

Sincerely,
CLYDE S. KARKALITS.

New Drug to Banish Shyness Successful

By United Press

LONDON.—A new drug called benzadrine, which raises the blood pressure and thus cures depression and shyness, is described in the current issue of the "Lancet."

After a dose of benzadrine, even the most depressed patients are able to overcome their shyness, and talk spontaneously. They feel unusually full of energy and self-confidence.

Tests for the mental ability of patients after taking the drug show that they are able to concentrate better, and can work out problems faster and more accurately than before.

24TH SENATE DISTRICT HAS 53,000 VOTES

Three candidates for the democratic nomination for the state senate in the 24th district will have more than 53,000 votes to divide in the party primary July 25th.

Reports of poll tax payments, exemption certificate issuances and estimates by county clerks of numbers of persons not required to obtain exemptions show that the voting strength of the 12 counties of the district this year should result in casting considerably more ballots in this race than the 32,000 cast in the 1932 first primary.

The state senators' terms run four years, instead of two, as in the lower house of the legislature.

The candidates this year are Harry Tom King, Abilene; Y. L. Thomason, Haskell, and Wilbourne B. Collie, Eastland, who is finishing his first term in the upper house.

Senator Collie and Mr. Thomason were candidates four years ago, along with Andrew H. Howsley of Albany and Oliver Cunningham of Abilene, who was running for re-election.

In run-off race in 1932, between Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Collie, the latter polled 20,115 votes to 17,367 for his opponent, as tabulated with six counties complete and the other six virtually so.

In the first primary four years ago virtually completed unofficial returns gave Cunningham 10,339; Collie, 9,615; Howsley, 8,411, and Thomason 3,250.

Total voting strength this year of the home candidates is 22,080 or approximately two-fifths of the total of votes in the entire district. They lineup like this: Taylor, 10,177; Eastland, 7,014; Haskell, 4,889.

In the first primary of 1932 each of the four candidates carried his home county. The votes in those counties were distributed as follows:

Taylor: Cunningham, 4,077; Collie, 1,115; Howsley, 780; Thomason, 380.
Eastland: Collie, 3,619; Cunningham, 603; Howsley, 502; Thomason, 212.
Shackelford: Howsley, 999; Collie, 280; Cunningham, 165; Thomason, 140.

Haskell: Thomason, 1,070; Howsley, 663; Cunningham, 538; Collie, 409.

Geographically, the voting strength in the senatorial district this year is divided as follows:
East (Stephens, Shackelford, Eastland, Throckmorton): 14,814.
Central (Haskell, Jones, Callahan, Taylor): 24,149.

THOMAS L. BLANTON WANTS TO BE NEXT SHERIFF

The district consists of two "tiers" of five counties each plus a third "tier" of two north of the others.

The south "row" of counties, including Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan and Eastland, this year have total voting strength of 28,587, and the north or central "row" consisting of Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford and Stephens, 18,586. The other two counties, Haskell and Throckmorton, have 6,497.

Taylor county contains one-fifth of the district's votes, and Eastland nearly one-seventh. Half the counties, those with 4,000 or more votes, hold 37,108 votes or 70 per cent of the entire district strength. Those counties are Nolan, Haskell, Stephens, Eastland, Jones and Taylor.

Total voting strength by counties:
Fisher, 3,200; Nolan, 4,894; Scurry, 3,500; Mitchell, 3,113; Haskell, 4,889; Stephens, 4,440; Callahan, 3,389; Shackelford, 1,752; Eastland, 7,014; Taylor, 10,177; Throckmorton, 1,608.

ED T. COX PUTS RACE ISSUE UP TO VOTERS

To The Voters of Eastland County:

In asking for your vote the coming Saturday I wish to state my position on the following questions:

I stand for changing the present old age pension law so as to place every citizen who complies with the requirements of the present law on an equal footing. $15.00 State money to be matched by $15.00 Federal money, a total of $30.00 per month. I favor levying such taxes as are necessary to pay that amount, such levy to be fairly distributed.

I would be against any tax which would require or destroy any Eastland County industry. I favor liberal support of our public schools and would vote for measures having that end in view.

I believe that my experience will enable me if elected to act with mature judgment on all legislative matters. Your support in the coming primary will be greatly appreciated.

LOSS WOODS WANTS TO BE NEXT SHERIFF

To the People of Eastland County:

It has been a pleasure for me to visit with the people of Eastland county and to present to them my candidacy for sheriff. I want you to know that I sincerely appreciate the courteous manner in which I have been received throughout the county. It has also been a pleasure to make this race because of the high plane on which the candidates have conducted their respective campaigns thus far. I have nothing of a derogatory nature to say against any of my opponents.

In selecting a man for sheriff his experience, qualifications and reliability should be seriously considered. He should be a man with a mature mind and sound judgment, having the ability to cope with any difficulties which he might encounter.

Eastland county has been my home for 46 years. Eight years ago I made the race for sheriff and that is the only time I have ever asked for any public office. I was defeated by your present sheriff. For the past seven years I have served as your deputy sheriff under Virge Foster, your present sheriff. During this time I have assumed every responsibility of the sheriff's office. I have at all times been fair, honest and considerate in my dealings with the people. Since I have been in the sheriff's office I have had the interest of the people at heart, and have tried to serve you faithfully and well.

Should the people of Eastland county honor me with the sheriff's office, I feel that I am thoroughly prepared to give them an efficient and successful administration, and I will sincerely appreciate your vote.

Your friend,
LOSS WOODS,
Candidate for Sheriff.

H. DAVENPORT SEEKS SUPPORT OF THE VOTERS

In asking you, the voters of Precinct No. 1, to continue my service to you as commissioner, I do so wholly upon my record of performance.

In the course of my campaign I have made an earnest effort to see every voter, without sacrifice to the many duties the office carries with it, and if I have failed to see any of you and personally ask you for your support, I assure you it has been my sincere desire to do so, and I hereby ask you to give me your earnest consideration.

The office of county commissioner carries with it very grave responsibilities and I feel it would not be amiss to tell you a few of the things I have accomplished during my administration.

To begin with, when I assumed the duties of your commissioner, this precinct was something near $20,000.00 in debt. Up to the present time I have liquidated practically all of this old indebtedness, and at the same time kept your roads fairly well maintained out of the funds we had left, without incurring a further deficit in your road and bridge fund.

As most of you know it has been the policy of the Federal Government through its various administrations to allot money for worthy projects throughout the various communities, where it would be of lasting benefit to the communities and at the same time furnish employment for the citizen-ship.

As your commissioner I have been able to secure more of these government paid projects in this precinct than any other commissioner in West Texas.

Viewing the fact this country has been in the midst of the worst economic depression ever known, your commissioners' court has handled the finances of the county in such a way that we have been able to take care of all its indebtedness as it came due.

It has been my policy to purchase all materials and supplies, as far as possible from Eastland county people, thereby keeping Eastland county money at home.

It has also been my policy to assist taxpayers in securing an equitable adjustment on their taxes where their assessments were out of line with other properties of like value.

In view of these accomplishments I am asking for re-election in the primary of July 25, and if elected assure you the same efficient service.

Constitutional Amendment

Wilbourne Collie Seeks A Second Term After Serving Well His First Four Years In The Senate

To the People of the 24th Senatorial District: Four years ago I came before you as a candidate for State Senator from the 24th District of Texas and you honored me with that position.

I have sought to serve you with all the zeal, diligence and ability that I possess; and now I come before you to give an accounting of my stewardship and to ask a second term as your Senator, if you deem that my record merits a continuance of your support.

Taxes Held Down
Strict state expenditures gave way to demands for new governmental responsibilities and increased appropriations. Public sentiment called for the submission of $3,000,000 for the Centennial, commemorating the history and progress of our State. At the same time the amendment to exempt all homesteads up to a valuation of $3,000 from state taxation was likewise submitted. I advocated and supported this amendment for it gave relief to property taxpayers. Still another amendment which was submitted called for $20,000,000 in bonds to save the unfortunate of our state from starvation.

Schools Are Helped
The Legislature made it possible for the payment of $15.50 per capita apportionment which is the highest ever paid, and there remains in the Available Free School Fund a balance of more than $2,000,000.00. Because of the healthy condition of the school funds, the states' ad valorem tax rate has been reduced from 77c to 62c and any further revenues paid into this fund by the end of the year will further reduce the ad valorem tax rate for this year, or will be distributed by an even higher per capita apportionment.

Court Procedure Reforms
I have authored and sponsored several bills during my first term to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure in this State. The State Bar Association and many leading laymen have repeatedly endorsed this program, but members of the legislature and others who practice criminal law have blocked their passage. In effect, these proposed changes would eliminate technicalities, delays and absurdities, save expenses and subserve a better administration of justice.

Emergency Measures
The period during which I have been your Senator has been the most trying era—not only that Texas has ever known—but the most difficult from an economic standpoint in the history of the United States and the entire civilized world.

In dealing with the unparalleled distress that confronted our people during the past four years, the Legislature had no precedent to guide it but was able to enact many measures to soften the effects of the great financial disaster. Among these were scores of bills conforming our laws to the requirements of the President's administration to enable our state to receive benefits from the federal government; moratoriums on all city, county and state taxes; Remissions of penalties and interest; moratoriums on car license; moratoriums on forced sales which have saved thousands of families from losing their homes. The whole financial structure of the State and Nation was in danger of collapsing and the Legislature of Texas since the dark days of March, 1933, has done its part in meeting the emergencies.

Old Age Pensions
And now we come to a matter which is close to the hearts of the people—Old Age Assistance. The Legislature of Texas submitted an Amendment providing for old age assistance, which I heartily supported, (Page 1484, Senate Journal) and the people approved this Amendment by a tremendous majority. Let me say, however, that the law which the Legislature enacted does not carry out fully and satisfactorily the purpose the people had in mind when they adopted the Amendment.

When the Legislature was convened in a special session last fall, I attempted with all the efforts one individual could exert to pass a law in keeping with the people's mandate. The bill before the Senate, as it had been amended, provided for payment to those in "necessitous circumstances," therefore I sought which would have broadened the definition and meaning of "necessitous circumstances." The amendment may be found on page 21 of the Senate Journal, October, 22, 1935, and had the amendment been adopted, it would have materially liberalized the present law. Because of the defeat of this amendment, rigid restrictions were voted into the present law, thus eliminating many aged citizens in need. My amendment would have fulfilled the desire of the people, and it would have made possible the maximum payment of $15.00 from the State for each qualified applicant.

For several reasons the state government should not give "AID" to millionaires and the wealthy. The very heart and soul of the amendment voted by the people was "OLD AGE ASSISTANCE." So long as we have multiplied thousands of men out of employment, pacing our streets in grim despair; thousands of women hesitating between the wolf of want and the life of infamy; hundreds of insane and epileptic patients confined in our jails; hundreds of the blind, the deaf, and the dumb, unable to make their way; hundreds of neglected and dependent children coming up in ignorance and crime; thousands afflicted with tuberculosis and other highly contagious diseases—so long as the state is unable to make provision for these, it certainly would not be just to take from the state's treasury, or to tax the people, to pay pensions to millionaires and the rich. The state must first discharge its moral and social obligations to the sick and afflicted, the unemployed and the needy.

It is not right, it is not just that the unfortunate citizens of this state should be neglected and the masses relentlessly taxed to pay those living in palatial homes, with all their social pomp and luxuries. Such an arrangement would signify neither good religion, good government, nor good sense.

Old Age Assistance is a humane, Christian endeavor on the part of the state. It is a sound governmental policy. People knowing the circumstances under which I was raised realize well the reasons for my belief in these fundamental principles.

I favored and insisted upon the payment of $15.00 per month to every qualified applicant, but was voted down. The Senate then voted, over my objection, the previous question, which under the rules cut off debate and further proceedings, except the main question of passing the bill. Being thus deprived of further opportunity to remove the defects and correct the bill, I was unwilling to vote for a bill making an appropriation of revenue being provided; to vote for a bill making an appropriation of $25,000,000.00 without the revenue being provided; to vote for a year's delay and the payment of salaries of numerous investigators for months before the assistance payments began; and to authorize discriminations between qualified applicants, as well as for other sections of the law which are objectionable and unsatisfactory to the people.

Permit me to state clearly that I supported increases in the taxes on sugar, oil, gas, utilities, pipe lines, franchises, and many others which would have raised sufficient revenue. Any statement that I did not do so, or was absent, is deceiving and untrue—Page 377, Senate Journal, November 11, 1935.

What do those opposing me for a second term offer? They criticize now, but they did not offer one word to help us solve the problems at that time. Since then, they have had several months in which to make a cool and calm study of the law passed; whereas, in the midst of the rush and excitement of debate, I introduced the above motions and sought by every means at my command to eliminate these defects now being complained of.

Honor Bestowed On District
I am now a member of the following important committees: Insurance (Chairman), Banking (Vice Chairman), Civil Jurisprudence, Criminal Jurisprudence, Internal Improvements, Public Lands and Land Office, State Affairs, State Highways and Motor Traffic, Judicial Districts, Stock and Stock Raising, Privileges and Elections, Towns and City Corporations, Congressional Districts, Interstate Relations, Senate Crime Investigation (Co-Chairman and Sec.), and Senate General Investigations.

I have constantly been on the job, on time every day of every session and voted on every bill of State concern. Although I am serving my first term, my colleagues were generous enough to elect me president pro tem of the Senate. This is a recognition seldom given to West Texas and I regard it, not as a personal distinction, but as a tribute and an honor to the Twenty-fourth District as a whole.

Goals For Future
I favor:
1. Redistricting the State on the basis of the latest U. S. census in order that West Texas may be given the number of members to which it is entitled.
2. Reduction of car license fees on family cars and small farm trucks.
3. Regulation of utilities, so as to protect the Consumer from unjust and excessive rates.

4. Enlargements of our State institutions to care for the insane, many of whom are now confined in the jails of Texas because there is no room elsewhere available.
5. Proper provision for our citizens who are afflicted with tuberculosis and epilepsy.
6. Adequate care for the blind, deaf and dumb.
7. Improved facilities for the care of neglected and dependent children so that they may develop into useful citizens.
8. Reform of court procedure which will reduce technicalities, speed up trials, and lessen expense.
9. Utmost economy consistent with the efficient operation of government.
10. Shifting of the tax burden to relieve real property and pay the state's $15.00 monthly aid to our aged citizens qualified to receive it.

I appreciate the handsome vote that you gave me in both primary and in my first campaign, and hope that none regrets his vote and that every one of you and many more will give me your vote and influence this time.

If you see fit to elect me to a second term, I believe I can make you a better Senator the next four years because of the knowledge and seasoning gained by experience, and by the friendships formed with members of the Legislature and other state officials.

I was born in this district; I have lived all my life here; I know its industries and its needs; I love its people; they have been good to me, and my only ambition is to serve them.

Your friend,
Wilbourne B. Collie.

EARL CONNER SEEKS HIS FIRST COUNTY OFFICE

To the Voters of Eastland county: The campaign is nearing a close, and again I am soliciting the vote of the citizenship of Eastland county for the office of prosecuting attorney. This is the first time that I, or any member of my immediate family, have asked the people of this county for a political favor. I received my education in Eastland schools, then attended our state university, where I received my higher literary and legal education. For the past seven years I have been associated with my father in the practice of law in Eastland, and feel that I am thoroughly qualified to hold the office which I seek.

I want to assure the citizens of Eastland county that if I am elected I will devote myself vigorously to the duties of that office in the interest of the citizens of this county. I am ambitious to make the people one of the best officers in that place that Eastland county has ever had.

Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated. Give me a chance to make good. I will not fail you.

When Forbearance Ceases to Be a Virtue To Voters Of This District:

My father, Congressman Thomas L. Blanton, has conducted his campaign upon a high plane commensurate with the dignity of his office. He has engaged in no personalities. He has resorted to no vituperation. In no speech has he even mentioned an opponent. On the other hand Clyde Garrett, posing as a saint, and his coterie of disappointed disgruntled position-seekers, have gone all over this district abusing, maligning and misrepresenting my father. While he is busy campaigning, I feel impelled to correct some of Garrett's many misrepresentations.

My father does not own any property whatsoever in Washington. For the past five years my father and mother have lived in an inexpensive rented apartment No. 502 in the Methodist Building during sessions of Congress and friends from Abilene have visited them there. He is forced to rent some under-searable contract in order to... it and have sent on it when he is at home during vacations. The only property my mother owns there is a $1,000 equity in the Lee House, which she paid with money her father gave her, and assumed the indebtedness on it when Mr. Lee died.

Next January when he becomes Chairman of War Department appropriations he will conduct all hearings, will frame the War Department bill, will introduce the bill in his own name, will present the Committee Report in his own name as Chairman, will have charge of the bill on the floor of the House, will conduct the debate, will be in charge of the time, and will be in charge of the bill through to its final passage, and then as the House Manager, will have charge of the bill in conference with the Senate.

On June 15, 1934, for printing alone, Congressman Blanton had paid to the Government Printing Office the sum of $17,316.60, and up to this date he has had over $21,000. In fighting Communism he paid $978.46 last May for printing. Note the following certificates:

When I heard Mr. J. C. Shipman wrote him praising and eulogizing Blanton, to-wit:
"Abilene, Texas, July 9, 1934.
Mr. J. M. Brann,

Dear Friend:
As Hamilton County is now in the 17th Congressional District, you and I have a common interest in the election of a Congressman. Because of our friendship of many years standing, I want to solicit your support of Hon. Thomas L. Blanton of Taylor County.

Mr. Blanton has represented the 17th District of Congress for some fifteen years, and the service he has rendered not only to his district alone, but to the country as a whole can easily be ascertained from the Congressional Record. I most respectfully invite your close and careful study of the same, after which I am sure you will agree with me that this district has been well represented.

At this time Mr. Blanton is on some of the most important committees of the House, one of which is the Appropriations Committee through which all appropriation bills must pass. The Record will show that he has been instrumental in saving millions of dollars for the country by defeating and helping to defeat many appropriations for luxurious and extravagant purposes. It has been through his energy, his alertness, his watchfulness, his persistency and his splendor in time of service that he has attained membership on such important committees which affords him the opportunity to be of greater service than otherwise one could be.

Another thing about Mr. Blanton is that he is always at his post of duty while Congress is in session. And I will guarantee to him while he is in Washington, concerning any information you might desire or with reference to any matter, you will hear from him at the first possible moment.

McFARLANE IS ACTIVELY IN SHERIFF RACE

Mr. Miss and Mrs. Voter: Saturday is election day. I have been actively campaigning for the past four months. For the past three weeks my friends and supporters in about two-thirds of the voting boxes of the county have been telling me that I am leading in their box. That being the case four of my opponents have already been eliminated. Why not cast your VOTE FOR THE WINNER! Let's make it a landslide. Then there won't be any run-off. I will make YOU such a good sheriff you will always be glad to tell your neighbors "I HELPED ELECT 'RED'." If and when elected there is anything that I can do to help the citizens of Eastland county, I will be found doing as I have always done: Trying to accommodate my friends and neighbors. The farmers, the laboring boys, and the good folks of the county are my friends. If you belong to either set of those folks, JOIN THE WINNING SIDE! Let's show these other folks how fast a long, keen, red-headed Irishman can run.

The larger the majority I win by, the more I will appreciate it; and the harder I will work to show my appreciation of your confidence in me. I promise you a deputy or the jailer, one from each precinct. Also a kind, honest and efficient administration of the sheriff's office. BRING ON THAT LANDSLIDE! Thanks,

Swimming Hazards Should Be Heeded

AUSTIN, July 21.—In Texas, during 1935, there were 371 deaths from accidental drowning, according to records in the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. This is an increase of 54 over the number reported for the year 1934, and an increase of $5 over the number reported for 1933.

"While water sports are the greatest of all sports during the summer season, they present certain hazards which should be heeded," said Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer. "Accidental drowning would not occur if each individual respected the fact that water is not man's natural element, and governed his activities in the water by standards of safety.

"Certain precautions should be taken by all swimmers:
1. Never swim alone—especially in deserted places where no rescue is available in case of an emergency.
2. Do not let young children go out in deep water even if they know how to swim, unless some older person proficient in life saving is with them.
3. Do not go in bathing directly after eating. Wait two hours before taking the plunge.
4. Do not dive in unfamiliar places until you are sure of the depth of the water and the absence of rocks.
5. Do not overtax your strength—work up gradually to a long swim by strengthening the muscles first.
6. Do not swim when fatigued.
7. Do not create a hazard for other swimmers by childish pranks and smart tricks.

"Accidental drownings, with few exceptions, occur through lack of proper safeguards of in places without adequate supervision. Take your swim in one of the approved sanitary swimming pools now available in most communities and help reduce the deaths in Texas from drowning."

DAVISSON'S BASING RACE ON HIS RECORD

The paramount issue in this campaign and most state races this summer is old age pensions, and it should be. The old age pension is the heart of all people, young and old, in this state, for it is to one an insurance against the future, and to the other a necessity of the present. For this reason I think that it is only fitting and proper that the people of this district know how I, your representative, have stood on this matter, and I take this method of coming before you and presenting you my record.

As many of you recall, during my campaign two years ago, I was advocating old age pensions even before the Federal Government launched its social security program, and I promised the people of this district that I would do all in my power to promote such vital legislation. I went to Austin with the promise uppermost in my mind and when you people by your vote on the constitutional amendment made such legislation possible, I sincerely and earnestly endeavored to carry out your wishes in this matter.

During the first called session of the legislature, Mr. Hoffbein of Houston, Mr. Calvert of Hillsboro, and I, acting as a sub-committee of the state affairs committee, worked several days in the committee room writing a bill in keeping with the vote of the people. We finally turned out a bill which the house approved by an overwhelming majority in the second called session. By a political stratagem the bill written by Calvert, Hoffbein and Davison was replaced by a bill bearing the name of Morrison and Davison and others, and numbered House Bill 26. House Bill 26 is the bill which finally passed the house, but it is a verbatim copy of the bill as originally written by the sub-committee. I refer you also to a comparison of House Bill 14 and House Bill 26.

As co-author I helped guide the bill through the house successfully, but in the senate it was so amended with income restrictions, property qualifications, and the unconstitutional discriminatory clause, which made it possible for two people in the same circumstances to receive different pensions, that when the bill returned to the house, I voted against my own bill. I could not conscientiously support a measure which was contrary to the wishes of my district. (House Journal; pages, 9, 10, 11, 15, 19, 22, 26, 37, 38, 63, 174, and 287.)

In the final passage of the bill, however, I voted for it. The session was drawing to a close, and

By C. Lotief DRAIN SEERS FIRST OFFICE FROM VOTERS

To the People of Eastland County:

In making this, my final statement to you through the press, I wish to first express my sincere appreciation to you for your courteous treatment of me in my race for the office of Tax Assessor and Collector.

I realize that candidates in their anxiety and hurry might sometimes become tiresome to the people, therefore I have at all times, tried to be as courteous as possible in soliciting your vote and support.

I am 33 years old and married. I am a native of Eastland County and have lived my life here. I am of a pioneer family who came to this county in 1874, and happen to be the first one of the family to ever ask for an office in the courthouse.

You will recall that the offices of tax assessor and collector were combined by law on January 1, 1935. It happens that I have had experience in both of these offices. I have served in practically every capacity of the office, from office boy to chief deputy and am thoroughly familiar with all phases of the work in both departments. In addition to this experience, I was at one time employed by a firm of valuation engineers to make tax rolls in some of the oil counties of West Texas. I feel that the knowledge and information gained in this work would enable me to ascertain the value of the oil properties on our county in an accurate manner.

I am making this race solely on my own merits and qualifications, and if elected I pledge you an honest, courteous and efficient administration.

If you see fit to support a young man who is qualified, I assure you that you could vote for no one on July 25, who would I appreciate your vote more than I.

Sincerely yours,
C. H. (Harl) O'Brien.

I am deeply grateful and appreciative for the honors you have conferred upon me in the past.

I was born and reared on a farm near Gorman and have resided in Eastland county more than 30 years. I have lived in several different communities and engaged in various lines of business which have fully qualified me to efficiently conduct the affairs of the office I seek.

I point with great pride to my record as your former public servant. As your county treasurer, I was custodian of your county finances. Received and disbursed all your county funds. Shortly after I assumed the duties of the office it occurred to me that I could render additional service to the jurors by paying them cash on their jury warrants, which I did with my own personal funds.

As your tax collector, I became familiar with all forms of tax matters, land values and the laws, rules and regulations that govern the same which experience qualifies me to cover the great and important part of the duties of your County Judge and Commissioners' Court. During that time I attended courses of law lectures and devoted considerable time to the study of our laws, in order to become familiar with county affairs and render you better service.

Our great statesmen who drafted the Constitution of this great nation and the legislatures which have met since that time have never deemed it necessary to require any person to be a licensed lawyer in order to qualify and properly fill the office of County Judge. And if you will examine the records of the County Judges over the state of Texas you will find that some of the best records have been made by former tax collectors and tax assessors.

It is true that a County Judge sits in court as a presiding judge in his court, yet the matters that come before his court are of such nature that equal and fair justice can be maintained by a thorough knowledge of the cases in hand and judgments rendered according to the statutes. A County Judge has

W. D. R. OWEN BASES HIS RACE UPON TRAINING

To My Friends, the Voters of Eastland County:

The office of County Judge is your office. Saturday you will choose the man to fill that position for the next two years. I am sure you wish to select the man that is best qualified, the one that will render not only honest, courteous, and efficient service, but the one who will do it in such a manner as to reflect honor and dignity upon the office and upon the intelligent citizenship of Eastland County.

In presenting my candidacy for County Judge, I have sought diligently to see every voter and personally present my qualifications for this important office, but, as you realize, that is almost a physical impossibility in a county of this size. I, however, earnestly request that you now consider with me my merits and qualifications for the office.

I came to Eastland County forty two years ago, worked upon the farm until I was twenty-five years of age. I paid for a high school and law education, the latter in the University of Texas, by tilling the soil of Eastland County. For the last twenty years I have been actively engaged in the practice of law during which time I have necessarily thoroughly familiarized myself with every phase of work which comes within the province of the County Judge, including probate matters, such as the administration of estates, guardianship proceedings, wills, also tax matters and the trial of civil and criminal cases. Inasmuch as the affairs of this office must necessarily be handled individually by the man you select to fill the same, and cannot be delegated to others, the actual experience and training acquired during these twenty years of active law practice will enable me to discharge the duties of County Judge in a thorough and efficient manner. I feel that my years upon the farm have peculiarly fitted me to understand the problems of all the people of our county and will enable me to work diligently, efficiently, and sympathetically with each and every citizen in an effort to solve such problems.

My life is an open book before you. I earnestly solicit your careful investigation as to my reputation for diligence, honesty, and the ethical practice of my profession, as well as my qualifications in general to fill your office of County Judge.

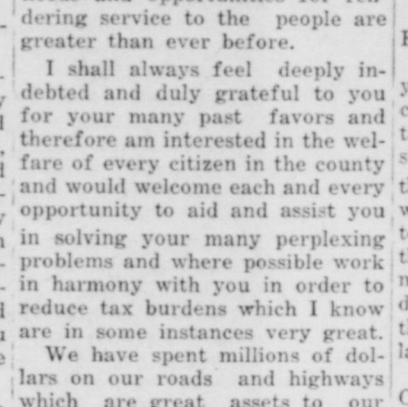

My friends, I have never asked you for but one office, that of County Judge of Eastland County. In view of my qualifications, which I believe you will agree equal, or exceed, those of my opponents, and the fact that one of my opponents has already held office in this county for eight years and the other for four years in another county, I am appealing to you that, on the 25th day of July, you will give me your vote for the office of County Judge of Eastland. I assure you that I shall endeavor to prove my gratitude by the manner in which I fill the office.

Sincerely,
W. D. R. Owen.

ords neatly kept and surrounded by an efficient bunch of deputies. We think that the state and county tax collector's office of Eastland county is second to none in the state.

Yours very truly,
J. H. POWELL,
State Tax Supervisor.

Garrett Is Seeking Post In Congress

the vast majority of the voters of the county joined the great "Garrett-for-Congress" club last May. Today and for the next two days will be important ones in his life. Has his life of service and work for this county been worthwhile? Has it been a success? Has it convinced you that Clyde is all that you thought him to be, when you voted for him in the past? If it has been, then show it by that vote of confidence which only a friend and neighbor can give to him. He had rather have the united vote of the folks of Eastland county at this time than any other reward which you could give to him. He had rather have that vote than all the money that could be put in any man's possession. It means that his life for and with you has been a success.

The supporters of Clyde Garrett have told the people of this congressional district that they believe in him and that you folks are going to give him an overwhelming majority in this election. To do so will convince them that his supporters knew the mind and heart of Eastland county. If you fail Clyde in this hour of his need you will fail him in the most vital time of his life—a life devoted to your interest. But you will also fail that multitude of friends he has made over this district. You will assure the election of a man whom you do not want and you will make it a burden for any man from this county to ever seek an office beyond its confines.

These are plain words. But they are true. To fail Clyde is to fail your own son when and if he ever seeks to mount higher.

Let us all go to the polls on Saturday. Vote for Clyde Garrett for the honor of the county, for the sake of your sons and for the future of this man whom you have honored in the past. No vote ever cast will be more appreciated than the one you cast for Clyde Garrett for congress.

The eyes of the 17th congressional district are upon you. Don't fail the great heart of this district in the last hour. Listen for campaign tales, stamp them for the tales they are, look for the hidden motives in those who approach you with honeyed words, and turn not your ears to the call of any other person but your friends and neighbor—Clyde L. Garrett. Vote for him and you will have a representative whom you can approach with serenity, point to with pride, and a friend in the councils of the mighty who will truly represent you in your hour of need.

Too Much for Love

HE HERE TODAY... COURTNEY looked at Helena helplessly. "What can I do? How can I get out of this?"

The attorney shrugged. "I wouldn't be doing my duty to Peter if I suggested that you —yet. How do you know you want out of it? The best thing for you to do is return home with me. The store is yours. You must do something with it. You can sell it to someone else, or give it to them, or you must operate it."

"What do you suggest?" Helena demanded evenly. "You're his widow's attorney now, and you have a duty to me, too."

"Well... My idea is that you should take over the store. Then if you find it —inconvenient under the circumstances, you sell it for a comfortable sum. Possibly to Roger Barnes."

"I know what you mean by 'inconvenient,'" said Helena slowly. "They'll all hate me."

COURTNEY looked grim. "They'll regard you as an interloper for a time, possibly. I wouldn't mislead you there. And Roger Barnes may be an active enemy."

"And Leah Frazier?"

Courtney shook his head. "I can't answer that."

The attorney looked at his watch. "The caretaker has offered to take us to the station to catch the afternoon train. I'll see to all the arrangements, and the services, of course, will be over there. You'll come with us?"

Helena nodded. "Of course I'll want to be at the funeral. Then I'll decide about the —the other."

Courtney left the room briskly, and a few moments later Helena sought Sandra. Briefly, through a fresh flood of tears, she told Sandra Leah what Peter had done. "But I can't go through with it, don't you see? I—I don't belong in Peter's life or in his town or in his business. I—I haven't the right."

The Leigh girl sat squarely in front of her, lifted Helena's chin until their eyes met. "Look here, child. I'm glad you came to me with this. I—I rather feel I got you into it, and I want the chance to see you through it. Answer a question for me. Who has a better right to it than you?"

"Peter's uncle. Perhaps this—this Leah Frazier."

"Nonsense! I don't know Peter's uncle, but there must have been some good reason why he was left out altogether. As for Leah Frazier, feel sorry for her if you want. But I'll tell you this, you'd better feel sorry for yourself. She has that town by the tail, and she'll swing it against you every chance she gets."

GRANDVIEW

We have been having somewhat dry weather, and everyone would appreciate a good rain.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lewis and family of Rule have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Prestidge.

Calvin Brown was in DeLeon Monday.

Mrs. Jim Blain is on the sick list. Her many friends are wishing her a speedy recovery.

Several from here attended the picnic at the Leon River near Alameda Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Duvall and family are attending the meeting at the Church of Christ, Alameda, this week.

Friends of Doran Brown, formerly of this place, now residing near Rochester, are much concerned over his severe illness. Mr. Brown was stricken with paralysis and is in a very critical condition.

On last Friday, July 17, the children of Mrs. C. M. Prestidge honored her with a birthday dinner. Mrs. Prestidge was 62 years of age, having been born and reared in Eastland county. She remembers many interesting pioneer events of the early settlement of the county. The children who were present were: Asa Moseley and family of Alameda; Mrs. A. J. Lamb and family, Mock, Lorena and Antha of this community, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lewis and family of Rule. Mrs. J. B. King and daughter, Mrs. Curtis Milton of Desdemona, Mrs. J. T. Brown and son, Jack, Buddie and J. C. Stockton of Cisco were afternoon callers. Everyone wished her many more happy birthdays.

Singing was well attended Sunday evening. There were visitors from several communities present.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

THERE always comes a day in summer when hot foods taste better than anything else. Of course, the hot foods of summer are not those we like in zero weather. The materials for hot weather dishes should be less rich and heating inasmuch as we have no cold to combat.

The a la Kings come into their own in warm weather. Eggs, chicken, fish and sweetbreads make delicious a la King combinations and are not too heavy for summer fare. With them serve crisp vegetable salads and baked fruit puddings. Such meals are seasonal and easy to prepare.

Several cooks have asked recently what distinguishes an a la King from a creamed dish. Well, there never was a real a la King concocted without egg yolks. Sherry and lemon juice always are included, too, so that the a la King has a characteristic flavor not to be found in a plain creamed mixture.

I like to serve summer a la Kings on toast rather than patty shells because patty shells are rich morsels.

Chicken a la King
Two cups diced cooked chicken, 4 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 1-1/4 cups chicken stock, 1-1/4 cups thin cream or top milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon celery salad, 2 drops onion juice, 1-4 teaspoon white pepper, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons sherry (optional but good), 2 egg yolks, 1 tablespoon water, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento, 6 ripe olives, 1 sweet green pepper.

Melt butter in sauce pan, add flour and stir until smooth and bubbly. Stir in stock and milk. Cook and stir over a low heat until thick and smooth and ready to boil. Season with salt, pepper, celery salt and onion juice. Beat egg yolks with water, lemon juice and sherry if you use it. Add with pimiento and chicken to cream and cook slowly for a minute or two. Garnish with rings of pepper and olives cut from steaks. Serve with hot crisp toast.

A blueberry pudding served with hard sauce puts the finishing touch to an inviting luncheon or supper. If you want to add an extra course and call it dinner serve French fried potatoes with the a la King and begin your meal with a clear beef broth garnished with tiny slivers of noodles.

Blueberry Pudding
One-half cup sour milk, 1 cup stale bread crumbs, 1-2 cup brown sugar, 4 tablespoons butter, 1-2 cup flour, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 tablespoons molasses, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 cups blueberries, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Soak bread crumbs in sour milk for half an hour. Cream shortening and sugar and add molasses. Mix and sift flour, soda, cinnamon and salt and sift over berries. Mix lightly and add to crumbs with baking mixture. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake forty-five minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Serve with hard sauce.

R. A. Larner Family Returns Home Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Larner, their daughters, Miss Marilyn, Lois, and son, Ray Jr., returned home Monday night after an absence of over two weeks.

Mrs. Larner and the children have been staying in Liberty while Mrs. Larner's father, Mr. Steele, was being treated in the hospital there for a fractured skull and back injury, received in a serious motor accident near Liberty, when the family was en route for their proposed vacation to be spent in Florida.

The accident changed all their plans as both Mr. and Mrs. Steele were injured, and all the Larner family excepting Mr. Larner, more or less bruised and cut.

Mrs. Steele was in the hospital a week, and both she and her husband are now at their home in Fort Worth.

Mr. Larner resumed his motor trip to Florida, where he went on business purposes, and upon his return via Liberty, brought his family home.

Mrs. Larner feels very grateful that they were so lucky to escape as well as they did from more serious injury in the accident.

Children's Hour Opens Thursday Morning "The Childrens Hour" for the little people and young folks of Eastland from 5 to 15 years of age, will be opened Thursday morning in community clubhouse, from 9 to 10 o'clock under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hollis Bennett, acting for the Junior Thursday Club, chairman for Childrens Hour under the sponsorship of the Thursday Afternoon Club.

Mrs. Fred C. Eastham will have charge of the younger group of children, in all sorts of pleasant work, including story telling, songs and music, and Miss Dolores Tanner the older children in story telling and dramatic work.

Mrs. Victor Ginn will assist with the music. The invitation is open to all children of the city in the age group mentioned.

The Childrens Hour was founded on the custom established by the English poet laureate, Lord Tennyson, who set aside one hour each day for association and talk with his children, reading to them and playing games with them. In this way the Childrens Hour gradually assumed shape and took hold on the imagination of people in many countries.

The Childrens Hour custom was opened in Eastland for the first time in 1933 by Thursday Afternoon Club, through the work of Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin at that time chairman of library committee during the presidency of Mrs. B. M.

Collie. There was no Childrens Hour the following year.

In 1935 the Thursday Afternoon Club resumed the Childrens Hour in an eight weeks course held in community clubhouse. Mrs. R. A. Larner, chairman of library committee for Thursday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. E. R. Townsend is president, conducted the sessions.

This season of 1936 will see the third observation of this unique "hour," which the Junior Thursday Club has in hand. Opens Thursday, 9 to 10 a. m., community clubhouse.

BELLES PRAISED; BELLS HIT

DALLAS.—Dallas' belles are marvelous, the prettiest he has ever seen—but its bells are a nightmare of noise, Archibald S. Whyte, of Melbourne, Australia, who visited the Texas Centennial Exposition, said.

BIRD CRAMPS FISHERMAN CORVALLIS, Mont.—M. E. Cobb has been deprived of his regular fishing habits for several weeks. A bluebird chose his favorite fishing basket as a nest for hatching and raising a family of five.

Modern Gas Cooker RETAINS HEALTHFUL VITAMINS AND MINERAL OILS

Vigorous boiling in lots of water destroys the vitamin and mineral content of fresh vegetables. A thoughtful woman wants to retain these healthful elements. The controlled boiling heat which the gas range provides does not rapidly evaporate when boiling vegetables. Mothers can serve more healthful food by following this simple method of modern cookery.

1. Cooking vegetables the semi-waterless way on modern gas range requires no special type of utensil. 2. Place vegetables covered with about 1/2 inch water. 3. Place covered pan over simmer burner. Turn to fast heat. When boiling starts turn burner to simmering heat which maintains a gentle boiling action retaining healthful vitamins. 4. After cooking is nearly as much liquid as was original vessel, and there is valuable mineral left. 5. Gas simmer cookery is clean and labor saving. It means cooler cooking and a cleaner kitchen for there's little escaping steam rising from a covered pot of gently boiling vegetables.

"To insure SAFETY, COMFORT and ON-TIME SCHEDULES for our 30,000,000 PASSENGERS, Firestone GUM-DIPPED TIRES are used on Greyhound Buses"

FOLLOW the lead of big tire users who buy only on proof of performance. Last year Greyhound buses traveled 138,000,000 miles from Coast to Coast and from Canada to the Gulf across deserts and over winding mountain roads. They have won the National Safety Council's highest award in inter-city bus operation for the past four years. This is indeed a tribute to careful driving, efficient equipment and the reserve safety of Firestone tires made possible by the Firestone Patented Process of Gum-Dipping which prevents internal friction and heat. Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires run up to 28% cooler and give greatest blowout protection—the scientifically designed non-skid tread will stop your car up to 25% quicker and give you 50% longer non-skid mileage. Take no chances! Buy your tires on proof of performance. Let us equip your car today with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires, the Masterpiece of Tire Construction!
