SCHOOL FUND SET BY BOARD AT $22 TODAY

AUSTIN, Aug. 20.—The state board of education today reconsidered the 1937-38 school apportionment and again set the amount at $22 per scholastic by unanimous vote. An injunction against certification of that amount at Dallas will be dismissed. The settlement means the state will pay school districts $22 for each child of scholastic age. Total state enrollment is more than 1,500,000. The unanimous action came as a surprise. The board had a bitter division over the apportionment and was reported to stand five to four for reduction. Testimony of State Comptroller George Sheppard at a trial in San Antonio was considered. Sheppard testified that there were funds to meet a $22 apportionment under existing conditions. The state tax board had reduced the state and valorem school tax from 20 cents to seven cents on $100 valuation.

Engine Jumps Rails In Safety Test

ESTCOURT, Natal.—An engine and tender weighing 89 tons were hurled off the line in a spectacular railway smash near here—and it was no accident. The derailment was part of the experiments being conducted under the supervision of Dr. C. von Abo, railway research engineer, to determine the overturning speeds of different types of vehicles. The engine and tender were dragged up a steep incline, and allowed to run down again under their own momentum, no driver or fireman being aboard. Fifteen times the engine ran down from different heights on the slope, gradually gaining a higher speed over the testing apparatus each time as it was allowed to gather more momentum. At a speed of over 40 miles an hour, the engine and tender dashed toward the corner on its "fatal" run. They approached the curve lurching dangerously. Just at the end of the bend, which was a radius of only 300 feet, the tender left the line and swung outward from the coupling, attaching it to the engine. At once it pulled the engine off the line. With a deafening crash, the engine and tender overturned before the rails. The tender, its steel plates twisted and two special vacuum tanks wrenched off, apparently was beyond repairs, but it was hoped that the engine would be capable of use in further tests. Dr. von Abo said the tests proved his theories in regard to overturning speeds.

Rookie Patrolmen Get Training In a Variety of Ways

AUSTIN.—The seven-weeks' training school for Texas highway patrolmen at Camp Mabry includes everything from table manners to the art of making an apprehended speed law violator smile. The 135 successful applicants for highway patrol jobs recently created by the state legislature, begin their day at 6 a. m. They are free to do what they want after 10 p. m. Capt. Homer Garrison, Jr., assistant director of public safety, who is training the rookies, said that traffic regulation and highway safety was the theme of the training course. The embryo patrolman, however, spend the day in classes that include corrective calisthenics, highway and other traffic laws, public speaking, military drill, table etiquette, sharpshooting, motorcycle riding and repairing, gymnastics, criminal laws, safety work and first aid. Two major riot gas distributing companies have announced that they will give demonstrations to the students in the uses of tear producing gases. When the seven weeks of the school are completed, the officers will be stationed over the state in districts already manned by patrolmen. After six months of probation, the students will become full fledged patrolmen.

Custer Soldier Tells Of His Good Luck Before Famed Fight

NORTH STONINGTON, Conn.—Cyrus Eben Whipple, 89, was remarking he was glad he was not with members of the 7th Cavalry on June 25, 1876, at the junction of the Big and Little Horn rivers when the dwindling group of whites saw Gen. George A. Custer firing away from behind his dead horse until he, too, could fire no longer. "So am I glad I wasn't there," said a stranger. "So what?" But Whipple came close to participating in that "last stand." He had served with Custer. Due to a mistake by some officer along the line he had been taken into the service for a three-year period after legislation had been enacted making the enlistment term five years. "So Whipple was out because of "false enlistment," which in no way stigmatized his record. Thus he avoided the massacre which cost the lives of about all his old buddies. "Custer was a strict disciplinarian," said Whipple. "If you did your duty and took the scratch you were okay, but you didn't want to look for favors. Because of his strictness, he was never loved like some of the officers, but he was a fine soldier."

Parole Is Her Wedding Present

In what was probably the first such ceremony ever performed in an American reformatory, 17-year-old Evelyn Steel, right, above, became Evelyn Steel Cook, when she married Hercule Cook, 21-year-old grocery clerk, in the Tecumseh, Okla., reform school where she was an inmate. For a wedding present, the bride, shown cutting her wedding cake, received a parole. Sweethearts since childhood, the couple was separated when Evelyn went to the reformatory a year ago. U. S. CRUISER HIT BY SHELL AT SHANGHAI

TOKYO, (Saturday), Aug. 21.—An official naval communique tonight said the Japanese air force at Shanghai had bombed and destroyed 100 enemy planes. The communique made no reference to a shell which struck the U. S. S. Augusta. It said the Shanghai military front virtually was unchanged. SHANGHAI (Saturday), Aug. 21.—Chinese planes started a systematic bombing about midnight, their missiles shaking buildings in the center of the city. Fire was raging on the Pootung side of the Whangpoo river. A Japanese cotton mill was believed in flames.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 20.—A shell, apparently from Japanese guns, attempting to drive off bombing Chinese airplanes, accidentally struck the U. S. cruiser, Augusta, today and killed one sailor and wounded 18 others. The Augusta is flagship of the Asiatic squadron. The cruiser was only slightly damaged. The incident happened at 9 a. m. in a battle between a score of Japanese warships and attacking Chinese land and air forces. The sailor killed was Frederick Falgout, 21, of Louisiana.

First official word of the shelling was received by navy headquarters in Washington and indicated none of the 18 injured was in a serious condition. The accident imperiled international relations. International law permits free passage of U. S. warships on the river. At Washington there was immediate demand from Sen. Bennett Clark and Sen. Gerald Nye that the U. S. Government evacuate the battle area and invoke the neutrality act.

President Roosevelt said for the present American authorities on the spot would handle the situation. American residents in Shanghai were concerned about the reaction in Washington. They feared it would intensify demands that the United States abandon Shanghai. This, they said, would mean that more than $150,000,000 in American property would be at the mercy of foreign nations. Reinforcements for the American Marines arrived in Shanghai. Eight hundred Americans departed for Manila.

Gas masks were issued to 1,152 Marines, guarding entrances into the Anglo-American area. There have been reports that both sides were preparing to use gas bombs.

Not Making Trouble Mertis Reward, Too

Wondering just how many persons in the vicinity of Detroit had, like himself, lived 70 years or more without being arrested, one John A. Williams, 76, decided that the best way to find out would be through a letter to the editor of a newspaper.

The letter was published and in due time Mr. Williams began to get answers. In fact, so many answers from people who could meet the stringent qualifications, that Mr. Williams was impelled to organize them into a club.

Now in these days almost any kind of an excuse will start someone organizing something which, nine times out of ten, is nothing more than a dues-collecting scheme. But a club of people who have never been arrested somehow is different. And its virtue is that it lays the foundation for a monument to one of the most deserving varieties of the "forgotten man."

Enormous portions of the nation's talents and resources are being devoted to cutting down the activities of the gangster, the murderer, the bandit and the parole-breaker. They are held constantly in ridicule before the public, as examples of lawlessness.

But comparatively little has been done to popularize the career of the law-abiding citizen or make him the model for positive education in the principles of progressive civilization.

It is when he is contrasted against his opposite that the man who has never been arrested assumes his real proportions. In general he is the man who does not kidnap children. He does not rob banks, run gambling houses, sell liquor to minors or break traffic laws. He does not run up the taxpayer's bill in lengthy trials or prison maintenance. He is the fellow who does not slug pedestrians along dark streets or shoot G-Men or write bad checks.

In summary, he is the fellow who has not caused every civilized nation most of its household grief and has not cost that nation appalling sums in money and misery.

Of course, there are many who have committed illegal acts and got off scot free. And there are others who have been haled before the judgment bench when they were perfectly innocent.

But when account is taken of all exceptions, there still remains a large section of the population whose clean record with the law attests its value as a bulwark to the national morals.

Other heroes have been ennobled and their status set up in the name of other noble causes. But the award of high distinction for the man who has just simply kept out of trouble all his life is strangely missing.

Beautiful but dumb thinks the Rural Electrification Administration was formed to help farmers shock their wheat.

20-Year-Old Pitcher Strikes Out 10 In Defeating Hanlon Eight to One

A 20-year-old pitcher, Johnson, spelled an eight to one defeat on Thursday night to the Hanlon Gasoline team of Breckenridge which played Marathon from Eliasville in the A. S. A. district tournament at Eastland.

Hanlon, which had been favored by many fans as the probable winner of the tournament, collected only three hits. Johnson's swift underhand ball netted him 10 strikeouts.

Puryear and Teague together got seven strikeouts for Hanlon. Marathon had protested Goodwin and Hanlon protested the opposition pitcher. Hanlon's title run was from an error of Eliasville's roving short. A wild pitch by the short when a man was on third was the error.

Elks club of Ranger won the other game of the evening in Alexander-Hill of Breckenridge, 9 to 4.

Umpires were Owen, Parrack, Garrison and Wright.

Negro Boy Steals In Prosecutor's Office

CLEBURNE, Texas—A negro boy, 12, who took $1 from the purse of Janie Odom here was no respecter of authority. The youngster stole the money while cleaning the woodwork in the district attorney's office, where Miss Odom is employed. He admitted the theft and returned 25 cents to which the dollar had dwindled.

Iowa Borrows An Expert Upon Bees

AMES, Ia.—Agricultural experts who have been breeding bees for disease resistance at Iowa State College for the past two years have appointed an international authority on bee-keeping, Gaston Lamarre, Quebec, to assist them in their research studies.

Lamarre, extension apiarist of Quebec Provincial department of agriculture, has enrolled at Iowa State as graduate student. In addition to the scientists at the college, the U. S. Bureau of Entomology and the experiment stations of Texas, Wyoming and Wisconsin are participating in the experiments.

Zoologists and plant pathologists are working to develop a strain of bees resistant to the American foul brood disease. Hope for the ultimate success of the project lies in two facts already established by the Iowa State experiments. They are:

- 1. That some bees already possess disease resistance. 2. Such disease resistance can be inherited.

NEW YORK—Mike Jacobs, the new Tex Rickard, has saved more Broadway productions than he could count, but rarely attends a theater for the purpose of seeing one.

WHEN Jacobs openly entered the New York fistic promotional field with the Barney Ross-Billy Petrolle scrap in the winter of 1933-4, it was inevitable that he eventually would take over Madison Square Garden and its bowl in Queens.

JACOBS is a bundle of nerves and occasional crabby spells are due to attacks of sinus. He goes far out of his way to apologize after snapping at someone.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

WASHINGTON—One of the great plagues of the long court bill fight is the fact some of the most able administration policies, thanks to Roosevelt's desire to win the court fight, were tossed overboard.

RIGHT now the chief difference between the Senate and House was-hour bills is the fact that the Senate insists all employees of the wage-hour board earning more than $4000 a year must be exempt from civil service and placed under the Senate's political control by a requirement that they be confirmed by the Senate.

Government Has Huge Dividend On Investment Savings

WASHINGTON.—The United States Government has been paid a cumulative total of more than $8,827,000 in dividends on its investments in savings, building and loan associations, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board announced today after receipt of a preliminary report of dividends from these associations for the first half of 1937.

This sum includes $4,995,472 received by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation from investments in Federal Savings and Loan associations and other qualified thrift institutions that are members of the Federal Home Loan Bank system, as authorized by Congress in 1935, and $3,876,268 received by the United States Treasury from investments in Federal Savings and Loan associations, authorized in 1933.

Additional dividends from associations that have not yet reported for the first six months of this year will increase these totals, it was stated.

Federal Savings and Loan associations have paid the Government a cumulative total of $8,092,808 in dividends. For the 1937 January to June period, the Federal associations alone have forwarded $3,102,377 to the H. O. L. C., and the Treasury. Their current dividend rate is approximately 3.7 per cent.

State-chartered associations, in which lesser sums were invested, paid H. O. L. C. an aggregate of more than $423,842 for the half-year, at an earning rate in excess of 3.6 per cent.

The investments were made to enable state-chartered and Federal

Art of Tobacco Chewing on Decline Over the Nation

ATLANTA, Ga.—The fine art of tobacco chewing promised to become a lost art today as the number of chewers in the nation declined steadily and there was little hope of rebuilding the chewing tobacco market.

Al Savings and Loan associations more quickly to meet their local demands for long-term loans for the purchase, construction, repair and refinancing of homes, largely before the present tide of recovery had set in. The recent revival of home building in many parts of the country has coincided with the expanded activity of these associations.

At the same time, more ample funds are being received from private investors, making further investment by the Government unnecessary.

From 1933 to 1935, the Treasury invested $49,300,000 in shares in some 650 Federal associations, $1,116,300 of which has since been retired. From September, 1935, to June 30 of this year H. O. L. C. invested $150,368,400 in 940 Federal associations, some of which had previously obtained Treasury capital, and $32,664,600 in 203 state-chartered thrift associations. The aggregate of the Treasury and H. O. L. C. funds invested in savings, building and loan associations was $231,216,700 on June 30.

The law provides for the gradual retirement of these Government investments through repurchase by the associations, beginning within five years from the dates on which the subscriptions were made.

Officials of major tobacco companies reported an increasingly sharp decline in chewing tobacco sales this year.

At the same time, big company buyers in Georgia's tobacco belt laughed at the decrease in demand for chewing tobacco and blamed it on paved streets and speedy automobiles.

One buyer with a large Virginia company said, "A man just naturally doesn't like to expectorate on a paved street." He said the expectation necessitated by tobacco chewing was not so noticeable on dirt streets and roads, but that modern paving was making tobacco chewers self-conscious.

He also pointed out that chewing in a fast moving automobile has its disadvantages. A wagon, he said, is the proper vehicle in which to chew tobacco if you must ride while chewing.

Other buyers in Georgia—most of them from Virginia and North Carolina—said today's younger generation was being encouraged to smoke cigarettes.

A few years ago, a young boy in a small rural village did not reach manhood until he could chew and squirt tobacco juice through a knothole ten or more feet away.

Now, however, the buyers report, that when a chewer died, the chewing tobacco industry loses another customer and there are few replacements.

Malta Fever Being Reported In State

AUSTIN—Undulant or Malta fever, a disease contracted from cattle, hogs, or sheep which are infected with contagious abortion, is being reported fairly regularly through Texas, according to State Health Officer, Geo. W. Cox.

This indicates the fever constitutes a public health problem and also the necessity of its more general recognition.

Undulant fever is so named because of the wave-like variations in temperature. The symptoms include rise in temperature, loss of weight and strength, chills, sweat and joint pains. The disease has rather a low mortality rate, but is important because symptoms may persist for a number of weeks and even months before normal health and strength are restored," Dr. Cox explained.

In Texas, the goat, horse and cows are the usual spreader of this disease. The germs of undulant fever enter the body through the mouth or skin. Therefore, care should be used in handling animals known to be infected and

Party Harmonyattered In State

By United Press SHINGTON, Aug. 20.—A party harmony shattered in the senate today by the resignation of Sen. Joseph O'Mahoney, challenged the administration to declare a state of emergency. O'Mahoney's resignation was a blow to the administration's efforts to pass a bill to declare a state of emergency. The bill was a response to the recent attacks on the government by the Japanese government. O'Mahoney's resignation was a surprise to many observers, as he was considered a strong supporter of the administration.
