available on the subject of Texas birds.

Mr. Burr recalled that he was "humiliated" when forced to answer in the negative and that he resolved to undertake the writing of a monograph on Texas birds at once. A few months later, there appeared a bulletin entitled "How Texas Wildlife is Protected; Short Talks about Birds." More than 5,000 copies were sold.

When the ground was broken, Mr. Burr secured the consent of the commission to encourage teaching of wildlife conservation in public schools. Three winters ago, he toured much of the state, making addresses in 90 high schools.

By contacting key professors, Mr. Burr stimulated interest in the study of fish life in several of the state's leading universities and colleges.

Brown-Naylor Station, Newest of Firms Here, Opens for Business

Taking its place with other Eastland business, the Brown-Naylor Oil Corporation service station on the 500 block of West Main street was open Friday to local citizens and travelers to whom it is easily accessible. The station, constructed by Buck Foster as contractor for Guy Patterson of Eastland, has been leased to Brown-Naylor for five years. Expenditure on the station, embodying the newest in service station architecture, was approximately $3,000, it has been stated.

The new station is the newest link in the businesses operated by Brown-Naylor corporation which headquarters at Breckenridge. Others are located throughout West Texas.

A "West Texas Gas for Texans" and others—Cosden—is the gasoline sold. Also featured are Cosden lubricating products.

Miss Dora Williams had been here several weeks on the visit.

Miss Kitty Frost has returned home after a visit in Breckenridge with Mrs. Charles Jones.

Besides gasoline and lubricating products, the station is making a feature of its washing, lubricating and greasing services. The attendants are prepared to check automobiles thoroughly for winter driving.

Employees are B. E. Fortenberry and J. W. Greathouse in the daytime and Randall Fowler at night. Twenty-four hour service is available.

Distinctive features of the station, located on the Broadway of America highway, include the modernistic lighting system, modern pumps, modern equipment through out and the white stucco of the buildings.

School Teachers Started Interest In Wildlife Study

AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 3.—Two curious women school teachers whose names are now unknown were responsible for the beginning of instruction in wildlife conservation now offered by many Texas high schools and colleges, it was revealed by J. G. Burr, director of education and research for the Texas game fish and oyster commission.

Visiting the commission's museum nine years ago, the teachers became particularly interested when Mr. Burr showed them some mounted bird specimens. They asked if there was any literature

Ballyhoo Business—Century and Half Ago

National advertisers are pretty smart. They engineer national campaigns that change the tastes of a nation and they stage contests that keep a million persons home nights puzzling and puzzling. But they have yet to top the best trick of the bunch, and that happened nearly 150 years ago.

It was in Sweden, where coffee and tea arrived simultaneously, as it did in other Scandinavian countries, late in the 18th century.

Rival groups of dealers imported the ingredients for the two beverages and each group had a natural and understandable desire to establish a market before the other. Through the advertising mediums of the day and the forerunners of the modern press agent, each contingent began advancing claims as to the beneficial values of its product.

The claims eventually became so fantastic and the country so worked up over them that liberal King Gustaf III became mildly annoyed. So, when twin brothers, identical in every physical respect, were convicted of murder and condemned to death, the monarch saw an opportunity to end the ballyhoo.

He commuted their sentences to life imprisonment and further sentenced each to drink a strong potion each day—one of tea and the other of coffee. Physicians were designated to examine the two and report on the progress. The nation lined up and took sides. King Gustaf III watched from his throne and the doctors took up their stethoscopes.

But nothing happened. Interest was high at first, but it lagged when the puzzled doctors, at the end of the first month, said they really couldn't notice any difference. And after six months even the doctors got tired of watching.

It was a royal order, so the prisoners continued their daily libations. After several years one doctor died and then the other, but not the prisoners. In 1782 King Gustaf III was assassinated. The prisoners lived on until one finally succumbed—at the age of 83.

History doesn't record the ultimate end of the other, whether coffee or tea drinker, but it is safe to assume that he ultimately died of his excesses also.

In the meantime, with the contest long forgotten, Sweden had developed into the champion coffee drinking nation of the world, where it remains today. Presumably the tea faction moved to England and caught the coffee dealers napping.

The modern exploitation men aren't too original. The episode in Sweden stands undefeated and untied. But somewhere, much further back, there probably was a super, colossal stunt that beat it all hollow.

YOUTHFUL "COWBOYS" REALLY LIKE RANGER OAT MEAL COOKIES

One of the quickest ways for a mother to tame the sturdy little bronco-busters in her family is to serve them "Ranger Cookies."

One cookie will harness their appetites until mealtime. Ranger Cookies are made from the following ingredients: 1 cup butter, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup brown sugar, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups sifted flour, 2 cups Quaker oatmeal, 2 cups prepared cereal, 1 cup coconut, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Cream sugar and shortening, add well beaten eggs and beat until light and fluffy. Sift flour with soda, baking powder and salt and add to first mixture. Beat until well blended, then fold in the oats, prepared cereal and coconut. Mix thoroughly and add vanilla. Drop mixture on greased baking sheet and bake for 20 minutes in a 350-degree oven.

Fashion note: Women's hats for winter are to be high and tilted. Why tilted?

Arctic Climate Growing Warmer

By United Press

MOSCOW.—Prof. V. Vize, the well-known Arctic scientist and explorer, has completed a study dealing with the change of climate in the Arctic.

According to his studies, the mean annual temperature in the Arctic in the regions adjoining the Atlantic Ocean has risen by 2 degrees during the last 17 years. During the winter months the rise of temperature as compared with 17 years ago, is up to 5 degrees. On Franz Joseph Land, the temperature rise reaches even 7 degrees.

A noticeable recession of the glaciers covering Arctic islands and a decrease in the quantities of ice floating in the Arctic seas is observed together with the warmer temperature. Considerable thawing of ice is taking place in Spitzbergen.

The change of climate had its effect on animal life in the Arctic. The high latitudes are becoming inhabited with relatively warm-loving species of animals.

Sport Glances. By Grayson

NEW YORK.—If you are looking for a clown as to why the New York Giants are back up there in the National League...

There, once again, you will read: Bartell, ss

This is one of the most important lines in history—as important as the 1924 Seven Mules of Notre Dame, the Seven Rocks of Fordham, and the International Date Line.

For two different stretches this season the line was missing after Mr. Bartell, who, as you may suspect, plays a very important and considerable of it, went far to his right for a grand slam, scooped it up, and in his own furious fashion threw every last ounce of his body behind a heave to first base.

It so happened that the last once objected to being thrown around like this. Mr. Bartell came up with a crick in his back, or something, and had to go to the sidelines. This happened on the afternoon of July 18. At the time, the Giants and the Chicago Cubs were close as these two lines of type. Mr. Bartell's team was only a percentage point behind the leading Cubs.

WELL, sir, what happens? Mr. Bartell is on the sidelines from that afternoon until Friday, Aug. 13, and the Giants drop 6 games behind the Cubs.

So then what happens? Mr. Bartell plays every minute of the next four games and the Giants promptly win four straight and overtake the Cubs' lead melts like a schooner of ice cream dumped on the steaming hot corner of Hades Highway and Satan Avenue.

All of which would seem to indicate that if Mr. Carl Hubbell, the smallest of the flatterers of The Meal Ticket certainly the smallest of no harm in nicknaming Mr. Bartell Bill Terry's Worst Series Ticket. If Terry gets into the fall classic, as we say, it will be on the strength of Mr. Bartell.

THE peppery little shortstop is rather burdened with nicknames, however. He is sometimes referred to as Rowdy Richard, sometimes as Daredevil Dick, and he has also been called a—but that's what Mr. Joe Judge calls him and it would hardly do in a family newspaper. Mr. Judge, you know, is the former first basemen who was spiked by Rowdy Richard some few years back which is one of the reasons Rowdy Richard got to be known as Rowdy Richard.

Or, at least, he was until he went to the Giants during the winter of 1935. Terry took him aside and cautioned him against such stunts. Dick, who is one of the best fielding shortstops in baseball, while one of the smallest of them all, thinks going to the right is a terrible job, never shifts his position according to the pitch—"because of tip off the batter," and says that pop flies back of second are "rifle safe."

Johnny Goes Marching Off to School

Soon the school bells will be ringing over the land. Soon Johnny and Janice, scrubbed and combed and brushed, will go off to the serious business of Reading and 'Riting and 'Rithmetic.

But, before they go, there is serious business for Mother too: She must select the children's outfits. In this work, advertisements can help her as nothing else can! They enable her to plan her shopping before she leaves the house. They point out bargains. They remind her of items she might otherwise forget. They make her task easier, more economical, more thorough.

Have you made a list of the things the children will need for school? Does that list include galoshes or rubbers? A new lunch box? A school bag, or strap for their books? A raincoat? Pads and pencils? Hats and suits, and a young man's topcoat? Perhaps a watch for the "ten o'clock scholar"?

Before Johnny goes marching off to school. . . read the advertisements!

KAY DEARBORN—heroine who inherits a yacht for vacation.
ELITA HOWARD—Kay's roommate and co-adventurer.
PRISCILLA DUNN—the third adventurer.
WORRETT BROTHERS and GRANT HARPER—young scientists whose expedition turned out to be a rare experience.

Yesterday, investigating the strange cabin ashore the girls and the body of a woman. The next day she has disappeared! And when the girls return to their cruiser they find a great hole has been cut in the dinghy.

CHAPTER VIII

FILLED with dismay and fright, the three girls regarded the jagged hole which had been chipped through the bottom of the overturned dinghy. Footprints led down to the boat from another part of the wood were plain, evidently made by a man wearing a good-sized outing shoe. In the excitement and fear of the moment they failed to notice that the footprints did not lead away from the damaged dinghy. And lying near, its handle in the water, was a short and ugly ax with which the damage had evidently been done.

"There's nothing for us to do but to swim to the boat," Kay pointed out.

Melita shook her head. "I don't want to ruin this rifle. We—we may need it badly. I'll stay here while one of you swim to the 'Chinook' and inflate the rubber life-raft. With that we can keep the 'Chinook' safe."

"You won't be afraid to stay here?" Kay asked.

"N-no, I guess not."

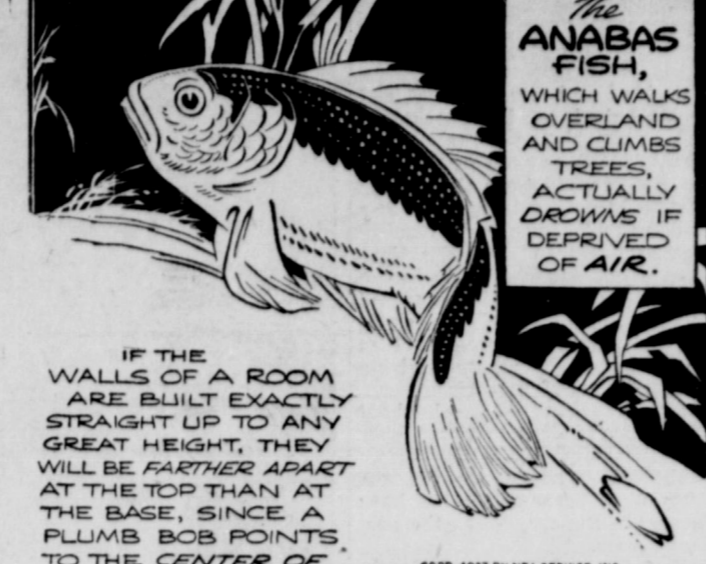

Kay turned to Priscilla. "You stay here with her. Whoever and who you want to be, he'd probably be less likely to bother two of us. But keep your eyes on the water. He's probably watching us from back there somewhere."

A confident, strong swimmer, Kay plunged into the water and began to swim for the anchored cruiser. She did not look back to see the frightened Melita and Priscilla crouching on the sand, their wide eyes searching the trees and underbrush. They heard Kay's rhythmic splashes grow fainter, and then there was silence.

"It might be a good idea," mentioned Melita, "if you got down behind the dinghy. He's probably got a gun, too, and he might take a shot at us before we can even see him." She dropped prone on the beach behind the inadequate shelter of the boat, and Priscilla followed suit.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

THE ANABAS FISH, WHICH WALKS OVERLAND AND CLIMBS TREES, ACTUALLY DROWNS IF DEPRIVED OF AIR.

IF THE WALLS OF A ROOM ARE BUILT EXACTLY STRAIGHT UP TO ANY GREAT HEIGHT, THEY WILL BE FARTHER APART AT THE TOP THAN AT THE BASE, SINCE A PLUMB BOB POINTS TO THE CENTER OF THE EARTH.

IT IS NO EASIER TO SWIM IN DEEP WATER THAN IN SHALLOW WATER.

The Anabas fish frequently finds it necessary to leave a pond of water that is drying up. In seeking another body of water, the fish crosses dusty roads and fields and traverses a considerable distance in a comparatively short time.

August Rated As Healthiest Month

By United Press
INDIANAPOLIS.—If you believe Dr. Herman G. Morgan, Indianapolis health board secretary, there aren't any "dog days" any more.

He says it's all because of scientific development of preventative medicine, public health administration and more sanitary sewage disposal.

There was a time, you know, when, in August, horses frothed at the mouth, dogs went mad and little boys were warned to stay away from the swimmin' hole with the green scum.

Because sanitary conditions and death were at their worst then, the heat rate was higher.

But not now. August now boasts of being the most healthful month of the year when it was once believed the most unhealthy. It has the lowest illness and death rate of them all, Dr. Morgan said.

Livestock Shipments Show Upward Trend

AUSTIN, Texas.—Shipments of Texas live stock to Fort Worth stockyards and interstate points continue fully to maintain the wide margin of increase over last year which has been noted in these reports for several months, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has reported.

Total shipments of all classes of Texas live stock for July was 5,926 cars, against 2,659 cars last year, an increase of 123 per cent. Cattle shipments amounted to 4,145 cars, an increase of 160 per cent; calf shipments, 869 cars, an increase of 89 per cent; sheep shipments, 414 cars, an increase of 4 per cent, and sheep shipments, 498 cars, an increase of 146 per cent.

"As in previous months a large part of this sharp increase in forwarding was destined for the Fort Worth market," the Bureau's report said. "Especially was this true for cattle, calves, and sheep."

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By Mrs. Gayner Maddox

CHICKEN in every pot is not so interesting as a chicken under every broiler. To say nothing of the oven. Now that broilers and fryers are the belles of the poultry world, the following different recipes will put a lot of sun in Sunday dinner.

Special Roast Chicken (6 servings)
 Select two 2-1/2-pound frying chickens. Singe the chickens, wash inside and out and dry. Place a teaspoon salt in each chicken and shake to distribute evenly. Salt the outside lightly and rub well with 1/4 pound of butter which has been creamed. Scrape and cut in pieces 2 large carrots. Peel and slice 2 small onions. Cut 2 stalks of celery in 1/4-inch pieces. Place vegetables evenly in the bottom of a roasting pan from which rack has been removed. Add 1/2 bay leaf and 1-4 teaspoon poultry seasoning and a little water. Place the fowl on the vegetables and roast. Baste frequently. Do not cover chickens unless they brown too rapidly. Bake from 45 minutes to 1 hour moderate oven (350 degrees F.). When chickens are cooked, strain off gravy from the roasting pan, add 1/2 cup of soup stock and 2 tablespoons of tomato soup. Remove excess fat, thicken with 1 tablespoon flour and serve in a gravy dish.

Fried Chicken a la Creole (4 to 6 servings)
 Two 2-pound frying chickens, 1 egg, 2 cups tomatoes, 1 onion, 2 sprigs parsley, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper.
 Cut each chicken in 4 pieces, wash well and dry. Dip in flour and then in beaten egg. Place in a pan with beaten eggs, tomatoes, chopped onion and parsley and seasonings. Fry in deep fat, serve with tomato sauce.

Tomato Sauce
 Two cups tomatoes, 2 cups water, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon allspice, 2 sprigs chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 tablespoon butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 1 heaping teaspoon cornstarch.
 Boil together tomatoes, water, seasonings, spices and parsley. Sauté onion in butter, add cornstarch and cook well. Add this to tomato and seasoning, cook until thick and strain.

Pan Fried Chicken (6 servings)
 Select 2 broilers weighing 1 1/2 pounds each. Wash carefully, dry and cut in halves. Place in a roasting pan and salt and pepper well. Pour over them 1/2 cup of melted butter and 1 cup of heavy cream. Bake about 3-4 hour in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) basting frequently. When almost done add 1 teaspoon of paprika to gravy. Fry small pieces of bacon very crisp. When ready to serve pour pan gravy over chickens, place a piece of crisp bacon on top and serve with spiced peaches.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Members of Congress will have to be taken quietly aside and have everything explained to them before they approve the State Department's proposal to lease six U. S. naval destroyers to Brazil.

A British armaments firm has been building six destroyers for the Argentine Brazil, which traditionally has had much more friendly relations with this country than Argentina, ask if this government how about renting her half a dozen destroyers until she could get some of her own built.

The question was put up to Roosevelt. The idea of naval cooperation with Latin American nations carried a strong appeal to the President as a great pro-navy man, and he acquiesced at once. Argentina complained bitterly.

But now this government and Brazil have joined in a statement that they will stand pat on the leasing agreement.

Behind the whole business is the fact that Germany and Italy have been increasing their propaganda penetration of Brazil at a rapid rate.

Those two nations, it is believed, are trying to solidify such a favorable attitude toward themselves in South American countries that England would be obstructed in any future war from obtaining raw materials and foodstuffs on which she depends.

This may come a bit late, but it is now here where the guessing still continues.

LET'S KNOW TEXAS - TEXANS

WILL H. MAYES, AUSTIN, TEXAS

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. Who was the first Texan to establish a scholarship at the University of Texas?
 A. Godschaux A. Levi, a pioneer banker and capitalist of Victoria, who was an early president of the Texas Bankers' Association.

Q. By what name was the section now embraced in the Lower Rio Grande Valley first known to American settlers?
 A. When Martin De Leon operated a ranch there in 1806, and for years afterward, it was known as "Wild Horse Desert," because of the large number of wild horses found there, the capture of and trade in these proving quite profitable.

Q. What are to be the dimensions of the Marshall Ford dam?
 A. The dam, located about 20 miles above Austin, will be the largest of the series of Colorado River dams. The concrete section will be 2,365 feet long and will be joined by earth embankment 1,100 feet long; the center will be 192 feet high.

Q. What will be the area of the reservoir made by the Marshall Ford dam? When will it be completed?
 A. The lake will be 65 miles long with width varying up to two miles. With an average of 1,200 men working daily, it is estimated that two years will be required for its completion.

Q. Did Sam Bass ever use Longhorn Cavern for a rendezvous?
 A. There is an unauthenticated legend to that effect and visitors are shown the Sam Bass entrance to the cavern. The usually accepted without question the statements made by guides.

DESDEMONA

Miss Mognon Whitworth returned Friday from Borger where she had visited relatives for several weeks. She was recently elected to a place in the Desdemona schools.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Haynes of Duster, were here Sunday visiting the Hickey et al No. 1 Martin well which blew in Friday and also the Gallagher & Lawson, Mrs. Bobbie Terry well where the drillers were underreaming and setting 8 inch casing at 4165 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parks and son, Earl drove to Freer Sunday and visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hilliard who, returned with them. Their many friends will be glad to know that Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard will make their home here, having rented the Roy Rushing house. Travis was recently elected to a place in the Desdemona Schools.

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon and had the Stewardship program which is always given on a fifth Monday. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Charles Lee, and the minutes were read and the roll was called by the Secretary, Mrs. S. E. Snodgrass. Others who took part in the program were Miss Mollie O'Rear, Mrs. G. S. Bruce and Mrs. W. H. Whitworth.

Miss Delia Wall and Mrs. James Duncan of De Leon were here Monday visiting relatives and old friends. Miss Wall recently returned from a tour of the northern and western states and a part of Canada. Her many friends will be glad to welcome her back next week when she comes to resume her teaching of public school music in school.

Miss Novis Lindley of De Leon and Miss Alberta Martin of Fort Worth, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fincannon Sunday. Miss Martin and Mrs. Fincannon were roommates while teaching here the past two years.

J. A. Mohon of De Leon, was here Monday, visiting the Gallagher and Lawson No. 1 Mrs. Bobbie Terry well.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerrell, Mrs. Ben Young and son, Ben Young Jr., and Mrs. Pearl Cagle, all of Stephenville were here Sunday visiting the Hickey et al No. 1 Martin well and the Gallagher & Lawson No. 1, Mrs. Bobbie Terry. Others who were visiting the wells were Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Sloan of Gorman, James Wells of School Hill, Mrs. A. L. Ward and son, Jess Ward Jr., of Wichita Falls, E. D. Mahon and Mrs. A. F. Mahon of Dublin.

O. P. Newberry and E. D. David of Gorman were here Monday visiting the Gallagher and Lawson Terry well.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Powers and son, Jack and Mrs. Betty Vestal attended the singing at St. Jo Sunday night. Elmer Abernathy was also among the number who went from here. He added to the program by playing an original piano solo.

On Tuesday afternoon of last week fire destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. (Curly) Craig who have lived the past year on their farm about two miles west of town. The fire was supposed to have started from a defective flue as there was fire in the kitchen stove and the ceiling and roof were blazing almost before it was discovered. The house was quite an old one and burned very quickly so they were able to save very little. Mr. and Mrs. Craig and their eight children went to the home of her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Wilhite, whose farm is near there. Mr. Craig had to give up his work as a barber a few years ago on account of his health but since moving to the farm his health has improved and he has raised a lot of potatoes and vegetables on the 10-acre tract. Almost as soon as word of the fire reached town their many friends began getting together clothing and household furnishings for them and cash donations were given sufficiently to buy a small house which is being moved to their farm. Besides cash, clothing and furniture there were also gifts of food, one grocer giving $25.00 worth of groceries.

In our notice last week about Mrs. Dora Cotton, visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Davis, we were in error in stating she was from West Texas as she has been living at Ripley, Miss, the past three years.

Rev. Sherrod Stover of Morris, Oklahoma, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Stover Saturday night. He came by train to De Leon and preached at the Baptist church Saturday night and at both services Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Stover Sr., attended the services.

A. J. Ervin of Roswell, New Mexico, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wiley Powers and family.

S. T. Stover heard Saturday night that his nephew, Dewey Daniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniels of De Leon, had been seriously injured late that afternoon near San Antonio. For 10 years he has been engaged in the hazardous business of shooting oil wells with nitro-glycerine and his injuries resulted from a 40-quart shot going off prematurely in the well and setting off another 40 quarts in containers near the opening. Parts of the metal containers were imbedded in Mr. Daniels back and cut off one ear. First reports were that his injuries were such that he could not live but later news stated he would likely recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McMillan and son, of Hermleigh, left for their home Monday after a few days visit with her brother, Wiley Powers and family.

Mrs. Moody C. Smith and children of Houston were in Desdemona, Wednesday. They had lunch is immediately ablaze with criminal warfare, with McLaglen's life being one of those lost.

Feeling that both Khoda Khan and her grandfather would prefer peace, Shirley takes a desperate step to end the killing, and sets out at night for the Pathan camp. When her departure is discovered the Highlanders set out grimly for Khyber Pass, graveyard of many a soldier, determined to rescue her or die in the attempt. With lives at stake, Shirley makes one last desperate gesture to save them and restore peace, bringing the picture to a thoroughly thrilling climax.

Darryl R. Zanuck, Twentieth Century-Fox production chief, chose John Ford, noted Academy award winner, to direct "Wee Willie Winkle" from the screen play by Ernest Pascal and Julien Josephson. Gene Markey was associate producer.

Prisoners were highly disappointed that the San Quentin 'olympics' did not include a marathon race—with a prize for the entrant getting farthest from the prison gates.

Life at a frontier army post in India is not too happy for Shirley and her widowed mother, June Lang, for her grandfather, C. Aubrey Smith, is a gruff old disciplinarian. The youngster decides that the only way to win the colonel's approval is to become a soldier herself, and her friend, Michael Whalen, a young lieutenant, turns her over for training to the burly sergeant, Victor McLaglen, who dubs her "Wee Willie Winkle" because of the quaint way she has of screwing up her eyes when she asks questions.

Shirley gets into plenty of trouble at the post, but wins the gratitude of an imprisoned chieftain, Khoda Khan, when she returns his lost amulet. In a surprise raid on the post the proud chieftain is freed, and the border
