Confining indoor work—skillful work with the hands that does not include plenty of exercise for the body, often results in the bad feeling and unpleasant signs of faulty bowel movement. W. S. Conant, a saddler and harness maker living in Somerset, Ky., says: "I had to take something for costiveness, as I would just get so tired, or have a dull feeling. After I heard of Black-Draught and began taking it I avoided this trouble. I take it in small doses and it is most satisfactory."

Talbot Urges More Cotton Consumption

No Aid of Legislation Asked By Plan of GOP Candidate

DALLAS, Sept. 18 (UP).—Solution of Texas' economic problems lies not alone in the reduction of cotton acreage, but also in the increased consumption of Texas products by Texans, W. E. Talbot, the Republican candidate for governor of Texas last year, declared today.

Talbot's statement was made as he submitted a five-year industrial plan for Texas to the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, at the request of that body. His plan "asks no aid of legislation."

It calls for the division of the state into 28 districts based on trade tributary to the largest city. These would be: El Paso, Amarillo, Lubbock, Abilene, San Angelo, San Antonio, Laredo, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Brownwood, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Denison-Sherman, Dallas-Creburne-Wasco, Temple, Austin, Houston, Corsicana, Palestine, Greenville, Paris, Texarkana, Marshall, Tyler, Nacogdoches, Beaumont, Galveston.

"Bankers of these areas should organize to control acreage by agreement on loans," Talbot said. "These loans should be based on a reduction of 33 1/3 per cent of the amount planted in 1930, and loaned only to buy fertilizer and better grade seed, which, with intense cultivation, will increase the length of the staple and give more yield per acre."

The plan also entails organization of the merchants and citizens by the Chamber of Commerce to consume cotton in every conceivable form; discontinuance by the agricultural department of its count in the carry-over of those millions of bales of untenderable cotton that have deteriorated to the point they can not be sold; loans to farmers to encourage the raising of live stock and feed crops; establishment of canneries to encourage the farmer in raising vegetables, berries and fruits, and pledges of patronage to these industries so that there will be retained in each community the "profits from the raw materials to the finished products."

Agent Offers Help In Fixing Exhibits

Services of the county agricultural agent are offered communities wishing to arrange displays for the county fair, October 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31.

J. V. Bush, the agent, pointed out Friday that this is a good time especially to arrange forage displays.

NEW $100,000 POSTOFFICE COMPLETED AT MEXIA

With school children national guardsmen, Boy Scouts, American Legion members and officials attending, Mexia Tuesday formally opened the new $100,000 postoffice just completed. Congressman Luther A. Johnson was the principal speaker at the dedication. A flag ceremony was held and the public allowed to inspect the beautiful new building, one mile of Mexia's civic center. The postoffice is across the street from Mexia's new $150,000 city hall-auditorium, while on another corner at the intersection is the fire station and armory building.

America Must Dissipate Hoard Of Gold To Eliminate Primary Cause of Depression—Gandhi

BY HARRY FLORY
United Press Correspondent
(Copyright 1931 By United Press)
LONDON, Sept. 18 (UP).—The United States must dissipate its great hoard of gold, a primary cause of the world depression, the Mahatma M. K. Gandhi said in an exclusive United Press interview today.

The leader of millions of Indians in their passive struggle for freedom squatted on a mattress on the cement floor of his cell in Kingsley Hall as he received the correspondent.

"One day America will cease worshipping mammon and probably will become the best nation in the world," said the ascetic "great soul" in his loin cloth and unbleached shawls. "The United States has the necessary courage and idealism to become the best nation. The United States has a great hoard of gold—a curse and a primary cause of the depression. This must be dissipated, distributed and put into circulation, and wealth equalized.

"When I say equalized, I mean within the bounds of possibilities. You are a great producing country and have not learned the lesson of equitable distributing of wealth. Luxuries are concentrated in the hands of a few. There are vast stores of wheat, yet people are starving. Still, your poorest are more prosperous than the Indian poor. I can show you Indian villages and Indians actually crumbling under the weight of economic pressure."

Gandhi charged that India's economic troubles resulted from "foreign domination."

"Give India her freedom, and she will be relieved immediately of millions of pounds' burden," he said.

In elaborating his hopes for the United States, Gandhi hailed prohibition as an indication of America's great courage. He referred to it as a "superhuman task," however, and feared the experiment would fail. But if it failed, he added, it would be a great failure by a great nation and an inspiration to other peoples.

"The task of enforcing prohibition is tremendous," he said. "be- cause drink in the United States is a fashionable sin ingrained in the habits of the people. Therefore it is most difficult to make drink a crime. Drink in India is not fashionable. India never had and never will have your saloons. You can walk for miles without encountering a single public house."

Gandhi was affable during the interview and talked freely. Gandhi arose and greeted his visitors affably, apologized for the lack of conveniences and smiled as the correspondent squatted unaccustomedly on a small rug facing the Mahatma. Asking leave to take his breakfast, he put a pewter bowl in his lap and took half a peach from a plate on the floor, leaving two pears and a shriveled apple on the plate. He peeled the peach with his little fingernail and ate slowly, scooping out the peach with a pewter spoon.

PARIS, Sept. 18 (UP).—The further increase during the past week of France's gold pile to an all time record total of 58,578,000,000 francs ($234,464,000 dollars) in a proportion almost equal to the rhythm of increase of America's reserves sent the combined holdings of France and the United States to a total of 65 per cent of the world's available gold.

Of the world possessions, the United States has 42 per cent in its vaults and France now 23 per cent.

The weekly statement of the Bank of France, published this afternoon, showed an increase of gold holdings during the week of 1,000,000 francs. It represents a proportion of 55.49 per cent of the bank's outstanding paper.

Wool Frocks Win Favor In Fall Styles

PARIS, Sept. 11 (UP).—Woolen frocks, trim and tailored, will be the piece de resistance of many smart fall wardrobes.

With a jaunty felt hat and short fur jacket they may be worn from shopping to lunch and on to tea if the occasion demands.

Most of them are designed of lightweight twills or ribbed jerseys which hold their tailored lines even after repeated wearings.

Their colors may be such rich tints as plum purple and carnation red, or such somber hues as black and brown lightened by bright touches.

Most of them are designed with simple bodices, natural waistlines and skirts which fit snugly to the knees where they release their fullness in gores or fine pleat clusters.

Old-fashioned touches are seen in puffed upper sleeves, break little capes which stop abruptly at the shoulder line and in round standing collars.

Many new woolen dresses are trimmed with fur to match the jackets with which they are worn.

A black woolen frock designed with a gored skirt has bands of mink on flaring pockets just over the hipbones; a purple diagonal woolen dress has touches of black seal at cuffs and collar line; and a dark brown twill model is designed with a little standing collar of leopard.

Scores of the frocks combine several colors.

Corduroy frocks also are displayed.

Texas Woman Senator Says All Clothes Lines Show Too Little Cotton

IMPROVED METHOD OF ROASTING COFFEE IMPRESSES CRITICS

Controlled Roasting Creates Definitely Superior Flavor in Hills Bros. Coffee

Critical people, who search for a perfect coffee, usually come to their journey's end when they taste Hills Bros. Coffee! It has a flavor no other coffee has—a flavor none can equal! This is because of Controlled Roasting—Hills Bros. patented process. It keeps Hills Bros. Coffee free from the unsatisfactory flavor results so often secured with ordinary, bulk methods.

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow... a little at a time... so the matchless, unvarying flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by this patented process that roasts evenly, continuously... a little at a time.

Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum cans. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed and kept out of these cans. Ordinary "air-tight" cans won't keep coffee fresh. But Hills Bros. Coffee is always fresh! Order some today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

Hills Bros. Coffee, Inc., Kansas City, Missouri.

Let Sandwiches Rescue You From Heat Waves

By JOSEPHINE B. GIBSON. SUMMER time is sandwich time! And the wise woman is the one who takes every possible advantage of this popular, easily prepared form of food to save herself long hours in a blistering hot kitchen.

With such a widespread use for sandwiches, I am sure you will welcome the following suggestions for preparing some unusually tempting ones:

Grilled Ham and Tomato Sandwiches: Toast a slice of bread, on one side only, for each person to be served. Butter the toasted side and place on it a thin slice of cold baked or boiled ham.

cup minced celery and 1/4 cup Stuffed Spanish Olives, chopped, moistened with Salad Cream. Serve in buttered rolls.

6 hard cooked eggs, chopped 1/2 cup Fresh Cucumber Pickle Relish, and Mayonnaise Salad Dressing to moisten. Spread this filling on buttered rolls.

2 cups chopped or ground cooked ham, 1/2 cup Sandwich Relish and 2 teaspoons Prepared Mustard. Serve between slices of buttered whole wheat bread.

Fillings for Tea Sandwiches: Peanut Butter and slices of banana between thin slices of bread. Equal quantities of chopped English Walnut meats and sliced Spanish Olives, moistened with Mayonnaise Salad Dressing. Serve between thin slices of buttered bread.

Open sandwiches spread with cream cheese and decorated with a border of sliced Stuffed Spanish Olives.

Open sandwiches spread with Currant Jelly, with a border of cream cheese forced through a pastry tube.

Place under a broiler and grill until the cheese is melted and the tomato browned. Or place in a hot oven for a few minutes. Serve with a small lettuce cup filled with Sandwich Relish or India Relish.

Hot Minced or Deviled Ham Sandwich: Cut ham finely and sprinkle it generously on slices of toast. Pour over the hot toast and ham a sauce made by melting 2 tablespoons butter and blending it with 2 tablespoons flour.

Hot Minced or Deviled Ham Sandwich: Cut ham finely and sprinkle it generously on slices of toast.

On the Joy of Jelly Making

In which is contained a pair of novel recipes for these days of economy By ALICE BLAKE

A little while ago a man wrote a book about aviation in which he advanced a new reason for flying. Most writers, you know, talk learnedly about time saved, and freight moved quickly, or about what a great thing aviation is for national defense.

Now I feel the same way about making jam and jelly. Most people who give advice on this very important subject are prone to say that it is a good thing to have a well-filled cupboard, that it shows a careful housewife, that it is economical to make your own jam and jelly.

All of that is true, of course. But I brush them aside to say, "Making jam and jelly is sheer joy." Perhaps, though, I'd better qualify that statement, lest some woman write to me to ask if I think it fun to stand over a hot stove for nearly an hour, boiling a jelly mixture. I confess that doesn't appeal to me, and to speak the truth, it isn't necessary, not the way I make jam and jelly.

Did you ever hear of the short-bolt method? Within a quarter of an hour—some women make a glass a minute—you can have a neat row of glasses filled and cooling. And in each glass will be captured the actual fresh fruit flavors and color. This is because the juice doesn't boil long enough to go off in steam, as in the old-fashioned way.

Just to show you how much fun it can be to make jelly, and what unusual things can be done, think of making delicious grape jelly and then using the pulp to make equally delicious grape butter!

That should appeal to your sense of economy, too. Here's how. Combination Ripe Grape Jelly and Butter. Stem about 7 pounds ripe grapes, and crush thoroughly. Add 1-2 cup water, cover and simmer 5 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag. Drip until 4 cups juice have run through. Use juice for Ripe Grape Jelly (recipe below).

Sieve pulp left in jelly bag to remove skins and seeds. Use sieved pulp for Ripe Grape Butter (recipe below). Ripe Grape Jelly. 4 cups (2 lbs.) juice. 7-8 cups (3-4 lbs.) sugar. 1-2 bottle (1-2 cup) fruit pectin. Measure sugar and juice, as prepared above, into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hot test fire and at once add fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil eight-ounce glasses.

Thrill In the Kitchen

CHOOSE APPETIZING FOODS ON BASIS OF EXTRA NUTRIMENT VALUE

EVERY month or so the newspapers report the cost of food has gone down. But when the economical housewife takes her market basket—or telephone—in hand to take advantage of this drop in price it is not so easy to find. The really intelligent way to make every dollar count is to know which foods give the greatest return in nutriment for the money spent and to plan meals accordingly. For instance, buy cheaper cuts of meat. Do not buy fruit out of season, and do not cut down on bananas, grapefruit, oranges, and other fruits of moderate price which are so important in the diet. Use more canned vegetables, especially tomatoes, and make use of evaporated milk in cooking. Use dried beans or peas occasionally.

While it takes thought on the part of the housekeeper to plan the less expensive meals, there are all sorts of interesting dishes which tempt the appetite and yet save the pocket-book. The following recipes may interest those who believe "it's smart to be thrifty."

Banana Brown Betty
3 cups bread, diced; 3 tablespoons butter; 2 apples; 3 bananas; 1/2 cup sugar; 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
Cut bread into dice and saute with butter until bread cubes are brown. Peel apples and bananas and cut very thin and dredge same with sugar mixed with cinnamon.

Cover bottom of baking dish with the bread, add fruit and remaining bread in alternate layers, saving a few of the crumbs to put on top. Bake one-half hour covered and the last fifteen minutes uncovered in a moderate oven 375 degrees F.

Black Bean Soup
1 pint black beans; 2 quarts cold water; 1 small onion; 2 stalks celery, or 1/2 teaspoon celery salt; 1/2 tablespoon salt; 1/4 teaspoon pepper; 1/4 teaspoon mustard; few grains cayenne; 3 tablespoons butter; 1 1/2 tablespoons flour; 2 hard boiled eggs; 1 lemon, or 3 tablespoons vinegar.
Soak beans over night. Add onion and celery stalks, broken in pieces. Simmer several hours until beans are soft; add more water as water boils away, and add the seasonings. Melt butter and stir in flour. Strain the beans and add Cook until smooth. If too thick add more water. Add vinegar or slice the lemon and pour the soup over it either in a tureen or in the soup of beans.
Lentils may be used instead of beans.

Pork Chops with Dressing
1/4 cups bread crumbs; 2 tablespoons pork fat, chopped; 1/2 onion, finely chopped; 1/2 teaspoon pepper; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/4 cup hot water; 6 pork chops.
Mix bread crumbs, pork fat, onion, seasoning and water. Spread on pork chops. Put chops in a baking pan close together; add water to cover bottom of pan and bake in a moderately hot oven 375 degrees F. one hour, basting occasionally.

Lecturer To Tell How To Avoid Details That Cause Household Worries

Did somebody's husband leave home in a hurry—and a huff—and throw things into a turmoil? Breakfast was only a little late, but oh the trouble it caused! And consequently, Mary and Johnny were late at school and the whole day was ruined!

Maybe the maid failed to show up. Maybe there wasn't a maid to come. Anyway, the housework never did get finished by noon. And the roast burned and the soup curdled. It was the day for the bridge club and an exhausted woman scurried into her clothes, played badly through the afternoon, incurred the hostility of her parents, and was almost reduced to tears by the time she returned home.

These "little matters" cause most of the trouble, unhappiness, and general confusion in the average household, declares Myra Oliver Dougan, home economist and lecturer who is to be in Big Spring the week of Sept. 19, sponsored by the Daily Herald in a free cooking school.

Women and mothers, all have told their plaintive tales to Mrs. Dougan. It is from these personal contacts that she has been able to grasp the meaning and situations of the average home; study its needs and recommend plans and suggestions to women throughout her travels for better homes.

"Ironing out the wrinkles in home life is a problem upon which the wife and mother must concentrate," Mrs. Dougan states. It requires patience, tact, and even self-sacrifice, so I find from the stories told to me by scores of women.

Subjects of household management are among the timely topics which Big Spring women will hear in the daily programs to be held at the Settles Hotel.

East Texas Has 34.1 Per Cent Of Crop Lands

LONGVIEW, Sept. 18. (UP)—With but 21.7 per cent of the total acreage of Texas, East Texas has 34.1 per cent of the crop land, 9.3 per cent of the pasture and 61.1 per cent of the farm woodland. These are among the figures on land utilization just developed by Curtis Morris, manager of the Statistical Department of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

East Texas, or the territory served by the regional chamber, embraces nearly thirty-six and a half million acres. One-third of this amount was in crop land during 1930, about three per cent was in farm woodland. Fifteen and a half million acres were not in any way devoted to agricultural purposes.

Falls, Grayson and Rockwall counties, in the order named, showed the highest agricultural development, based on per cent of total land area devoted to some agricultural purpose. In each county the figure ran over 86 per cent.

Farmers Protest Ginning Prices

LEVELLAND, Texas, Sept. 18. (UP)—Farmers of this community recently held a mass meeting to protest the price of ginning.

Ginners of this section have agreed on a fee of 30 cents a hundred pounds for ginning, with an extra charge for wrapping. The farmers passed a resolution asking that the charge be reduced to 20 cents per hundred, because of the low price of cotton. The resolution alleged that the charge for ginning has not been reduced in accordance with the price of farm products.

Oil Briefs

KILGORE, Tex., Sept. 18. (UP)—Twenty-four permits to drill oil wells were issued in the last week to operators in the four counties of the East Texas field. Gregg county operators obtained ten permits; Rusk nine; Smith, three and Upshur two.

Twenty-five wells were completed in Gregg county during the week. Petroleum corporation bought in five of them and the Magnolia Petroleum company three.

NACOGDOCHES, Tex., Sept. 18. (UP)—A water well in use 11 years within the city limits here, has begun oozing oil which one citizen says works satisfactorily in his automobile. A negro on whose place the well is was so severely burned by and to have hospital attention when he threw a lighted match in to the well. No nearby filling stations have leaking tanks but pipelines run near the city.

GLADEWATER, Tex., Sept. 18. (UP)—Operators in this section prepared to drill on locations in the doubtful territory southwest of here, with receipt of reports that the Texas Company's No. 1 Walker, an early test well, is producing no salt water. The No. 1 Walker is nearly a mile west of the Snavey No. 1 well, south of here.

LONGVIEW, Tex., Sept. 18. (UP)—Latest figures on storage facilities for oil in the East Texas field indicate that Gregg county has more than a fourth of the total 5,483,000 barrels storage that has been built or is under construction. Storage being built now totals 1,827,000 barrels. The amount constructed, in nine counties, is 6,656,000 barrels. Gregg county's figures are 2,288,000 built and 1,219,000 building; Rusk county's 2,460,000 built and 528,000 building.

and camels, including a hundred beautiful dancing girls, great choirs of trained singers, vast orchestras and golden toned organs. The magnificent wardrobe represents an expenditure of $70,000. It is the triumph of triumphs in colossal proportions and daily amazes and thrills thousands. Yet it forms but a single feature of this super circus.

Hundreds of international circus stars take part in the circus performance proper. They present 18 foreign countries, and are the champions in their respective lines. All of the world's foremost riders, acrobats, gymnasts and equilibrists will be seen. Foremost among them will be the Great Troupe of high wire artists who work high up in the dome of the "big top." The Belmont Family and the Griselle Troupe come from Continental Europe with a bareback riding act of daring; the Flying Jordans, undisputed aerialists of all time; Alex Accvero, Mexico's tumbling, somersaulting star on the wire, are but a few of the stellar features. Sixty clowns headed by Charley Post, Jack Klippel, Dutch Marco and admission tickets will be on sale Saturday at the B B Fox Drug Store, 200 Main St. The white ticket wagon at the show grounds will be continuously accessible for the sale of reserved seat tickets. The red ticket wagon will open simultaneously with the opening of the main show doors. The circus filled, emptied and refilled with entertainment.

Menagerie

The menagerie tent, the dressing room, stable and blacksmith tent, the barber shop and dozens of other "tops" will now rise into the air. And within the space of several hours after the arrival of the first wagon on the show grounds, the once barren lot will, like some Aladdin touch, be transformed into a bustling and bustling city of tents. In fact, the Al G. Barnes Circus city is as complete as any small town. It boasts of its own doctor, lawyer, dentist, carpenter, blacksmith and in fact every artisan found in a small village.

The Al G. Barnes Circus has grown in recent years until it is impractical to give a street parade. Every bit of man and horse power from daylight until noon time, is utilized. The growth of the automobile, with automatic traffic lights, was another contributing factor. In consequence, no street parade will be given here or in any other city. The street parade was abandoned in 1923.

There are hundreds of performers in this season's circus, and equal in as many trained animals. Scores of superbly schooled horses representing Europe's finest equestrian acts form a big new feature; other include forty dancing horses, and forty dancing girls, including many Hollywood beauties.

Animal Acts

The wild animal acts include jungle beasts who ride upon swiftly running horses, juggle like humans, perform tricks of balancing or play at games with their keepers. The arenas are time after time filled, emptied and refilled with entertainment.

UVALDE RAINFALL

UVALDE, Texas, Sept. 18. (UP)—Rainfall at Uvalde during August totaled 3.23 inches, bringing the total precipitation for 1931 to an even 33 inches. This amount is almost 10 inches above the average annual rainfall of the past ten years.
