ROOSEVELT TO CONFER UPON CORN PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt will confer tomorrow with budget director Daniel Bell, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., and Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace on the possibility of federal corn loans.

SENATE VOTES DOWN LIQUOR BY THE DRINK

AUSTIN, Oct. 22.—The Texas Senate, by a vote of 17 ayes to 13 noes, today struck from its social security tax bill a provision permitting cocktail bars.

A separate bill permitting sales of liquor by the drink had been passed by the house.

After the liquor section had been defeated Sen. Weaver Moore of Houston offered as an amendment to the tax bill the entire bill which the senate previously had passed to reduce departmental appropriations $5,000,000 a year. An attorney general's ruling followed by Speaker R. W. Calvert, had barred its consideration in the house as being outside the governor's call for a revenue session.

Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul said he would hold it within the call as the senate had formerly overruled him on that point, but held it was not germane to the tax bill.

An appeal was taken from that ruling, resulting in a vote of 15 to 14 to sustain the Lt. Governor's decision.

The senate then recessed until 2:30 p. m.

BUCKS AIM TO BUCKLE MAVS PASS ATTACK

Eck Curtis, Breckenridge mentor, is expected to advise ground plays predominantly for his charges campaign against the Mavericks.

Curtis has yet to find a boy who can hang on to passes consistently, it is stated. In practice this week Robin Rominger was on the receiving end for several passes, but completions were few and far between. Breckenridge reports stated.

In the last 16 years Eastland has only defeated Breckenridge three times.

The year by year record is as follows:

1921—Eastland 24, Breckenridge 7.
1922—Breckenridge 9, Eastland 6.

CHINESE STOP JAP ADVANCE NEAR SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, Oct. 22.—The Japanese juggernaut seemed to be mired today in waves of Chinese counter attacks on the Shanghai front in Mid-China, while threatened with annihilation by guerrilla counter-attacks in the north in the Shansi province.

While the Japanese high command sought to stem the Chinese hordes near the Woosung Creek area and the Pazang sector, north of Shanghai, it again made apologies for Japanese air bombings after two persons were killed and 29 injured in the International Settlement.

All casualties were Chinese or Japanese, but a U. S. Marine sergeant, John Coleman, was burned severely on the hand, beating out the flames burning the clothing of a wounded Chinese woman.

U. S. Authorities protested strongly and Japanese officials promised to warn their pilots.

Verdict of Death Is Returned In A Murder Trial

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22.—A district court jury today found Baltazar Rodriguez, former garment factory foreman, guilty of the murder last June 8 of Mrs. Hape Hyman, pretty 18-year-old housewife. The verdict carried a death penalty.

Rodriguez, who claimed he suffered from breaking off a clandestine love affair with Mrs. Hyman, entered the Hyman home on June 8, produced a gun and shot the woman through the heart.

He then turned the gun on himself, but recovered from the wound.

New Patrolmen To Aid Safety

Graduation last week of 138 additional highway patrolmen from the Department of Public Safety's training school is expected by officials to materially aid Texas campaign on safe driving. C. Iminalta, District Attorney Earl Conner, Jr., stated Friday.

According to figures supplied Conner by the department, September highway crashes hurtled 189 people to their deaths and sent 1,392 to hospitals where more are destined to die.

Conner stated the figures showed 27 more traffic accidents in September than in August in Texas, but the death toll rose two and the injury list showed an increase of 446 persons. Nearly seven per cent of the 1,106 accidents in September resulted in fatalities. Forty-two of the dead were pedestrians.

Many drivers are exceeding speeds allowed by highway and traffic conditions, it is believed by Conner and other officials.

The new patrolmen and driver's license examiners of the department have been assigned to cover the entire state network of highways in an effort to minimize the number of accidents.

McCarty Speaker At Coleman Meet

COLEMAN, Oct. 22.—With a message of praise for the work that has been accomplished by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in the past, Milburn McCarty, Eastland attorney and president of the association, addressed 400 persons at the 15th annual Coleman Chamber of Commerce banquet here last night.

Only one time during his speech did he make reference to the recent decision of the organization to move headquarters from Stamford to Abilene. In that connection he said, "We have found it necessary to improve the facilities of the organization and we hope soon to have all departments together in a home that would be a credit to the organization and the area it represents. I call on Tommy Carswell (secretary of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce) to explain that Abilene has made us the best proposition that has ever been made and better than any town in West Texas is able to make."

Explaining that "no town can progress without unified and systematic efforts," the regional chamber of commerce president told how every town needs a chamber of commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Richardson of Eastland also attended.

The charges said Farmer kidnaped the boy on May 29 and "willfully detained" him from "removing one place to another at the said minor might see proper."

Youth Finds Out Reptile Garden Is No Place to Sleep

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22.—Herbert Thompson, 17, on his way from his Camden, N. J., home to Hollywood, and maybe a chance at a movie job, decided he needed sleep. It was chilly at Brackenridge Park, so he climbed a tall board fence and snuggled down on the lee side to keep warm.

Presently the youth awakened to feel a sick, cold something slither across his legs. Another slid across his body. He screamed, then fainted.

Rayburn Speaks On New Deal Program

HOUSTON, Oct. 22.—A campaign of fear against the administration caused the recent stock market break, Rep. Sam Rayburn of Bonham, House majority leader in congress said last night.

"We have people complaining the Government should stay out of business," he told 300 persons at a dinner of the Business and Professional Women's club at Houston. "They're the same ones who came to Washington in 1933 and said they had done all they could, if the Government did not place its arm about them it would topple."

"About 80 per cent of the newspapers of the country have opposed the program since its inception," the Democratic leader said. "They have been preaching a doctrine of fear and a few days ago that fear grew until the stock market broke."

Rayburn defended New Deal spending. "I do not apologize for the fact we are in debt $37,000,000,000 out of national assets of between $300,000,000,000 and $350,000,000,000. It is not too much to spend to save the nation's business."

Allred Smiles at Criticism About Italian Decoration

AUSTIN, Oct. 22.—Gov. James V. Allred smiled today at criticism by the anti-fascist society, Houston branch, about his acceptance of a decoration from the Italian government when he attended a Houston dinner for Marquis G. G. Chiavari, Italian consul at New Orleans.

"I never reply to communications sent for publicity purposes, Allred said.

"I deeply appreciated the high honor. Officially and personally I have always tried to carry out the president's good neighbor policy."

Poultry and Egg Shipments at Low Season of Year

AUSTIN, Texas—Shipments of poultry and eggs from Texas to interstate points normally approach the season's low during August, and this year was no exception according to the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas.

Shipments of poultry to interstate points totaled 28 cars, compared with 36 cars during August last year; and egg shipments totaled only 17 cars, against 37 cars a year ago.

Receipts of eggs from out-of-State points, five cars, compares with three cars a year ago. Three cars were received from Kansas and one each from Missouri and Oklahoma. Last year all three cars came from Missouri.

RANGER HOMECOMING WAS A BIG SUCCESS THROUGHOUT THE DAY

The Ranger Homecoming is over and today the town settled back with the satisfaction that it was a job well done.

The first indication that the day was to be a big success came early in the morning as thousands and more thousands of people began to gather on the streets and at the time the parade, depicting the history of Ranger from pioneer days down to the present, started up Main Street, everyone present had already decided that Ranger has done well in planning the big event.

The weather was ideal. A brisk north wind, not cold but invigorating, was blowing, the sun was shining brightly and there was an atmosphere of happiness all over the town.

The parade far surpassed the expectations of those who had assembled to view it, and ever surpassed the hopes of those who were responsible for its success.

The parade was led by the four living ex-mayors of the town and the present mayor, with the John Tarleton Band following immediately behind the six flags under which Texas has existed. Each section of the parade carried out a definite idea, with humor, pathos, beauty and industry well represented. The five bands, from Eastland, Breckenridge, Cisco, John Tarleton and Ranger, added much to the occasion and the Eastland band staged a brief concert on the Main street immediately after the parade that attracted quite a bit of attention.

Following the parade Karl K. Crowley and Congressman Clyde L. Garrett were the principal speakers at the unveiling of the cornerstone of the new Ranger postoffice, which drew another large crowd.

Among the speakers who participated in the day's activities, including the public speaking on the main street and at the luncheon at noon, in addition to Crowley and Garrett, were assistant United States District Attorney Frank Potter of Fort Worth; Judge W. J. Oxford, former general counsel for the T. & P. Coal & Oil Co.; Col. E. O. Thompson, chairman of the State Railroad Commission; Wm. H. McDonald, state land commissioner, State Comptroller George Sheppard, M. H. Hagaman, first mayor of Ranger; Mrs. Hagaman, L. H. Fiewellen and others.

The Big Spring-Ranger football game in the afternoon drew a crowd of about 2,000, with the bands from John Tarleton, Eastland and Ranger attending and furnishing music for the occasion.

The barbecue after the football game and the free street entertainment on Main Street Thursday night brought the celebration to a successful close, with good entertainment being presented before a large crowd. Nearby towns each presented a part on the program and the cooperation received by Ranger in presenting the homecoming entertainment features was not only gratifying, but aided materially in making it a success.

Chief of Police Jim Ingram stated today that the crowd was unusually orderly, considering its size, and that not a single arrest had been made by the Ranger Police Department throughout the day.

BULLDOGS' STUBBORN DEFENSE IS FINALLY OVERCOME BY STEERS

The Big Spring Steers met an unexpectedly stubborn defense Thursday afternoon in one of the features of the Ranger Homecoming, and though they won the game was much closer than the score would indicate.

Throughout the first quarter the Steers were outplayed and though they made some gains, were held back a first down, while the Bulldogs were accounting for the defense was just as tight as in the second quarter. Big Spring took the ball on the 22 yard line and started a steady march toward the end zone. First downs came another, but they were not allowed by the stubborn defense, most of them over the 10-yard route and many being measured by the officials before it was determined whether or not they gave the Steers a new start.

The ball was advanced to the 30 yard line, where a first down was marked up by the hard-charging Cunningham, huge Big Spring back, but the Bulldog defense and they made a goal line stand of the past seasons and the ball went the five-yard stripe.

The field got back to punt and was blocked by lanky Steer center, and covered the goal line for the first down and Cunningham threw his right guard for point.

Bulldogs still put up a stubborn defense, instead of going to

Mesquite Dunes to Become Airport

By United Press

EL PASO. — Two hundred acres of mesquite-ridden sand-dunes north of El Paso are being transformed into one of the most modern airports in the United States. A WPA allotment of $237,241 will be added to city funds to complete the $400,000 project.

Four caliche runways, 150 feet wide and asphalt treated, will criss-cross the field. A total of

Seeing Pianist's Hands in Mirror

Through a mirror that enables all instead of just half of a concert audience to see the pianist's hands on the keyboard, Dr. Thomas C. Poulter, Chicago, has solved a problem long vexing to music lovers. Dr. Poulter is shown above with Florence Kirsch, a concert pianist. The audience on the left sees Miss Kirsch's hands. The audience on the right sees those hands too, but through a mirror.

5,500 available feet will give the field the longest runway in the country.

Transfer of two hangars used at the old Municipal Airport to the new consolidated field will be started within a few weeks. An $80,000 administration building with quarters for the weather bureau and customs officers, will be added next year. Guide lights and markers to conform to government regulations, are now being installed.

Mesquite roots, some of them six inches in diameter, are being grubbed by hand. Ten grading operations are necessary to level the field. Sand dunes eight feet high have been rolled under.

American Airlines will deed the property to the city. Fifty acres will be turned over to the American Airlines as soon as lights are installed.

These housing studies are all right for the Duke of Windsor but he ought to find himself a country first.

Sport Glances. . . . . By Grayson

BY HARRY GRAYSON
Sports Editor, NEA Service

FORDHAM has most of last year's stars, two new linemen of worth, and what is supposed to be a superior backfield, yet I suspect that the Ram will ram its head into something harder than a stone wall in tackling Pittsburgh in New York, Oct. 16.

Fordham and Pitt have played 120 minutes the last two campaigns without getting anywhere at all, but that kind of business can't go on when Rose Bowl rompers like Goldberg, Stebbins, Patrick, Stapulis, and Chickerno change behind forwards on the order of Daddio, Matisi, Delich, and Delle Tezze.

Pitt is my pick by a pair of touchdowns.

TVA stands for Tennessee Valley Authority. Also Tennessee Varsity Aggregation. The Volunteers hit Alabama right on the heels of the hard knocks of the Duke debate, but should stem the Tide at Knoxville.

Getting back and 'way down east, Yale has Frank to pass, but no opportunist like Kelley to make nutty catches, so it appears to be Army's turn at New Haven.

Harvard seems to have come on sufficiently far to repel Navy in Baltimore.

NOTRE DAME should get even with Bill Kern for all the fine scouting he did against the Irish for Pitt, but the large blond's Carnegie Tech array is likely to make the margin narrow in Pitt Stadium.

Columbia is smart, but Penn's line looks too imposing in their skirmish in New York.

Colgate has Red Chesbro at tackle and Whitey Jaeger in the backfield and isn't as weak as it was made to appear by Cornell's surge, but Tulane is my choice in Buffalo.

Swinging down south again, Duke dashes right into another tough one in Georgia Tech in Atlanta, but should get away with it. Auburn should edge Mississippi State in one of Dixie's best in Birmingham, and Louisiana State figures to repel Mississippi at Baton Rouge.

Major Biff Jones himself stirred up much of the trouble that Oklahoma is expected to give Nebraska at Lincoln, but the Cornhuskers are an inspired outfit after their victory over mighty Minnesota and should emerge with tassels waving. Major Jones left the Sooners to take command of the Huskers.

NORTHWESTERN is a slight favorite over Purdue at Evans-ton, but I look for Boilermaker backs to locate leaks in the center of the Purple line and at least get a draw.

I can't see how Michigan can escape taking another one on the whiskers as an angry Minnesota machine moves into Ann Arbor. Arkansas has been tied by Texas as Christian, which is closer than many expected it to be held, and the Razorbacks have another armful in Texas at Austin. Arkansas must be nominated, but the visitors will know that they've been in a row.

Texas A. and M. is stronger on paper, but I wouldn't be surprised to see Texas Christian hold the Aggies even at Fort Worth.

Howard Harding Jones has the required material at Southern California—enough at least to turn back Oregon in Los Angeles.

But, then, there is considerable explaining to do every Saturday night.

'Mystery Man' Goes on Trial

Alternating between the concerned anxiety reflected in the upper photo and the ingratiating smile that looks out from the lower one, John "Mysterious" Montague, golfing phenomenon and friend of Hollywood's great, faced trial in Elizabeth-town, N. Y., as these pictures were taken, on charges of robbing a roadhouse seven years ago. Montague was then Lawrence Moore, a golf pro and local prankster.

membered the eggs. She hurriedly telephoned Chief Burns, told him what she had done and where she had hidden the key to her house. When firemen arrived at the home, they found it full of smoke but no damage had been done.

An American duck in October is the one who really understands the predicament of a Chinese civilian.

Bathtub Trick Is Just As Good In Lake, Boy Learns

By United Press

FORT WORTH, Texas.—Four-year-old Don Smith owes his life to a trick he learned in the bathtub at home.

Playing around a pier at Lake Worth where his parents were fishing, Don reached for a pole that had fallen into the water and tumbled head-first into water 14 feet deep.

Heavy clothing and boots held the boy on the bottom until Turney jumped from his boat and brought him to the surface. When Estes and others tried to squeeze water out of the youngster's lungs,

Long Distance Call Tells of Local Fire

By United Press

TYLER, Tex.—Fire Chief M. P. Burns has received many fire calls during the score or so of years he has served in the Tyler department, but only once has he received a local alarm from a distance of 130 miles.

Recently a Tyler housewife hurrying to get away for a weekend visit in Waco, drove away from town and left some eggs boiling on the stove in her home here.

As she rode into Waco, she remembered the eggs. She hurriedly telephoned Chief Burns, told him what she had done and where she had hidden the key to her house. When firemen arrived at the home, they found it full of smoke but no damage had been done.

Reviving an Issue That 'Died' in 1920

President Roosevelt's Chicago speech compels Americans to take another look at a question which was supposedly settled once and for all in the League of Nations election in 1920.

For although this speech contained not the slightest hint that this country should enter the League, it did point unmistakably in the direction of international co-operation along the lines laid down by Woodrow Wilson.

In 1920 the country turned that idea down flat, and imagined that its ghost was laid forever. But the ghost proved restless. It stalked abroad from time to time during the twenties, leaving its imprint on the Dawes plan, the Young plan, the German moratorium and the series of World Court fights. Now it is back again, as robust and substantial as ever.

And it is about time for us to ask ourselves whether the idea of complete national isolation is a sound idea to follow in a world where the ties binding nation to nation is as strong as they are today.

The last few years have been grimly educational. We have seen the collapse, one after another, of the treaties and unwritten laws by which national security is buttressed. We have seen the triumph of dictatorial gangs opposed to every ideal we cherish. We have seen the world building up for a new war that would be more dreadful and calamitous than the last one.

Through all of this we have tried to mind our own business; for we want very earnestly to be allowed to work out our domestic problems, to find our way out of the recurring cycle of boom and depression, to establish prosperity and justice in our land so that they cannot be shaken. But to do this we need a stable and peaceful world to work in.

So we are forced to ask ourselves, now, whether this peaceful and stable world will take shape of itself, in the condition things are in now, or whether we will have to do something to help it along.

The question answers itself. The world is getting less stable and less peaceful every day. Pious expressions of disapproval don't mend matters any more than they kept Italy from overwhelming Ethiopia, kept Italy, Russia, and Germany from interfering in the Spanish civil war or kept Japan out of China. If the world goes on drifting it will eventually drift straight into disaster.

The alternative, of course, is to take definite and positive action, in collaboration with other nations, to insure peace and stability. It involves taking risks and making enemies. It means concerning ourselves more directly and vitally than ever before with the quarrels and intrigues of the old world.

Do we want to do it? Probably not. And yet we may have to. For if it is risky to do this, it is just about as risky to do nothing at all.

We must decide which of the two risks we are to take; and we may well find that when the world is catching fire, we can be safe only by helping to put the fire out.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

IN TURKESTAN, EAGLES ARE TRAINED TO HUNT GAME! NUMBERED AMONG THEIR KILLS ARE FOXES, GAZELLES, WOLVES, GOATS AND HARES.

COPY, 1937 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

COAL CAN GIVE HEAT WITHOUT BEING BURNED! IN RUSSIA, COAL DUST IS SPRINKLED OVER COTTON LEAF, TO ABSORB HEAT FROM THE SUN AND INCREASE SOIL TEMPERATURE.

THE training of eagles for hunting is much like that of other birds used in falconry. Approximately one month is necessary as a preliminary schooling before the bird is ready to try its luck on living game. The weight of an eagle alone, as it drops with terrific force from a great height, is enough to break the back of a good-sized animal.

Three Games Will Be Broadcast By Humble Company

The Southwest Conference championship gets underway in earnest Saturday afternoon, with three intra-conference games scheduled in which two of the contestants—Rice and S. M. U.—make their first starts against conference competition. All three of the games will be broadcast over an extensive network of Texas stations by the Humble Oil & Refining Company.

Headliner of the afternoon features a meeting between the undefeated Baylor eleven and the Texas A. & M. team. This game will be broadcast by the Humble Company from College Station over KPRC, Houston; WOAI, San Antonio; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KRGV, Waco; WACA, Waco; and WFAA-WBAP, Dallas-Fort Worth. The game begins at 2:30 p. m., the broadcast 10 minutes earlier at 2:20.

Rice vs. Texas is the renewal of a rivalry which of late years has furnished the Southwest with some of its most colorful, most spectacular and most exciting football games. This game will also be broadcast by the Humble Company at 2:20 p. m., with Cy Leland handling the play-by-play and Jack Mitchell the color. The game will be carried by stations KNOW, Austin; KTRH, Houston; KTSA, San Antonio and KTAT, Fort Worth.

The third conference game is the debut of Southern Methodist University's Mustangs against the defending champions of Arkansas. This game will be broadcast from Fort Smith, Arkansas, beginning at 2:20 p. m., with Gene Cagle at the microphone for play-by-play and Tom Jacobs for color. It can be heard over station KRLD, Dallas.

Bulldogs Stubborn

30DC BULLDOGS STUBBORN .. (Continued from page 1) ham plunged over for the extra point to make the score 14 to 0.

After the kickoff Whitefield passed to McKelvain from his own 30-yard line, McKelvain going to the Big Spring 45 before he was downed. Just short of another first down Banger fumbled the passback from center and Big Spring got possession of the ball on their own 45, and two first downs carried to the Bulldog 25 and Cunningham got away for a 20-yard run around the left side of his line for another touchdown but Womack was held when he tried to score the extra point.

The game was the best the Bulldogs had played, even after Hall Byers and Frazier, first string linemen, had been forced out of the game and the Steers had a much closer struggle than they had anticipated. The Bulldog line was particularly effective, from end to end, with few yards being gained directly through the line or any one play, though that was the route Big Spring took to finally batter down their lighter opponents to get in scoring position.

Between halves the nearly-completed Bulldog Stadium was dedicated in an impressive ceremony with Dr. Harry A. Logsdon introducing Tom Yonker, who acted as master of ceremonies. Short talks were made by Rayburn, Big Spring captain and Elton Boney of Ranger, who substituted for Jack Hall, Ranger captain, who had been hurt a few minutes before the half ended and was unable to appear. Hall, however, went back into the game in the third quarter after he had recuperated and played a good game afterwards.

One-Eyed Cars to Be Public Enemies

AUSTIN.—"One-eyed" automobiles and those without working tail lights will be classed as public enemies in the state highway patrol's campaign for road safety.

The campaign will be started as quickly as 125 fledgling patrolmen have finished their training and can augment the seasoned force.

"All traffic law violations will receive equal attention," promised L. G. Phares, patrol chief, "but from the standpoint of safety, improperly lighted vehicles are considered extra-important.

"There will be no 'drives,' but pleted Bulldog Stadium was dedicated in an impressive ceremony with Dr. Harry A. Logsdon introducing Tom Yonker, who acted as master of ceremonies. Short talks were made by Rayburn, Big Spring captain and Elton Boney of Ranger, who substituted for Jack Hall, Ranger captain, who had been hurt a few minutes before the half ended and was unable to appear. Hall, however, went back into the game in the third quarter after he had recuperated and played a good game afterwards.

W. T. Walton, superintendent of schools, made the dedicatory address, followed by a selection by the Ranger High School Band. Particularly effective defensive work for the Bulldogs was done by Elton Boney at guard hall at the other guard slot, Frazier at center on offense and at right half on defense, J. H. McKelvain as a linebacker and the entire Bulldog line, which turned in by far its best game of the season and one that gave the Steers trouble throughout the game, every yard of ground gained by the Steers being given grudgingly.

Goldberg at Ease

Marshall Goldberg, Pittsburgh's hippest halfback, is caught in an unusual pose—standing still. Panther opponents are advised to take a good look at this picture of the Vanishing Vandal because they won't see much of him during the game as he skeddaddles up the field.

a steady campaign carried on consistently on the state's 22,000 miles of designated highways.

The driver who consistently exceeds the speed limit, passes other vehicles on hills and curves, who straddles the middle line or weaves in and out, will find patrolmen determinedly on his trail, Phares said.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON.—Numerous Catholics, Negroes and Jews who might otherwise forever have been obscure are now coming more or less into the news because of the New Deal was embarrassed by revelation that Roosevelt's first Supreme Court appointee once belonged to the Klux Klan.

Jerome A. Cooper, Jew, has been chosen by Black as his law clerk. Miss Anne Butt, Catholic, is the new justice's secretary. Leon Smallwood, designated by the court as his messenger, is a Negro and a Catholic to boot.

Assuming no religious arguments break out in the Black offices—which would be just too bad—this set-up would seem to help bear out Black's radio assertion that there is no intolerance in his soul. At any rate, those groups, the hatred of which won infamy for the Klan, will have representatives in a strategic spot where they can keep careful eye on the justice in case he should ever again yearn for a white robe.

There is also a list of eight Catholics and four Jews for whom Black has obtained or helped obtain federal jobs in Alabama and Washington, one paying $9000 a year. To date none of these public servants has resigned.

President Roosevelt, meanwhile, has had luncheon with Cardinal Mundelein at Chicago. And down to the Virgin Islands as a federal judge goes William Hastie, an able Negro who will take the place left vacant by Albert Levitt, who sought to get the Supreme Court to expel Black. If you overlook these incidents, one gathers, the administration will be disappointed.

ONE of the very first if not the first case which Justice Black will hear argued before him will be argued by a Jewish lawyer, says Frank. It so happens here in earlier days of the Deal, is a friend of mine because of his liberal views in the Senate.

Frank, in a dust with General Stanley Reed, sending the government the Duke Power case PWA's right to lend money for the erection of power plants.

Incidentally, if it is for the Supreme Court handling of this Power case, Roosevelt never have made his proposal to out-face the Court, the whole bitter resultant mess might have been avoided. He moved to out-face the Klan issue might have remained dead and buried.

On December 14, Supreme Court remains to lower courts on the one-word technicality. The case involved Power to lend money to County, S. C., contending Duke Power Co. Power litigation as to this had delayed 56 such acts for two years.

New Deal power policy involved and Roosevelt, consistent on that issue, down with the court. He would have made the later anyway. Perhaps the Duke case probably argued early in November (Copyright, 1937, NEA)

Roosevelt Sends an Army Plane to Take 'Iron Lung' Girl Home

When pretty Dorothy Chastain was stricken with infantile paralysis while visiting in Tulsa, Okla., her father sent a plea to President Roosevelt for aid in getting the girl back to her home in Wichita Falls, Texas, and the President responded by sending the army plane in which Dorothy is pictured above, encased in an "iron lung." With her are a nurse and Dorothy's mother, Mrs. J. P. Chastain. The girl was unable to live more than 14 minutes outside the "iron lung." She had been ill five weeks.

All Is Ready For Presenting New Chevrolet Here

Harvey Chevrolet Company has everything in readiness for the first local showing of the New 1938 Chevrolet which will be given a nation-wide introduction tomorrow. The show rooms of the local dealers have been specially decorated for this event which is noted for the large crowds of people that it attracts. "We are especially proud of the surprise we have in store this year," states O. E. Harvey of the Harvey Chevrolet Company. "Never, in our years in the automobile business have we been privileged to introduce such a distinctively beautiful car. In addition, this New Chevrolet leaves nothing to be desired from the standpoint of such qualities as performance, comfortable riding, safety, etc., which means so much to the careful car buyer." In conclusion, Mr. Harvey remarked that they are prepared to accommodate a large number of visitors and cordially invites everyone to attend the first showing of the New Chevrolet.

Plans Completed For Annual Dance

Chief W. J. Peters stated Friday that preparations were complete for the third annual Policeman's dance Saturday night at the Connelley hotel. "Joe Buzze's music which has been approved here previously brought many ticket sales," Peters said. "I can truly say that all indications point to the most successful dance the police department has sponsored." "We appreciate the cooperation of everyone in Eastland for their purchase of tickets. Those who have yet not secured tickets may do so from any of the officers of at the dance Saturday," he added. Buzze's orchestra consists of 14 instruments. The vocalizing of Gene Phelps will be a feature of the entertainment. Other features include Buzze's compositions "Harmonica Rag" and a trombone solo, "Wanderlust Blues." Buzze's orchestra has been organized six years. The band has been in Texas two and a half years.

"ELECTRIC EYE" FOOLED By United Press ELKO, Nev. — The highway crews were baffled when an "electric eye" traffic counter showed an unprecedented total of 280 cars in an hour using a road that ordinarily was traveled little. Investigation proved a herd of cattle had passed the "eye," crossing up the "foolproof" mechanism.

IT'S IN THE News!

There are two classes of news in these columns every day:

(1) Interesting stories about events all over the world; and (2) The advertisements. Yes, the advertisements are news, and in many ways the most important of all, because they affect you more directly and personally than any other.

A new and better method of refrigeration is devised — and you learn about it through advertisements. Improvements are added to automobiles which make them safer than ever — again advertisements carry the story. Styles change in clothing — and advertisements rush the news to your doorstep. A manufacturer finds a way to lower the price on his products — he advertises to tell you about the savings.

You'll find that it pays to follow this news every day. Reading the advertisements is the sure way to keep abreast of the world... to learn of new comforts and conveniences... to get full money's worth for every dollar you spend.

CHAPTER III
 The summer lodge was perfect in its setting. Great lawns, a blue sky, and a blue sky, washed by green banks, close to the pier.
 Mrs. Wentworth glanced now at the tall and highball glasses. There was no use to overlook the young people these days except to be served drinks. They'd had a washout if you'll be so good as to get a drink. Mrs. Wentworth would be able to see if he were like Jack Jill, who didn't drink at all. Recently, with a glass in his hand, Barry was singing snatches of the St. Louis Blues. Jill glanced at Sylvia Sutton. Sylvia was wearing a simple white sports dress, which made her look like a figure in a white dress. Not a word was said. Jill thought. Not a word was said. Jill thought. Not a word was said. Jill thought.

Barry. They were well dressed in other respects. Barry, his saturnine darkness, was a set off for Sylvia's delicate features. There was something devilish, at least devilish, about Barry, which contrasted sharply with Sylvia's delicate features. Mrs. Wentworth met them at the door. "Where is Barry?" she queried anxiously. "He and Sylvia took two of the boats, planning to race," Jill answered. Mrs. Wentworth's eyes were focused on the lake. It's surface was rougher. There was a chill in the air. Some ominous looking clouds were massing overhead. "I don't like the look of that sky," she said. "Neither did I," Jill said, slowly. "That's the wind in them that clouds," drawled Tommy Lane. "Tommy, don't be funny, you'll frighten Mrs. Wentworth," Lucia Willis warned. "He's not being funny." This from Landy Brent. "Those thunderheads carry a lot of wind." "Landy! You sound so dramatic. Do take me out on the lake, and we can rescue Sylvia and Barry." "No, please!" Mrs. Wentworth spoke sharply. "You would be two more to worry about. Surely, they will be sensible and come in soon." "Of course, they will, Mrs. Wentworth," Tommy said, cheerfully. "Hey, Jill. How about you and Milo taking on Lucia and me for a mah jong tussle? Landy, suppose you stroll down to the pier and see if you can spot those goofs anywhere." "What's that?" Lucia cried. "A put-put as I live," Tommy replied. "They're coming in. And in good time, I'd say." Without warning the storm broke. Great, gusty waves of water were rolled over the shore. The lake was suddenly a boiling mass, lashing back under the swift onslaught of wind. A man's figure was balanced precariously on the rocking pier, and then, head down, came running toward the lodge. The group on the porch moved to meet him. Mrs. Wentworth had opened the door and was down the steps to greet the hurrying figure. "Barry! Barry!" "Don't be an idiot, mother," Barry cried. Dripping with water, wild-eyed, he had reached the porch. A chorus greeted him: "Where is Sylvia?" "Sylvia! Good heavens, hasn't she come in?" "What do you think?" Landy drawled, coldly. "We were on the way toward the point when the storm came up. It was getting dark. I didn't see her or hear the motor—so I thought—"

Barry broke off. The porch had filled suddenly, as groups from the living room joined the anxious group around Barry. "Oh, goodness, is anybody hurt? Where's Sylvia?" Millicent Whitney asked in an excited tone. "We don't know," Lucia answered. "Some of you fellows will have to help," Landy said. "We've got to get a boat off and search for her. We may all go into the soup."

"A boat couldn't live in that water now," Tommy spoke grimly. "But if you go, I'll go with you. Say, wait a minute, someone is coming."

An automobile horn sounded, and two lights loomed up near the porch. Landy reached for a switch, and an electric lantern that swung by the door poured light out into the gloom. A man had leaped from the car. As he came toward the porch they could see he carried someone in his arms. "He's bringing in Sylvia," Tommy cried. "It's Jack Wentworth!" Tommy cried. "He's bringing Sylvia in, My God!"

Diplomacy Enters Into Horse Buying

By United Press
 COLUMBIA, Mo.—Diplomatic horse-buying machinery was set in motion when Rafael Leonidas Trujillo, president of the Dominican Republic, decided he needed a stallion for his stables.

Andres Pastoriza, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the Republic, and Prof. E. A. Trowbridge, chairman of the department of animal husbandry of the University of Missouri were the negotiators.

They agreed that Dysart McDonald, a descendant of Mexico's Rex, should be the horse for President Trujillo. The stallion was shipped to the Dominican Republic.

It's Carrillo for Governor

Basing his campaign on making the people of California gayer and more carefree, Leo Carrillo, swarthy, grinning character actor of the films, announced he will be a candidate for governor in 1938. One of Carrillo's favorite stories is how his great-grandfather, Carlos Antonio, then provisional governor of California, defended the territory against an invading army of Mexicans. "They fought three days," says Carrillo, then one man was shot in the arm so both sides stopped and they all had a barbecue."

103 Charters Were Granted In Month

AUSTIN, Texas—A total of 103 new charters were granted during September to corporations to operate in Texas, a decline of 27.5 per cent from the preceding month and 16.5 per cent from the corresponding month last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Capitalization of the new firms totaled 2,034,000, a decline of 49.6 per cent from July, but an increase of 24.1 per cent over September last year.

Groups showing increases in new charters granted over last year were banking-finance, public service, and real estate-building, the Bureau's analysis showed. There were four corporations chartered with capitalization of $100,000 or more, against ten in August and three in September last year.
