The State's Personality s the Family's

We are in the midst of a period in which the state is 2610, Allen 711, Westfall 1938. being glorified. As the source of all power and all glory, national governments are setting forth their claims -and n many cases enforcing them-as the greatest moving force in the lives of millions of people.

Yet there are other forces, and it remained for Dr. Stanley P. Davies, president of the Family Welfare Association of America, to remind us of one that is even more liams 2923, Eldridge 2482. fundamental than the state.

"From time to time throughout the course of history," says Dr. Davies, "the state has attempted to mold the 1622. family to its own ends, but in the last analysis the family has prevailed. The family molds the people, and in the long run the people mold the state."

That is getting back to fundamentals, for no one has yet devised a state or a manner of life which did not debend in large measure on a stable and vital family life. er 9, Thompson 77 The experience of Russia soon after the revolution of Lt. Governor: Smith 60, Nel-1917 taught them this.

ARE YOU SUPPORTING LAZY DOLLARS?

. . by allowing them to remain idle or paying them for rent each month. There isn't much difference for there is nothing saved nor gained in either case.

A great host of people in Eastland now own their homes debt-free because they started several years ago paying out a home with the monthly payments formerly used for rents.

The lazy dollar serves no useful purpose. Start now by investing it in a home-the best investment on earth.

We have the plan of payment—the home—and every facility of home owning and home financing at your immediate disposal.
