PARADE TO OPEN GORMAN INDIAN TRAIL FESTIVAL
GORMAN, July 10.—A parade through the business district, with band, floats and various other displays, will open Gorman's three-day celebration on Thursday, July 20th. The decision was made to open the celebration with a parade at a meeting of the directors of the Young Men's Business Club.
Every business firm in Gorman will be given an invitation to take part in the parade and others outside of Gorman will be welcome to join in making it the best parade ever held here.
A committee will be appointed to make all arrangements for the floats and displays, and letters inviting bands from De Leon, Eastland, Cisco, Stephenville, and Ranger will be sent out by the club.
The first day of the celebration will be brought to a close Thursday night at 10 p. m. when a big fire works display will be given at the celebration grounds. All events will be free of charge to the public.
The program Friday calls for public speaking in the afternoon, by Governor O'Daniel, if his reply is favorable and if not able to come, his place will be filled by a competent speaker. Friday night, the festival pageant and crowning of the Festival Queen will be held, and this will be followed by the grand ball for the queen and her court. Music for the ball will be furnished by The Ambassadors, one of the finest musical organizations of its kind in Fort Worth.
Saturday's program, although not completed at this time, will be interesting. Present plans call for an amateur contest and other entertainment features to entertain the crowd throughout the evening and night.
A carnival will be on hand throughout the entire three days with rides, swings, shows and many other entertainment features.

ONE YEAR TO GO PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES

BY BRUCE CATTON

LONDON, July 10.—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told the house of commons today that Great Britain is "firmly resolved" to fulfill her guarantee of military aid to Poland, if Polish independence is threatened at the Free City of Danzig.

In an anxiously-awaited statement, approved by Poland in advance, Chamberlain said: "We are firmly resolved to give our assistance to Poland in case of a clear threat to her independence which she considers it vital to resist with her national forces, and we are fully resolved to carry out this undertaking."

Reckless Living Is Blamed for Deaths of Two Boy Bandits

GARDEN CITY, Kas., July 8.—Parents and officers agreed today that the reckless living which ended finally in death for Earl Howen, 20, and Kenneth Allen, 22, was decided upon in discussions the two had while serving terms in the Kansas State Reformatory.

Howen was killed yesterday by a state highway patrolman here. Allen was killed Saturday in a gun battle with officers at Sidney, Neb. They had climaxed a series of store robberies and petty burglaries by robbing a bank at Fort Morgan, Colo., Saturday, of $9,550. The money was recovered.

Police blamed the two for seven robberies committed this month.

Un-Named Woman Aids Police Catch Numerous Burglars

DALLAS, Tex.—"Stool pigeons" are not popular in the underworld, but law-abiding Dallas residents have been saved thousands of dollars through the activities of an unidentified woman who knows the city's thieves and helps the police to catch them.

During the first 28 days of June, Dallas had 130 burglaries. And more than a third of them have been solved with the aid of the unnamed woman, according to Lt. L. E. Spencer of the detective department.

More than $1,100 of stolen property has been recovered through her efforts, and it is only a guess as to how many crimes have been prevented through the arrest of 20 burglars who have been apprehended through her information.

"She is no help to us on cases where a negro commits a theft," Lieutenant Spencer said. "But her contacts with white burglars are amazing. She knows all the big boys in the racket."

Police, of course, refuse to tell the woman's name, or how she works, since the life of a person who helps officers in rounding up criminals would be in immediate danger if the name became known.

Blind Students To Have Braille Books

AUSTIN, Texas.—Blind students who may attend The University of Texas School of Law will have intricate points of legal procedure literally at their finger tips as librarians have placed on open shelf thirteen legal texts in Braille.

The bulky volumes, given the University by the Library of Congress, are, however, not likely to have "readers" until next fall when Lloyd Sparkman, blind law student from Dallas, returns to the University. Sparkman is the only blind student attending law school at this time, Dean Ira P. Hildebrand said today.

Each work, which in regular print makes a hefty volume, requires several feet of shelving space when embossed in Braille.

The Library of Congress has deposited a set of these Braille volumes in each of ten libraries throughout the nation, one in each Federal Judicial District. There are at least 108 practicing blind lawyers in the nation now, the national library reported.

CASE DISMISSED

Case of Wanda Griffin vs. T. L. Griffin has been dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff in 91st district court.

DEPUTY WHITE AND CISCO WOMAN ARE HURT IN ACCIDENT

Two persons, Deputy Sheriff Lou White of Eastland and Mrs. M. Sharp of Cisco, received injuries Sunday following a collision of automobiles on the Lake Eastland road northwest of Eastland.

Deputy White was in a car in which were Deputy Sheriff A. D. Carroll and Carroll's son, H. B., also of Eastland, when the accident occurred. White received a head injury.

Mrs. Sharp, who received a broken leg injury and a dislocated left shoulder, was in the other car. Others in the car in which Mrs. Sharp was a passenger were Ted Sharp, her son and the driver, and Jeanne Snowden, Laura Culbert and Peggy Sharp, all of Cisco.

Treatment was given at Payne hospital in Eastland. It was reported at noon that she was resting comfortably. White had been released from the hospital.

HEAT WAVE IS ABATED OVER MOST OF STATE

The most harrowing heat wave since 1936 was abated in most parts of Texas Monday—after four lives were lost in drownings and a violent thunderstorm damaged Houston.

Many heat prostrations and minor casualties were counted over the state as the weather bureau forecast generally no increase in temperatures.

The Austin-San Antonio section continued hottest in the state.

Power lines were deadened for several hours and several homes were struck by lightning when a hard rain and thunderstorm broke over Houston Sunday afternoon.

Clarence Mobley, 18, and Bobby Leggett, 13, Houston Boy Scouts, were drowned as they swam in Bear Bayou, near San Jacinto Battlefield. Earl W. Tiggeman, 22, was drowned in Ash Lake, 30 miles north of Houston. The body of Mrs. E. H. Jones, 33, was recovered from Lake Abbott, near San Antonio, where she was drowned Saturday.

The hottest spot in Texas Sunday was Encinal, with 114 degrees. Other temperatures included Hondo 112, Uvalde, Alice, Beeville and Victoria 110, Brownsville 103, Wichita Falls 99, Fort Stockton 100, Fort Worth 97, Temple 100.

Indian Church Is Dedicated July 4th

EL PASO, Tex.—The dream of a church built solely for the Apache Indians on the reservation here—a dream which had its inception on the World War battlefields of France—was realized in the dedication July 4 of the Church of San Jose.

The stone church overlooking the pine-clad hills of the Mesquite reservation was the work of Father Albert Braun, who, as a U. S. army chaplain in the World War, conceived the idea of building a church for the Apaches.

Construction of the building from foundation to rafters was done by Father Braun or Indians whom he supervised. It was begun 20 years ago.

Four days of colorful Apache dances preceded the solemn pontifical high mass at which the church was dedicated, with Bishop Anthony J. Schuler officiating.

A shrine to World War dead, every service in the church will be dedicated to those who fell on the battlefields. An altar in the sanctuary is devoted to St. Martin of Tours, patron saint of soldiers.

On the massive front door there is a bronze plate of a soldier at attention, and the dates 1919-1939.

Father Braun, who has spent many years with the Indians of the Southwest, is to be archpriest.

Safety Advertising Is To Appear Soon

AUSTIN, Tex.—Safety advertisements shortly will appear in Texas newspapers under sponsorship of the Texas Good Roads Association as part of a campaign by that organization, the Texas Highway Commission and the Department of Public Safety to eliminate preventable accidents on the roads.

Lowry Martin, Corsicana, president of the good roads association, said the advertisements are aimed at educating the public to the responsibilities of motor vehicle operation and the dangers of carelessness on streets and highways.

The advertisements are to be released to papers through the Texas Press Association.

Huntsville Scouts Visit In Ranger

A troop of 29 Boy Scouts and six leaders from Huntsville stopped in Ranger for a visit Sunday, and inspected the new Boy Scout cabin, now nearing completion.

They were accompanied on their tour of inspection by E. S. Lamm. The scouts were enroute to Carlsbad Caverns.

ONE YEAR TO GO PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES

Bruce Barton: knows how to pick an issue—and dramatize it.

STRICTLY a dark horse for the Republican nomination, but a rather promising one all things considered, is Congressman Bruce Barton of New York.

Ordinarily no congressman who has not yet got half way through his second term would be considered for the presidency. But Congressman Barton is a bit different.

For one thing, he was widely known all across the country before he entered public life. His books, including the famous "Man Nobody Knows," were best sellers; long before he got into Congress, Mr. Barton's name was familiar to thousands of people who could not have named four congressmen to save their lives. His newspaper and magazine writings, of course, helped to spread his fame.

For another thing, Mr. Barton is an effective congressman and is possessed of a great deal of ability. As one of the country's leading advertising men, in addition, he knows how to select an issue and dramatize it so as to appeal to the masses.

The son of a widely known clergyman, Mr. Barton is a midwesterner by background and a New Yorker by choice. His is affable, popular with his colleagues, and given to rather puckish jibing at the New Deal's foibles. He attracted a bit of attention earlier this year by announcing a campaign to get at least one useless law repealed each week.

HIS ASSETS: A widely known name, plus general respect for his intellect; the equipment of a good campaigner; orthodox Republicanism leavened by a certain amount of liberalism.

HIS LIABILITIES: He has no "machine" working for him; politicians tend to fight shy of the newcomer... and Barton-for-VICE-president talk is beginning to be heard.

HIS CHANCES: He's an outsider, but he could pull a surprise.

SPANISH TOWN RUINED BY A POWDER BLAST

BURGOS, Spain, July 10.—Military authorities ordered complete evacuation of Penaranda de Bracamonte today, after an explosion which killed at least 100 people, wounded between 1,500 and 2,000, and started fires that almost destroyed the town.

It was reported that a railroad train which was approaching Penaranda station when the explosion occurred, had disappeared with its passengers and crew and the station personnel.

The heat of the sun ignited a big gunpowder supply in the suburbs. The countryside within a 30-mile radius was shaken by the resulting explosion.

Some people were killed by concussion, and the injured included persons in villages nearby. Penaranda was set afire and almost every house was wrecked or burned.

July Sun Begins To Take Its Toll In Heat Victims

AUSTIN, Tex.—The beating Texas sun these July days is beginning to take its toll in heat prostrations, from reports reaching the Texas State Department of Health. A simple precaution to help prevent heat cramps and prostration is to add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with re-acting heat cramps or heat fog. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body loses large quantities of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be used. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating. Alcoholic drinks should be avoided.

Heat cramps are characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then muscles begin to cramp.

Prevailing Wages on WPA Projects Is Object of a Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 10.—Rep. Adolf Sabath, democrat, Illinois, today introduced a bill to increase hourly wages of skilled relief workers as demanded by more than 100,000 WPA strikers.

Sabath's bill would eliminate provisions of the 1940 relief act, which terminated the prevailing wage policy and substituted a system of security wages. The new system in many cases required skilled men to work twice as long for the same wages they formerly received.

High Courts Terms Puzzle To Visitors

AUSTIN, Tex.—Many visitors to the State Capitol are puzzled to find that the Court of Criminal Appeals enjoys a three-month summer holiday while the "nine old men" of the State Supreme Court get none.

Back in the days before air conditioning, before there were even fans in the Capitol, it was decided that courts could not be expected to work through the summer. In establishing the Court of Criminal Appeals as the court of last resort in crime cases, and the Supreme Court as the final tribunal for civil suits, a provision was placed in the constitution fixing their terms from October to July.

Later, when election litigation became prolific, the Supreme Court, rather than issue temporary orders, permissible out of term time, let such matters wait until term time. By then the disputes were moot so far as primary elections were concerned. The result was a change in the constitution abolishing the Supreme Court's term and making it continuous. The change was not ordered for the Court of Criminal Appeals because it does not have election cases to decide.

Garner Supporter Put Party First

BEAUMONT, July 10.—Mrs. Clara Driscoll, Texas National Democratic Committeewoman and one of the original Garner-for-President supporters, said today, if President Roosevelt is nominated for a third term she will support him.

"Place the party above the candidate and vote the ticket," she said. Mrs. Driscoll, with E. B. Germany of Dallas, is head of the national organization supporting Vice President John Garner for the democratic presidential nomination in 1940.

Swift Justice Meted Out By A Court

AUSTIN, Tex.—People who complain of law's delays had an opportunity to witness swift justice when the Third Court of Civil Appeals decided a motor truck case in a flash.

Arguments had been scheduled for Wednesday in an attempt of Julius Tison of Houston to enjoin the state railroad commission. It happened the same points of law had been decided previously by the court in another case.

When the Tison case was called in the court, Chief Justice James W. McClendon inquired if the attorneys did not agree that the previous case decided all controversial points. When the answer of "yes" was given, Judge McClendon reached into his pocket and pulled out a written decision and the litigation ended.

Bad Dinner May Be Caused By Feet

DALLAS, Tex.—When your dinner doesn't taste good, jokes that make other people laugh sound sour to you, and your friends get to regarding you as a grouch—the trouble may be in your feet.

"If your feet are unhappy, you are unhappy," according to Dr. C. J. Gaddis of Beverly Hills, Cal., who was in Dallas for the annual convention of the American Osteopathic Association.

"The feet are mirrored in the face, because troubled, hurting feet cause creased brows," he said.

"Worried feet mean tired eyes—they upset the entire mental and nervous system.

"And the best advice that I can give is to take care of those feet while they are not giving you any trouble."

O'Daniel Signs A Tax Remission Bill

AUSTIN, July 10.—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel today announced he had signed the bill of the legislature remitting to counties half the ad valorem state taxes collected in them for a period of five years.

The money will be available for local uses. Senator Rudolph Weinert of Sequin, author of the bill, estimated that the money given to counties by the bill would be approximately $3,000,000 a year.

Lending Program Is Presented to Congress

WASHINGTON, July 10.—President Roosevelt's legislative lieutenants today introduced in congress a bill authorizing the administration's proposed new $2,000,000,000 lending program designed to aid business recovery.

The measure was presented in the senate by majority leader Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, and in the house by Chairman Henry B. Steagall, democrat, Alabama, of the house banking and currency committee.

Are We as Democratic as We Think We Are?

The minute you begin to take a thing for granted, you begin to lose it.

That's true of liberty, of democracy, of religion, and many other things.

We think the United States is a democratic country. We hope so, at any rate. We are impressed by the way in which foreigners are impressed by our informal manners, and the lack of servility in servants.

But the truest democratic spirit is in equality, and it will come as a shock to most Americans to read of at least one foreign observer who didn't think we are especially democratic at all. He is Prof Gunnar Myrdal of Sweden, an economist now touring the country to study certain problems of American life, especially that of the Negro.

Sweden has a king, and there is quite frankly an upper and lower class in Swedish life. But the class lines are not drawn with that finality which exists in Britain, and exceptional persons move from class to class with complete freedom.

But Professor Myrdal, in an interview with Marquis W. Childs of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, revealed that he felt class distinctions in the United States, subtle but clear, of which he thought Americans themselves might not be conscious.

Professor Myrdal noted that Pullman passengers in trains received extreme courtesy from porters and train officials, but that day-coach passengers got scant attention from either. He noted that Park Avenue residents were spoken to with deference and excessive politeness by policemen, but that poorly dressed people often got sharp words and short shrift from the same officers.

Of course it was not the difference in accommodations on the train that impressed the foreigner, though he felt there was a greater difference in these than in Europe between third-class and second-class trains. After all, the customers were paying for the difference in physical accommodations, and that was all right. It was the difference in the attitude of the porters and policemen toward people evidently differently situated.

Does this seem a trifling matter? Perhaps. But yet perhaps it is not. For real democracy lies not in equal physical possessions for all, but in equal respect and consideration for all by one another.

It would be shameful if, without our quite realizing it, we were beginning to lose the spirit of the legendary Irish ditch-digger. A friend asked him, you will remember: "Shure, Pat, and is not one man as good as another?" "Indade he is," snapped Pat, "and a dom sight better!"

One Hollywood actress calls her husband "my jewel." Apt. Like jewels, many Hollywood husbands are stolen.

NYA Center At San Marcos Takes School Graduates

AUSTIN, Tex.—Thirty-nine boys and forty-two girls who have graduated from high schools in various parts of Texas are attending the NYA Resident Center in recreational leadership at San Marcos, this summer. This Center, sponsored by Southwest Texas State Teachers College, will run until August 15, and is the third summer training period provided by NYA and the College for Texas youths.

During their stay at San Marcos, the youths will work 74 hours each month and will receive a sum sufficient to pay for their food, lodging, and medical attention, and will have about $10 a month each for their personal use. They will also participate in training classes conducted by the Physical Education Department of the College, and will help to supervise a city recreational program.

In selecting youths for assignment to the San Marcos Project, NYA District Directors gave preference to boys and girls who are particularly interested in recreational activities. A number of youths selected were previously assigned to various Resident Centers in other parts of the state and upon completion of the short course at San Marcos will return to their original assignments.

Facilities for carrying on a recreational program are ideal at Southwest Texas State Teachers College and include gymnasiums for both boys and girls, tennis courts, softball courts, swimming at Riverside Park, and courts and equipment for ping pong, volley ball, golf and similar activities. Under the general supervision of officials in the College Health and Recreation Department of which O. W. Strahan is director, the boys and girls not only learn how to play but also how to initiate recreational programs. They learn the fundamentals of recreational leadership during the time they spend in training classes, and have opportunity to put what they learn into practice during their working hours when they assist in the supervision of recreational programs at San Marcos.

Bancroft readily agreed to Roselee's plan to recapture the glamor of the ghost town, sell it to the tourist trade. But the robbers' loot was another problem.

standards, Miss Dale, see? I was going to run some tests and try to sell myself a job with the mining corporation that owns Goldcrest. Did you know, I mean.

They talked, too, about the money. Talked excitedly again after having already discussed it at length. They agreed that the $12,000 was doubtless robbers' loot. But what robbers? And what would they do now, and what should be done with the money?

CHAPTER IV BEFORE 8 o'clock next morning Roselee and Christine were back at their ghost town twisting up the rough main street in Roselee's coupe. The sun had already dispelled any ghosts that had lurked in evening shadows, but the picturesque quality of the place impressed both girls now.

Yesterday, Dick agrees to help Roselee and Christine start their ghost town venture. Meanwhile, he fills the mysterious money sack with paper, prepares to hide the real $12,000 elsewhere. The girls are already swamped with adventure!

for in the hills, and who has often worked for dad. She'll be here today. "I think we ought to have some prospectors and Indians and cowboys around for atmosphere," Christine added, "so I'll see to it, and I'll handle the bookkeeping and the records and do anything else you say."

SHE never realized that she turned automatically to him for advice in that significant moment. It was a precedent that she was to follow more and more. "Glor-ree, no! The sheriff's a half day's run from here. Besides, what's he got that I haven't got? My weight fluctuates, madam, between 200 and 201 pounds. I'd like a chance of capturing a robber, if robber it is."

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

Foreign silver: 1,670,000,000 ounces, costing $880,000,000.

WASHINGTON—Silver is an odd metal, and some of the facts connected with it are pretty odd, too.

For one thing, Uncle Sam now has on hand, in various vaults, strongboxes and what not, rather more than 85,000 tons of the metal.

For another, silver has three prices—the world market price, the price Uncle Sam pays for newly-mined domestic silver at the mint, and the price silver is locally worth.

When he buys foreign silver, Uncle Sam pays around 43 cents an ounce for it. When he buys newly-mined domestic silver, he pays 66 cents—will pay 77, if the amendment just voted by the Senate gets by the House. And, legally, silver is worth $1.29 an ounce.

Originally, the country was on a bi-metallic basis, with a ratio of 16 to 1 between silver and gold. So, the official legal price of silver is $1.29 (and a fraction) per ounce as a sixteenth of the pre-devaluation gold price of $20.67 an ounce. Now, however, gold is worth $35 an ounce; legally, the administration could, tomorrow if it chose, revalue silver to restore the 16 to 1 ratio—which, since the 2,744,000,000 ounces of silver it already owns are worth $3,548,000,000, would mean a tidy bit of inflation.

The silver-buying program began in 1934. At that time the government had somewhat less than 700,000,000 ounces of silver in its possession. Since then it has bought silver as follows:

Newly-mined domestic silver:	269,000,000 ounces, costing $195,946,000.
Silver "turned in" under the nationalization program:	113,000,000 ounces, costing $56,500,000.

Keeping Health Of Babies In Summer Follows Routine

AUSTIN, Tex.—As the thermometer shows signs of climbing higher and higher some of the ways by which babies may be kept well and comfortable during the hot weather and may be safeguarded against "summer complaint" are outlined by the Texas State Department of Health.

"The best way to keep your baby well," advises the department, "is to take your well baby to your doctor regularly for advice and supervision, and to follow the doctor's instructions carefully and very faithfully. If your baby develops any digestive trouble, call your family doctor at once. He'll tell you what to do."

"Summer complaint, or cholera infantum as it is sometimes called, and other digestive diseases that are dangerous for babies, are germ diseases. The germs that cause the disease get into the baby's food or in the water given the baby to drink. Babies who are nursed by their mothers and who are given cooled, boiled water to drink are protected from these sources of danger. Care should be taken not to wear a baby in hot weather except under a doctor's orders."

"If mother's milk is not available, the best substitute for it is fresh cow's milk or unsweetened evaporated milk mixed with an equal quantity of water. If sugar or additional water is needed, it should be mixed with the milk according to your doctor's directions. All milk or milk mixtures given to children up to two years of age should be boiled. The feedings should be kept in individual bottles and kept on ice until used. Each feeding should be warmed as needed."

"Always wash the hands thoroughly before preparing the baby's food, and before handling the baby's bottle. All dishes, pots, bottles and nipples should be sterilized by boiling before using again. "Be very careful to protect the baby and the baby's food against flies. Flies are potent disease carriers. Keep a supply of clean mosquito netting on hand to throw over the baby's crib or carriage while the baby sleeps. "Some of the diarrheal diseases that grown-ups have are catching. Keep the baby away from people—both children and grown-ups—who are suffering from such diseases."

THUNDER STOPS WATCHES

SASKATOON, Sask.—Herb Buckle, local jeweler, remarked recently, "I wish there were more thunderstorms, for my business seems to pick up immediately after a thunderstorm. But there is one thing I can't explain. That is, why is it that one-third of the watches brought to me for repairs have stopped between the hours of midnight and 3 A. M.?"

"If your baby develops diarrheal trouble don't let it run on. Call your family physician at once."

SALE STARTS THURSDAY, JULY 13TH 8 A. M.

TO THE WOMEN OF THIS COMMUNITY:

We believe that there are at least 2,000 women in this community who are in need of something that is different if they only knew that the price and quality was within their demands.

The headline of this advertisement isn't merely a catchy but meaningless jingle... the thought is really based on the soundest logic and soundest merchandising as a moment of reflection prove. For it stands to reason that before a merchant can make a sale to a customer he must attract the customer to his store.

We are overstocked with dresses, hats, accessories, and shoes. Then again this is the season when we have to make room for shipments of merchandise that will begin to arrive in a few days and are several months left yet to wear summer clothes at home or on vacation trips.

On Tuesday and Wednesday we will distribute a full page circular calling attention to the cuts we are making on everything for summer. Watch Wednesday afternoon's Eastland Telegram full page ad.

You've heard probably something of values in large cities but none of them will offer you the same values we have in this big sale which starts Thursday, July 13. And besides the savings on price you save on tear and gasoline for a long trip and then you probably wouldn't be satisfied. Don't shop around you come to the Fashion's great Summer Clearance Sale. Positively no merchandise on Sale until open Thursday morning. Store will be closed Wednesday. Every woman is cordially urged and invited to visit this Sale.
