Moore .. ABOUT Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Call it what you want to, but all you can say and all we can say will be a lot to be said for Eastland's first homecoming celebration.

Complete coverage of such a meeting would be impossible. A staff of 25 newspaper reporters would have been helpless. We personally met 1108 people who remember us from old school days, and we didn't even attend Eastland High School.

—ven—
And it was a great occasion for guys like James Reid, Jim Golden and Lowell Snyder. They and numerous other bachelors took full advantage of the situation. On their nameplates they had an additional word printed, "Unattached." Reid told us it cost an additional dollar to get that information put on the card, but confided that his mother paid the extra cost. "She had high hopes," he said.

Golden, like the others, was busy kissing and getting kissed by some of his school friends of the opposite sex. One ex-schoolmate got around to him for a second time and was really planting one on when she happened to remember it was a repeat performance. "What am I doing greeting you again?" she asked. "I don't know," Jim shot back, "but if it doesn't make you mad it sure doesn't me."

—ven—
We had great fun watching the old exes at work. One would get close to another, eye his identification card, find out who he was and rush over saying, "Why Bill Bill, I'd know you anywhere, bud. You haven't changed a bit." And that would give Bill a chance to check the others card and come out with something like, "Joe Jones, you old son of a gun. How

Comets Have Two Game Lead At Halfway Mark

The League leaders took back over last night in Little League play as the Bulldogs edged the Lions, 12-11, and the Comets smashed the Medics, 21-1.

That plus a make-up game between the Lions and the Medics, which the Lions won, 12-10, put the League at the halfway mark.

The Bulldogs got a big six run last inning to pull the game out of the fire while the Comets scored a walk against the Medics.

In the make-up game, the Lions simply outscored the Medics, getting the winning runs in the bottom of the fifth and then holding the Medics to one run in the top of the sixth to end the tilt.

PLEASED AS PUNCH—These three ex-students of Eastland High School, like everyone else concerned, were as pleased as they could possibly be when some 2000 turned out for the occasion. From left to right are Jack Grubb, who came from Bangkok, Thailand to win the award for traveling the furthest to be on hand; Terrell Coleman, general chairman of the Homecoming, now of Waco; and Jim Golden of Eastland, newly elected president of the Eastland Alumni Association. The three are reading a telegram from an unhappy ex-student who couldn't make it home. (Reporter-News Photo).

Speaker Says Arabs Can Live With Jews

He said Israel, a state which is just nine years old, has grown from a mere population of 650,000 in 1957 to 1,850,000 today. "Freedom and democracy are very much a part of their fight," he declared.

Pahn, a native of New York, holds a masters degree in social work from the New York School of Social Work of Columbia University. He has held positions in fields of child welfare and group work in Illinois and Ohio.

In the summer of 1955 he was invited to become a member of an Executive Survey Mission to study the welfare conditions in Israel and Europe with particular reference to the use of American Philanthropic funds. The study mission was under the auspices of the United Jewish Appeal, the major source of philanthropic funds for welfare services in Europe, Africa and Israel.

He told Rotarians of that trip, terming it a "fascinating experience." He said the nation of 800,000 square miles has citizens who came from 70 "different lands."

He explained that the state was formed when England gave up her mandate and the United Nations set the area up as a free state. "It came after 200 years of sorrow," he explained.

Explaining the nation's military setup, the speaker said that all young boys and girls of the state must serve two years in the army. The reserve units, he explained, can be mobilized in 24 hours. The army is used as a training school, the speaker told his listeners, in that members are given basic military training.

At that time the Board will hear tax payers who feel that their tax level is not with the general level in the county.

At the Monday meeting commissioners paid routine bills for the past month and other routine business. All commissioners were present at the meeting and County Judge John Hart presided.

Next regular meeting of the commission is scheduled June 24.

Richard Smith Is Re-Assigned Here

Rev. Richard Smith III will remain in Eastland as pastor of the First Methodist Church. He was re-assigned to his pulpit at the annual Central Texas Methodist Conference in Waco Friday.

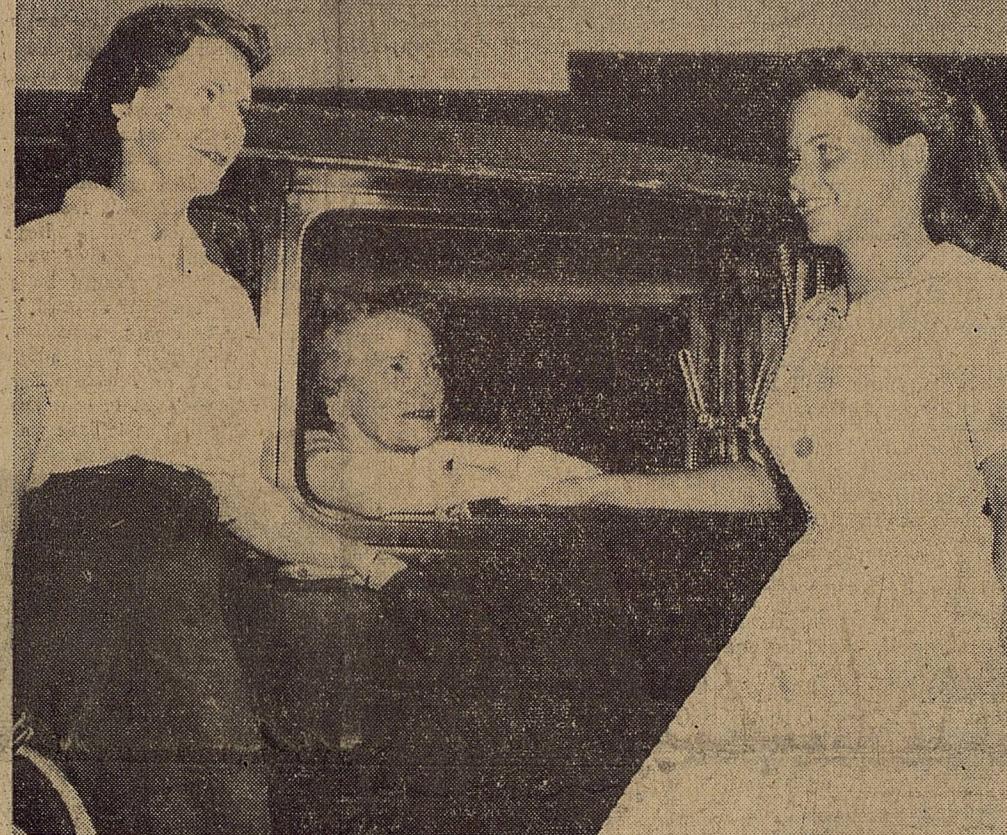

District Supt. Allen A. Peacock of Cisco was also reappointed. Other Eastland County ministers who were re-assigned were S. Ross Grace of Carbon, Wallace N. Dungan, James Miller and John Wylie, all of Cisco, Homer Hall of Demona, Robert Haynes of Gorman, Dean Franklin of Olden and Flatwood, Jim Tomison of Putnam and Scranton, James Ellison of Ranger, and R. A. Brooks of Rising Star.

Check On Check Warms Up Commissioners Meet

The why and wherefore of a $190 check got things boiling Monday in Eastland County commissioners court, with members of the commission, for the most part, sitting back and listening to two elected officers debate the issue.

County Attorney Joe Nuessle and County Treasurer Richard Cox, who have not been the best friends in the courthouse in the past, were the two chief participants in the hour-long discussion. Both men are from Ranger. The issue all came up when Harl O'Brien, county auditor, asked the Court to instruct him what he was to do to remove a deficit of $190 from the county treasurer's books which resulted from a check being canceled by the writer.

It came out in the discussion that the check was written by a farmer in Commissioner B. M. Bennett's precinct to cover the cost of work done for him by the county. Bennett's workers had done some terracing, it was revealed.

Court Judge John Hart called in Nuessle for some legal advice. Nuessle listened to the account and gave his advice, briefly this: The county treasurer should not have held the check in his office for approximately a month before he cashed it. He recommended the county could look to three sources for its money. To the farmer, to the county treasurer, and to Cox's bonding company.

Cox, by this time, was on his feet. He too had a statement to make. He said the check was held up at Bennett's request so that he (Bennett) could check and make sure it was for the correct amount.

Further questioning showed that a receipt for the money paid was not issued until the check was cashed.

Cox was asked several times if he had not been asked to write the receipt by the farmer before that date. He said he had not.

Cox then said he just wouldn't take any more checks except cashier checks if he was going to be responsible for all of them.

Nuissle said he wouldn't be responsible if he would cash them in when he got them. Cox shot back that he held up the check on the authority of Commissioner Bennett. Nuessle replied that wasn't enough authority, he should have approved such action before the entire Commission.

The treasurer then turned his eyes on O'Brien, suggesting that in the future he make out any checks he writes (he wrote the one in question for the farmer) to the correct fund instead of the county treasurer. O'Brien didn't want any of the argument. He said he couldn't even remember how he happened to write out the check.

"The man simply asked me to write out a check for him and I did," he said.

Finally Bennett said he would go see the farmer and see if he wouldn't be willing to pay the county what he owed. That left the matter standing at that point.

No one ever asked why the farmer had the bank stop payment on the check, but everyone but the news reporter covering the session seemed to know.

Derald G. Kellett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Chandler Jr., 2111 Dugald Place, Dallas, and grand-son of Mrs. N. E. Shafer, 209 North Lamar, Eastland received a Doctor of Medicine degree from The University of Texas Medical School at Galveston May 30.

Derald attended South Ward Grade School here and was graduated from Grand Prairie High School in 1948; attended Arlington State College and Baylor University at Waco, completing the pre-medical requirements. He entered The University of Texas Medical School at Galveston in 1953. He will begin his internship in July at Confederate Memorial Hospital in Shreveport, La.

DOCTORS DEGREE GOES TO KELLETT

Eastlanders were still rubbing their eyes and occasionally pinching themselves this morning, trying to convince themselves that it actually happened. Could that many ex-students actually have been here, they asked themselves? But no one can really doubt it. More than 2000 people crammed on City Park hill Saturday night and a standing-room only audience attended religious services at the High School auditorium Sunday morning in a tribute to this city that can never be forgotten.

Eastland really did "stack" the dear ole town with memories my . . ." just as Mrs. Andy Taylor had predicted in her especially written Homecoming song. And the next line in that song proved a true prophecy too. Such a time, indeed, had never been held in Old Rip town before. The exes really did bring the kids and mother and dad, and they really did see old gals and friends, asking them "where the heck" they had been.

There had to be a climax to the Homecoming. Perhaps it was when Texas Supreme Court Justice John Edward Hickman, himself an ex-Eastland citizen, told the huge audience Saturday night that the Homecoming had done more to boost the morale and spirit of Eastland than anything that's happened in many a year."

Judge Hickman termed the Homecoming "A marvelous success." He said, "We came here because we are homesick and we want to return to our finest hour."

Following the barbecue the Homecoming program got off to a typical start with the Eastland High School band playing a concert. The program got a late start, however, since no one had anticipated such a huge turnout.

Mayor Horace Horton, an ex-student himself, then welcomed the hundreds of exes and their Sen. Hunt led the group in singing the Homecoming Song.

Judge Hickman's address came next and then Mr. and Mrs. Taylor recognized winners of the Homecoming golf tournament. Mrs. Taylor, or Ima Ruth as exes know her, was a little more than embarrassed on that count for she had won the woman's medalist award. Bob Sikes was the man's medalist winner.

Jack Grubb, who came all the way from Bangkok, Thailand, was honored as being the ex who traveled the longest way to attend the Homecoming. Terrell Coleman, Homecoming chairman, made the presentation. The class of 1932 was recognized as the honor class of the reunion, but special praise went to two members of the Class of 1887, the oldest class represented.

Honorary diplomas were presented to both Judge and Mrs. Hickman and to Mrs. Terrell Cole.

It was almost as though a storm had blown over in Eastland Monday morning. Welcome banners, old pictures in windows, sore feet, sore throats and fond memories were all that remained of the biggest high school homecoming this part of the state can remember.

Eastlanders were still rubbing their eyes and occasionally pinching themselves this morning, trying to convince themselves that it actually happened. Could that many ex-students actually have been here, they asked themselves?

A Tribute To Dad

What shall I give to one small boy?
A glamorous game, a tinsel toy,
A barlow knife, a puzzle pack,
A train that runs on curving track?
A picture book, a real live pet...
No, there's plenty of time for such things yet.
Give him a day for his very own—
Just one small boy and his dad alone:
A romp in the woods, a romp in the park,
A fishing trip from dawn to dark,
Give the gift that only you can—
The companionship of his Old Man.
Games are out grown, and toys decay—
But he'll never forget if you "Give him a day."

Speaking of auto accidents the latest 1956 statistics reveal that the human error (not the car) was responsible for 96.4 per cent of all fatalities—40,000 of them. Men were drivers in 89.7 per cent of the cases. Week-ends, lead by Saturdays, are the most dangerous, killing 56 per cent. Youthful drivers caused only 25 per cent of the accidents—all others 75 per cent—with the daydreamer listed as the No. 1 headache for department of safety officials.

Plymouth automobile sales in the Southwest are at a record level and last month (May) hit an all-time high volume up 97 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

The May sales record topped the previous high month, March 1957, by 5 per cent and was ahead of April sales total by 18 per cent.

S. L. Noble, Southwest manager of Chrysler's sales group, in commenting on the record month said, "This achievement is a strong indication that the economy in this area is firm. We expect sales to continue at this high level."

Nobel continued, "It is obvious to us that the auto market today reflects the widespread acceptance of the advanced styling and engineering features of the new Plymouth and other cars of the Chrysler Corporation."

Plymouth's sales gain contributed to a strong showing by the Chrysler Corporation in the Southwest last month. Sales for Chrysler Corporation cars and trucks in May were up 81 percent over May 1956.

Since the introduction of the 1957 models last October, Plymouth has moved back into place in national automobile sales and according to the latest (June 1) Automotive News estimate has a production lead of 105,666 units over the nearest competitor.

A permanent program of organization was adopted, with Virgil Seaberry Jr. presiding. Jim Golden was presented as Alumni president, and 12 directors were named. The next Homecoming is scheduled for June, 1960, with a reunion every five years after that.

Three dances were the highlight following the barbecue, and three full dance floors resulted.

Saturday afternoon all classes held separate reunions.

Sunday morning's church service completed the Homecoming, and exes started drifting out of their old home town after that.

Local exes, however, and many from out of town, got busy immediately.

What for? As one ex put it, "We have got to start planning today if we produce another homecoming in 1960 like the one we just finished."

Stuck In Mud But They're All Working

Farmers Suffering Due To Combine Shortage

As if Eastland County farmers didn't have enough to worry about right now, they are suffering from a shortage of combines with which to harvest their oat crops.

Every oat stalk in the county is ripe right now, loaded with grain and ready to fall over the minute the next good sprinkle or good-sized puff of wind comes along, and the farmers are fighting against time, working 25-hours a day, Sundays included, trying to get the grain crop harvested.

County Agent J. M. Cooper said there were actually plenty of combines around here to get the crop in, but the trouble is, they are all wanted at once. Farmers are afraid to risk the weather from one day to the next, and the crop would be all ruined if a heavy rain should beat it to the ground because the combines could not pick it up. They could do it eventually, Cooper said, but it would be a long, tedious, expensive process.

T. C. Wylie, of Ranger Peanut Company, who estimates there will be from 35,000 to 38,000 acres planted to peanuts this year, estimates if the pretty weather holds out perhaps half of the acre will be ready to plant by the end of this week. County Agent Cooper, however, is not so optimistic. After making a two-day tour of inspection over the county, he said the farmers would have to go some to have half the land ready by the end of this week, but he said it was possible if they had good luck and the weather was kind.

Wylie said peanut seed was beginning to move out of his warehouses fast this week, and expected the demand to grow every day.

A lot of fertilizer is also being sold because farmers never did even get a chance to put that commodity out before they were stopped by two full months of rain.

Nearly everybody is in full agreement, including the farmers, that three weeks of sunshine, heat and dry weather are just what is needed more than anything else. During that time the oats can be gathered and most of the peanuts actually put into the ground. After that, a good soaking shower probably would be welcomed by everybody.

As of now the weather has been perfect, even though the rains did last a little longer than some people thought necessary. If the weather continues to behave as it should, with a shower now and then in July and August, the story of what will happen next fall will be almost too good to be true.

County 4-H Club Dairy Team off To State Meet

Eastland County's 4-H Club Dairy Judging team composed of Scranton and Nimrod boys left early today for A&M College where they will compete Wednesday for state honors at the annual club round-up and judging contests.

Team members are Harold Reese, David Stuart and Jimmy Johnson, all of Scranton, and Warner Kanady of Nimrod. All of the boys are members of the Scranton 4-H Club. They won the district dairy judging contest at Stephenville in April, thereby winning the right to enter the state contest.

Expenses of the boys are being borne by the Eastland County Dairy Ass'n and the First National Bank of Cisco. Joel Ray Graham of Cisco and Jerry Morean of Scranton are the two club boy delegates to the State Club Roundup. The County Commissioners Court is sponsoring the delegates to the Roundup.

County Agent J. M. Cooper and Asst. County Agent Curtis L. Bease accompanied the boys to College Station. The group will return on Thursday.

Farmers Advised To Watch for Grasshoppers

College Station—Farmers and stockmen in many areas of Texas are advised by Extension Entomologists F. M. Fuller and C. F. Garner to be on the alert for possible damaging infestations of grasshoppers during this spring and summer.

Based on surveys made by the USDA, the entomologists say that infestations ranging from very severe to light are forecast for the Panhandle, with Dallam, Moore, Hartley and Potter counties in the very severe area.

Threatening is the term used to describe an even larger area to the east. Possible infestations could occur in Knox, King, Dickens, Motley, Floyd, Briscoe and parts of Crosby, Swisher, Hall, Donley, Armstrong, Randall, Deaf Smith and Castro counties. Also in parts of Wichita, Clay, Sherman and Hansford counties.

Threatening to light infestations could occur in wide areas from the Red River south into deep central Texas. The situation at present, point out the entomologists, should be watched very carefully. The first nymphs, newly hatched 'hoppers, have been found in the Brazos River bottom and hatching will progress northward with favorable weather.

The time to do the most effective job of controlling 'hoppers, emphasize the specialists, is before the young leave the hatching grounds. Roadsides, field margins, ditch banks and idle lands bordering cropland should be watched carefully for the appearance of young 'hoppers. When numbers justify the use of control measures, several insecticides are readily available for doing the control job and include aldrin, dieldrin, heptachlor, toxaphene and chlordane.

The entomologists suggest that the local county agent be contacted for complete details on control measures and when and how they should be applied. The insecticides are poisonous to man and animals as well as grasshoppers and the manufacturers directions should be followed closely, say Fuller and Garner.

"I've killed a child!"

"Never had an accident before. Never been in trouble with the law. Always tried to do right by my family and friends. Now I've killed a child—just by taking a foolish chance."

Every day it happens, often just like that, to drivers who thought accidents happen only to the other fellow—never to themselves.

Remember this. No one expects to meet death on the road. Certainly no one expects to be guilty of causing it. Yet last year, 40,000 men, women and children died in traffic accidents. Thousands of drivers—many who never had or expected to have an accident—found themselves guilty of killing someone on the highway.

Most of these deaths can be prevented—with your cooperation.

Charles Crawford Chapter of DAR Has Luncheon

The Charles Crawford Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution closed their year's work on Monday, June 3, with a luncheon at the Victor Hotel. Honorees for the luncheon, who were presented gifts by the regent, Mrs. Yancy McCrea, were the State Regent, Mrs. Felix Irwin of Corpus Christi; the State Vice Regent, Mrs. Edgar Riggs of Graham; and Mrs. F. I AM NO LONGER RESPONSIBLE FOR MY WIFE'S ACTIONS

(Since she got her new kind of Ford)

"If she is unusually happy at 7:00 A. M. every morning, I now hold her 1957 Ford responsible. If she is off for the day at 7:02 A. M., I suggest that it is the power of Ford's Thunderbird V-8 engine. If she appears vastly more style-conscious, it is the longer, lower lines of her new kind of Ford that have made her so."

"If she arrives home remarkably refreshed, I refer you to the lower, more comfortable seats, the wider wrap-around windshield and the other peace-of-mind features of her new 'Inner Ford.' If she's just a bit more spoiled, don't blame her. With optional power steering, power brakes, power windows and seat—who wouldn't be?"

"And if she is constantly raving about the savings her new car brings her, she's surely confirming what I've been telling her about Ford's family now. But even having one Ford in the family was more fun than you can imagine! Try a new 57 Ford at your house. It's terrific!"
