

Most Eastland Graduates Heading For College

By CAROLYN COLLINS
Telegram Staff Reporter

Twenty-eight of the 42 1956 Eastland High School graduates contacted by a Telegram reporter say they will attend college this year. That will represent one of the largest groups of ex-Eastland students ever to head toward the halls of ivy.

Possibly there are as many as eight more graduates who will enter college as well. That many of the 50 graduates could not be contacted in a telephone survey made this week. Five of the young ladies of the class have married, and four of that number will not attend college.

Five female graduates and two males have found work they like and will stick to it. Only one of the 50 has joined the armed services. Two said they were undecided. Of the eight not contacted, at least four are known to have planned earlier to go to college.

Tarleton State is the number one pick of local grads. Nine students say they will enroll there this year. Hardin Simmons ranked next in line with four prospective students, and North Texas State College was third with three local students planning to enroll there. Two will attend business colleges, and one student each has announced he will attend A&M College, Mary College, Texas Christian University and the University of Texas. The students indicated they would attend college, but hadn't yet made their selections.

Moore... ABOUT EASTLAND

by Virgil E. Moore

They tell us that Willard Griffin, manager of Coat's Furniture Co., has quite a sales talk. We were in there the other day, however, and heard him run into a customer that was just too much for him. Trying to sell her one of those new refrigerators that shut the door by themselves, Willard explained to the lady that what she saved on her food bill would pay for it.

The customer looked Willard in the eye and replied, "We are paying for a car on the carfare we save; we are paying for a washing machine on the laundry bill we save; we are paying on a house on the rent we save; and we are paying for a TV set on the cost of the movies we don't see any more. It looks like we can't afford to save any more this time."

The last time we told a joke like that one above some smart aleck sent us a postcard (unsigned) which read: "If Adam came on earth again about the only thing he would recognize are the jokes you print in your column."

Mrs. W. E. Walker of Carbon has entered a couple of "cute sayings" in our contest (which has a Aug. 15 deadline by the way). We have received so many sayings in the last few days that we plan to end our first contest on the 15th and immediately begin another. So if your entry isn't printed by that time, it will be entered into the next contest. Winner will get a free 8 X 10 picture of the cute talking child. Canaris Studio will make the picture free of all charge. Joe Canaris has agreed to again offer a picture free for our next contest, too.

And here are Mrs. Walker's two entries: Last summer our little four year old granddaughter, Beth Usery, was visiting us. She and I were "exploring" out around the barn. We passed a little shed where the plows and tractor parts are kept when not in use. Of course these looked rusty and useless to her. She said "Ma-Ma, is that where Pa-Pa keeps his old broken down things?" Not wishing to go into details explaining to her, I answered "yes". She ran up and peeped in at the door and saw a hen sitting on a nest over in one corner, so she said "Yen, there lays an old broken chicken."

Here's the other one—Some weeks ago our son and family came over from Abilene. They brought one of their neighbors along, whose wife was visiting in California. They stayed for the evening meal. Little four year Steven Ray, who is very generous with his compliments and thinks everyone else should be also, was

Ranger Gets New Postmaster As Crawley Retires

In a move that came so swiftly it caught all the principals concerned off their feet, Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield named Mrs. Ella White acting postmaster at Ranger to succeed A. E. Crawley who turned in his application for retirement several months ago.

The notification was officially received Wednesday morning in a letter from Summerfield that was dated July 25.

W. A. Foster of Abilene, postal inspector, came to Ranger Wednesday to swear in the new acting postmaster, who took over her duties officially late Wednesday afternoon.

Crawley, who has been in the postal service for 34 years, and, for 19 years as postmaster here, has been trying to retire for quite some time and has been waiting on a successor. He said he would be leaving the postoffice as soon as he could finish turning over the records to Mrs. White, which will be sometime before the end of the week.

Asked about his future plans Crawley said "I'll tell you all about them just as soon as Uncle Sam turns me completely loose."

However, Crawley indicated that he plans to retire and take it easy for a long time—at least for the present, he said.

When Crawley first went into the postal service 34 years ago, J. F. Dreinhofer was postmaster, and Dreinhofer was the father of Mrs. White to whom Crawley is turning over the postmaster'ship.

Mrs. White, faced with a swarm of details in taking over her new job, had nothing to say for the press Wednesday except to say that she felt highly honored in receiving the appointment and she would put forth every effort to maintain the same fine service in the postoffice as has been maintained in the past.

Reserve Football Tickets On Sale Locally Monday

Reserve football tickets for all of Eastland High School's home games will go on sale Monday at the school business office.

Mrs. Steve Potts, who handles sales, said the tickets would sell for $5. There are five home games this year so that means each game will cost $1.

The tickets will be sold on a first come, first served basis.

Tuesday Hottest Day Yet; 105 Reading Recorded

It was a nice cool 97 degrees in Eastland Wednesday. That might not sound like a cool maximum reading to some, but after high of 105 degrees it was a most welcomed reading.

The 105 degree reading is the highest recorded in Eastland this year. Previous high was registered Monday when the temperature rose to 103 degrees.

What's in store for today? Not much change in temperature readings with slight chances for thundershowers, says the weatherman.

City Manager Quits At Breck Over City Taxes

Glen Doty, city manager at Breck, has resigned his position following a controversy over city tax increases. The resignation, which was to become effective Oct. 1, has been accepted by the City Commission and no successor has been announced.

Doty stated in his resignation that he felt it best for the interests of the community, since a large number of Breck citizens held a protest meeting recently against the city board of equalization.

Doty is the first and only city manager Breckridge ever had, accepting the job there in 1954 when the city's new charter was adopted. He had been city manager at Alice before that time.

are so many good people and helpful institutions, why do we not find more constructive and favorable comments both spoken and written?

One of our local institutions that certainly deserves credit in the highest degree is our own Eastland Memorial Hospital. A few years back our paper contained many articles, some with front page head line spread, bemoaning the fact that Eastland had no hospital. Now that we have one of the best hospitals, if not the best, in this part of the state, no one takes the time and trouble to write a line of appreciation.

If you can not believe that we have a good hospital, ask the person who has been a patient in it. I speak, and write, from the experience of the person who has been a patient in it. I was a patient in it for two weeks recently, and I can verify the fact that our Eastland Memorial Hospital compares most favorably with hospitals in Abilene, Fort Worth, Dallas and Shreveport, Louisiana. I have had occasion to know of the medical attention and nursing care in hospitals found in these other towns.

If you will compare the cost in our hospitals with cost in other hospitals, you will find some people who do not know what the facts are, have been giving out the misinformation that "The Eastland Hospital charges more for everything than other hospitals."

Every attention, every service, every courtesy is extended every patient in the Eastland Memorial Hospital. Even the food served in our hospital is better than the food served in most hospitals. Last, but by no means least, nowhere could one go to find more capable Christian doctors than those who practice in our own hospital.

For once, at least, let's give credit where credit is due, and say, "Hats off," and "Thanks" to the entire staff of the Eastland Memorial Hospital.

Connellee Hotel Draws Fire Trucks In Eastland

All of Eastland's fire fighting equipment and the biggest crowd of people since the recent Eastland Homecoming, gathered at the Connellee Hotel in the county seat about 8:30 Tuesday night when smoke was seen pouring from a third-floor window.

Cause of the smoke was a short in the electric motor of a roomer's ice box, causing the motor wiring to catch fire and spread a lot more smoke than anything else.

Firemen drenched the motor with a small hand operated fire extinguisher and carried the ice box out of the building.

Brownwood Wins Area Tournament

Behind the one hit pitching of James Scott, the Brownwood National League All-Stars downed a game, but outclassed Cisco All-Star team 12-0 here last night to win the Area Little League tournament.

Brownwood will now advance into regional play, meeting Merkel, Area II winner. Merkel defeated Coleman, 8-3, last night in Abilene. Two area champs square off tonight in Abilene.

Scott was outstanding on the mound for the Brownwood team. He was the second A-1 hurler the Nats produced in the tourney, and was nothing but trouble for the losers. In going the route for the easy victory, he struck out eight. The lone hit off the Brownwood ace came in the third frame. Gene Darr beat out a scratch single.

Cisco had advanced to the finals the night before with a 15-1 victory over Ranger and Brownwood American League All-Stars downed Eastland, 12-5, the same night for the consolation trophy.

Loser was Jim Sitton, who pitched fine ball for four innings although encountering court difficulty. Only two hits were made off Sitton, but he gave up six runs. He gave way to Gary Nettik in the fifth frame, and Nettik gave up six more runs off five hits.

Besides hurling beautiful ball, Scott collected the only extra base blow of the night, a double in the fifth inning.

Brownwood is rated as a strong

3-Foot Wildcat Killed Near Here By W. R. Leonard

W. R. Leonard, an employee of Gaston Dixon at Ranger Auto Parts, shot and killed a wildcat that was hiding in a tree in the back yard of his home in the La-casa community north of Ranger, it was learned here today.

Leonard shot the big cat, which was a bobcat, about sundown last Monday evening after his children had spotted the animal hiding in a tree. Leonard said the cat measured three feet in length, was grayish-brown in color, and had feet and claws almost as big as saucers.

Leonard said that he, himself, had no chickens or anything else that would be of interest to a wildcat, and as far as he knew none of his neighbors had had wildcat trouble, and he could not account for the beast being in the vicinity. However, he said, he guessed there was another one around somewhere, and probably a lot of little ones.

Leonard said he failed to notice whether the bobcat was a male or female before he drug it off.

contender in the regional tourney. The Nats have a strong four-man pitching staff, with one hurler rated as good as the next. And they proved in the area tourney that they can hit the ball when necessary.

Eastland Bows Out

Eastland bowed out of the tourney when the Brownwood American League All-Stars downed the locals 12-5.

Brownwood had a big third inning, scoring eight runs, to take the tilt. The visitors scored two runs in the first frame. Eastland's Johnny Yancy scored a single tally in the second to draw the locals close, however.

Eastland starter Bubba Hunter was chased from the mound in the third inning. Hunter ran into four hits and his teammates allowed four errors in the costly inning. Jerome Freeze came in with two away after Hunter tired and retained the inning as he got the first man he faced. Hunter gave up a total of 10 runs and six hits and was charged with the loss. Freeze limited the Brownwood team to two runs off five hits in 2 1-3 innings.

Winning pitcher for Brownwood was Bill Penn, who went all the way. He held Eastland to just four hits, Jimmy Moylan's double being the only extra base blow.

Cisco Beats Ranger

Behind great pitching, Cisco handled Ranger roughly, collecting a trip to the finals on their 15-1 victory. David Callarman struck out 15 men in six innings, getting all but three of the outs credited to himself.

His teammates hammered loser David Lockwood unmercifully, and put him off the mound in the fourth. Replacer Bobby Owens had little luck with the Cisco club himself.

Farm Bureau Queen Contest Date Is Set

Date for the annual Eastland County Farm Bureau Queen Contest has been slated for August 16, Mitchell Campbell, FB president, has revealed. The date was set by directors at their meeting in Eastland last week.

Miss Barbara Joy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Smith of Gorman and a granddaughter of Luther Cunningham, Farm Bureau director of Gorman, is the first entry in the contest. She announced at the meeting that she would be a contestant. Campbell urged other communities in the county to get their candidates selected and their names turned in to Mrs. John Leveridge and Mrs. Clyde Coats of Cisco, who will serve as committee chairmen.

Mrs. Leveridge said that any young lady, at least 16 years old, who is a sister, or a daughter, of a farm bureau member is eligible to enter the contest.

The county winner will be eligible to participate in the District 7 contest in the near future. State winner will be selected from the District winners and she will receive an all-expense paid trip with a matron escort to the National Farm Bureau convention.

Committee members besides the chairmen are Mesdames Carl Strubel, Herman Schaefer, Maud Stubblefield, John Love and Don Kineaid and Ray Norris and Gilbert Copeland.

Beginning at 6:30 firemen from the four cities will compete in water polo contests. Water polo is played by using the force of water from a fire hose to push a ball around. Besides the ball, contestants also get pushed around a bit.

Eastland Fire Chief Billy Jack Johnson said the contests would be staged in the 400 block of North Lamar, at the corner of Lamar and Moss, which is one block west of Firemen's Field by the old Pipkin Grocery warehouse.

Chief Johnson said there are two men on each team. He said the events would be open to the public and invited all to attend.

How to Break Baby Into 'Big' Water Is Told

Part of your pleasure at the beach, lake, or swimming pool is showing Baby how much fun it is to kick and bounce in lots of water.

Chances are he thoroughly enjoys his tub bath, and he may have had fun, too, splashing in a shallow pool. Still, he's likely to be dubious, or even alarmed, the first time he is taken into a large expanse of water.

So, to be sure that he will like the experiences and want to go again, take it easy the first time you carry him out to "dunking" depth, advises an article in the August issue of Better Homes & Gardens magazine. Make it a happy experience for him.

Holding your child securely, move slowly into the water. At first, wet just his feet, letting him get accustomed to the water much as he goes into his bath. When he decides he likes it, ease him gradually, still holding him securely.

Next, hold him chest-down in the water with your hands so he can splash and paddle, the article suggests. If he gets a mouthful of water, lift him to your knee, lean him forward, and pat his back until he stops sputtering.

So Baby won't get chilled don't leave him in the water too long at a time. On shore, apply sun lotion after he has been towed dry. If the air is cool, cover him with a towel or jacket.

Children as young as seven to nine months of age can safely be taken swimming.

Are you married? Any children or grandchildren? Previously married? Widowed? Your age and those of your beneficiaries? Legal residence? Health?

Why these questions?

You'll have to work out your plan in view of the laws governing death taxes, property laws, and if you are married, separate and community property.

Age? If you wish to set up trusts in the will, your age and those of your beneficiaries may help you decide whether, for example, to use capital of the trust fund as well as its income for the beneficiaries.

Your residence? Most important, since state laws govern many items of personal property.

Do you plan to move to another State? If so, consult its laws. Many people who come to Texas from other states should see that their wills conform to and take advantage of our laws.

Some people live half the year in Texas and half elsewhere. If you do, take steps to nail down your claim to reside in one state or another, to avoid needless litigation and possible claims to tax in both states.

Your health? If possible, have your will drafted while you are in good health and clear minded.

Contests, though relatively rare in Texas, still do take place. In some cases, for example where non-relatives inherit, it may be a good idea to give reasons for these bequests in your will and to tell why you may have left some relative out (for instance, where a child has been taken care of by gifts or in other ways.)

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

COUNTRY PLAYERS

LES CARROLL

ALTHOUGH this is the season when fewer new recordings are released, still there are a number of very fine new records from which to choose.

The beautiful "A Fallen Star" is covered by Ferlin Huskey on Capitol and Jimmy Newman on Dot. Both have excellent arrangements and choral backing and it is a toss-up as to which will be the big one. Sonny James' "Dear Love" should be another success in both pop and country fields, and is well backed by a new arrangement of Hank Williams' "Love'sick Blues" (Capitol). And Hank Snow has joined the modern trend with his fine renditions of "My Arms Are a House" and "Tangled Mind" (RCA).

George Jones, who has risen so fast in the past year, will add to his prestige with "Flame in My Heart" and "No, No, Never," which he duets with Virginia Spurlock (Mercury).

The teen-age set will flip over Elvis Presley's "Teddy Bear" and "Loving You" (RCA). Other very fine "rockers" are "Once With You" by Danny Wolfe and "You've Got Me Lying" by Howard Crockett, both on Dot. In the inspirational field the Stanley Bros. do some old-time picking and singing in "The Cry From the Cross" and "Let Me Walk, Lord, By Your Side" (Mercury) and the Statesmen have a nice arrangement of "Stop, Look and Listen for the Lord" (RCA).

Another number with old-time singing and five-string banjo picking is Bill Clifton's "Little Whitewashed Chimney" backed by the appealing "Pal of Yesterday" (Mercury).

Homer and Jethro do a very funny parody of "Gone," and their instrumentation is also "gone." And the Belgian "hill-billy," Bobby John, has a very intriguing number in "Put It Right Back" and some very tricky yodeling in "Yodel-ee-Yodel-ey" (RCA).

Among albums, "Songs" by Marvin Rainwater contains 12 of his most popular hits, including "Gonna Find Me a Bluebird," "So You Think You've Got Troubles," "Mr. Blues" and "Tennessee Houn' Doz Yodel" (MGM).

"Nearer My God to Thee" by the Louvin Bros. contains 12 beautiful sacred numbers, including the title hymn and "Lord, I'm Coming Home," "Praying," and "I Won't Have to Cross Jordan Alone" (Capitol).

OTHER FINE RELEASES are "Pay Day" (Porter Wagoner, RCA); "Sittin' Here Cryin'" (Don Gibson, RCA); "I Cry" (James O'Gwynn, Mercury); "A Teen-age Love Affair" (Wayne Walker, Columbia); "Welcome Home" (Skeets McDonald, Capitol) and "Kiss-a-Me Baby" (Narvel Felts, Mercury).

HARD WORK SUITS HER—Marianne Lukacs, 22-year-old Hungarian refugee, has a busy schedule as the only girl in the undergraduate school at Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Lukacs escaped with her parents to Austria last November, came to Cleveland and entered the school where she's studying mechanical engineering. The work is hard but, as she says, "I do not mind. I am happy free."

TV Sets Favorite Nesting Place For Cockroaches

COLLEGE STATION — Many joys and blessings have come with television—and a few disadvantages. Among the disadvantages, perhaps, could be listed the spread of the brown-banded cockroach. This household pest is particularly fond of TV, according to F. M. Fuller, extension entomologist. He seems to do well in the environment of the cabinet. He can hitch a ride in the TV set, be carried to the repair shop, lay and hatch eggs in other sets and hence be introduced into other homes. He likes radio almost as well.

This little pest resembles the German roach, or croton, but, unlike the German roach, the brown-banded roach does not limit its activities to the kitchen and bathroom. It spreads into dresser and closet corners and furniture as well as the TV and radio. It seems to prefer higher spots such as closet ceilings and upper cabinet corners, says the entomologist. The brown-banded roach is about half an inch long, with mottled, reddish-brown, almost transparent wings. Two brownish-yellow bands across the back give it its name. Missing are the two lengthwise brown stripes that appear just behind the head of the larger and common German roach. Chlordane and deodorized malathion are among the most effective controls of roaches. Malathion is also effective against resistant

German roaches. Thorough application is essential for good control. Spray all cracks and crevices and other places where the roaches may be hiding, but do not spray in the TV set, warns Fuller. But a small amount of powder may be sprinkled around the edge of the case. Fuller suggests that home owners troubled with household insects ask their local extension agent for a copy of L-311, Texas Guide for Controlling Household Insects.

Cooking for Two Has Problems

COLLEGE STATION — Cooking for two presents problems whether you are newly weds or alone after the grown family is gone. The problem of what to serve is complicated by leftovers that accumulate.

Advance planning is just as important when cooking for two as it is for a large family, according to extension foods and nutrition specialists. Plan the week's menus ahead of time, but make them flexible enough for changes. If you decide on the main course the rest of the meal falls easily into place. The Texas Food Standard is the recommended guide for meal planning.

Meat is usually the main item to consider. When possible, choose a neat that does double duty, such as a roast that can be served for Sunday dinner and used later in the week as cold roast beef slices for supper.

Space your menus well, so that you will not be eating the same kind of meat for three days in a row. Keep cooked meat covered tightly or wrap in waxed paper or foil and store in the refrigerator. Do not handle it again until you are ready to use it.

Desserts need not be a problem when preparing meals for two. Fruit and cheese, ice cream and sherbert are favorites and easily adaptable for meals for two. Individual pie shells and the already-cooked pie fillings on the market today may be the answer to dessert problems.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

We moved away when I was little from the town in Arkansas where I was born. After I had grown up, I returned to edit the paper. J. P. Potter, who was in the drug business, had been justice of the peace and had performed the marriage ceremony for my parents. When I moved back to Piggott, he said, "I want you to have Sunday dinner with me" but he didn't name a day. Several weeks later, he said, "Next Sunday will be the fifth Sunday in February and I want you to come to dinner then and you will always remember what day it was that you had dinner at my home." And I do—Feb. 29, 1920. A fifth Sunday in February comes once in about 28 years.

Uncle Jasper declared: "Whenever I read about a preacher leaving the ministry to go into the real estate or some other business, I doubt that he was ever called to preach in the first place but just took it up until something more attractive turned up."

When Sam Houston concluded his speech before Congress when the matter of censuring him for earning a Congressman was pending, he was greeted by the foremost actor of his day, Junius Brutus Booth, with, "I yield my laurels to you."

Samuel Goldwyn, the movie producer, whose quaint expressions are almost as widely quoted as stories about Mae West used to be, is credited with having declared, concerning some proposition, "In two words—'im-possible'."

Back in the mid-twenties, when Eastland County political campaigns were really exciting, Elzo Been was running for district judge. Been had lived in the country all his life. His opponent had come there just a few years before, drawn by the oil boom. Been had gone to school, or taught school, or picked cotton in just about every rural box in the county. One morning, someone asked the other candidate, "How did you come out last night?" He replied, "Not so well—we spoke in another one of Elzo's birthplaces."

It is hardly necessary to add that Been was elected.

Miss Genevieve Boswell, Thomas Moss, Jr., are Married In Austin

The marriage of Miss Genevieve Murrell Boswell to Thomas Whitefield Moss, Jr., was solemnized in a double ring ceremony Saturday evening in Harris Memorial Chapel of the University Methodist Church in Austin.

The nuptial rites were performed by Dr. Edmund Heinsohn. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Grover C. Boswell, 1808 Forest Trail, and the late Dr. Boswell, formerly of Ranger. She holds a bachelor of arts degree from Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth and a master's degree from the University of Texas. In Austin she is a member of Theta Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. She is a teacher at O. Henry Junior High School.

Mr. Moss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitefield Moss of Waco. He holds a bachelor's degree from Baylor University and a master's degree from the University of Texas. He was a member of the Esquire Club at Baylor and was affiliated with Beta Alpha Psi at UT. He is securities examiner for the secretary of state in Austin.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Dr. Joe B. Frantz of Austin, the bride wore a formal gown of magnolia bonbazine and hand-drawn Alencon lace. The bodice featured a sabrina neckline outlined with scallops of lace re-embroidered with iridescent paillettes. The lace medallion motif also accented a panel down the front of the full skirt, which extended into a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of magnolia illusion fell from a tiny crown of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried white starlike roses and stephanotis showered with bouvardia. Her jewelry was an antique gold bracelet that belonged to her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. W. M. Murrell, which is traditionally worn by all of the granddaughters in the family at their wedding.

As her only attendant, the bride's sister, Mrs. Frantz, was gowned in a dress of mauve lace over taffeta accented with pearl embroidered motifs. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Ted Fair of Waco was best man. Ushers were Harry Keetch of Alice and David Doss of Houston. Dr. and Mrs. Frantz were hosts for the wedding reception which was held in their home.

When Mr. and Mrs. Moss return from a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., they will reside at 1808 Forest Trail, Austin.

Among out of town relatives attending were the groom's parents from Waco; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boswell and son, Dan of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murrell of Plano; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Morgan of Cleburne; Mrs. G. C. Murrell of Dallas; and Mrs. J. R. Graham of Seymour.

Prenuptial courtesies extended the bride included a tea given by Mrs. Robert Brooke; a luncheon by Miss Josie Champion; a tea in Ranger by Mesdames A. W. Brazda, W. F. Creager, Hal H. Hunter, B. A. Tunnell and David L. Adams. The rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. L. Carroll Smyers in their home.

Mrs. Jewell Golsen was in the office one day this week to renew her Telegram subscription and was certainly high in praise of Eastland and Cisco volunteer firemen. She credited them with saving her well and pasture. Mrs. Golsen lives 2 1/2 miles west of Eastland on Highway 80 with her mother Mrs. Minnie Crosby. She said that when she came home from lunch last Friday, she works at Irish Drilling Co., she was confronted with a raging fire. But there were "more men than you could imagine" fighting the blaze and they put it out just before it reached her well. "We are so thankful," she said, "for their fine work. They saved our well and pasture I know."

Since 1884Blasting Caps
Cause of Many Accidents

Blasting caps are sometimes lost or stolen and fall into the hands of boys and girls, thus scores of children are annually hurt in such accidents. J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association, warned today. "There is no such thing as 'playing' safely with a blasting cap," he said as he explained the danger.

Blasting caps are short, shiny, pencil-size cylinders, about one and a half inches long.

They are made of aluminum or copper, and often exposure to air and moisture will dull the metal tube. But, the sensitive explosive inside is still dangerous.

A blasting cap may or may not have a fuse attached, or it may have plain or colored covered wires leading from one end.

The metal tube is loaded with a powerful explosive needed to explode dynamite in mining, highway and railroad construction, clearing farm land and other jobs that can't be done without blasting.

"A child picking up a blasting cap is in deadly danger," Musick concluded, urging anyone finding a cap to report it to the police or some other law enforcement officer immediately. They know how to dispose of them safely.

The TSA Manager, who is pressing this safety drive at the request of the Institute of Makers of Explosives, has posters which show what the various kinds of caps look like. He will be glad to make them and other blasting cap safety material available to schools, youth groups and others interested in protecting the lives of children.
