Annual Sweetheart Banquet for Young People Held at Church

The annual Sweetheart Banquet for the young people was held at the First Baptist Church Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The Fellowship Hall was decorated with the valentine motif and the theme of the Banquet was "True Love". The tables were centered with white mail boxes. From the boxes came red ribbon streamers to each place where they were fastened to a red envelope addressed, "To My True Love". The letter enclosed contained the menu and program.

Red table runners and white tapers completed the decorations on the side tables. The head table was centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations at the foot of the mail box.

John Dickey, minister of music and Education, was the master of ceremonies and led the group in the "Musical Thanks" and spoken thanks was given by Mrs. H. W. Sims, Director of the Intermediate Training Union. After the meal the group sang "True Love Tunes" and Rebecca Graham was presented as Queen and P. A. Cox, Jr. was presented as King. Mrs. Harvey Kimbler and Evan Mitchell served as readers for a Fantomine "The Lighthouse Keeper's Daughter" with Julia Inzer acting as the Lighthouse keeper, Rebecca Graham as the daughter and P. A. Cox as the lover. John Dickey sang "The Desert Song" and "Oh, What Love" accompanied by Mrs. Jimmy Young and the Pastor, Rev. Harvey Kimbler, brought a message on "True Love".

Intermediate Training Union Workers and Members served as the decorations committee, Intermediate Sunday School Officers and teachers served the tables, and workers from the Young People's department prepared the food for the banquet.

Informal Dinner Honors Officers Of Eastern Star

An informal dinner hosted by Mrs. Hazel Campbell and Mrs. R. L. Carpenter honored a group of grand officers of the Order of the Eastern Star of Texas.

The dinner honored Mrs. Ruby Enloe, grand worthy matron, Mrs. Amy Gobel, grand examiner, Mrs. Maratha Miessner, grand district deputy, Mrs. Agnes Lee Howard, grand associate conductress and Mrs. Nadine Brewster, deputy grand matron of District 3.

An informal buffet dinner was served from a table laid with a Quaker lace cloth. Centering the table was an arrangement of lovely spring flowers in a green bowl.

AROUND RANGER COLLEGE CAMPUS

By Ranger College Journalism Class

Personality of the Week

By Donna Blackwell
Jonell Penny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Penny, 630 Cypress Street, Ranger, receives the honor of Personality of the Week at Ranger College.

Jonell was an honor graduate of Ranger High School in 1957 and received the D. A. R. award in history her senior year. While in high school Jonell took an active part in the band and made all-district band in 1956.

As a freshman majoring in library science, Jonell is assistant librarian in Cooper Library of Ranger College. Although Jonell has maintained one of the highest averages of students at the college for the fall semester, she does not devote all of her time to studies. She is a member of the college band and college chorus, Debs, and is a member of Phi Theta Kappa. Jonell is snapshot editor of "The Ranger", yearbook of the college. This small and attractive brownette possesses a quiet but admirable personality. She takes an active interest in people and is known for her dependability and friendliness.

Jonell plans to continue work on a library science degree at Texas Women's University at Denton, Texas.

One of the most successful Ranger College parties of the year was the colonial party given by the evening classes Wednesday evening, February 19, in the Student Union Building. Decorations appropriately carried George Washington's birthday as a theme. Along the walls were pictures of colonial scenes and statesmen, red hatchets, and small branches of green leaves to which were attached red candies to simulate cherries. A large silvered bell, a heirloom which has been in the Rudy Wells family many years, was used to symbolize the liberty bell as a centerpiece on the table on which game prizes were displayed; and above the table was a flag and a picture of George Washington. Red and green crepe paper streamers hung from the ceiling.

A musical program was given by members of the Fine Arts Department of the college. The girls' trio, composed of Gail Bagley, Eppidia Gonzales, and Mary Lou Wright, sang "To Be Alone", and "Born To Be With You". They were accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Letspeich at the piano, David Hale on the drums, and Ronnie McPherson on the string bass. Jimmie Mae Miller sang two selections, "A Very Special Love", and "A Kiss in the Shadows" from the "King and I" musical, and David Hale, a new member of the music department, sang "When Your Lover Has Gone" in imitation of Frank Sinatra. He also gave an exhibition on the drums.

The program was concluded by the group's singing "Yankee Doodle", led by Gene Ashcraft, and by repeating the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Bingo and other games provided the entertainment of the evening. Also there was a lively auction of cakes and other prizes donated. The money made on the auction will be used for another party for the evening classes in the spring.

Student council members and class presidents had charge of arrangements for the party. Council members include Richard Fletcher, president, Mrs. Gene Coleman, vicepresident, Betty Fletcher, er, secretary-treasurer, Dorothy Stagner, reporter, and Gene Bagwell, Student Council representative of the freshman class. Presidents are Billy M. Medley, sophomore, and Jerry Sharp, freshman. Betty Fletcher and Dorothy Stagner were responsible for the decorations. Mrs. Jean Coleman acted as auctioneer.

Coffee and cookies were served to sixty students, faculty members, and guests.

Who's Who in Ranger Evening Division
Jerry Sharp, the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sharp of Ranger, is the president of the freshman class of the Ranger Evening Division. At present a first-term sophomore, Sharp plans to major in speech therapy. He attended Ranger High school before enlisting in the Marine Corps, in which he served four years and in which he finished his high school education.

Sharp is married to the former Mary Frances Riebe of Strawn. They have three children, Don, four, Dianne, three, and Debora.

one. They reside in Hodges Oak Park Addition. He is employed by the Gulf Wholesale Agency of Ranger.

He is active in student affairs of the evening division. He has a keen sense of humor and is well-liked by his fellow students.

Jeanette Caton Is Honored with Morning Brunch

Miss Jeanette Caton, bride elect of Don Roff was honored at an informal brunch, by Mrs. Eldress Gattis in her home, 510 S. Dixie Street, Saturday morning, February 22nd.

Throughout the home, the bride's chosen colors of blue and white were noted. Silver goblets containing white carnations and adorned with blue net and ribbon bows bedecked with small measuring spoons and tiny rolling pins, centered the table which seated the guests. Place cards were rolling pins bearing the guests names engraved in blue. White tapers in silver holders and blue placemats speckled with silver completed the arrangement.

During the "Conversation period" guests painted tea towels each a different color which were presented to Miss Caton along with a hand painted "guest towel" bearing those present own signatures. Mrs. Gattis served the group coffee, coffee and cheese dip as they painted.

Brunch consisted of baked ham, green beans, rice, relishes, peach salad, hot rolls, hershey pie and iced tea. Miniature pastel colored umbrellas were favors adorning the dessert plates.

An array of kitchen gadgets were found in the cleverly wrapped packages presented Miss Caton at the conclusion of the brunch including each guest's favorite recipe. Mrs. Gattis presented her a bronze recipe box in which to file them.

Attending the brunch were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Wayne Caton, her grandmother, Mrs. R. I. Malone, the groom's mother, Mrs. Sidney Roff, Mrs. James Ward, Mrs. Bill J. Collings, Mrs. Russell Hill, Misses Emma Lee Miller, Sandra Kirkland, Nancy Weathers, and the hostess Mrs. Gattis.

Smart Girls Wear Gloves for Household Work

BY EDNA MILES

THE work that any homemaker goes through at the start of the holidays must be repeated when the holiday season is over. The special silver must be polished again and put away. The company china and crystal are washed and put back on clean shelves. Candlesticks are cleaned of wax and made ready for use.

The fine household linens get a bath in gentle suds and are rolled and wrapped away in their drawers. By this time the house shines and the homemaker's hands are rough and red.

Best protection against the effects of cleansers, polishes and the heat of dishwasher are household gloves.

The newest come in decorator colors: mint, pink, turquoise or maize. They're made of latex and have a soft cotton lining. They're contoured for sleek fit and cut with wide turnback cuffs to protect sleeves and arms.

In addition to using the gloves, keep a bottle of hand lotion on your kitchen shelf and use it liberally as you finish each task.

Even a gag or two doesn't upset this hard-working housewife. Polishing the silver with protective gloves eases worry about rough, red hands.

Carbon Juniors to Present Play 'Two Dates for Tonight' Friday

"Two Dates for Tonight" is the title of the three act play being presented by the junior class of Carbon High School, Friday night at 8 p.m. in the Carbon High School auditorium.

Admission prices are 25c for students and 50c for adults. A description of the characters and who plays the part are as follows: Sally Mayfield, Kathy Underwood, is a turbulent uninhibited youngster of 12. Movies are her only interest.

Vera Mayfield, Maxine Stacy, is a busy and energetic mother who makes a pleasant comfortable home for her children and husband.

John Mayfield, Pat Guy, is a hard working father. He is loyal and conscientious to both his family and job.

Anne Mayfield, Mary Butler, is a popular, attractive girl of 17. She is determined and undaunted in the face of any difficulty.

Miss Gallop, Sandra Lasater, is a talkative and inquisitive neighbor. Everybody's business is definitely hers.

Diana Wells, Zelma Hendricks, is a vivacious high school student with an over abundance of enthusiasm.

Larry Randolph, Gene Woods, is a high school senior, is friendly and spirited and always ready to give support to a new idea.

Freddie Buchanan, Mickey Roberts, at 14 is worldly-wish, disdain-ful and somewhat conceited.

William Chandler, Eldon Maynard, is a commanding and imposing man.

Stella Chandler, Betty Bond, is a nervous fluttery woman who expects undivided attention from her family and friends.

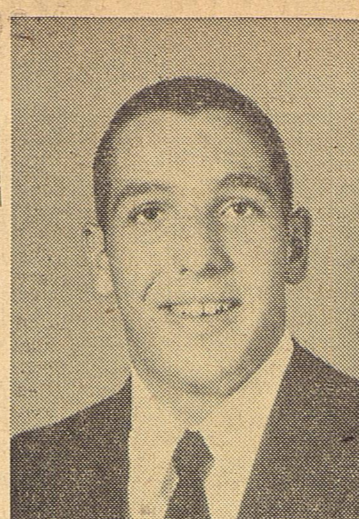

Elvia Chandler, Mittie Rone, is a pretty girl of 25 who is currently suffering from a broken romance.

Mrs. Wesgate Jones, Faye Thompson, is a gushingly dramatic woman. She misses no opportunity to exploit her wealth and social position.

Bradford Carter Jones, Jerry Gower, is a quite, studious youth, whose life is completely dominated by his parents.

Tony Abbott, Don Underwood, is an agreeable and good looking young man.

Carbon juniors are selling tickets now. They invite everyone to come to their play.

CAN YOU NAME HIM—Yes, he's Saul Pullman, as you probably guessed. Note "High School Views" on another page of today's Telegram.

Flatwood HD Club Donates to March Of Dimes Drive

Flatwood Home Demonstration Club donated $17.07 to the March of Dimes at their meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. H. Brown with Mrs. R. D. Guthrie as co-hostess.

After the meeting was opened by a song led by Mrs. Guthrie, each member answered the roll call with a "Bad Habit I Should Break."

Mrs. Blulah Turner, president, gave the March of Dimes container to Mrs. J. A. Bates of Ranger at this meeting.

During the business session,

Mrs. Annie Palmer was voted as an honorary member.

The club adjourned to meet on March 6 in the home of Mrs. Marcus Greiger.

After the meeting was closed, refreshments of Cokes, coffee and cookies were served to Meses. R. A. Cooper, Bessie McCullum, Blulah Turner, Ola Wilson, J. A. Pogue, Clinton McCain, Marcus Greiger, Jack Lusk and a guest Mrs. Dick Yielding, by the hostesses, Mrs. Guthrie and Mrs. Brown.
