GREEK ATTACK GOES FURTHER INTO ALBANIA

By OZRAN POPOVICH
United Press Staff Correspondent
BITOLJ, Yugoslav Frontier Nov. 2.—Greek troops which last night invaded Albania and took the village of Biklikata, threatening to cut off Italian troops in the Braznica area of Greece advanced farther today and reached a point seven miles inside the border, according to reports from the village of Stenja, on Lake Presba.

By FREDERICK KUH
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Nov. 2.—British military informants, confirming reports that British forces had landed on Greek islands, said today that the Greeks had made a three mile advance into Albania on the Florina front and had thrown the Italians back in the Pindus mountains to the south.

Authorities refused to amplify the admission that British forces had arrived on Greek soil to aid in the fight against Italy. It was believed, however, that Crete would be a prime consideration in any British troop movements because of its dominant position south of the Greek mainland at the entrance to the Aegean Sea.

The Greeks made their advance into Albania along the main road from Florina into Albania, it was said here, and were now in the vicinity of the village of Bitolj.

In the Pindus Mountain area, it was said, the Greeks pushed back the Italians in a determined counter-attack. Following orders, Greek outposts had retreated about 10 miles in this area Thursday. They got reinforcements.

Yesterday the strengthened Greeks counter-attacked, it was said, and fought their way to the summit of the mountains which parallel the frontier. It was admitted that they had not reached the frontier.

On the Greek left, toward the coast, the Italians are bringing up artillery and seem to be preparing to make a big attack, possibly with the hope of driving through to the Gulf of Corinth, military quarters said.

The country here is better for motorized equipment than most parts of the front.

The threatened Italian offensive toward Salonica had not developed, it was said. Military men said that the Greeks seemed to be fighting well. The Italians, they said, had not yet reached the strong Greek positions. They commented that reports attributed to Germany and Italy—that Greece sought an armistice were nonsense.

Oil Production of Nation Slumps

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 2.—National crude oil production slumped 178,800 barrels daily to average 3,468,600 for the week ending today, mainly because of an extra-day field shutdown in Texas, according to the Oil Weekly.

Daily average production for the week was 112,000 barrels below the U. S. Bureau of Mines estimate of market demands for October, the trade magazine said.

The week's production trend: Texas, 1,239,200, off 142,900; California, 583,300, off 23,800; Oklahoma, 394,500, up 1,600; Illinois, 342,100, off 8,300; Louisiana, 282,000, unchanged; Kansas, 182,700, off 6,900; New Mexico, 101,500, up 200; Eastern States, 88,500, off 1,700; Mountain States, 98,200, off 900; Michigan, 48,200, up 800; Arkansas, 69,200, off 300; Indiana, 19,200, up 700; Mississippi, 16,700, up 2,500, and Nebraska, 3,300, up 800.

Army Man Killed In Crash Buried

Funeral services for Horace Jenkins, who was killed about 8:00 a. m. Thursday enroute from Fort Ringold, where he was serving in the army, to Eastland, was held Saturday afternoon from the First Baptist Church, Eastland, with the pastor, Rev. Jones W. Weathers, officiating. Interment was in Oakland Cemetery near Gorman.

BRITISH SMASH MORE GERMAN OBJECTIVES AS NAZIS CONTINUE RAIDS

By SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Nov. 2.—British air planes, in a smashing attack on German objectives during the night, bombed Berlin, the great Krupp armaments works, 15 air-dromes at some of which German planes were just taking off to attack Britain, and various industrial objectives, the air ministry asserted today.

Several of Berlin's principal railroad stations and freight yards were attacked, a communique said.

Among other targets, were synthetic oil plants at Maudeburg and Gelsenkirchen, an industrial factory near Gelsenkirchen, the Krupp works at Essen, where a blast furnace was bombed, and the railroad junction at Osnabruck.

Other Royal Air Force planes bombed the 15 air-dromes, all in German-occupied territory. Aircraft of the coastal command bombed German gun emplacements at Cape Griz Nez across the channel.

(It was indicated strongly that British planes had made raids on Italy for the second straight night. There were two air alarms at Berne, Switzerland. Such alarms in the past invariably have meant a British raid on Italy.)

Evidence was accumulating that the British navy, "the silent service," was preparing a big Mediterranean offensive. Newspapers displayed under big headlines reports that British naval officers had arrived at Athens and at unidentified Greek islands to organize Britain's aid to Greece.

Germans Fail In a Coup In Greenland

By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A British Broadcasting Company report that a German attempt to seize a meteorological observation station in Greenland had not been successful was heard today by the Columbia Broadcasting System.

BBC said that a German expedition of 50 men, which had attempted to take the station, was captured by the Norwegian patrol boat Fritjof Nansen.

"It is natural that such a foothold of the Germans in Greenland would have had the strongest repercussions in America as the United States has made it clear that she is interested in this outpost of the western hemisphere," BBC said.

REGISTRANTS COMPLAIN ABOUT LOTTERY; TEXAS QUOTA ESTIMATED AT 33,213 MEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Selective service officials said today that a number of letters and telegrams have been received from draft registrants who believe that capsule-enclosed numbers in Tuesday's lottery were not evenly mixed before the drawing.

One telegram, officials said, called on the draft board to cancel the lottery results and hold a new drawing—"or better still, repea the draft law."

The complaints, it was said, contended that few low numbered serial numbers were drawn during the early hours of the lottery and that high numbers came up consistently.

A study of the board's list of early numbers drawn showed that the first 1,000 capsules contained 132 numbers in the 8,000 bracket. A total of 111 capsules would have given an exact percentage of the 9,000 capsules.

"There probably would be a much greater complaint if only the low numbers were drawn," one official said. "The very highest numbers, which were allotted after registration day, frequently represent late registrants. It would probably produce sharp criticism if those people who registered after Oct. 16 were found only at the bottom of the order list."

Selective Service Director Clarence A. Dykstra announced that advisory boards will begin functioning in each state today to assist first draft registrants in filling out classification questionnaires.

Confederate Still Seeks Yankee Who Hit Him on Head

DALLAS, Tex.—It's only been 76 years, but R. P. Scott, Confederate veteran, still is looking for the "damnyankee who slugged me on the head."

Scott, a resident of Seagoville, 12 miles from here, was one of the old settlers and pioneers of Dallas county who met recently in their 65th annual reunion.

He joined the Confederate army in Arkansas in 1864 and fought in one of the last battles of the war at Mansfield. It was there that he lost an eye and got the knock on the head.

"I'm still looking for the left-handed damnyankee who hit me over the head with a rifle butt after I had fallen to the ground wounded," the 93-year-old veteran said.

This year's reunion, attended by old-timers of the county who remember the days when there used to be a toll bridge over the Trinity River and the curse put on the courthouse clock by a condemned man, was held a month later than usual.

"I figured it was a better time to have it," President Epps G. Knight said, "on account of the young 'uns who used to spoil our reminiscing and square dancing are either picking cotton or going to school."

It was at an early-day lynching that the clock was damaged. "When they hung that feller he said the old courthouse clock never would strike again, and by gosh it never did," mused one of the old timers. "Always did figger he was innocent."

Olden Freshman Class Entertained

Vela Grace Vermillion entertained the freshman class with a Halloween party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Vermillion in Olden, Friday night. Many games and contests were enjoyed until a late hour.

Those present were Nita Holt, J. W. Jones, Dale Foster, Frances Kerley, F. L. Spurlen, Ann Mitchell, Robert Rowch, Jimmie Langston, Ray Pryor, Glen Ferguson, Lawrence Hughes, J. M. Moore, Calvin Donohoe, Billy Joe Fox, Ray Greear, Lily Joe Woghenuth, W. O. Moore, Grace Vermillion; Miss Hamilton, English teacher and freshman sponsor; Mrs. Dave Vermillion, class mother; and Mrs. Vermillion's sister, Mrs. Vela Pierce, from Harrison, Ark.

EL PASO, Texas.—C. B. Lassiter, railroad brakeman, has a battered Roosevelt-for-President button he says he will frame. It may have saved his life.

He was wearing it when a negro transient on a train he was working attacked him and beat him on the head with the butt end of a pistol. The Roosevelt button, which he was wearing on his cap, caught the impact of the blow. Although suffering from head lacerations, Lassiter said that the small piece of metal kept him from suffering a fractured skull.

Body of Doctor To Be Shipped To Big Spring for Burial

Short funeral services will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at Hamner Undertaking Company, Eastland, for Dr. William Leonard Simmons, 71, who died in Eastland Saturday afternoon at 3:30. After the services the body will be shipped to Big Spring, his former home, for burial.

Dr. Simmons, who had lived in Eastland but 18 months, was born in Alabama Nov. 17, 1869, and for a number of years was a resident of Weatherford, where his father, W. L. Simmons, was a physician.

Dr. Simmons was one of the oldest living graduates of Add Ran College, which later became Texas Christian University. He was also a graduate of Tulane and of the University of Maryland.

Survivors include his widow, one son, W. L. Simmons, Jr., of Midland and one grandchild.

Unemployment Has Drop In September

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The American Federation of Labor estimated today that unemployment decreased by 650,000 persons during September largely because of the national defense program, war orders from abroad, and customary fall business improvement.

The reduction, it said, was the largest in any single month since April, 1936, when unemployed rolls were decreased by 663,000 persons. The nation's unemployed totaled 8,544,000 during September, compared with 9,194,000 in August, it said.

The organization said it was "surprising that, with so many favorable factors, progress in industrial re-employment has not been more extensive."

"The increased productivity of workers," it added, "may be responsible for the fact that employment gains have not kept pace with production gains."

Roosevelt Button Saves Man's Life

EL PASO, Texas.—C. B. Lassiter, railroad brakeman, has a battered Roosevelt-for-President button he says he will frame. It may have saved his life.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 2.—State Director of Selective Service, Gen. J. Watt Page, announced today that the estimated net military quota for Texas for the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1941, is approximately 33,213 trainees.

The estimated quota up to and including Feb. 28, 1941, is approximately 16,959.

General Page said that for the present the estimated net quota for each local board will be prorated on a percentage basis according to the number of registrants in each county.

The maximum requirement for men, to include Feb. 28, 1941, have been estimated for Texas by periods. One call not earlier than Nov. 19 will take 1,573 men; one about Dec. 1 to Dec. 10 will take 575. There will be three calls in January. The first of these will be for 2,077, the second for 5,535 and the third for 2,499 men. One call in February will take 4,700.

The periods and quotas have been worked out to conform to the war department program for completion of training camp facilities. The figures on quotas are only estimated. After a national quota basis has been established, adjustments will be made from time to time, depending upon the number of men placed in Class 1-A and the number of men joining the armed forces by entry other than through selective service, General Page said.

He announced that state selective service headquarters here will issue calls on local boards for the actual number of selectees required not later than 10 days before the day on which the first men to fill the call are to be inducted.

George Davison Funeral To Be Held At Eastland Today

Funeral services for George Davison, 56, who died Friday night, will be conducted from the Eastland Methodist Church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. Phillip W. Walker, pastor, and Rev. J. B. Blunk, pastor of the First Christian Church of Eastland, officiating. Interment will be in the Eastland cemetery with the Hamner Undertaking Company in charge.

Mr. Davison, a road contractor and oil operator, had resided in Eastland for 20 years. For the past several days he had been in Oklahoma City. Failing to hear from him for several days his son, George, drove to Oklahoma City and found him ill at his hotel. Mr. Davison insisted upon coming home. A comfortable seat was arranged in the rear of the car and he was riding there while George, Jr., was driving. Apparently Mr. Davison died about 9:00 p. m., the time they reached Eastland.

George Allen Davison was born at Galveston on April 14, 1884. He came to Eastland in 1920.

Survivors include his wife, his father, William S. Davison, Eastland; one son, George A., Jr., of Abilene; one daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Addie Parker, Houston; one sister, Mrs. Wade White, Silver City, New Mexico; three brothers, Ben of Carrizo Springs, Richard of Boston, Mass., and J. C. of Atlanta, Georgia.

The body will be at the family residence, 705 South Seaman Street, Eastland, until 2:30 this afternoon.

City May Supply Milk for Soldiers

FORT WORTH, Texas.—Milk producers in this area are investigating the possibility that they can supply milk to the 30,000 soldiers who will train at Camp Brownwood.

L. A. Boswell, prominent dairyman, said that producers in the Brownwood area are trying to get that business but he expressed doubts that the supply will be sufficient unless supplemented by canned milk.

Tarrant county reputedly has the largest milk output of any county in Texas, and the local market has been depressed in recent years by over-supply. Ross Armstrong, market analyst here, said that the needs of Camp Brownwood can be supplied from the Fort Worth milkshed without affecting the local market.

WAR'S SPREAD SEEN AS PRELUDE TO A DRIVE IN MEDITERRANEAN

14 CIO Members Awaiting Trial On Invalid Ordinance

DEARBORN, Mich., Nov. 2.—Fourteen of the 25 members of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) arrested for distributing handbills at the Ford River Rouge plant today awaited trial on charges of violating a city ordinance which has been declared unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, a hearing on a petition by the city for an injunction to restrain the UAW-CIO from handbill distribution at the Ford plant was set for Nov. 8 in Wayne circuit court.

The group of handbill distributors was arraigned before two justices, who made differing decisions. Those appearing before Justice Lila Neuenfelt, whose opinion in a test case held the handbill ordinance unconstitutional, were released but the remaining 14, brought before Justice Leo R. Schaefer, were ordered to post $25 bonds and stand trial.

Dearborn police officials said they would continue to enforce the city's regulation prohibiting distribution of literature in congested areas.

Benito Mussolini and Adolf Hitler met at Florence, Italy, to talk things over and map the next steps in the campaign. The R. A. F. bombed the former Czechoslovak Skoda munitions works in Pilsen, London announced that the great lines Empress of Britain had been sunk by the Germans.

On Tuesday, the United States held its "draft lottery," making 17,000,000 men potentially liable for service. The Italians claimed to have made a 40-mile advance into Greece, but the Greeks insisted that their lines were holding. While the British bombed German naval bases, air-dromes, invasion points and railroad centers, the Germans made heavy mass aerial attack on England. Italian planes were said to have taken part in the raids. The British claimed to have shot down 22 enemy planes. London announced the loss of nearly 200,000 tons of shipping in the week ended Oct. 21, the heaviest loss either in this or the World War.

Wednesday, President Roosevelt suggested that the United States is prepared to furnish Britain 12,000 fighting planes. The British began mining the sea channels around Greece, and landed troops on the islands. The Italians bombed the Athens air-drome. There was talk in Rome of a move to replace King George II by Crown Prince Paul, friendly to the axis, but there was nothing from Athens to indicate that it was anything more than talk.

On Thursday, the Italians claimed to be closing in on Janina, their first chief objective in Northern Greece. The Greeks, however, said the enemy was making no progress. British and Greek planes bombed Tirana, capital of Albania. The R.A.F. continued its raids of German territory and the Germans theirs on England. The famous Wimbledon tennis courts were hit.

On Friday the Italians made their first heavy air raids on Greece, bombing Salonica, Piraeus (port of Athens) and the islands of Corfu and Crete. The Greeks claimed to have pushed the Italian land forces back north of Janina. British planes ranged as far south as Naples in a bombing raid on Italy.

President Inonu of Turkey proclaimed his country non-belligerent, although he referred to Britain as an ally. Yugoslavia also announced its neutrality. Increased Italian air and land activity was reported from North Africa. Britain was subjected to one of the heaviest day and night bombings of the week.

The war spread into the Balkans this week with the Italian invasion of Greece.

Greece resisted, however, and Great Britain went to her aid. The Italian drive did not proceed with the expected blitzkrieg speed typical of the axis. Turkey, Russia, Yugoslavia and Spain remained aloof, so that for the time being the new phase of the war was confined to Northern Greece and the Aegean Sea, with some Italian activity in Northern Africa.

The Germans continued their systematic bombing of Britain but at no greater rate than previously, while the Royal Air Force struck telling blows at objectives in Germany and German-occupied countries.

On Sunday, Italian forces marched into Greece from Albania on the expiration of a three-hour ultimatum. Rome and Berlin claimed that Italy was "protecting Greece from the English."

British airplanes bombed Berlin heavily. In return, the Germans raided London, Liverpool and industrial cities of the midlands.

On Monday the Greeks showed their mettle in stout resistance against the Italian invasion. They were heartened by the support of the British fleet and British promises of fullest aid. King George and Prime Minister Winston Churchill sent messages to the Greek king and premier, pledging Great Britain's support against a "common foe."

Naturally no body wants to hurt any one, physically, financially or otherwise . . . and above all that applies to boys and girls who like to get an angle of explosions off their chest whether for football games or the annual hallowe'en.

That reminds me . . .

But it just happens that this hallowe'en there was something done that did hurt someone . . . and it happened to be an innocent negro who has only one way to make a living. That is to haul things, whether its trash, dirt or anything else that come his way. He isn't on relief . . . he works for a living.

George Eason, has lost two wheels to a wagon. This wagon of his was taken from his home, dismantled by somebody, strewn in front of the courthouse, and George wakes up the next morning without wagon or anything else to keep up the trend of putting beans into the stomachs of those whom he loves . . . and had to turn down jobs that he could have done if he had had his wagon to do it with.

Now then, here's the story . . . George, without grumbling, or losing sight of the occasion that deprived him of his living has found everything about his wagon except two wheels. He is still hunting for them.

Now get this, boys, girls, men or women. Who ever took that wagon from George's property knows who it is. They know where they put those wheels. You're just hawyrif you don't come forward and get those wheels right now . . . if you can't find them yourselves . . . you're just hay wire if you don't get him some wheels to put on his wagon . . . and if you don't do that you should hustle up the money to get him a new wagon.

No children or grownups, George doesn't want to prosecute anybody. He just wants his wagon, he just wants his means of making a living . . . Now what are you going to do about it . . . If you come across and do the right thing . . . you're the tops . . . if you don't . . . you're just yellow and cheap and it will come back on you just as sure as the stars shine on a clear night.

In conclusion, if anybody knows anything about this thing either contact the Eastland Telegram or George himself. The rest will be easy. Thanks, and como siempre.

Skinning the Wolf for Soup

A little story was often told a few years back when America was trying in bewilderment to understand the tough times that had fallen so unaccountably upon her.

It was about a man who found the wolf at the door. But instead of giving up, he coaxed the wolf closer, whanged him over the head, skinned him, and made soup of him. The point, of course, being that there are some people who have the knack of the courage to gain advantage even from what seem desperate misfortunes.

Selective service is going to work out a little like that. Americans generally don't hanker after military service. They are as good soldiers as the best when they have to be. But everything else equal, they don't itch for it.

Very well. Times are what they are. The American people, through long and careful debate by their elected government, have decided on widespread military training as a necessity. Millions of our youth now await the call. Thousands have already volunteered.

Out of the millions who now face military training for a year or more, very many indeed will convert this interruption of their lives into a real opportunity. It is not pleasant to have plans interrupted by this kind of a necessity. But there is little grumbling, and the prevailing tone of youth is, "This seems necessary. I will do it."

In short, the fact is here and accepted, that young men will have to learn to fight, and give a period of life to their country. All right. Shall it be merely a regretted break in normal life? Or shall the selected man beckon this wolf closer and skin him for all the soup that's in his bones?

Clarence A. Dystra, director of the selective service plan, is a man with wide experience in public administration and education. He sees the plan not as merely a sacrifice, but as "opening up great opportunities for national unity and for individual growth as well." The period of service may expand horizons, make the trainees better fitted for national life, better citizens. He hopes so to administer the act as to minister "not only to the national power for defense, but also to the education and health of our young people as citizens, and participants in the great adventure of democracy which lies ahead of us."

One school of thought still maintains that the Nazis and Italians instead of spoiling for a scrap, will soon scrap for the spoils.

R. A. F. and Nazi pilots engage in hot dog fight, says headline. Over the mustard, maybe.

French government bans football, leaving it a country with absolutely nothing to cheer about.

The Greeks Had a Word for It

Fireworks Still Due In Southwest Football Games

FORT WORTH, Nov. 2.—Thirty-one of 48 football games in the 1940 Southwestern Conference schedule have been played, but a lot of fireworks in the strictly family struggle are yet to come. Twelve of the 21 conference games are yet to be played. Three of the 12 are scheduled for next Saturday, when S. M. U. meets Texas A. & M. in Dallas, Arkansas plays Rice in Fayetteville, and Baylor and Texas mix it up in Austin.

Methodists would be the best bet to stop the rampaging Aggies. Whatever this hunch may be worth it is certain that the Southwest headliner will be played in Dallas next Saturday when these two eleven meet. Coach Matty Bell's boys came close to taking the Farmers in College Station last year, so you can bet that Coach Homer Norton will have his charges primed. Here's where the eyes of Texas will really be pointing.

Arkansas and Rice have both upset the preseason prognosticators by winning from some good strong teams. Saturday they will be out to upset each other. From the bayous to the Ozarks is quite a jump, and there are those who give the Razorbacks the nod because of this. The record, however, would indicate that the Owls have the power to dispose of the Mountains. In Austin the Longhorns will be out to avenge a 20-to-0 drubbing at the hands of the Baylor Bears in Waco last year. The contest could shed a little light on the chances of the Steers against the Aggies (Baylor having lost to A. & M. 7 to 14).

The games in Austin and Dallas will be the only ones on Texas soil. While the six other members are engaged in family brawls, T. C. U. will move up to Detroit for the Frogs' final inter-sectional appearance.

It looks as if Coach Dutch Meyer had caught another hot one in Coach Dutch Dorais' Titans at the University of Detroit. Word comes that the 1940 Titan club is the best in years, and the Frogs—well, they're definitely not that!

"Reader Appeal" In New Campaign For Chesterfield

"Give the readers what they like," appears to be the basis of Chesterfield Cigarettes' newest advertising series appearing in newspapers throughout America beginning this week. Famous personalities and colorful events carry out the plan in each of the new advertisements which features the theme, "Chesterfield gives smokers what they like."

Leading the parade is an advertisement based on a one-in-a-million family—featuring famed sports writer Grantland Rice and his daughter Florence, rising star of stage and screen, Bette Davis makes another glamorous "Chesterfield appearance," and Ellen Drew of the screen, chosen "Miss Veteran of Foreign Wars" for 1940, is charming in her military costume. Another advertisement stars the United States Marines—"at ease."

The Christmas advertisement introduces the new Chesterfield holiday package—one of the most brilliant of a long line of beautiful Christmas cartons designed for the famous cigarette. The "Chesterfield Christmas Girl" wears a special ski outfit designed by Merry Hull.

The new Professor Quiz radio program, sponsored by another famous Liggett & Myers product, Velvet Pipe and Cigarette Tobacco, is now being broadcast on Columbia Broadcasting System stations every Tuesday evening at 9:30 p. m., EST. This was the original question-and-answer program, and for four years has held its place among radio's most popular offerings. Contestants appear from all parts of the United States, and additional prizes are awarded each week for the best lists of questions received.

Fred Waring's "Pleasure Time" broadcast five nights weekly on National Broadcasting Company stations, and Glenn Miller's "Moonlight Serenade," on the Columbia network continue their Chesterfield successes.

The Chesterfield newspaper campaign is also supported by magazines, billboards and colorful cutouts for display by the dealers.

Did you buy YOUR car on "Millinery"?

YOU hear it said often nowadays that it's millinery that sells automobiles.

All right—let's put it up to one who knows. Did you buy your car on nick-nacks, trick devices, novelties?

We don't think so. We believe that while considering style, and room, and comfort—you really picked your car on what it would do on the road!

Now, we take our hats off to no car for being smarter-looking than Buick. We'll match our product against any for room, for appointments, for fine finish, for comfort.

But beyond all that, we challenge the whole field to equal

Buick on its downright all-round performance ability.

On its power—on its pull—on its pick-up—on its easy handling (including freedom from shifting)—yes, and on its thrift.

Nowhere will you find a car that does so much so well and so frugally.

You'll find novelties in the new Buicks of course, but they're not the chief attraction. Instead you'll see the two big basic engineering developments of the year—FIREBALL design and Compound Carburetion.

Mrs. Hollis Bennett To Give Book Review

The Music Study Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Clubhouse with Mrs. Frank Crowell as leader. The meeting will begin at 3 o'clock.

A book review on "Why Europe Fights" by Walter Millis, will be given by Mrs. Hollis Bennett.

Henry Pullman will be guest speaker and will speak on Salute to the Flag.

Choral Club Has Party

Jack o' lanterns, orange and black balloons made a festive setting for the Halloween party held recently for the Junior High Choral Club in the home of Mrs. A. F. Taylor, Club counselor.

Orange tapers burned in black holders on the dining room table, which was centered with an arrangement of cut garden flowers. Further completing the scene were the bright costumes worn by the guests.

The Crazy House, a Halloween tradition, was directed by Mrs. Grady Morten with fortunes told by Mrs. Jack Collins dressed as a witch. Miss Lois Nelson told ghost stories which prefaced the outdoor games played later, which were directed by Bertha Ann Young and Maxine Smith.

Refreshments of pop corn balls, apples, chocolate cookies and wiches brew was served. Little orange candy owls were given as favors.

Cools Off Hot Texas Aggies

George (Monoplane Blackburn, Texas A. & M. water boy, appears to be only one capable of cooling off Aggies, who haven't lost since late in 1938 season. Blackburn does it with water-filled spray gun, tank for which is strapped to back.

Riding Academy Is Opened By College

ABILENE, Tex.—Hardin-Simmons University's athletic teams are known as the Cowboys and the Hardin-Simmons "Cowboy Band" is known even in Europe so it was in keeping that the school should open a university riding academy.

Dr. W. R. White, new president of the university, said the riding school, an innovation in the southwest, was "characteristic of our cowboy theme on the campus."

The stables, 36 by 78 feet, with stalls, feed rooms, saddle rooms and offices, are located on the corner of the 40-acre campus. Surrounding them are corrals and riding rings in a mesquite grove.

Bob Rogers, Berkeley, Calif., cowboy and art student, is the instructor. He also is a featured trick roper with the school's cowboy band. Rogers is instructing a rapidly growing class in trick riding, trail riding, arena technique and the English and Western riding methods. Students ride both for pleasure and for college credits. Given in the newly-opened physical education courses.

All This Week and Next—

... and for many years to come we expect to continue our efforts selling Eastland homes at bargain prices and on easy terms to those who are tired renting and who appreciate a home of their own. Each month we are placing people in desirable homes of their own which means little to those who are still paying rent but a lot to those who made the purchases. There is nothing to be gained by waiting. Those who continue waiting until everything is just right to buy usually wind up at the end of the year still waiting and still renting.

We have cheap homes, middle-priced homes and homes that cost thousands of dollars at the time of building. Any and all of these homes can be bought, in most cases, for less than half the original cost. We finance our own sales and easy monthly payments can be arranged to suit the purchaser.

Here's Girl Who Jinxed the Debs

This is Jinx Falkenberg, model and magazine cover girl. What did she do? Well, she not only appeared mysteriously as a guest at the East's most difficult-to-crash debutante party, the Tuxedo Park, N. Y., Autumn Ball, but she is reliably reported to have been the belle of the ball. Socialites' tongues are still wagging.

EAST PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite have as their guests this weekend, Dr. and Mrs. Hob Gray and children of Austin, Mrs. Noble Gray of Wichita Falls, and their son, Colline Gray Satterwhite of Wichita Falls.

COMING HOME

Omar Mickle of Eastland is in receipt of a letter from his brother, Joe, who is connected with the Kwansai Gakuin University, a Methodist school at Kobe, Japan, in which he states that his wife and two daughters, Maida, 17, and Margaret, 14, left Japan Oct. 27, for San Francisco and from there would go to Los Angeles and from there to Amarillo, Texas.

Mr. Mickle stated that other Americans connected with the school were also leaving, that is they were sending their families home. Mr. Mickle and other men connected with the school, plan to remain in Japan at least until spring.
