

Geophysical Crews Busy In This Area

Several geophysical crews have descended upon Big Spring and fanned out over the area to gather data as a result of current oil activity in Howard county.

During the past week five organizations were represented in work underway here, and it was understood that possibly some others were operating in the vicinity from time to time.

Geophysical companies who were maintaining crews here at the end of the week include the National, Andrews, Western, Apache and Magnolia organizations. Their field operations included virtually all sections of the county.

No Loss In Fires

City firemen were called out on two alarms Saturday afternoon, but no property damage was recorded.

At 1:45 p. m. an engine was dispatched to the Lawson Hat Shop, 905 Runnels, where a short circuit had developed in electrical wiring, and at 3:45 p. m. mechanical trouble in an air conditioner caused an alarm at Burr's Department store.

Next Saturday Is Deadline For Filing Of Candidacies

Saturday will bring a deadline for filing for county or precinct office in the democratic primaries. A total of 33 candidates are lined up for 14 offices so far, and competition has been relegated to eight of these.

Number of candidates has been constant for several weeks. Death and withdrawal have removed three from the ranks of candidates, but in each instance others have filed.

John Wolcott, seeking re-election as tax collector-assessor, and Frank Hodnett, offering again for office of commissioner from precinct No. 1, a post he once held three terms, both succumbed. Mrs. Ida Collins, county treasurer announced she was withdrawing from that race.

A total of 43 names are now in sight for the July ballot in offices from congressman on down. Deadlines for state and district filings has passed.

SANITARY PRECAUTIONS

Authorities Plead For Fly Control

Public cooperation in efforts to control heavy infestations of house flies has been requested by local health authorities.

Recent rains provided perfect breeding conditions, and concentrated support of the general public will be required to insure early control, said C. W. Mason, city sanitarian.

The DDT fogging machine has been in almost continuous operation for the past few days, but Mason warned that residents must give personal attention to the problem if desired results are obtained.

Most residents are familiar with precautions that should be taken around the home, the sanitarian pointed out, but at the same time he emphasized several preventive measures recommended for both residences and food establishments. They are as follows:

1. Do not keep garbage cans near rear entrances.
2. Spray around entrances and on screens with at least 10 per cent DDT solution.
3. Spray garbage cans at least once a week and keep them covered.
4. Do not store empty drink bottles near entrances.
5. For home with pit type toilets, be sure structures are fly-proof and use DDT spray inside and outside. Pour cup of kerosene into pit once a week for mosquito control.
6. Keep door and window screens in good repair.
7. Do not expose food to flies.
8. Kill immediately all flies that do enter the home or business.
9. Where livestock are kept, keep pens clean and remove manure twice a week.
10. Practice good sanitation, because flies breed in filth.

Rodeo Boosters Welcomes Miss Connections

Seminole rodeo boosters may have boosted but they missed their scheduled welcome here Friday.

Due to arrive here sometime after 4:30 p. m., the party advertising the rodeo Saturday and today, rolled into town half an hour ahead of schedule. Without escort, they put in two blocks west of the center of the business district.

Half an hour later Elmo Wasson, chamber of commerce president, and other committee members, and Police Chief Pete Green began looking for the visitors to extend an official welcome. They had, however, continued westward ahead of schedule.

Scurry Wildcat On Drillstem Test

Sun Oil company No. 1 Emil Schattell, Southwest Scurry county wildcat, seven miles southwest of Snyder, and 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 186, block 97, H&TC survey, and contracted to go to 8,500 feet to explore into the Ellenburger, ran a drillstem test at 5,804-5,904 feet.

The tool was open for two and one half hours. There was a good blow of air for most of the period. Recovery was 175 feet of salty water and five feet of slightly oil and gas drilling mud. The venture is now drilling ahead under 5,960 feet in shale.

Texas Democrats Differ Even On Trains To Convention

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN, June 12. (AP) — Texas Democrats can't seem to get together — even on which train they will ride to the national convention at Philadelphia. Maybe they'd better hitch hike.

The Republicans are in about the same shape, with their national convention less than 10 days away. These major facts emerged today from the confusion in both delegations on whether there is or isn't an "official" train to carry the politicians to their respective conventions:

1. Democratic National Committeeman Myron G. Blalock of Marshall said there is no "official" Democratic special to Philadelphia because only the delegation itself could designate such train, and it has not.
2. State Executive Committee Chairman Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro said a Missouri-Kansas-Texas train leaving Dallas and Fort Worth June 8 is the official convention special by designation of the committee at its January meeting.
3. Blalock and some other members of the delegation will ride the Missouri Pacific to Philadelphia. Gov. Beauford H. Jester and some of his close friends will travel together in a special bedroom car attached to the Katy Democratic choo-choo.
4. There is no "official" Republican train. One group of delegates will travel by Katy, another by Missouri Pacific, but R. B. Creager, of Brownsville, Republican national committeeman, said personally he would fly.

Calvert and Blalock agreed on this: Any delegate or alternate can take any route he chooses to the Democratic convention.

"They can go on horseback if they want to," Calvert cracked. Blalock said this would be a fine opportunity for the good time boys and girls to stay at home. He was referring to folks who have no official business.

"They will find there's a lot of work and not much fun up there," he warned. "The accommodation situation in Philadelphia, from the pleasure standpoint, is tough."

Some of Blalock's friends were saying privately they felt the executive committee encroached on his prerogatives as national committeeman, when it assumed responsibility for making national convention arrangements. They said he was still national committeeman, and that it has always been the duty of the national committeeman to make such plans.

Henry Bugg Candidate For County Post

A Henry Bugg announced Saturday that he would be a candidate for the democratic nomination as county commissioner from precinct No. 1.

Born and reared in Howard county, Bugg has lived all his life in the precinct in which he seeks to serve with the exception of five years in the U. S. Marine Corps from 1941 through 1945. Bugg rose through the ranks to become a lieutenant. He is married and a home owner.

He has been engaged in farming, livestock, and wholesale meat businesses. His operations have taken him over the length and breadth of the precinct.

In announcing Bugg said that he felt that his background gave him a good understanding of the problems of the precinct as well as of the county as a whole, and that this, plus his business experience, qualified him to serve in the office.

"I realize that time is short," he said, "but I am going to make a great effort to see as many voters as possible to ask their consideration. I hope that any I might accidentally miss will consider my announcement a personal appeal for their vote and influence."

State's Dirt Farming Wealth Dwarfs Ranch And Oil Income

By ROBERT E. FORD
DALLAS, June 12. (AP) — Non-Texas whose conception of the state's agriculture stops with a mental picture of great plains covered with cattle would do well to take another look.

Modern farming and diversified crops are rolling in the money to the plain dirt farmer. Virgin land still is going under the plow.

Ranchers are still doing well, but Department of Agriculture figures put in focus the relation of agriculture and ranching in the state's wealth.

On Jan. 1 this year, the total value of cattle, exclusive of milk cows, on Texas ranches was $606,381,000.

Last year however, the value of agricultural products, including vegetables, nuts and fruits, was more than double that figure, or $1,446,219,000.

Contrast that with royalties and lease payments to landowners in 1947. These amounted to only $200,000,000 the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association reports.

Last year was unusually lucrative for Texas farmers, with cotton and wheat leading the way. Prices of some minor crops were a little lower.

But there are years when a Texas farmer can't make a dime.

Like this year. Dry weather and late freeze forced farmers to plow up their oats in some instances because they were so poor. Grasshoppers are infesting some cotton sections. Other years, grain and cotton crops aren't worth harvesting. Price drops can turn a well-to-do farmer into a debtor overnight. During some war years, cotton rotted in the field for lack of pickers. The wheat crop this year is expected to be only about one-third last year's record-breaker because of drought.

Still, a lot of money will be made in Texas agriculture this year, although the picture is spotty.

Contributing to Texas' fabulous farm wealth are:

1. Great north-south distance—801 miles—and the consequent varieties of climates, which means that every month of the year a

Firestone Joins Companies Granting New Wage Boosts

Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. and the CIO United Rubber Workers signed a company-wide contract today providing for 11-cent-an-hour wage increases for 23,000 employees.

The contract was Firestone's first company-wide pact with the URW which has such agreements with Goodyear, U.S. Rubber and Goodrich, the other members of the rubber industry's Big Four. The settlement was the first in the Big Four of union demands for the 1948 wage increases. The union originally asked 30 cents an hour more.

On another labor front, leaders of the CIO United Electrical Workers have accepted an eight per cent wage increase for 125,000 employees of the General Electric Co. The settlement yesterday brought to an end 17 weeks of negotiations between the union and the nation's largest manufacturer of electrical products.

The wage boost, which the company says will add nine to more than 15 cents hourly to the workers' current average pay of $53.90 weekly, becomes effective immediately.

Almost simultaneously with approval of the GE wage offer, the union announced in Pittsburgh that it has turned down a six percent wage hike proposed by the Westinghouse Electric Corp. for 75,000 employees.

Edward J. Matthews, international union representative, said the Westinghouse offer would give workers "an increase in take-home pay far below increases" granted by other electrical manufacturers.

Salvation Army Making Special Fund Appeal

To meet operating cost for a 15 weeks period, the Salvation Army is making special appeals for support this week.

Letters will go out to 1,500 persons who did not have a part in the Community Chest, said G. H. Hayward, chairman of the Salvation Army advisory board.

Because the Salvation Army is a participant in the Chest campaign, an effort will be made not to duplicate in the special appeals, said Hayward. The Chest fell short of its objective by $7,500, which has occasioned a shortage in operating budgets of the various agencies.

Hayward said that a meeting of the board resulted in a decision to use to supplement funds by $3,000, which would carry the SA program on through the 15-weeks period and possibly until time that the new Chest campaign would come into being.

Needs have been increased, he said. This year the SA has had 3,554 people appeal for help of one kind or another. An effort has been made to expand the spiritual services. At the same time, the SA has, until a few weeks ago, carried on an extensive program at its youth center. This had to be curtailed sharply because of lack of finances.

The special letters of appeal will go into the mails Tuesday, said the chairman. He expressed hope of the community welfare agencies would step into the breach for the Salvation Army at this time.

Conference To Be Held Here Tuesday

Co-ordinators for vocational schools in more than a dozen counties of this area will be here Tuesday for a one-day conference.

Zane Brewer, Lubbock, area supervisor, will be in charge of the parley, which will be held at the Howard County Junior College. Representatives are expected here from the schools of Terry, Lynn, Garza, Dawson, Scurry, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke and Tom Green counties.

20-30 PRESIDENT—Bill Beauchamp, above, has been elected president of the 20-30 club, a civic organization for young people. He will be installed Wednesday together with those new officers: Neil Spencer, vice-president; Bob Hatcher, Cecil Ivy, Russel Shannon, Bill Merrick, directors.

Probably the first grape slips brought to California from the old world were of the Malaga strain, but they soon were known as Mission grapes.

IT'S THE SEDUCTIVE SWISH, GALS, THAT BRING FORTH WOLF CALLS

HOLLYWOOD, June 12. (AP)—Wear a dress that's wired for sound, gals, then wait for the wolf calls.

That's the advice of Ilyana, the designer. She says it's not tiny waistslines, or exaggerated hips that make male eyes pop, but the seductive sounds of swish, rustle or crackle in the material.

"The melodic whisperings of yards of taffeta over the female form are more effective than gallons of subtle perfume," is the way she put it.

"Men like women who wear materials that make tantalizing sounds. Taffeta, faille and underpetticoats of double buckram are as effective for snarling a male as a steel trap."

Even bathing suits and simple housefrocks will rustle by next year, she predicts, while the males rustle for the cash to pay for them.

Ilyana, who designs for the movies, and personally for such charmers as Lauren Bacall and Evelyn Keyes, has two theories for male liking for ear-appeal as well as eye.

One is that the swish of a dress proclaims femininity as unmistakably as leather heels on a sidewalk announce a masterful male. The other is sort of psychological. She says it's the same thing that made Gypsy Rose Lee so successful fumbling under yards of noisy gown for the pins that hold her costume together.

American Planes Being Withdrawn

THE TEXAS POLL

Military Training Heavily Favored

by JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, June 12—Not only do a large majority of Texans favor a year's military or naval training for non-veterans, but most of them also think a training camp nearby is a good thing for the community.

However, when one actually gets down to it, only about half the local residents personally like having such a camp close at hand.

These facts about public opinion in Texas become both interesting and important when one considers that Texas, with such old-line establishments as Fort Sam Houston, Randolph Field, and Kelly Field, plus newer posts and air bases, has become one of the largest military training areas in the world. The Corpus Christi naval base, also largest of its kind, adds further distinction to Texas as a training center.

While Washington grants appropriations for building the country's Armed Services and considers the draft (two years' training for men between 19 and 26 years old), Texas, land of sunny climate and ideal training conditions, wonders if it will be playing host to even more of the boys in khaki.

Interviewers for The Texas Poll recently found that opinion on these topics vary only slightly between men and women, veterans and non-veterans, and families of veterans.

The questions:

"Do you think Congress should or should not pass a law to require every able-bodied young man, who

Argentina Expands Facilities To Go After Larger Markets

HAVANA, Cuba, June 12 (AP)—Argentina is planning a vast network of warehouses, cold storage plants, and processing factories to create new and bigger markets for Argentine goods in the United States, Europe and Latin America.

Diego Luis Molinari, Argentine senator and economist and one of President Juan Peron's special ambassadors on the project, discussed the program on a recent visit to Havana.

Trade facilities are being planned now for Cadiz, Spain, to serve Europe; at New Orleans, on the U. S. gulf coast, for the rich United States market; at Matanzas, Cuba, for Cuba and the Caribbean; and in the Republic of Panama.

The program is one of the most ambitious of its kind ever undertaken by any government.

The idea is to build facilities for the future marketing of Argentina's increasing production. Already Argentina is one of the world's greatest food producers. Today it has a market for all the tremendous quantities of meat, grain, vegetable oils, lard and other products it can produce. But it is looking toward the future, when markets may be more difficult, and Argentina's production much greater.

The Matanzas, Cuba, plan gives a pretty good idea of what is in prospect.

Dr. Jorge Leonardi is at work on it in Havana under Molinari's direction.

Matanzas is on the north coast of Cuba. It has a fine harbor, and is what the economists call a free port. This means that other nations may send their goods to Matanzas in transit, or for processing, without paying customs duties. It is only when the goods from the free port are put on the Cuban market that duties must be paid.

One of the main benefits of a free port is that it enables a foreign nation to store vast amounts of its products in the port for indefinite periods, without having to pay out large sums in customs duties.

Hopper Poison Is Distributed

First unified efforts to control an infestation of grasshoppers in the northeastern part of the county, were launched Friday when approximately four tons of poison bait was mixed and distributed, County Agent Durward Lewter reported.

No other serious infestations have been reported to date, Lewter said.

All of the poison bait mixed Friday went to the Viscent area, where large numbers of young grasshoppers were discovered in pastures several days ago.

The pests are expected to show up in the near future in other areas, however, and the entire county will be checked thoroughly at regular intervals, Lewter said, that until such time that demands require a specific schedule, poison bait will be mixed as needed by the farmers. Later on, however, regular days for mixing will be established each week.

ORDERED TO 'GET OUT OF TOWN'

Hooded Band Calls On White Instructors At Negro Camp

BESSEMER, Ala., June 12 (AP)—Two white women reported to police a band of hooded, robed men entered a Negro Girl Scouts camp where they were instructors and ordered them "to get out of town."

Circuit Solicitor Howard Sullinger said the women, Misses Karline Nickel of Birmingham and Elizabeth Hams of Knoxville, Tenn., told him about 100 men, all dressed in white robes and high pointed hoods, invaded the camp about 11 p. m. Thursday.

Six or eight men entered the tent where they were sleeping and roused them, they said. A spokesman for the intruders said it was "not proper" for white women to be within boundaries of a camp with Negro women, Sullinger quoted the women as saying.

After searching their baggage and pocketbooks, the women said, the men told them to "get out of town within 24 hours."

They were not molested otherwise.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Clyde Morris said his office would investigate the case thoroughly and vigorously.

About 21 young Negro women were attending a training course at the camp which opened June 2. They were unaware of the incident until told of it late yesterday when the course was cancelled.

Local Red Cross authorities said the course, scheduled for completion next Wednesday, was called off on orders from national headquarters of Girl Scouts, Inc., New York City.

The two instructors were registered at a Birmingham, Ala. hotel last night. Miss Nickel refused further comment on the incident.

New Ellenburger Pay In Ward Co.

SAN ANGELO, June 12—Indicated discovery Ellenburger production in the shallow Shipley pool in southeastern Ward county and prospects of the first well in Floyd county, a three-quarter mile east outcrop to the Arick (Pennsylvanian) pool in southeastern Hale county, featured West Texas development this week.

ern Andrews county was completed. Production of 221 barrels of 46.2 gravity oil with 78 barrels of salt water on the first 24-hour gauge was registered by northern Coke county's second Marble Falls pool opener while decreased yield was shown by southeastern Coke's two small Ellenburger discoveries.

Gulf No. 8-E Wristen Bros. in Ward county topped the Ellenburger at 8,855 feet, 6,460 feet below sea level, and on a 65-minute drillstem test from 8,975-9,030 feet recovered 220 feet of gas-cut mud and 3,200 feet of clean oil. From 9,029-90 on a two-hour drillstem test; it recovered 720 feet of clean 38.7 gravity oil and 120 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. There was no water. Drilling continued.

The apparent strike is in the C SW SW 2-5-H&TC, on the southeast side of the Shipley pool, first in the county, and only five-eighths mile southeast of Silurian production on Wristen Bros. land developed by Gulf.

den, which explored to 8,560 feet. It was near the C NE NW 14-A55-psi.

Texaco No. 1 Victor I. Pierce, heavy gasser in the Ellenburger in southeastern Crockett county, in deepening to 11,912 feet lost circulation again. Texaco No. 1 Tom Smith, nearby and also in section 5-0-Clarissa W. Brown, was testing at 9,440. The wildcats are about 2 1/2 miles south and slightly east of Ozona.

Humble staked No. 1 J. A. Harvick, northeastern Crockett wildcat, to explore 9,500 feet if necessary to test the Ellenburger, C NW SE 80-GH-GC&SF, 6 1/2 miles southwest of the Childress pool with two small Ellenburger wells.

Oil Carriers No. 1 Max Pray-State, eastern Upton county wildcat three miles west and 1/2 mile north of the Benedum (Ellenburger) pool opener, had passed 11,180 feet in the Silurian, Plymouth and Slick-Urschel, which drilled the discovery, had completed negotiations to sell gas to El Paso Natural Gas Co., which plans to lay a line to Jal, N. M., connecting with a line leading to California, according to a Pittsburgh, Pa., dispatch.

Seek To Shut Off Water With Plug In Coke Discovery

SAN ANGELO, June 12—Allen Guberson and others' No. 1 Jack Lassiter, Marble Falls discovery in northern Coke county, was to be killed to set a plastic plug on bottom in an effort to shut off water. It flowed naturally from open hole at 6,495-6,538 feet 221 barrels of oil and 78 barrels of water in 24 hours through an 11-32 inch tubing choke. Location is the C SW SE 308-1A-H&TC. A northeastern offset was staked.

Shamrock No. 1 H. G. Wendland, Ellenburger strike in southeastern Coke county, died four hours short of a scheduled 24-hour potential gauge after making 119 barrels of oil and five barrels of salt water. It was revived briefly and awaited a swabbing unit. Open-hole pay between 6,235-50 feet had been acidized. A quarter mile south offset flowed in a 24-hour period by Seaboard and Southern Minerals No. 1 M. G. Reed, the first Ellenburger well in Coke county had dropped to 98 barrels of oil with 100 barrels of water in 24 hours. Nearly a week earlier the output was 120 barrels of oil and the same amount of water from a section acidized through casing perforations at 6,180-88 feet. No. 2 Wendland, 2 1/4 mile southwest, had set surface pipe.

Sterling Test To Be Drilled By Ray Albaugh

Ray A. Albaugh, of Midland, is to start drilling by July 20, on an Ellenburger wildcat in Northwest Sterling county. The venture is contracted to dig to at least 9,500 feet, unless the Ellenburger is found and test above that point.

The project will be Albaugh's No. 1 Mrs. Nellie Cannon Parramore, of Abilene, and is located 660 feet from north and west lines of section 203, block 29, W&NW survey. It is on a block of 32,000 acres which was assembled in that area about three years ago by Albaugh.

Concerns with spreads, or leases in the Albaugh block, include, Magnolia Petroleum company, Stanolind Oil & Gas company, Phillips Petroleum company, Lion Oil company, American Trading & Producing Corporation, Skelly Oil company, American Trading — Producing Corporation, Skelly Oil company, Hunt Oil company, Humble Oil & Refining company, and Cities Service Oil company.

Seismograph surveys in that area have indicated a structure and the region has seen some rather high prices offered in recent weeks for leases and minerals rights. No sales have been reported in that sector lately.

Stanolind Oil & Gas company No. 1 R. S. Foster is slated as a 4,600-foot semi-wildcat in the Marvin area of Southeast Sterling county. It is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 11, block 15, H&TC survey, and seven and one half miles south of Sterling City. This venture is a one quarter of a mile west flanker to the Anderson-Pritchard Oil corporation and

County Agent Gets Assistant

For the first time in history, Howard county will have the services of an assistant agricultural agent Tuesday when W. M. Day, Jr., of Crosbyton, begins work in the office of Durward W. Lewter.

Day is being sent here by the extension service, and he is expected to remain on the local agent's staff until an opening as agent appears elsewhere in the state. He is one of eight 1948 graduates of Texas A&M college selected to be agricultural agents.

While here, Day's salary will be paid exclusively by the extension service. It is a policy of that organization to send new graduates to counties to serve as assistant agents until such time that vacancies appear for permanent positions.

Lewter said Day probably would work chiefly on field crops and insect control here during the summer.

Drilling on the Stanolind prospect is to start at once.

YOUR WILL
 The uncertainties of life make it imperative that every person, man or woman, single or married should have a will regardless of the size of the estate. It is a costly fallacy to think that wills are only for those who feel the imminence of death.
 The young married man, and his wife, too, who own an equity in a home, or who are struggling to build a business need a will. If either dies, one-half of the community estate goes to the survivor and the other half to the children. If the children are minors, a guardian may have to be appointed. This costs money. The law prevents investing the children's estate in anything speculative with the ultimate result that the business must often be sacrificed or the home lost. ALL this can be averted by a properly drawn will prepared by YOUR attorney.

SO THE SHOW DIDN'T GO ON

LOS ANGELES, June 11. (AP)—What's that business about "the show must go on" and upholding the finest tradition of the theater?

The show didn't go on last night at the Musart Theater. Fourteen members of the cast of "City of Angels" quit shortly before the opening performance. They declared that Producer John O'Harris failed to equip his production with lights, costume and crew to present it to best advantage.

The young Thespians said the presentation would be a "reflection upon our professional integrity and below the potential of the play itself."

Gilliland Asks For Office Of Co. Attorney

Elton Gilliland announced Saturday that he was entering the race for the democratic nomination as county attorney of Howard county.

Five weeks ago he had announced for justice of peace but said he was withdrawing from this race to become a candidate for county attorney because a number of friends had solicited him to do so.

"I am basing my campaign on a promise to perform the duties of the office with honesty and fairness to all," he said, "and to make it my No. 1 job during my term of office."

Gilliland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Gilliland, lone time residents of Big Spring. He is a 1936 graduate of Big Spring high school, worked his way through his pre-law course at Texas Tech and entered the University of Texas law school in 1939.

He had to withdraw from graduation when he joined the army, two and a half years of it overseas in the Pacific theatre. He returned to the university following the war and earned his law degree. Gilliland is a practicing attorney, a member of the State Bar of Texas, is married and a home-owner.

GOOD RECORD, BUT NOT BEST

ABILENE, June 12 (AP)—Abilene's pride in its traffic safety record suffered a blow today. The city's 268 deathless days constituted an all-time Texas record, according to the Department of Public Safety. But today Police Chief Duncan C. Butler of Tyler advised that Tyler established a record of 434 days—from Dec. 13, 1946, to Feb. 21, 1948—and has been honored by the Texas Safety Assn. for the record.

Sterling Parrish Says He Opposes Fair Trades Act

Sterling J. Parrish, Lubbock, state senator from the 30th district, Saturday reiterated his opposition to the fair trades act.

His statement, prompted by request from a newspaperman, said that he had consistently worked and voted against the so-called trades act and that he would continue that course. This, he said, was on the grounds that it would peg minimum prices in some instances and thus more surely raise prices to the consuming public.

Four friends of Parrish from Crosbyton, where he was reared, were here Saturday distributing literature in his behalf. They were R. E. Smith, chamber of commerce, Ed Wren, city commissioner, Leslie Mitchell and C. C. Ingram.

Cayuses Sweep Two-Game Series From Cowboys With 11-9 Win

Mendez, Vasquez Clout Home Runs

Larry Shaw, young Big Spring Bronc fireman mounted the hill in the first inning and weathered a stormy marathon Saturday night to capture his third victory of the season as his mates outlasted the Del Rio Cowboys, 11-9.

HOME RUN!

Shaw was waved to the hill with but one out in the first inning after the Waddies had hopped on Bert Baez for four runs. Baez, who has been on the disabled list with a

The Hoses continue their play with Del Rio today, but they move to the border city where the Cowboys will be hosts for two days. The locals will then stop in San Angelo for a three-game series before returning home to open a five-day stand on Friday night.

Citation Equals Record To Win Easy Victory

NEW YORK, June 12. (AP)—Calumet Farm's Citation streaked to an easy victory in the $100,000-added Belmont Stakes today and became the eighth horse in history to achieve the triple crown.

The King Ranch's Better Self was second, six lengths behind, with W. L. Braman's Escadril third.

Heavily backed by the crowd of 43,046, Citation paid $2.40, $2.30 and $2.10. Better Self paid $3.70 and $2.10. Escadril paid $1.20 for show.

Citation broke on top despite a slight stumble at the gate and led all the way, except for a brief moment when Faraway got a head margin at the half mile call.

The Warren Wright speedster was piloted by Eddie Arcaro, who became the first jockey to ride horses to two triple crowns, Arcaro guided Citation's whirlwind to Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont victories in 1941.

The Glenn Riddle Farms' Faraway matched strides with the Calumet flash until the pack hit the backstretch and then he started fading.

Ray Vasquez hit for the circuit in the eighth to provide Shaw with added insurance.

ROUNDING THE SACKS—Rodriguez threw ten straight balls in the second inning before he was able to master his control. Two of the interested spectators were Jean Porter, the Hollywood actress, and her director husband, Edward Dmytryk, who attended with Jean's father, H. C. Porter of Big Spring.

Jester Calls For Action To Stop Highway Deaths

AUSTIN, June 12. (AP)—Gov. Beasly today called for a "state of emergency" to combat deaths, injuries and property damage caused by Texas traffic accidents.

Jester noted that 1,997 had been killed, 65,000 injured and property damage estimated at $81,483,000 last year.

"It is unthinkable that Texas should stand by and watch his people struck down by the thousands in traffic accidents and not take the most drastic action," the governor said in a prepared statement.

He said he would immediately appoint a coordinating committee, of state officials to assist in the traffic control program.

Job Placements At Record High

AUSTIN, June 12. (AP)—The Texas Employment Commission last month found more jobs for Texans than in any previous month since World War II.

Nearly 82,000 persons were placed in gainful employment during May, TEC reported.

Harvesting of vegetables and citrus fruits and cotton chopping provided jobs through TEC for 19,500 farm workers. Farm job figures were expected to jump 10 fold over labor demands of the wheat harvest and continued cotton chopping.

In comparison with April, May figures showed farm jobs up 82 per cent, total jobs up 28 per cent.

Prince Leading League Again

Jim Prince of Midland, minor league batting king last year, has regained the Longhorn league lead in individual clouting again in games through Tuesday, June 8, with an average of .417. The Midland first sacker jumped 35 percentage points to snatch the lead away from Bobby Fernandez, Big Spring, who slumped to .392.

Big Spring continues to lead in team hitting with .303, 12 points more than second place Midland, but is a lagging fourth in club fielding with .931.

Fernandez leads in total hits with 80. Ace Mendez has scored the most runs—55—while Fernandez had collected 19 two-basers, the best in that department. Harvel Jakes of Midland leads in triples with seven and Kenny Peacock of Sweetwater is out front in home runs and runs batted in with 11 and 62, respectively, as well as total bases with 116.

Jake McClain of Big Spring is setting the pace in stolen bases with 18.

Hogan Captures U.S. Open Title; Demaret Second

LOS ANGELES, June 12. (AP)—Ben Hogan, winner of almost every other honor in golf, captured his biggest tournament today—the United States Open championship.

Stunning a record crowd with a par-breaking performance, Hogan won the championship with a 72-hole score of 276. Par is 284.

The mechanical man of golf, refusing to crack when the pressure came in the final stages, wrecked the par 71, 7,020-yard Riviera Country club championship course with today's performance.

Shooting final rounds of 68 and 69 to go with his first round 67 and second round 72, Hogan steadily and carefully chopped down hopes of his nearest rival, Jimmy Demaret.

Demaret finished second, matching Hogan's rounds of 68 and 69. Hogan broke the U. S. Open tournament record for 72 holes, a 281 registered by big Ralph Guldahl at Detroit in 1937. He also fractured the 54-hole score, too, which was 211.

An estimated 25,000 fans watched the triumph of the 35-year-old transplanted Texan from Ft. Worth who now calls Hershey, Pa., home. Slamming Sam Snead, who led the field going into this final challenge, dropped back with rounds of 73 and 72.

This was Hogan's course. He won the last two rich Los Angeles Open tournaments over it in 280 and 275, stripping its-par by 13 shots. He became the first man to win in the same year the U. S. Open and PGA championships—one medal, the other match play—since Gene Sarazen turned the trick in 1922.

The win was worth $2,000 in cash to Hogan. Demaret got $1,500.

Chisox Win, 5-3

BOSTON, June 12. (AP)—Al Gettel held the Boston Red Sox to seven hits today to win his first start of the season for the Chicago White Sox by a 5-3 margin. Pat Seery's second homer in as many games, with one on, clinched the triumph in the third inning.

BENGALS, ANGELO TANGLE AT 3:30

Steer park will be the scene of action this afternoon of an exhibition baseball game between the Big Spring Latin-American Tigers and the San Angelo Greyhounds. Starting time is 3:30 o'clock.

Sports Classes May Be Started

A meeting of all youths under 15 years of age who are interested in basketball and softball has been called for 4:30 p. m. Tuesday at the high school gymnasium.

Lee Milling, executive secretary of the YMCA, said the meeting was a result of permission by the school board for the YMCA to conduct basketball instruction and games in the gymnasium during the summer. At the same time, the meeting will be used to stimulate interest in promoting more teams for boys of 12 years and under in softball play.

Bobo Hardy, who is directing the YMCA physical education program for the summer, will be in charge of the Tuesday meeting, said Milling.

The men's informal exercise class still operates on Monday and Thursday at 5:30 p. m., Milling reminded and invited all interested to report at that hour for volleyball and mild loosening-up exercises.

Reds Win Twin Bill

CINCINNATI, June 12. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds defeated Boston in both ends of a twin bill today, 3-2 and 11-9, to knock the Braves out of the National League leadership. ## LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART.

The Midland Indians remain the lads to beat in the Longhorn baseball league, as far as Pat Stasey and the Big Spring Broncos are concerned. . . The Tribe is the chief threat, the chief hurdle more because of Skipper Harold Webb than any other single factor. . . In spite of his penchant for clowning, or perhaps because of it, Webb remains a cool baseball man who always gets the most out of his material. . . He brought a very ordinary club across the finish line in second place last year and could have won the play-offs with a break here and there. . . He has the remarkable ability of making a ball player think he is good, which means a lot. . . Incidentally, he's not nearly the pain in the neck to the umpires the fans think he is. . . Half the time he's up there debating an issue with umpires, he's kidding the boys-in-blue. . . One thing especially the officials like about him is the fact that he won't permit any of his players to crowd them. . . Those who do start in that direction generally are thumbed back into the dugout. . . Paul Cooke, the ex-Ballinger flinger who has been with the Lamesa Lobos the past spring, may wind up on the San Angelo roster. . . Paul won 16, lost 10 for the Cats last year, had the third best earned-run average in the league. . . Attendance at the Del Rio home games is way up, according to reports. . . Easy Caballero, who was supposed to be the Big Spring third baseman this year but instead opened with Sherman-Dentison, is now gracing the Henderson (Lone Star league) roster. . . His hitting has improved.

Conn Isaacs, new HCJC mentor, will send either Don or Ray Clark to the pitching rubber while Dave Roberson, Forsan skipper, is due to counter with Lefty McCabe.

Don Clark led the Hawks to an important 12-6 victory over Coahoma team last week. He's the team's leading hitter one of the best swatmen in the business. Forsan boasts perhaps a harder hitting club than the Hawks but its defense doesn't measure up. The Hawks have proved very hard to beat in the clutch.

Loop To Retain Present Setup For Time Being

SWEETWATER, June 12—The Longhorn baseball league will continue to operate under its present setup, at least for the time being, league directors decided at a special session here Saturday morning. The executive committee of the circuit was summoned to discuss the transfer of two franchises within the circuit, San Angelo and Balingier, but nothing came of the proposals.

Bill Moore, Ballinger club owner, said he would keep his club in that city. He mentioned he had a falling offer from Roswell, N. M., parties to switch operations. C. West, owner of the San Angelo Colts, announced he would meet with an Angelo group Tuesday to discuss sale of the team but said the Colts would function under the present arrangement until something could be worked out. West had threatened to move the franchise to Ballinger, if Moore moved out.

Swim Classes Begin June 21

Swimming classes, sponsored by the YMCA, will begin on June 21 at the municipal swimming pool. Bobo Hardy, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Hardy, has returned from Southwestern University for the summer and will direct the swimming program.

All persons interested in either learning to swim or improve swimming abilities are asked to enroll at the YMCA during the week. Instruction is free to all Y members, both junior and senior, and in cases where children are unable to meet membership fees of 25 cents per month if under 12 years and 50 cents if over 12, provision will be made for them to receive instruction nevertheless.

Participants will be directly responsible to the city for pool fees. Instruction for beginners will be held at 9:30 a. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings until the course is completed, and for advanced swimmers on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, Hardy announced.

No minimum age limit has been fixed, although it would be desirable if youngsters were at least eight years of age.

O'Dowdy Makes First Appearance As Grappler Here Monday Night

A rare treat is in prospect for the grapple fans who check in at the Big Spring Athletic club Monday night.

After Billy Hickson, the Tennessee speed merchant, and George Lopez, Tampico, Mexico, have cashed in and departed the battle pits, Pat O'Dowdy is going to trot out his heavy artillery and fire a couple of salvos at Ray (Big Train) Clements, the Lubbock toughie.

Local fans have been deprived the chance of seeing O'Dowdy wrestle in the past because he is the promoter here. Spectators in other cities of West Texas have been luckier and most of them declare Patrick is about the saltiest tin-ear to be found anywhere.

O'Dowdy and Clements have never met in a ring anywhere as gladiators before. That doesn't mean there isn't bad blood between the two. Clements twice drapped O'Dowdy in the ring here several weeks ago when Pat climbed through the ropes to try and get him off another wrestler.

He clopped O'Dowdy's chops before the Irishman knew what was taking place. So expect Pat to be gunning for sweet revenge. Things will get away to a fast start around 8:30 o'clock.

Coahoma Seeks To Tie For TC League Lead

COAHOMA, June 12—The Coahoma Bulldogs host the Big Spring Westerners in a 3 p. m. game today that may have important bearing on the Tri-County baseball league first half chase.

The Bulldogs still have a chance to tie for the first half title. A Coahoma victory today, coupled with an HCJC defeat at Forsan, would deadlock those two clubs for the top spot.

Burl Cramer, the Coahoma manager, will use all his heavy guns against the Westerners, who have won but one league contest in eight starts.

Bill Brown will shoulder pitching burdens for Coahoma while Johnny Daylong is due to work on the rubber for the Westerners.

Legion Plays Lubbock Nine

Dr. Kenny Swain takes his Big Spring American Legion Junior baseball team to Lubbock today where they play a return game with that city's strong Legion representatives.

In the previous collision, the locals finished on the short end of a 7-0 score.

The Big Springers will be seeking their second win of the 1948 season today. They routed Coahoma, then lost to Lamesa and Lubbock.

Howard Jones may go to the hill for the locals today.

NEW PILOT

Merle Coleman Greets Odessa Fandom Today

ODESSA, June 12—Odessa baseball fans get their first look at the Oilers' new manager when the home club meets the Vernon Dusters here this afternoon.

He is Merle Coleman, a 30-year-old righthanded pitcher from Texarkana of the Big State league.

Coleman stands 6-feet-4, weighs 185 pounds. He managed Natches in the Evangeline league where he won 18, lost eight on the mound. In 1947 he was player-manager of the Abbeville team in the same league where he won 11, lost seven. He was bought by Texarkana the latter part of the season and won eight and lost three for the pennant-winning Bruins.

Prior to the war—he served three years in the Armed Forces—Coleman was with Syracuse of the International league, Shreveport and Oklahoma City of the Texas league and Memphis of the Southern Association. He started in professional baseball in 1935. Coleman is a native of Pawhuska, Oklahoma.

A summer kids' bowling league is being formed at the West Texas bowling center and will open its schedule as soon as the maps are ready for play.

Ofenloch came here two weeks ago from Las Cruces, N. M., to assume management of the bowling palace.

Young Musicians In Recital Today

FRANCES MERLE COOPER

TED SMITH

Two talented young musicians from Hardin-Simmons University will be presented in a brief concert of sacred music today at 4 p. m. in the First Baptist auditorium.

Ted Smith will be at the console of the church organ, and Frances Merle Cooper, Colorado City, will be heard in two vocal passages. Smith, a brother of Billy Smith of Big Spring, is here as organist for the revival directed by youth of the church and Miss Cooper comes here from HSU, where she is a voice instructor, especially for the concert.

The program opens with Smith playing Bach's "O Sacred Head," followed by "Behold a Rose," from Brahms, Miss Cooper chooses "The Messiah," and "The Holy City" by Adams.

For his second series, Smith interprets "Elizabeth's Prayer" from Wagner's "Tannhauser," and Max Regan's "Benedictus." From "Xerxes," another Handel composition, Miss Cooper will sing "Holy Art Thou," and then climaxes her program with "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

Finale, by Smith, will be "Now Thank We All Our God."

Ralph Langley, Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary student, will lead the one-week evangelistic campaign opening today at the First Baptist church.

Assisting in conduct of the meeting are Ted Smith, organist, and Asa Couch, song leader. Jackie Bramwell, director of young people's activities, is over-all chairman of arrangements. Heien Blount will be guest vocalist at the morning service today. Two services—at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.—are scheduled daily.

Security Loan Sales Show A Sharp Increase

Howard county's response to the Security Loan campaign increased sharply during the past week.

Unofficial totals, based on sales at local banks but not yet reported in totals at state levels, show $80,812.50 for which the county has not been credited. This would bring the amount of E bonds sold to $125,606.25 and the total of all bonds to $131,624.75.

On the $328,000 over-all total, this amounts to 40.4 per cent, or a gain of nearly 25 per cent for the week.

Ira Thurman, county bond chairman, renewed his appeal for general public support of the Security Loan campaign.

"Most of the increase is due to a few large purchases," he said. "While we are grateful for these, we are anxious that the purchasing of bonds extend to as many people as possible. This will have a double-action in helping finance vital governmental needs and at the same time combat inflation, as well as setting up a systematic savings plan for individuals so that they may reap a rich harvest several years hence when the dollars they stored away will buy more."

Emphasis is being placed on information about the Security Loan drive. Letters are going out soon to members of the service clubs, including Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis, American Business Club, Legion Auxiliary and perhaps others.

If Howard county attains its quota, it will have to do so before the end of June.

Vocational School Adds Holbert As New Instructor

Billie M. Holbert was announced Saturday as a new instructor for the Howard County Vocational school.

E. C. Dodd, co-ordinator for the school, which functions under Howard County Junior College, said that Holbert would be assigned as instructor of the class in vocational agriculture at Knott. He holds his bachelor of science degree from Sam Houston State Teachers college at Huntsville and has a Smith-Hughes certificate.

Two more vocational agriculture classes may be started by July 1 if there is sufficient interest by veterans, said Dodd. He has instructors tentatively sighted for a class at Coahoma and another one at Big Spring. Veterans interested in this training could contact Dodd's office.

A course in distributive education is to start on July 1, and J. O. Jolley, Munday, is due here this week to begin plans for the courses which will enable students to engage in on-the-job training in retail sales and service fields. The program has been liberalized, and in some instances unemployed persons may sign up for the course.

Philadelphia Plans Teas For Convention

By HERB ALTSCHULL PHILADELPHIA, June 12. (AP)

Democratic planners today listed a lavish entertainment program for the ladies of the '48 national convention.

The ladies—and there are more women than men voters in the United States—will be treated to such assorted female delights as teas, tours, receptions, musicales and fashion shows.

Most unusual of the functions devised by the Democratic national committee and Major Bernard Samuel's arrangements committee is a fashion show which will be presented by Lit Brothers Department Store.

On display will be authentic costumes worn throughout the history of the nation at each of the various political conventions. Also shown will be collections of pictures of every American president.

The women will also have a chance to try out the latest in millinery fashions. Several top designers will be in attendance.

The entertainment program for the lady delegates and the wives of the men delegates was devised by Mrs. Kathryn Sura.

A large proportion of the 3,196 delegates—largest in Democratic convention history—will be women.

Formal opening of the conclave is set for 11:30 a. m., Central Standard time, Monday, July 12. A three-day pre-convention entertainment program also is planned.

A formal dinner on Friday, July 9, will open the pre-convention program. Invited are members of President Truman's cabinet, the national committee and former National Chairmen James A. Farley, Frank Walker and Robert Hannegan.

The 1,500 news and radio men assigned to staff the convention will be feted Saturday. Church services and a planned tour of historic shrines are set for Sunday.

Housing continues to be one of the major problems for William Neale Roche, directing manager of the convention.

Mrs. LeFever To Give Book Review Thursday

On June 17 Mrs. Ben LeFever will review Edward F. Murphy's "The Scarlet Lily" and "Pere Antoine," Father Murphy was born in Salem, Mass., and now lives in New Orleans, La. where he teaches in the famed Xavier university, Negro college. The best-known Catholic author today, his "Scarlet Lily" became a best seller and is now being made into a movie.

"Mademoiselle Lavalliere," —Eve Lavalliere—won the wildest acclaim of the Paris first-nighters. Beginning life in utmost poverty, the daughter of a murderer, Eve rose to become one of France's most popular actresses. Then at the height of fame she found her life one of tinsel and glitter. She wanted more than the emptiness of worldly achievement and fame.

Leaving the stage, Eve began a search for truth. How she found happiness in a life of self-sacrifice and became a woman of sanctity even when it meant losing a son, fame and friends of the story of "Mademoiselle Lavalliere."

Time for the review is 8 p. m. Refreshments are to be served to those wishing to remain afterwards.

Because America Loves To Cook

Everybody's Cooking Up New Cook Books

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—America is crazy about cooking. The current preoccupation with bending over a hot stove may be a fad, like "Mairzy Doots." It may be the final flowering of a slow development. Whatever else, it's a publisher's bonanza and a writer's delight.

Bookshelves are loaded with volumes about food. Novels and short stories are larded with recipes. A text book on pressure cooking hit the national best seller lists and stayed there for weeks.

The late Fannie Merritt Farmer, who started the whole thing, probably would swoon if she could see the unlimited selection of cook books an eager public is snatching up.

Time was when every household boasted a flour-and-butter-smear copy of Miss Farmer's "The Boston Cooking School Cook Book," whose yellowing pages and recommendations for heavy cream and lavish chunks of butter marked it plainly as a wedding gift to mother.

That's a collector's item, now. There's an up-to-date edition of Fannie, complete with vitamin and oleo talk. There's also at least a couple of other books decorating the family shelf.

Collecting cook books is a recognized hobby. It's even gone so far as to produce collectors of first edition cook books (a pretty expensive hobby, for new ones are coming out almost daily.)

There are cook books for everybody. Special cook books are published for youngsters. There are any number of recipe collections, in good solid colors and about good solid foods, especially for men. Name any national food—and there is a book about it.

For classification purposes, there really are only two kinds of cook books. The basic cook book is usually a big, thick indexed volume that gives a general briefing on cooking techniques. There are a score or more of these, designed to teach the tyro and provide reference sources for the experienced. Then there are all the books exalting the art of cookery.

"Special" cook books are devoted entirely, for instance, to the uses of Macaroni, eggs, salad greens, sandwich mixtures or herbs. "Regional" cook books tell of popular local dishes: New Orleans, Charleston, Pennsylvania Dutch recipes, New England boiled dinners—there is no end to these.

Like Russian food? There are a number of books with just Russian recipes. In fact, there's a "national" cook book, written in English, on the food of about every nation in the world, and that includes Korea.

The working girl who lives alone has received her share of attention. So have the two-in-family, the working couple. Most recipes, however, are geared to four or five servings of a dish. Casserole cookery—one-dish meals—right now is the limelight.

There's still another category: personality cook books, in which a skilled writer wraps recipes around a story. Two of these, "Stina, The Story Of A Cook," and "Clementine In The Kitchen" have been best sellers.

Mrs. Helen Van Pelt Wilson, editor of a publishing house which specializes in cook books, says one of their popular New England recipe books has been reprinted 28 times in 12 years—and has sold over 200,000 copies.

"Manuscripts come in like a flood," says Mrs. Wilson. "I turn down an average of 20 manuscripts and 20 ideas a week. Everybody seems to want to write a cook book."

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food in a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. As age advances the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, nervous, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-eating of soda and other ailments to counteract gas and bloating when what you do need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

STEAMBOAT on the RIVER

The steamboat was a glamorous sight on many of our navigable rivers many years ago. People thronged the wharfs and landings to see "the boat" come in bringing passengers, freight, and mail.

Some of these old steamers still ply their trade, but most of them have passed into history. Time and change have produced more modern methods of transportation.

The steamboat in the picture thus becomes a symbol of change. But the river on which it rides is God's handiwork, a symbol of constancy. It flows on and on through the endless years.

The Church stands for the things of God—the constant things. It stands for the Bible, for faith and hope and right living. All material things may change, but these will abide forever.

Get acquainted with your Church, and put your faith in the things that endure.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Rev. R. Y. Bradford, pastor, read the ceremony before five hundred guests from Colorado City, Eastland, Midland, Lubbock, Sweetwater, Abilene and Montgomery, Ala.

The altar was decorated with white flowers and candles against a background of fern and greenery. A fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli in "all baskets centered the altar. White tapers were in floor candelabra.

Entering with her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of snowy white marquisette, designed with a high round collar and a deep yoke outlined with three rows of fluted ruffles. The long sleeves were tapered to points over her hands. Worn over a hoop, the voluminous skirt was gathered onto the tight bodice and was outlined at the hem with a deep ruffle. Her veil of chantilly lace was fashioned into a fisherman's cap designed with a scalloped brim, dipping in the back and tied with narrow white satin ribbon in lover's knots. She carried a colonial bouquet.

Her younger sister, Margaret, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joe Henry Smoot, Jr. of Austin; Dorothy Perkins, sister of the bridegroom of Eastland and Mrs. Robert Robinson. Attendants wore identical gowns of aqua blue marquisette made with a drop shoulder bodice, trimmed in pleated ruffles and bustle back full skirts.

The maid of honor carried a fan of pale yellow maline with an attached bouquet designed of light pink carnations. Her headdress was a halo of matching carnations. Other attendants carried fans of pink maline and pink carnations. They wore flower circlets in their hair.

Robert Couch of Lubbock was best man. Groomsman were Robert Leslie and Robert Ferguson of Eastland; Joe Henry Smoot, Jr., brother of the bride from Austin and Robert Keisler of Fort Worth.

Traditional wedding music was played by organist, Nina Laura Smith. Dorothy Routh of Hamlin was soloist. The mother of the bride wore a gown of blue crepe with a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother chose grey lace and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the wedding. Mrs. C. Keith Boyette, Fort Worth, sister of the bridegroom presided at the refreshment table which was covered with a lace cloth and was appointed with fan-shaped bouquets of gladioli, three tiered cake and the crystal punch service.

Receiving with the couple were their parents, and the bridal party. Others in the house party were Mrs. Jack Womack of Lubbock; Mrs. Newby Pratt, Mrs. Charles Godwin, Frances Hardison, Betty Hardison, Betty Brown, Dorothy Womack, Mrs. George O. Witten and Mrs. Thomas Pendleton of San Angelo.

The couple left for a month's honeymoon in New England and Nova Scotia. For traveling Mrs.

Perkins wore a suit of calvaco green gabardine fashioned with a molded jacket accented with short pointed revers of the collar and a flared skirt. Her hat was a veiled off-the-face straw model of creme de coco and matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will live in Lubbock where he is in business. She is a graduate of Colorado City high school and Baylor University and was until recently a teacher in the Midland public schools. Perkins finished high school in Eastland and received his B. A. degree from Texas Tech. He served in the army for three years.

Should Prepare For Problems

When September rolls around—and that is scarcely two and a half months away—it is not improbable that the Big Spring Independent School district will face some decisions.

What happens in the intervening weeks doubtless will have a direct bearing. If the Supreme Court upholds the trial court ruling that an election last year carried, there may be need to examine the apportionment of the levy. If the ruling is contrary (it all hinges on whether "overs" must have current exemptions.

In the latter eventuality, the calling of a second election would be a foregone conclusion if not a necessity. The reason would be obvious, for the district would be beset by potentially serious financial problems. No doubt the bulk of taxpayers would be disposed to let the matter be water over the dam, but others, entirely within their legal and moral rights, might not be so disposed. Thus, the matter of refunds and adjusting of receivable accounts would have to be faced. Beyond this the omnipresent matter of financing to meet minimum state schedules would have to be met.

The former possibility, which would be less complicated and pressing, does not mean an end to school problems. Estimates are that there is a pressing need for at least 20 classrooms to furnish ample room in the elementary schools, and thus avoid the veering double-day sessions. This would not necessarily mean a sharp increase in staff, but it easily could mean some. It seems advisable for the school board to give earnest and serious consideration to plans to meet all eventualities. If we wait until August again, we may find once more in September that the products of haste are not altogether pleasant.

Postage For Our Poultry

Our hat is off to the American hen, more than a billion strong. On sheer numbers alone she deserves attention, and her contribution to the country economically and gastronomically is nothing to be clucked at. There is nothing in the whole range of dependable provender to match two golden yolks on a field of white, looking you in the eye from a breakfast plate. A few flecks of black pepper, a dainty sprinkling of table salt, and a smidgen of cat-soup to lend color and flavor—Sir, what free-born American citizen could ask for more?

All honor to the hen! The Senate of the United States, in solemn convocation assembled, has awakened to its bounden duty at last and set about doing homage to this feathered servitor of mankind. It passed a resolution ordering the postmaster general to issue a stamp commemorating America's poultry industry, with a bidy as the stamp's central theme, just like Whistler's Mother and the Alamo and the covered wagon.

The New York Herald Tribune, falling into the spirit of the occasion, suggests that the stamp be kept ideologically pure by depicting the plump and fluffy Plymouth Rock instead of the Rhode Island Red. Champions of other breeds doubtless will come forward with supporting affidavits in behalf of their favorites, until we wouldn't be surprised if the whole poultry industry was divided into a hundred warring camps, each screaming for recognition of its pin-up beauty.

Too bad nobody has yet produced a breed with the perfect color scheme—red, white and blue.

We are all honoring the hen, but we can see countless headaches for the Postoffice Department if the Senate scheme goes through. Breeders of cattle, geese, ducks, dogs, cats, horses, mules, canaries, turkeys and other assorted fauna will come forward with strong claims for like treatment. Various states will advance the claims of their official birds—in the case of Texas, that roistering smartaleck, the mockingbird—and special groups of one sort or another will start plugging whatever bird or beast takes their fancy.

It can be said of hens that they're neither Democrat nor Republican though they make enough racket to be Wallacesites. They are hard-working, excellent advertisers, faithful to the feedbox, and contributors of great wealth to the nation. William Jennings Bryan used to tell his lecture audiences that the only item of dependable food he could find anywhere in the world, from Darkest Africa's jungle settlements to the haunts of civilized mankind, was the hen-egg.

Yes, indeed, the projection of the great American hen into the field of philately opens out intriguing vistas of postage stamp art. Poultry has never been a popular inspiration to artistic achievement. Birds, yes; horses, to be sure; dogs, of a verity. But hens, no.

We hope the Senate hasn't laid an artistic egg.

LAD TAKES HIS 400TH BLOOD TRANSFUSION

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, June 14. (AP)—Louis is a twelve-year-old boy who lives on borrowed blood but never asked anybody to lend him any courage.

Looking up at a doctor in the Kings County hospital giving him his 400th blood transfusion, Louis said cheerfully: "I sure get tired of coming to the hospital all the time. But one of these days I'll get over this, and I won't have to come back again."

He doesn't know the odds against him. He doesn't know that all victims of his strange malady must keep periodically refueling themselves with other people's blood—or die. At seven months Louis was stricken with Cooley's anemia, a rare disease which strikes chiefly among children of Mediterranean descent. Until recent years, the small victims of his obscure ailment simply weakened progressively until death took them. There was no cure. There is no cure. But he was found they could be kept alive by repeated transfusions.

How long? Louis is one of the children who is living that answer. Since his seventh month the boy has existed only by the borrowed vigor tapped from the veins of his father and strangers he has never seen. He began by taking a fifth of a pint at each transfusion. Now every few weeks he needs four pints. Later he may require even more.

As he lay on a bed in the Kings County hospital receiving his 204th pint of blood, Louis joked with the nurse. He didn't look ill. He is a little under-sized, but his brown eyes sparkled, and he talked gaily of how soon he could give the hospital back its peppermint-striped pajamas and go for a trip to the country.

The blood is provided by the American Red Cross, which collects it in Brooklyn and other areas for patients such as Louis. "It is always possible that someone will discover a cure," said Dr. Gollance.

Louis leads a normal life. He is an excellent student and will start junior high school next fall. He likes soccer, football and baseball.

Fuss Over Aid Funds

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, June 14. (AP)—It's an amazing sight. . . . The heat wave among Republicans over what Republicans have done to the Marshall Plan for helping Europe.

A couple of months ago both House and Senate okayed the plan. They voted for it after the most searching examination any program has received in recent years.

All last summer and fall—six months altogether—thousands of experts here and abroad had worked on the plan. Then around Christmas time President Truman handed it to Congress.

All the work done by the experts was then examined by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. They went over the plan with a microscope. They called in top government officials and experts and questioned them.

Altogether, the two committees spent about six weeks each going over the plan, cutting where they could. Then they turned it over to both houses for a vote.

The full membership of the two houses couldn't go into the plan in detail. They had to depend largely on the word of their committees that the plan was all right.

So they voted for it, and, at the same time, "authorized" spending $5 billion on it the first year.

Since the Republicans control both houses, the Republicans were responsible for the okay and the authorization. But authorizing the spending of money isn't actually voting for the spending of it.

But before any money is appropriated in Congress, the Appropriations Committees of both houses look into the plan for spending it.

And it's always the House Appropriations Committee which starts the ball rolling. Rep. John Taber, white-haired New York Republican who's built himself a reputation by his eagerness to cut down government spending, is chairman.

So for one month Taber's House Appropriations Committee held hearings of its own on the Marshall Plan.

This was after all the work already done on it and after both houses had voted it.

West Coast Oil Men After Truman To Change Mind On Tidelands Bill

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON. — Out on the West Coast, the oil boys and the Pauley pals have been licking their chops over the arrival of President Truman and their chance to persuade him to right-about-face on tidelands oil.

They hope that, with a tough campaign and the Democratic cupboard bare, they may be able to persuade the President not to veto a tidelands oil bill this time.

All of which is doubtful. Harry Truman doesn't change easily. Furthermore, if there was one thing he got fed up on, as a senator, it was lobbyists. And the tidelands oil crowd have been using the most variegated assortment of lobbyists ever seen in Washington.

Of them, perhaps the weirdest—though one of the most effective—is Dr. Edward A. Rumely, who served a term as a German agent after World War I, was pardoned under interesting circumstances, and who has more recently managed to entrap a larger collection of millionaires and lesser lights than almost any other lobbyist in the nation.

Rumely operates under the pontifical and high-sounding name of the "Committee for Constitutional Government." And he has been busy as a bird-dog distributing literature supporting the tidelands oil lobby. Literature which he claims is "educational" and therefore income-tax-deductible.

Rumely has been flooding lawyers, doctors and others with pleas to buy this literature, and a lot of them have fallen for the idea—thinking that it could be deducted from income taxes. Whether the treasury lets them get away with it, however, may be another matter.

WORKED FOR THE KAISER

The amazing thing is that Rumely has so much influence, despite his earlier prison-record. Educated in Germany, Rumely was active for the Kaiser in the first war, and has admitted under oath to acting as agent in spending $200,000 for advertising in foreign-language papers in the United States to propagandize foreign-born citizens for Germany. He has also admitted paying $3,000 to the late Gaston B. Mean (later jailed for the Lindbergh swindle) to spy on British shipping.

Rumely also admitted under oath paying $1,000 of German money to distribute copies of the Irish-American in the United States, and $1,500 to distribute "Cotton Circulars," the latter calculated to stir up the South because it could not ship cotton to Germany.

Finally the long arm of the law caught up with Rumely when he concealed the fact that the Kaiser had paid him a million and a half dollars to buy the New York Mail and use it as a German propaganda sheet. He was sentenced to jail.

Despite this, Frank Gannett, the New York chain newspaper publisher, has consistently and heavily backed Rumely for years. So has Lamar Fleming, Jr., of Texas, attorney for the Anderson-Clayton cotton firm; Ben Clayton, brother of Will Clayton, retired undersecretary of state, together with Harvey Fruehauf, the auto-trailer king; Mrs. Henry Doerly, owner of the Omaha World Herald, and various others. Senator Ed Moore of Oklahoma not only is a member of Rumely's committee, but vigorously champions his ideas on tidelands oil in the Senate.

One reason for the rept devotion of this multimillionaire committee for constitutional government for Dr. Rumely, of course, is that they all think alike. Apparently, therefore, the fact that he is an ex-German agent makes no difference. Also, they appear to condone their association by the fact that Rumely was pardoned.

The history of this pardon, as taken from court records, is as follows:

HISTORY OF PARDON
Rumely was found guilty on Dec. 8, 1920 and took his case to the second circuit court of appeals which affirmed his conviction. Later, Oct. 23, 1923, the U. S. Supreme Court refused to review the case. Rumely had been sentenced to serve a year and a day.

Powerful forces then brought pressure on President Coolidge for a pardon. On Jan. 24, 1924, Frank Munsey bought the N. Y. Mail to combine with the Telegram, and on March 5, another publishing venture was set up under Rumely's direction with capital supplied by several leading Americans and a German industrialist.

Four years after his conviction, Rumely was still out on a stay of execution. But on March 13, 1924, things went wrong and Coolidge refused him a pardon, though under pressure he did commute his sentence from a year and a day to one year, thereby making him ineligible for Atlanta.

Rumely then began serving time at the White Plains penitentiary, New York. But on April 11, Coolidge commuted Rumely's sentence to one month and he was released, April 17, 1924. Almost one year later, Jan. 19, 1925, Coolidge granted

Rumely a pardon in such secrecy that members of the Senate Lobby Committee in 1938 didn't know about it.

This is the gentleman who twice has been cited for contempt of Congress for refusing to tell the names of the multimillionaires who finance his lobbying activities.

OTHERS JAILED
Scores of other people have been jailed for refusing to answer questions of Congress, among them a number of Hollywood notables, but in the long history of the United States, Rumely is one of only three cases who has thumbed his nose at Congress and got away with it. He has gone to jail for serving as a German agent, but not for being in contempt of Congress.

Rumely also has been a great pal of D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, now serving a life sentence in the Michigan City, Ind., penitentiary for murder. Rumely admits having paid Stephenson a visit in jail, and also admits that he and the former Klan leader were associated in publishing a magazine together. One article appearing in the magazine, under Stephenson's name, has all the earmarks of having been ghostwritten for him by Rumely.

This is the versatile gentleman who has collected so much money from unknown and undisclosed sources to promote the tidelands oil lobby and other "constitutional" matters in Washington.

NOTE—Rumely draws a weekly salary of $208 plus $96.50 per week for expenses, plus commissions, which are not inconsiderable.

Notation From Laughton: Actors Are Not Conceited

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Are actors egotists? Charles Laughton rises Captain Bligh-like and utters a hearty "no."

You could have fooled me, too. But the famed screen heavy was vehement on the subject when I talked with him at his tastefully luxurious home overlooking the Pacific. Here's what the man says—"Film actors are the most humble people on earth."

The public may think of the acting profession as pretty vain folk, but Laughton attacked that notion. His argument:

"A bank clerk can afford to think that he looks like Clark Gable and be wrong. But a movie star must be objective. He has to know his face and personality so he can capitalize on them. If he thinks too highly of his talents, he is at once disillusioned when he views his latest picture."

"The bubble of an actor's ego is punctured the day he sees his image on the screen. His most horrible moments are while watching himself in a bad performance."

Laughton continued along this startling line:

"You'll find that actors are invariably modest regarding their appearances and talents." He added with a twinkle, "It's especially easy to be modest when you look like I do."

WANT LONG LIFE? THEN BE CAREFUL ABOUT YOUR DIET

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Paul Sampson, 71, a food expert at Kilgore, Tex., says:

"One third of the food people eat keeps them; two thirds keep the doctors."

Most of the things people eat are bad for them, he told the Kilgore Rotary Club. He held a cup custard aloft and growled:

"Here's one of those delicious abominations. A combination of milk, eggs and sugar is especially harmful. Cup custard isn't fit to go in the stomach."

"A lot of deaths which we think are due to heart attacks are actually due to gas attacks from improper eating," the food expert stated. "We eat a meal that's 100 per cent acid and then wonder why we have gas."

"We'll have a good green salad and then put a vinegar dressing on it. Vinegar is nothing but decomposed alcohol and you can get a gin liver from vinegar quicker than you can from gin."

"Use the natural acid . . . lemon juice . . . for salads. . . . Sampson says breads should be made without baking powder or yeast. Baking powder destroys flavor and vitamins and gives you in- with flour, butter, eggs, milk, sugar a poor food because "the refining process takes all the vitamins and minerals out of it."

"Animals fed on sugar and water die quicker than animals fed on sugar alone."

And as for cake:

"When you take a bite of cake, with flour, butter, eggs, milk, sugar and probably some kind of fruit or nuts making up its content, your taste buds flash a message to your stomach that says: 'Get ready . . . something's coming down, but Heaven only knows what.'"

Sampson feels better at 71 than he did at 25 . . . because of proper diet, the Kilgore News Herald says.

"My grandfather lived to be 105 and I hope to beat him by 45 years. . . . If I feel as good at 150 as I do right now, I won't ever want to stop living."

What Price U. S. Honor?

By RELMAN MORIN

Harold Stassen appeared before Congress last week and argued against the proposal to reduce the billions originally authorized for the Marshall Plan. He said it has become a matter of "the national honor of the United States."

The argument is a cogent one. No American would knowingly compromise the national honor of his country.

But while Stassen was speaking, there probably were people in the committee room for whom his words evoked the memory of Falstaff's notable soliloquy on honor. "What is honor? Can it mend a broken leg?"

That is a large part of the problem. The congressmen who propose to chop more than a billion dollars off the fund originally earmarked for European recovery believe that, economically, the United States may break its leg—or even its back—in attempting to carry the load.

Moreover, House Appropriations Committee Chairman John Taber said in an interview the other night that it isn't necessary to spend so much in Europe.

He cited figures to show that an abundant wheat crop, bigger than in years, will be harvested in France and Italy. His statistics on the potato yield in Germany were almost startling.

He said he wanted to see "business-like methods" employed in formulating the final figure for European recovery funds, and that there has been a great deal of vagueness, indecisiveness and obscurity in the planning, so far.

Certainly it is difficult, in an operation so big and so complex, to know whether you will need five billion, six billion or 18 billion to go ahead successfully. Once arrived on this level, figures work wonders as proofs for both the pro and the con.

But there may be other considerations.

One of them is a plain old triumph of capital investment, namely, that you may sink a million dollars into a project, knowing perfectly well that you will never get it back, directly. The empire builders, England, Holland, France and even Japan, learned that long ago.

For example, the British willingly financed railroads all over the world. How did they get the money back? They supplied the locomotives and the rolling stock. They sold the insurance. The yeven furnished the management. The original cost of the railroads never was returned. But, indirectly, they recovered the original cost, and more, through those other operations.

Electric Show Into A Fair?

You'll have to hand it to that ubiquitous young citizen, Reddy Kilowatt.

He's certainly an energetic, thorough-going young fellow, and when he undertakes something, he usually handles the job to perfection down to the finest detail.

It seemed to me that the electric show presented here three days this past week under Reddy's direction was about the most professionally-expert commercial presentation that's ever been done around here. It wouldn't have taken much imagination to have made you think you were in the industrial building at the State fair.

In fact, about all that was needed around the high school grounds for those three nights was the all-pervading aroma of hamburgers cooking, the hoarse voices of some side-show barkers and the tinkle of merry-go-round music to have a real-oid-time fair.

For the kiddies, there were those able puppeteers, Paul Walton and Michael O'Rourke, and you really didn't have to be a youngster to enjoy their shows; for the curious adult there was an outstanding "atomic energy" analysis presented by Ray Schiff of the Westinghouse laboratories. You had some education there.

For the agricultural-minded, there were the pens of baby chicks and baby pigs and both big attractions; for the weary-of-feet, there was a continuous movie that let you look while you were sitting down.

And of course the housewife was completely entranced in examining the latest offerings in electric refrigerators, radios, washers and ironers, carpet sweepers, quick-freeze lockers, electric ranges and all the rest of the electric appliance line.

The success of the whole enterprise led me to wish, once again, that such displays and attractions could be merged with others for the staging of an out-and-out county fair.

You might say that the county fair idea is an out-moded one, but I think the crowds at the electric show prove otherwise. Add to such a display as that such exhibits as farm-products booths, HD club food and handiwork displays, some livestock exhibits and other commercial presentations, and you've got something that people will flock to see.

Big Spring has scattered its shots on kindred shows and exhibits, and it seems to me that a lot better county and community promotional work could be done by lumping them all together. I know that all types of shows can't be staged at the same time of year, but several of them can.

That business interests take to, and profit from, such display, was indicated in the interest shown by Big Spring's electric appliance dealers. Their booths were, without exception, good ones. Comes the time when they have cars, I'd bet that automobile dealers would join in such a show, too.

I recommend that this county tie on to such an undertaking as the electric show in the future, and try to get its cooperation as a nucleus of larger exhibits. Fritz Wehner could give some civic groups a lot of help in the arranging and staging of commercial displays, because he did an outstanding job at the electric show.

Something's been started here, and Reddy Kilowatt started it. As you might say, let's plug in on it.—BOB WHIPKEY

Tough Summer For Theatre?

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK.—My favorite Broadway businessman, George Solotare, tells me this summer will be the worst since the depression. "It'll be a typically brutal, prewar summer for the theatres and night clubs," said George. This opinion comes from a ticket agent with a 25-year history of guessin' 'em right.

In the old days, ticket agents charged what they chose for tickets. The custom was for agents to be on hand when a show tried it on the road before a Broadway opening. George and other agents would buy blocks of tickets for months ahead. When they guessed right, they had a valuable product in their safes. When they guessed wrong, they were holding the bag. Later, of course, when speculating in tickets was ruled illegal, the industry became less of a gamble and turned into the semi-brokerage it is today.

What, I asked George, were the chances for the various shows in this dip he anticipated? "The big five won't be hurt," said George. His favorite quintet, in order of their popularity among his customers, are "Mister Roberts," "A Streetcar Named Desire," "Inside U. S. A.," "High Button Shoes," and "Make Mine Manhattan."

"Some of the rest may struggle along until fall, but they won't make much, if any, profit," he added. "And watch for the weakies to fold around the first of June."

Of "Mr. Roberts," he says "it'll never close." George's nickname for "Streetcar" is "The Atom Bomb." The "cheap nut," or small expenses involved in "Angels in the Wings" will carry that revue through the summer, Solotare says. He gives "Finian's Rainbow" almost another year with a summer struggle first.

"Harvey," he says, can keep on going as long as Brock Pemberton can dig up stars to fill in for four-week periods, for novelty attraction. Another year he prophesies for "Annie Get Your Gun." "Born Yesterday," he says, is "still a 300 hitter." "Brigadoon" and "Command Decision," are not likely to close soon, he suggests.

'Award-Winning Film Deals With Anti-Jewish Issue

The picture which won the Academy Award as the best in 1947—"Gentlemen's Agreement"—is featured offering at the Ritz theatre today and Monday.

Termed a radical departure from customary Hollywood handling of "touchy" subjects, the picture deals forthrightly and provocatively with the topic of anti-Semitism in this country. It was for the bold treatment of this matter that "Gentlemen's Agreement" won the honor as tops for the year.

It contains an outstanding cast, too, with Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and John Garfield in the major roles. Other players are Celeste Holm, Anne Revere, June Havoc, Albert Decker and Jane Wyatt.

Produced by Darryl F. Zanuck and directed by Elia Kazan, the film is an adaptation of an outstanding book by Laura Hobson, one which got critical acclaim while also hitting the best-selling lists.

Says one review of "Gentlemen's Agreement":

"Regardless of preconceived feeling for or against its provocative premise concerning anti-Semitism in this country, all adult audiences are bound to be thoroughly entertained by the film's superb production and direction and its magnificent acting. Altogether a really superb, convincing presentation of a daringly dramatic subject."

Peck appears as a staff writer for a weekly magazine who is assigned by his publisher to do a series of articles on anti-Semitism. He decides that the only way he can get a new angle and real authenticity into his stories is to pretend he is a Jew. He takes his publisher, his fiancée and his family into his confidence but insists that no one else be informed. He experiences the social restrictions, the insults, etc., feels the anger and frustrations of a Jew exposed to these indignities; breaks with his fiancée because, although she hates anti-Semitism as he does, she is inclined to make excuses for it. They are brought together again as she realizes that the only cure for anti-Semitism is for decent people to actively fight it.

It is a controversial film, but dares to present its side of the controversy with vigor and direct approach.

YEAR'S BEST FILM—The Ritz theatre's feature for today and Monday is "Gentlemen's Agreement," winner of the Motion Picture Academy Award as 1947's best photoplay. It is a forthright presentation of the anti-Semitic issue. Principal cast members are in this scene: John Garfield, Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and Celeste Holm.

AT THE LYRIC—A scene that has more of a romantic air than that of action in this from "Wyoming," playing today and Monday at the State. Starring Bill Elliott, with Vera Ralston and John Carroll, the picture does, however, pack an exciting punch.

Basin Street Men Reunited In Film Billed At Terrace

A group of the outstanding jazz men of the country, men who started out with New Orleans' famed King Oliver in 1904 are reunited for the first time in 20 years under the baton of Louis Armstrong in Jules Levey's epic production of the evolution of jazz, "New Orleans."

The picture, showing today and Monday at the Terrace Drive-In theatre, through United Artists release, is Hollywood's first jazz story to treat the music as a dynamic art medium and to present the men responsible for it as artists instead of melody-drunk clowns.

"New Orleans," filmed in authentic Crescent City settings, provides a framework of romance—between a Louisiana gambler, Arturo de Cordova, and a young society girl, charming singing star, Dorothy Patrick—for the development of the elemental yet amazing sophisticated music which poured out of Basin Street to the distress of the classical tradition-minded citizenry.

Levey rounded up oldsters of the jazz world from all over the country, borrowing some of them from bands of their own, for the film. His roster of musicians includes, besides Armstrong: "Kid" Ory, trombonist; Barney Bigard, clarinetist; Zutty Singleton, drummer; "Papa Mutt" Carey, cornetist; and Bud Scott, guitarist as well as Red Callender, bass, and Charlie Beal, pianist (who doubles as musical technical adviser) who were too young to have joined in the early barrel house jam sessions. Songstress Billie Holiday, Meade "Lux" Lewis, master of the ivories, and Woody Herman and his band are also featured and Miss Patrick performs several classical arias.

Films Made Here To Be Screened June 24-25-26

The locally-made reel, "Big Spring Speaks," has been processed for screening, and will be presented at the Ritz theatre June 24-25-26, the Ritz management has announced.

This 30-minute film includes various street scenes in the city, shots of service clubs, schools and churches, scenic views and various downtown business establishments. It is estimated that some 3,000 local people appear in various sequences.

The local film will be offered in conjunction with the feature "T. Men."

De Carlo And Duryea Star In Lyric Film

Bringing two of history's most colorful romantic characters to the screen for the first time, "Black Bart" is the Lyric theatre's feature for today and Monday. The Technicolor film stars Yvonne De Carlo, Dan Duryea and Jeffrey Lynn with Percy Kilbride heading a brilliant supporting cast.

Miss De Carlo portrays Lola Montez, internationally famous dancing beauty of the nineteenth century. The story deals with an episode in the triumphant tour of the dancing star during her sojourn in California under the management of P. T. Barnum.

The providential meeting of the lovely Lola with California's dashing Gentleman Bandit, Black Bart, played by Duryea, brings about the romantic action of the fast-moving screen story. Black Bart, alias Charlie Boles, was the scourge of the Wells Fargo Company's stage-coach express service. With his sidekick, Lance Hardeen, played by Lynn, he all but drives the express company out of Northern California.

The characters played by Lynn and Kilbride are fictional. The

Bill Elliott Is Star Of State's Western Drama

One of the biggest outdoor pictures ever produced at Republic Studios, with an all star cast, plays today and Monday at the State theatre.

The important cast is headed by William Elliott, Vera Ralston, John Carroll, and featuring George "Gabby" Hayes, the film is a story of the old West when Wyoming was still government territory, and had not yet been opened to homesteaders.

What happens when the "nesters" begin to settle down on the cattlemen's property makes for an exciting and colorful story. Elliott, who has gained popularity with his portrayal of western roles, is at his best in this picture, and once again his feminine co-star is lovely blonde Vera Ralston, who plays the role of his daughter. Elliott's love interest is Virginia Grey, for whose affections Elliott and Albert Dekker engage in one of the toughest fights ever screened.

As the cattle baron whose word is law until the government opens up the land to homesteaders, Elliott has a powerful role cut to his measure.

Interested persons can contact Cook in care of the Navy Recruiter's office, post office building.

mild-mannered, philosophical Kilbride as a western badman is a casting that makes for high comedy.

Miss De Carlo's gay Spanish dances, the breathtaking western vistas, and the suspenseful holdups, rides and gun-fights highlight the drama.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By Leatrice Ross

The time is nigh. At 2 p. m. today somebody will be named "Miss Big Spring of 1948" in the High Heel Slipper club's annual revue at the city pool. Past such affairs stimulate us to advise that you come early. We saw last year's revue as a contorted picture through dozens of assorted profiles.

We have heard a rumor that the 1948 beauty contest will not discriminate against the married girls. Previously the race has always been limited to the single among females.

Vacations et al have been picking up this week. Kay Tollett left Wednesday for Norfolk, Va., to spend a short time. After Norfolk, Kay will see Washington, D. C., New York City, Boston and Philadelphia and will be home around June 25. O. F. Priest, Jr., left Friday morning for a motor trip to Chicago and a week's vacation.

Bill Merrick has been clowning with a Clovis, N. M., rodeo during the past week or so. Jody Rice, former Big Springer now residing in San Angelo, spent Wednesday here. Kitty and Jack Martin are back home in Robert Lee for the summer. Houseguests with Mary Nell Cook have been Judy Blanton of Temple and Lyn Allday of Austin, fellow students at Southwestern university. Judy and Lyn left Saturday morning following a coke party given by Mary Nell Friday night.

Ernest Moore, now with a job in Lamesa, spent Thursday evening in town. Nellie Gray is enrolled in summer classes at TSCW. Nellie is living in Corpus Christi. Ralph Wilson is working in Odessa through the summer.

Elected this week, Bill Beauchamp is new prexy of the 20-30 club. The group has a steak dinner coming up Wednesday evening. Cecil Chambers is still trying to make up his mind whether or not to re-join the Merchant Marines. Robert Coffee is working with the T & P these days.

LaVerne Hampton, who some months ago moved back to Houston, was in town lately. She came up for Clarice McCasland's marriage last weekend to James McPhail, and was enroute to Odessa where she has a job with Texas Oil. LaVerne and Jane Norris, also newly employed in Odessa, will bunk together.

Surprise. There are still a few people not on vacation. New faces in summer school classes at HCJC are Bill Newsom, Don Newsom, Joe Bruce Cunningham (TU), Gray Birkhead of Coahoma, Glenn Smith, Ayelyn Hohertz (TSCW), Jeanne Slaughter, Bonnie Anderson of Luther, Anita Merket from Colorado City. Carolyn Sholte, a former student at the University of Houston, Nell Davies from Texarkana, Emma Lou Calvit of DeKalb, Mickey Butts (TU), Marlene Burnett, Aubrey Harris, Jeff Jenkins, Christine Jagers, Nell Ruth Ratliff.

Mary Nell Cook entertained Friday night with a coke party for the girls. Present: Cody Selkirk, Patsy Ann Timpkins, Beverly Stulting, Dorothy Satterwhite, Helon Blount, Melba Douglass, Bobbie June Bobb, Anna Claire Waters, Joyce Jones, Patti McDonald, Jean Ellen Chown, and Lyn Allday of Austin and Judy Blanton of Temple.

Cpl. Bennett Petty, stationed at Lowry Field, Denver, Colo., has been assigned to building a radar system for a new B-36 training project at Lowry Field. The work has been given priority over all other on the base.

Marceline Bryant, Thomas Yeats To Wed In August

The bride-elect is a graduate of Big Spring high school and is employed by the City of Big Spring. Yeats is a graduate of Etowah high school and attended the University of Alabama. He is now employed by Cosden Petroleum Corporation.
