Shirley Temple At The Ritz In Latest Starring Film, 'Poor Little Rich Girl'

ROMANCE TEAM

Is Supported By An Outstanding Cast Of Players

No. 1 attraction of all Hollywood's players, charming little Shirley Temple, graces the screen of the Ritz theater Sunday and Monday as the star of a new production, "The Poor Little Rich Girl." Advance reports have it that the picture is one of Shirley's best, and she is surrounded by a capable cast.

She has Alice Faye to hi-de-ho with; Jack Haley to tap dance with; Gloria Stuart to cry to, and Michael Whalen to make love to. The picture also is outstanding for new musical hits and novelty numbers. Shirley, who naturally monopolizes the play, is given opportunity to display her talents in singing, dancing, being gay and being sad.

Shirley, in the title role, is seen as the daughter of Whalen, a wealthy young business man who is too occupied with making money to devote much time to his daughter. She is sent to boarding school and gets lost from her chaperon. The chaperon later is injured in an accident, and the girl's disappearance goes unreported for some time.

On the Brillo

By that time, she has been taken in by Tony, organ grinder, who adds her to his already large family of children. She sings and dances for Tony, and catches the attention of Alice Faye and Jack Haley, an out-of-work vaudeville team, and they take her into the act. The three land an important radio contract.

The father, through the influence of Gloria Stuart, with whom he has fallen in love, is persuaded to listen to the radio program—it happens to be a competitor's hour—and is astounded to recognize his own daughter's voice on the air. He doesn't just dash down to the broadcasting studio and bring Shirley home for several complications enter the plot and there's a whirlwind of exciting events before the climax is reached.

Shirley's five new songs are by the noted team of Gordon and Revel. They include "When I'm With You," "But Definitely," "You Gotta Eat Your Spinach, Baby," "Oh My Goodness," and "Military Man." Shirley's dancing performances are said to top anything she has done before.

the many shore stations. Literature regarding the duties and opportunities of a Marine will be furnished upon request at room No. 822, Allen building, 1709 Commerce street, Dallas, Tex.

SHIRLEY HAS A NEW DADDY

Shirley Temple, starred in "The Poor Little Rich Girl," at the Ritz Sunday and Monday, has a new daddy to make love to. He is Michael Whalen, seen above with the little star. Others in the cast of Shirley's new picture are Alice Faye, Jack Haley and Gloria Stuart.

PEACE CONGRESS TO CONVENE ON SEPTEMBER 3 TO MARSHAL NEW STRENGTH FOR LEAGUE

GENEVA, Aug. 1 (UP)—A worldwide peace campaign to arouse public opinion against the horrors and futility of war and show the urgent need for rebuilding the collective system will be launched at an international peace congress which meets here September 3 to 6.

The congress, which is being organized under the leadership of Lord Cecil, president of the British League of Nations Union and Pierre Cot, France's minister of air, will be a gathering ground for representatives of peace societies, war veterans associations, trade unions, Christian organizations, cooperative societies, women's groups, medical associations and teachers' federations.

National committees are said to be working in more than 30 countries, including Britain, France, the United States, Russia, Argentina, Canada, Chile, Guatemala, Haiti, Mexico, and Paraguay.

Parades Are Banned
The Swiss federal council has authorized the holding of the congress here on condition that no parades or open-air demonstrations are held and that the list of delegates is submitted beforehand to the federal authorities. These cautionary measures have been taken to meet the assertions made in a number of right-wing Swiss newspapers that the congress is communist-inspired.

The basis of the peace campaign is laid in a four-point program which is stated to indicate "the indispensable minimum requirements of any collective system for the organization of peace."

- These four points are:
- 1. Restoration of the sanctity of treaty obligations.
- 2. Reduction and limitation of armaments by international agreement and suppression of profit from the manufacture of arms.
- 3. Strengthening of the league of nations for the prevention and stopping of war by the more effective organization of collective security and mutual assistance.
- 4. Establishment, within the framework of the league of nations of effective machinery for the remedying by peaceful means of international conditions which might lead to war.

New Group Not Planned
The organizers stress that no new separate international organization is envisaged, but rather the coordination of existing bodies which are working for peace through the league of nations.

Latin Americans cooperating in the preparations for the campaign include Dr. Emilio Pizarro Crespo of Rosario, Argentina; Idelfonso Pereda Valdes, professor at the University of Montevideo, Uruguay; Camillo Frugony, Uruguayan writer; and Gustavo Salgado, professor at the University of Quito, Ecuador.

'Dancing Lady' Attraction At Lyric Theatre

Joan Crawford And Clark Gable Seen In New Showing Of Film Success

A renewed showing of one of the most successful pictures made by the romance team of Joan Crawford and Clark Gable, "Dancing Lady," headlines the Lyric theatre's program for three days beginning Sunday.

In the role of a dancing girl, Miss Crawford appears in the type with which she first gained popularity. In this picture which is produced on a lavish scale and which presents a cast of well-known names and a hundred chorus beauties.

Miss Crawford is seen as the girl born to dance who fights her way to fame on Broadway. Gable's role is one of his two-fisted characterizations. He plays the part of a hard-boiled dance director in a musical comedy who eventually falls in love with the chorus whom he has tried unsuccessfully to browbeat. Outstanding names in the supporting cast are those of Franchot Tone, May Robson, Winnie Lightner, Fred Astaire, Robert Benchley, Ted Healy and his stooges, Gloria Foy, Art Jarrett, Grant Mitchell, Maynard Holmes, Nelson Eddy and Sterling Holloway.

Are Stars Now

Two of the players, Fred Astaire, who dances with Miss Crawford, and Nelson Eddy, have become movie stars in their own right since appearing in supporting parts in "Dancing Lady."

Miss Crawford is seen as a burlesque dancer who, befriended by a rich young socialite, makes her way up the Broadway ladder to a top musical comedy. There she has difficulty in getting a job under Gable; but Tone's influence gets her a place in the show, much to the dance director's disgust. He makes things uncomfortable for her, but she sticks to the show; and the two—dancer and director—eventually stage a big success on the stage and find happiness in love.

Music, dancing and production numbers grace the picture. Miss Crawford, Art Jarrett and Eddy are heard in songs, and Miss Crawford and Astaire dance, with chorus numbers providing the background.

Some of the song numbers in the picture are "Let's Go Bavarian," "Heigh Ho," "Everything I Have Is Yours," "That's The Rhythm of the Day," and "Dancing Lady."

WITH BAXTER

The clowning of Jack Oakie (above) contributes to the entertainment of "King of Burlesque," which plays at the Queen for three days beginning Sunday. Warner Baxter has the starring role.

Warner Baxter heads the cast for the picture, which includes Alice Faye, Jack Oakie, Arline Judge, Mona Barrie, Gregory Ratoff, Dixie Dunbar, Kenny Baker, Fats Waller and Nick Long. Among the featured personalities, although the picture is a revealing glimpse into the gaudy world of the burlesque, it does not confine its action to backstage drama, but presents the life story of a genius of the theater, played by Warner Baxter.

Broadway Career

With his two sides, Alice Faye and Oakie, Baxter has climbed from side street honky-tonks to Broadway's great showhouses. Then when he falls in love with and marries a society woman who represents everything he had hoped to attain, he deserts his friends. Things go from bad to worse with Baxter until his wife, Mona Barrie, deserts him. When things look blackest, his old friends return to help him in a new spectacular venture, and he finds that the girl who had befriended him is the one he loves.

"King of Burlesque" is brightened by a host of new songs, dance novelties and other sparkling production numbers. Introduced in specialty acts are several stars of the screen, stage and radio. Among them are Dixie Dunbar, the diminutive dancer who ranks among the best; Fats Waller, the pianist singer who has achieved popularity through phonograph recordings; Kenny Baker, the vocalist, and others.

GAINES, YOAKUM TESTS GO BEYOND PRODUCING HORIZONS

Howard Well Pumps 20 Bbls. Hourly After Treatment; Lease Deal Closed

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 1. — The passing by one wildcat each in Gaines and Yoakum counties of the horizons in which oil was struck by the lone producer in each county was watched most closely in the West Texas Permian Basin this week. A $100,000 cash deal was recorded in the sale of an 80-acre producing lease in the McCamey district in Upton county by Wm. W. Gruber and C. D. McCabe of San Angelo, Harry Baldwin of McCamey and J. E. Sullivan of Big Spring to the International Petroleum Corp. of Los Angeles.

A feature was the pumping of 20 barrels of oil hourly for 24 hours by Cardinal No. 2 Settles in Howard county from upper Permian a that was made accessible by an shooting 8 1/4-inch casing, then treated with 1,000 gallons of acid. The well had been plugged back into the pipe from 2,988 feet and before being treated showed 4,620 feet. It is 230 feet from the west line of section 6-32-2a T&P.

Failures included Jeff Davis on wildcat, C. M. (Dad) Joiner and others No. 1 Jones & Corfield, at 2,065 feet, and Cardinal and Rowan Nichols No. 1 J. A. Whitten in Schleicher county, at 5,076 feet.

38 Completions

Completions outnumbered locations for the first time in several weeks, 38 to 24. Ward county listed eight completions, Ector, Upton and Winkler counties six each, Pecos county four, Jones three, Howard two and Crockett, Fisher and Schleicher one each. Ward county also led in locations with eight, Upton and Winkler counties gained four each, Glasscock, Jones and Pecos counties two each and Brewster and Crane counties one each.

Humble No. 1 C. H. Eubanks, Gaines county wildcat seven miles northwest of Landreth No. 1 W. H. Kirk, only well in the county, showed streaks of saturation in lime cored from 4,620-38 feet but showed only drilling water on drill stem tests from 4,568 and from 4,620 to 4,778 feet. It cored ahead 4,860 feet, 1,455 feet below a level. Location is in the southwest corner of section 6-AX-psl.

Landreth No. 1 Kirk, in the southwest corner of section 22-A21-psl, plugged back from 4,870 to 4,855 feet but was delayed in testing for a shutoff of three-quarters of a barrel of sulphur water hourly by the loss of a barrel. The barrel had been recovered and testing was scheduled late in the week. No. 1 Kirk obtained some increase in oil in deepening 50 feet to 4,870 and bailed 120 barrels of oil in 16 hours.

No Shows at 3,195 Feet

Bahan, Rhodes & Fitzpatrick No. 1 Honard, Yoakum county wildcat three miles northwest of Plains, had showed no oil, gas or water in drilling to 5,195 feet in hard gray lime, 1,594 feet below sea level. There was an odor of oil but no shows in the last 50 feet of sandstone. The test was below the two horizons in which pay was obtained by Yoakum's discovery well and only producer, Honolulu and Cascade No. 1 Bennett, 13 miles to the southeast. No. 1 Honard, in the southwest corner of section 267-D-John H. Gibson survey, ran higher structurally than No. 1 Bennett.

Stogner & Roosevelt No. 1 Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt, Yoakum wildcat six miles northeast of No. 1 Honard and in the northeast quarter of section 215-D-John H. Gibson, had drilled to 4,135 feet in anhydrite and sand.

Honolulu-Cascade No. 1 Duggan, southeastern Cochran county wildcat in the center of labour 13, lease 65, Oldham county school land, was scheduled to resume drilling early next week at 2,297 feet in anhydrite after standardizing.

J. C. Maxwell, Inc. No. 2 Garter, in the west part of the Keyes pool was one of the larger wells completed in Winkler county this week, flowing 1,712 barrels of oil in 24 hours through casing after a 4,600 quart shot from 2,810 to 3,100 feet total depth. It is in the southeast corner of section 23-26-psl. Tide Water No. 6 Walton in the southwest quarter of section 24-26-psl, flowed 527 barrels of oil in 24 hours through casing, bottomed at 2,920 feet, following a shot.

Flows 1,243 Barrels

The California Co. No. 5 Adams, in the same section with No. 1 Adams, quarter mile north extension to the South Ward field in Ward county, was completed at 2,586 feet after a shot, flowing 1,243 barrels of oil daily through tubing. It is in the south quarter of section 39-34-HATC. Alan Hargrave No. 1 M. L. Coons, almost two miles southwest of Richardson No. 2 Hathaway, Ward county's largest natural producer, 4,515 barrels in 24 hours at 2,868 feet—had drilled to 2,513 feet.

Steve Currie and others No. 1 T-P Land Trust in Ector county, northeast outpost in the Waddell pool in Crane county, topped pay at 3,338 feet and filled rapidly with 2,900 feet of oil. It drilled ahead at 3,338 feet in lime, estimated good for 50 barrels daily. Location is 2,310 feet from the east line of section 3-44-1s-T&P.

Landreth No. 1-B Scharbauer, east offset to Dunning No. 1 Scharbauer, 1 1/2 mile northwest extension to the Goldsmith pool in Ector county, responded to treatment with 5,000 gallons of acid by flowing 22 barrels of oil hourly early in its test. It is 440 feet from the south line and 2,200 feet from the east line of section 33-44-1s-T&P. After shooting the well gauged 361 barrels of oil in 24 hours.

Tops Brown Lime

Grisham-Hunter Corporation No. 1 R. B. Cowden, wildcat in extreme northwestern Ector county, was credited with topping the brown lime at 3,373 feet, 573 feet below sea level and 42 feet lower than in Davidson-Atlantic No. 1 H. E. Cummins, small discovery well, 1 1/2 miles to the south and slightly east. It drilled ahead at 3,917 feet in lime and anhydrite.

In the North Cowden pool in Ector county, Stanoline No. 33 J. M. Cowden flowed 1,605 barrels of oil in 24 hours through casing, after shooting from 4,173 to 4,276 feet. It is 1,980 feet from the north and west lines of section 35-43-1s-T&P. Sun No. 7-A Wight, 1,980 feet from the south line and 2,200 feet from the east line of section 2-43-1s-T&P, was shot from 4,150 to 4,275 feet and flowed 835 barrels of oil in 24 hours through casing. Continental No. 3 Holt, in the southwest corner of section 20-A-psl, a producer in the making, struck a small amount of water in drilling to 4,333 feet and plugged back for a shutoff.

York & Harper, Inc., prepared to start a wildcat five miles west of the Goldsmith pool and about midway between two dry holes drilled by the Exploration company five miles apart. It will be No. 1 Slater, 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 26-45-1s-T&P.

George B. McCamey's No. 1 Cordova-Union Land company offset to Brewer & Smith's No. 1 Cordova, opener of a new Upton county producing area 1 1/2 miles southeast of the Hurdle field, pumped 200 barrels of oil in 15 hours following treatment of the lime with 1,500 gallons of acid. It logged pay from 2,040-55 and from 2,078-82 feet, struck 4 1/2 barrels of water hourly, from 2,093 to 2,096 feet, the total depth, and plugged back three feet for a shutoff. Location is 2,970 feet from the south line and 2,310 feet from the east line of section 19-1-MKT.

The Upton county producing tract sold by W. W. Gruber and C. D. McCabe of San Angelo, Harry Baldwin of McCamey and J. E. ABILENE, Aug. 1.—Jones county's most closely watched wildcat test this week was the Owens-Snebold Oil corporation No. 1 S. Gorman, two miles north of the Martin No. 1 Spurrier which opened a new pool for the eastern section of the county. One eastern wildcat was abandoned.

The Gorman test, being drilled by Ungren & Frazier of Abilene, drilled only dry lime in the Hope horizon from 2,008 to 2,085 feet, but was continuing ahead high on gaging six-inch casing to 1,500 feet. structure for the King sand. MUNY LEAGUE SOFTBALL PLAYOFF STARTS MONDAY NIGHT

OILERS AND CHEMISTS TO CLASH

One of the most interesting softball playoffs since the game was introduced here three years ago will start Monday at 8:30 p. m. when the Codens Oilers and the Codens Chemists clash on the Muny Park diamond in the first game of a two out of three series.

The regular season was not to have ended until August 13, but inasmuch as the Codens Oilers have entered an all-West Texas tournament in San Angelo starting August 15 and plans are being made for a district softball meet here August 28-29, league officials decided to cut the regular season short.

The league teams played a split season schedule, with the Oilers coping first half honors and the Labmen nosing out their arch rivals for the second half championship. Spikes Henninger's Oilers were undefeated during the first half but made a bad start in the second half and finished with seven wins and two losses.

The Chemists won the second half with eight wins and one loss. The single loss was last Thursday night to the Oilers, 7-5.

Mgr. Ernie Richardson of the Lab team is expected to make only one addition to his club. He will probably have Toddy Williamson in left field in place of McCleskey. The rest of his lineup will be H. Swatzy ss, Payne c, Madison rf, Koberg 3b, Terrazas 1b, Harvey m, Groseclose 2b, Wallin ss, and Van Zandt p. Van Zandt is the star twirler of the league.

Henninger will have his regular lineup: West 2b, Smith 1b, Morgan 3b, Ramsey ss, Baker c, Martin m, Towneend ss, Moxley lf, Spikes rf, and R. Swatzy p.

The second game will be played Tuesday night and if a third game is necessary it will be played Wednesday.

Smith Charts New Grid Era For Villanova

The "Clipper" Starts Hunt For Bigger Stadium This Fall

By ROBERT VERMILLION
United Press Staff Correspondent
VILLANOVA, Pa., Aug. 1 (UP)—A new and golden era of football supremacy and a return to the days when Villanova college battled the "gridiron greats of Army and Navy," is the goal of Maurice J. "Clipper" Smith, new coach.

The "Clipper" arrived at Villanova from Santa Clara university, promptly called a conference of sports writers and the school's directing body, announced to all that the new regime was under way, and observed that none of his friends called him "Maurice."

Smith, who came to the Pennsylvania school as athletic director and football coach, with the high recommendation of his predecessor, Harry Stuhldreher, earned the odd nickname while playing with Notre Dame in 1917.

A young chemistry professor named Knute Rockne, who had been quite a player himself, had just become head coach. Smith was one of his first proteges and played fullback, wingback, center and guard—as the occasion demanded.

Nickname From Rockne
The day Notre Dame met the Great Lakes naval training base, "Clipper" was playing guard. When a couple of the service men asked Rockne the name of the little fellow who bowled them over so consistently, Rockne replied, "That's the Clipper Smith."

Smith stood about five feet, seven inches at the time and weighed only 145 pounds. He was one of the first "midget" guards, and says now that he prefers a man at the guard position who is "not so tall and weighs about 170. I want no hulking gorillas."

Smith employs the Notre Dame style of play, but with astonishing variations. He is regarded as a colorful coach and his teams always please the crowd. His only fault, according to opponents, is that they can't depend on him. He rarely does the same thing twice and never repeats himself on successive Saturdays.

Smith is looking forward to a reunion with Pop Warner and Ernie Nevers, former coaching buddies on the Pacific coast. Warner now directs gridiron warfare at Temple university, Villanova's traditional rival, and Nevers is coaching at Lafayette.

Wants To Beat Warner
"There is no coach I'd rather play and beat than Pop," the "Clipper" said. "I took him over once on the coast. Santa Clara beat Stanford 13-7 my first season there."

Pop Warner praised Smith, and said he is one of the better "younger coaches in the country." The "Clipper" has been coaching for 17 years.

Fears that the Villanova stadium will not accommodate the crowds which will flock to see the new Wildcat team prompted a survey of the stadium situation in the Philadelphia area. The "Clipper" has his eye on huge Municipal stadium, which seats about 100,000. The Phillies ball park, home grounds of the Philadelphia Eagles professional football team, also is a prospective location, but a deal with the University of Pennsylvania is not likely.

Smith inherits a hard schedule for a first year coach. The Villanova team opens September 26

Big Track Man

Don Laah, a fancy gridiron stepper as well as being a track star, will be America's best bet in the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs in the Berlin Olympic games. According to Paavo Nurmi, probably the greatest marathon runner of all time, the ex-Northwestern footballer should take the 5,000 meter race. Laah recently set a new indoor record in that event and has been showing good form in Germany.

Mike Jacobs May Lose On Sharkey Bout

Louis-Sharkey Tiff May Be Outstanding Mismatch Of Century

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The Joe Louis-Jack Sharkey tiff, listed for Yankee stadium, August 18, is a miserable piece of match-making. It is Mike Jacobs' first mistake since the old ticket scalper stepped out as front man for the Hearst newspapers' prize fight department.

Pairing Sharkey with Louis is a step backward. Why dig up the showman sailor when there are young fellows like Al Ettore, Leroy Haynes, Andre Lenglet and John Henry Lewis lying around handy? Why not make Louis tackle one of those who came up with him?

Record books show that Sharkey will be 34 years of age in October, and many who know him quite well suspect that he is considerably older. The gob couldn't whip three punches together with balling wrist when he laid down and played dead when he was alleged to have been struck by Primo Carnera's push punch in the sixth round in 1933.

It is a sure gamble that all of the tears will not be spilled by Sharkey in Yankee stadium, Aug. 18. The customers are likely to get sentimental with remorse after plunking down cash to witness one of boxing's outstanding mismatches of the century.

World Champion Optimist
Jacobs says that the savage battle will gross more than $300,000, which qualifies the 49th street duelist as the world champion optimist.

Sharkey never was a satisfactory performer even in his heyday. For a fellow who turned in one languid exhibition after another, the squire of Chestnut Hill has done remarkably well in New York, which is something in the day of additional proof that the big burg produces more suckers than P. T. Barnum ever dreamed of. Sharkey generally not only left much to be desired in the ring but unfavorable after-thoughts as well. In a good share of his starts, he either fell foul or fouled out himself.

The Louis appointment will be Sharkey's fifth in a most unimpressive comeback campaign. It is likely to be his last. One more rood chunk of dough is all the old Beantown crying man has been angling for and it looks as though he's hooked his quarry with the Louis shot.

Sharkey threw kisses at the crowd the night Carnera ironed him out with that phantom uppercut. The promoters should have taken the bluejacket at his word and permitted him to remain behind his Boston bar.

There is so little excuse for pairing Sharkey with Louis that the more suspicious wonder if, after all, it is true what they whisper about the promoters or someone, owing the leering Lithuanian something and paying the debt after three long years. The patrons managed to struggle along without Sharkey in the interim, by the way.

Sharkey No Test for Louis
Louis may require a little help in his next start, although hardly as much as Sharkey can be counted upon to give him the first time against Pennsylvania Military college and continues to November 21, with games against Detroit, Penn State, Western Maryland, Boston university, Bucknell, South Carolina and Temple, in that order.

N'YORKERS HOLDING 9 1/2 GAME LEAD

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1.—Johnny Murphy relieved fading Vernon Gomez in the eighth inning here Saturday to pitch the New York Yankees to their second straight victory over the Cleveland Indians. The Yanks scored a run in the tenth to win out, 5-4.

Johnny Allen pitched seven innings for the Ohioans and gave way to Dennis Galehouse in the eighth. The latter faltered in the tenth and Thornton Lee succeeded him. The New Yorkers collected a total of 11 hits off the trio while Cleveland got to Gomez and Murphy for 14 bingles.

Odell Hale hit for the circuit in the fifth to give the Indians their first run, and Hal Trosky clouted out a homer in the eighth to tie the score.

The victory placed the Yankees nine and a half games ahead of the Clevelanders.

the former champion is hit solidly. I hear that Smokey Joe, badly discouraged by his knockout by Max Schmeling, hasn't been responding to the curfew as promptly as he once did.

John Roxborough, his manager, makes no secret of the fact that Louis was beginning to acquire a slightly inflated cranium prior to bumping into Schmeling's jarring right hand.

"Maybe the knockout by Schmeling was all for the best," says Roxborough. "Joe reached a point where he was giving orders instead of taking them. He got so that he fitted his work to his moods."

Max Baer would be vastly more suitable as an opponent for Louis than Sharkey. And how does Jacobs and the Hearst newspapers' prize fight department expect the younger cron, Ettore, Haynes, Lenglet, and Lewis, to get anywhere unless they are given an opportunity? Surely, Louis hasn't drawing the color line against Haynes and Lewis.

Sharkey has nothing with which to worry Louis now. At his best, the flighty sailor couldn't prove whether the negro could weather a healthy jaw jolt, which is still the biggest question in regard to the Dark Angel, despite the conclusive proof furnished by Schmeling. It is hard to believe that Louis lost enough to run second to a hasbeen who never was too much. So why Sharkey?

Start Plans For Annual C. C. Tourney

Local Players To Advertise Event Today At Lubbock Meet

Country club golfers will make their first advertising swing today to line-up a large number of fairway fanners for the annual tourney starting August 8. Finals will be played on Labor day, August 7. Shirley Robbins will head a group of ten or twelve golfers to Lubbock today to take part in the formal opening of the grass green country club course there and to advertise the event here. Robbins said he expected a large number of golfers this year from points in New Mexico, and has received word that a tournament veteran will be here from El Paso.

Committees will be appointed this month and an intensive advertising campaign launched. This may be the last tournament here on sand greens, as a movement has been started to install grass putting carpets, and a majority of the golfers seem to be in favor of the live greens.

Charley Worley, country club pro, has already started dressing up the course.

BIG SPRING PLAYERS TO LUBBOCK

With local Sand Belt golfers scheduled to take part in a grass green celebration today at the Lubbock country club, only two league matches will be played today. Lamesa will play at Stanton and Odessa at Midland.

Big Spring linksmen, with a thirty-four point lead, have the league championship sewed up, but one more match is on the regular schedule.

Final matches will be played on August 16—Lamesa at Odessa, Midland at Big Spring and Stanton at Colorado.

The Big Spring-Colorado match scheduled for today will be played next week, Shirley Robbins announced Saturday after conversation with Colorado golfers.

Suggestions For The Wardrobe Of Late Summer Vacationer

When a young lady who works for her daily bread goes vacationing she generally desires to get away from the every-day run of clothes—to be where she can wear fussy things that she doesn't wear ordinarily. In the pictures today are some suggestions for frivolous moods. At the left is a lovely evening wrap of soft ruby velvet, sun-ray pleated from neck to hem. The high round neckline is tied with a velvet cord and held with a shimmering clip of rubies and diamonds.

In the center is a conservative little model that is designed for those last hot summer days to keep the wearer cool. It combines a simple frock and short jacket with her dilly bread goes vacationing she generally desires to get away from the every-day run of clothes—to be where she can wear fussy things that she doesn't wear ordinarily.

It is ideal for luncheon and afternoon wear for the active miss who rarely misses anything. If your baggage must be limited there will be nothing more practical than a dancing frock similar to the one shown at the right. With the coat it is a dinner suit, without the coat a dancing frock. This model is shown fashioned from sea shell lace in white. Note the tailored belt.

Windy West Not Practical Place For Fancy Feathered Bonnets; Small Hats Favored For Fall

Windy West Texas will probably have a deciding say in the early fall hat styles that western women choose.

While the east shows creations that are not unlike a strutting peacock western buyers are more conservative and more of the hats are small, close-fitting ones.

Many new types of hats are now being shown among which are those of the cone crown, the manipulated crown, beret effects and bow turbans.

The cone crown ones are smart and saucy and very plain, depending on their design rather than trimming for attractiveness. The Dutch effect is taking a prominent place this year and many "toppers" are shown with turned up front and back rather broad brims.

These are made a little more unusual with the addition of a streamer which hangs down the back to the nape of the neck.

The beret type is due its place in the sun. The material from which these will be fashioned will be the chief attraction. It is suede and antelope. The turbans will be trimmed with bows of every shape and size and of practically every material possible. This is by far the dressiest style shown and will probably be chosen for the afternoon dress more than for the sportswear type, but it may be worn with either type dress.

Novelty creations are, of course, being shown at this early date and, as usual, won't stay with the style for a very long period, but there are those women who just can't wear the Dutch type so they stick to the broton which they wear with complete comfort and a well dressed feeling. With off the face hats the wearer spends most of the time with her hand on her head and a worried expression on her face.

The choicest hat for a suit will be very tall and the only trim will be a band of ribbon and perhaps a small flat bow on the top. These may be worn most any way one may think of, but the most stylish way will be straight on the head and pulled a little forward.

Colors this fall will blend more than they have in the past seasons. Hata, slippers, and bags are being made of the same materials and designs to insure a more uniform color or shade in accessories. However, there are many bright colored ones.

Black hats with white trim are more popular now with the late summer darks, but British tan is used in many types and will probably be the most popular of all fall shades because it is practical and can be worn with most any shade that will be shown for fall and winter in dresses and suits.

Elegance In Lingerie Is Stylish Now

'Little Tailored Things'
Being Replaced By
Feminine Frills

By ADELAIDE KEHR
A renaissance of elegance in lingerie has swept into the fashion world with the fall mode.

Negligees and night dresses alike reflect the "grand dame" effect which is a far cry from the "little tailored pieces" so much in vogue a few seasons ago. The flounces of the gay nineties have not returned but 1936-37 lingerie is cut on lines of slender grace which sound a decided note of femininity.

Lace Used Liberally
The empire line, reminiscent of the glamorous Empress Josephine, marks the new fall nightdresses. Besides these there are "cropped" line often accented by a soft ribbon girdle. Many nightdresses are designed with short puffed sleeves and fairly high necklines.

Lace—white, ivory and deep cream which falls just short of ecru—is used liberally in yokes, incrustations and edgings. Valenciennes, Binches and Alencon are among the favorites.

More white lingerie is being shown, and ivory and pearl shades also are smart. Tea rose, a deeper misty pink, turquoise and aquamarine likewise are reflected on the lingerie color palette, while black still holds a place in both nightdresses and daytime lingerie. Crepe satin with a soft lustrous finish is the favorite fabric, though triple georgette and very sheer crepe also are used. Several nightdresses combine two fabrics, as a satin skirt and a tucked triple georgette top.

Negligees likewise reflect the renaissance of elegance. Among the new fall designs are house coats of heavy matelasse crepe in such tones as deep blue and red, designed with long, loose sleeves, fitted bodices and rather wide gored skirts.

Rich Colors Seen
molding the bust with a high waist and crepe satin pajama suits, also in rich deep colors, combining a short sleeved shirt top, wide trousers and a loose three-quarter length coat—all of the same material. There also are pale satin negligees with liberal lace incrustations.

With the fall mode expected to emphasize the slender waist and diaphragm, corsets follow a form fitted silhouette, which aims at a supple slowness from waist to hips. Some models for early fall wear, designed for coolness on the last warm days, have volle fronts and "elasticated" backs which can stretch two ways, thus holding the figures in a firm mold and eliminating the necessity of girdling. Girdles are shown with both attached and detached brassieres.

Slips to top them are cut on a princess silhouette, designed to emphasize the slender diaphragm, and finished with a modded brassiere-like top, often lace trimmed. The brassiere and pantie combination is shown for wear with sports and tailored clothes.

cream and maroon colors by Johnson Brothers, local painting contractors. The altars and stained glass windows have also been thoroughly cleaned. The statuary and stations of the Way of the Cross are now being retouched and refinished by Mrs. La Velle, local artist. Tomorrow, Saturday, the floor will be waxed and electrically polished.

Everybody, as usual, is invited to the services. A large crowd is expected, so come early if you want a back seat.

New Exhibits Received By City Museum

Doors Opened To Public After Ten Days Of Rearranging

A more conveniently arranged West Texas museum was opened to the public Saturday after a remodeling under the direction of Mrs. Mary Bumpass, museum director. The place has been closed to the public for the past ten days in order to make changes necessary to take care of material which is expected to arrive soon.

Latest pieces to arrive are three plaster of paris busts which were obtained from the Museum of Natural History in New York City. These are busts of members of three different tribes that inhabit the Philippine Islands. They are from the Tagalo, the Visayan, and Mangayan tribes.

Also new is the Rose Window of St. Jose painting which was presented by Mr. and Mrs. James Schmidley. It has been hung at the west end and with the matching drapes makes a lovely scene.

Show cases have been placed around the walls and in a U-shape in the center of the hall allowing easy access to all pieces on display.

EMPLOYMENT AND PAYROLL GAINS ARE SHOWN DURING JULY

AUSTIN, Aug. 1.—Employment in Texas industry and trade during July increased moderately over the corresponding month last year and slightly over June, the University of Texas bureau of business research has announced.

Total pay rolls of the reporting firms increased even more substantially than did the number of employees. Reports from representative groups of Texas establishments to the bureau show the total number of employees during the week ended July 18 to have increased 6.3 per cent over the corresponding week last year, and about one-half per cent over that of the month before. Total pay rolls for the two comparable periods were up 11.9 per cent from a year ago and one per cent from June.

Cities making better showing than the state average were: Abilene, Beaumont, Denison, Fort Worth and Sherman.

Groups of industries with gains above the state average were: building materials, furniture manufacturing, petroleum refining, hotels, and laundries and dry cleaning.

Continental Records Two Completions

Two Wells Finished In Howard-Glasscock For 787 Barrels

Two wells were completed for 787 barrels daily in the Howard-Glasscock pool last week.

Continental Group One No. 8 Set- tles in section 159, block 29, W&NW survey, tested 327 barrels on a two-hour proration run. It topped sand at 1,247 feet and is bottomed at 1,270 feet.

Continental No. 7-A Overton in section 6, block 32, T-2-S, T&P survey showed 469 barrels on proration test. Total depth is 2,397 feet, while sand was topped at 2,390 feet. Location was made during the week for the California No. 1 Calverley, another Glasscock county wildcat, 1,650 feet from the south and west lines of section 25, block 35, T-3-S, T&P survey. It is 10 miles south of the World No. 1 McDowell, westernmost producer in the Howard-Glasscock west extension, and eight miles west of the Dodson-Guffy No. 1 J. G. Carter estate, now drilling a mile and a quarter northwest of the abandoned Fleetborn No. 1 Dodson which caused much excitement when oil and gas shows were encountered.

Saturday the Moore Bros. No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, southwestern Borden county wildcat, was spudded in 1,270 feet from the east and 940 feet from the south line of section 20, block 34, T-4-N, T&P survey. Kirkpatrick and Lamb hold the contract for the well and will drill to 3,500 feet or commercial pay at shallower depths. Contractors are using a national machine on the job.

Garza county came in for another completion during the week when the Grissom & Hunter No. 1 Post estate was acidized and converted into a light producer, about 30 barrels a day. It is bottomed at 2,796 feet and ran around 16 feet lower than the 78-barrel N. L. Richards No. 1 Post estate which it offset. Location is in section 3, block 5, K. A. Cox survey.

The Richards No. 2 Post estate was drilling below 3,000 feet Friday in hard lime with no shows. Lime was topped at 2,590 feet and formations have been slightly higher than in surrounding tests. The hole is located in sections 12-32, block 5, K. A. Cox survey.

$25,000 Asked In Suit For Damages

Damages totaling $25,000 were asked in a suit filed Saturday by Ed Day and wife in the 70th district court.

The suit, according to Day's original petition, was the outgrowth of a protest of four distributing companies against the rate of 10 cent beer in Big Spring.

According to his petition, he had advertised any standard sandwich and a bottle of beer for 20 cents and was realizing a good profit from the move. Then, he alleged, representatives of four companies, called upon him demanding that he stop selling or correct the impression that he was selling 10 cent beer, or they would not sell him the beverage at any price.

Refusal of the companies to sell him beer damaged his business, he alleged.

MARY'S DECEIT
 Dale nodded to Hynton and regarded him with an eye that lost nothing of its furtive wariness when the Inspector stroled up to the bar to join him in a drink. "Making any headway?" he asked casually.

"Lots," Hynton cheerfully assured him. The young man seemed relieved. "That's good hearing," he said. "After anyone in particular?" "We're always after somebody, you know," the Inspector answered. "Um, I suppose you'll be too busy to come out for a day's hunting tomorrow—they're meeting at the Five Way Post just up the road, and Perry here would find you a heck."

"You haven't said anything to anyone about it?"

Kingsley Hynton considered this semi-invitation. True there were things that he wanted to do but true also that he had a great theory about observing people in their unguarded moments.

John Fenton started after his wife as she automatically obeyed the summons of the shop door bell. Even if their world was tumbling about their ears it would not have entered John or Mary Fenton's head to let that bell ring unheeded; it, and what it stood for, had become the major part of their lives.

ACTRESS SEEKS CHILD'S CUSTODY

"Pretty sure to." "I wonder if that old fox we've had out before 'll be there."

Nancy laughed. "I'm beginning to believe the Seven Acres vixen is a myth," she said; "we never catch her anyway."

They jogged along in silence for a bit, each taking stock of the other's mount; then Dale reined in closer to Nancy and said a little awkwardly,

Campaign In A Lull After Fast Start

Heavy Action Likely Won't Be Started Until September Or October

By BYRON PRICE
 Chief of AF Bureau, Washington Politics is a game of paradoxes, and that perhaps accounts for the present comparative lull in a campaign which had promised to develop so furiously from the start.

things were warming up early and that real action might be expected by July.

Then, after a June surfeit of political oratory at the conventions, the growingly subdued appreciable Organization work went on, of course, and there were some mutually uncomplimentary exchanges between the campaign managers. But the bigger guns held fire.

Mr. Landon, nominated by the republicans, retired to the fastnesses of a mountain vacation resort, from which he emerged in due course with an acceptance speech postponing detailed discussion of the issues until later.

po of the curtain-raiser, the main show promises to run fairly true to the form of previous years.

Meanwhile, Lemke Makes Hay as it has developed in 1936, is that it leaves the stage momentarily to those various groups which are supporting neither the republican nor the democratic ticket. And they are making the most of their turn in the spotlight.

But is that really the case? I ways is possible that the clouds, out of the wealth of their perience, are reserving their best fire because they are convinced that is the wisest plan of a campaign.

If the Union party talks itself at the start, it will not be first time an independent political movement has rushed in too early, and repented later on.

Hallo, Dale, she cried, reining in alongside him.

Young Shipley turned to her in high good humor; he was immensely pleased with his new mount and as far as he could see all Eanner Dawley's glowing prognostications might well be justified.

"Hallo, Nancy. How d'you like the look of her?"

With the morning sun gleaming on her chestnut coat and white stockings the mare looked a picture; and young Dale Shipley, always at his best on horseback, took the eye, too, in his rakish way.

"She looks splendid, Dale."

"She feels right; keen as mustard, I should say; though I haven't galloped her yet. I suppose we'll draw the Seven Acres first, won't ance of the warden. The three convicts were shot down by Guard H. H. Corey when they challenged his command of "halt" by rushing the walls. The warden dropped them in their tracks.

 A hush fell over the prison as the trio, blood pouring from their wounds, slumped to the ground groaning.
 For only a moment silence reigned. Guards took advantage of it to seize the three men and rush them to a hospital.
 In another instant, the yard again was a milling mass of angry prisoners.
 So far as could be learned, the demonstration began when the warden ordered the prisoners to carry food out into the yard. Apparently well planned to meet an adverse decision by the court, the plot appeared to be to seize the food stores and remain in the yard until those prisoners who would have been freed under the old procedure of automatic release gained their freedom.
 "Ghost Town" Once Rich
GARRISON, Utah (UP) — The remains of the "ghost town" of Frisco, Utah, which in 1875 had a population of 5,000 and produced $100,000,000 in silver now stands vacant.

The Week
 fits in nicely. At an A. & M. club meeting last week those present studied and what they were now doing. When Morrison rose, he dryly remarked that he was of such and such a class, took pre-law work at A. & M. and was "now practicing economy until the first of the year."
 Talk at the county democratic convention Saturday hinted strongly that Big Spring will seek to land a representative on the state democratic committee. Sam Richardson, Larissa, incumbent member of the group from this district, has been designated as a presidential elector, which in a large measure would lessen his claim to the post. Should he vacate, it would leave Big Spring in a strategic position. While a representative would not necessarily precipitate any outstanding advantage for the city, it certainly could not do any harm.
 The post office building is destined to replace the city worry endearingly. When ground was broken for the structure, it appeared that everything was rosy. However, the delayed discovery was made that $23,400 of the $114,000 appropriation had been consumed by several sets of plans and a small amount of furnishings. In other words, it took about one third of the cost of the building to make plans for it. There is no arguing that this is entirely out of proportion, but Big Spring people, disappointed for more than half a dozen years, are afraid to press the point too ardently for fear of further delays.
 Remember how state park representatives threw up their hands in holy horror when livestock got into the scenic mountain premises. The park, they affirmed, was a park and not a range. Last week it was learned that 50 head of cattle were being grazed on the park property for $25 a month. The change in attitude was to provide water for trees and shrubs. If the cows are able to distinguish between Chinese elms and junipers, they may work out all right after all.
 So far as can be learned, the city planked down the largest amount of cash in one lump Friday in its history when it paid for the airport properties. The landing field, hangars and administration building now belong to the city. One of the first worries will be that of ridding the field of heavy weed growth which, if not dangerous, is vexing to landing craft.
 A group met last week to discuss the housing situation. The plan evolved from the discussion was the building of an apartment house and several residences to be rented or sold. Certainly that would help, but the move needs to be on a larger scale; that is, the general public and not just a few, will have to become building conscious in order to solve the problem completely.

Fireworks Due In Mary Astor Suit For Her Daughter
 LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1 (UP) — Counsel promised today to file fireworks next week in the trial of Mary Astor's suit for sole custody of her four-year-old daughter.
 Joseph Anderson, attorney for the film actress' ex-husband, Dr. Franklin Thorpe, said "we expect to go very, very thoroughly into the untimeliness of Miss Astor to have the child's custody." Several witnesses will be called in that connection, Anderson said.
 "We will go also into charges in Miss Astor's affidavit that she was coerced by threats into permitting Dr. Thorpe to obtain an uncontested divorce and full custody of their daughter," asserted Anderson.
 "We can prove in her own handwriting that this was not the situation at all, but that she willfully abandoned the child for a married man—George Kaufman."

U.S. NO. 1 PILOT OUT TO BETTER EYSTON RECORDS
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (UP) — The contest board of the American Automobile association, upon reviewing the official charts compiled by Capt. George Eyston on Utah's Bonneville salt beds, awarded the British racing driver 20 new records. But the records may not stand for long. Ab Jenkins, America's No. 1 auto speed record holder, will race over the same gleaming surface in an effort to bring all 20 of the marks to an American driver.
 Jenkins will travel over a circular course. The contest board, the national governing body of auto racing and speed competition, has announced Jenkins will start his assault on the records as soon as possible. He will use a 12-cylinder racing car especially built for the strenuous grind.
 Eyston and his relief driver bettered all previous records ranging from the 200-kilometer distance criterion to the five-hour mark, and including records for 5,000 and 10-kilometers.
 One of the records beaten by Eyston—that for 500 kilometers—formerly was held by Jenkins.

CREWS CONTINUE EFFORTS TO CHECK BLAZE IN FORESTS
 HAVRE, Mont., Aug. 1 (UP) — Fire crews today continued to fight to check the fire which has devoured 40,000 acres of timber and cut a path four miles wide through the Lewis and Clark national forest since Wednesday.
 Three mining camps and Indiana Mission were saved by a sudden shift of the wind.
 Friday Cameron Baker, U. S. Geological Survey member, perished with a companion in the fire exactly as Elizabeth McCoy, his sweetheart, dreamed he would, 48 hours before the tragedy.
 Miss McCoy, Baker and others were guests of friends at a ranch last week end. She said she dreamed Baker would be trapped by flames and die, and urged her fiancé not to return to the fire-fighting patrol.

DEMOS OPPOSED TO NEW DEAL ORGANIZE
 DALLAS, Aug. 1 (UP) — Temporary organization of Texas constitutional democrats who oppose the new deal and favor the republican presidential and vice-presidential nominees, was perfected today.
 Judge W. P. Hamblen, Houston, former president of the Harris county bar association, who called the meeting, was elected temporary chairman. J. Everett Haley, Austin, was named secretary.
 Resolutions condemning the Roosevelt administration and pledging support to Landon and Knox platform were adopted.
 Hamblen said the organization was to concern itself only with the presidential race and would take no hand in any other campaign.

MOTORT TRANSPORT MEETING POSTPONED
 A called meeting of members of the Texas Motor Transport association with Tilden Childs of the interstate commerce commission, Washington, D. C., and Mark Marshall of the Texas railroad commission, set for Tuesday night, August 4th at Midland, has been postponed. It was announced here Saturday evening. Ollie Williams, president of the Howard County Motor Transport association said he was notified of the postponement from Washington. He stated the meeting probably will be held at a later date.

DEL RIO PUBLISHER IS BIG SPRING VISITOR
 J. Travelstead, publisher of The News at Del Rio, was a brief visitor in Big Spring Saturday night, accompanying his sister, Mrs. J. D. Nelson of Corpus Christi here, where she caught a train for Tucson, Ariz., to be with her husband who is ill there.
 Mrs. Nelson had been visiting her brother in Del Rio, and the two came on to San Angelo Saturday. They were notified there of Mr. Nelson's illness. Travelstead returned to San Angelo last night.

GARRETT DECLINES TO DEBATE BLANTON
EASTLAND, Aug. 1 (UP) — Judge Clyde L. Garrett today declined to debate Thomas L. Blanton's challenge for a series of joint debates in the county seats of the 17th congressional district.
 Garrett, campaigning against Blanton in the runoff, asserted in a signed statement that it was his belief it is impossible to prevent such joint debates from developing into a "disgusting spectacle."
 "We seem to agree on the principle issue," he said in his reply to the challenge. "You said it was your record in congress and you asked re-election on it. After 20 years, the people of the district should have a pretty fair idea of the Blanton record."
Convicted Kidnap Plotter Suicides
ST. PAUL, Aug. 1 (UP) — A convicted kidnap plotter climaxed the sensational William Hamm, Jr. kidnaping case Friday with self-inflicted death in a jail cell two hours after he had been sentenced to serve 30 years in prison.
 John P. Pfifer, former St. Paul night club operator, charged as "finger man" in the $100,000 abduction, thus became the second suicide growing out of the three-year-old kidnaping case.
 The first, described by the jailers as "stir crazy," was Willie Sharkey. Sharkey hanged himself with his necktie. Pfifer is believed to have taken poison.
SPANISH ENVOY IN WASHINGTON RESIGNS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (UP) — Jose G. Degregorio, second secretary of the Spanish embassy here, announced his resignation today because of a disagreement in the Spanish leftist government.
 He expressed hope for a rebel victory in the Spanish civil war. He said he did not know whether his embassy colleagues planned the same action.
EQUALIZATION BOARD TO MEET ON AUG. 10
 Howard county commissioners court will sit as a board of equalization August 10 after checking the monthly treasurers report and attending to other regular business.
 It has been the policy of the county commissioners court to take over the duties of the equalization board for years. A special session is always held for oil properties and utilities.

ATTORNEY TO START SERVING HIS TERM
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 1 (UP) — Ben B. Laska, Denver attorney surrendered to U. S. Marshal W. C. Geers here today to start serving a ten year penitentiary sentence for taking $10,000 of the $200,000 Chas. F. Urschel ransom as a legal fee for defending Albert Bates, convicted abductor.
Farley Leaves Post To Start Campaign
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (UP) — James A. Farley withdrew Friday from his office as postmaster general to devote the next three months exclusively to his drive for the re-election of President Roosevelt.
 He will take command of the New York national headquarters of the democratic national committee, of which he is chairman.
 Farley has been granted a leave of absence until after the election. Whether he would actually return to the postmaster generalship in November was a question of which conflicting predictions have been heard in official circles.
