Mavs Take Clyde 18-7 in District Opener

Evatt Snags Three Aerials For Scores

A boy named Clyde proved the up-doing of Clyde High School Friday night when the Eastland Mavericks used a sharp aerial game for three touchdowns and a 18-7 District 7-A victory.

It was Clyde Evatt, star end for the Mavs, who raced over for all three Eastland scores. On each occasion he took passes from Halfback Billy Upchurch. The touchdown plays covered 36 yards, 90 yards and 23 yards.

Played in near perfect football weather, following a brief shower about an hour before game time, the game took a victory look even before the kick-off. Eastland's Quarterback Club brought in the team, and despite the absence of Fullback Jimmy Martin, who had started for the locals all year, the Mavs moved out in winning fashion.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Eastland drove for 75 yards for the initial tally in seven plays. Taking over on their 25 following a Clyde punt, Ben Cate carried to the 26 on first down. Cate then took it to the 50 on a brilliant run, and then Upchurch went over right tackle to the Clyde 41. Cate took it to the 40 and then took a pass from Upchurch for another yard. Upchurch gained three to the 36 and on next down passed to Evatt, who was floating free on the 10. Evatt stepped off the final 10 yards and Eastland led 6-0. Quarterback Harvey Lewis' extra point try was blocked.

Moments later, Bobby Gabbert went back to pass for Clyde and Evatt intercepted on the Dogs 26. From there, Upchurch took it to the 25 and Cate carried to the 23. Lewis failed to gain but on the try.

Civic Movie Season Tickets Are Offered

Season tickets for the Civic Movie Season are being sold daily. There is just one more week in which the public may purchase the $4 season tickets to entitle them to see the series of movies being sponsored by Eastland's Civic League.

This cultural project has a two-fold purpose, a spokesman said: to bring the superior type movies to Eastland which ordinarily are shown only in special theatres in large cities at an advanced price (to be shown locally at $8.50 a picture with season ticket books) and to earn some proceeds for the Civic League. The Civic League funds are always used for Civic Improvements, the spokesman added.

The first movie will be shown on Nov. 3 at 8:45 p.m. The box office will be open at 8:30 p.m. so that those coming directly from church services can be comfortable inside the theatre while waiting. The Civic-Movie series will be shown the first Wednesday night each month for five succeeding months at 8:45 p.m.

Tales of Hoffman a ballet in color will be the film shown in November; Little Fugitive, the "appealing story" of a small boy lost at Coney Island, will be shown in December; Conquest of Mount Everest will be shown in January; will be shown in February; and Alice Guineas' Lavender Hill Mob will be shown in March.

Season Tickets for the Civic Movie Season are on sale now at Toombs and Richardsons in Eastland or from any Civic League member.

Mineral Wells Bees Defeat Locals 41-0

Mineral Wells' B teamers went wild in the second half here Thursday night to smash the outmanned Eastland Mavericks Bees 41-0.

It was the Mountaineers all the way in the second half, with Eastland fighting desperately to keep down the score. Mineral Wells led only 7-0 at halftime, but the Mavs lost the services of hard-charging David Willoughby at halftime and that seemed to spell defeat.

Eastland couldn't control the shifty Mountaineer backs, and the Mav line was outcharged all night. Willoughby was the big gun in Eastland's defense in the first half and was greatly missed in the final two periods. Don Lee caught fire in the final quarter, however, to add strength to the lagging Mav defense.

Mineral Wells scored twice in the third quarter and three times in the final period to rack up the top heavy score.

The first tally came midway in the second period on a 25 yard scamper. Early in the third quarter the visitors punched it over again, this time driving over from the two to climax a 71 yard drive. The third TD was set up by a pass interception. Taking over on the Mav 46, it took the Mountaineers just eight plays to score, with the final 15 yards coming on a pass play.

The Mountaineers scored on the second play of the fourth quarter to move ahead 28-0. The TD came on a 12 yard scamper over the right side of the line following a drive of 52 yards.

Mineral Wells moved the ball 37 yards in 11 plays for the next tally. An end sweep from the two accounted for the score. The final touchdown came late in the game, after Mineral Wells recovered a Mav fumble on Eastland's 48. It took them just two plays to go across with a 46 yard scamper on second down following the trick.

Johnny McMahan, Eastland's right end, played great ball all night, especially on defense. During the second half he was credited with most of the tackles. Saul Pullman looked good on offense as did Lee and Willoughby, who did most of the ground gaining for Coach Bobby Blair's eleven.

Next Thursday, the B teamers play host to Dublin.

John White To Address Ranchers In Eastland

Moore... ABOUT Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Those three guys you saw running around town the other day with whiskers and stupid costumes on were from Stephenville. They were in Eastland to boost the Stephenville Centennial and Fall Fair, which is due to get underway Oct. 27.

The trio was really decked out. The guy in the sheriff's outfit was Roy Garrison. The other two were Joe Derrick and Wayne Finner. Garrison, by the way, is the brother of Eastland's Mrs. Cari Jones.

Jim Golden got homesick and so the last time we saw him he was on his way to Girls' Town. "Uncle Jim," as he is called by the girls there, loaded up with candy before he left Eastland and should have received a fine welcome.

If this old world had more men like Jack Willingham of Hamlin it would be better off.

Willingham it was who served as judge the other day when eight county boys showed their registered Duroc gilts out at the old Eastland airport. He did a good job as far as we can tell (about the only thing we know about a hog is the difference between bacon and ham) and he did it on his own. That is to say, he didn't receive a cent, not even for expenses.

County Agent J. M. Cooper, in commending Willingham for his actions, said, "But we plan to feed him a mighty fine dinner."

Pork chops we would guess. Looks like a merger to us. Just happened to see Frank Sayre and Hubert Westfall over at the corner Drug drinking coffee together and talkin' it up. Sayre, as you know, is manager of Texas Electric and Westfall is top man down at Lone Star Gas.

Sharon Elizabeth Sayre and Andrea Rhodes have birthdays today and Monday Mrs. D. Samuels, Deloris Cogburn and E. V. Stacy celebrate.

You know, we were talking to a fellow the other day that had quite a bit of luck with a prescription a local MD gave him. He told us that in the last two years he had used it 12 times as a railroad pass, twice to see Fort Worth play Dallas, on all Maverick road games and as a reference.

SEABERRY, DAVENPORT BACK JURY SERVICE FOR WOMEN

The Chairman of the Board of Directors of the State Bar of Texas and a former 91st District Court judge Saturday cast their backing in favor of the constitutional amendment which would require Texas women to serve on juries.

Virgil T. Seaberry Sr. and Judge George L. Davenport, both of Eastland, made public statements backing the proposed amendment.

Seaberry said, "At the coming November election I favor the adoption of the constitutional amendment which will permit and require women to serve on juries in Texas. While there are those who oppose the amendment, I feel that the arguments in favor thereof are stronger than the objections."

"Practically all of the states permit women to serve on juries, and a great number require such service. In my opinion, the serving on juries by women would be

Can the West Texas rancher get his share of the Washington relief dollars? This will be the subject of an address by John C. White, commissioner of agriculture, at the annual meeting of the West Texas Ranchers Association in Eastland, Thursday evening, Nov. 4. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium.

A drought relief program was inaugurated last year and reinstated again this year. The 1954 program has not met with complete approval by many ranchers. Drought conditions create serious problems to the livestock raiser and many believe it should be handled much in the same manner as other national disasters. It is a problem of interest to all involved in the livestock industry whether merchant or producer.

Walter Pfluger, successful farmer and rancher from West Texas, will present a plan on how to make more money from ranching. Pfluger is president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association. He lives at Eden.

Jim Thompson Spends Rest Leave In Japan

KOBE, JAPAN (Spl.) — Army Cpl. Jimmy M. Thompson, 21, son of N. O. Thompson, 114 N. Daughtry St., Eastland, recently spent a seven-day rest and recuperation leave at Camp Kobe, Japan, from his unit in Korea.

Sight-seeing and entertainment facilities at Camp Kobe provided Cpl. Thompson with a welcome break in the task of maintaining security in Korea, where he is a member of the 11th Field Artillery Battalion.

Eighth Of A Series

Passage Of Eighth Amendment Would Double Officers Terms

(Editor's Note: This is the eighth in a series of articles prepared by the Texas League of Women Voters.)

Doubling the term of county, district and precinct officers be effected by passage of amendment eight.

This amendment would provide four-year terms for elective dis-

Many of the West Texas ranchers have managed to come through the drought and still be in the ranching business. Pfluger will discuss their experiences and how they managed to stay in business during one of the driest periods in modern times. He will discuss the position of sheep and goats in modern ranching and what Washington is doing to encourage production of wool and mohair.

Cattle are not bringing as much money as they did a few years ago. Ranching is becoming more competitive. It takes better animals to return sufficient profit under present day conditions. Good beef animals consume no more grass than inefficient ones. Robert J. Norris, Livestock Division, Armour and Company, Chicago, will explain the importance of breeding the right kind of animals for today's market and why they will return more money to the producer.

The West Texas Ranchers Association, in addition to providing protective service to its members, sponsors projects beneficial to all livestock raisers in the five county area, which it serves. A large crowd is expected to attend. It is said that several groups such as vocational agriculture classes and 4-H groups are planning on attending. This meeting is another example of the Public Service rendered to the livestock industry in this area.

The meeting is free and everyone interested in livestock whether merchant or actual producer is invited to attend.

Regular Field Project Staked Near Eastland

It will be C. U. Norton and Clyde Tate of Coleman No. 1 L. L. Hartman, et ux, 150 feet from the north and 1,050 feet from the west lines of the southeast quarter of Section 26, Block 2, H&C Survey.

Cover crop practice 35 will be put into effect in the county. It calls for seeding a cover crop in the fall of 1954 for the protection of farm land from winter erosion.

Hairy Vetch, seeded with nurse crop of small grain except wheat, will have a cost-share of $1.20 per tract, county and precinct officers instead of the present two-year term. If it is adopted, the following officials elected in the 1954 general election will serve for four years: district and county clerks, county judges, treasurers, criminal district attorneys, surveyors, hide and animal inspectors, justices of the peace and commissioners of precincts two and four. Sheriffs, tax assessors-collectors, constables, and commissioners of precincts one and three will be elected for two year terms.

An amendment was offered in the 1953 Legislature to include members of the House of Representatives but was voted down; this proposal evidently would not include them, and since it refers to the particular section of the Constitution naming the officers covered, it seems that the terms of only those officials listed above would be affected.

FOR

It is not fair to make these officials run for office every two years because of the time and expense involved in a campaign. No sooner does an official get settled in his job than he is set running for re-election.

A four-year term would be to the advantage of the public since officials could devote more time to the duties of office.

A shorter ballot would result from these staggered elections and the voters would be able to evaluate more carefully the qualifications of the candidates.

AGAINST

The two-year term of office gives the people closer control of their public officials. It allows for quick removal of incompetent ones and the official who performs his duties efficiently does not need to wage an intensive campaign.

With only half as many candidates up for election every two years the already exorbitant filing fees would be double those assessed under the present system.

Eastland Lions have the habit of getting a bit rowdy at times. In recent weeks a few biscuits have been thrown (with remarkable degree of accuracy we might add).

At the last meeting of the club, not a single biscuit got further away from a plate than the nearest Lions' mouth. Seems as if Mrs. Ina Bean and Mrs. Jess Siebert, who cook for the club, informed the group that they would be eating light bread next week if a single biscuit was used for any purpose other than food.

Would you call that child psychology?
See you Tuesday.

Christian Science

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science church services Sunday. Key-noting the fact that purification of thought and action are necessary for individual progress is the Golden Text from James (1:12): "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him."

One of the selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" which will be read is the following: "If the change called death destroyed the belief in sin, sickness, and death, happiness would be won at the moment of dissolution, and be forever permanent; but this is not so. Perfection is gained only by perfection. . . Universal salvation rests on progression and probation, and is unattainable without them." (pp. 290, 291)

From the Bible the following selection will be read (Psalms 139:23, 24): "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Bible Comment:

Jesus Taught Essence of True Humility

WHAT did Jesus mean by humility? There is no doubt that Jesus did teach humility and that He found it so hard to instill the lesson of it into His disciples that He stooped to menial tasks such as washing their feet to make the lesson plain.

It might be said that a person who is truly humble never grovels or makes a parade of profession of his humility. He may be none the less humble because he stands erect, has a keen sense of his integrity of life and purpose and puts a proper value upon himself as a person and individual.

Jesus stressed this value of the individual as much as He stressed the need of humility. True humility is not in any sense self-deprecation. It might be said that when people are proud they are usually proud of the wrong things. They are proud of their birth or wealth, for example. It is a fortunate thing for them to have been born into a great or good family, but, after all, it is a fortunate circumstance with which they have nothing to do. And they may have had no part in creating the wealth of which they boast.

On the other hand, there is surely just and reasonable pride in seeking to live worthily of a great heritage of birth or wealth. The essence of true humility is teachableness. And this finds its manifestations as much in secular life as in religious experience.

The humility of an open, expectant mind underlies all progress, even where strong conviction guides the way. So, in the life of the soul the humble open mind and heart are the gateways to the knowledge of God and the discovery of His will.

Brownwood Civic Music Assn. To Present First Concert Of Series, Tuesday, Oct. 26th

BROWNWOOD (Spl.) — The Brownwood Civic Music Association will present a concert by the Knowles Duo, Tuesday, Oct. 26, at Mims Auditorium on the Howard Payne campus in Brownwood for the first of four concerts of the 1954-55 season.

"The Knowles Duo, composed of two talented young singers — Adriana Knowles, mezzo soprano, and Paul Knowles, tenor — is one of the most musically artistic, and yet altogether refreshing singing teams to be featured on American stages in a long time," an Association spokesman said.

"Although a concert by this exceptional combination brings to the music lovers some of the more exquisite classics, it also delights the non-musician by the color, the drama and the beautifully sung familiar melodies of the costumed scenes from opera, operetta and musical comedy."

The concert, which will be for members of the Brownwood Civic Music Association, will begin at 8 o'clock.

Music Club Complete Plans For District Convention To Be Here November 18, 19, 20

The Eastland Music Study Club met in the Woman's Club Oct. 20th at 3 p.m. for their regular meeting with the President, Mrs. A. F. Taylor presiding.

Leader for the program was Mrs. L. E. Corbell who introduced the topic for the day, the Opera Faust which was presented by Mrs. Johnny Hart from a paper prepared by Mrs. Guy Patterson. Mrs. Kinnaird selected the "Waltz from Faust" for her piano number, as typical of the Gounod compositions.

Mrs. G. E. Dendy sang the Flower Song from the opera, accompanied by Mrs. Kinnaird.

Early composers for keyboard instruments was the subject for an interesting talk by Mrs. Don Parker. Quoting Bauer and Peyser, authors on the research of this subject, she stated many interesting facts concerning the early instruments, namely the Clavichord which preceded the Harpsichord. In the early days the composers were also gifted in the art of tuning and repairing their instruments and Bach was so expert that it took him only fifteen minutes to tune a clavichord. And that in the 16th century clavichords had only sixteen strings but by the 18th century it was given fifty with fewer keys. Mrs. Parker completed her talk with comparison of present day instruments and the advantages of the composers of today.

Following Mrs. Parker, Mrs. R. L. Carpenter sang "We Meet, We Part, but Love Goes on Forever," by Carrie Baxter Jennings with Mrs. Kinnaird accompanying.
