Stock Show Parade

It would be a fine thing if every town and community in the county were to pitch in and help make the parade—the opening feature of the county stock show—a big deal. Such ballyhoo is a real send-off for the event it heralds. Now it's a fact that just about everybody loves a parade, if it's a good one.

Length—like interesting units—counts for a lot. And there's no good reason why this county event shouldn't have a BIG parade.

It will be appreciated by leaders in the movement if those who will take part—as riders, with floats, or whatever—will contact Sheriff J. B. Williams and give him the good news.

"I'd like for every town and every community in the county to be well represented," he points out.

Actually, the colorful emphasis applied to a stock show or other affair by a ROUSING parade does a lot to deepen the interest in it and, thus, swell the crowd. Let's make it a whopper!

ABOUT SPORTS

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Boxing fans got their money's worth over Cisco way the last few nights. The Golden Gloves bouts were drawn to a close Saturday (March 5) night.

Quite a few Eastland faces were noticeable in the large crowd that witnessed the bouts in the Community Gym.

Eastland's golfing high schoolers will try their luck at Breckenridge Monday afternoon.

Eastland has some cracker-jack golfers on the team, and some boys that are just getting the feel of their clubs. If the boys all stick together for the next few years, Eastland is going to make a name for itself in the golfing world.

We think Lively rates a plug for his excellent work.

We were amazed at the large number of Quarterback Club members who attended the first Minstrel meeting Friday night. Looks like the Minstrel will be better than ever this year. Jim Hicks will do the directing, and that assures a good, clean show.

That's it for now.

Turnip Or Punkin'

J. L. Whisenant, who truck farms a mile south of Olden, was displaying a turnip here this week that possibly might have been part punkin'.

The turnip was nearly two feet in circumference and weighed 6 3/4 pounds. It had a top spread of 36 inches.

Whisenant, who has been engaged in truck farming in Olden for the past 36 years said that he never remembered one quite as large, but that he had grown any number of them a half pound shy of this monster in his irrigated patch.

MRS. DOYLE L. BEAVERS

Deaton - Beavers Vows Solemnized Saturday

The First Methodist Church was the setting for the double ring ceremony uniting Miss Jo Ann Deaton and Doyle L. Beavers. The vows were read by the pastor, Rev. Bruce Weaver at 8 o'clock Saturday evening before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and seven-brach candelabra. The altar rail and chancel rail were lined with jade foliage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Deaton of Ranger and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Beavers of Abbott, Texas.

The nuptial organ music was played by Fred Baumgardner who also accompanied Gaston Dixon as he sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "O, Perfect Love." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and tulle over tulle. The strapless bodice was formed of small folds of tulle and worn with a tiny shrug jacket outlined in lace, and complimented with tulle gauntlets. The triple bouffant skirt of tulle was detailed with a side applique of lace that fell to the hem of the waist-length skirt, worn over hoops and crinoline.

Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a cap of matching lace with seed pearls framing the face. The bride carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white gardenias and an orchid.

Mrs. M. E. Mahaffey of Tulsa, was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Betty Reuser of Ft. Worth and Melba Creager of Ranger. They wore identical gowns of mist rose satin. The molded princess lines of the bodice were finished with a portrait neckline. A deep bertha formed the sleeves and the very bouffant waist-length skirt was worn over crinoline. The headpiece was of matching satin and they carried a colonial nosegay of pink daisies.

Gene F. Deaton, twin brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Don McCauley and Donald Eastland of Hillsboro and Robert E. Mahaffey of Tulsa, the latter two also serving as candle-lighters.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Community Club House. The refreshment table was covered with pink net over white satin and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations and gladioli in a silver epergne. White candles in silver holders completed the table decoration.

Miss Gloria Robinett of Fort Worth presided at the crystal punch bowl and Miss Billie Hearst, also of Fort Worth, served the cake. Miss Margaret Bouldard of Abilene presided at the guest register.

Also included in the houseparty were Mmes. W. F. Creager, Lee Dockey, Gaston Dixon, W. A. Reuser and Miss Ruth Hightower.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Beavers chose a slate grey wool suit with white, grey and black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Beavers received her BBA degree from Texas Tech where she was a member of Phi Gamma Nu Sorority. Mr. Beavers has a BS and an MS degree from Texas Tech and is a member of Alpha Zeta and Alpha Chi fraternities. He is now serving in the U. S. Army and is scheduled for overseas duty in the European theatre soon. Mrs. Beavers will reside in Fort Worth until she joins her husband.

Music Study Club Presents Program On Texas Composers

Presenting teachers and children from the ward schools, the Music Study Club met Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Club.

It was Texas Composers Day and Mrs. Marvin Hood gave sketches of Texas composers and the full history of W. J. Marsh and his works.

Mrs. A. F. Taylor, president, welcomed the guests and introduced Mrs. R. L. Carpenter, who presided and presented Mrs. Hood. The meeting had been opened with the singing of Texas, Our Texas, led by Mrs. A. H. Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Kinnaird.

Mrs. Guy Patterson, teacher of the second grade at South Ward school, presented Janice Dandy, Mary Ann Manning and Janet Kimbler in piano solos. A skit on Texas was given by all the second graders who sang Texas songs. The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You was sung by the assembly.

Mrs. Frank N. Sayre, president of West Ward P.T.A., gave an interesting biography of Oscar J. Fox, and his Cowboy ballads. Mrs. L. C. Inzer, teacher of West Ward fifth grade, presented 33 children in Cowboy ballads against a background of saddles, blankets and bridles. The boys were dressed as cowboys, carrying out the Texas theme.

Patsy Thompson, Judy Keith, Homer Carroll and Mike Perry sang a special number with a chorus of girls humming and the boys whistling.

The serving table was laid with a white cutwork cloth and centered with a bouquet of pink gladioli reflected on a mirrored plaque. Appointments were crystal.

Hostesses were Mrs. Allen D. Gabney, who presided at the punch service; Mrs. Bill Pryor and Mrs. G. M. Daniels, who assisted in serving cookies and mints. Eighty-three guests and club members attended.

Mrs. Taylor presided at a brief business meeting and Mrs. Kinnaird, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting and the correspondence. Mrs. Floyd W. Casebolt was elected to membership in the club. The two friendship baskets passed among club members netted $30 for the polo fund, it was announced.

The official call for the Texas Federation of Music Clubs to be held March 23-26 at the Baker Hotel in Mineral Wells was discussed and several members are planning to attend. Mrs. Carpenter made the report on the club house board. Mrs. W. E. Brasher gave the treasurer's report.

The concert for 3:30 p.m. Sunday at First Methodist Church, presenting the TWC artists, was announced and also the artists for the Brownwood Civic Music concerts were announced.

With Youth Conservation as the program topic, The Thursday Afternoon Club, meeting at the Woman's Club, presented eight high school junior pupils in a symposium.

Mrs. Frank Castleberry, president, presided, and Mrs. Milburn S. Long, recording secretary, read the minutes and correspondence. Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann, treasurer, reported the club's financial status.

Years to Build. Seconds to Destroy —
... is a tragic reminder to those who are unfortunate in losing their worldly possessions without adequate insurance protection. Years of effort, savings and accomplishment... wiped out in a single catastrophe. It may be only an explosion, a fire, a tornado, or something worse if we can imagine such a thing. It can happen anywhere, any time, to any one, without warning. Insurance is the only answer. So why be unprepared when the cost is so reasonable?

A Tribute To Our Policemen
The uniformed man who works his beat, ever ready to combat lurking danger, is an officer of the city, working for you. All through the stillness of the night... when homes are dark and stealth is on the prowl... your watchful Policeman is going his rounds. Smiling, pleasant faced, he is a mountain of security clad in blue, to little children and grown ups alike. He is their friend, their protector, their laughing pal, on occasion... and who of us would have it any other way! So let's be considerate and really warm-hearted toward our fine Policemen. The Cop, please remember, is one of our most dependable citizens!
