ABOUT
Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

We nominate Mary Jane (Mrs. Bill) Arther, Eulene (Mrs. Hugh) Neel and Mary Ann (Mrs. Arthur) Gallagher as the bravest mothers in Eastland. The three were eating out Thursday at the White Elephant, and with them were their six children, five girls and a boy. The oldest child is five, and we feel that any three mothers who would risk such a trip deserve special praise.

The next fellow that asks us about that "neckless" we were talking about in Thursday's column is for a hard time. We have been accused of misspelling the word, which should have been "neckless," but anyone in his right mind knows that we never misspell words.

All we have to say about it is that a lot of our readers are a real sure "heartless."

We are getting rumors from the school hill that either Wendell Siebert or Charlie Marshall is putting the paddle down kinda hard these days. According to our source, one of the two whipped a boy this week so hard that his pants caught fire. Seems the student had matches in his back pocket! Honest, that's the dope we get.

Roger Parker, Dr. Sherwood C. Lynn, Bob Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Drumwright, all of Cisco, were in Eastland Tuesday to look over the YMCA youth center here. A "Y" organization is in the planning stage in Cisco.

We get chewed out pretty often in this business, but we got chewed out the nicest we ever have Friday. A sweet miss phoned to complain about lack of coverage of the girls basketball team. We wish she could have talked to our wife instead of us. Frances says we pay too much attention to the girls teams.

The caller, who identified herself as "a reader of the, what do you call it, Telegram," said she read where the boys were opening district play Friday night against Wylie. "Did you know," she asked, "that the girls also open their district competition against Wylie?"

What could we say? Not a word did we have about the girls' game in Thursday's Telegram.

What really shook us up was the fact that we could hear a hundred or so other girls voicing threats at us in the distance as our pretty caller talked. Can you imagine having that many women nud at you at the same time? Honest girls, it was an honest mistake. And it won't happen again, so help us Elvis Presley!

And speaking of Elvis, did you know he was through town Thursday. That's the straight dope we get. Came through on a train. We are sure sorry we didn't know about it in time to let someone in on the secret.

Back to the fact that we didn't say a word about the girls. We still say that we could do a lot better job of covering school news if we could just get someone up on the hill who is even half-way interested in journalism to go to work for us after school. Surely there is some student who would like to get into this racket. Strike that, and make it business. We sure would like to talk to any of you that are, because we think both of us would prosper.

Eastland has the most optimistic city commissioner in the state. Horace Horton firmly believes that someday Eastland is going to have a wet summer. Horace was expressing his views to commissioners Thursday when he made the statement Mayor George L. Davenport said, "Horace, I agree with everything you have just said except one thing. Are you sure we are going to have that wet summer?"

That's all for now. See you Tuesday.

Brashear Is Chairman Of Vets Group

Paul Brashear, state representative from the 76th District, which includes Eastland, Callahan and Shackelford counties, has been named chairman of the Military-Veterans Affairs committee by House Speaker Waggoner Carr.

Brashear, of Cisco, will also serve as a member of four other important committees. They are the Oil, Gas and Mining committee, the Agriculture committee, the Hospitals and Special Schools committee and the Liquor Regulations committee.

Brashear, beginning his second year as representative from this district, still plans to introduce a bill to rearrange the 42nd, 90th and 91st judicial districts. Brashear proposes taking Callahan and Shackelford counties out of the 42nd District (Abilene) and adding Callahan to the 91st District Court (Eastland) and Shackelford would be joined to the 90th District (Stephens and Young counties.)

The local representative was one of only five West Texas representatives to sign the "Texas Manifesto" on school segregation put forth by an East Texas bloc. Eleven other West Texas refused to sign the manifesto, which cited Federal Judge Atwell's recent decision that Dallas public schools need not desegregate immediately. Those signing the paper pledged to support legislation providing for continued segregation.

Eastland County Draws Three New Oil Ventures

Eastland County has three new wells being drilled.

The Ebx Co. of Breckenridge has staked the No. 4 Charles J. Kleiner in the Kleiner Field 2400 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the east line of Section 83, Block 4, H&TC Survey, one mile north of Cisco on a 126 acre lease. Proposed depth is 3550 feet.

The No. 1 A. L. Cozant is being drilled by Bartlett Petroleum Co. of Fort Worth. Location on the north line of Section 101, Block 3, H&TC Survey, six miles southwest of Cisco on an 80 acre lease. Proposed depth is 3000 feet with rotary.

T. Harding Brothers of Dallas are drilling the No. 2 W. T. Davis 834 feet from the south line and 3005 feet from the east line of Section 1, T&NO Survey, 8 1/2 miles northwest of Ranger on a 182 acre lease. It is a northwest offset to the No. 1 W. T. Davis well.

Local Firemen Get Thanks From Breckenridge

Eastland firemen drew praise this week for aiding Breckenridge firemen fight the recent downtown fire there.

Fire Chief Billy Jack Johnson received the following letter, signed by City Manager Glen A. Doty and Fire Chief R. D. Mace:

"First of all, we would like to express our personal thanks to you and your department for having come to our assistance on Sunday night, Jan. 6, when we had our fire in the Swenson Building. Knowing that we have neighbors that we can rely upon in such splendid manner makes all of the uncertainties of fire fighting operations seem somehow greatly lessened.

"At yesterday's city commission meeting, the city commission of the City of Breckenridge officially requested the city manager to convey their thanks collectively and individually to you for your kind assistance when our need was so great.

"Thanks again. We hope we can perform some service for you in the future."

Quarterbackers To Elect New Officers Tuesday

New officers will be elected Tuesday night at a meeting of the Quarterback Club, Harvey Lewis, president, revealed this week.

Lewis said that the election was of special importance since it was time again to select new officers. In addition to the election plans will be made for the annual athletic banquet, Lewis said.

The meeting will be held at Eastland High School beginning at 7:30 p.m. Lewis urged all members and anyone else interested in helping advance the athletic program in Eastland to attend the meeting.

FIRST BLUE CRUTCH SOLD—Gov. Allan Shivers became the first Texas purchaser of a March of Dimes Blue Crutch in Austin recently. Making the sale was Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, adjutant general of the State of Texas and 1956-57 March of Dimes campaign chairman. Blue crutches are on sale all over Eastland County now. January is officially March of Dimes Month in Texas.

March Of Dimes Is Now Underway Here

Eastland County citizens will begin receiving annual March of Dimes mailers this week.

More than 1,000,000 March of Dimes mailers for the 1957 campaign will have been mailed to Texas residents by Jan. 15, General K. L. Berry, 1957 MOD Campaign Chairman, has announced.

The 1,000,000 plus mailers are being mailed all over the state from the 246 National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis county chapters in Texas, General Berry said.

Included in each of the mailers is a contribution card and a return envelope to the local county chapter in which the receiver of the mailer resides. Money is inserted in the card and returned to the local county chapter in the envelope provided.

The 1957 March of Dimes Campaign was launched on Jan. 1 when Gov. Allan Shivers' proclamation designating January as March of Dimes Month in Texas became effective. The drive will continue through Jan. 31, according to General Berry.

In 1957, the March of Dimes slogan is "Let's Finish the Job," the state chairman pointed out. General Berry, who has been the March of Dimes campaign chairman for the 1955 and 1956 campaigns also, is adjutant general of the State of Texas.

You May Not Use Tax Form 1040A If:

As a result of surveys and studies conducted by the Internal Revenue Service, several million taxpayers who last year filed their returns on Form 1040 are this year receiving in the mail the simplified punch-card Form 1040-A, which makes possible easier preparation of a return that can be more readily processed by the Service.

The card form enables the taxpayer to provide all pertinent information on his income and exemption status, if his income was less than $5,000 during 1956, consisting of salary or wages from which tax was withheld, and he had no more than $100 total of other wages, dividends and interest, and if his deductible expenses were less than the standard 10 per cent calculated as part of the tax table for incomes up to that figure.

For those taxpayers with less than $5,000 income but with allowable deductions exceeding 10 per cent, the regular Form 1040 should be used to obtain a refund or reduce the balance of tax due. You may not use Form 1040A if:

Mavs Drop Three Games To Wylie

Superior teamwork payed off for Wylie's Bulldogs Friday night as they took three easy victories over Eastland teams in opening round play of District 10-A.

The Wylie Boys had an easy time in downing Coach John Tate's Mavericks, 47-35, after going ahead 28-14 at the end of the first half. For the Mavs the scoring was all a one-man show. Dale Slotton got 28 of the 33 points for the night.

Eastland's girls were outclassed even more. They took a 39-19 wallop from the Bulldog girls and the Eastland B squad fell victim of a 42-22 setback.

Wylie went into the game as co-favorites in District 10-A and Eastland was rated the darkhorse of the district. The Bulldogs definitely proved themselves in the tilt. Wylie jumped out front 11-5 at the end of the first period of play, built their lead to 28-14 at halftime and were ahead 30-24 at the end of the third period. Only in the third quarter did Eastland manager to outscore the tall Dogs.

Slotton's 28 points got him high individual honors for the night. Vernon Allen paced the victors with 18 points. Other than Slotton's 12 field goals, the Mavericks got only one two pointer. That was hooped in by Lupe Herrera. Johnny McMahan got two points on free throws and Humphreys got a single point.

The Maverick A and B teams see action again tonight (Saturday) when they journey to Rising Star for a return engagement with the Wildcats. The A and B teams will see action, with the first game scheduled for 7 p.m.

The Mavericks now own a season record of two wins and three losses. The tilt was the first district game of the year for both the boys and the girls.

The Bulldog experience hurt the Mavericks more than anything else in the tilt. Wylie has more than a dozen games under their belts while the district opener was Eastland's fifth start of the year. The Mav opponents also had a huge height advantage and made it hard for Eastland to get anything off either backboard.

The 28 point performance by Slotton pushed his five game total for the year to 120 points, or an average of 22 points a game.

of the night, Clyde, the other co-favorite in the district, had an easy time disposing of Throckmorton, 58-35. The Clyde girls also won their tilt, 54-33.

Bill Patton paced Clyde with 17 points and Billy Bishop got 12 for the losing Greyhounds. Clyde and Wylie both average more than six CANAL CASUALTY — That which is missing is what is significant about this picture. Absent from the site of Egypt's brooding pyramids near Cairo are the tourists. They often fill the benches dotted across the nearby desert as points from which to observe the ancient tombs of the Pharaohs. The tourist trade is a casualty of the Middle East unrest, scuttled for the time being as surely as the hulks which block the Suez Canal.

100 Or More Due For Turkey Bar-B-Q

Preparations have been made to entertain at least 100 turkey growers, county agents, turkey processors and feed men from a 14-county area around Ranger with a big turkey barbecue at Ranger Junior College Cafeteria next Thursday night prior to a meeting of the Central Texas Turkey Growers Association and the Texas Turkey Federation to be held in the auditorium at the college. A number of Eastland citizens will attend.

The barbecue is being given by the Chamber of Commerce and the business men of Ranger and will get underway at 6 p.m. All of the business men in town are urged to attend this event and help with the serving and eating and welcoming of these turkey growers. Many of the growers will be men from Ranger's immediate area who come here to do business all the time and it is the hopes of the Chamber of Commerce that Ranger can be an appreciative host and show them all a pleasant evening.

Dr. D. E. Davis of the virus department of the Research Laboratory at Texas A. & M. College will deliver an illustrated lecture following the barbecue on the subject of diseases in turkey flocks and how to control them.

The Chamber of Commerce has sent individual invitations to all members of the Central Texas Turkey Growers Association and the Texas Turkey Federation to be held in the auditorium at the college. A number of Eastland citizens will attend.

It is the first of two big turkey meetings to be held in Ranger early this year and everything must be done to make it a success, a spokesman said.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

Future Tense Law
 You can tell a lot about people by the way they regard time. Do they put stock mostly in the past—their record; the present—their direct joy in work or play; or the future—their plans. Why not use all three dimensions of time? Past experience to guide, the present for zest, and the future to realize dreams. Lawyers report a sharp shift in the way people regard time and the law: If old facts like failures to meet legal duties, misdeeds, etc.—facts useful chiefly in lawsuits.—You still have to think of the record, since you may have to go to trial some time. So keep good records of your affairs. But more and more people now also think of the law in the future tense—in terms of built-in safeguards for plans which they want to go through without legal hitch-ups. Our heavy income and death taxes have made people plan ahead legally, rather than wait for the ax to fall. Any time you buy or sell a home or a business or maybe an investment you have choices of how you may do it—some wise, some not, in view of your circumstances. Should you insist on an abstract or accept or offer instead a title insurance policy? (Your lawyer has a definite part to play in either event.) Should you do business as a sole proprietor, a partnership, or corporation?

Plentiful Foods Listed for January

With the passing of another Holiday Season and the beginning of a New Year, homemakers will find a long list of plentiful foods to meet family dietary needs in January. Eggs, potatoes and canned sweet corn are given feature spots on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's January plentiful foods list. These foods, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service's regional office in Dallas, are in heavy supply not only in the Southwest but in all parts of the nation. Red meats, including beef, pork, turkeys, broilers and fryers, are also listed. Other high protein foods are ocean perch fillets, milk and other dairy products. In the Southwest, rice and pecans also will be plentiful. Fruits expected to be in good supply during January include winter pears, dates, dried prunes and canned purple plums. The only vegetable on the list, other than potatoes, is onions.

eration? Do your contracts set out ways of meeting unexpected events? How best may you serve your estate (and also carry out your wishes)—by a will or a trust, or by direct gifts?

While all of these things point forward, the past in the form of court records can serve you by showing where trouble may come from.

As more and more people know the symptoms of legal trouble—where to look for legal hitches in plans before big trouble starts, there will be fewer law suits and better human relations.

And where does trouble sometimes start? Most often where you lack a clear grasp of your relationship, your rights and duties, and your own and the other fellow's resources—in transactions involving large personal or financial stakes.

STORY NO. 6 Duval Plunderbund Plucked $7,187 From Benavides Schools in One Day

By-FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, TEX.—One of the Federal Government's experts working on the sticky financial morass that is Duval County figures the cost of operating a political machine such as this at about $1,000,000 a year. This doesn't include what goes into the pockets of leaders through big "deals" which otherwise wouldn't have been possible. John Ben Shepperd has estimated the total of "money diverted from intended, lawful purposes" in Duval County has been four or five million dollars a year for the past ten years. That's a lot of money even for Texas where millionaires are supposed to hide behind every hick-sack bush. Political machines fall apart when something interferes with the free flow of cash. Attorney General John Ben Shepperd and District Attorney Sam Burris have turned off the faucet in Duval.

Donato Serna, a determined little Latin-American who can spot a crooked ledger a mile away, now sits in the Courthouse at San Diego as County Auditor. Serna doesn't like George B. Parr one little bit. And for good reason. Parr once gave him a thorough going over with a five-cell flashlight, a beating so severe that one of Parr's then deputy sheriffs, Manuel Amaya, was forced to intervene and disarm the Boss. "Our County is not in a very good financial condition," says Serna. Only one county in Texas has a higher tax rate than Duval. The County, with a population in the neighborhood of 12,000, has a bonded indebtedness of $3,113,000 and a $2.55 tax rate. The adjoining county, Webb, another political hot spot, has a $2.65 rate.

In contrast, Val Verde County has a 58 cent rate. Perhaps the avenging shade of Judge Roy Bean, "the law West of the Pecos," who held court in a Val Verde saloon, keeps sticky fingers out of the public till. There's nothing like a little fancy embezzlement to shoot a tax rate sky high. Beside my typewriter are two documents, Donato Serna's current annual report on Duval County finances and an affidavit signed by Diego Heras, former acting secretary to the board of trustees of the Benavides Independent School District.

The two documents complement each other perfectly, the latter providing a good picture of the financial shenanigans responsible for the "not very good financial condition" of the County of Duval. In just one day, October 19, 1950, nimble fingers lifted $7,187.80 from the school district treasury.

The chubby Mr. Heras lists 101 checks made out to fictitious names, the whole batch amounting to $67,414.17. His affidavit makes interesting reading. "I know George B. Parr of San Diego, Duval County," Mr. Heras swore. "Although he has dominated the Board of Trustees for many years, and has taken it upon himself to counteract all vouchers issued by the District, Mr. Parr has never within my knowledge been an employee of Benavides Independent School District W. M. Benson of San Diego, who keeps Mr. Parr's books, and who offices in Mr. Parr's office across from the Courthouse in San Diego, has served as auditor for said Benavides School District for many years.

"B. W. Milligan is Superintendent of Schools in the Benavides Independent School District, and W. F. Reed is Principal of the Freer Schools in said Benavides District. During the years I worked for the Benavides District, the method of handling Teacher Retirement moneys was to make up the teacher contribution lists from the payrolls, and then to issue vouchers against the School District to Mr. Milligan or Mr. Reed for the amount of the Teachers' contributions. These men in turn were to purchase cashier's checks to be remitted to Teachers Retirement System.

"I have carefully examined annual report of School Funds to Texas Education Agency submitted by Benavides Independent School District for the year ending August 31, 1950, and have also examined a like report submitted for the year ending August 31, 1951. These reports were prepared and submitted by the Texas State Bank of Alice, the depository bank for Benavides Independent School District. In these reports I have found many irregularities. On Exhibit A to this affidavit, I have listed a number of vouchers issued by Benavides Independent School District to fictitious persons. The persons so listed as fictitious are actually fictitious, never existed, and of course never performed the services for which the vouchers purportedly were drawn. Many of these vouchers were issued at the express direction of W. M. Benson. At times I would deliver the vouchers to Mr. Parr or Mr. Benson. At other times, I would present them at the depository bank, where I would be handed an envelope containing money. This envelope would then be delivered to Mr. Parr or Mr. Benson.

"On Exhibit B to this affidavit, I have listed another group of vouchers which were issued in the same manner and under the same direction, to actual persons. However, none of these listed persons who are payees in the listed vouchers ever performed the services for which the vouchers were purportedly issued, and these persons did not receive such vouchers. Such vouchers were handled in the same manner as those issued to fictitious persons. "On Exhibit C to this affidavit, I have listed another group of vouchers which were issued, in the same manner and under the same direction, to actual persons. However, none of these listed persons who are payees in the listed vouchers ever worked for said Benavides District."

There you have it. And this sort of thing has been going on in Duval County for half a century. The Diego Heras affidavit tells but a small part of the story of how the plunderbund operated in one school district during one short period of time. More of the Benavides story can be found in the transcript of the trial of D. C. Chapa, tax assessor and collector for the district. Chapa is now free on bail pending a hearing on his appeal from a five year prison sentence. Equally enlightening facts can be seen in the official transcript of the trial of B. F. Donald, former cashier of one of Parr's banks put out of business by Shepperd in 1955. Donald, too, recently was given a five year prison sentence for conspiracy to steal Benavides school funds. It is no wonder that evidence-destroying bonfires blazed like a Fourth of July celebration all over Duval County when Attorney General Shepperd arrived on the scene with a small army of assistants, including State Auditor C. H. Cavness. County records vanished in all directions. A political boss on plunder bent must have a machine so well armored that no dent can be made in it. But machines grow old and rusty and the engineers sometimes get careless. This happened in Duval. Some of the thick rust crust flaked off, revealing the bright metal of loot beneath. It is no wonder that the Parr machine fought with every legal, and semi-legal, weapon at its command to keep an honest auditor out of the Courthouse in San Diego. It took the full power of the State of Texas thirteen months to put Donato Serna into office in Duval. The result, according to Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, is the first honest audit of Duval books in more than half a century. And, to quote Shepperd, "Nobody can steal anything else in the county without getting caught."

Today's Turkeys, Chickens, What Mama Ordered

COLLEGE STATION — The average housewife may know nothing about the science of genetics as applied to animal breeding, but nevertheless she exerts a big influence on those who do, says Kermit F. Schlamb, extension poultry marketing specialist.

The housewife can be thanked, says the specialist, for the improved appearance of poultry offered on today's markets. Store sales showed that women prefer a ready dressed, meaty bird with yellow skin and light pin feathers that eliminate the tedious job that used to be a part of getting a chicken or turkey ready for cooking. Breeders went to work to help producers meet these requirements and to provide a bird which is easy to dress for ready-to-cook sales.

The results can readily be seen by comparing the poultry on the market today with that obtainable a few years ago. Poultry sales have increased phenomenally — sales of chicken meat increased from 13 pounds to 21 pounds per person annually between 1935 and 1955; turkey sales rose from less than 2 pounds to 5 pounds per person during the same period, says Schlamb.

Scientists working in all parts of the nation are continuing their cooperation with the poultry industry in order to further improve chickens and turkeys in keeping with the housewife's demands.

The Beltville small white turkey is a product of breeding work done by USDA scientists. This development, says Schlamb, has shown the desirability of a small turkey and has focused the attention of breeders on the objective of producing a small turkey that will meet the exacting requirements of today's American family.

Magazine Gives Good And Bad Points of Insurance Policies

(Editor's Note: The following story is a continuation of a summary of a Readers Digest story concerning group insurance. The thoughts are those of States Life Insurance Co.)

Quoting the president of a large insurance company, the Readers Digest article reveals that companies anxious to offer seemingly low cost protection must resort to this kind of practice in order to make this type of insurance attractive to the company writing it. Furthermore, the report states, "When you need insurance you may not have it... for long. Cancellations are particularly tragic for elderly people, for elderly people usually cannot be re-insured." Although the Readers Digest does not comment on group policies it is well to observe that group benefits cease when the insured is no longer employed by the organization sponsoring the group policy. A severed employee must qualify for an individual policy which offers much less attractive provisions than the group benefits. This is one of the most objectional features of non profit companies because employment is the sole basis of group protection.

2. If you have had the same illness before, your policy may not protect you: There is no need to repeat the authentic cases describing the "loop-hole" provisions contained in many hospital and surgical policies related in the Readers Digest article. This conclusion is most pertinent, "The most expensive protection which can be bought is the 'gimmick' policy which is offered at bargain prices."

3. In order to sell, an agent may misrepresent the facts: It is well to observe here that no company has control over what persuasion the agent uses in getting an applicant's name on the dotted line. Reputable insurance concerns train their agents and demand that all policy provisions be explained as they actually are. With all precautions, which can be reasonably exercised by the company, the agent will never be a guarantee that an occasional salesman will not be completely honest. There are a few companies operating in the industry that take the position that they have no control whatsoever over the representations made by the salesman and they disclaim any responsibility except that which is printed in the policy. In any instance, it is well to submit the policy to your attorney or banker if you do not understand the provisions contained in the contract.

4. Services performed anywhere except in a hospital may not be paid for: The Readers Digest article points out that the reason for the present overcrowding of hospitals is that this provision is in practically all "hospitalization" policies. "Beds which should be occupied by patients with minor ailments which would normally be cared for at home." It is heartening to note, however, that the Golden Triangle Group, which is underwritten by States General Life of Dallas, has made liberal provisions for the payment of treatment at home including payments for registered nurses.

Christian Science

The answer to mankind's great need of purity and regeneration will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon on "Sacrament" is the Golden Text from Psalms (24:3,4): "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (241:23-27): "One's aim, a point beyond faith, should be to find the footsteps of Truth, the way to health and holiness. We would strive to reach the Horeb height where God is revealed; and the cornerstone, of all spiritual building is purity."
