Moore... ABOUT Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

We bet we can name you one fellow who wished he had never left Eastland. He is M. M. Sheffield, who last year was junior high principal here. Today Sheffield is principal at Mansfield. Just after he moved there the integration situation came up. You remember, the student and faculty struck to keep Negroes out of white schools.

Well now Sheffield is right in the middle of a ban on Elvis Presley. To wit, this story which appeared in Saturday's Dallas News: "If he's sensitive about the Mansfield School Board's opinion of him Elvis Presley will make a bee-line for Heartbreak Hotel."

"Because the school trustees have made it plain that they don't love him-tender or otherwise."

"The tempest-in-a-tube started last week when two grade school admirers of the calf-eyed caterwauler showed up for class wearing skirts emblazoned with Elvis' name. They were sent home."

"By the time the school board opened its regular meeting Monday night, there were several indignant parents on hand."

"Some of the women were dissatisfied with the way things were going. O. C. Rawdon, president of the school board, said Friday."

"One of the women is Mrs. Elcuse Johnston, who operates a beauty shop across from the Erma Nash Elementary School, and whose daughter is in the sixth grade."

"I listen to rock and roll myself and pat my feet to it," she said Friday, while the voice of Elvis, belaboring 'When My Blue Moon Turns to Gold Again,' came over the table radio in her shop."

"But the school board stuck by Principal M. M. Sheffield, and the ban on Presleyana—clothing, jewelry and hair-do's—became official."

"Now, apparently, Elvis will have to go 'underground' in Mansfield—at least during school hours. Nobody will say so, but it's possible the first bar of 'Houn Dawg' may take on the same onerous overtones as the famed opening notes of Beethoven's Fifth—the 'V' for victory' theme of Europe's World War II underground."

The whole situation reminds us much of Texas' traffic laws. Sounds like to us folks are just making some rules which were made to break in the first place."

Anyone still doubt that President Eisenhower is indeed a Republican? This is not criticism of the President. We think the United States would be in terrible shape if everyone was a Democrat (or a Republican, either). But we have regretted the fact that Ike has been able to get citizens to vote the Republican ticket without even realizing that's what they were doing.

Scout Week Is Now Underway

"If You Can Take It," Fishing Is Best Now

For the benefit of some of you guys who just can't stand it much longer if you don't get in a little fishing pretty soon, the Telegram solicits for your consideration the following article which was sent in here from the Texas Game and Fish Commission entitled "Biting Fish Reward Hardy Texas Anglers."

For the fellow "who can take it," this is the best fresh water fishing season of the year, reports the Chief Aquatic Biologist for the Game and Fish Commission.

He said good luck tales from lakes and streams support studies showing that fishing begins to pick up on the first of the calendar year. He added that the happy angling days will continue on into the spring and then begin tapering off in the peak of the summer.

Advantages Told Of HS Driver Education

For the benefit of many of our readers who are interested in Driver Education as it should be taught in the public schools, we are reprinting herewith an editorial which appeared in the Austin American pointing out the importance of a Driver Education Program for the entire State.

The article follows: High School Driver Education extends one of the most promising weapons in the battle to prevent traffic accidents; it offers a sound conservation program of human resources.

Teenage Baseball Meeting Planned

An organizational meeting of the Eastland teenage baseball league will be held Friday night in the Texas Electric conference room.

Blair Lewis In Serious Condition

Blair Lewis of Eastland remained in serious condition this morning in the St. Joseph Hospital in Fort Worth after a two story fall Saturday.

FIRST IN THE NATION—The first commercial-sized, breeder-reactor atomic power plant is gradually shaping up in Monroe, Mich. Shown is the foundation for the atomic reactor building, the dome-shaped unit which will provide the energy for the Enrico Fermi plant. Located at the bottom of a 56-foot excavation, the foundation itself is 20 feet deep and 87 feet across. The breeding process, scientists say, will extend the supply of atomic fuel to outlast the reserves of fossil fuels more than 50 times.

Junior High Teams Post Two Important Wins

Eastland Junior High teams won a pair of cage games last night. The girls downed Carbon 33-16 and the boys defeated Breckenridge 36-20.

Livestock Show Will Award $1200 In 1957

More than $1,200 will be distributed among the owners of winning animals at the annual Eastland County Livestock Show to be held at Eastland Friday and Saturday, March 29 and 30, according to show officials.

Methodist Church Plans Noteburning Program

The First Methodist Church is now putting the final touches on its preparation for the Homecoming of former members, the "noteburning" ceremony, and the official dedication of the church building to take place at the church Feb. 17.

Bishop William C. Martain, bishop of the Dallas-Fort Worth area of the Methodist Church, will preach the official dedicatory sermon.

Rev. Richard R. Smith, III, pastor, expects many out-of-town former members of the church to return to their former church home for this occasion. Several former pastors are expected to be here, and the Rev. Smith invites anyone who knows of anyone that might be interested in coming to be sure and let that person know of the Homecoming.

An old-fashioned dinner will be held in Fellowship Hall of the church after the dedicatory service, followed by a visitation period when all can have friendly get-together and renew old acquaintances, the pastor said.

Nine Forty-Five Bible Class Vice President Leonard Florence said today that his class would like to remind all members and former members, both in Eastland and out of town, that Feb. 17 will also be Homecoming Sunday for his class.

Anticipating that there will be several out-of-town people in Eastland for the church homecoming, Florence said he would like to extend to all of them an invitation to attend Sunday School with his class.

"Anyone who hasn't received a formal invitation should not let this keep him from coming," the vice president added. "We've mailed out a lot of invitations to former members but we can't get them all. Anyone knowing of a former member we ought to invite formally can do us a favor by leaving his name and address with me at my office and I'll take care of it," he said.

"What we're interested in is letting the public know of our homecoming. They'll come if they know about it," he continued.

THE MIGHTY CHRYSLER

Most glamorous car in a generation

It makes 'em Stare-anywhere!

You see it any place... and you want to look at it. There's a pride and a prance to it that gives you a lift, makes you feel alive and vital. But the real tingle is driving it!

There it is... as long and low and purposeful as a gleaming jet, with its long rakish fenders streaming back and up like battle flags. This is the dynamic new look of 1957 motoring, and we can't help it if others aren't there yet. Give 'em time—we always have.

The important thing to know is that every flowing "go" line in this 1957 Chrysler has a purpose. That low-slung body and upswep tail were engineered for a new kind of road stability. They are the architectural results of Chrysler's Torque-Aire ride, the all-new suspension that gives you sports car cornering with the comfort of an ocean liner.

Front coil springs have been completely eliminated. There's up to 56% more glass area to enhance its roomy feel. The wide, low grille features hooded dual headlights. And if you want to find out what "go" really is, wait till you boss its up-to-325 horsepower engine and pushbutton TorqueFlite transmission. The real tingle is waiting for you. Come in and see us... or just telephone. We'll gladly arrange a demonstration.

Father of Ranger Woman To Be Buried At Ovalo

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Tucker Memorial Methodist Church of Ovalo, Texas, for Bert P. Clifton, father of Mrs. Joe E. Collins of Ranger, who died of pneumonia at 3:30 p.m. Sunday in a hospital at Harlingen.

Burial will be in the McBee Cemetery with Fry Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

After retiring from the Railway Mail Service in 1936, Mr. Clifton moved to Eastland where he established the first Western Auto Store of that city. He was also a member of the Methodist Church Choir while there. He moved to Abilene in 1939.

Other survivors besides Mrs. Collins are his wife, a son, Burton Clifton of Fort Worth and two other daughters, Mrs. A. W. Stockton of Fort Worth and Mrs. R. H. Ferriss of Harlingen.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE SUNDAY

college courses that are being offered by Howard Payne College at RJC starting Wednesday evening, February 6, at 6:30.

Registration for the two courses will take place at that time in the main office at RJC under supervision of Dr. Joe Rushing of Howard Payne. They are open to everyone, including those doing graduate work, and full credit will be given for Junior and Senior Class work as well as full credit on graduate work.

The two courses include one 3-hour course in Education which will be taught on Wednesday evening of each week, and one 3-hour course on Municipal Government which will be taught on Thursday evening of each week.

Tuition is $30 for Juniors and Seniors and $36 for graduate students.

Dr. Price Ashton, RJC President, has pointed out that married veterans with one child can take the two courses and draw $80 a month; married veterans with no children can draw $67.50 a month for the two courses, and single veterans will be allowed $55 a month.

Everyone interested in furthering their education by taking advantage of these two classes is asked to be at the college Wednesday night for registration. It is about the cheapest method ever devised to get two full college credits at such a low price.

AH, YOUTH—Nothing fazed by subzero temperatures, three-and-one-half-year-old Betsy Fish of Newton, Mass., obviously eats up her Arctic-like surroundings. While her soft elders huddle indoors for warmth, Betsy plays in her snow tunnel and nibbles at an icy sandwich.

vice president of Employers Company, and its general manager, J. O. Musick of Austin, has worked diligently in encouraging Driver Education programs, in high schools, through seminars in colleges and universities, and public conferences. At present TSA is seeking the support of legislators in making the facilities for Driver Education available to our secondary schools under the Gilmer-Aikin bill. Indications so far are favorable.

The Department of Public Safety, under the leadership of its Director, Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., has done everything within its bounds to gain an expanded program for our schools. In one such move, Colonel Garrison had this to say:

"It has become apparent that a trained instructor in a school room could improve bad driving habits, or prevent them from being formed in the first place, since the classroom instructor has access to the students at a considerably more impressive age."

He said he believes the lesson could be taught much faster in the classroom by a qualified teacher, than on the highway by a Patrolman... and at a greatly reduced expense to the State.

The Texas Education Agency, National Safety Council, The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Parent-Teacher Association, universities and colleges, local safety councils, the press and other media have likewise been encouraging Driver Education.

But, one thing is sadly lacking, and that is the active support of Mr. and Mrs. Texas. Until public apathy is abated, the annual accident lists cannot be noticeably shortened. Until we, as individuals, express our opinions to our elected representatives and our school administrators, we cannot expect our highways to be safe ways.

If that sounds pessimistic, then let it be put in another way. Suppose that you have two children who are now less than two years old—we can call one John and the other Mary. Now, unless some radical adjustment is made in our present traffic control program, you can expect either John or Mary to be killed or seriously injured in a traffic accident before he or she reaches the age of 21. It's up to you.

Gorman Gatherings

By Mrs. R. E. Boucher

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bennett and son, Roy, were current visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bennetts mother, Mrs. Mollie Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Marshall of Fort Worth were weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Marshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Andrus.

Mrs. Millie Stanton of Breckenridge visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gray.

Mrs. Nettie Rider has been visiting the past two weeks with her son, Floyd and family in Midland.

Mrs. Ethel Barker is on an extended visit with her children in Enid and Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Boswell came home Tuesday from Fort Worth where he has been employed for the past six weeks.

Mrs. J. E. Walker attended a dinner Tuesday night at the District Parsonage in Cisco given by Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Peacock for the District Trustees and wives of the Methodist Churches of the Cisco District.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Whitt received word that a cousin, Mrs. Roger Quarles, was killed instantly in a car collision near Megorgel.

They were en route from Dallas to Lubbock. The couple's seven year old daughter, riding in the car driven by her father, was injured and was still unconscious in an Olney hospital at this report.

Hails Driver Education In High School

Figures released by the Bureau of Public Roads indicate that there are now more than 65 million vehicles registered in this country. This means a net gain, for 1956, of approximately 3-million more vehicles on the roads today than in 1955.

And, if the trend continues, we can expect 80-million in 1966 and over a 100-million crowding the roads by 1975.

What do these figures mean to you, as a motorist?

Well for one thing—if you think Quarles received minor injuries. Burial for Mrs. Quarles was Thursday at 2 p.m. in Lubbock.

the traffic accident toll is terrible now, just wait 'til the above predictions become realities. Try to visualize 50,000 to 75,000 vehicle deaths each year.

The overall traffic problem must be attacked on all fronts, with stepped-up engineering, education and enforcement. However, for our purposes here, let's look at what just one of the phases offers as a partial solution and how we stand—that of education.

High school driver education extends one of the most promising weapons in the battle to prevent traffic accidents; it offers a sound conservation program of human resources.

Surveys reveal how young drivers who have received classroom and practice driving instruction have less than half as many accidents and violations as those young drivers who have had no formal training. In Connecticut, for example, the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles reported last November that only one per cent of their trained young drivers were involved in accidents, in the preceding year, compared to nine per cent of non-trained drivers.

Texas, according to records of the Texas Safety Association, falls far behind many states, but some headway is being made. During the 1955-56 school year our secondary schools trained nearly 23,083 youngsters to be better, thus safer drivers in our state. Insurance companies have been quick to see the advantages of such a program and have reduced insurance rates by 10 per cent to those who have completed approved driver training courses.

Where do the educators stand? A survey made this past summer by TSA shows that principals and superintendents are overwhelmingly in favor of an expanded driver education program. Generally, they believed it should begin in the ninth grade.

But, many roadblocks prevent the expansion of high school driver education, the most serious of which are the costs to the school, fitting the course into an already crowded curriculum and a shortage of properly trained teachers. These obstacles are emphasized by the fact that in spite of a growing public understanding, only 11.5 per cent of Texas' eligible students receive a complete course; one including both classroom and practice driving instruction—the need is obvious.

As has been indicated, the driver training program has not been without some support. To be more specific, new car dealers have made outstanding contributions to the program by making driver-training cars available to schools on a loan basis or by offering them at greatly reduced rates. They stand ready to go more.

Still others have contributed greatly to the promotion of driver education. The Texas Safety As-

Friendship And 9:49 Classes To Have Chili Feast

The Friendship Class of the First Christian Church and the Men's 9:49 Bible Class of the First Methodist Church will have a joint chili supper Thursday evening, Emmett Powell, president of the Friendship Class announced Sunday.

All Eastland men, whether a member of the classes or not are invited to come out Thursday for an evening of Christian fellowship and enjoy a good chili supper.

Powell said his class had some of the best chili makers in the Southwest and assured all that his chili makers would do a good job of putting out some really good chili.

For those who are troubled with slight indigestion or heartburn from chili, Powell said, "there would be plenty of soda crackers on hand."

Cadillac His Golden Anniversary at the Wheel! In Texas, there is a gentleman who is currently driving out his fiftieth year at the wheel of a Cadillac car. In New Jersey, there is another gentleman who has purchased every yearly model that Cadillac has produced over the past fifty-three years. These are simply dramatic examples of one of the most remarkable truisms in all motordom: that once a man takes the wheel of a Cadillac, he usually remains at the wheel of a Cadillac! To be sure, a motor car would have to offer many unique virtues in order to win so generous a place for itself in the affections of so many. And, in the case of Cadillac, we think these virtues are self-evident. There is, first of all, quality. No effort of styling or design or craftsmanship is ever spared to make Cadillac the finest possible motor car. There is beauty and luxury and performance. The car's magnificent styling and interior coachwork have, over the years, brought Cadillac an inbred majesty and elegance that are entirely its own... and Cadillac engineering has been the industry's constant inspiration. Finally, there is reputation. Never in automotive history has another motor car sustained such an abiding public conviction in its own goodness. And, certainly, these basic Cadillac ingredients have this year reaped their richest harvest. So whether you've been at the wheel of a Cadillac for half a century... or have yet to spend your first hour in the "car of cars"... you should see and drive this newest of Cadillacs. Need we say more?

Jean Whitten, Bride-elect Is Honored Friday Mrs. Jean Whitten, daughter of Mrs. David Whitten was honored at a gift tea, Friday evening from 7 to 9 in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. She is the bride-elect choice which was son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Edwards, also of Eastland. Their marriage will take place in the First Baptist Church, Friday Feb. 15th at 7:30 p.m. with the pastor, Rev. Harvey Kimbler, performing the ceremony. The Fellowship Hall was delightfully decorated in colors of the bride-elects choice was pink and white. On the piano was a large love bird heart with white candles burning on each side of it. Mrs. Fern Green and Mrs. Irl Inzer alternated greeting the guest and introducing them to the receiving line consisting of the honoree, Jean, her mother, Mrs. Whitten, prospective groom's mother, Mrs. Edwards, the honoree sisters, Mrs. E. L. Smith of Jacksboro and Mrs. Ansel Fortenberry of Decatur, and Miss Betty Nel Jones of Eastland. Mrs. Johnson Smith and Mrs. Jack Muirhead, alternated, at the registration table. Mrs. Henry Sims, Mrs. Clyde Manning, and Mrs. J. C. Poe served punch and cake and salted nuts from an attractively decorated table, crystal appointments with three candles on each side of a lovely appointment of carnations, snap dragons and fern were used. The center piece had the names "Jean and Neal" inscribed on it, as did the dainty napkins. Mrs. Hubert Westfall and Mrs. L. D. Harris were on hand for the good byes, after the guests had been shown four long tables of lovely and useful gifts. About 60 guests registered. The back ground music was furnished by Evan Mitchell, who arranged a very good selection of records for the guests enjoyment. Mitchell is Edwards Sunday School teacher. Have you invited an ex-student to be a guest in your home during the Eastland High School homecoming, June 8-9? If you haven't, do so today. Make this Texas' biggest Homecoming of 1957!

L. G. Powell, M. O. Hazard, E. J. Williamson, A. E. Fox and Walter Duncan have been working this week making some improvements on the house known as property of the Merriman Cemetery Association, located on Highway 80 between Eastland and Ranger.

This community was visited by a heavy rain which will be very beneficial to pastures and the grain crops.

Born In February?

You Share Amethyst Birthstone With Charles Darwin, Charles Lindbergh, Clark Gable. February's birthstone, the amethyst—symbol of sincerity—is said to have been the favorite stone of St. Valentine. He wore one engraved with a Cupid, popularizing it as a stone for lovers and making it particularly appropriate in modern times as a St. Valentine's Day expression of sentiment.

Entitled to wear the amethyst, birthstone for February, are Charles Lindbergh, American pioneer in aviation, and Charles Darwin, scientist and naturalist. Also on the February list are inventor Thomas Alva Edison and the untiring 17th Century diarist, Samuel Pepys, along with well-known contemporaries in theatrical arts: Clark Gable, Katherine Cornell and Lana Turner.

Worn by the Crusaders as symbols of inner serenity, amethysts, according to legends compiled by the Jewelry Industry Council, were long left to be ample safeguards against unrest. They still are traditional in bishops' rings and appear in the English Coro-
