ABOUT Eastland
By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Mrs. Howard Gill was the first woman to phone in and complain about the story on lawn mowing. She said that part about poor Eastland husband's mowing their grass was a joke. "Look closer next time," she said, "and you will see those husbands are actually women."

Ed Layton had his little grandson in the office the other day showing him off. The youngster-like most his age—was all eyes. He was taking in everything, but our big safe seemed to bother him the most. The old safe is painted an olive green, and isn't much to look at. Finally the youth looked up at his grandfather, pointed to the safe and asked in all seriousness, "What's behind the green door?"

We have now been a member of the Eastland chapter of non-smokers of America for seven days. It hasn't been easy, but so far we haven't cheated but one little time. The organization has two other members, Willard Griffin and John Goode. We can't keep our eyes on the two guys all the time, so we would greatly appreciate it if you would let us know if you catch 'em smoking. Frankly, we don't trust the boys.

Tonight is our big night. We get to wash all the dishes you folks can dirty up at the Lions Club Pancake Supper. We don't ask too much of you folks, but would you please go easy on the syrup. That stuffs might hard to get out of a plate.

See where Horton Ceramics has set the time for their annual sale of factory seconds and discontinued items. Mrs. Horace Horton tells us that actually they don't have much time to fool with the sale. It has become such a tradition here, however, that they felt they better go ahead and have it this year. The Hortons at present are fixing to expand their activities here. May we take this rare chance to point out the excellent home grown industry that we have in Texas' largest ceramics factory.

Eb Richardson Shows 10 Barn Door Crappie

Eb Richardson, caretaker at the Lake Leon Dam, broke a bunch of hearts around here Monday when he displayed a string of 10 barn door crappie that weighed more than 11 pounds. Each fish weighed a little more than a pound and they were all matched mates to a "T".

Eb caught the fish Monday morning, fishing with a pole and minnows near the dam. Chamber of Commerce manager Rip Gallo-way saw Richardson with the fish and promptly ushered him into Capps Studio where the string was photographed for future use in advertising Lake Leon.

12,510,000 Bbls. Pumped In Jan. By Gulf Oil Corp.

A total of 12,510,000 barrels of oil were pumped through the Ranger Station by Gulf Oil Corporation during the month of January, it has been learned. This represents one of the highest months in a long time, and pumping often reached as high as 415,000 barrels a day.

Oil which comes into Ranger in small pipelines is pumped from the station here to Fort Arthur through a 26-inch line, one of the biggest there is.

More U. S. oil is being demanded these days to make up for the oil shortage brought on by the blockade of the Suez Canal.

Court Bill's Chances Good

Chances for a bill which would add Callahan County to the 91st District Court in Eastland appeared good Thursday.

House Bill 28, introduced by Rep. Paul Brashear of Cisco, seemed to be gaining support on every side. At a public hearing before the Judicial District Committee in Austin Wednesday Rep. Truett Lattimer of Abilene asked for a delay on a vote on the bill in order that he could poll the Taylor County Bar Association. He told the sub-committee that he is not necessarily opposing the bill but that he would like one week in which to learn the majority views of attorneys in his county.

The bill would split Callahan County from the 42nd Judicial District and add it to Eastland County, Shackelford County, also in the 42nd, would be combined with Stephens and Young counties in the 90th District.

Court officials from all districts except Abilene told the sub-committee that they and their bar association members are wholeheartedly behind the bill.

And Atty. Davis Scarborough of Abilene presented the sub-committee with a petition signed by 19 Abilene lawyers favoring the proposal.

"Abilene has made a tremendous growth," he declared. "If we don't get this bill passed, we will have to come back and ask for creation of a new district court."

It was pointed out in the hearing, that the move would require addition of the office of district attorney in the 91st District. At present the Eastland County attorney serves as district attorney as well.

Annual County Orchard Field Day Being Held

The annual Eastland County Orchard Field Day got underway this morning in Rising Star at 10 a.m. Most of the program will be held this afternoon, however, at the C. E. Smith orchard southwest of Rising Star.

"Marketing, fertilization, new grape varieties adapted to this area, control of the brown rot and curculin on peaches, pruning and new varieties will be discussed or demonstrated," J. M. Cooper, county agent said.

There will be orchard plowing demonstrations by three firms, one from Eastland, Gorman and Rising Star.

Those on the program include T. E. Denman, horticulturist, agricultural experiment station in Stephenville; J. V. Laird, head of the horticultural department of Taylor State College; B. G. Hancock, horticulturist, A & M College extension station in Montague, and J. W. Foster Jr., entomologist of Weatherford.

This morning's session was held at the American Legion Hall in Rising Star. At noon all enjoyed sack lunches.

Speakers this morning described this area as having great potentials, and urged more interest in the orchard field.

Court Of Honor Ends Troop's Scout Week

Eastland Boy Scout Troop 103 closed out National Scout Week with a Court of Honor before more than 60 Scouts, parents, commit-tees and their guests here Tuesday night.

The ceremony was held at the city park around a huge bonfire in an outdoor setting. Parents and guests witnessed the opening ceremonies in the scout hut and then marched single file in scout tradition to the bonfire, where the court of honor was held. The meeting was closed with the Scoutmaster benediction and a prayer by Billy Moylan.

Receiving the Star award was Mike Potts. Four boys, Clark Conner, Lyndell R. Garrett, Eddy

Dry and Homer Carroll received second class badges.

Merit badges went to Ray Dendy, reading; Mike Potts, scholarship; and Tommy Humphreys, farm and home and its planning and farm layout and its arrangement.

Den chief cords were awarded to the following boys: Mike Potts and Ray Dendy, Webelos den; Billy Moylan, Den 1; Lyndell R. Garrett, Den 2; Bobby Cartwright, Den 3; and Mickey Garner, Den 5.

Troop 103 is the largest scout troop in the North Texas District and is sponsored by the Eastland Lions Club. M. G. Cartwright is scoutmaster and James Reid, is assistant.

A new wildcat location has been staked in Eastland County, the W. G. Arnot, Jr., of Breckenridge No. 1. J. W. Dennison, six miles Southwest of Cisco. Spotting is 330 feet from the north and west lines of Section 101, Block 3, H&TC Survey. Proposed depth is 3,200 feet with rotary.

Milton Perry To Serve As MC At Church Banquet

Travis Harrell, president of the Men's 9:49 Bible Class, announced today that Milton Perry will be master of ceremonies at the 28th annual Father and Son Banquet Friday evening, Feb. 22 at 7 p.m.

Perry is an Eastland insurance man, well known all over the north side of the square as one of the best raconteurs in town, Harrell said.

Principal speaker for this occasion will be Lawrence Melton, a Dallas banker and insurance man who makes Boy Scouting and Boy Scout work his hobby.

Ed Willman is in charge of ticket sales and tickets are available from class members or at Davis Drug Store for the usual price of one dollar, the same price in past years.

The women of the Martha Doreas class of the First Methodist Church will again prepare the menu.

When asked if he was going to brush up on Miller's joke book for some wittisms to pull oratorically at the banquet, Perry said, "Why, certainly not. I don't have to. I keep a diary—or at least I did when I was a kid. All I have to do to brush up on some good stories is to read it."

"Perry is recognized as one of the best, if not the best, tellers of Texas-type tall stories with a San Saba accent this side of the Colorado River," Harrell explained.

Dimes Dance To Be Held Saturday Night by Legion

Eastland's March of Dimes Dance, sponsored by the American Legion Post, will be held Saturday at Legion Hall.

Pop Whitaker of Eastland and his band have volunteered to play for the dance and all profits will go to the Dimes Drive.

This will be the last chance for Eastland citizens to give to the MOD this year.

X-Ray Unit Will Be Here Early In April

The Texas State Health Department has scheduled a visit of one of the state's x-ray machines to Eastland County in early April, Dr. E. R. Townsend, county health officer, revealed today.

Dr. Townsend said that he had been asked by the department to hold a county-wide meeting in Eastland Feb. 26 to make plans for the mass chest x-ray program. The meeting will be held in the Texas Electric conference room at 10 a.m. Representatives of civic clubs and anyone else who is interested from each town in the county that wants the unit to visit their city must be present for the meeting, Dr. Townsend said.

The x-ray survey has not been made in Eastland County for about three years. Dr. Townsend said the program was serving as a great weapon against TB and urged Eastland County citizens to plan now to take advantage of the free x-ray service.

Dr. Townsend said that plans had been made to have the survey in Eastland at the Texas Electric building when the unit is brought here in April. He said x-rays would be given free at that time to any person over 15. "We have found that adults spread the disease," he explained.

A chairman will be named for each city which indicated that it would like to have the unit brought to that city, Dr. Townsend said. The program works like this: A person gets his free x-ray. The x-ray is then checked for signs of TB. The person is then notified of the results, and if any signs are found he is asked to see his own physician.

Police were called and at the time everybody thought a genuine shooting had taken place, and for all anybody knows it may have been the real thing.

BUT, that is a mighty big "but," all the king's officers and all the king's men haven't been able to find hide nor hair of the car even after blocking all the roads and searching all night, and what's more, there wasn't a sign of blood on the gravel in front of the cafe where the man is supposed to have received the fatal slug.

A boy and a girl who had been spooning out near the Hagaman dam reported to police they had seen a trio of suspicious looking men out there who had caused them to abandon whatever it was they were doing, and one of the

Self Reliance Is Asked In Filing Income Return

No longer can an able-bodied wage earner walk up to the desk at Internal Revenue and order, "Fill 'er out."

Even greater emphasis is being placed on Revenue's "Self-Help Program" this year, A. E. Fogle, Jr., Administrative officer of the Abilene, Texas office explains.

This marks the third filing period that taxpayers are being asked to be self-reliant whenever possible. Under this successfully tested set-up most taxpayers are filling out their own returns, unless they are incapable of doing their own with the assistance provided by the self-help IRS methods.

Revenue, nationally, through the

There's an old saying in basketball if you make 32 per cent of your shots you win. Yet RJC made 39 per cent of its shots and lost simply because Tarleton was hotter than a pistol and made 69 per cent of its shots.

Bubba Canuteson was high point man for the Rangers, sinking six field goals and six free shots for a total of 18. James Tull and Doug Jordan were tied for second place scoring honors with 14 points each.

Other scorers and their points were Bill Light 7, Jimmy Everett 6, Ronald Darnell 5, Alton Williams 3, Bob Baker 2, and George Boynton 1.

Active in Better Government Legislation
Two prominent Texas legislators are pictured here as they confer on plans for "Better Government" legislation. Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro (left) is discussing Texas Press Association bills with Rep. Virginia Duff of Ferris. They have introduced identical bills in the Senate and the House. Their bills require publication of financial reports by school districts and other districts now handling millions of dollars in public funds and not making a public accounting of same.

Japan has placed a ceiling of 235 million square yards annually on cotton-textile exports to the United States. This will remain in effect for five years.

The national debt is expected to be $289,200,000,000 at the end of the 1958 fiscal year, compared with the peak $274,400,000,000 at the end of the 1955 fiscal year.

A railroad freight car's average carrying capacity is 53 tons.

SAVE TAX HEADACHES NEXT YEAR

There is no time like the present to start a procedure that will aid you with next year's income tax calculations. That is to maintain a record of your income and outgo. Such a record can be simple and brief but it may save you tax dollars and many hours of work in filling out tax forms.

The average man who works for a wage or salary doesn't have to concern himself about keeping books and records—at least so he thinks. His employer keeps a reliable record of his earnings and Uncle Sam looks primarily to the employer for information on his earnings and far the withholding of various taxes out of his wages.

But whether or not you run a business of your own, you have a substantial interest in your personal income. And the law requires that you keep books for him in case he ever asks for an accounting.

Perhaps you own your home or are paying it out in installments. It's likely that some day you may sell that house. When you do you'll want to be able to prove whether you realized a gain or a loss on that sale. If a gain in capital resulted, it probably will add to your income tax. If a loss was suffered, it probably will reduce your income tax.

You may have made several capital improvements on the house while you lived in it, but unless you can show what out-of-pocket expense you incurred while making them, you may not get credit for them in your cost basis so as to prove that you had no capital gain or that you had a loss.

Or perhaps you received that little summer cottage on the lake as a gift from your father. If you ever sell it, you should be able to show Uncle Sam not only the cost of improvements you made on it while you owned it, but also what its fair market value was at the time Dad gave it to you.

It may be that you are receiving an annuity on an insurance policy. If so, do you know how much that policy costs you and how much of that cost you have recovered tax-free to date?

There are many kinds of transactions you enter into that may some day affect the computation of your personal income tax. The best proof of the cost of anything you've purchased is a receipted bill or cancelled check. If one of these pieces of evidence relates to any transaction that may affect your income in later years, it's a good idea to keep it. Your "partner" may some day ask to see it.

Divers Study Habits Of Fish To Catch More

AUSTIN — Gangland tactics of feeding black bass and immunity of fish to noise at shallow depths are reported by Texas Game and Fish aquatic divers in their studies to familiarize anglers with secrets of the deep and to improve fishing luck. The Chief Aquatic Biologist for the Commission said the noise observations particularly as concerns the increasing popularity of motorboats, "may provoke some adjusted attitudes toward surface disturbances and their effect on fishing."

He suggested for "more entertaining reading" the reports made by Aquatic Biologist John E. Tilton, assistant project chief, on observations in Lake Travis of the Highland Lakes chain about one kind of fish preying on another.

Tilton wrote that black bass seemed to use organized gangster tactics in rounding up some bluegill. He stated: "Two small black bass were seen feeding on a school of Rio Grande fry. Five or six of the fry became separated from the main school and sought cover in a small patch of vegetation approximately one foot in diameter. The two bass took stations on opposite sides of the vegetation patch and waited. As the perch fry left the cover to rejoin the main group, they were instantly captured by one or another of the bass."

The diving technicians, who penetrate to depths of as much as one hundred feet, noted "It appears strange to see the predator and prey species sometimes existing so harmoniously together until some spark sets off a feeding spurge when many of the prey species are devoured." They added: "Other instances have shown small black bass slicing viciously through schools of Rio Grande perch fry, taking one or two with each dash. While the bass are actively feeding, the young are frantically seeking cover in moss or crevices. Suddenly, when the bass becomes gluttoned or stop feeding, the perch fry leave cover, congregate again into a compact group and move on, often side by side with the bass which had been feeding on the school."

Concerning surface noises, Tilton's crew wrote: "A motor power outboard motor is used frequently in the diving areas and observations are in progress. No difference in numbers of fish seen or general activity can be seen during periods of extensive use of the motor and periods when the motor is not in use. On one occasion the boat was run at full speed back and forth over a test area. The fish in the area completely ignored the motor noise and continued normal activities. . . . Other surface sounds are believed to have little effect on fish activity. The fish observed completely ignored common surface sounds such as movement in the boat, talking by helpers on the surface, and even low flying jet aircraft. Below surface noises actually attracted fish, noted the divers, who reported "It was noticed that certain fish could be enticed within inches of the diving team by tapping two small rocks together. . . . Although most species appear curious only, the longear sunfish seems to be infuriated by the tapping sound and would, often viciously and repeatedly attack the rocks. . . ."

"In addition to the rocks, a small metal can containing steel bolts was sealed and used as a noise producer. By shaking the can, a drum-like noise was produced which could be heard distinctly at a range of 100 feet. . . . Obvious interest was shown by bass, sunfish, and Rio Grande perch."

Potatoes Deserve Daily Place On American Menus

by JULIA HUNTER Home Economics Director, Lone Star Gas Company

Potatoes deserve their daily place on the menus of American families. A significant source of Vitamin C, they also provide other vitamins, minerals, protein, and they are rich in energy-giving carbohydrates.

Because potatoes are rich in vitamins and minerals just below the skin, peel them paper thin if they must be peeled. While there are hundreds of recipes for potatoes, certain dishes seem to remain the favorites day in and day out, year after year. Washed, baked, stuffed, scalloped, hashed brown, au gratin, American fried and French fried, stay at the top of the list.

To have light fluffy mashed potatoes, don't spare the beating. Add really hot milk to boiled washed potatoes and beat hard. The base of mashed potatoes, a little diced onion, a sprinkling of grated cheese or a few slices of minced beef will add flavor variety to mashed potatoes. One pound or about 3 medium potatoes will make approximately 2 cups mashed potatoes.

So skins of baked potatoes won't be left on plates, scrub them dry potatoes thoroughly and rub them well with fat before baking. This keeps skins tender-soft and gives them delicious flavor. Bake potatoes in a hot oven, 425 degrees F., for about one hour for large ones. Break the skin immediately upon removal from oven so steam may escape and potatoes won't become soggy.

For delicious creamy scalloped potatoes, cook thinly sliced peeled raw potatoes and onions 5 minutes in 1 inch boiling water in a covered saucepan. Meantime, make a thin white sauce. Drain the potatoes and onions, saving the water for soup or sauce at a later date. In a greased casserole, arrange a layer of potatoes and onions, then a layer of sauce so there are three layers of potatoes and onions and three layers of sauce. Bake in 400 degree F. oven. Four-and-one-half cups potatoes, 1 1/2 cups onions and 1 1/2 cups white sauce will make six servings. Bake in a 1 1/2 quart casserole 35 minutes.

If you prefer old fashioned scalloped potatoes, arrange a layer of thinly sliced peeled raw potatoes in a greased casserole. Sprinkle potatoes with chopped onion, salt, pepper and flour and dot with butter or margarine. Repeat until all potatoes are used. Pour warm milk over all. Bake in 375 degree F. oven. Four cups potatoes, 2 3/4 cup onion, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine and 1 1/2 cups warm milk will make 4 servings. Bake in 2-quart casserole one hour or until tender.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Hashed Brown Potatoes: Grate on coarse grater or dice in 1/4 inch dice 4 cooked medium potatoes. Add and toss lightly until well mixed 1 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 1 tablespoon grated onion, if desired. Heat in 10-inch skillet over medium flame 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons bacon drippings. Pour potatoes into hot fat. Press them down firmly with a turner and shape them in a large circle leaving 1/2 inch of bubbling fat around the circle. Cook 15 to 20 minutes or until potatoes are steaming hot and deep golden brown on the bottom. With turner, make a cut through potatoes from far edge to center. Fold these quarters onto the uncut half of the circle. Slip turner under folded circle and quickly turn onto warm platter so brown uncut side is on top. Makes 4 servings.

Getting the Job Done—

... is a good answer to the student's question, "What is success?" The same answer will serve for the rest of us who operate a business, engage in a profession, or those who work for others. The division line between success and failure is drawn at this point. This is what the banker, the real estate broker or the lawyer does when he closes a real estate sale and sees that the property of his client is adequately insured by a reliable, local agent.

STORY NO. 9—in a series of articles on Duval County by Frederick Hodgson and Franz Rosenwald, New York newspaper and magazine writers who visited Duval County and wrote the series exclusively for Texas readers.

Decline of Duval Dukedom Shows How Publicity Withers Dictators

By-FREDERICK HODGSON SAN DIEGO, Tex.—What was it that finally pulled the props from under George Parr's political dictatorship? The people? The State? The Federal Government? The newspapers? They all had a hand in it!

There were also the Texas Rangers, and a lot of freedom-hungry Duval residents both "Anglo" and "Mexican." And there were some Texas newspapers and newspapermen who risked life or limb, or both.

Without them, former Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd's assault on the iron-clad county of Duval might have been a grand and valiant flop. He knew that when he started.

As it turned out, the newspapers were eager to print the facts about George B. Parr, if they just had some facts to print. When they had the facts, they pulled all the stops. That's when the machine began to come apart.

There was a spunky newspaper here and there that had been chipping away at the foundation all along, within the bounds of legality and discretion.

The Alice Daily Echo wasn't afraid of the Boss. And when the facts began to emerge the Echo's proof-reader, a little woman named Caro Brown, turned reporter and won herself a Pulitzer Prize. But not without having her own life and that of her teen-age daughter threatened.

There was also Santos de la Paz over in Corpus Christi. He ran a little bi-lingual weekly called La Verdad, the Truth, and that's just what he tried to print about George Parr. Before it was over he wound up holding a giant libel suit, besides going to jail for getting over-eager and printing things he couldn't prove about some of Parr's friends. The libel suit turned out to be a legal trick to force Paz to reveal what he knew in a court hearing. The suit was later dropped.

ago were taken out of his hands, closed down by the state. His 65,000-acre ranch, bought with county funds, has gone back to the county, and another 4,000-acre place, "The Duke's," is now County Auditor, handling the purse strings, requiring a sworn statement from every county employee that he did the work for which he is paid. There are no more fictitious names on the checks. Every recipient of Duval County funds now has to be a flesh and blood reality with a name and a face.

When a boss loses his grip on the purse strings, he loses friends fast. Those who still stick by him, and they are few, remain at his side because they're in the same trouble he's in.

Not all of Parr's friends-in-distress stayed with him, however. County Judge Parr, long-time Parr supporter who was heavily indicted himself by Duval grand juries, pulled away from the Duke and in effect joined the forces opposing him. In the same way, County Attorney Sam Burris, to work with grand juries, Men like soft-spoken Willis Gresham, jovial Sam Ratliff, youngish Frank Pinedo, and efficient Ralph Rash. Most important, he kept bulldogging Sydney Chandler there, an eternal thorn in the side of the Duke. Back in Austin a battery of barristers in the Attorney General's office worked around the clock many times to keep ahead of George Parr, who was nobody's fool.

All these men have become symbols in Duval County. Symbols of the new order, of the democratic process, of the Constitution, of the law of the land as opposed to the law of the pistol and the whip.

The presence of the Law in Duval has changed even the conduct of the county's decent citizens. The old fear has been lifted. Election day used to be the day everybody stayed indoors, while the Duke's faithful marched to the polls to vote as instructed by the pistoleers who patrolled the polling places. You didn't go near them if you wanted to avoid serious unpleasantness. It was long years ago that the last man was killed at the polls on election day, but maybe that's only because the machine's opposition got smart and quit showing up to vote.

But now everybody votes in Duval, and they vote the way they feel. The impounding of the ballot boxes after each election to assure an honest count is standard operating procedure. People know that every ballot is now secret, and it makes a powerful difference in the way Duval voters mark the little square.

In any well-run dictatorship it's the natural leaders of a community that fall to the bottom and are kept there. But when the shake-up comes they rise back to the top. Before Shepperd had been in the county a month, citizens had formed the Duval County Clean Government League and started a campaign for reform. A hundred or so Duval women who said they were fed up with locking their doors at night and wondering if their husbands would come home alive, organized the United Mothers and Wives of Duval County.

In stories to follow, we'll take a closer look at the "new" Duval County, and at the proposed laws which will help prevent another "Dukedom" from springing up within the borders of the nation's largest state.
