Pope Works For Delay In Application Of Sanctions

War Unrest Brings Demonstrations In Egypt

(By The Associated Press) Pope Pius, ecclesiastical sources said today, is striving to postpone applications of the league of nations economic sanctions against Italy in the interest of peace.

At Cairo, Egypt, a British officer shot and killed a rioter and wounded three others. This made a total of four dead and 150 injured in two days of anti-British rioting.

British authorities said the situation did not require action by the government, and that no consideration was being given toward possible use of British troops for police work.

Ethiopia today formally charged that invading Italian soldiers had violated Ethiopian women and Abba Garina, Alsum, Adigrat and Abba Garina. The charges said wives of Ethiopian priests were among the victims, and that Italians had entered convents and violated young Sisters there.

A Rome communique said that 300 natives and an unidentified white man were killed on the Ethiopian side, and 17 Italians were killed and 63 wounded in an engagement in the upper valley of the Fafan river.

A daring Ethiopian ambuscade in territory occupied by Italy resulted in a sharp battle Wednesday in which many were killed.

After concealing themselves in maize surrounding a caravan trail southwest of Haulein, Northern Ethiopia, the tribesmen opened fire upon a long Italian caravan.

Bitter fighting followed in which the picturesque Spanish (native cavalrymen) of Libya were the heroes. After repeated charges with lances they drove the Ethiopians from the maize and put them to flight.

The cavalry detachment, under command of Italian officers including several noblemen, was serving as a convoy guard.

Along the northern front, the Italian forces moved into new territory.

Several skirmishes with the enemy on the flanks were reported. In the south, Ethiopian warriors were said to be withdrawing toward Harar.

Map Plans For Water Survey

WPA Labor Would Be Used In Project For Howard County

A. H. Dunlap of the state board of water engineers conferred with City Manager E. V. Spence Wednesday regarding plans for an underground water survey for the county.

The survey is being made in several West Texas counties under the direction of the state board. WPA labor will be used under the supervision of expert engineers.

Howard county is grouped with Mitchell and Nolan counties for purposes of the survey.

The groups conducting the survey will travel by trucks and will establish camps.

Dunlap was here last winter making a hurried survey of Howard county with the view of recharging the underground water supply. He expressed the opinion that the supply was adequate for a city of this size for several years but added that consumption had reached the point that the city was drawing on its reserves which might ultimately be exhausted or greatly diminished.

Trucks Prepared For Park Work

Truck beds were being constructed Thursday for four trucks to be used by the city of Big Spring in hauling materials on its park project.

It was estimated that hauling of chert and a small amount of caliche base might be started by Friday afternoon.

Work is going forward on the bridge structure on the main drive between the park entrance and park proper. Forms are virtually completed and ready for pouring of concrete.

Surfacing of the driveways may get under way within 10 days.

Chinese Flee In Fear Of A Jap Attack

Tokyo Denies Action, But Warns Anti-Jap Moves Must Be Stopped

SHANGHAI, Nov. 14. (AP)—Reports of an impending Japanese attack on the Chinese quarter here was promptly denied by Japanese authorities today; but it created a condition of near-panic among the Chinese.

Chinese fled the quarter in vast numbers, taking refuge in the international settlement and in the French settlement.

NANKING, China, Nov. 14. (AP)—The Japanese embassy today warned Nanking authorities of the necessity for more thorough measures in the carrying out of China's pledges for suppression of anti-Japanese activities throughout the country.

Japan insisted that the recent Shanghai incidents must be regarded as a breach of the Nanking government's mandates suppressing anti-Japanese organizations.

School Bids To Be Received At Coahoma Dec. 3

COAHOMA, Nov. 14.—Bids for the new Coahoma school building will be opened Dec. 3, Superintendent George Boswell said Wednesday.

The structure is to be built as a PWA project, Coahoma putting up $26,000 as its 55 per cent of the total cost. The remaining 45 per cent is in the nature of a direct grant from the federal government.

When completed, the building will provide five class rooms, a study hall, a home economics laboratory and a gymnasium.

It is probable that the high school grades will be moved to the new building and the other buildings devoted to elementary grades.

The new school building will be erected just west of the present school.

County Judge Departs To Defend Case

Action On Naming Highway Group Is Slated For Tomorrow

The element of surprise Thursday entered into the mandamus suit brought by the city against County Judge J. S. Garlington when L. E. Coleman, defendant in a condemnation proceeding brought by the city, joined the city in its petition for mandamus.

Filed At Eastland
Pleadings joining in the petition and supporting allegations set out in the petition were filed with 11th district court of civil appeals which will hear the case Friday.

The city of Big Spring brought the suit after Garlington had refused to appoint a special commission to appraise the Coleman property for damages by reason of a highway being routed through it.

Judge Garlington at first refused to appoint three commissioners agreed upon by the city and Coleman, et al, parties to the suit. Then he refused to appoint any three whatsoever.

Attorneys Leave
When he did not engage counsel here, Garlington left Thursday morning for Sweetwater where he was reported to be conferring with an attorney.

City Attorney Thomas J. Coffey and County Attorney Wilburn Barcus, representing the city in the suit, left Thursday noon for Eastland.

Should the appellate court uphold the petition for mandamus, Judge Garlington would be forced to appoint three disinterested persons as special commissioners to appraise the property.

Dave Nelson Is Seriously Ill Of Pneumonia

HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 14.—Dave Nelson, new manager of the Texas prison system, was gravely ill of pneumonia today.

An oxygen tent was brought here from Houston, to be used in treatment of the pneumonia.

The pneumonia attack was swift, Nelson becoming gravely ill after contracting a cold in Houston Monday.

Sweetwater Plans Special Train For San Angelo Game

SWEETWATER, Nov. 14.—Plans for a football special train to San Angelo were to be worked out at a meeting of the Sweetwater Luncheon club here today.

The club each year takes the lead in chartering the train to Sweetwater's big grid game away from home. Last year the train was operated by Big Spring, and the year before the train which carried local fans to San Angelo was one of the largest ever assembled in West Texas.

ITALY MAY SUSPEND TRADE AS AN ANSWER TO PENALTIES

ROME, Nov. 14. (U.P.)—Suspension of all trade and financial relations with nations cooperating in league penalties may be Premier Benito Mussolini's next step, it was indicated today.

Import restrictions on a long list of commodities and Italy's note warning league nations of their individual responsibility for penalties were regarded as preludes to the trade and finance suspension.

Continuing the work of preparing for the league sanctions to be imposed next Monday, Mussolini today forbade export of many commodities including corn, rye, barley, dried leguminous fruits, olive pulp, nitro benzol, graphite, aniline, naphthal, rubber, tires, benzol, toluol, all by-products and waste of the commodities named. The decree is effective at once.

Officers' Salary Measure Is Given House Approval

Other Important Bills Still In Committee

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (AP)—The Texas house of representatives today adopted a conference committee's report on a bill removing district and county officers from a fee to a salary basis. Only senate concurrence was needed to send the measure to the governor.

The fate of other major legislation including taxes for old age pensions and a bill to license automobile drivers hung in the balance as the legislature moved toward adjournment of the special session at midnight.

Liquor Bill Ready
The conference-written liquor control bill, restricting whisky sales to unbroken packages by licensed private dealers, was completed for submission to both houses later today. Disagreement on the measure among committees reduced the prospect for final enactment.

Conferees on the tax bill to provide pension costs made little progress.

The liquor bill would levy taxes and license fees estimated to raise $4,000,000 or more annually. Three-fourths would go toward paying pensions estimated to cost about $10,000,000.

The school fund would receive the remainder.

Dry majorities on the conference incorporated previously approved principles of prohibiting sale by the drink of liquor containing more than 14 per cent alcohol. Wet bloc minorities' protests were futile.

May Erect A New Building At Ward Site

Concern Making Investigation; City Gets An Inquiry

A possibility that a building will be erected on the site of the old Ward building at the corner of Main and Second streets was seen here Thursday.

In response to a request made recently, City Manager E. V. Spence was authorized to say that the city would be agreeable to lowering the sidewalk to street level if a building were built there.

Recently an out-of-town concern made investigations which strongly indicated that a building might be erected on the spot which has been an eye sore to the downtown section since the Ward building burned in 1931.

C. Of C. To Take Orders For Trees

In an attempt to continue the gradual beautification of Big Spring through tree planting, the chamber of commerce will again accept lettings for Chinese elms and Arizona cypress, it was announced Thursday.

As in former years, efforts will be made to sell 500 elms and 1000 cypress. Through the program of the chamber for the past several years, many hundreds of trees have been planted here.

Italy May Suspend Trade As An Answer To Penalties

ROME, Nov. 14. (U.P.)—Suspension of all trade and financial relations with nations cooperating in league penalties may be Premier Benito Mussolini's next step, it was indicated today.

Import restrictions on a long list of commodities and Italy's note warning league nations of their individual responsibility for penalties were regarded as preludes to the trade and finance suspension.

The decree is effective at once.

Officials do not disguise their knowledge that the league penalties really will hurt Italy. It will be costlier and more difficult to obtain raw materials which Italy must have to keep its fighting machines going.

State League Chief Won't Make Ruling

Says Steers Playing In The Sweetwater Game Barred From Nov. 30 Tilt

By TOM BEASLEY
AUSTIN, Nov. 14.—Roy B. Henderson, head of the Texas Interscholastic league, refused today to have any part in the settlement of the dispute between Big Spring and San Angelo high schools over their scoreless tie football game of Monday.

Henderson said that neither he nor the state committee had any right to attempt settlement. The district committee must attend to that, he said, which ruling throws the whole affair back on R. S. Covey of Sweetwater.

Henderson said it would be possible for San Angelo and Big Spring to play again on Nov. 30, but that if Big Spring used any boys against San Angelo who played against Sweetwater only two days earlier, the Steers would not be eligible to enter the state race.

The state committee would not let the district certify a winner under an arrangement of that kind, the league official said.

There is a rule against playing two games in one week, but it applies only to the players.

If the Steers could beat Sweetwater with second or third string men, it would be permissible to play the first string against the Bobcats on Nov. 30.

Henderson further ruled that in his opinion, San Angelo could not be forced to play Big Spring again.

The league official stated he was seriously considering moving Big Spring to district 1 next year, with Amarillo, Pampa, Plainview, Lubbock and Borger, and putting Sweetwater and San Angelo into the Oil Belt district.

The opinions on the district 3 muddle were voiced by Henderson in conferences with George Gentry, high school principal, and Coach Oble Bristow, who came here to ascertain what could be done about the district 3 dispute after Supt. Covey of Sweetwater ruled Monday's game a tie.

House Orders A Probe Of Safety Dept.

Action Follows Charges Made After Dismissal Of Tom Hickman

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (AP)—The house today adopted a resolution authorizing a committee investigation into activities of the state department of public safety, including charges that "said department and its officials impeded law enforcement by giving advance information as to actions of the department in law enforcement efforts."

The action followed the dismissal of Ranger Captain Tom Hickman. It was a reversal of the vote of Wednesday, when the house refused to order a probe into Hickman's dismissal.

Today's resolution was pushed through quickly, proponents cutting off debate.

Hickman had been quoted as saying that a high state official had tipped off a raid he was ordered to make on a night club near Fort Worth. The raid, made last week, accomplished nothing, Hickman and his men finding no gambling paraphernalia.

Hickman was ousted by the safety department yesterday, after he said he would not quit. Previously the department had given him until Dec. 1 to resign. Officials of the department refused to comment on the case.

More Trouble On Highway 9

Mrs. Ratliff Refuses To Provide Her Land For Right-Of-Way

New difficulties bobbed up Thursday to once more block the opening of a straight road through Glasscock county on highway No. 9.

Mrs. P. A. Ratliff, whose land is traversed by the proposed route, Wednesday declined to furnish right-of-way across her property. This is the only strip remaining to be acquired.

Big Spring and San Angelo representatives and the district highway engineer at San Angelo conferred Wednesday in an effort to obtain the land. When they failed, the highway department immediately set about to condemn the property.

For several years the road project has been blocked by inability of Glasscock county commissioners to reach an agreement with Dr. J. T. O'Bar for right-of-way across his land. Under a new statute, the highway commission filed suit early in October for the land and the case was heard Nov. 3.

Thursday Dr. O'Bar was due to receive acceptance of an offer of $4,000 for damages occurring to his ranch by reason of the new road cutting his property into four parts.

Until Wednesday the highway department had planned to let contracts at an early date for grading and surfacing the remaining five miles through Glasscock county to the Sterling county line.

COAHOMA BULLDOGS WIN OVER ACKERLY

Echols Sweeps For Counter

Two Elevens Show Promise In First Meeting Of Year

By Staff Correspondent

COAHOMA, Nov. 13.—Echols' 15-yard dash around right end and a dropkick by Kopp gave Coahoma a 7-0 victory over Ackerly here Wednesday afternoon.

It was the first time the two schools met, each playing its first year of football.

Ackerly unleashed a drive in the closing minutes that brought a first down on the two-yard line but four smashes at center gained only a yard. Kopp kicked off for Coahoma but Ackerly rushed back moments later when Jimmy Jones blocked and recovered another Coahoma kick. Gregston crashed over right tackle for six yards to the Coahoma eight as the game ended.

Taking the ball on the opening kickoff, Ackerly brought it back to the 30-yard line. Gregston circled his left end for 15 yards and a first down. Here Coahoma held and took the ball on downs. Adams passed to Patterson for a first down. The same combination was worked again but Coahoma was offside. Gregston leaped high to intercept a pass from Adams and ran it back 30 yards before finally being snagged.

Electing to take to the air, Meeks was rushed badly and Pelton, Coahoma tackle, blocked the ball in mid-air and tore away 62 yards for a score. Both teams, however, were offside on the play.

Adams made it a first down as the quarter ended. Coahoma lost eight yards on an attempted lateral pass but Echols powered his way to a first down. Ackerly drew a 15-yard penalty and Echols and Adams made it a first down on the Ackerly 13. Echols circled end for the score. Kopp converted.

Jones and Gregston tipped off a first down for Ackerly but had to kick. Adams fumbled Meeks' kick on his own 23 and Ackerly recovered. The first play netted a 10-yard loss and Meeks kicked over the goal line.

Taking the ball on its own 20-yard line, Coahoma rushed back up the field on a first down by Echols, over right tackle, a 30-yard scamper around left end by Patterson, and another first down by Echols as the half ended the threat.

After Ackerly had returned the kickoff to its 33-yard stripe, Baggett fumbled and Coahoma recovered. Patterson picked up seven yards at the line and Echols made it first down but Coahoma was clipping on the play and drew a 15-yard penalty. Kopp kicked 24 yards nicely out of bounds on the Ackerly seven-yard line. Gregston smashed off left end, cut wide and ran to the 25-yard gain. Three additional tries at the line failed and Meeks had to kick. In the scramble after the ball, Ackerly recovered but again had to punt, this time out of bounds.

Adams' pass was intercepted by Gregston but Coahoma's defense stiffened and Meeks had to punt. Echols made it a first down for Coahoma on the Ackerly 26 and Fowler couldn't gain as the quarter ended. Three thrusts at right tackle were stopped on the Ackerly 18 and the ball went over.

Coahoma drew another 15-yard penalty and Meeks fumbled back and passed to Childs who was downed on the Coahoma 34-yard line. Meeks again tossed one to Childs who made a nice catch and ran to the Coahoma two-yard line. Gregston was stopped at the line and then

Ags And Steers Vie For Honors

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 14.—

The Texas Aggies and the University of Texas Longhorns will have a dual cross country meet Thursday afternoon in Austin, but to the winner will go the Southwest conference harrier championship. For the first time in years no other conference school is expected to make even an individual entry.

Running on their home course and already holding a dual meet victory over the Aggies, the Longhorns rank as heavy favorites to win the harrier crown for the third straight year. They defeated the Cadets 24-32 here the past week.

A great individual battle looms, however, between Earl Johnson, of the Longhorns, and Capt. Hunter (Red) Parks of the Aggies. Johnson, son of the late Parks, who was individual conference champion the past year, by five yards to gallop home first in the past week's dual meet. Johnson is from Mineral Wells and Parks is from Terrell.

A victory will give the Steers a more decided edge in the total number of harrier championships won. The Aggies, on the other hand, can slip into a slight lead if the win Thursday. Of sixteen Southwest conference cross country meets of record, the Longhorns have won six and tied one. The Aggies have won five and tied two. The Oklahoma Aggies, no longer in the conference, are the only other ones ever having won a title outright. The Rice Owls tied with the Aggies in 1928.

Record of Southwest conference harrier meets is as follows: 1920, Oklahoma Aggies; 1921, Texas Aggies; 1922, Texas; 1923, Texas; 1924, Texas; 1925, Texas Aggies; 1926, Texas Aggies; 1927, Texas Aggies; 1928, Texas Aggies, and Rice Owls (tie); 1929, Texas Aggies; 1930, Texas Aggies; 1931, Texas; 1932, Texas; 1933, Texas Aggies and Texas (tie); 1934, Texas.

Coach Clyde Littlefield, of the Longhorns, and Coach Frank G. Anderson, of the Aggies, probably will enter the following men:

Longhorns—Capt. Buren Edwards, Johnson, Remus Thomas, Gordon Fisher, "Dutch" Rogers, Ed Tottenham and Fred Bohls.

Agies—Capt. Parks, Roy Langley, Jimmy Longley, John Barnett, Ed Hogan, Charley Byrd and Harvey Storms.

Nittany Steve Eyes Joe Louis

Austrian Assassin Awaits As Football Knee Heals

By JACK CUDDY

United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, (U.P.)—Steve Hamas, forgotten man of the heavy-weight division, is operating a restaurant over in Newark, N. J. And just about a year ago, this same "Stunning Steve" was regarded as the outstanding title contender.

Which proves that time marches on, as far as the fight game is concerned. But it can't march any too fast for Hamas during the next five months because at the end of that period the former Penn State grid ace plans a comeback.

Physicians to the Austrian Assassin assure him that a complete lay-off from ring activities would fix up a trick knee so that he could resume boxing—in better physical condition than at any time in his Frank Merrittwellian career.

Bleated by Schmeling

So Steve has been on the sidelines since the Black Uhlan of the Rhine, Herr Max Schmeling, belted the daylight out of him and registered a ninth-round technical knockout in their abbreviated embroilment at Hamburg, Germany, last March.

This trick knee, which insisted upon Leon Erol antics at the most inopportune times, was the chief reason for his pathetic showing against Schmeling and for his unimpressive exhibition in beating Art Lasky in the autumn of 1934—according to Steve.

Hamas injured his left knee in 1927 while playing back with Penn State's Nittany Lions. The creaky leg hinge didn't bother him much, after getting his A.B. degree for pre-medical work, when he entered the ring and started smashing his way to the top like a second Jack Dempsey.

Rise Puppled in 1930-31

In 1930 and 1931 he registered 23 knockouts in 26 fights. Then he started having knee trouble. Despite the handicap, he managed to rise among the top contenders.

When he gave Max Schmeling the worst beating of his career in their first meeting at Philadelphia in February, 1934, it seemed that nothing could prevent Steve from getting a crack at the championship. And Steve insists that nothing would have prevented it, if that bum leg had not interfered with proper training for the Laaky and second Schmeling encounters.

"But wait until my knee is okay again," the handsome, dark-haired contender said today when he dropped into Manager Charlie Harvey's office for a chat. "I'm only 28, and I'm keeping in fine shape with calisthenics every day."

Has Eye on Joe Louis

"No running, rope-skipping, shadow boxing, or anything like that, of course. Three or four months of boxing, and I'll be ready for Joe Louis—or anyone else."

The restaurant, when he explained, was just something to keep him occupied until he returned to the ring wars. Al Thomas, Steve's trainer, is managing the restaurant. Despite demands of the food emporium, Steve finds ample time to play with his baby girl and three-year-old son at home. Mrs. Hamas, the former Kathryn Work, is a graduate of a French convent—the Academy Notre Dame de Lourdes. She is an accomplished pianist.

TCU Cripples Ready For Game

FORT WORTH, Nov. 14.—

For the first time since the Arkansas game, the Texas Christian eleven will be able to put its full strength on the playing field Saturday against Texas.

Unless some trick injury develops in the remaining practice sessions, the Frogs will not have a single man on the injured list when they take on the Austin assignment.

Probably the most important men to return to duty are Aubrey Linn, 205-pound tackle who has been a power in the Frog forward wall all season, and Rex Clark, speedy halfback who has chalked up touchdowns on several occasions.

In the Christian camp there is nothing approaching an emotional build-up for the contest. The players are serious and intend to win against the Longhorns if they possibly can. But they are planning on doing it with hard, smart football and not on a "do or die for dear old Slivash" spirit.

The squad has worked hard all week on both offense and defense. "We'll be ready," Coach Dutch Meyer says. "We'll be able to give the best we have, I believe, and that's all any team can do."

Comparative scores to date would seem to give the Frogs a slight edge over the Steers. T.C.U. was 20 points better than Centenary, while Texas topped the Gentlemen by six points. The Christians were on the long end of a 20-to-0 score over Baylor, while the Longhorns took the Bears into camp by 19 points, 25 to 6.

When these facts were pointed out to Coach Meyer, however, he merely observed: "Saturday's game will be decided by the scoring done in Austin."

The starting line-up of both aggregations will present the usual 11 men who have been in there in the important contests to date. There may be one or two sideline changes at the last moment, but both coaches can be depended upon to put the strongest combination possible on the field.

Aggies Brush Up On Offense

Coach Norton To Treat Kitts' Team With An Air Attack

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 14.—A good team that's had trouble in getting going—that's the way the Texas Aggies were described recently—is determined to get going Saturday at Houston when it runs into the Rice Institute Owls. That the Cadets are doped to lose by almost any score the Owls choose, matters not a bit to them.

The Aggies, freshened by an off week in competition, expect to be at their season's best when they besiege the Owls. They put in their hottest practice ticks on offense the past week and have been combining both offensive and defensive tactics in somewhat lighter workouts this week. And at last they seem to be showing decided improvement in forward pass defense, a weakness that's spelled woe to them all season to date.

With Rice's line rated stronger than any they've met to date, the Aggies are expected to unbuckle their chief passing threat, left-handed Jimmy Shockey, early in the tilt. Rushed in as a last hope late in the Baylor and Arkansas tilts, Shockey showed passing ability warranting much more playing time.

Standing behind his goal, Kopp kicked out to his 35 yard line. Ackerly took to the air again and Echols intercepted Meeks' pass on his 18-yard line. Kopp again punted. Meeks threw to Childs but Patterson dashed in to intercept for Coahoma on his 20-yard line. Around And About

The Sports Circuit

By Tom Beasley

Despite the reports from San Angelo concerning George Gentry, local fans are fortunate in having such a wide awake gentleman at the head of our school system.

Gentry taught for the Big Spring rights in the recent all important meeting in Sweetwater and seems to have finally won out.

Gentry has been accused of being very unportmanlike by the great Blenny Cross as well as other Angelenos but there's nothing he can do about it.

Blenny loves to start an argument and seems to keep the Concho continually aroused about something or other and they usually get behind him but Big Spring is a different place and most of the folk around here care little for what he says.

The Daily Herald picks of the nation's football games last week were erratic in several of the battles, especially in the Northwestern-Notre Dame tussle, but it did succeed in picking the exact score of the Illinois-Michigan game.

The game ended 2-0 in favor of the Illini.

Even though the S. M. U. Mustangs have been receiving more publicity in the past few years than any other Southwest conference school, their recent 21-0 victory over the Brans of U. C. L. A. gave the Southwest conference nationwide fame for the first time.

After they once showed their wares to a member of the Pacific coast conference, they have and will receive plenty of offers from such schools as Southern California, Stanford, and Washington.

Even Hawaii dickered with them for a 1936 game.

And Bobby Wilson moved another step nearer in his race for All American honors. If the youngster should win a place on the mythical eleven, he will be the second back ever to be placed on the team.

Bill Wallace was the first.

Bochy Koch of Baylor, Johnny Vaught of Texas Christian and Clyde Carrier of Southern Methodist are among the linemen to gain the honor.

Most of the Steers were on hand to witness a part of the Coahoma-Ackerly tilt Wednesday afternoon since they are free this week. They probably could have told the participants, who by the way are playing their first year of football, a lot about blocking, running, passing and kicking. They could have learned a lot from Coahoma and Ackerly players on condition, however. There was only one substitution during the game. Ackerly couldn't

Texas To Rely On New Offense

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (UP)—Texas University's football squad underwent a heavy practice in secret today for their Saturday game with Texas Christian's Horned Frogs.

With the return of Sophomore Morris Sands to the Texas backfield, hope was added that the Steer-running attack would function as against Baylor last week. Coach Jack Chevigny planned to hurl at least half-a-dozen speedy backs against the touted wingmen of T.C.U., using forward passes as a secondary offensive weapon.

On the defensive side, Line Coach Tim Moynihan had the biggest job. For the fourth time this season Texas forwards face opposition ranked in the nation's first ten teams.

Jennings Gives Secondary Rest

WACO, Nov. 14. (UP)—Another hard practice session with the possibility of a scrimmage was in store for the Baylor Bears today as they prepared for their game Saturday with Centenary at Shreveport.

Coach Morley Jennings plans to use his reserve backs as much as possible to give his first string men time to be in top shape for the game next week with Southern Methodist University.

C. I. A. Exhibit To Be Shown Here Through Friday In Lobby Of Muny Auditorium; Attracts Many Visitors

Due to popular demand the C. I. A. club will continue its exhibit of C. I. A. paintings, wall hangings, and crafts throughout Friday. Those who have seen the exhibit have expressed so much surprise and interest that the club feels that the whole city will enjoy it. The hours are from 3 until 8 o'clock in the evening.

The exhibit is hung in the front lobby of the municipal auditorium, the entrance being by way of the main doors on Third street. The exhibit covers all the wall space except the upper part of the walls and is very effective in the long corridor.

Interest of the visitors Wednesday centered on the colored designs. Two were strictly West Texas, a design of yucca blossoms that might be used for wall paper and another of prickly pear.

A block picture made on a paper towel was a unique exhibit. Many charcoal drawings of the C. I. A. campus and buildings are shown.

The art exhibit shows the work of the outstanding students. The list of the following may be clipped and carried along by the visitor to identify the work of those he knows:

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 15 miles of kidney matter your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing. If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness. Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. WASHINGTON—Out of the bundles spending of the $4,800,000,000 comes one ray of sunshine. The much-ballyhooed $200,000,000 road building program is making progress.

This is no particular feat of the administration. It is the result of disdain for red tape on the part of one man—Thomas H. MacDonald, head of the bureau of public roads.

NO EXCUSE FOR WASTE The idea that a shortage is threatened in the United States petroleum supply draws vigorous refutation in a report submitted by the executive committee of the American Petroleum Institute...

After the national emergency council emitted a great fanfare of publicity last summer over the mere fact that $15,000,000 of highway money has been granted Michigan and Alabama, a deep silence descended on the road program.

Without re-opening the argument of state vs. federal control, the fact remains that some form of unified conservation must be followed, by the inter-state compact method or some other.

Somehow in the maze of complicated work-relief machinery the road program had been lost. Nobody could find it.

Petroleum is too basic among the nation's resources for dissipation to be permitted. If supplies are shown now to be sufficient for years to come, that is all the more reason to protect these supplies as a vast asset.

There ensued a hectic hunt that finally brought them to the door of a committee, consisting of E. A. Silcox, chief forester, Mayor La Guardia of New York, and Morris L. Cooke, head of the rural electrification administration.

Most encouraging in the API report is that phase dealing with the oil industry's success in improved production, recovery and refinery methods. By advances in these lines, the industry has been able to produce far more of the finished product on less of the crude supply.

When the breathless NEC searchers finally struggled through the labyrinth and got down to MacDonald, they demanded to know why he had sought no formal approval for his allocations.

NEW YORK—If it is your fatuous belief that pulchritude is essential to success on the Big Gay Way you are invited to consider the case of Mona, who really isn't Mona at all.

He had taken advantage of a provision he had inserted in the administrative regulations, which empowered his bureau to proceed with a "reasonable amount" of highway work solely on the advice of its district engineers.

Man About Manhattan

When there arrived in town recently this fetching lass she forthwith confessed that she had never been on any stage. "But I'd just lo-o-o-v-e it," she cooed.

Government Baker

The department of agriculture, known to the average farmer chiefly for its control of corn, hogs, cotton and wheat, also employs a baker to bake bread.

From the press notice being sent around these days I learn that my knowledge of pre-war Russia is nil.

As a final test, he took a bite. Then he wrote a report saying that the good bread could be made from this low-grade flour.

This, if I am to believe the dispatches, is not the case. There must be at least twenty Russians in New York, dancing and singing, and, strange but true, every one of their fathers was a high officer in the service of the Czar.

Behind the closed doors of their inner councils, the big utility barons are giving a new twist to Hamlet's ancient dilemma. To be or not to be!

Swinging from a subway strap not long ago a well-known novelist was startled to feel a hand thrust into his coat pocket.

In spite of the Baltimore decision against the holding company act, they still face the question of registering with the securities and exchange commission by Dec. 1.

Seizing it quickly he wheeled to confront a dried-up little shrimp who seemed no wit abashed.

Another group, chiefly the giant New England Power association and the Morgan-controlled Niagara-Hudson company, opposes such an incoercible stand.

Curiously enough, the novelist was more amused than angry. He's going to include it in his next book.

At a secret meeting in New York the two groups locked horns in an all-day wrangle over the issue.

This department has omitted one of the cardinal 'musts' of all fall columning. Checking through old files, I see where I've always told you the chestnut vendors, sooty-faced and voluble, were on the corners by September 1.

New Philippine Commonwealth Will Be Inaugurated Tomorrow As First Step Toward Complete Independence

MANILA, Nov. 14. (U.P.)—The Philippine Islands will enter a 10-year period of trial and transition tomorrow with inauguration of the new commonwealth, and, barring unforeseen circumstances, will attain complete independence July 4, 1946.

Robert Allen is seen protecting the young lady, Florence Rice, as he is supposed to, in a murder mystery called "Guard That Girl," playing today at the Ritz.

Visitors from the provinces and from abroad, jammed Manila on the eve of the ceremonies. The official American delegation was headed by Vice-President John N. Garner, Secretary of War George H. Dern and Speaker of the House Joseph Byrnes. Approximately 50 members of congress were here as guests of the island government.

Ceremony Starts Early The colorful inauguration program is scheduled to start at 8 a. m. It will end with the inaugural ball at Malacanang palace with popular dances at an open-air pavilion at the Philippine carnival grounds.

The program will provide ample opportunity for the display of Philippine color, from the inauguration setting in front of the modern legislative building, looking down on the old Spanish city and the park that once was a moat, to the parade and inaugural ball.

Officially, the commonwealth will be born when a proclamation of President Roosevelt is read by Governor General Frank Murphy before officials assembled on the inaugural platform in front of the legislative building. Secretary Dern will extend greetings to the people of the islands, reiterating America's continued warm interest in their prosperity.

Swear Allegiance To U. S. The official inauguration ceremony will be completed when President Manuel L. Quezon takes the oath of office with Vice-President Sergio Osmeña and members of the new Philippine assembly. The commonwealth officials not only will take the oath of office, but also the oath of allegiance to the United States. The latter procedure is significant of the continuation of American sovereignty during the 10-year commonwealth interval.

Following this ceremony President Quezon will deliver his inaugural address, pledging fulfillment of his duties and obligations. The excitement and fanfare of the inaugural will be followed by a period of readjustment wherein the new commonwealth machinery will be organized and perfected. Preparations for the change in government have been under way for months. As to self-government there actually will be little change.

The chief difference lies in the assumption of additional executive authority through the new commonwealth president, and corresponding additional responsibility. Heretofore his functions were performed by an appointive American governor general. However, under the governor-general there were only a handful of American officials, the executive branches of the government having been almost wholly in the hands of Filipinos.

Seek Motive For Slaying Take Testimony In Murder Trial

DALLAS, Nov. 14. (U.P.)—Details of the killing of Johnnie N. Page in Longview more than a year ago and incidents leading up to it were related by state and defense witnesses in the trial of Ras Calloway for murder.

Page was killed in front of a barber shop July 14, 1934. Calloway's defense is that he shot Page because of an insult to Mrs. Calloway, mother of the defendant.

Attracted by the flames, James Elliott, a Jackson county farmer, found Gunnoe's burning body hanging from a tree. Elliott said he found no trace of Gunnoe's assailants, nor had he heard any disturbance.

Officers, after a hasty investigation, said they could find no motive for the murder. Robbery was discarded as a theory. Friends of Gunnoe said he had no known enemies.

A former deputy sheriff of Raleigh county, Gunnoe came to the CCC camp from Edwight, W. Va., last September. Officials of the CCC camp said Gunnoe had received a $140 pay check this week. He sent $100 and the other $40 was accounted for, they reported.

Jackson county authorities found a trail leading through a woods near the Elliott farm, over which Gunnoe's body apparently had been dragged.

Judge Grover Adams said night session of court would be held in an effort to complete the trial as the state would not be put to any greater expense in keeping witnesses here from Longview. 'Guard That Girl' Feature Of Program At The Ritz Today

A murder mystery of originality is that playing Thursday at the Ritz theatre. It is Columbia's "Guard That Girl," a thriller in which the murderer does his dirty work with a bow and arrow that belongs in the dark jungles.

Robert Allen appears as one of the young men who guard the girl in question. The girl is Florence Rice; another protector is Ward Bond. The murderer—you'll have to see the picture to find out.

Allen is one of the newcomers to Hollywood who has made progress. He had a small part in "Broadway Bill" a year ago, and now he heads the cast of "Guard That Girl." Miss Rice is also a newcomer to the screen, coming to pictures after playing in Broadway stage successes.

Arthur Hohl, Wyrley Birch, Barbara Kent, Elizabeth Rindson and Nana Bryant are others in the cast.

These Were Really Giant Watermelons

COAHOMA, Nov. 14.—Farmers who pride themselves on the size and quality of their watermelons had better look to their laurels.

J. M. Cramer, who farms north of Coahoma, this year produced two of the largest melons ever raised in Howard county. His family ate one weighing 121 pounds and which barely would go into the mouth of a 52-gallon barrel.

Another, estimated by Mr. Cramer to be at least 20 pounds heavier, was destroyed by greyhounds which got into the field before the melon was ripe.

The melons were grown on new sandy land and were planted rather late.

Cramer Family In Reunion At Coahoma

COAHOMA, Nov. 14.—The J. M. Cramer family had a reunion Sunday. All were present except a son-in-law and a daughter-in-law. A larger reunion expected to accomplish the gathering of some 90 descendants and kin was planned for a later date.
