Moore... ABOUT Eastland

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

To Eastland County citizens, who can look out over the greenest fields they have seen since 1948 after normal rains have fallen here for the first time since that year, a Dallas Morning News article which appeared Thursday is rather amusing (thank goodness).

Here's what the News had to say: "A fourth dry spot is an island of brown ranges and farmland of Shackelford, Callahan, Eastland and Brown counties."

And while we are passing along what we read somewhere else, let us reprint a story told by the Lincoln Herald:

"How long did it take you to court your wife? Did you just happen to see her, walk up to her, ask her to marry you, call in the minister—right on the spot?"

"Perhaps not. It probably took a lot of calls, many evenings on the family davenport, movies, flowers, candy—and a lot of nice things over a period of time before you closed the deal."

"It's the same with advertising. You can't 'woo' customers with one ad, you've got to 'call on them' over a period of time."

"Consistent advertising wins customers for you."

You know, the trend seems to be reversing itself around here. For a number of years the larger cities were draining Eastland of some of its best citizens. Now Eastland is fighting back. Just quite a few folks from Abilene and other cities have been attracted here. The latest we have met in Dale Young.

Young has moved here from Abilene and is employed with Kincaid Feed and Seed, one of this city's fastest growing concerns. He hails from Abilene and will make his home at 1501 South Bassett. Young's wife will join him soon.

F. M. Wilhite was in to see us the other day and told us of his Easter weekend trip to Lawton, Okla. where he witnessed the annual Wichita Mountains Easter service. This was the 32nd annual service held there. Wilhite said it was most impressive. The death of Christ is reconstructed in the service. He said some 35,000 cars crowded to the Mountains.

That Eastland is getting more on the ball in the way of trying to attract industry to our city is an undisputed fact. If you missed the membership breakfast Thursday (and you shouldn't have if you are going to keep on asking why "they" don't do something) you failed to hear of a number of stories of on-the-ball Eastlanders in action.

For instance, Joseph Perkins, a man who has done much for this city, was on the way home from a business trip when a gentleman got on the train in one of the larger cities. Perkins, noting the man was having trouble finding a seat, asked him to sit by him. That was followed by a conversation in which the Eastlander was telling of the virtues of his home town. The gentleman began to get more and more interested, finally saying that he was an industrialist and was interested in re-locating his northern factory.

That was all the incentive Perkins needed. He turned on the charm and when the train reached Weatherford he wired Herb Tanner and told him to get a delegation down to the depot.

When the train reached Eastland some 15 of our top leaders were on hand to greet the gentleman. The train, as you know, usually stops here for about half a minute. A whisper in the ear of the station manager by Dr. Jim Whittington kept the train in the station about 10 minutes while baggage was being shuffled from one place to the other. That gave Cyrus Frost time to tell of the wonders of nature in these parts (it was a beautiful Spring day) and others in the delegation to expound the virtues of the city.

Needless to say the fellow was

Woman Injured As Fire Guts Home Friday

An Eastland woman suffered first degree burns on her hands, arms and face here Friday when fire almost completely destroyed her home.

Sandy Sanford Will Coach West All-Star Team

Coach of the west team for the 1957 Greenbelt Bowl all-star game will be H. A. "Sandy" Sanford, head football coach at Tarleton State College in Stephenville. Sanford came to Tarleton in 1951 from Paragould, Ark., where he was head coach and athletic director in the high school. His team won one state and two district championships. His 1948 high school team was the only undefeated team in Arkansas that year.

He lettered two years at the University of Alabama, where he did place-kicking as well as playing end. He was named "Man of the year" at Alabama in 1937-38, and was a member of Alabama's Rose Football team in 1938. Following his college playing he played professional football with the Washington Redskins in 1940-41. Sanford served three years in the Navy during World War II, rising to the rank of Lieutenant (senior grade). Sanford's 1954 Tarleton team won the Pioneer Conference degree from Arkansas State College, and has done graduate work at the University of Arkansas.

In 1956 the "Pioneers" again were Pioneer Conference champions and averaged 29 points per game. They won seven games, lost one and tied one.

The Greenbelt Bowl game will be played August 16 in Childress. Ninety-seven boys from 48 high schools throughout Texas and Oklahoma have been nominated for participation in this game. Among those graduating seniors are 18 all-state players and most all are all-district players. From this list of players 48 will be selected and divided into an "East" and "West" team. Players from Eastland include Dale Slatton and Jimmy Martin, a pair of all-stars.

Sheriff's Posse Is Rained Out

Rain caused cancellation of the Hardin-Simmons University rodeo parade in Abilene Thursday.

The Eastland County Sheriff's Posse went to Abilene to participate, but heavy rains caused postponement at the last moment.

Final Services For J. Carlisle Set for Sunday

Funeral services for Joseph Carlisle, 90, a resident of Eastland County for 45 years will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Hamner Funeral Chapel. He was born in Georgia June 12, 1866.

Mr. Carlisle passed away Thursday evening in the Eastland Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Joe L. of Seagraves, Edward of Welch and Edwin of Eastland; four daughters, Mrs. Roxie Hibbert, Mrs. Cleo Davis and Mrs. Ella Davis all of Cisco and Mrs. Mare Moore of Wichita Falls.

Grandsons will serve as pallbearers. Burial will be in Bedford Cemetery.

Mental Health Week Points to Crusade Against Mental Ills

Governor Price Daniel today called upon all Texans to join the crusade against mental illness, the number one health problem facing the state and nation. In proclaiming April 28 to May 4 as Mental Health Week, the Governor said, "Mental illness is no longer hopeless, as evidenced by the increased rates of improvement and recovery in our mental hospitals. We can help the mentally ill of Texas to be restored to their families and communities by concerned citizen action."

Pointing to the fact that 16,000 Texans are in state hospitals now and it is estimated that one in twelve Texans will be hospitalized for mental illness sometime during his lifetime, Governor Daniel stated,

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE—Eastland has been in a number of tornado alert areas this year and one small tornado reportedly hit the city. The picture above shows you what you might expect to see. It is an actual picture taken in Manhattan, Kan. In case a tornado is spotted here, the local fire alarm will sound six times.

New $80,000 Nat'l. Guard Armory Bldg. Formally Accepted

A delegation of high National Guard officials, accompanied by Capt. Cecil Carr, commanding officer, formally accepted the new $80,000 National Guard armory building in Ranger Wednesday after a tour of inspection, and was handed the keys by the contractor.

Representing the Armory Board were Col. John Lyons of Dallas and Derrel Nichols of Austin, and representing the State Board of Control was Aubrey Smelser of Austin. Insurance representatives were also on hand to give the building their final approval.

Built to serve as headquarters for Service Battery, 648th Armored Field Artillery Battalion, 49th Armored Division, the new building is one of the finest structures in Ranger and is situated in a prominent place on Highway 80 where it can be seen by hundreds of thousands of people annually.

Formal Opening

Officers and men of Service Battery, in cooperation with the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, are beginning their plans for a formal dedication of the building which will be almost a state-wide affair.

Major General Johnson of Dallas, commanding officer of the 49th Division, has already accepted an invitation to be chief speaker for the day, and other military notables from all over the state are expected to be here, as well as delegations from many other National Guard units within this immediate West Texas area.

It is said that something in the nature of a Grand Open House is being planned with a gigantic barbecue feast that will set records. Also being considered is a military parade, perhaps, the like of which has never been seen here before. Other events are being planned in which Service Battery's "Sweetheart" will be presented.

Miss Jeannie Pittman of Eastland was elected "Miss Service Battery" in a state-wide contest to elect a "Miss 49th Armored Division," and the Ranger sweetheart has already won the next step up the ladder by being named Sweetheart of the entire 648th Battalion. She will compete for the grand title sometime before June 1 in Dallas.

Current plans are to hold the formal dedication of the new building on Saturday, May 18. Between now and that time, National Guard officials and the Chamber of Commerce will work out a complete program and it should be one of the biggest days Ranger has seen in years from the standpoint of visitors, local sightseers and area-wide interest.

YMCA Summer Program Dates Are Announced

Drouth Beaten By Continued County Rains

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Beneficial rains put four words on the lips of every Eastland County citizen today, "The drouth is broken." Gone was the doubt that came with such statements just a few days ago. A soaking rain Friday, which gently sprinkled as much as 2.20 inches on some spots in the county, left few unbelievers.

While many neighboring counties and cities—particularly Abilene—suffered from flooding conditions after rains up to 9.80 inches, this immediate area seemed to be blessed by God. Rainfall in the county was never extremely hard. A steady downpour just wouldn't quit and an unbelievable thirsty soil kept drinking it up. Agricultural experts credited the lack of heavy runoff in most of the county to wonderful grass conditions and soil conservation work in the area during the long drouth. Despite the belief of many, this county's farmers hadn't been doing nothing during the hard years, they had been preparing for the rains they knew would come.

The rainfall was general all over the county. Eastland's official reading was 1.17. Cisco reported 1.70, Rising Star had 2.60, Olden 1.50, Ranger 1.60, Gorman 1.80 and Carbon 1.58.

This morning the south fork of the Leon River on Highway 6 was running bank full. The south fork rose slower than did the north fork on Highway 80, which is unusual. Water began going over the top of the Eastland Lake spillway Friday afternoon and the crest has gotten higher and higher. Downstream the Texas Electric Power Plant Lake, which was filled by previous rain, was being relieved by opened spillways and the water was rushing into new Lake Leon, where a three foot rise still could be held. The Lake had jumped about a foot and a half Friday and early Saturday and stood at 72 feet Saturday morning. Highest the lake has ever stood was 74 feet, seven inches. Water will run out of the spillway at 75 feet.

The Friday moisture pushed Eastland's seven day total to 3.72 inches. Total moisture for the year now stands at 8.24 inches. Average for the first four months of the year is just 7.21 inches, putting the area 1.03 inches above average with three days left in April.

Around the country folks had the biggest smile they have worn in the last nine years. Here are a few typical comments a Telegram reporter got in telephone interviews:

JOHNNIE AARON (south of Eastland)—It's the best I've seen since 1949. Prospects are wonderful. I'd say they are as good or better than then (1949). "Look in is wonderful condition with plenty of grass. It looks like we are on our way."

M. A. ABEL (eight miles east)—It's the best since we have lived in the county. We moved here from Woodson about five years ago. Our oats look fine although they looked like they were so far gone to do any good a few weeks ago. Now you couldn't tell they were ever hurt.

MRS. J. W. AKERS (10 miles north of city)—We can't get out doors without taking off our shoes. "My garden really looks nice. I have beautiful corn, squash, peas, beans, radishes and onions."

R. M. ATWOOD (four miles north)—Our garden looks fine. "My peas are great."

CYRUS BYRD (1 1/2 miles west)—It's a real lookin' good out here!

OLIVER CANET (seven miles west)—We have had about eight inches of rain. Our grain looks fine and if we can get our feed planted it sure will be wonderful. We are certainly proud of this rain.

MRS. W. B. ENSON (south of city)—We have really had a lot of rain.

MRS. W. M. CROSEY (2 1/2 miles west)—The soil is really soaked. You could raise anything you plant now.

PAUL HODGES (eight miles northwest)—We've had about 19 inches so far this year. Our oats look the best I've ever seen them look—in a long time. We really do appreciate this rain and folks certainly should be thankful.

A&M Scholarship Is Waiting Local Boy

COLLEGE STATION—A 1,200 scholarship, and enough part-time work to pay the rest of his college expenses, is waiting for some talented boy from the Eastland area. But, he's going to have to hustle to get it.

The scholarship is a special Opportunity Award, limited to a boy from a five-county area consisting of Throckmorton, Eastland, Shackelford, Stephens and Young counties. It will be one of more than 75 of the 4-year academic scholarships available at Texas A. and M. College, beginning this fall.

Competitive examinations to determine winners of Opportunity

Awards will be held in the Chemistry Building, Texas A. and M. College campus, on April 27 and May 4, beginning at 12:45 p.m. each date. Applicants may take either the April 27 or May 4 examinations, depending on which date is more convenient to them.

Any high school senior boy, with a good scholastic and conduct record, who needs financial aid in going to college, and who thinks he has the ability to handle a college education, is invited to try out on April 27 or May 4 for one of the more than 75 Opportunity Awards available at the college beginning next fall.

The scholarship limited to boys from the Eastland area is a regular 4-year Opportunity Award, paying a cash grant of $900 each year for four years, plus enough part-time work at the college to allow the student to meet all necessary expenses. Boys from the five-county area named may compete for this scholarship or for any other of the Opportunity Awards available, but only boys from the five-county area are eligible to win this special award.

This scholarship was made possible by former students and friends of the college, from the five-county area, who raised necessary funds during the annual Aggie Muster at Possum Kingdom, on April 20.

Named the George Dickie, Jr., Opportunity Award, the scholarship honors George Dickie, Jr., son of George Dickie, banker at Woodson.

More than 800 boys have won Opportunity Award Scholarships to Texas A. and M. College in the past five years. Of that number, better than 95 percent have graduated, or are still in college, doing satisfactory work leading to completion of their degree requirements.

The scholarships are all academic, and winners must be boys with good scholarships and conduct records in high school. Winners may renew their scholarships each year for four years, so long as their grades and conduct in college are satisfactory.

Opportunity Awards are privately financed by business and industrial organizations, foundations, the Association of Former Students, A. and A. Mothers' Clubs and friends of the college.

Winner of the area award last year was Leo Stanbaugh.

Burleson Is Praised At Dinner Thursday

CISCO—Citizens of the 17th Congressional District said thank you to Cong. Omar Burleson Thursday night for 10 years service to the lute in Washington.

Sharing praise given by some 50 speakers was Burleson's wife. Despite storm warnings and actual storms in the district, a large turnout was on hand at the $5 plate dinner held in the new Cisco National Guard building.

Sneakers included Earl McCale of Anson, former student of Mrs. Burleson; Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president emeritus of Hardin-Simmons University which Burleson attended; Sam Russell of Stephenville, former congressman from the 17th District; Lester Clarke, Breckenridge oilman; Fred Brown, Mineral Wells hotel man; Con. W. R. Poague of Waco; Long, O. C. Fisher of San Angelo; Long, Jim Wright from Weatherford, and Jim Lindsey, chairman of the Texas Democratic Executive Committee.

Lindsey presented both Cong. and Mrs. Burleson with watches as a token of appreciation.

During the dinner a live "Democratic" donkey had free run of the decorated armory. There could be little doubt in Burleson's mind that he has made many friends in the district, almost enough to elect him again were on hand to tell him so.

Mental Health—

ed care and treatment of hospitalized patients, more intensive research, and for the creation of more community mental health services aimed at prevention. Experience has shown that recovery from mental illness is dependent on early and proper treatment.

Mental Health Week is being sponsored by the Texas Society for Mental Health in cooperation with the National Association for Mental Health. With twenty-two local affiliates located throughout the state, the Texas Society for Mental Health is a voluntary, non-profit organization which devotes itself exclusively to the total fight against mental illness and to the advancement of mental health. In Dallas, Fort Worth, Marshall, Tyler, Lubbock, Wichita Falls, and Waco, Mental Health Week will launch a fund drive for the local associations. Throughout the state, Mental Health Week will focus attention on the need for greater public understanding of mental illness and the need for interested action through the mental health associations.

Governor Daniel urged Texans to remember the 1957 Mental Health Week slogan, "The Mental Ill Can Come Back . . . Help Them", all through the year.

Commending the Texas Society for Mental Health for its program of information, action and service, the Governor added, "Texas has good reason to be proud that 80 percent of all first admissions to our mental hospitals are now discharged within a year. Constitutional Amendment Seven, allowing a waiver of jury trial in commitment proceedings of the mentally ill, was overwhelmingly approved by the voters in November. These are important gains in the fight against mental illness."

A new Mental Health Code, sponsored by the Texas Society for Mental Health, was recently passed by the House of Representatives and is under consideration in the Senate as S. B. 193. The Code will enact specific laws authorized by Amendment Seven. It is designed to provide a humane modernization of all Texas laws relating to the mentally ill and at the same time protect the constitutional rights of every citizen.

Man's God-given right of progress will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation After Death" will include the following from Isaiah (9:2): "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined."

The following selection will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (23:1): "Every day makes its demands upon us for proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfill."

A Honey Sauce For Breakfast

Breakfast can be made as appetizing and interesting a meal as its companions, lunch and dinner, with a little forethought.

For instance have you ever made a breakfast sauce that can be served on the usual plain toast in the morning and which takes but a few minutes to prepare?

A Honey Sauce can add glamour to an otherwise stereotyped breakfast. This sauce can be put together quickly by combining 1/2 cup honey, 1/4 cup butter, and 1/2 cup cream or undiluted evaporated milk in a saucepan. Bring this to a boil and let it cook about 4 or 5 minutes until it is of good thick syrup consistency. Be sure to stir it every so often, then cool it slightly and stir in 1/2 cup of ground unblanched almonds. That is all there is to it. This amount will make 5 to 6 servings.
