Mrs. Waymond Greenwood . . . weds Saturday

Saturday Rites Unite Jo Ann Hollis and Waymond Greenwood

Miss Jo Ann Hollis became the bride of Waymond E. Greenwood Saturday afternoon in the home of the bride's parents at 1408 South Seaman, Eastland. James Fleming pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, officiated the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Hollis are the parents of the bride. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Greenwood, 28 North Oaklawn, Eastland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a winter white wool flannel suit with blue accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations trimmed in blue and she carried a white Bible. A gold wedding bracelet, worn by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Harris of Cisco, when she was married, was among the brides jewelry.

Miss Judy Inzer, Eastland, pianist played "Because," "Always," "I Love You Truly" and the traditional "Wedding March".

Miss Patsy Hollis, served as her sister maid of honor. She wore a light blue dress with lace bodice. Her accessories were white and she wore a white carnation corsage.

The groom's brother, Ira O. Greenwood of Abilene, was best man.

A Valentine theme was carried out in the decorations. Blue Valentines tied with white bows were placed appropriately throughout the house.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Hollis chose a navy blue dress tied at the neck with a white bow, and she wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Greenwood wore a black dress with a large white collar and a white carnation corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the brides parents. Included in the house party were Mrs. Ira Greenwood and Mrs. Alton Fleming.

The serving table was laid with a white damask cloth and crystal and silver services were used. The three tier wedding cake was topped with the bride and groom and centered the table. The white napkins were inscribed with "Jo Ann and Waymond".

Before leaving on their wedding trip to New Mexico, Carlsta, Arizona, Grand Canyon and Phoenix, the bride changed to a navy velveteen suit with red accessories. The couple will return to Eastland to make their home at 302 1/2 East Main Street.

The bride is a graduate of Eastland High School. During high school she served as Lion's Club sweetheart, Band sweetheart, Girls' State Representative and Valedictorian of her graduating class. She attended Rutherford Metropolitan Business College in Fort Worth and is presently employed by the State Department of Public Welfare.

Greenwood is also a graduate of Eastland High School and for the past two years has served in the Army. He is presently stationed at Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells. Following his discharge March 4, he plans to work for civil defense.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Harris of Cisco; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Fleming of Clyde; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Greenwood, Abilene; and Mrs. John Harris, Brownwood; Mrs. L. J. Williamson, Olden and Mrs. June Harris, Rising Star.

Mattye Bentley, Joseph Gilmore Name Attendants

Attendants for the wedding of Miss Mattye Jo Bentley, Eastland and Bennett Joseph (Joe) Gilmore, of Columbia, South Carolina, to be held February 21, at 7 p.m. in the Eastland First Baptist Church, have been announced by the couple.

Mrs. Don Slatton will be matron of honor with Miss Barbara Rodgers of Ranger, bridesmaid. Flower girl will be Miss Ann York of Cisco, cousin of the prospective bridegroom.

Gilmore's sister and brother, Miss Dana Gilmore and Billy Gilmore both of Fort Worth will serve as candlelighters. Kenneth (Diz) Howell of Cisco will be best man and Roy Irving of Fort Worth, brother-in-law of the prospective bridegroom, will be groomsmen.

Harvey Kimbler will officiate at the ceremony and musical selections will be presented by R. B. Hall, vocalist and Mrs. Donald Kinnaird, organist.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mattye Bentley, 1004 West Main, Eastland and Mrs. Freda Gilmore of Fort Worth and Doyle Gilmore of Columbia, South Carolina.

All friends of the couple are invited to attend the wedding.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

Few people realize that a dirty-faced urchin is responsible for the main principles behind our law governing the ownership of lost articles.

Percy Armoory was a chimney sweep's helper who lived in London shortly before the birth of our own George Washington. Trudging home one day from his crumby work he found a diamond ring in the public street.

Percy took the ring to a goldsmith's shop to find out what it was. There he placed it in the hands of the goldsmith's apprentice, who, under the pretense of weighing it, stole the diamond from its setting. When he told Percy that the ring was of very little value, Percy demanded the return of the jewel as well as its setting. The goldsmith and the apprentice, thinking that Percy was just a simple minded boy, refused to give him back his treasure.

But Percy was not the kind to be badgered about. He sought the services of a lawyer to sue for recovery of the ring and its jeweled set. The results of his suit have immortalized Percy's name in the common law.

The goldsmith and his apprentice claimed that since Percy had only found the ring, he had no better right to it than they did. The court felt differently about the matter and ordered the diamond returned "because the finder of a lost article has the right to hold it against the whole world except the true owner". This principle established by Percy's case remains as effective today as it was over two centuries ago.

However, as far as the owner who lost the property is concerned, the finder of lost goods is merely regarded as a depository, holding the goods for the true owner.

The courts draw a distinction between "misaid" and "lost property." Lost property is property which the owner casually and thoughtlessly parts with, like the dropping of a wallet in the hurry to get on a bus. Misaid property, on the other hand, is property which the owner has purposely laid down and then forgotten, leaving it where placed. An example of this would be a handbag placed on a shop counter while a customer examines merchandise. A finder must leave misaid articles with the proprietor of the place where found.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Alpha Delphians Have Valentine Party Thursday

Members of the Alpha Delphian club held a Valentine and '42 party Thursday afternoon at the Woman's club instead of their regular planned meeting.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mmes. Ina Bean, N. N. Rosenguest and J. LeRoy Arnold.

Tables of four were centered with roses and Valentine decorations were throughout the club lounge. Mrs. Roy Lawson and Mrs. Roy Young tied for high score prize in '42 and Mrs. M. R. Teatsorth won a prize for having the lowest score.

Refreshments of hot spiced apple cider, white cake squares dotted with cherries and nuts were served to those attending. Mrs. L. C. Brown brought penuche candy for the group.

Those present were Mmes. R. L. Young, Marguarite Welch, M. B. Teatsorth, Taylor Smith, C. M. Fogue, Roy Lawson, O. L. Hooper, B. O. Harrell, Bailey Bryant and the hostesses. Mrs. L. C. Brown and Master Phillip Smith were guests.

Witnesses to Attend Three Day Conclave

The Jehovah's witnesses in Eastland will attend a three day conclave in Bowie, April 24-26, 1959.

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, the directive organization for Jehovah's witnesses, have set the theme of the assembly as "Be a teacher of Good News."

This announcement came as a climax to the weekly ministry-development program held at the local Kingdom Hall here.

"In troublesome times as these," Mrs. Zettye Parrack explained, "Being a teacher of good news from God's Word is truly a community service."

All were encouraged to attend the full three days in order to improve their abilities.

'Civil Defense' Is Topic of Aux. Meeting Thursday

"Civil Defense" was the title of the program given at the Thursday morning meeting of the Eastland Memorial Hospital Auxiliary in the Texas Electric Conference Room.

Mrs. H. L. Meisenheimer, hospital administrator, spoke to the group and gave an 18 item check list guide to go by in case of a disaster. She told the Auxiliary she and the hospital staff were to have a meeting soon to make a definite outline of what to do in an emergency.

Later, the emergency committee of the Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Milton Fullen is chairman, and the hospital staff will hold a joint meeting.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

OMAR BURLESON, M. C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D.C.—This column on several occasions has tried to point out that the Congress actually has the exercise of direction over a relatively small amount of government expenditures. Twenty percent is a fair estimate in each year's appropriations. This is true if the percentage for national defense remains the same as now recommended. This amounts to approximately sixty percent of the $77,000,000,000 Budget.

A similar situation exists with reference to the general powers of government. The Federal Government has grown to such proportions that it is impossible for the Congress itself to keep absolute control over the committees, the bureaus and commissions which in recent years it has created.

The congress passes the laws, but under our system the Executive Department, headed by the President, administers those laws, and the Supreme Court passes upon their Constitutionality. The Congress does not attempt to spell out administrative procedures for the application of the laws it passes. It necessarily delegates the authority for the administration either to the Executive Department or to these myriad bureaus and commissions created for that purpose.

Agencies such as the Federal Communications Commission, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, Securities and Exchange Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission, and a long list of others, at some time or other touch the life and business of most everyone in the Country. They make their own rules and procedures to carry out what supposedly is the intent of the Congress. There is, however, always the matter of interpretation of the intent of Congress, and while a Congressman's duties may involve trying to assist a constituent in getting service from a bureau, a commission, committee or a department of some kind or other, there come times when he must also protect his constituents against encroachment. Problems of this nature constantly arise.

It is sometimes wondered if, during these last twenty-five years or so as Government has grown bigger and bigger, the Congress has created a sort of Frankenstein which is becoming bigger than the Congress, the Executive and the Judiciary, in control over the lives of our citizens. These accumulated agencies save powerful control over about everything we do—What we eat, what we wear, our travel, when and how we invest our money; over telephone, telegraph, radio and television communications; over the fires on our hearths and the gold in our teeth. This second-hand type government control can reach proportions dangerous to our system of government. The intent and purpose of this "fourth" branch of government is, I suppose, necessary. On the other hand, it should warn us that it can grow to the proportions

4-H Club Week Is Proclaimed

COLLEGE STATION — By proclamation, Governor Price Daniel has designated the week of February 28-March 7 as 4-H Club Week in Texas. The week is also being observed nationally.

"In 1914," Governor Daniel said, "the United States Government invested in the rural youth of our nation through the 4-H club program. Since that time, more than 20 million young people have received the benefits of this vast program and become 4-H alumni. These alumni are engaged in farming, ranching, homemaking and a variety of other occupations. Throughout Texas and the Nation a special salute is extended to them."

In a letter to the 111,000 4-H club members in Texas, the Governor said, "Since the 4-H club program was organized 50 years ago, members of your organization have made outstanding contributions to the material wealth of Texas and the Nation. More important, as young people, you represent the richest resource of our State.

"I extend sincere congratulations to each of you on your fine accomplishments of the past year and join the people of Texas in saluting you, your parents, adult leaders and friends who make this that our nation will be governed by people who were not elected and who are not directly answerable to the people. We should be warned against the continuous growth of Federal Government which makes more boards, commissions and bureaus necessary.

Each time a new provision of law is enacted or a new service furnished, it becomes necessary that some agency of government administer it. If it is not under the direct jurisdiction of one already in existence, another is created. This suggests that bigness begets bigness, and that the Federal Government in Washington becomes the "central" government warned against by our forefathers who created the system.

"Please accept my best wishes for 1959 and the years ahead. May you continue to build yourselves, your homes and your communities, and thus help build our State and Country. The future holds bright promises for our land, and as 4-H club members you have a vital share of this future."

Plans for observing 4-H Week are being perfected in the counties and will include special recognition for 4-H alumni. More than 1,000,000 Texas young people have been 4-H members during the past 50 years. Today, 4-H alumni are leaders in business, industry, the professions and government, and are among the strongest supporters of the Agricultural Extension Service sponsored organization.

PLUMBING NEEDS

ANNOUNCING . . .

We have purchased the Texaco Agency from Truman Brown and we will be operating it at the same location as usual.

Leonard Tramell will remain with us as driver along with Ladell May, bookkeeper.

We solicit your patronage, and we pledge ourselves to serve you just as Mr. Brown has done. We expect to combine Eastland and Cisco and operate out of Eastland so that we will be better able to serve the territory.

PEAR PERFORMANCE ON PIN MONEY

Once you scamper The Lark around town and see your gas gauge stand still, you'll know you've got your hands on the wheel of a real money-saver. And one with style, too—rich in interior appointments, harmoniously finished, upholstered in wonderful taste—so dapper, it's approved by Harper's Bazaar! And so easy to drive and park—because it's three feet shorter outside—with room for six inside. This is a whole new idea in cars—and one you're going to love from the first touch of your toe on the pedal. And beautifully engineered. Come on—

This week DOW FINSTERWALD gives you the inside story on the HARNEY-SNEAD ABC-TV ALL-STAR GOLF MATCH

"I was pretty lucky . . . he missed the short ones and I made the long ones", said Sam Snead as he collected his check bringing his total earnings on All-Star Golf to $10,500. Only the great can be so sincerely modest—as Sam Snead's comment hardly describes the brilliant, breath-taking match which he won with a record breaking 63, on the Sea Island Georgia Golf Course.

Sam wasted no time . . . on the very first hole he laid his 8-iron shot 3 feet from the pin and then rapped in his putt for a birdie 3. On the par 3 No. 3, he birdied again with an 18 footer. Sam took it easy until the 6th, par 4, 420 yard hole when his 8-iron placed the ball 8 feet from the pin, and his magical putter sank it for his third birdie.

On the 7th and 8th, Harney kept pace with "Slamming Sam"—both of them scoring birdies back to back. On the 9th, Snead made his only error, taking a bogey 5 . . . while Harney parred, giving him a 34 against Snead's 32 on the first nine.

Harney, running into trouble, after 12 holes was 5 strokes down and it looked like the excitement was over for the afternoon; but Sam suddenly got hot again. On the 15th, par 5, 460 yard hole, he just missed a 48 foot putt for an eagle, to take a birdie 4. On the 16th hole, par 4, he sank a 21 foot putt for a birdie 3. On the 17th, par 3, he sank a 17 footer for a birdie 2.

On the 18th, par 5, 464 yard hole, "Slamming Sam" Snead lived up to his nickname and put his 1-iron, 2nd shot, on the green, 16 feet from the pin . . . and then proceeded to calmly sink it for an eagle 3—and a $500 cash award. Millions of TV fans must have upset their potato chip bowls in excitement over this one. This rocket-like finish of Snead's on the second nine gave him a 31 which, coupled with his first round 32, added up to a neat 63 for a brand new record at Sea Island. Harney finished with a 1 under par, 71, for 2nd place money.

As your Munsingwear golf reporter, I will again be giving you the colorful inside story next week in this same column on the Sam Snead-Ted Kroll Match, to be played at the DeSoto Country Club, Sarasota, Florida.

Never again!

No more hanging clothes outside to dry when you have an Electric Clothes Dryer

LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY — dry clothes for an average of about 5c a load in an Electric Clothes Dryer.

You can throw away your clothespins—say goodbye to clothesline work and worry—when you dry your clothes electrically. Instead of carrying heavy wash out to the line, you just take clothes from your washer, pop them into your Electric Dryer and set the controls. Gentle, sunshine-clean electric heat dries everything safely, automatically—without a moment's attention from you. And your clothes come out cleaner, fluffier and sweeter-smelling than when dried outdoors on the finest day.
