Other Leaders Are Involved In Huge Plot

Noted Surgeon Is Arrested For Sending Threatening Letters To Officials

BUCHAREST, Rumania (AP)—Plans to assassinate Premier Tataroescu, and other government leaders was revealed by the police Friday.

Arrest of Professor Gomoju, one of Rumania's foremost surgeons, and member of the national organization "Kultur Ex-Patria," which is strongly sympathetic with the fascist iron guard, followed the disclosure.

He is charged with sending threatening letters to members of the government, and other influential persons throughout the country.

WASHINGTON By George Burne

Labor

Events seem to be shaping themselves to establish the Roosevelt administration as definitely a labor government.

Senator Wagner thinks the thunder in the automobile and railroad industries is going to insure passage of his bill to put real fangs in the National Labor Board.

What is more significant is the fact that Wagner and his colleagues in this fight feel certain they have White House support—and that it will become vocal in a pinch.

Bitter is hardly the word for the scrap in the offing over the Wagner bill. Industry is fighting it as if for its very life. Organized labor is just as grimly determined that the bill shall become law.

If President Roosevelt injects himself in the situation, as the measure's proponents hope he will, some savage resentments will linger in the minds of our industrialists.

Offhand labor would appear to be in the ascendancy—not only in this country but elsewhere. The recent British election was significant.

Key

The boys who hold the real key to the automobile situation are the tool and die makers, who number some 16,000.

They have an independent union of their own—which seems nevertheless have strong leanings toward the American Federation of Labor.

These workers make the patterns, dies and tools. They can't be replaced because each must serve a long apprenticeship to acquire his skill. They are the one bunch of the industry that isn't pretty much mechanized and when they're off the job everything comes to a standstill.

Credit

President Roosevelt made his proposal to Congress for establishment of 12 industrial credit banks over the strenuous protests of Jesse Jones, chairman of the RFC. Jones feels this is no way to get credit to the smaller industries. His opinion is that the whole idea is a scheme on the part of the Federal Reserve Board to get back the $140,000,000 its member banks were forced to spend on deposit guarantees.

According to Jones it would be simpler merely to amend the Federal Reserve Act so as to permit Reserve banks to make 5-year loans to industry and eliminate the expense of setting up the new banks—which the Federal Reserve would run anyway.

There's reason to suspect Jones pulled a fast one on the White House—that didn't quite work—when he submitted his own bill to Congress. This is the one that would have widened the powers of the RFC so it could make direct loans to industry in competition with the banks.

The first Mr. Roosevelt knew of this bill was when questioned about it at a press conference on the day Jones submitted it on Capitol Hill.

The President's professedly complete ignorance of the proposal is important to remember. His astonishment that it had been tossed before a Congressional committee was obvious.

Silver

There seems to be more than one opinion on the silver question.

County Interscholastic Meet Off On Good Start

PROCLAMATION By The Mayor

The week of April 2 to 8, inclusive, has been designated as SPRING FIRE PREVENTION CLEAN-UP WEEK.

There are many reasons why the Spring Clean-Up Campaign this year should receive the enthusiastic support of every man, woman and child. FIRST, because the Fire Prevention Clean-Up Campaign this year is of particular importance, as it can be combined with general welfare work, and be of particular benefit to the unemployed. SECOND, because every dollar in property destroyed by fire, which so frequently is the result of "careless" housekeeping in the home and in the average place of business, is a serious drain upon our present economic condition. THIRD, every citizen should have a wholesome pride in his home city, its streets, playgrounds, parks and buildings. Homes and surroundings freshly painted, with well kept lawns and gardens, increase property values and intensify community interest. Cleanliness creates cheer, courage and confidence. FOURTH, because in the past ten years entirely too many of our citizens have lost their lives due to carelessness in their daily use of fire, and the prevention of human life is an important matter.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C. E. Talbot, Mayor of the city of Big Spring, do hereby designate the week of April 2 to 8, inclusive, as SPRING CLEAN-UP WEEK and most respectfully call upon all departments of the city, the Chamber of Commerce, Civic Clubs and our people in general, to take an active part in this Clean-Up Campaign.

I further designate the Fire Marshal and Fire Chief as a committee of two to work with the city officials in selecting active committees to carry on this campaign and ask the cooperation of all of our people in this enterprising campaign for a clean city.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereto sign my name and seal of office, this 17th day of March, 1934.

C. E. TALBOT, Mayor, Big Spring, Texas.

ATTEST: MERLE J. STEWART, City Secretary.

'Ma' Warns Womanhood Debauchers

Aged Man Given Two Years For Murder Of Campbell, Floydada

AUSTIN (AP)—Governor Ferguson Friday gave warning to what she termed "young debauchers of womanhood" in a proclamation granting a complete pardon to J. B. Readheimer, 60, convicted of the murder and death of Stokes Campbell of Floydada.

Campbell, allegedly the father of a child born to Readheimer's daughter, refused to marry her.

Readheimer was sentenced to two years.

The governor said the pardon would "be a grave warning to these young debauchers of womanhood, who run around the country seeking whom they may ruin with no attempt to keep their passion within bounds."

Drought Area Report Made By Watson

Friday morning in Sweetwater county judges from fourteen West Texas counties seeking drought relief convened to hear a report from C. T. Watson, local chamber of commerce manager, who Thursday returned from Washington, D. C., where he represented the interests of this section.

The envoy told judges that complete assurance that relief would be given destitute unemployed. He added that no specific program or type of relief was promised because "too much publicity in meeting relief demands had resulted in increased demands for relief in other localities."

Lateral road work was suggested as a sound program by Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief director, Lawrence Westbrook, formerly Texas director and now assistant to Hopkins, and Chief of the Bureau of Good Roads McDonald.

Watson suggested that county judges consider seriously the lateral road program and pursue them to conclusion.

Strike Is Held In Abeyance By Labor Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt Friday awaited word from both sides in the strike-threatening automobile controversy, indicating he is ready at any time to hear plans for a settlement of difficulties.

The president communicated his ideas to both sides Thursday night. He left the issue temporarily to two groups, with Hugh Johnson, industrial administrator, acting as intermediary.

Neither side had reported at noon Friday.

Labor leaders, after a talk with the president, held the strike in abeyance.

It is understood this action would continue until conclusion of negotiations.

There were no further developments Friday in the railroad wage dispute between managers and employes.

Leaders of labor unions are scheduled to meet Friday afternoon with Johnson to hear definite word from the administration.

FASCISM PRESENTS US WITH ANOTHER LAUGH

If you feel that something drastic ought to be done about saving the republic, and if you also like to wear nice uniforms and have a feeling for vague supernaturalism, then you surely will want to know about the Silver Shirts.

This seems to be a fascist sort of outfit now being organized in the middlewest.

The leader is a man who says that he once died and then returned to earth, endowed with supernatural powers. As a result, it seems, he possesses "psychic antennae," with which he is able to perform such prodigies as make forecasts according to the date which are inscribed in stone on the great pyramid of Gizeh.

It should be added, perhaps, that the gentleman once was employed as a scenario writer in Hollywood.

Some time between now and 1935, the Silver Shirts plan to seize the contagion of Fascism, which afflicts European countries very badly at this writing, seems to break out in this country only in symptoms which are laughable.

Some months ago there was the fiasco of the Khaki Shirts at Philadelphia. Now there is this woody business of the Silver Shirts; and the result is a sort of reductio ad absurdum of the whole idea of Fascism.

It is being presented to us, not as a movement which can enlist sympathies of determined men, but as a supremely dizzy aberration at which we only can chuckle.

That, to repeat, is a lucky break. Once let an idea get a humorous association in the minds of the American people and they never will take it seriously.

If we are being introduced to Fascism in its most ludicrous guise, there is small chance that we ever shall commit the blunder of falling for it.

You can join this ineffable outfit for $10, which brings you a neat uniform consisting of campaign hat, silver shirt, blue corduroy pants, leggings and tie. Presumably, also, you are put in touch with the leader's mystic revelations from beyond the void.

Now all this—which must be taken seriously by at least enough people to give the leader a living—really represents a lucky break for America.

In a letter to "Spike" Henninger, baseball promoter here, George Elliott of Odessa is all for the new U. S. Eighty league. Elliott will attend the meeting here Sunday with Joe P. Flynn, manager of the Midland baseball team. Both Midland and Odessa are supposedly members of the Periman loop. Their move to the new outfit will bring a howl.

Coach Gene Gardner has inherited the high school track coaching job from Obble Bristow. Gardner has some six high school athletes out daily, and about ten junior high boys. Little Gene Neel is the only trackster that has shown enough "stuff" to be rated much of a threat. He is out for the 220-yard low hurdles and has improved considerably in his "get-away."

Gardner has been working with Bob Flowers who is developing into a half miler. Several others have fine possibilities but fail to show any sign of wanting to train, according to the coach.

Officials of the Sand Belt Golf League will convene at the Country Club at 11 o'clock Sunday morning to pass on the schedule for the season. Play will start April 8.

The Sweetwater Mustangs appear to be forming into a much stronger track aggregation than first expected, coming out at the head of a procession in a four-cornered track meet Tuesday. Sweetwater athletes led the field

SENIOR'S PLAY
Due to the intercholastic League activities practice on the senior's play "The Wild Oats Boy" was postponed last week. It will probably be two more weeks before it will be presented. Every one that can should see this play. It is a fine play and the money made for the presentation of it goes to pay the expenses of a trip for the Juniors and Seniors at the end of school. Watch for posters and future announcements about it.

SPORTS
Forsan is not as strong in track this year as she was last year, so the tracksters are going to have to do their best in each event.

NEGLECT OF COMMON CONSTIPATION IS A SERIOUS MATTER

Prevent This Condition with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

The first question your doctor asks is whether you are constipated or not. He knows that this condition may cause headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. It is often the starting point of serious illness.

You can prevent and relieve common constipation so easily. Just eat a delicious cereal once a day. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" and vitamin B to aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also a rich source of blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that found in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the intestinal wastes.

Isn't this "cereal way" safer and far more pleasant than taking patent medicines—so often harmful? Two tablespoonsfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in chronic cases. If seriously ill, see your doctor—ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all."

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

THE QUESTION BOX

"Why does Bobby Asbury write Lucy Wilson so many notes?" asked by J. D.—Why does any boy write notes to the girl of his dreams?
"Will the Junior and Seniors really go on a trip at the close of school?" asked by Earl Adkins. Yes, they will, but it will not be to Old Mexico as planned.
"Should I get married before I finish school?" asked by "Popeye"—Yes, you should as you will probably not get another chance. I advise you to finish school though. (Answered by Won Lung).

"Why are certain 'cases' hard to break up?" asked by Cleo Wilson. Well, you see it is like this: when two persons find that they are made for each other, you can't separate them.
"Will I ever finish my elvica notebook?" asked by Lucille Wilson. You probably will, but I advise you not to wait too long to get started.
"What does Cynical Sid look like?" asked by Avie Keith. I'm sorry little girl but there seems to be something 'phony' about this guy. All I can tell you is that he, she or it has resemblances all the way from Mae West to Frankenstein. (Answered by Won Lung).

"Do other schools have as many 'goofy birds' as Forsan has?" asked by Mr. Watson. Most schools have at least two to three 'cracked nuts', but I have never heard of one having as many as Forsan has, since there are about 40.
"What makes me feel so funny when I gaze into her eyes?" asked by Walter Schultz. You are merely in love. Someday you will quit gazing into her eyes; she will have you under her thumb.
With these questions we complete our work for this time.

In the spring a "young man's fancy lightly turns to love" and poetry.
There once was a guy named J. D. He shone was some sight to see. He was full of fun,
And he couldn't hardly run,
But he was a pal to me.

His hair was curly and brown,
He looked like he had n'er seen a town,
But me and him wuz pals,
And he had lots of gaz,
That always turned him down.

He was full of fun and pep,
And he had a very good rep.
He always wore a grin,
That never would end.

And secrets; he never kept.
Some say he wasn't a very good guy,
He had a face like a pie,
But nevertheless,
He's a pal I like best.
For me candy and gum he would buy.

GOOFY GOSSIP
Well, this week has supplied us with plenty to talk about anyway. Take for instance, the convention. Miss Moore took the whole thing in from the foundation to the roof of the Settles Hotel. When she went in to register, she signed her name on the dotted line. A few minutes later a whole line of bill collectors turned up and demanded their money, and when things got too bad she investigated and found she'd bought the whole business. Now folks are going to call the hotel "Can't Settle". Then there's Miss Wingo, but her actions were more than could be adequately described, so I can answer all questions in private if those seeking information can succeed in cornering me. Even I become somewhat involved at the convention. When I went over, I met a mighty pretty girl and I says to myself sezzi, "Boy, spring is in the air! I feel it in my bones." Then says Miss Nelson to me in that icy tone she uses in my presence, "That's rheumatism you feel in your bones, and if you look in the air again you will find it is sand instead of spring. In fact, it would take several springs to settle the real estate that has gone up today!" Even the high school students profited by the convention. Anita McDonald spent all Friday afternoon trying to decide which of her two beaux she'd wear up the aisle some day to the tune of "Tum-tum-tum!" Mutt and Lilly flipped coins all afternoon to see which one got to tell Frances the latest about Cynical Sid Saturday. Won Lung, who has recently come out for track, decided to take a cross country run, known to some as road work. He ran so fast and puffed so hard as he jumped over the rocks and rattlers that his Won Lung soon gave out and he sat down and planned a baby rattler factory to be erected on the spot because the rocks were plentiful to use for the rattles in the rattlers.
Yours,
Cynical Sid

Judith Lane

CHAUTAU FOUR THE STORM

Judith paused and looked up. Dale had stopped to give his pack train a rest—"everything quiet?" he asked. "Maybe you'd better move on to the lee of the ship rock, Scoggins says the usual high water line is about here and when she strikes—" he lifted expressive shoulders with a glance at the round-eyed children.

"We've got everything excepting the houses in a relatively safe place. I'll be with you as soon as every one's left the danger line."

He moved on, Judith's gaze following. She thought of Cila's remark that every woman who saw him wanted to take him home for keeps. . . she didn't blame them. . . women must be intuitively right.

and Judith, following them, sensed the primitive in them as children live stock and household goods were corralled in family units.

Judith found herself in a sheltered nook, the lip of the rock breaking the storm. Tom Bevins and Norman Dale were seated on either side, the other members of the expedition and the pack train, ranged about them.

Bevins pulled a pup-tent over them and then the storm began, a storm upon which Judith would look back with a shudder of horror and the memory of which would outweigh all else when she approached the crisis of her life.

A roar and a crash, the frantic braying of pack mules fighting their hatters, the hysterical scream of a woman rising above the moan

NEW TULIPS AT NEW YORK SHOW

A record number of exhibitors and the greatest variety of blooms ever to appear on the show's program were attracted to the annual international flower show in New York. Betty Worth, pretty New Yorker, is shown with a new tulip, entitled Mrs. John T. Scheepers on display for the first time in this country. The tulip is chrome yellow and has won many awards in European shows. (Associated Press Photo)

... sense with excitement . . . "get rock to point of narrow channel. Upper dam, secondary reservoir absolute necessity. Have Dale check site, locate deeds on—"

Judith looked up in amazement . . . notebook at a time like this with death swirling overhead in jagged lightning which wouldn't stay overhead, but came darting down about them in brittle crashes?

Automatically she reached for her hip pocket, pulled out the book, felt Norman adjust the pup tent; to a more protective angle and produce a small flash light.

"Ready? Sight line from ship

Judith didn't know when the storm calmed down, she was too busy. Big Tom was dictating at a rate which tested her speed.

"The perfect stenographer," chuckled Judith's future husband. And then when her hand was cramped and her knee balancing the book was cramped. Big Tom stopped. Judith looked up. The last volley of thunder was booming into the distance, fire of hoarded sagebrush were being lighted, the aroma of coffee and frying bacon mingled with the wood smoke.

Tension relaxed, but the natives' spirits were low. Thomas Scoggins, Senior, their leader, the man who had built the largest adobe house with even a private room for his Tommy, and then had watched it swept on down to the Gulf, came up to the expedition's camp.

"You see how it is, sis," he said with hopeless resignation in his voice. "We farm, and then if we get any rain at all it comes like this and everything is washed away. I'm sorry you had to see it, you won't want to go on with your dam after this."

"Won't want to go on?" repeated Bevins. "Man alive, do you think any engineer with a soul could see this water go to waste and not want to harness it into something useful?"

PICTURE OF TWO MEN LEAVING A BRIDGE C

Big Tom was dictating at a rate that was testing her speed.

"Tell us another, Miss Lane, tell us a storm-one this time," begged a scrawny girl of twelve, "I'm skeered of storms," she explained. Flashes of heat lightning showed weird mists riding, furiously towards them and then a single jagged stroke of lightning cut across the heavens.

Quickly Judith improvised a jingle—

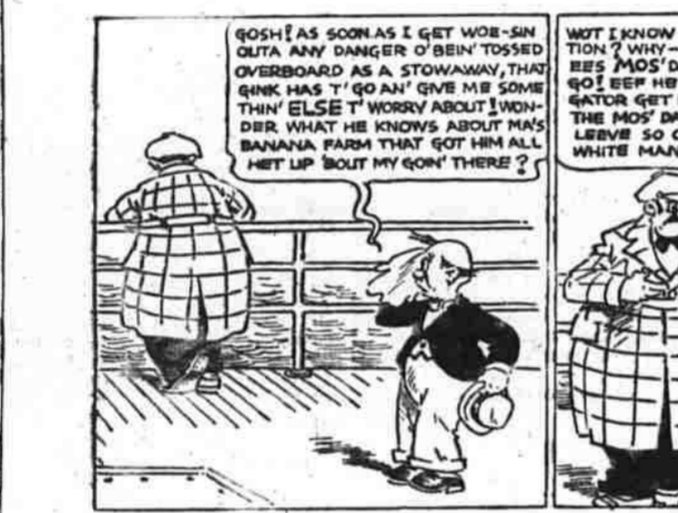

"Old Mother Summer is sweeping the sky,
Hist to the wish
As her rain brooms brush by,
Look at their handles all jagged and red . . ."

The storm struck with a crash. Judith hesitated a moment and Tommy manfully took up the theme:

"Duck down y'innies
Or y'll get struck dead."
Judith didn't have time to remonstrate. The quick patter of rain drops had brought those below up on a run and parents were gathering their offspring together and hustling them into the shelter of the queer rock formation which loomed like a ship-shaped light house on the rim of the river basin.

"We want our young-uns with us," they explained apologetically,

Whirligig

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) one way of killing a cat besides choking it to death with butter, is the saying goes. The White House resorted to a neat bit of strategy to prevent a vote at this session on the Fleisner silver bill, which provides for federal purchase of a billion and a half ounces. This was the dispatch of Prof. James Harvey Rogers, of Yale, to China to study the silver situation. It takes a long time to get to the orient and back, so there is little picking up six Senate seats while not losing more than 60 of their ponderous House majority. From one angle the Committee's new active head should be well equipped for the task. One of his hobbies is the collection of campaign literature. Hurja is familiar with the original versions of all campaign hoop-la running back to 1824.

Which?—The Democrats may pick up one seat in the House any day now. House Elections Committee No. 2 is about to vote on the contest between Rep. George Burnham (R.P.) of San Diego, Calif., and his Democratic opponent, Claude Chandler. Burnham got the decision by the narrow margin of 43,757 to 43,304. An official recount of 26 per cent of the vote permitted Chandler to pick up 150 ballots. There are 6 Democrats and 3 Republicans on the Committee. Their decision will be interesting.

Notes—New Philippine independence in slight naval plans contemplate early withdrawal from the islands and concentration of forces at Pearl Harbor. The railroads are jockeying with their workers in an effort to keep the roads out of an NRA code. There's no danger of a strike. If world court supporters really press that question there'll be trouble from Senate Democrats. Emergency cash relief disbursements amount to $2,411,000,000 since July 1.

NEW YORK By James McMullin Motors—General Motors holds the key to the auto strike situation. The industry is expected to follow the big company's lead. Local insiders get word that Knudsen and the Fisher Body people are hot for a definite showdown on the promise that they are in a stronger position to deal with the A. F. of L. now than they might be later. The peace party is headed by President Alfred Sloan and it's understood here that he has the backing of the powerful DuPont stockholding interests. This doesn't mean that Sloan and the DuPonts favor surrendering to the Federation but rather that they see nothing to be gained by locking horns at present. The militant faction may appear to be in the saddle but the informed predict that cool-headed influences will prevail.

Spread—If an effective strike lasts more than four days local authorities doubt that the germ can be isolated in the motor and steel industries. In that case watch for concerted action by large employers. The lockout technique—to get the jump on labor in disaffected plants—is indicated. But New Yorkers with close Washington contacts doubt that the government will let this happen. They are betting on forceful intervention within three days should a strike assume major proportions. The aim would be to impel management and labor alike to resume operations pending official arbitrations of their disputes.

Labor—Exceptionally well informed local sources will tell you confidentially that the government may not be so averse to a brief strike as you might think. The left wing of the American Federation has been getting out of hand and a licking for this group could have salutary effects in strengthening the right wing's prestige. These sources comment that unofficial support from high places was instrumental in keeping the right wing in command of the Federation last year. They add that the conservative labor element is the nation's greatest shock absorber against unrest.

Industry—Then there's also the right wing of industry which has been acting up lately from the administration's viewpoint. It's a safe prediction that their urge to "teach these fellows a lesson"—at public expense—will not be fully gratified. Local government sympathizers believe the effects of a brief strike might bring this element to a more cooperative frame of mind. The President's middle-of-the-road policies have stirred a deep undercurrent of discontent alike among industrial right-wingers and labor left-wingers. New York sharps are already forecasting that both these groups will have political candidates in the field in 1936.

Mania—In addition to being the world's largest employer of labor and one of its champion spenders (more than a billion dollars in less than a year), Harry Hopkins qualifies also as our leading butter and egg man. From November to March 15, the Relief Administrator had bought and distributed 40,824 carloads of assorted products through his Federal Surplus Relief Corporation. When you stop to consider that it takes 40,000 pounds of foodstuffs, 100,000 pounds of coal, or 60,000 pounds of grain to make a carload this is a lot of relief. The manna distributed consisted of pork, lard, flour, butter, dried apples, beans, cereal foods, canned beef, cheese, oranges, syrup, blankets, coal and feed grains.

Hurja—Appointment of Emil Hurja as assistant to Jim Farley to take charge of the actual running of the Democratic National Committee has the approval of most Democrats if not reaching headquarters is any criterion. The Farley trouble shooter has been literally swamped with letters of congratulation since his new assignment was announced. Hurja intends to work in close cooperation with the Senatorial and Congressional Campaign Committees in an effort to hold existing lines in next fall's elections. The Democrats have visions of Majority opinion here doubts the wisdom of staging any kind of a battle on the thin layer of recovery ice so far formed. No argument—however vital—is rated a valid excuse for risking another plunge into chill depression waters. Even Wall Street anti-laborites would mostly prefer to temporize until the skating is safer. New Yorkers are playing a prominent part in the heavy barrage against the Wagner labor bill now being directed at Congress. A conspicuous factor in the attack is an effort to prove that previous flights of capital from the United States on inflation rumors were as brooklets to the Niagara that will pour abroad if the bill becomes law. The informed still see small chance of the bill's passage as in but there's no let-up in the campaign to prove it a monstrosity on that account.

New York bankers note that the Treasury is quietly and skilfully continuing its pressure for credit expansion. Government deposits in Federal Reserve member banks are being left intact. At the same time the volume of gold certificates paid over to the Federal Reserve is steadily increasing. Part of the new issue has been used to buy government bonds—replacing an interest-bearing form of obligation with another carrying no interest—but even suspicious conservatives can detect no signs that new currency is being used to meet current expenses.

Approval—It's an odd shift that the New York sound money crowd which was viewing with such frenzied alarm a few short months ago—now finds itself generally in support of the administration's monetary and financing policies. But the boys are keeping their ideas to themselves. They don't wish to jeopardize the popularity of these policies by approving them too openly. Nor is there any point in advertising "We were wrong."

Inflation—New Headquarters of the paper money and silver shock troops have by no means given up the fight because of administration opposition. They are now concentrating on trying to stir Congress into open rebellion on these matters. Their big argument is that the President hasn't made proper use of his powers under the Thomas amendment and that therefore mandatory legislation is needed to save the country. Conservative New York crackles that the inflationists are the real "money changers." "They want to change our money into a cross between silver foil and waste paper."

Shadows—Custom circles report an interesting invention which will be kept secret until it is released a month hence. This is a new lace that is shadow-proof. At last the ladies will be able to dispense with slips in the dog days without fear of being arrested for disturbing the peace. The new material hasn't been named yet but is expected to be a bombshell in the fashion world.

Sidelights—The oil producers are chipper. They hear that Licks will probably raise their production quotas again in April. New York expects a consumer financing rabbit to be hauled from the Washington hat at any moment. (Copyright McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

Verine Of 108 Tollmen Called For N. E. Boutwell Trial In Colorado Mar. 23

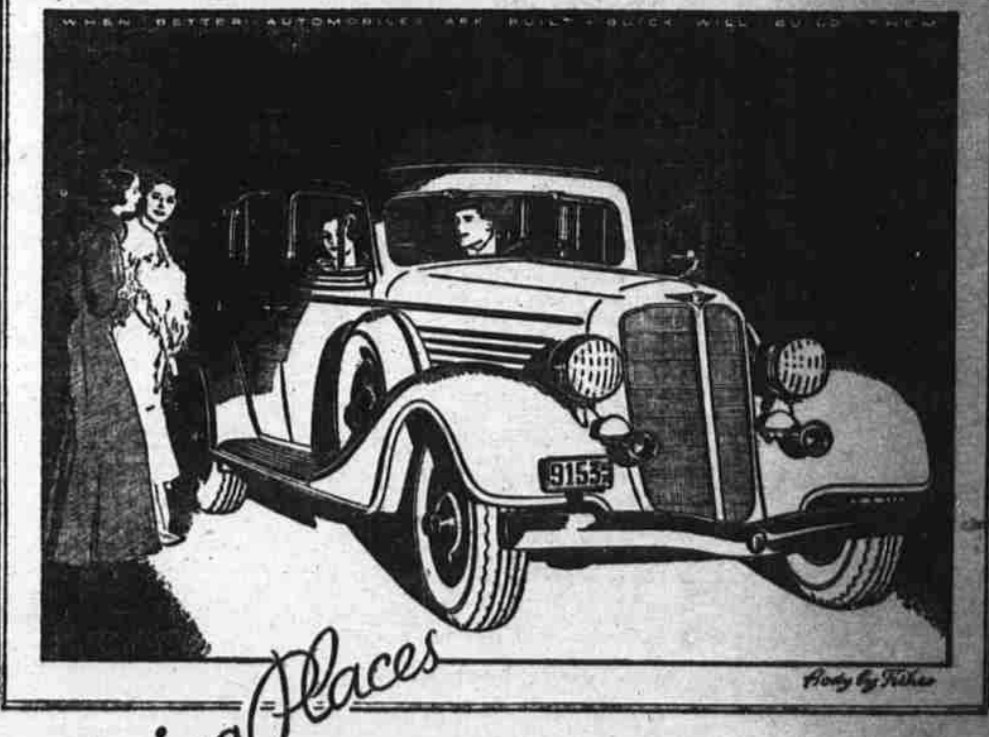

COLORADO—District Judge A. S. Mauney of 22nd district court stated Monday afternoon that he had ordered three panels of 35 each, making a special venire of 108, to appear Wednesday morning, March 23, in the N. E. Boutwell trial. The case is expected to attract considerable attention at Colorado and other communities of the county. Boutwell is being held in the Mitchell county jail to face charges of rape, based on alleged mistreatment of a girl of under age who attended the Fairview school during time he was principal of the institution. Motion for continuance may be filed by defense attorneys, according to prophesy being advanced this week by attaches at the court house. However, this remains nothing more than rumor.

When they left a train at Pasadena, they were accompanied by a guard, supplemented by two Pasadena motorcycle officers. In their report, the motorcycle officers said they were informed by Cord, who was at the train to meet the boys, that he had received letters and telephone calls threatening their abduction. proud parents of a 6-pound baby boy.

British Open To Draw Big Field In 1934

Americans Seen As Winners With Argentines As Opponents

By HARRY L. PERCY
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON (UP)—The foreign attack on the British Open Golf Championship promises to be as big as ever.

The championship will be held at Sandwich, Kent, over the Royal St. George's course, June 25 to 28. It is possible that there will be a record entry. The number of United States competitors, at least, should be one of the largest ever.

In addition to the ten members of the American Walker Cup team, all of whom are expected to enter, there will be the usual baker's dozen of American professionals. Denmore Shute will be defending the title he won at St. Andrew's last year, after a tie with Craig Wood. Wood, also, is expected to be playing.

Sarazen to Enter
Then, according to reports here, Gene Sarazen is coming over bringing in his trail Willie MacFarlane, winner of the Miami-Biltmore tournament this winter. Others who are expected include Macdonald Smith, Leo Diegel and Johnny Farrell. It would not surprise anybody if Walter Hagen, too, decided to change his mind once again, and have a crack at his fifth Open title.

The British Open is almost an American prerogative—they have won it for the last ten years—and their chances of another victory this year are good. They are not so good as they might have been, however, if they had only the British golfers to contend with.

There are reports that the dapper little Argentine champion, Jose Jurado, is bringing a string of six to Britain for the championship. It is true that the same report circulated last year without the arrival of the Argentines, but it is equally true that they were prevented from coming owing to lack of finances due to exchange restrictions. The Anglo-Argentine trade agreement was concluded too late to allow them to benefit by it.

Ample Funds
This year, however, there should be no trouble in finding ample funds, and if they do come, there is a distinct chance of the title going to Argentine. Few will forget how the tiny smiling Jurado, lost the championship by one stroke to Tommy Armour, at Carnoustie in 1931. In addition, it is significant that Jurado shares with George Duncan the professional course record of 69 at Royal St. George's, admittedly one of the hardest courses in the country.

Between them the Americans and the Argentines will provide the main foreign attack. Their numbers, however, will be increased by contingents of half a dozen or more from France, Spain, and other European countries, and there will be the usual dozen or so entries from the British dominions.

Round Table Is Formed Here By Local Scouters

Scout leaders of this district perfected organization for a Scouters Roundtable Thursday afternoon, installing George Gentry as presiding officer and Peyton Wheeler as secretary.

Gentry is district chairman and Wheeler is assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 3.

A. C. Williamson, area executive, made his first visit here since undergoing a major surgery in Sweetwater a short time ago. He discussed plans for a camp training school and urged that scouters enter into the first aid course that is to begin here April 2. He announced that Dr. Thomas Hoover had consented to continue the course beyond the regular limit in order that requirements for the scout course be satisfied.

Dr. Lee Rogers, chairman of the district activities committee, discussed the approaching jamboree on May 4 and 5. He announced appointments of various committees to complete arrangements for the annual affair which brings as many as 500 scouts and scouters to this city.

Dr. Rogers also disclosed plans for a city wide jamboree to be held April 29 and 30 in order that local scouts could grow accustomed to competition and better their chances in the regular jamboree.

Problems connected with advancement were poignantly discussed by W. C. Blankenship, chairman of court of honor. He suggested means for accelerating the rate of advancement here after Williamson had quoted "enlightening" figures showing a deplorable laxity in that part of the scout program.

DR. C. K. BIVINGS EXPLAINS TUBERCULIN SKIN TEST TO 105 PARENTS OF W. WARD SCHOOL

Dr. C. K. Bivings, in a brief, concise, simple and informative manner, explained to 105 mothers and fathers of pupils of the West Ward School, what the tuberculin skin test is, at a called meeting, Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the West Ward School. The call was issued by the Howard County Tuberculosis Association, which is planning to launch a health campaign in this school, giving particular attention at this time to tuberculosis. Every child attending this school will be given an opportunity to have this skin test made. The written consent of the parent will be obtained before the test is given on any child. This is a skin test only, and is said to be painless. It merely shows whether or not tubercle bacilli, or tuberculous germs are in the system of the person being tested.

"It is the moral duty of parents," Dr. Bivings said, in his talk before the mothers and fathers of the West Ward School, Thursday afternoon, "to have their children given this test; not for their sake alone, but for the sake of the other children about them. Lives of many children are endangered when one of the group has this dreaded disease. When found in its early stages, it can be cured. Surely its spread can be checked." Dr. Bivings' talk was clean and to the point.

With the cooperation of members of the local Medical Society, and the parents of children of school age, it is believed that the health program to be carried out by the Tuberculosis Association will meet with great success, and will be a big benefit in bettering the general health conditions of the community. Dr. Lee Rogers, Mrs. J. C. Douglass, Mrs. V. O. Hennen, and Mrs. Horace Reagan are supervising this program.
