About five months remain in which World War II veterans may apply for GI home, farm, or business toans, Edward P. Onstot, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Dallas, Texas reminded veterans today.

Under present law, July 1960, is the cut-off date set for World War II veterans participation in the post-war program that has seen more than 5 million World War II veterans take advantage of the GI Bill loan provisons since June 22, 1944.

Veterans who submit their ap plications on or before the deadline of July ?" 1000, will be allowed an additional year, or un-til July 25, 1961, in which to have lips, and "Lonely Hill," by Janie the loan processed and actually Korean-conflict veterans who have until January 1, 1965, to make GI loan applications.

World War II veterans who also served during the Korean-conflict period are considered Korean-conflict veterans for the purpose of GI loans.

Veterans in rural areas and in small cities and towns where guaranteed loans are not generally available are eligible for VA direct home and farm house loans.

The direct loan program for both World War II and Korean-conflict veterans is due to expire on July 25, 1960.

Since the GI loan program was launched in June, 1944, and up through December, 1959, a total of 5,125,000 loans have been guaranteed or made to World War II veterans for a total face Public Safety Two Olden High School judging teams left Friday morning to com-

Don Fry presented three numbers which included "Sunrise", "The Skaters" and "The Bells Ring Out" Thompson: Janet Kimbler and Perry Treadwell played a duet, "Theme From Concerto No. 1" by Tschaikawsky.

Mary Ann Turner was presented in a solo, "Cardez" Hungarian Dance by Scher. John Baker played "Pogo Stick" Lloyd. Mike Siebert chose "March Mrs. Wiley Harbin hosted the of the Penguins" by Stevens for his solo. Anna Lookingbill gave The Banjo Player" by Fletcher and Marsha White's selection was 'March of the Dominoes" Holst, Jan Robertson's number, 'To Spring' by Grieg closed the nusical program.

Mmes Griffin Hart, David Fry, W. Hewitt, and F. L. Dragoo composed the hostess committee for the afternoon. Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to the 35 members and guests present from a table dressed in the Texas Day motif. The cover represented the Texas flag and the Texas star was graced by an arrangement of Blue Bonnets, the state flower.

A short business session was held following the reception. Mrs. Kinniard, president, called for a vote on the plan of redistricting the state in order that the state be divided more equally and the district officers will be able to serve their positions with out such great demand of travel and correspondence. The club voted to accept the plan as submitted. It was also voted to sponsor purchase of a plaque for High School Band, under the di-rection of P. W. Hewitt, on which the name of the outstanding band student of each year over a per iod of 12 years would be engraved. Along with this honor the club will present an award pin to that outstanding pupil.

The meeting was adjourned in
