Ballinger Eats Mavs' Peanut Butter Spread

MOORE about... EASTLAND

by Virgil E. Moore

Ronald Waters, Ranger Times editor, came out with a bold-faced prediction this week that Ballinger would beat the Eastland Mavericks this coming Friday. At the same time, Ronald said Bulldogs would down Coleman, and you know all about that prediction now.

See where Joe Cook, another product of Eastland, has purchased the Louisville, Miss. Winston County Journal and has assumed operation of the newspaper. Joe has been general manager of Times Publishing Co. at Mission for 26 years. His paper there won 60 national, state and regional awards, and he was at one time president of the Texas Press Association. Joe graduated from Eastland High in about 1928, we think.

Eastland County voters picked up the label of "againers" in the General Election Tuesday. County voters said no eight times. At least two of the amendments didn't effect Eastland County at all. They merely gave other counties the privilege of calling a vote on strictly local issues. Those counties should not be penalized by voters who failed to take enough time to find out what they were voting on.

We took the opportunity to have lunch with the Home Demonstration Club ladies Friday, and as usual the food was wonderful. We regret that the Achievement Day is just an annual affair.

Speaking of the HD Achievement Day, we would be failing to do a good job of reporting if we did not mention that County Agent J. M. Cooper ate more than any other person there. Cooper, we are beginning to believe, would make a mighty good politician. He didn't slight anyone, taking a big helping of every dish.

C. W. Hoffmann of Eastland was one of 15 living past-presidents of the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Assn. to be honored Thursday at the 25th annual meeting of the Association held in Abilene. The late Joe M. Weaver of Eastland was one of three deceased past-presidents also honored.

Eastland is a city of many clubs and many club secretaries. They should all enjoy this bit of nothing which we admit we swiped:

- If he writes a letter, it's too long.
- If he writes a postcard, it's too short.
- If he doesn't send notices, he's worthless.
- If he attends committee meetings he's butting in.
- If he stays away he's a shirker and slacker.
- If he duns the members for dues he's insulting.
- If he fails to collect dues, he's slipping.
- If he asks for advice, he's not competent.
- If he doesn't ask for advice, he's a know-it-all.
- If he writes complete reports, he's longwinded.
- If he condenses them, they're incomplete.
- If he talks on a subject, he's trying to run things.
- If he remains quiet, he's lost interest completely.
- So what can the poor fellow do?

United Fund Short Of Goal by $1000

The United Fund Campaign is in the last phase of completion, running about $1000 behind the goal.

This amount is expected to be collected in a whirlwind "clean-up" drive to contact the individuals who were out of town or otherwise unavailable when the workers made their initial effort. "Six thousand, five hundred dollars is not an excessive goal to expect in a town the size of Eastland, Steve Potts, chairman said. It is a modest goal, set to fulfill the needs of our active organizations. Remembering that United Fund is actually five campaigns in one to take care of YMCA, Red Cross, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts and USO needs in our community breaks it down into a case of simple arithmetic. Figuring what one would ordinarily give to each campaign for each of these worthy causes, then combining the gift into one contribution to the United Fund is the simplest way of taking care of the civic obligation one owes his community.

"The 'Bank Withdrawal' plan set up this year is the easiest way to meet this obligation when the total amount is not readily available. It works like this: The Eastland National Bank will take the responsibility and assume the expense of handling this plan, which calls for a cash withdrawal each month from the account of the donor, to be transformed in his name to the United Fund Account. Just by signing the pledge card, this system of monthly or quarterly withdrawal will be set up with no expense and no bother to the donor. This is an excellent plan for the salaried family or for anyone with a monthly income.

"If you have not made your year's contribution to the United Fund and would like this plan put in operation for you, contact David Fry at the Eastland National Bank or any of the United Fund workers and any one of them will be glad to set it up for you."

Potts pointed out that the success of the drive depends on the individual citizen, not just the workers.

"The workers are only for the convenience of the donor citizens," he said. The workers just make it easier for the individual to get money in the right place at the right time.

"The workers are important and have done a good job so far," said Larry Kinard, President of United Fund but it will take the combined efforts of the workers and the citizens to bring this drive to a successful conclusion."

The Girl Scouts, a newly formed group in town, has asked to share in United Fund. They made their request too late this year to be included in the present campaign budget. However, if the drive fund is over-subscribed, then the United Fund Board will try to meet the needs of Girl Scouts from the over-subscribed funds.

Instructions and information for mailing Christmas parcels to members of the Armed Forces Overseas, were given by Postmaster Marene Johnson for the period up to Nov. 20.

The term Armed forces overseas includes personnel of our Armed Forces, members of their families, and authorized United States civilians employed overseas who receive their mail through an APO, New York, N. Y.; San Francisco, Calif.; New Orleans, La.; or Seattle, Wash.; or Fleet Post Office, New York, N. Y.; or San Francisco, Calif.; or Navy Post Office, care of Postmaster, Seattle, Wash.

One-hundred inches in length and girth combined is the maximum size except that smaller limitations apply to certain overseas destinations addressed through New York, N. Y.

It is necessary that all articles for overseas delivery be packed in boxes of wood, metal, solid fiberboard, or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard.

It is also desirable that all fiberboard boxes be securely wrapped in heavy paper. Each box should be well tied with strong cord.

Boxes should contain sufficient cushioning material so that the contents will be tightly packed to prevent any rattling or loosening of articles within the package. Unless completely packed, a tightly filled, boxes are likely to be crushed. A slip showing list of

First Part of '59 'Ranger' Sent To Publishers

Editors and business managers of the 'Ranger', yearbook of Ranger College, have completed and sent to the publisher the first quota of layouts for the 1959 book. Meeting their first deadline four weeks early, they hope, by meeting all other deadlines, for early delivery of the 1959 "Ranger", possibly by the last of April.

The book will carry out a western theme with art work done by Charles Bonney.

Layouts completed include the first 37 pages of the book, comprising the buildings and the faculty and class sections. Editors are Paula Angus, Jonell Penney, and Carolyn Weaver. Wilma Edwards, freshman from Olden, is assistant editor. Co-business sales managers are Sherry Baker and Wanda Payne. Wiley Wyman, sophomore from Austin, is advertising sales manager.

COOLING OFF BERTHA — George Merck, assistant to the president of the New York Zoological Society, pours a refreshing shower of water over Bertha II, a 400-pound Beluga whale from Los Angeles. Destined for the New York Aquarium, Bertha made the 13-hour flight to Idlewood Airport on foam rubber mats and wrapped in damp cloth.

Plans Made for Sixth Annual Pecan Show

Plans for the sixth annual Eastland County Pecan Show to be held at the Joseph Building in Ranger on Dec. 12-13 were made in the Ranger Chamber of Commerce office Wednesday night.

Directors and officers of the Eastland County Pecan Growers Association met with the agriculture committee of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce and a special committee, to have charge of the show, to outline plans.

For the first time the Pecan Show, called the largest in the state by R. V. Galloway, Ranger C-C manager, is being held in Ranger. For the past five years it has been held in Cisco.

Presiding over the meeting was Oscar Schaefer of Cisco, president of the association. This year the show is being sponsored jointly by the Pecan Growers Association and the Ranger Chamber of Commerce.

An Eastland County Pecan Queen and a pecan bake show will be held in connection with the show. Sponsoring the queen contest will be the 1947 Young Matrons Club of Ranger. In the past the bake show has been sponsored by county home demonstration

Lots of Quail Are Expected

AUSTIN — Early reports have indicated there'll be a big crop of quail for the opening of the season Dec. 1. Now indications also point to a good crop of quail hunters, according to the assistant director of wildlife restoration of the Game and Fish Commission.

"We've had a lot of good food and cover this year, and a wonderful hatch of birds," he said. "Our men from every part of Texas tell us that conditions are excellent and birds are plentiful."

The quail season begins Dec. 1, and ends Jan. 16. The limit is 12 birds per day, or 36 in possession.

Applications are still coming in for the public hunts to be held on the Gene Howe Wildlife Management area in the Panhandle. These hunts are scheduled for Dec. 6; Dec. 20; Jan. 3; and Jan. 15. All applications must be in the Game Commission office in Austin by 8 a.m. Nov. 14. A drawing then will be held.

The hunters will be paired, with 10 pairs of hunters each day, for a total of 80 hunters. Only persons over 17 will be given permits. The bag limit on this area is 10 birds per person.

Shooters are urged to bring their own dogs. There is a heavy growth of flowering weeds and does are needed to prevent loss of birds.

evening of Thursday, Dec. 11, in order to avoid a conflict on Friday night.

Directors decided, in the meet, to invite adjoining counties to enter pecans in the event. The queen will be selected from Eastland County.

Two judges from the Texas A. & M. extension service will judge the pecans on Saturday, Dec. 13, considering the percentage of meat content, size and color, appearance and other factors. Deadline for receiving pecans was set at 9 a.m. on the morning of Dec. 13.

No restrictions or qualifications were listed for queen entries. They will be judged on the basis of beauty, costume and personality. Contestants from all over the county are expected to vie for the title. Last year's Eastland County Pecan Queen, Miss Anna Little of Rising Star, was elected Texas Pecan Queen at the state meeting in Austin.

Ribbons and prizes will be awarded to the best pecan entries, to be submitted in one-quart jars. Ribbons will be awarded for pecans placing in first, second or third. A $2.50 grand champion prize will be awarded for the best entry in the show. The reserve champion prize will be $1.50.

First place pecans, placing in the various categories, will win $1 and a ribbon. Second place pecan prizes will consist of 75 cents and a ribbon. Third place pecans will receive a ribbon.

In other business, it was decided to hold the queen contest on the FULL MEASURE—Tailor Max Danchik inches his way along one of the tallest fitting jobs ever to walk into his Hollywood tailor shop. She's Patricia Hopkins, six feet, three inches tall and a member of a local "tall club." By one of those Hollywood-type coincidences, a photographer just happened to be hiding in the steam presser.

Directors decided to invite nurseries from the surrounding area to arrange exhibits at the show. T. C. Wylie was also invited to display area pecans.

An organizational meeting of the group was set Wednesday, Dec. 10, in order to make final arrangements for the show. Cedar and crepe paper will be used for decorations, and shelled pecan entries will be displayed on plates in the glass display cases.

Arrangements for five men to shell pecans for the show will be made at a later date.

Pecans will be received at the Chamber of Commerce office in Ranger, at the County Agent's office in Eastland, at a site to be selected in Cisco, at Cecil Shults in Rising Star, and at Todd's Variety Store in Gorman.

J. M. Cooper, county agent, who attended the meeting, was given full authority by the group to take necessary steps in favor of the show.

W. J. Herrington of Ranger was named chairman of the special committee which will handle details of the show.

A secret committee will select the Ranger entry in the queen contest.

Five Interceptions Are Story Of Game

Eastland's Mavericks took a peanut butter spread to Ballinger Friday night and the Bluecats gobbled up 33 sandwiches without allowing the locals a bite. The Cats, in winning undisputed second place honors in District 7-AA, blanked the Mavs for the first time this year. The score: 33-0.

Eastland ran from a spread formation during practically the entire second half after using a T-formation attack during most of the first half. The offense turned into disaster, with Ballinger intercepting five passes. In the third quarter the Mavs had the ball on just two occasions, and both times lost the pigskin on interceptions. Then the story was repeated in the fourth quarter, with Eastland losing the ball the next two times they got it on interceptions.

The Mavs never did offer a real threat to the hard-hitting Ballinger team. Eastland marched 48 yards the first time they got the ball in their most impressive performance, but a fumble robbed the Mavs of a touchdown. The march all came from T-formation plays.

From then on the public address system rang with two names — Jerry Chandler and Kenneth Wiginton — and one statement: "... and Ballinger intercepts another Eastland pass."

Ballinger didn't score until the last play of the first quarter. Running from the single wing, the Cats marched 63 yards in 13 plays with Chandler going over from the three on third down. Chandler tried to run over the extra points but was smothered.

The two teams fought back and fourth with neither able to score, then Ballinger marched to the Eastland 12 yard line. On third down Chandler went back to pass and Mickey Garner intercepted for the Mavs. Eastland got the ball out to the 17, then had to punt. Clint Humphreys kicked the ball out to the 33 and Wiginton gathered in he ball on the 50. He ran through three Mavs and turned on the steam, getting Ballinger's second touchdown with less than two minutes to play.

The Mavs came out fast with their spread in the third quarter and Ballinger had a touchdown in a matter of minutes. Bobby Power, Ballinger tackle, intercepted his first of two passes, and returned the ball to the Eastland 25. Chandler juggled it over from the eight a few plays later to make it 20-0.

Power got himself another Mav pass a few minutes later, this time returning the ball to the Eastland 15. Wiginton called his own number and took it over on first down from that point. Chandler kicked the extra point.

The final touchdown of the game also came on a pass interception. This time Ballinger got the ball on the Mav 41. Penalties pushed Ballinger back to the Mav 45, then Wiginton romped 45 yards for the touchdown.

Ballinger probably hit harder than any team Eastland has played all year and the Cats had power to spare from their single wing formation. But the game was a lot closer than the score would indicate. Eastland simply couldn't keep the ball long enough, due to pass interceptions, to stay in the contest.

In other District 7-AA games, Ranger was beaten by Coleman, 24-14, and Cisco downed Winters 30-6 to wrap up the district crown.

Olden Cagers Have Played Four Games

OLDEN—While interest still centers around football in most Eastland County schools' Olden's Hornets, always a power on the basketball court, have already opened play.

Both the boys and the girls got off to a slow start, however. The boys, who lost all but one man off last year's team, suffered setbacks at the hands of Eula, Lingville, Santo and Abilene Christian High. They broke into the win streak in their last outing, however, downing a good Huckabay team.

Gone are such outstanding lads as Eddie Munn, Jack Hillard, Gary Woods, T. J. Horn, Tommy Alford, Stanley Cook, Ray Rodgers and Steve Fox from last year's bi-district champions. Only Jerry Colburn is back from last year's team.

Joining Colburn on this year's Olden squad is one other senior, three juniors, four sophomores and three freshmen. Marcus Horn is the other senior and Leroy Yarbrough, Doyle Norton and Gary Fox are the juniors. Sophomores on the roster are Butch Cooper, Bennie O'Brien, Phillip Alford and Milton Rodgers. The Freshmen are Rodney Patton, James Owens and Edward Haynes. Tallest man on Coach Gene Wood's squad is just five feet 11 inches tall.

Teams in the district are Gorman, Rising Star, Carbon and Desdemona. Carbon and Desdemona are the favorites.

The Olden girls lost just one starter, but that was Wilma Edwards, one of the top scorers in the state. So far this year the girls have lost all three of their starts, to Eula, Santo and Huckabay.

Seniors of this year's team are Elizabeth Fox and Betty Napier; juniors are Cindy Fox, Deleores Cooper, Charlene Rodgers, Judy Brown, Harriet Price, Darlene Stevenson and Barbara Cook. Betty Cook is the lone sophomore and freshmen are Alene Fox, Daisy Stewart and Dorothy Boyett.

Gorman is the favorite in the Girls' district.

FACTS ABOUT YOUR

Willard Griffin is an old hand at United Fund Drives. He has been in Eastland three years, as manager of Coats Furniture Co., and is serving his third year as a United worker. This year he has been appointed by Drive Chairman Steve Potts as a captain, heading a group of workers bent on winding up the drive in quick fashion.

Griffin came to Eastland from Hamilton, where he was in the furniture business. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Griffin live in Lampasas.

He lives at 415 E. Conner Street with his wife and two children. They are members of the Methodist Church.

A veteran of World War II, Griffin served as a nose gunner in B-24's in Italy.

A member of Lions International in the different towns in which he has lived, he is now serving as third vice-president of Lions Club here.

Since living in Eastland he has served as leader of the Boy Scout group known as "Webolous." It is easy to see that Griffin has made himself a part of Eastland. We are prone to think, sometimes, of Eastland as a town of "natives," but we need new people coming in to give us help in keeping our town as it should be. Projects, such as United Fund, need keenly interested workers. Griffin has contributed his talents to the betterment of his chosen home town. Eastland salutes her new citizens. They are urgently needed among us.

Here are Jobs For Gardener

COLLEGE STATION — There are still a few jobs which the home gardener can do now. And doing them will help make the gardening job easier next spring and will add useful life to needed equipment, says B. G. Hancock, extension horticulturist.

The garden site can be cleared of old plant growth including weeds and grass and if the plants were not diseased the materials should go into the compost pile, says the specialist. The compost can be used next year for mulching and adding organic matter to the soil. The plant residue may also be plowed under as another method for clearing the garden area.

Dusters and sprayers should be given a thorough cleaning and stored for the winter. Sprayers should be washed out to remove all spray residues and a weak vinegar solution will help. After the cleaning job, Hancock suggests coating the tank and other metal parts with a thin covering of oil.

The duster should be cleaned with a cloth. The motor and metal parts may be oiled but oil on the inside of the duster will tend to cake the dust that will be used next season.

Most gardeners have left-over chemicals which can be used next season if they are properly stored. Hancock advises storage in a dry place and in air-tight containers. All should be carefully labeled and placed out of reach of children.

Left-over seed of many varieties may also be stored for future use if they are placed in tight containers and kept dry. They should be labeled to avoid mistakes on varieties next spring.

Christian Science

Man's God-given dominion over sin and limitation will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Adam and Fallen Man" will include this verse from Genesis (1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (516:19): "Man, made in His likeness, possesses and reflects God's dominion over all the earth. Man and woman as co-existent and eternal with God forever reflect, in glorified quality, the infinite Father-Mother God."

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (15:22): "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

REMEMBER WHEN?
 By Milton Fullen
 "NYLONS ON SALE" . . . That's not a headline you'll remember, because when it first happened it wasn't front page news. But the year when nylon hose first went on sale was a significant event in modern history, as any woman—or man—can tell you. The production of this new kind of stocking material was a noteworthy example of applied science. The first sale of nylons was an experimental one, held in a department store in Wilmington, Delaware. The stockings had come from a single pilot plant of the Nylon Division of the DuPont Company.

The response of American women was overwhelming. By Christmas of that year women everywhere were clamoring for nylons. Full scale production of the sensational new stockings followed immediately after the first sale . . . but production couldn't keep up with the demand. Something new had been added to feminine beauty. Remember the year?

Women liked the looks of the new nylons that year . . . and liked the wear they gave. Men looked for similar things that year in an automobile . . . good looks and the promise of dependable service.

The year was 1939.

Families Can Save Money By Producing Food

College Station.—Studies show that families can reduce the amount of money spent for food by producing some of it themselves and, at the same time, probably be better fed, says Cecil Parker, extension farm management specialist.

However, adds Parker, there are some factors that should be considered in deciding whether it is desirable to produce rather than buy the home food supply.

One thing to consider is could the land, labor and capital used for home production be more profitably used for producing commercial crops. It is also possible that the time required could be used in a way that would pay more than enough to buy what might be raised.

The family also must decide if they would eat better by raising their own food supply and if they would get more of the protective foods such as milk, eggs, vegetables, meats and fruits.

There are also some productive factors, points out Parker. For example, does the family have the skill and knowledge for this type of production and are they willing to be tied down by the routine work? A sufficient water supply should be available in case of an extended dry spell.

Some other questions the family should ask are: Is there a possibility of a 4-H club demonstration related to the food supply? Is there an opportunity to sell any surplus that might be produced? Is there a market accessible that carries a good variety and quality of foods at a reasonable price?

Parker says whether a family decides to produce their own food, and if so, the kind and amount of food they decide to produce, will depend on their own situation and the values they place on the above considerations.
