US Railroads, Union Agree On Wage Hike

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—The nation's railroads and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen announced agreement Saturday on a five-cent hourly wage increase for an estimated 60,000 union members.

It was the second major agreement reached in current negotiations between the railroads and railroad labor unions. On Dec. 17 a similar agreement was reached with the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, representing 132,000 employees.

Both unions agreed to a five-cent hourly increase in the basic daily rate, to which will be added 13 cents an hour formerly paid under an "escalator" clause. The "escalator" clause, covering fluctuations in the cost of living, is terminated.

The agreement Saturday will increase the basic daily rate of firemen and enginemen $1.44, the railroad said.

The increase is effective Dec. 16, 1953, and the escalator pay of 13 cents becomes part of the basic rate.

Firemen with 15 or more years of service also will get an extra week's vacation, making the maximum three-weeks.

Both the trainmen and the firemen originally demanded a 37-1/2 cent raise.

Others Unsettled
The two unions which now have settled represent about two-thirds of the industry's operating force. Negotiations will continue with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Switchmen's Union of North America.

Also at issue are wage and fringe demands by 15 "non-operating" railroad unions representing about a million employees not involved in the actual operation of trains. These unions have threatened their first nationwide strike.

Hoover Will Get Grain Elevator

Construction of a $175,000 grain elevator at Hoover, eight miles east of Pampa, was announced Saturday by the Barnett and Wilkinson Grain Company, 403 E. Tenth.

Making the announcement was C. V. Wilkinson, co-owner of the firm, who disclosed the contract has been let to the Mayer and Osborn Construction Company, Denver, Colo.

Actual construction will begin within 10 days, Wilkinson added, with completion date set for June 1. The structure, to be made of concrete and steel, will offer the latest equipment with a capacity of 250,000 bushels of grain.

Wilkinson said he and his partner, D. I. Barnett, plan to "build the best elevator you know how to build." Wilkinson said he will operate the Hoover mill.

Barnett & Hoover, Inc., Pampa, has been operating since 1911. The firm's office is at 119 N. Howard, P. O. Box 471. Adv.

Man Held In Death Of Car Companion

CANADIAN — (Special) — A Maryland soldier died from a head wound Saturday afternoon in Hemphill County Memorial Hospital.

Officers late Saturday night were still grilling the Illinois man with whom he drove into town from Miami earlier in the day.

The dead man was identified from papers found on his person, as Edward G. Myer, of Hyattsville, Md. The identity of his companion was disclosed as Milton G. Justus, of Quincy, Ill. Age of neither man was given by officers.

Hemphill County Sheriff Clyde Riley and District Attorney Tom Braly were reported closeted with Justus as midnight neared. "Seems like a hard man to break down," Deputy Sheriff W. H. Brown commented.

Brown said that Myer was taken to the hospital — alive — and Justus, arrested about 1 p.m. Saturday in Canadian after they had been talked into town by Roberts County Sheriff W. H. (Cy) Carr. Myer died about 4 p.m.

Carr got into the case when Bill Harris, a Miami service station operator, notified him that a man had driven into his station in a 1949 black Nash, asked for a dollar's worth of gas "in a hurry" and Harris had seen another man in the back seat with what seemed to be a gunshot wound in the head.

Brown, however, said Myer had no gunshot wound in his head — "looks like he was struck" by some kind of an instrument.

Texas Ranger Kelly Rogers, Amarillo, was reported on his way to Canadian to take part in the investigation.

A possibility that Myer may have been shot by a Red agent is being investigated.

Trotsky's Murderer Is Clubbed

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 9.—UP—Jacques Mornard, assassin of Communist leader Leon Trotsky, was attacked by a fellow-prisoner Friday in the exercise yard of the federal penitentiary the newspaper El Universal said Saturday.

Universal said Jose Medina Chavez, serving time as an automobile thief and hold-up man, attacked Mornard with a club for what he called "personal reasons."

Medina Chavez was cornered and overpowered after a fierce fight, the newspaper said.

Mornard has served 13 years of a 19-1/2 year term for killing Trotsky, an exile in Mexico, with a pickaxe. He became eligible for parole Dec. 28. But the government hesitates to free him, believing that Trotskyites might kill him for the assassination or Kremlin Communists might kill him because he knows too much.

Wike's Support Plans Headed For Trouble

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—UP—President Eisenhower's proposals for flexible high price supports on farm crops were headed Saturday for trouble as high as a stiletto.

Mr. Eisenhower will make his specific recommendations to Congress Monday. He referred to them broadly in his state of the union message Thursday.

Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) predicted Saturday that Mr. Eisenhower's recommendations will relieve "honest doubts" about the program. But Aiken, chairman of the Senate Agriculture committee, conceded that the President's detailed plan will not satisfy "organized criticism that attempts to hamstring the administration."

To Get Benson's Views
Aiken announced that Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson will be called before his committee at 10 a.m. Jan. 18 to analyze the program and to give his views on the general agricultural outlook.

Influential farm state Republican and Democratic members of Congress have served notice they want to continue the present program requiring high, rigid price supports on basic crops. This program expires at the end of the 1954 crop year.

House agriculture committee members already have sampled sentiment in a 16,000-mile tour of farms in New England, the Southeast, Midwest and West. They leave here again Monday to visit the South, West and mid-South for the last of "grass roots" hearings.

On their previous tours, the members found — with the possible exception of New England — much support for the rigid high price program.

Plugging the administration are bulging warehouses of food and crop commodities. The Commodity Credit Corp., which provides the funds for farm price support operations, has nearly exhausted its $6,000,000 borrowing authority in piling up the mountains of surpluses.

Aiken indicated Mr. Eisenhower will ask for a hike in this borrowing authority. The President also proposes setting aside such surpluses for special uses — school lunch programs, charity, needy people overseas, disaster relief, and swapping for goods in barter deals.

PREPARATION — American Marines put up barbed wire barricade along route to be taken by North Korean and Chinese POW's who will be released during operation "Recovery." Indian guards at Panmunjom plan to turn loose 22,000 prisoners one minute after midnight Jan. 23. They will be housed in these barbed wire areas until sent where they wish to go. (NEA Telephone)

Soviets Halt Berlin Meet

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—UP—The Soviets blocked agreement Saturday on the site of the Big Four foreign ministers conference by demanding the meeting take place in East Berlin unless the West gives "impossible" security guarantees, informed sources said.

These guarantees were said to include giving Communist police and Soviet secret agents a free hand in West Berlin.

Failure to reach agreement Saturday came as Austria, which hopes to prod the ministers to complete the long-delayed Austrian peace treaty, informed the United States, Great Britain, France and Russia she would send an unofficial delegation to the Jan. 25 conference.

Saturday's meeting of the four Berlin commandants opened in an atmosphere of unusual Russian cordiality and with the West apparently willing to compromise on the conference site. But the impasse that developed Thursday became even worse Saturday.

The Communist "over all" proposal is not acceptable to the Allies, but Dean would discuss it with the Reds if they withdrew or apologized for their treachery charge. The Allies insist Russia can attend the talks only as a member of the Communist side, rather than as a neutral.

Washington, Jan. 9.—UP—The Army-Navy-Air Force Journal said Saturday there is "strong indication" that the Defense Department will court martial some of the men who turned "progressive" while prisoners of war in Korea.

The unofficial service journal said top military commanders believe it is important to establish a principle that men who violate the military code while prisoners by informing on their fellow Americans for example will face trial after their release.

"They say further that the accusations of men in prison camps who refused to break under persistent Communist torture would be made less meaningful if those committing offenses are not subjected to trial," the journal said.

It said military officials urging court martials "concede that the proceedings could well result in acquittal in many — perhaps all cases on the basis of such factors as duress, deprivation and degradation by the Communist captors."

Chinese Ask Resumption Of Peace Talks

TOKYO, Sunday, Jan. 10.—UP—Communist China demanded immediate resumption of the Korean peace talks Saturday and charged the "United Nations" plan to free 22,000 anti-Red war prisoners was merely a disguised attempt to forcibly retain custody of the prisoners.

Red China Premier Chou-en-Lai called the UN's indignation walkout from preliminary Panmunjom negotiations for a pre-conference last month a "fraudulent pretext" to end the talks and wreck chances for peace in Korea.

He issued a belligerent demand that the prisoners be retained in Indian custody for 80 additional days of "come home" explanations by the Communist command and until the peace conference decides their fate.

But shortly before broadcast of the Red premier's 1,600-word statement from Peking, the UN made public its three-point plan for releasing the anti-Red prisoners at 12:01 a. m. Jan. 23 and warned Communist interference "might start the shooting war all over again."

Meanwhile a highly informed source working with the Neutral Repatriation Commission said the Chinese and North Korean prisoners will break out of their commands Jan. 23 and move south from neutral zones if their Indian guards do not release them.

The Chou En-Lai statement broadcast Saturday night called for resumption of the peace talks on the basis of the "over all" Communist proposal of Nov. 30—which would seat Russia in the formal conference as a neutral nation.

Ignored Cause of Walkout
Chou ignored the reason for the walkout by UN negotiator Arthur H. Dean Dec. 12. Dean said he would not return until the Reds withdrew a charge of UN treachery in assertedly co-operating with the South Koreans in their release of 27,000 Korean prisoners last June.

The Communist "over all" proposal is not acceptable to the Allies, but Dean would discuss it with the Reds if they withdrew or apologized for their treachery charge. The Allies insist Russia can attend the talks only as a member of the Communist side, rather than as a neutral.

Washington, Jan. 9.—UP—The Southland Life Insurance Co. announced Saturday that it has bought a square block in Dallas and plans to build the largest downtown office building development in the Southwest. It will include a 40-story building.

John W. Carpenter, chairman of the board of Southland, said the block where the development will be built is bounded by Bryan, Pearl, Live Oak and Olive streets. It contains 100,000 square feet.

The development, to be called "Southland Center," will include four units: A 40-story building, two other structures and an underground parking garage with facilities for 2,000 automobiles a day.

Carpenter said the 40-story building and the garage will be completed by the summer of 1957.

Washington, Jan. 9.—UP—The tax code needs revision. That is the message Democrats will urge greater personal income deduction.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—UP—Democrats will urge Congress to increase the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $700 as part of the big tax revision program now taking shape, congressional sources disclosed Saturday.

Such an increase would mean a loss of revenue to the government of some $2.5 billion a year.

President Eisenhower told Congress in his state of the union message Thursday that "we must thoroughly revise our whole tax system." He said he had 25 recommendations for revision ready to present in his budget message.

Reduce Excise Taxes
It was reported in congressional quarters that Mr. Eisenhower will recommend, among other tax changes, that Congress reduce some federal excise taxes, including the 20 per cent admissions tax. The President vetoed a bill last August to eliminate the tax on movie admissions.

He said at that time that he would present "a modified system of excise taxation" to Congress in time for action early this year.

Many Democrats agree with the revision. They favor many of the provisions contained in a fat revision measure now before the tax-framing House Ways & Means committee.

But the Democratic viewpoint, as expressed privately by some members of the Ways and Means committee, is that the bill, as it now stands, would give most of the tax relief to business groups and taxpayers in the higher income brackets.

U. S. Will Demand Release Of Four Americans Held By Reds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—UP—The United States is preparing to demand that Russia free four Americans reported to be in Soviet prison camps, officials said Saturday.

The four were named by Pvt. Homer H. Cox of Oklahoma City. and Leland Towers of San Francisco, who were recently freed by the Russians. Cox and Towers had spent four years in Red prison camps before their recent release.

The four Americans reported still in Soviet jails are William Marchuk, Breckenridge, Pa.; William Verdine, Starks, La.; George Green, Hollywood, Calif.; and Jack Horal, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Cox and Towers said there are at least six other Americans in the Red prison system, but they were unable to identify them.

Officials said the State Department has sent the names of the four identified U. S. citizens to Charles E. Bohlen, U. S. ambassador to Moscow. He has not yet been instructed to protest to the Soviet foreign ministry. A careful study of the cases will be made first by department officials.

Rockefeller To Divorce 'Cinderella'

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—UP—Multi-millionaire Winthrop Rockefeller will file for a divorce immediately from the immigrant coal miner's daughter whom he wooed and won in the shadow of New York's Third Avenue El, an informed source said Saturday.

The oil heir's wife, Bobo, paved the way for the divorce Friday by accepting a $5.5 million property settlement, a record-breaker.

"She wants to get the whole thing over with," the source said.

Rockefeller will file the action in Arkansas, where separation is grounds for divorce, the source said. He established residence near Little Rock last year and has been living there since.

Rockefeller's Arkansas attorney, Edwin E. Dunaway said Friday the oil heir was "pleased" by Bobo's acceptance, which came shortly before a "deadline" set by his lawyers.

Dunaway said lawyers for both sides would meet soon to effectuate the agreement, which gives Bobo and 5-year-old Winthrop Jr. $5.5 million in trust funds and cash, plus either a $70,000 a year income or an additional trust fund of $500,000.

POW Legal Action Is 'Indicated'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—UP—The Army-Navy-Air Force Journal said Saturday there is "strong indication" that the Defense Department will court martial some of the men who turned "progressive" while prisoners of war in Korea.

Bar Association Elects Officers

Homer Johnson, prominent Pampa attorney, is the new president of the Pampa Bar association.

He was elected to the post at a meeting of the organization in his law library in Combs-Worley building Saturday morning. He succeeds Bill Smith.

Other officers elected were County Judge J. B. Maguire, Jr., vice president, and Ross Buzzard, secretary-treasurer. New directors are County Attorney Bill Waters and Tom Wade.

The association has had no vice president since the death of Sheriff Anna White last fall. Maguire was the association's secretary-treasurer last year.

The association voted unanimously to send a resolution to Rep. Walter Rogers expressing opposition to the proposed extension of the Social Security Act to include members of the legal profession.

Army Escapee And Wife Jailed After Family Tiff

A 23-year-old escapee from the prison stockade at Fort Hill, Okla., and his wife, also 23, are being held in the Gray County jail here, Sheriff Rufe Jordan said Saturday.

The man, Billy Louis Gene Ainesworth, was arrested Friday night on S. Ballard Street after his wife told Sheriff Jordan that he had threatened to kill her.

While questioning the suspect and his wife the sheriff learned that Ainesworth was an escapee from the Oklahoma Army installation, having escaped in August, 1952, and that he was probably a bigamist.

Greenlease Development New Clue To Missing Money

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 9.—UP—Police and FBI agents Saturday investigated the account of a man held in Las Vegas, Nev., who said he witnessed the removal of a Greenlease ransom suitcase from the site of police Lt. Louis Shoulters.

The man held in Las Vegas was identified as Frank Beninato, 35, wanted for passing a $800 bad check in San Francisco and two bad checks in St. Louis late in September.

Beninato said he had gone to the Nevada police station here the night of Oct. 4 and was waiting outside to see Shoulters when he saw the lieutenant and patrolman Elmer Doan drive up and escort

Carl Austin Hall, the kidnap-slave of Bobby Greenlease, into the station.

While the officers were in the station, Beninato said, a man in a dark sedan pulled up beside the police car, got out, removed one of the suitcases and placed it in his auto. He then drove away slowly.

Greenlease Development New Clue To Missing Money

A wanted card had been issued by St. Louis police on Sept. 22 as the result of a $43.00 bad check Beninato passed at a hotel here.

Shoulters, now awaiting trial on a charge of perjury growing out of his handling of the ransom money, told the federal grand jury in Kansas City he left the two suitcases in the car while he and Doan took Hall into the station.

Doan Hall was being booked. Doan carried in one of the suitcases and took it back to Shoulters' office. Shoulters said a little later he went outside after the second suitcase and slipped it into his office.

Beninato said he didn't realize the significance of what he saw until several weeks later when he read of the search for the missing means of financing the proposed $500,000 of the record $500,000 ransom. He was in Palm Beach, Fla., at the time, he said, and "I was afraid to open my mouth."

PHS Band Director Expects To Increase Size Of Unit

By WALT SWITZER Pampa News Staff Writer Building a band, of which the city of Pampa can be justly proud, is the aim of Bill Tregoe, director and instructor of the Pampa High School Harvester band. Of course, he said, this is going to take time. "You can't build a band overnight," he declared. "But, within two or three years I hope to have one of the best bands in this section of the state." The director said that he wants to increase the size of the band to some 90 or 100 pieces. There are about 50 members of the musical aggregation at the present time. He anticipates an increase of five or 10 pieces at the beginning of the next term, following mid-term examinations, when junior high school graduates will move up into the high school.

much in favor of having bands in elementary schools. However, he says that he would much rather have students start band work in the fifth or sixth grade than in the fourth grade as it is in Pampa. "STARTING THEM out in elementary schools is definitely a great help to the high school band instructor," Tregoe stated. "However, I feel that when you start a youngster out in the fourth grade, by the time he gets to his sophomore or junior year in high school he will have grown tired of playing his particular instrument and will seek other activities." He said that this early instruction is very helpful in that it makes the students better musicians while in high school in most cases. The director pointed out that during his short time in Pampa he has observed that the Junior High School band is a better planned band than the Harvester band. This is the largest band in the entire Pampa school system, he added, with about 130 pieces. As for future plans for his musical organization, he said he plans to enter the band in the Interscholastic League's regional contest in Canyon next April. Also, he is planning several concerts during late spring.

A PARTIAL shipment of the 10,000 worth of band instruments, to be used in Pampa school bands, has been received and has been distributed to students. He pointed out that some students furnish their own instruments, but the school system furnished those instruments that prove to be too expensive for individual students to purchase. Tregoe, a native of Baltimore, Md., graduated from high school there. After graduation he entered West Texas State College in Canyon, where he majored in music. He came to the Pampa school system from Iran, where he was band instructor for two years, while the two previous years he was in the Tahoka school system. He is married and he and his wife have a two and one-half-year old son.

AT THE PRESENT time the band is not participating in any special activities. Tregoe said he is spending quite a bit of time just now training his students in the fundamentals of music. The present schedule for band members calls for one individual teaching lesson for each musician. There are about 50 members of the band full band class each week. The new band director, who took over as director of the Harvester band last October, is very

Asks UN Inquiry In Red Atrocities

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 — UN—Senators investigators reported Saturday that Communist atrocities in Korea were "one of the most heinous and barbaric epochs of recorded history" and urged the Senate to request a full United Nations inquiry. The Senate Investigations subcommittee charged Chinese and North Korean Communists with crimes including mass murder, forced starvation, torture and experimental medical "operations." It said statistics indicate that the "war crimes" killed "approximately two-thirds of all American prisoners of war." In proposing that the Senate go on record in favor of a UN investigating commission, the subcommittee suggested that the commission report on a program of "punishment" for the criminals as well as on the crimes themselves. "Communist massacres and the wholesale extermination of their victims are a calculated part of Communist psychological warfare," a subcommittee report said. It said the Communist policy on prisoners of war was established at "command level," and "in virtually every instance, the killing of American prisoners of war was either ordered or performed by a

Need 38 Enlisted Men. Pampa National Guard Unit Nears Its Authorized Strength

Pampa's National Guard unit now boasts a membership of 32 enlisted men, 11 officers and five warrant officers. The membership is composed of veterans who wish to continue to serve their community and country and of younger men who wish to prepare themselves for service should it become necessary, advised Capt. Charles L. Robinson, Pampa post commander.

The purpose of the Guard is to give aid in case of disasters, such as tornado, fire, explosion and in some areas of the country, in case of floods.

Although Pampa's National Guard has grown considerably since its beginning here, it still has openings for 38 enlisted men before it will reach its full authorized strength. The openings call for the rank of master sergeant down to the rank of private. The Guard's policy is to assign men to jobs in the battery similar to their civilian jobs or the chosen career. All of the men receive pay for each drill equal to one day's pay in the regular Army. There are also several openings for officers, such as survey officer with the rank of major and intelligence and motor officer with the rank of captain.

The guard assignments include radio and wire communications, radar, mechanics, and meteorology. Personnel are on duty Monday through Friday in the State Highway Patrol office in the Court House. Young men who have not yet reached 18½ years of age can enlist and fulfill their military obligation without being drafted.

In announcing that he'd file for the July 24 Democratic primary, the superintendent said, "I'll run on the service I've tried to render and the service I've performed for the schools and in the community."

County Politics Viewed Demos, GOP Will Hold Primaries

By ED NASH
Pampa News Staff Writer
"It's sure going to be crowded in those primary voting booths." That was the comment Saturday of one Gray County political figure as he took a quick look at the 1954 political picture.

And, perhaps, that fact—that both parties in the county will hold primary elections this year—is an indication of what the political year has in store for Gray County residents.

Outside of a handful of "just after Jan. 1" candidacy announcements plus a few "no-name" Saturday, the first nine days of the year have seen relatively little political action, however.

THE REASON is simple. All candidates—incumbents and aspirants—have until May 2 to file their intentions. And many of them have indicated that it best serves their political interests to "wait a while."

On the election block this year will be 16 county offices, 10 district offices and a host of state and national offices. There are no city officers that come up for election in 1954.

However, there will be a Pampa school board election, completely divorced from the main political picture. H. Raeburn Thompson, board president, now completing his third three-year term, has taken himself out of the race. Deadline for filing intentions of candidacy is March 23 and the election is slated for April 3.

On the larger political front, though, it will be William Jarrel Smith, county Democratic chairman, and Don Conley, county Republican chairman, who will lead their respective party forces into the primaries, slated July 24.

THE DEMOCRATS are bid hands at holding primaries in Gray County and Texas. But for the Republicans it will be something new. The fact that almost 400,000 GOPers voted for Gov. Allan Shivers in 1952 makes it necessary for them to hold primaries this year too. Any party that polls more than 200,000 votes in a gubernatorial election must hold primaries in the next election.

Neither Smith nor Conley was available for writing for questions on the prospects and plans of his party on the county and district levels in 1954. But Democratic and Republican spokesmen, who preferred not to be named, were contacted.

And each of them is cognizant that the holding of primaries by both parties this year will make for some problems, albeit not serious ones. For both Democrats and Republicans must hold their primaries in the same places in the same places—in Gray County, the 18 election precinct polling places.

The Democratic spokesman, pointing out that it's a little "yet to make much of a forecast," said that most of the county and district incumbents—and all the offices at this date are held by Democrats—are expected to run again, though maybe they won't be announcing for a while.

THE REPUBLICAN spokesman said that where there's an acceptable candidate available he thought the county organization would give "full consideration" to running him for such an office. He figured the GOP would run a candidate for the U.S. representative.

McLean Personal
McLEAN — (Special) — Mrs. N. E. Morgan, mother of bell that can be heard several miles.

Business changes: Mrs. Clyde Dwight Sr. opened a new cafe on highway 66 Friday. The new location is downtown, directly opposite the bus station.

Word reached McLean late Wednesday of the death of Ray Longino in Japan. No details are available as to the cause of his death. Ray was the son of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Longino of O'Donnell but formerly of McLean. Ray graduated from McLean High School in 1947.

School news: The annual census of scholastics is in progress. This is a much earlier date than in previous years, the census usually coming in March. Conference play in basketball gets under way next Monday night with both boys and girls playing Clarendon in Clarendon. The annual All-School Beauty contest is scheduled for January 21 at the high school auditorium.

Beginning Monday, final exams for the first semester will be given. Second semester begins the 13th. The annual March of Dimes campaign for polio work is getting under way, under the direction of Larry Fuller. No quota is assigned to the McLean area but in the past, the funds collected have varied from $100 to $120, and Fuller is planning a campaign to make as much or more than previously. Details of the various methods to be used are not available at this time.

COUNTY CHAIRMEN — These are the two Gray County residents who will lead their respective parties into the July primaries. On the left is William Jarrel Smith, county Democratic chairman. On the right is Don Conley, county Republican chairman. These two plus the chairmen in each party's 18 election precincts in the county will be on the July 24 primary ballots. (News Photos) perintendent, surveyor, four commissioners, four justices of the peace and three constables. The three district offices are clerk, attorney and judge. And there's a host more. They include state representative, attorney general, lieutenant governor's seat in Congress, but probably not for any district offices.

Those 16 county offices that'll be listed in July 24 party primaries and the Nov. 2 general election this year are clerk, tax assessor-collector, sheriff, treasurer, attorney, judge, schools auditor and governor and U.S. representative and senator. Plus several judges of state courts and other state offices in differing categories.

Of course, each county party chairman and his 18 election precinct chairmen will be on the party primary ballot, too.

THE MAIN DATE in this early part of the year for all voters regardless of any party affiliation — to remember is Jan. 30. That's the deadline for all persons to go into the county tax office and pay their $1.75 poll taxes. Any time after is too late.

It is entirely possible, though, to digress a moment—that many a voter in the long run has the same idea as Humorist Will Rogers when he said, once in a lighter vein: "The party that is out always looks better than the one that's in."

Voters, too, will select July 24 their county party chairmen and chairmen for each of Gray County's 18 election precincts in the primaries.

In addition, Pampans and residents of Gray County Nov. 2 will be voting on a host of other public officials on the district, state and national levels, including attorney general John Ben Shepperd, lieutenant governor (Ben Ramsey) governor (Allan Shivers), U. S. senator (Lyndon Johnson), Texas representative (Granger McWhorter), plus judges in various state courts.

Day Returns To Hollywood

By ALINE MOSSY
HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 9 — UP—Laraine Day brought her famous smile back to the movie cameras today for the first time in five years, but Hollywood, she said, still plays second fiddle to baseball.

The short curls and big eyes of Leo Durocher's wife are a familiar touch at Goldwyn Studio, where "The High and the Mighty" is being filmed.

It's Laraine's first film since "The Woman on Pier 13" in 1948, made before she left town to live most of the year in New York with the New York Giants' manager.

Since then she's become a television star on sports program, but theater films haven't fit into her life as a baseball wife.

"You have to make up your mind which is the more important to you, career or marriage," she explained. "A husband should be more important to a wife. So I've been away from Hollywood a lot to be with Leo in New York. I could not be tied down with commitments or contracts."
"There have been a few offers when I've been in town, but not what I wanted. Heavens knows I have made enough bad pictures, so why make any more? With the depression here they wouldn't have thought of me if I'd been in town, anyway."
The offer for "The High and the Mighty," a John Wayne-Bob Fellers production, came as she arrived home from Japan with the Giants' team. She explained she had "a month off" before moving into a new house here so she sandwiched in the picture.

Her return to the screen in the movie version of the best-selling airplane novel is not as usual sweet heroine, but "an heiress with a very nasty disposition."
"I've never done anything like this before," she said. "If there'd been a nurse in this picture, I figure that's what I would have been. But that would have been no fun."
"This role is a challenge. And Leo is very pleased I'm doing it."
She is not staying around, however, for any more offers this spring.
"As soon as we move into the new home I'm going to Arizona for six months," said the baseball wife. The Giants, of course, train there.

Amateurs Are Halting Hunt For Uranium

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 — UP—Discouraged amateur uranium hunters have decided to call it a day and are leaving the rush for atom-age riches to the experts, a physicist who helped set off the big scramble reported Saturday.

Parlor-trained would-be geophysicists who rushed over hill and dale with geiger counters, lunch pails and dreams of glory have come home disillusioned, he said.

"They've decided it is more fun to go fishing after all—even if all the big ones get away," Meyer H. Reiss, a physicist who quit government atomic energy work to go into the nuclear age equipment business, sold thousands of geiger counters during the uranium rush of 1949.

An Inexpensive Model
He persuaded manufacturers to turn out a $49.50 model, and would-be prospectors bought them at department stores, sporting goods counters. The uranium hunters tramped miles and miles over barren countryside, hopefully listening for a geiger tick that could mean millions of dollars.

But, Reiss reported, about all they got was sore feet and aches, so they have given up. They've put their geiger counters in the attic or given them to junior to play atom age scientist with.

Reiss is president of Radiac and he persuaded companies, Atomic Center for Instruments and Equipment and Atomlab, Inc. The companies manufacture and distribute equipment for hospital atomic research laboratories and other nuclear scientific work.

"The first ones who rushed to buy geiger counters were looking to be millionaires," Reiss said. "They were buying a toy with a $10,000 prize dangling from it if they found the holy grail. The government offered $10,000 to anyone who found uranium."

"The people who are looking now at least have done a little reading up on the subject, but most of them are trained for prospecting. It still isn't too expensive, even with a $100 geiger counter, because that's all a person needs to start."

"Then, after a strike is made, the geologists can come in with their $20,000 equipment and verify it."
"What started out as an oddity became a popular novelty and now it is taking its place as a serious prospecting tool."

Reiss admitted he dabbled in uranium prospecting once, himself. "I satisfied my own suppressed desire and went down to a spring in Virginia where the water is known to be slightly radioactive," he said. "I actually was on a business trip but happened to have my geiger counter with me and stopped to check."

"I came across some hot areas, but did not have time to stop. I understand there was a very valuable strike in that area afterward. It makes me feel certain I was on the right trail."

Canadian Rail Employe Retires

CANADIAN — (Special) — W. S. Culbertson, a Santa Fe conductor, retired as of Jan. 1, after 41 years of railroading.

Culbertson began his railroad career in 1912 on the Missouri Pacific out of Kansas City. From there he went to Tucson, Ariz., in 1917 where he worked for the Southern Pacific a short time before entering the Army during World War I. He served with a hospital unit in the 38th Division and was in France at the time of the signing of the Armistice.

He recalls arriving in Canadian on Dec. 21, 1919, and "hiring out" to the Santa Fe shortly thereafter. He was a conductor from 1923 until his retirement, a week ago.

Culbertson enjoyed a reputation as an even tempered man as well as well illustrated when a switch engineer related how he remained unruffled when he, the switch engineer, inadvertently bumped Culbertson's caboose so hard during switching operations that all the windows in the caboose were broken by the impact.

Culbertson left Friday morning for Wichita, Kansas, where he will visit a daughter before going to San Antonio to spend the winter.

Mrs. O. H. Harris spent last week visiting in the home of her sister in Amarillo.

CHARLIE THUT JACK BACK

Candidacies Filed By Three Pampans

Three more hats have been thrown into the political ring here. Announcing their intentions Saturday to seek election to Gray County offices were County Clerk Charlie Thut and County Tax Assessor-Collector Jack Back. J. W. (Bill) Graham, former county commissioner of precinct 2, announced they found the holy grail. The government offered $10,000 to anyone who found uranium.

He said that he would make a formal statement of his candidacy later, as did the other two announced candidates.

Back is seeking election to his first full term as tax assessor-collector. He assumed his duties in that capacity when he was appointed by county commissioners to succeed the late F. E. Leach, who died last Nov. 21. Back was sworn in on Nov. 27.

He was born in Collin County, but moved to Gray County with his parents when he was two years of age. He has been an employe in the county tax office here since 1929.

Graham, who was commissioner of Precinct 2 until Jan. 1, 1953, will oppose W. E. (Bill) Jarvis, incumbent.

Jarvis defeated Graham in the run-off primary in August, 1952, losing by 200 votes. In the July primary Jarvis led by only five votes.

Jarvis is the first announced candidate to have an opponent in this year's elections.

A resident of Pampa for the past 30 years, Graham was born in Franklin County. He resides at 413 N. Gray.

He said he would make a statement later in his formal announcement.

Rev. Crews Named Guard's Chaplain

With the recent transfer of Rev. Richard Crews, pastor of Pampa's First Christian Church, from the Wichita Falls post, Pampa's National Guard unit gained a new chaplain.

Rev. Crews is well-qualified for his new position as he served as chaplain during World War II, receiving his training at Harvard University. He served overseas for 21 months in the Asiatic-Pacific theater and participated in the liberation of the Philippines. He held the rank of captain and was discharged in 1950.

Rev. Crews was born in Waxahatchie and holds a BD degree from Texas University where he studied in the Bible college of the Bible, the only Bible seminary. He lives with his wife and two children at 221 S. Washington.

One look settles it. Buy of the year is BUICK

WE knew them for great automobiles the moment we saw them.

But it turns out we have a far bigger hit on our hands in the new 1954 Buicks than we ever figured.

Folks in a steady stream come into our showroom, look over these glamorous new beauties, and tell us—with signed orders—that Buick's really the beautiful buy, hands down.

It's the biggest new-car excitement in a long, long time—and you ought to take a look at it, firsthand.

Because one look at the sensational new styling of these breath-taking Buicks shows them to be the freshest new automobiles in years.

One look into the modern interiors—and through that spectacular new back-view windshield—firms the conviction.

One look at the new V8 power story, the new ride story, the new handling ease story—practically wraps up the sale.

And then, one look at the prices—one eye-opening experience with the Area Men Going To Lubbock Meet

Several Gray County farmers are expected to be in Lubbock next week to attend the first annual agricultural chemical conference.

The conference, according to information received by the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, will be held on the campus of Texas Technological college, Wednesday and Thursday, E. O. Wedgworth, chamber manager, said that he did not know who would attend from Pampa, but he was sure that several local farmers would be in attendance.

The conference is being held, he said, in an attempt to make available to the farmer information on the use of agricultural chemicals in the field.

Predicts Government Will Continue Housing Program

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 — UP—Public housing Commissioner Charles E. Slusser said Saturday he is "optimistic" that Congress will approve this year a continued low-cost, government-subsidized housing program.

"With President Eisenhower's firm support back of it," he said in an interview, "Congress will go along with it."

Slusser said he based his forecast on conferences he has held with congressional leaders during recent weeks. The commissioner said that although many congressmen still oppose the controversial program, they recognize the "need" to do something for the thousands of Americans economically forced to live in "shacks" and "pig sties."

Slusser made no estimate on how many units of public housing he thinks Congress will approve this year. He said he recommended 55,000.

Principle Endorsed

President Eisenhower's special housing advisory committee endorsed the principle of public housing, but did not suggest the number of units. That decision should be made by the administration and Congress, the committee said.

"We can handle that number," Slusser said of the 25,000 units he recommended. "With that number we would not have to hurry to meet deadlines and we could do a better job of supervision."

An ardent supporter of public housing as a means to clean up slums and help rehabilitate the people living in them, Slusser said the program needs "no apology." He said it meets a "definite need" for those families without enough to pay for adequate housing.

He vigorously denied that public housing is "creeping socialism" and cited the late Sen. Robert A. Taft's role in creating the low-cost housing program. He emphasized that the government actually does not own or build any of the public housing units.

Program of Subsidy

The projects are owned by community housing agencies and are built by private firms. The federal government's major commitment in the program is to subsidize the difference between the rents charged and the project's operating costs. It also provides initial loan guarantees to get the project started.

Slusser said he personally would prefer the federal government "out of the housing business." But he said the federal government has dried up so many sources of taxation that state and local governments cannot afford the program.

He said the government this year is spending $40 million in subsidies for units which house almost one million Americans. He said this money is "trifling" when considered against what it does for these people.

"It brings them out of the shacks they were living in," he said, and

Shamrock Youth Flies To Capital

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Albert Purcell, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Purcell of Shamrock, flew to Washington, D. C., December 28, to attend a meeting of the Air Force Association and Headquarters of the U. S. Air Force.

Purcell and 14 other ROTC students from various parts of the United States attended the meeting as special guests of the Secretary of the Air Force, General Nathan Twining, Chief of Staff, USAF, and James H. Straubel, Executive Director of the Air Force Association.

The meeting served a two-fold purpose — one, to discuss a merger between the Arnold Air Society, an Air Force ROTC organization and the Air Force Association; and two, to hold a round-table discussion with top Air Force officials concerning Air Force ROTC problems.

Purcell is a junior pre-law student at Texas Tech, Lubbock.

First intercollegiate fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Va., in 1776.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT — It looks like seven-year-old "Blm" Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Graham, 617 Doucette, is in real trouble as Pampa Patrolman Jack Crump snaps him in the act of carving a romantic moment on a tree. A city ordinance passed in 1915 prohibits "the whittling, cutting, defacing or swinging upon trees" in Pampa. Of course, the above picture is all in fun, but anyone who really commits the offense can receive a fine "not to exceed ten dollars."

Law Once Required Males To Perform Street Duties

By JANE KADINCO

Pampa News Staff Writer

Have you done any carvings on trees lately — or perhaps gone swinging from tree to tree? If you have, you'd better make sure the Pampa police are not on your trail. It's illegal, according to an ordinance passed May 25, 1928, prohibiting "the whittling, cutting, defacing or swinging upon trees which are located on or near the streets and avenues of the city of Pampa." And as far as can be determined, it has never been repealed. Fine for the offense, is a sum "not to exceed $10."

Many a Pampian can be heard grumbling about the meters which limit their time of parking. However, back in 1915 people had their parking problems too, due to an ordinance which prohibited anyone from leaving "a horse of team, draying any vehicle, implement or machine... standing or unattended, either hitched or unhitched... for more than 15 consecutive minutes."

"PLEASE, NEIGHBOR, won't you take one of my pigs. My sow just had eight and we're only allowed to keep one. This might have been a Pampian's dilemma in 1915 when city council passed an ordinance making it "unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to have or keep more than one hog at the same time and place... within the corporate limits of the City of Pampa." Anyone convicted of violating this law was fined "not less than five nor more than 10 dollars."

When the Pampa jail was "a little old building where the town ordinance which prohibited anyone from leaving "a horse of team, draying any vehicle, implement or machine... standing or unattended, either hitched or unhitched... for more than 15 consecutive minutes."

atives were passing a file or two through the bars. Whatever did happen alarmed the city council in 1915 into passing an ordinance making it "unlawful for any person to loiter near the town jail while prisoners are confined therein or to converse with any inmate thereof... (unless he) first obtains the consent of the town marshal or his deputy." Fine for the offense was "not less than two nor more than ten dollars."

WITH THE ADVENT of the automobile in Pampa came the inevitable speed demon who insisted on racing through the streets over 15 miles an hour. To combat this menace, an ordinance was passed in 1916 stating "that hereafter no automobile or motor vehicle shall be driven or operated upon any public road, street or driveway, within the corporate limits of the town of Pampa at a greater rate of speed than 12 miles an hour, provided the speed limit shall not apply to race courses or speedways."

It also seems the automobile manufacturers considered horns and head lights a luxury in those days for the ordinance also stipulates that "every driver or operator of an automobile or motor vehicle within the city limits... shall carry a lighted lamp between able bell appliance for giving notice of its approaching when such attachment is rung or otherwise operated, it may be heard a distance of 300 feet... and shall carry a lighted lamp between one hour after sundown and one hour before sunrise." Speeding or being caught without the "bell attachment" or "lighted lamp" could have meant a fine of "not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars."

PAMPA MALES should appreciate the fact that Pampa now hires workers to do street jobs all "able bodied male persons between the ages of 21 and 45 years" who had been living in Pampa for 15 days, were required to do street duty "for five days in each calendar year." The ordinance also stipulated that "they must eight hours of work. The only avenue of escape was to pay $1.00 a day instead of working or to send a substitute. The only men exempt were "ministers of the gospel actually engaged in the discharge of their duties." Anyone shirking his street duty was fined "not less than five nor more than ten dollars."

Although Pampa, a fairly new city, may not have as many amusing old-time laws as older towns, many an entertaining afternoon can be spent perusing its books of ordinances.

SOME OTHER interesting facts on the history of Pampa can also be learned from reading its ordinances, which begin in 1912. It was that year that Pampa was incorporated as a "general law" city, with its "aldermanic" form of government. However, it was

Loot Recovered in Shamrock Theft

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Sheriff Bus Dorman and his deputies have recovered most of the loot taken from two graneries at Twitty last week.

The farm implements, valued at about $600, were discovered in a cellar two miles east of Shamrock. Two boys have been questioned in connection with the theft.

Still missing are two 25-foot lariat ropes, four pipe wrenches and a jack style stretcher.

A 'Deep' Shock

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 9 — UP — A woman phoned San Antonio police Friday that her house had been rocked by an "earthquake" so strong it shook her parakeet's cage off its hook. Other residents also reported a shock.

Authorities at Fort Sam Houston reported that Navy depth charges were being destroyed by detonation at Camp Bullis, 18 miles north of San Antonio.

The parakeet survived.

pretty much subject to the general law of the state, with not as much "easy" over its own affairs as it has now.

In 1919, the city council passed a resolution stating that "the... of Pampa contains more than 600 inhabitants and that the population... is in fact 850." In 1920 a similar resolution was passed recording the population as 1400. And on March 25, 1927, the council passed the all important resolution that "the population... is in excess of 1,000 inhabitants... to-wit: 6,607." This meant that Pampa could draw up its own charter which was amended and passed in an election on Dec. 3, 1927. Following its filing with the secretary of state in Austin shortly afterward, Pampa became a "home-rule" city, which it is today, with a more powerful commission form of local government.

Pampa Harvesters Clip Amarillo Sandies, 65-58

Capacity Crowd Watches Thriller

By BUCK FRANCIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

A courageous band of Hustlin' Harvesters struck down a good Amarillo Sandie team last night at Harvester Fieldhouse, 65-58, to run their current winning streak to 40 before a capacity crowd of 2,000 fans who were limp at the finish from excitement.

It was the first loss this season in 14 starts for Amarillo while the Harvesters racked up their 12th win of the year with a 28-game string they built up last year.

The win was the second in District 1-AAAA play and put the Harvesters one game up on Amarillo and Berger who have been given the best chance to dethrone the Harvesters. Both Amarillo and Berger each own 14 records in conference play.

The Harvesters staged an up-hill battle throughout the first half and it wasn't until the final minute of the second quarter that they were able to move ahead of the sharp shooting Sandies for the first time.

The Harvesters did tie the score on a couple of occasions during the first half at 12-12 and 27-27 before pulling ahead in the last minute of the initial half. Amarillo was leading 29-28 when

Bobcats' Nip Odessa In Two Overtimes

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 9.—(Special) The San Angelo Bobcats outlasted the Odessa Bronco in two overtime periods here Saturday night, 55-54, and thus stayed unbeaten in District 1-AAAA play.

Leo Connolly of the Bobcats hit a free shot with 1:30 minutes left in the second overtime for the margin of victory.

The regulation game ended in a 50-50 stalemate and it was 54-54 after the first overtime. Connolly's free shot was the only score in the second overtime.

Milton Gillespie of Odessa was the game's leading scorer with 21 points. Don Tammen was San Angelo's top point maker with 10 points.

Odessa led 12-11 after one quarter, 28-21 at halftime and it was all tied at 37-37 at the end of three periods.

The win left San Angelo with a 2-0 District 1-AAAA record and Odessa 1-1. San Angelo meets the Pampa Harvesters, also unbeaten in two district starts, next Friday at San Angelo.

Borger Clips Lubbock 66-52

BORGER, Jan. 9.—(Special)—The Borger Bulldogs got back in the win column here Saturday night by defeating the Lubbock Westerners 66-52, in a District 1-AAAA contest.

Mike Kelley led the Bulldogs with 19 points, followed closely by Allen Simpson with 15.

Wade Wolfe, 6-6 Lubbock center, led the Westerners with 19 points.

Borger led at the end of each quarter, 16-12, 31-26, 50-38 and 66-52.

Lubbock pulled into a lead briefly in the second quarter, 24-21, when Wolfe hit five consecutive field goals. Borger, however, fought back to overtake the Westerners and held a 5-point edge at halftime. Lubbock never caught up after that.

The win gave Borger a 1-1 District 1-AAAA record while Lubbock absorbed its second straight district loss.

Abilene Rally Nips Midland

MIDLAND, Jan. 9.—(Special)—The Abilene Eagles came from behind in the last five minutes of play here Saturday night to stay with the Midland Bulldogs, 52-44, in a District 1-AAAA basketball tilt.

Midland was in command of the first three quarters, leading 17-7 at the end of the first quarter, 28-17 at halftime and 39-33 at the third quarter mark. The Bulldogs, however, cooled off in the fourth period to score only five points while the Eagles scored 19.

Twyman Ash, who led the Abilene scorers with 13 points, put the Eagles ahead to stay with five minutes to go, 42-40.

Paul Cole was high for Midland with 14 points.

It was the first district win for Abilene in two starts and the second straight loss for Midland.

In the first three months of 1953, American railroads installed 874 new locomotive units, of which all but five were driven by diesel fuel oil.

STRETCHING OUT those last few minutes of the Harvester-Sandie basketball game Saturday night is E. Jay Melvain, No. 22, with ball. Melvain dribbled under the basket and out again in order to maintain control of the ball. Jimmy Bond (21) is shown blocking the way for his team-mate, Sandie, Bill Behmeyer, tries desperately to snag the ball. The final score was 65-55 with the Harvesters on top. (News Photo)

Boys Club Directors Planning Big Things If Golden Gloves Tourney Is A Success

THE STAGE IS ALL SET for one of the biggest sports attractions held here annually — the Pampa District Golden Gloves tournament.

Festivities will get underway tomorrow night at the junior high school gym. Three nights of thrilling leather throwing will follow.

This year's tourney site will be much more suitable than last year's site. For one thing, the junior high school gym is centrally located and is easy for anyone visiting in Pampa to reach. And then there is lot more room at the gymnasium in addition to having better surroundings.

We've watched the Pampa Boys Club in two team matches and we can safely say that the type of boxers the Boys Club has is the best we've seen, especially in the high school ranks.

Coach T. J. Watt and his aides are to be commended for the fine way they have brought these youngsters along. Some are taking up boxing for the first time and they are already looking like veterans. Heavyweight Bob Prigmore certainly comes under this heading.

Prigmore, on at least two occasions this year, has taken on fellows with much more experience and Big Bob outclassed them both. We thought maybe Prigmore was going to be mis-matched the other night when the Boys Club met Guymon.

Charley Von Boshkish of the Guymon team, Prigmore's foe that night, came to Pampa recognized as Oklahoma's best amateur heavyweight. But Prigmore didn't seem to be concerned with Boshkish's rating and went into the ring and handled the Oklahoman like a veteran, winning by a second round TKO.

The other heavyweight that Prigmore had to spot years of experience was Charley Estep of Plainview. Prigmore and Estep fought on "The Big Four Boxing" show on KGNC-TV a couple of weeks ago and Prigmore banged out a popular decision.

Golden Gloves officials here certainly are hoping that Pampa fans will go all out and support this year's tournament.

Directors of the Pampa Boys Club, co-sponsors of the GG tourney here, with the Pampa News, have a project going now that they would like to be able to finish. That project is getting the new Boys Club home in tip-top condition.

The directors have put in a lot of work in "beautifying" up the place and there's still a lot to be done. But before they can go on they'll have to have some additional revenue to finance the program.

If these directors are willing to furnish the man power, then the least fans here can do is to patronize the Golden Gloves tournament next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

By attending the Golden Gloves tournament, you will not only be seeing top flight entertainment but will be aiding a good cause at the same time.

The Boys Club directors are planning to add other recreational facilities to the new home besides boxing equipment. Ping pong tables, shuffle board and other indoor games are in the planning stage for the new home.

IN THE INTEREST OF COACH Clifton McNeely's health, the Pampa Booster's Club has decided to forego activities for the coming basketball season.

McNeely, as most of you know, is suffering from a rheumatic condition and needs all the rest he can possibly get. Mac is on his feet enough with just his basketball duties and any additional activity would certainly be endangering his health.

We just wanted to pass this word along to let the cage fans here know that we're not slighting the Harvester basketballers by suspending the Booster Club activities.

It's possible that a couple of meetings or so will be held before the season is up, pending McNeely's condition.

Penguins, which behave so much like people, are biologically a very primitive form of bird.

Fast Field Due For 3-Day Tourney

One of the classiest fields ever assembled will make up the entry list in the annual Pampa District Golden Gloves Tournament to be unrolled in the Junior High School gymnasium Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Between 75 and 100 boxers are due to weigh in tomorrow for the three-day tourney. About a dozen or so of these entries are expected to file their lot in the "Open Division."

The weighing-in ceremonies will be held at 4 p.m. Monday, at Junior High Gym.

This year's tourney field will be made up of boxers from Wellington, Shamrock, Lefors, Dumas, Borger and Pampa with a possibility of some other area boys filling entry blanks.

At least 10 defending champions will be entered in this year's tourney with a possibility of some others entering. The defending champs who are certain entries are:

- 65 pounds — Dickie James, Pampa Boys Club.
- 70 pounds — Dickie Willis, Pampa Boys Club.
- 75 pounds — Gary Willis, Pampa Boys Club.
- 80 pounds — Calvin Ervin, Pampa Boys Club.
- 85 pounds — Gray Watt, Pampa Boys Club.
- 90 pounds — James Warner, Lefors Boys Club.
- 95 pounds — Cecil Sanders, Lefors.
- 105 pounds — Duggie Jameson, Wellington.
- 125 pounds — Kenneth Wood, Shamrock.
- 147 pounds — Bobby Wilhelm, Pampa Boys Club.

Several of these boys, however, will be fighting in different weights this year. And three of the above will be competing in the Open Division this year, Jameson, Wood and Wilhelm.

Added to this list of top flight entries are some who didn't compete last year or who were eliminated in the tourney.

Among the newcomers are heavyweight Bob Prigmore; welterweight Don Fagan; and lightweight Russell Morrow. Defeated in last year's finals but who will be strong contenders this year are middleweight Jesse Ring and featherweight Jesse Ring.

The Pampa Boys Club will have about 40 boys entered in this year's event. Coach Lefty Pendleton at Borger indicated Thursday that he plans to bring about 30 boys to the tourney here. Dumas will send about 10 with Shamrock and Wellington due to send six boys and Lefors five.

The most hotly contested weight division in this year's tourney will be in the featherweight and lightweight divisions. In the featherweight (126 pounds) Gary Phillips of Wellington, Eddie Clemmons of Lefors, Jesse Ring of the Pampa Boys Club, and Jimmy Bennett of WACO, Tex., Jan. 9.—UP—The high-riding EMU Mustangs turned on the speed and defeated by 64 to 60 a stubborn Baylor team that was within two points of the Methodist at midway in the third quarter Saturday night.

Baylor had panned the Methodists all the way, scoring 18 points to SMU's 19 in the first quarter, and matching them with 20 for 20 in the second. Midway in the third quarter, the score stood at 50 to 48, but then the Mustangs began moving faster across the floor and moving the ball around more.

Driving Derrell Murphy under the basket on fast-breaking plays, the Methodists pulled ahead and stayed ahead thereafter. Murphy scored 18 points to pace the winners and Bill Dalton dropped in 18 for Baylor. Baylor's Joe Don Dickson dominated the board for Baylor.

Neither player was in top form as Trabert handed Hoad his first singles defeat in Australia this season.

"I've had too much tennis," Hoad said after the match, "and I will welcome the national service training which starts Wednesday."

Hoad was far from the player who defeated Trabert in a gruelling five set match that turned out to be the turning point in Australia retaining the Davis Cup. Hoad made many volley errors as Trabert took just a few minutes over an hour to dispose of the Aussie star.

IN SENIOR BOWL

North Rallies To Whip Rebs

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 9 —UP— Jolting Gene Filipki of Villanova, turning behind a choice Midwest line, powered a 95-yard drive in the third period Saturday to give the North a 20 to 14 victory over the South in the Senior Bowl.

Zeke Bratkowski of Georgia passed the South to two touchdowns and was throwing hard at the finish while the partisan throng yelled him on.

But the Yankees were getting their first taste of pro gold in the unique post-season game and waived the winners' share of $500 apiece instead of the losers' $400 cut, and they smacked the brat down on his last try.

The South took a 14 to 13 lead on the first play of the second half when Bratkowski passed 60 yards to Max McGee of Tulane and Glen Turner of Georgia Tech converted.

But then Filipki and the rushing Yankee line took over.

Filipki, the 180-pound dynamo from Sacramento, Calif., who was a casualty in the West Point cheating scandal but came back at Villanova, never had such blocking at either school as he had Saturday.

A line built of Big Ten and Big Seven stalwarts tore Dixie's banners to shreds in that relentless 90-yard drive that started after Bratkowski kicked out of bounds on the Yankee five.

Center Jim Neal of Michigan State, guards Bob Hanila and George Jacoby of Ohio State and tackle Bob Fleck of Syracuse were the main bowler-overs ahead of Filipki.

Outstanding Player Filipki, who ran 109 yards in 19 tries, was voted the outstanding player by sports writers.

Yankee backs swept 76 yards for a first period touchdown in 13 plays behind the Midwestern Locking, Felton, Filipki and Harlan. Carl of Wisconsin pounded down in trip-hammer plunges to the South 19. The fleet Carl then burst across right tackle to the five, plunged for four more and Felton made the touchdown, Felton also kicked the point.

The Southerners found thorny going through the North line, but in the last five minutes of the second period Tommy Lewis of Alabama, the famed "12th man" of the Cotton Bowl, broke loose for 28 yards to his own 45.

But with just three minutes left in the half Thomas hoisted a pass far beyond the Southern secondary and Rocky Ryan of Illinois appeared to go for a touchdown, the play covering 63 yards.

Score by periods: North 0 7 7 0-14 South 8 8 6 0-20

South scoring: Touchdowns, Marchand, McGee. Conversions, Turner 2.

North scoring: Touchdowns, Thomas, Felton, Ryan, Conversions, Felton 2.

COURT COLLISION — Dale Ball, No. 45, Lubbock guard, collides with Kenneth Hinkle of the Harvesters during Friday night's District 1-AAAA contest at Harvester Fieldhouse. A foul was called on Ball which was his fifth and finishing him for the night. The play occurred with 1:30 minutes left in the third quarter. Coming up on the play are Gary Griffin, No. 35, and E. Jay McIlvain, No. 23, both of the Harvesters. The Harvesters won the tilt, 79-15. (News Photo by T. D. Ellis)

Harvesters Open 1-4A Slate With Win Over Westerners

The Hustlin' Harvesters, after spotting the Lubbock Westerners to a 4-point 6-1 lead, came roaring back to overtake the Lubbock team and then race to an easy 79-15 victory Friday night at Harvester Fieldhouse.

The game opened the 1953-54 District 1-AAAA schedule for both teams.

Friday's victory was the 29th in succession for the Green and Golders and their 11th straight this year.

Jimmy Bond, the Harvesters' top point maker, led the attack on the Westerners with a scintillating 34-point performance. It was Bond's highest output in a single game since he was a Harvester. His previous high was 32 points against Rowell last year.

Bond's 34 points came on 11 field goals and 12 from the free throw line. Bond hit 1,000 per cent on his gratis tosses, canning 12 out of 12.

The Harvesters had one of their best nights of the year from both field goal attempts and free throw attempts. The Harvesters shot 44 times from the floor and hit 28 for 63.8 per cent. On free throws the Harvesters made good on 23 of 28 chances, a percentage of 82.

Overall, combining field goal and free throw attempts, the Harvesters hit 51 out of 72 for 70.8. The Westerners had fair success on field goal attempts in the first half but faltered in the last half. The Westerners hit 11 out of 23 for 47.8.

In Friday's tilt, the Harvesters assembled the lead 4:30 minutes deep in the first period when E. Jay McIlvain hit a pair of free shots to snap an 8-4 tie. The Pampans led the rest of the way.

The Westerners, however, stayed Sandies, Broncs, Bobcats Also Win 1-AAAA Openers

The Amarillo Sandies, Odessa Broncs and San Angelo Bobcats joined the Pampa Harvesters in winning District 1-AAAA cage openers Friday night.

Amarillo surprised the previously undefeated Borger Bulldogs at Borger, 65-57. Odessa edged the Abilene Eagles at Odessa, 50-42, and San Angelo romped past Midland, 59-42.

Jackie Collier led the Sandies to win over Borger with 20 points. He was followed closely by Don Rogers with 15. Bub Farrell with 13 and Kenneth Hutto with 12.

The Sandies led all the way. They held quarterly leads of 19-15, 34-28, 50-40, and 65-57.

Carl Schlemeyer of football fame led Odessa to its win over Abilene. Schlemeyer, recently named on the All-State 4A football team as a quarterback, tossed in 18 points. He was followed closely by Roy Davis with 17 and Milton Gillespie with 14.

Twyman Ash with 15 and Charles Row with 14 led the Abilene attack. Odessa was in command all the way, holding quarterly leads of 12-5, 25-14, 36-30 and 50-42.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9 —UP— Fred Hawkins, 30-year-old holder of the Texas PGA championship, breezed through the second round of the $20,000 Los Angeles open golf tournament with a five-under-par 66, Saturday, leading more than half the entrants who had finished.

His total score for the first two rounds was 138, one point below Jack Burke Jr. of Klamath Lake, N. Y., who shot a 36-3 Saturday to add to this par of 69 Friday.

Tied for third place at 141 were Art Doering, of Cincinnati, with 74-136-67, and amateur Don Keith of South Pasadena, Calif., with 71-36-34-70. Doering, far down on the list Friday with 75, amazed spectators at the 7,000-yard course at Fox Hills country club Saturday with his four-under-par 67.

Sportsmen Shift From Gun To Rod

AUSTIN, Jan. 9 —UP— With the end of the major hunting season in Texas, interest of Texas sportsmen was shifting Saturday from land to water.

Fishing was again coming into its own.

Marion Toole, chief aquatic biologist for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, said unusually good catches have been made in some areas — although the general take has been scaled to the customary seasonal pace.

Toole said some good catches of white bass have been reported from Lake Travis, one of the Highland lakes north of Austin.

Cecil Reid, chief marine biologist for the commission, reported from Rockport that trout and redfish were being taken in good numbers.

There were also catches of drum and sheepshead.

Toole pointed out that the year-around fisherman who knows his lakes and his bait gets bass, catfish and other fresh water fish during the so-called off-season.

"Of course," he explained, "fish are cold-blooded and are not as active in winter because their metabolism slows down and they are not as hungry."

Draining of Lake Austin, preparatory to completing a municipal water works program, is setting the stage for what some sportsmen hope will be a period of good catfish catches.

Reid said salt water species have been biting particularly good during recent months.

"When the water gets colder along the bays and shorelines, the fish head for deeper water. Many of them reach the ship channels which lead into the harbors and basins which have been dredged out. Thus, they become available for the folks angling from the comparative convenience of the breakwaters," he said.

Superior rebounding in the second half turned a close game into a rout. Tech led 34-32 at halftime. Arizona deadlocked the score at 59-59 in the third period, but Tech's tall team took control of the rebound at that point and pulled away.

Clemson Soph Honored For Sportsmanship

BOSTON, Jan. 9 —UP— A "king" of sportsmanship was crowned here Saturday night.

Don King, 20-year-old sophomore quarterback of Clemson College, received the eighth annual Sweden Nelson award for sportsmanship at the Boston Gridiron Club dinner.

The slightly-built Anderson, S. C., had been chosen from among some 50 other nominees in a nationwide poll of sports writers and coaches for his actions in the Clemson-Wake Forest football game.

When informed that Wake Forest quarterback Sonny George had injured a knee, King told his buddies (teammates) to "tackle George high so he won't be hurt. There's no sense in crippling a player."

"Anybody would have done what I did," said King.

However, we cannot say "It won't happen here." Let's join the Nation in this annual 1954 MARCH OF DIMES. The March Started January 2nd and will end it's united effort for funds January 31st. Research will march steadily onward to learn new methods of combatting this enemy of mankind. The Dimes, Quarters, and Dollars you GIVE will not only help present victims, but will also provide treatment of FUTURE victims. You... Yours — the youngster next door! So strike a blow against Polio. Give as many dimes as you can, as MUCH as you can to the MARCH OF DIMES. Give 'till it hurts!

Oil And Pampa

In The Pictures . . .

It was 53 years ago today that Spindletop, at Beaumont, spewed a fabulous lot of oil and launched the Texas oil boom. Now nearly a million Texans get their living from the oil industry, many Pampans among them. First comes the drilling crew . . . the boys who work around the clock to "bring the well in." Big pots of coffee in the tin "dog house" fortify them between intervals of handling their giant tools.

In the top picture, a crew of Jim Triplehorn's company is shown connecting drill pipe that is to go 3,000 feet down into the earth. Left to right are Foster Winepearl, 513 N. Davis, derrick man; J. M. Saltzman, 1112 N. Starkweather, driller; and Floyd McDowell, 636 S. Reid, and W. L. Eckrood, 836 E. Locust, roughnecks.

E. Jackson, 304 1/2 E. Foster, connects the outlet hose to unload 110 barrels of oil at the Phillips Kingsmill Pump Station. Here the "black gold" is gathered from various leases and pumped to Phillips refinery at Borger. Barbara Ross, left, 516 N. Frost, and Madeline David, west of city, are stenographers at the Texas Company producing department in the Combs-Worley building where drilling and production paper work is handled.

Peg O' Pampa

HERE'S HOPING YOU and yours safely survived the holidays and the small flu epidemic. Such wonderful weather we've had. A-fun time to stay in bed. Anybody for tennis? No foolin' I'll bet people like Max Hickey, Henry Rose, Dallas Bowsher, Johnnie Foreman and the entire Austin clan were out on the golf course last week.

AT THIS TIME OF YEAR many a young (and otherwise) man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of basketball. Which was it for you Friday? The first conference basketball game, or Family Night at the Country Club. Wonder how many Pampans were able to make various Bowl games—Rose, Cotton Sugar, Orange, Gator and Sun bowls? Were there any more? Lewis Caudill and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McCorkle were among the lucky ones to see the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas. Wonder if they learned anything really significant at the games? ... Such as what color the girls are wearing on the bleachers this season.

BACK TO BASKETBALL. Let's lend all our support to our very worthy Harvester team. We've much reason to be proud and they should know how we feel. Spotted two starters of last year's lineup at a game during the holidays—Buddy Cockrell and Bill Webb. Sorry, they were sitting too far away for us to tell who their dates were. Buddy is attending Oklahoma University at Norman and Bill is studying at Schreiner Institute at Kerrville.

THINGS I DOUBT WE'LL EVER TRY. quote famous magazine ... "Throw a fistful of raisins in your next meal." Eek! Or sew bands of long black fringe on white satin lounging pants. Repeating ... "Eek! On Peg that is. Now maybe on someone like Betty Reid 'twould be fine.

IS IT TRUE THAT LARRY JARRETT is going to teach South American dances to several couples bent on more gayety on the dance floor? Sounds like a great idea. Isn't he the fellow who can hold his own at the piano, in a band, or in a conversation? He and Rilla (Mrs. J.) served ham and eggs at all hours after last week's Country Club dance.

THE ADULT EDUCATION program got underway Monday night when the American Heritage group met in the public library. Understand there are two other groups: Great Books and Spanish. Bless all the kind people who are donating their efforts to this wonderful civic project. In our opinion joining such a study group is one of the nicest things we can do—for our children! They say Dr. Raymond H. Hampton, Cliff Braly, Jack Foster and Dr. Douglas E. Nelson are to serve as moderators. Doesn't Lillian Snow deserve credit for starting the idea in Pampa? And won't it be grand to see her smiling face in the brand new library!

AT LAST PEG CAN interpret some of the weird language heard from the younger generation. You too can learn to dig the jive. Just join Sleepwalker's Serenade or the Insomnia Club on the radio at 10:05 p.m. on the morning. The poor fellows who give out sprightly chatter till dawn do a noble job.

HAVE MISSED SEEING Neil and Marvin Harris at Country Club dances lately. Could have missed many at the gay New Year's formal Thursday night, though. Don't tell anyone but Peg lives in the hope that Johnnie Clark will show her the intricacies of jitterbugging; Dr. Julian Key will gallantly appear whenever the band plays a rumba and that Mr. Peg and I could get behind Jean and Charlie Cook during the Bunny Hop. ... they always enjoy it so much and could certainly teach anyone a thing or two about it.

GUESTS AT MARIE AND RAYMOND HARRAH's party were thoughtfully provided with little plastic sacks containing a small can of tomato juice, a wash cloth and aspirin. ... not that any of us really needed it of course but it was a "fun" idea. At New Year's, Raymond and his charming wife served milk punch and hors d'oeuvres while guests came and went for three hours.

NEW MEMBER OF THE KENNETH CHALMERS home—a six-month-old doberman pincer has strange culinary tastes. Seems he considers the buttons on young Sisie's clothes a delicacy. Mrs. Alice Howard is still blushing just 'cause she forgot to light the candles at daughter Betty's reception in the Country Club. Molehills can be mountains when your daughter weds.

DID'JA EVER notice Mrs. Buck Miller's antique-looking dome shaped ring? Meet the beautiful newcomer and newly-wed, Mrs. Bill Williams. ... See how well Mrs. Luther Flerson looks in her black bikini and green hat and coat! ... Try the new cocktail snack that everyone's raving about! Here 'tis:

- 1-3 cup butter or margarine
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1-4 teaspoon salt
- 1-8 teaspoon garlic salt or powder
- 2 cups wheat cereal
- 2 cups rice cereal
- 1 cup nuts
1. Heat oven to slow-300 degrees.
2. Melt butter in shallow pan over low heat.
3. stir in Worcestershire sauce, salt, and garlic salt or powder.
4. Add wheat cereal, rice cereal, and nuts. Mix gently until all pieces are covered with butter.
5. Heat in oven on rack slightly above center for 30 minutes, stirring gently every 10 minutes.
6. Spread out to cool.
7. Let's eat.

FAMILIAR FACES. Earl Miller, the friendly watchmaker. ... Mrs. S. G. Robison, another warm-voiced telephone personality. ... Mrs. Willard Doom, who works in surgery at the Worley hospital. ... her husband is still overseas. Seems to Peg that such women have an especially tough "row to hoe." They must endure separation from their loved ones when life for everyone else is normal; not like wartime when every family was disrupted in one way or another.

IS IT TRUE THAT the versatile Sammie Burns is drawing plans for the Jake Garman home? Wonder if Mrs. Garman is tanning that wonderful complexion in California?

JUST TO BE OPEN MINDED read this: You might even like it. There's no accounting for taste. For some unfathomable reason the name is:

Fin De Siecle
This life's a hollow bubble
Don't you know?
Just a painted piece of trouble
Don't you know?
We come to earth to cry
We grow older and we sigh
Older still and then we die
Don't you know?
It is all a howlid mix
Business, love and politics,
Clubs and parties, cliques and sets,
Fashions, follies, sins, wags,
Struggle, strife and cigarettes,
Don't you know?

There Are Seven More Verses! Nuff said! While we're improving our minds. ... Noticed that Marlene Dietrich, in a recent issue of a woman's mag. ... tells us how to be loved. She says, quote, "It takes twenty-four hours a day to keep a husband happy." A great big Hump! And Poch! Haven't we read that she and her husband who've been married for many years live on opposite sides of the ocean and visit at long intervals!

IT'S COOLER TONIGHT after those real springlike days. Perfect night to listen to your record collection favorites while your littlest one naps in your arms. Might even add a purring cat if you have one. Life is very nice. Don't you think?

MRS. THOMAS WALTER ELY III

Patsy Porter, Thomas Walter Ely III Wed At Double-Ring Shamrock Ceremony

SHAMROCK — (Special) — A piece of dress of grey tulle trimmed with rhinestones. Her accessories were black and she wore a corsage of white carnations. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Violet Porter and John Porter of Shamrock, and Thomas Walter Ely III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walter Ely Jr., of El Campo, in marriage recently. Rev. James O. Todd officiated in an evening service in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church.

The sanctuary was decorated with a "sunburst" of light formed of burning white tapers, on a base of evergreens and plumosa fern against a background of jade leaves. The bride's table was marked with tapers in candelabra entwined with plumosa fern.

A prelude of wedding music was played by Gerald Jackson of Duncan, Okla. He accompanied Miss Barbara Jewell of Dallas, as she sang "Calm is the ...". Mrs. Ely, a graduate of Shamrock High School, attended St. Louis Institute of Music, and received her Bachelor of Music Degree from North Texas State College in Denton. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, National Professional Fraternity for Women, American Association of University Women, and at present is teaching in Stephen C. Foster School in Dallas.

The bridegroom attended Wharton Jr. College, North Texas State College in Denton, where he will receive his degree in business administration in August. He served two years with the United States Army as assistant to Port Commander Inchon Harbor, Korea. For travel, the bride chose a Marion McCoy suit of peanut butter homespun woolen tweed trimmed with white angora. Her top coat was of white frost-iron and she wore a mushroom-style hat of white beaver. Her corsage was an orchid.

Following a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., the couple will establish their home at 4813 Gilbert, Apartment Five, in Dallas.

Her "something blue" was a lace handkerchief from Paris, France and for something old and borrowed she wore an antique, oval and diamond ring which belongs to her aunt, Mrs. W. R. Porter. The bride's mother wore a two-

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Miss Friend: I am writing you as an office group regarding "an old wolf" we have among us. He is at least 60 years old, married and has grown children. He seems very nice until one of us speaks to him or asks him a question, then he seems to think that he must either put his arm around one of us or stand so close to us that it is embarrassing.

What can we do about this situation? We do not want to cause trouble, but it is so embarrassing to have some one act like this. Should someone very politely tell him to leave his hands off or should we complain to our boss about him and the situation?

Thank you for any helpful suggestions you might have for us.

O. G.

Dear O. G. Perhaps you should make sure there is a desk between you when you ask him a question. When possible ask someone else.

There is a "freezing up" technique which often works on such men. The minute he puts his arm around you, politely but firmly remove it and step away from him. Do it every time he puts his arm around you and pretty soon he will catch on. Constant rebuffs should cool him off eventually.

THANKFUL

Dear Grace Friend

Just a card of thanks to you and your readers who made a mother and four children have a happy Christmas. I want each and everyone to know that this card is a card of thanks for the brother who isn't here. But in my heart if he were here he would like to have all of you know the thanks that would be in his heart that sometimes words cannot express.

May God keep you each of you happy and with your loved ones. Thanks again to you, Grace. Mrs. G. S. Mrs. G. S. writes of the family of the man who died last summer of cancer. After I mentioned the situation in my column, many readers wrote offering to do something for the family.

With the cosmetics available to her today, no housewife need think she hasn't time to make herself pretty before breakfast. It now takes only a few minutes to apply makeup, and to do it beautifully. Our housewife is using a liquid rouge (left) which she applies in tiny dots, blending them quickly. Her first step was to put on a minute makeup that combines foundation and powder. Seconds later (center) she applies a waterproof mascara whose thickness makes just one coat necessary. She needs only another minute to stroke on eyebrow pencil, blot her lips and remove the excess mascara. Then, after slipping on neat dress and combing her hair, she is ready to pour coffee and make toast. Checking preparations in the kitchen (right), she touches up with the minute makeup as she smiles acceptance of husband's compliment. She'll look her prettiest at breakfast.

Housewives Have Time For New Cosmetics

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Entertaining tends to overwhelm some women, particularly young matrons still unsure of her role. The temptation of the very conscientious homemaker is to forget herself entirely in an effort to perfect her party preparations. We are all familiar with the results: A hurried, harried hostess who in no time transfers her uneasiness to her guests.

Taking time to relax and to make oneself pretty is prerequisite to being a good hostess. And it doesn't take much time at all.

Today, you can put on a complete make-up in minutes that looks as if you have nothing on your schedule but yourself. Such make-up is also ideal for turning up at the breakfast table with a pretty face. Afterward, a few minutes' rest with feet higher than head will help greatly to relax you.

Perfect for busy housewives are the compacts that combine foundation and powder, and the rouges that blend beautifully in seconds. The powder-and-base can also be smoothed on in a few seconds. Spillproof, it eliminates the danger of a last-minute accident.

One creator of these clock-gear beauty aids says that its cream powder, which contains lanolin, will cover expression lines and shadows under the eyes when puffed on lavishly. Excess can be removed with cotton. The firm recommends using just three dots of its liquid rouge on each cheek. Apply the dots in a triangle, putting one close to the lid below the center of the eye, the second directly below it but

Billy Gann Honored On Seventh Birthday

By RUTH MILLETT

A teacher reports that when she told her seventh graders to discuss a subject with their parents at the dinner table, one student said, "But we can't TALK at dinner. We always watch TV while we eat. The thing that floored the teacher was that so many of her students chimed in and said: "We do, too."

That, it seems to me, is the real threat of TV to family life. More important than what the programs they see will do to the kids is what being deprived of the give and take of family conversation is going to do to them.

Sure, the family eating dinner with eyes glued on a TV set is together. But they aren't communicating with each other.

They are so many spectators, more concerned with not missing a picture on the TV screen than in paying attention to each other's news, views and questions.

One mother I know said she didn't realize how her family was missing TV until she found herself being put off going in to hear her children's prayers until a commercial came along.

TV can bring a lot of pleasure and enjoyment into a home and can be a real asset to family living. But it shouldn't become such a monster that children are continually hushed because if Papa takes time to answer Junior's question he may miss the thread of a TV plot. It shouldn't take over the dinner hour, or be used to take the place of conversation when friends drop in for a visit.

And certainly it has become a real and terrifying monster when Mama finds herself waiting for a commercial or a station break before going in to hear her children's prayers.

ON THE SCENE — Here is some of the equipment being used on an oil lease, one mile west of Pampa, where the relatively new sandfracturing process is in progress. Sandfracturing Paying Off Near Pampa

That new sandfracturing process that's been used with so much success in the Panhandle area during the last six months is really reported to be paying off on a lease one mile west of Pampa. It's the R. P. Fringling No. 11 Jackson rig where a sandfracturing treatment of one hour and 20 minutes was given one day last week.

And W. A. Hill, district sales representative for the Producer Chemical Service, Borgers, the outfit doing the job, is really enthusiastic about the potentialities of the new method.

"It really increases the permeability of the porosity," he commented Saturday.

"The injection rate is very important," Hill said, pointing out that "this is supposed to be a hydraulic fracturing process."

The fluid does the actual fracturing and the sand holds the fracture open, the representative explained.

This is how it worked last week ("all in one treatment"). Oilmen injected 3,000 gallons of 15-percent acid and flushed it with 125 barrels of oil. Then they used 5,000 gallons of jelled crude and mixed 10,000 pounds of sand with it. Flushing that mixture with 420 barrels of oil, they had an injection rate of 21 barrels of oil per minute.

The maximum pressure on the acid was 1,750 pounds when the formation was taking the acid. Highest recorded pressure was 1,195 pounds.

Next step, Hill said, is to swab out all the fluid that was pumped in. "Then we'll be able to get a test to see what we'll make."

Hill said that this sandfracturing process was being used in every oil field in the United States.

"Why, they're even doing it in water wells, by using sorghum molasses and sand," he concluded.

Before the treatment, the hole was yielding about one-half barrel an hour. A total of 872 barrels was injected with the sandfracturing. After that was recovered, a 10-hour swab test recorded 12 barrels per hour, for a total of 120 barrels in addition to the original 672 barrels.

Furnace Oil Carbon Black Has Birthday

Furnace oil carbon black, the reinforcing ingredient that tipped the balance from natural to synthetic rubber for tire treads, obsoleted its 10th birthday Christmas day, 1953.

The nation was at war, and had been cut off from the vital natural rubber resources of the Far East, when this new discovery paved the way for strengthening synthetic rubber.

It was developed by Phillips Petroleum Co. and was first used in tires shipped from Phillips Petroleum Company's plant at Borger, Dec. 25, 1943.

Free World Oil Output Is Down

TULSA, Okla. — A sharp cut in output in the United States resulted in a decrease of nearly 150,000 barrels daily in total Free World production of crude oil in October, the Oil and Gas Journal reported Saturday.

Production from foreign fields showed a net gain of 148,900 barrels daily. United States output, however, was off 295,700 barrels daily.

It was the sharpest monthly decline in domestic oil production since the oilworkers strike in the spring of 1952.

Shamrock Rabies Case Revealed

SHAMROCK — (Special) — A rabies-afflicted cow has been reported by Dr. E. Byron Range, local veterinarian. The cow was brought to the Shamrock Veterinary Clinic from Erick, Okla., by L. W. Lakey. The animal had been grazing on wheat and was "straining," the veterinarian said.

The cow failed to respond to treatment at the local clinic. After 24 hours of hospitalization, a brain involvement was suspected and the cow was put under observation for rabies. On December 15 the cow died without showing further rabies symptoms. An autopsy showed no organic cause for her actions.

In the interest of public safety the animal's head was sent to Austin whereupon a positive diagnosis of rabies was given on December 17.

Four persons who had contact exposure to the animal have all received the "Pasteur" treatment. The proper state, county and city health officials of Texas and Oklahoma were notified immediately.

Dr. Range said that immediate danger of an epidemic is remote. The Erick area has been quarantined but the local area has not since the animal was under observation while here.

This is the only case of rabies diagnosed in this area since Dr. Range has operated the Shamrock Veterinary Clinic for the past two and one-half years.

Study Of Mars To Resume

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 —UP—The age-old quest into whether life exists on Mars—the red planet—will be carried on this year by a special expedition to Bloemfontein, South Africa, the National Geographic Society announced Saturday.

The party will include a team of astronomers from the society and the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz. Its findings will later be co-ordinated with those of the International Mars Committee formed last year to take observations from all the major continents.

In June, Mars will be 10 million miles from the earth, the nearest in 13 years. It will be close to the horizon in North America but directly overhead in Bloemfontein, giving the star gazers there an extraordinarily fine telescopic contact.

One goal is a more exact measurement of the planet's diameter—about half that of the earth—and from this a better understanding of Mars' internal makeup. Another is an investigation of the "blue envelope" that clouds the planet's surface when pictures are made by blue light.

By red light the cloud is penetrated and surface details may be seen with a powerful telescope. From polar caps that vary in size with Martian seasons, huge dark areas extend toward the planet's equator. These change over the years but general outlines remain relatively fixed.

The seasonal changes are believed to reflect vegetation which once was thought to be giant lakes or seas. In 1877, the Italian astronomer Schiaparelli claimed he had discovered faint lines which he called "canals" or "channels." This gave rise to the implication that they may have been dug by intelligent beings.

Dr. E. C. Sipher, Lowell Observatory Martian expert, will lead the work at Bloemfontein. He will use the 27-inch refracting telescope of the Lamont-Hessing Observatory there, most powerful in the Southern Hemisphere. In all, 14 countries will be participating in the exploration.

Geographic President Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor said the 100-inch telescope at Mount Wilson and the 200-inch Hale "big eye" at Palomar in California also will be turned on Mars at intervals during the year.

Geoff Upsholds Enting MUSKOGEE, Okla., Jan. 8—UP—A federal judge ruled Thursday the Post Office is justified in holding up mail addressed to Pink (Cowboy) Williams, pending a decision whether or not cards mailed by Williams were indecent.
