City Commission Scheduled Tuesday

Fire zones, paving estimates, refunds — and Dumpster Dumpsters — are slated for the agenda of this week's meeting of the Pampa City Commission.

Get-together, as usual, is scheduled for 9 a. m. Tuesday in the city commission room of City Hall.

City Manager B. H. Cruce, referring to suggestions by George C. Hickey, state fire insurance commissioner, while in Austin, late this morning said that the commission will study the uses being made of land now outside the fire zone and the extension of zones to cover all land presently being used for commercial purposes.

James Cowan, city director of public works, is expected to have the estimates on the 1954 Pampa paving program ready for perusal by the commissioners, Cruce said.

Another item on the agenda will be the refunding on utility extensions.

Mayor Tom Rose and City Commissioners Gene Fatheree and W. D. Varnon were in Clovis, N. M., today, Cruce continued, for the purpose of taking a look at the Dempster Dumpster method of trash disposal. They were accompanied by Sid Patterson, representative of the company. The city manager, therefore, figured that that subject would be on the agenda, too.

Gal Bowling Titles Divided

Individual honors were divided in the Women's City Bowling tournament which was concluded Sunday at the Pampa Bowl.

Ruby Keith won the singles title with a 632 series, 15 pins better than her nearest pursuer, Alberta Rader with 617.

Pat Howell and Fern Black won the doubles honors with 1,137. Marie Carlin and Marie Boehm finished second in doubles with 1,117.

Previously, Malone Pharmacy had won the team title with 2,328 pins, followed closely by Neal Sparks Cleaners with 2,324.

Ranked behind Keith and Rader in singles play were as follows:

Elnae Riddle, third, 605; Pat Howell, fourth, 588; Maybelle Carlin, fifth, 578; Jean White, sixth, 569; Joyce Logue, seventh, 561; Eleanor Waggoner, eighth, 559; Fay Coleman, ninth, 548; Doris Donnell, 10th, 545; Ina Marie, 11th, 537; Lillian Martin, 12th, 533; Sally Hegwer and Deaun Heiskill, tied for 13th with 532.

In doubles, Jean White and DeLores Hawthorn were 3rd with 1,087; Ina Marie and Eleanor Waggoner fourth with 1,070; Doris Donnell and Nadine Morse, 5th, 1,059; Mary Glidden and Margaret Avinger, 6th, 1,048; Betty Brake and Marcella Dickerson, seventh, 1,045; and Doris Donnell and Elaine Riddle, eighth, 1,043.

WEST ASKS

of German and Austrian treaties. He warned Molotov that the West considers the German election the indispensable first step toward German unification.

The Big Three agreed Monday at a meeting with U.S. High Commissioner James B. Conant that Bidault should present the western viewpoint because "the problem is to deal with a primarily European and concern Germany and France."

Since the conference was called primarily for discussion of German unification and the long-delayed Austrian treaty, the western ministers were resolved to deal briefly with such extraneous issues as bringing Communist China into the parity.

Molotov clearly revealed his intention to bring up the Red China issue when he arrived in the eastern sector Saturday and the western ministers anticipated he would make this move immediately.

Expected to Hear Bid

Dulles, Eden and Bidault were expected to hear Molotov's call for a Big Five conference, replied briefly that it was irrelevant and that the westerners would deal with the German and Austrian issues.

A high western source said the United States' stand was that there would be no need for a five-power meeting unless specific issues are involved, such as Korea or the war in Indo-China.

District Scouters To Meet Tuesday

Scout Week activities, charter reviews and money — will be the major topics of discussion at this month's meeting of the Boy Scouts' Santa Fe District committee meeting.

Session is slated for 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the city commission room, according to Phil Pegues, district Scout executive. Don Cain, district chairman, will be in charge of the meeting.

Ross Buzzard, district camping and activities chairman, will be in charge of all district activities during Boy Scout Week (Feb. 6-13). Pegues said, adding that Buzzard would be present Tuesday for a short talk on current plans.

A discussion of the district's organization and extension committee's task, especially charter reviews, will be on the docket. Pegues continued. That'll concern particularly the rechartering of units that have completed at least one year of Scout experience.

Then there'll be the problem of money. This get-together will also encompass the second meeting of all community finance chairmen.

Community finance drives will be held Feb. 8-20, Pegues said, emphasizing that they will not cover Pampa, Lefors or any other area in which the Pampa community's United Fund drive was made in 1953.

Co-chairmen of the district finance drive will be Cyril Pingleton and Clarence Williams, both of Panhandle. Community drive chairmen will be David M. Warren Jr., Panhandle; Wayne Jordan, White Deer; W. C. Simpson, McLean; Joe Cunningham, Miami; J. B. Reid Jr., Canby; and Warren Jenkins, Higgins.

Motorcycle Club Being Planned Here

An organizational meeting of the Pampa Motorcycle Club will be held Wednesday night at 808 E. Beryl Street.

Time of the meeting has been set for 7 p. m.

Anyone interested in motorcycle riding is cordially invited to attend the meeting and become a member of the club.

Election of officers will be held at the meeting Wednesday.

Riding contests plus other activities will be discussed at the meeting, also.

Funeral Pending For Mrs. Bertram

Funeral services are pending with the Downtown Memorial Funeral Home for Mrs. Marie Bertram, 81, of Higgins, who died at 2:15 a. m. today in the Higgins Hospital.

Mrs. Bertram had been a resident of Higgins for 39 years. She is survived by three sons, Roy Bertram of Elk Grove, Calif.; Bob and Rambert Bertram, both of Higgins; two daughters, Mrs. Treasie King of Vale, Ore., and Mrs. Clara Vanmeter of Pasadena, Calif.; three brothers, Ben Detrich of Ames, Kans.; Ben Detrich of Higgins; and Lambert Detrich of Santa Monica, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Annie Laymond of Concordia, Kans., and Mrs. Leda Beston of S. Pasadena, Calif.; five grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Eating Contest To Boost MOD

Johnson's Cafe has jumped into the March of Dimes campaign by scheduling a hot cake-eating contest Wednesday morning between Sheriff Rufe Jordan and whomsoever he challenges. The loser of the match will put $10 in the MOD barrel set up in the cafe.

Johnson will also serve free hot cakes and coffee from 8 a. m. to 11 a. m., with patrons putting whatever amount they wish into the MOD barrel.

It is reported that Sheriff Jordan stated he could eat from 26 to 30 hotcakes at one sitting, but it is not yet known whom he will challenge.

Fridays will be a big March of Dimes day — and the last — with the Mothers' Drive scheduled from 7 to 8 p. m. and the Elk "4er" party starting at 8:30 p. m. The total amount netted by the campaign by late this morning was $5,865.18.

Work Is Underway On Area Bridges

Construction work on two area bridges—the Lefors bridge on the McLean highway and the Canadian River bridge—was underway late this morning.

Representatives of Bell, Braden, Barker and Gilvin Inc., Amarillo, having begun a little preliminary work on the Lefors bridge Friday, were busy in earnest this morning constructing the detour parallel to the present bridge, the first step in building the new bridge.

At the same time, work on the jetties, adjacent roadway and approaches to the proposed Canadian River bridge—held up several days last week by the cold weather—was going full-steam this morning, according to resident highway engineers.

But the big question on the Canadian River bridge — when bids will be opened in Austin on the contract for the bridge—properly was still unanswered late this morning.

TEC Reports Job Outlook

The Pampa office of the Texas Employment Commission is projecting "slightly more than half" the jobs they did last month.

Today is the last day of the TEC month, Bill Ragdale, local TEC manager, pointed out. (The TEC month runs from the 26th day of one month through the 25th day of the next.)

From Nov. 26 through Dec. 25, Ragdale said, a total of 87,255 jobs was processed through his office. All but two of them were of the non-agricultural variety.

"About 60" had been handled by late morning.

This time of year, the manager continued, is "the middle of the poorest job season it's about the top of a broad peak and lasts a month or so." As the weather was reasonable just before Christmas, "the slump got underway later."

On top late this morning in the TEC office were 11 jobs and a host of persons to see John Sanderson, area Social Security administrator, and two assistants.

None of the jobs was in the "general" line. That means there were no laboring or construction jobs, Ragdale said. Each Monday from 9:30 a. m. to noon, a Social Security representative is on hand for consultation.

Lawmen Continue Burglary Probe

Gray county Sheriff's officers and other law enforcement officials today were continuing their investigation into two burglaries within the county Saturday.

A home near McLean and one in Pampa were burglarized Saturday afternoon.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cousins, near McLean, was burglarized sometime between the hours of 1:30 and 5:30 o'clock while the home of W. O. Atkins, 1131 S. Dwell, also was burglarized during the same period of time. Entrance to both homes was gained through the front door.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan said, adding that no one was at home.

Nothing was stolen from both homes and a shotgun and .32 calibre rifle were taken from the Atkins home.

The sheriff said no leads have developed as to the identity of the burglars. He stated that he did not believe the two burglaries were committed by the same person or persons.

Booth Installed For Poll Taxes

A poll tax booth has been set up in Wilson's Drug store at the corner of S. Cuyler and Tynge and will be in operation each evening this week. It was announced today by Mrs. H. H. Hahn, president of the Pampa League of Women Voters.

The booth will be open from 5 to 9 p. m. each day this week through Saturday for the benefit of employed persons who do not leave their jobs before 5 p. m. Members of the league will operate the booth.

Picked Wrong Car

Five minutes later two patrolmen spotted him driving an unmarked police car.

Mrs. Bertram had been a resident of Higgins for 39 years. She is survived by three sons, Roy Bertram of Elk Grove, Calif.; Bob and Rambert Bertram, both of Higgins; two daughters, Mrs. Treasie King of Vale, Ore., and Mrs. Clara Vanmeter of Pasadena, Calif.; three brothers, Ben Detrich of Ames, Kans.; Ben Detrich of Higgins; and Lambert Detrich of Santa Monica, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Annie Laymond of Concordia, Kans., and Mrs. Leda Beston of S. Observers List Objectives Of Each Of Big 4 Nations

Editor's Note: The United Press asked its staff of experts at the Berlin conference: "What does each of the Big Four nations hope to achieve at this meeting?" Four U.P. correspondents, each an expert of the nation he discusses, called the following replies from Berlin:

RUSSIA

By HENRY SHAPIRO

U.P. Moscow Bureau Manager

The primary Russian objective seems to be to neutralize Germany and keep it disarmed. This should be accompanied, the Soviet believes, by unification of East and West Germany. But they picture the unifying instrument as a provisional government consisting of representatives from the two existing German parliaments. They want this provisional government then to carry out all-German elections without international control or supervision.

But the Soviet delegation is realistic and probably is not hoping seriously that the West will agree to these things. So while pressing for these objectives, Foreign Minister Molotov also will be considering more realistic possibilities.

Thus he undoubtedly is considering measures to prevent, or at least postpone, French ratification of the European defense community treaty.

THE UNITED STATES

By ROGER TATARIAN

U.P. European News Manager

What the United States wants (but does not seriously hope to get) is an agreement for the democratic unification of Germany and completion of the Austrian peace treaty. Russia's terms for German unification have heretofore proved unacceptable to the United States and her Allies. Only one thing has happened since the foreign ministers last met almost five years ago to suggest there might be some change in the Russian position — the death of Josef Stalin.

The United States policy on German unification is, first, free elections in both halves of Germany, and then formation of a government on the basis of those elections. The Russians first want to see formation of a provisional all-German government which in turn would arrange the elections. They want East and West Germany to have equal representation in the provisional government, despite the fact there are three persons in West Germany for every one person in East Germany. Moreover, the Russians want to make it sure that a unified Germany would have no part of NATO or the European Army. The United States insists that a free and sovereign Germany must be allowed to pick her own friends. Although not as firmly committed to the idea as Britain, the United States is also prepared to discuss the question of giving Russia some security guarantees against aggression. Where American policy differs greatest from that of her Allies is on the question of a five power conference with Red China. The United States is firmly opposed even to considering the idea until the Korean question is settled. If Russia keeps insisting at this conference that the Chinese question be placed on the agenda, the talks are doomed from the start. The truth is that the United States expects no miracles. But it has come here to negotiate in the hope that if the talks do fail, the free world will become convinced that there is still little prospect of ending the cold war and that the West must therefore proceed to such vital projects as NATO and the European army.

FRANCE

By EDWARD M. KORRY

U.P. Manager for France

France is torn by conflicting emotions. The government wants to stand fast with the Atlantic defense idea, but Frenchmen fear aggression from a Germany rearmament by West.

The government wants to avoid capitalizing in its war against communism in Indo-China, but the home front wants a quick end to it. The government fears any new war would be fought on French soil. It thinks there is a chance to get the Red army to pull back closer to its own frontier, but it is unwilling to purchase that at the price of United States withdrawal from Western Europe. On the other hand there is an ever increasing feeling among the French public that France can play "neutral."

Exchange Student Gives WD Speech

WHITE DEER — (Special) — Mildred Bennett, an International Farm Youth Exchange student to Germany, spoke to history students at White Deer recently concerning her work.

The IFYE is a project through which selected farm youth from the states may live and work with families of other countries for a period of 4-6 months. The project is dedicated to the belief that understanding is the foundation of world peace. The program calls for delegates to share experiences with other youth groups, rural organizations, and civic organizations. It is conducted by the National 4-H Club Foundation, the Cooperative Extension Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the Land Grant Colleges. There were 42 countries participating in the 1953 exchange.

Miss Bennett has lived with three families in Germany.

Moreover, the Russians want to make it sure that a unified Germany would have no part of NATO or the European Army. The United States insists that a free and sovereign Germany must be allowed to pick her own friends. Although not as firmly committed to the idea as Britain, the United States is also prepared to discuss the question of giving Russia some security guarantees against aggression. Where American policy differs greatest from that of her Allies is on the question of a five power conference with Red China. The United States is firmly opposed even to considering the idea until the Korean question is settled. If Russia keeps insisting at this conference that the Chinese question be placed on the agenda, the talks are doomed from the start. The truth is that the United States expects no miracles. But it has come here to negotiate in the hope that if the talks do fail, the free world will become convinced that there is still little prospect of ending the cold war and that the West must therefore proceed to such vital projects as NATO and the European army.

FRANCE

By EDWARD M. KORRY

U.P. Manager for France

France is torn by conflicting emotions. The government wants to stand fast with the Atlantic defense idea, but Frenchmen fear aggression from a Germany rearmament by West.

The government wants to avoid capitalizing in its war against communism in Indo-China, but the home front wants a quick end to it. The government fears any new war would be fought on French soil. It thinks there is a chance to get the Red army to pull back closer to its own frontier, but it is unwilling to purchase that at the price of United States withdrawal from Western Europe. On the other hand there is an ever increasing feeling among the French public that France can play "neutral."

Exchange Student Gives WD Speech

WHITE DEER — (Special) — Mildred Bennett, an International Farm Youth Exchange student to Germany, spoke to history students at White Deer recently concerning her work.

The IFYE is a project through which selected farm youth from the states may live and work with families of other countries for a period of 4-6 months. The project is dedicated to the belief that understanding is the foundation of world peace. The program calls for delegates to share experiences with other youth groups, rural organizations, and civic organizations. It is conducted by the National 4-H Club Foundation, the Cooperative Extension Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the Land Grant Colleges. There were 42 countries participating in the 1953 exchange.

Miss Bennett has lived with three families in Germany.

Board Meet Delayed

The Pampa school board meeting regularly scheduled for 7:30 p. m. today in the office of School Business Manager Roy McMillen has been postponed, according to Schools Superintendent Knox Kizarski who did not know when the next session would be held.

Stars and Stripes

MONTE L. PHILLIPS WILLIAM D. PHILLIPS

Monte and William Phillips, sons of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Phillips, 245 N. Sumner, arrived in Pampa Wednesday for 30-day leave after completing a six months' tour of duty in the Far East on board the aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge.

Although the boys joined the Navy at different times, they have been together most of their time of service. Billy enlisted in Aug. 1951 and Monte in Jan. 1952. Both received their boot training at San Diego, Calif., and were stationed together at North Island Naval Base, Calif., prior to going overseas.

During the ship's tour of duty in the Far East, it visited the British Crown Colony of Hong Kong, the Philippines, Japan and Hawaii. In Japan, the crew was able to visit Tokyo, Kamakura (noted for its shrines and great Buddha) Yokohama and Yokosuka. Various rest camps in the mountains around the famous Mt. Fuji and on the outskirts of Tokyo were also available to the crew.

The Kearsarge arrived in the Far East shortly after the Korean armistice and operated off the coast of Korea and in the East China Sea carrying on a training and combat readiness program with the 7th Fleet's Task Force 77.

Billy Phillips' wife and two-year-old son, Dale, live in Pampa with his parents.

TMTS Has New Officer Slate

The Texas Medical Technological Society, a group comprised of X-ray and laboratory technicians mainly from Pampa, Borger and Amarillo, has a new slate of officers.

Only one Pampian, however, is on the list. She is Miss Ellen Haley, secretary.

Other officers of the group for 1954 are Robert Burnett, Amarillo, president; Kenton Ring, Borger, vice president; Miss Margaret Kelly, Amarillo, treasurer; and Mrs. Kathryn Conners, Borger, corresponding secretary, according to Emmett H. (Red) Mays, former secretary.

There are an estimated 30 technicians in the society formed more than a year ago in Pampa, Mays pointed out.

At TMTS's January meeting, held in Borger, two physicians and a registered nurse were on hand. Mays continued, for a discussion of "The Relationship Between Doctors, Registered Nurses and Technicians." It was an open forum and concerned the complaints, idiosyncrasies and faults of those three groups.

Next meeting of the organization is scheduled for Feb. 4 in Amarillo.

Franks Transfers To Pampa's Guard

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Capt. O. B. Franks is being transferred from the National Guard Unit in Shamrock to Battalion Headquarters Staff, Pampa. He will be Operations and Training officer, Battalion S-3. Since Dec. 1 he has been serving the dual roles of Bn. S-3 and Battery C command officer in Shamrock.

Capt. Franks will continue to live in Shamrock, attending drill with the Headquarters unit at Pampa, on Wednesday nights.

Captain Grady M. Roberts, a representative of the U.S. Property and Disbursing Office, was present Monday and Tuesday with the local National Guard Unit for the purpose of taking annual inventory and to transfer the property of the unit from the command of Captain O. B. Franks to Lieutenant Bobby Puroell.

Lt. Bobby Puroell was assigned Battery Commander of Battery C, the local unit, effective January 19. A capable officer, Lieut. Puroell commanded the unit last summer while Captain Franks attended the Artillery Officers Course at Fort Sill, Okla.

Lawyer 50 Years, Lady Judge Cites Business Woman's Advance

By MARY KAY FLYNN
NEA Staff Correspondent
KANSAS CITY, Mo. — When she got her law degree 50 years ago, Tiera Farrow was fired with ambition to "save the world — especially the women."

Faced with professional realities, she soon realized it was more than a one-woman job. So she settled down to a half century of dignified campaigning, the zenith of her efforts being her first book, "Lawyer in Petticoats," just published.

Career women will find encouragement in the book. And so will homemakers. Not a sedate professional journal, it's a warm, folksy account of the fortitude of a professional woman who pursued her vocation despite heartbreaks and staggering odds.

Miss Farrow's deep-rooted feeling for justice was stimulated to action by conditions in a Kansas City, Kans., grain office where she held her first job. She was chagrined by the fact that men in the office drew more money than she and that she would have been branded "immoral" if she rolled up her sleeves, as they did, during the summer heat.

Resolving to do something about such conditions, she started studying law after office hours. On graduation day she persuaded a boatman to row her across the swollen Kaw River from the Kansas side to the Missouri side at the height of a great flood so she could get her diploma along with 74 male members of the class of 1903 of the Kansas City School of Law.

After practicing law for a half century in "a man's world," the spunky, 73-year-old lawyer feels there still is much to be done to better woman's position in business.

"Women now go to work in summer without any sleeves in their dresses," she commented from her neat office in the City Hall here, "but too often men still outdraw them in salary and advantages in the same work."

Miss Farrow's decision to study law didn't spring solely from her belief that law would assist her in helping the cause of women. As a child, she would listen spellbound in her father's general store in Delphos, Kans., to the accounts of Lincoln from men who saw him. She greatly admired her father's world and when she moved with her parents and nine brothers and sisters to Garnett, Kans., spent

Irish Panhandlers Donate To Library

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The Panhandlers' Club met with Mrs. John Harvey for the annual Founder's Day meeting recently. Eight Charter members of the club were present. Mrs. Harvey was also hostess for the first meeting of the group when it was organized eleven years ago this January.

Mrs. Jesse Moore, president, presided over the business session. The club voted to give a book of interest to amateur authors to the Shamrock Library. Mrs. Harvey will act as chairman of the committee to choose the book.

Mrs. George Stanley was program leader for the afternoon. Outlines of stories now being written in the group were read.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Robert Trostle and her son, Mike.

In the past 11 years, Miss Farrow has combined her private law practice with the position of legal aid counselor for the Department of Welfare of Kansas City, Mo. She has handled 12,000 cases for the department.

A distinguished member of many legal, social and honorary organizations, she first came into the limelight when, still in her early twenties, she was elected City Treasurer of justice and compassion of Lincoln from men who saw him. She greatly admired her father's world and when she moved with her parents and nine brothers and sisters to Garnett, Kans., spent long hours after school listening to "legal talk" at the local courthouse. She dreamed of championing "justice for everybody."

She has handled 12,000 cases for the department.

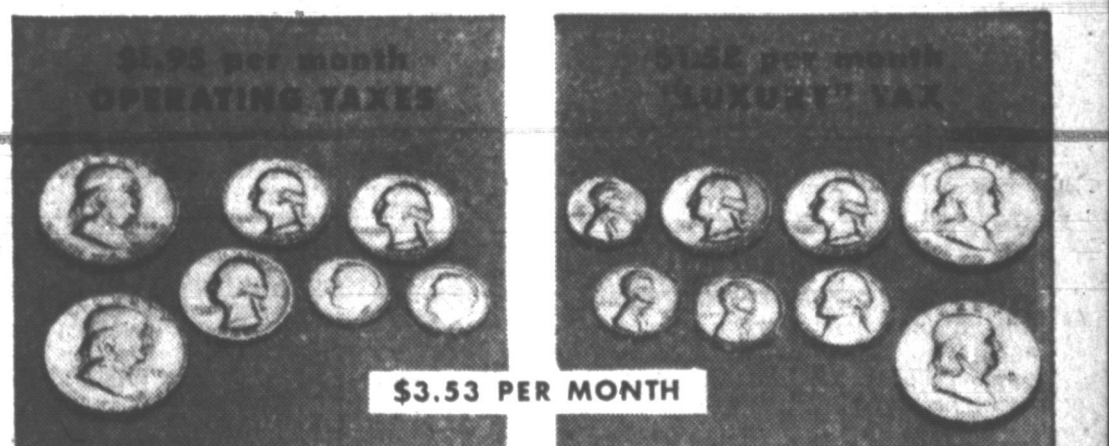

Lady lawyer: Tiera Farrow wanted to save the world, especially women.

Ever add up the TAXES you pay with your TELEPHONE bill?

YOU PAY $3.53 PER MONTH IN TAXES WITH THE AVERAGE TELEPHONE BILL

$3.53 PER MONTH

WHEN YOU PAY your telephone bill, here's the part that goes for the kind of taxes all businesses share — state, county, and city property taxes, income taxes, and other levies to support the cost of government. Last year, our total operating taxes in Texas amounted to $42,800,000, or $1.95 per telephone per month. Because these taxes are paid directly by the company, they are included in the basic price you pay for telephone service.

MOST PEOPLE THINK of telephone service as a necessity. Yet telephone service carries a Federal excise tax — in most cases a tax levied on "luxuries." This tax is levied directly against you — as a user of telephone service. The telephone company acts only as a collecting agent. Last year, Texans paid $34,700,000 in direct Federal taxes on telephone service, or $1.58 per month per telephone in Federal excise tax.

THE FEDERAL EXCISE TAX IS OVER AND ABOVE the rates you pay for telephone service. This wartime "luxury" tax adds 15 per cent to the cost of your local service and long distance calls under 25¢, and 25 per cent to long distance calls of 25¢ or more. When you subtract this tax from your bill and consider the real cost of telephone service alone, it is an even better bargain than you may have thought.

Schools Failing

American youth today are apt to graduate from public high schools lacking the "basic elements of a general education," writes Harold W. Dodds, the president of Princeton University, in the current issue of The American Magazine.

Because of this, Dodds adds, he would seriously consider sending a gifted son "TO A PRIVATE SECONDARY SCHOOL" even if it would, as in his case, involve "REAL FINANCIAL SACRIFICE."

Crediting the U. S. public high school system with being the first and greatest adventure in free education, he nevertheless declares that it is not good enough and that its weakness must not be glossed over.

Business leaders constantly tell him, President Dodds reports, that it is increasingly difficult to find young employees with a firm grasp on the "three R's" and he quotes one industrialist as pointing out that "basic knowledge" is vitally important since young people often end up in positions not anticipated in their school years.

With the enormous disadvantages public high schools face topped off by the fact that they must take all applicants, Dodds finds two glaring weaknesses: an assembly-line approach to education geared to slower students and a preoccupation with vocational subjects at the expense of basic subjects. In short, he writes, the average public high school student is not being taught how to think.

Private schools for the "gifted" child (and the "gifted" child is more common than we are led to believe) present distinct advantages, President Dodds tells readers of the American Magazine. Among them are smaller size, greater selectivity, and access to brilliant teachers lost to public schools because of formal teacher-training requirements.

If good public high schools are not available and if pressure cannot be brought to bear to make them better, President Dodds strongly advises consideration of a private school education.

So that more parents can send their children to private schools and thus bring about more competition in education we offer what we believe to be a step on the road to solving the problem of double taxation.

This can be done by the remission to parents of the taxes they are compelled to pay to support politically-controlled schools in an amount comparable to what they would pay for private schooling.

Frank Chodorov, editor of Human Events, has said: "The method of effecting this remission—whether by deductions from income taxes or allowances from local levies—is a technical matter. If the principle were established that a parent has the right to buy the education service he deems best for his child, the fiscal problem of tax remission could easily be solved."

Many legitimate objections to a compromise proposal could be brought up at this time. One of the main objections would be that people without any school-age children would still be forced to pay for government schools.

The tax-remission idea would merely be a step toward introducing competition in education. Instead of squeezing private schools out as is now being done, tax remission to parents would enable private schools to compete, though still not on an equal basis.

Government schools would still tax everybody through hidden taxes. Those parents receiving tax-remissions to pay private schools would still be compelled to pay hidden school taxes on everything they bought.

The advantage to this proposal, however, is that it would be a step in the right direction, toward that distant day when parents would be given complete freedom to choose the education they deemed best.

When that day comes competition would determine the survival of all schools. Those schools which lived up to the teaching standards set by the parents would continue to expand and increase to the benefit of everyone concerned.

Take Home Profit

Those people who still think that business keeps, as profit, a large part of the money it takes from its customers should be interested in a report by the American Economic Foundation showing what happens to the dollars we spend at retail.

Suppose you go into a store and buy $10.00 worth of goods. On the average, here's where the money goes:

Cost of the merchandise, with transportation, rent and other overhead expenses comes to $8.02. Wages and salaries account for $1.31. Taxes total 38 cents, and depreciation of physical equipment such as buildings and fixtures requires 7 cents. This leaves a mere 22 cents out of that $10.00 of yours—and that is the storekeeper's profit. Not all of this remains in the pockets of the owners. In typical large stores, for example, in a recent period, only 14 cents of it was paid out in dividends, the remaining 8 cents being reinvested in the business, to enable it to meet the competition and keep up with the march of progress.

One sure deduction can be made from these figures. If store owners earned no profit at all you, the consumer, would hardly notice the difference in the prices you pay for goods.

BETTER JOBS

"The Victory Of The Intellectual Proletariat (The Lowest Class) In Education"

Since I believe that our progress depends upon the kind of education our children and youth and adults get, and since I believe they are not getting an education that is in agreement with the moral principles of the Jewish and Christian religions and the Declaration of Independence, I want to reproduce a masterpiece on the subject from the January issue of Faith and Freedom magazine. It was written by George B. DeHuszar. The author of the article has taught in several universities and is the author or editor of 11 books published in the United States, Sweden, Austria, Brazil and Japan. The sub-heading of his article reads as follows:

"Is it merely coincidence that America's acquisitions of ersatz (substitute) education and culture occurred simultaneously with the decline of genuine liberalism? Does modern intellectualism handcuff the scholar of independent thought?"

At the beginning of the article the editor of Faith and Freedom makes the following comment:

"As the number and size of our educational institutions have increased, so have the controversies over their aims and methods and teachers. Some might say the chief issue is 'disciplined' education versus 'progressive' education. But here is one intellectual who sees the issue as between non-conformists and defenders of the status quo.

"In his debunking of modern pedagogy, this boldly speaking writer realizes his remarks may irritate many educators and graduates who feel they have profited from 'education.' But it is his hope that they will nevertheless be stirred into a critical reanalysis of the educational system, to the end that more young people will be taught to think for themselves in terms of values rather than in purely pragmatic terms."

From here on I am quoting from DeHuszar's article:

"A most tragic event occurred in the history of the United States when its people became enamored with 'education' and 'culture.' America as a pioneering and enterprising nation did not feel the need for such adornments. But when the pioneering days were over and the United States had achieved the greatest accumulation of worldly goods mankind ever witnessed, it wanted ornaments and wanted them fast. Behaving with all the characteristics of a nouveau riche in a large department store, America, through the actions of its rich men who created large universities and foundations, set about to acquire quickly 'education' and 'culture'—by buying them.

"In this process of purchasing fancy wares and fineries, the United States has accumulated the largest and gaudiest assortment of synthetic intellectual goods ever assembled anywhere in history. Nowhere on earth has there been so much money spent on 'education' and 'culture.' Yet the state of education and culture is still low. Matters Which Money Cannot Buy "It is inevitable that this should be the case, for though money is a very potent instrument, matters pertaining to the spirit and the mind cannot be purchased. No sum by itself, no matter how large, will ever bring into being a good teacher or an excellent book. The attainment of scholarship, and the search for truth in the humanities, are inexpensive and are not dependent on beautiful campuses, large grants, and elaborate projects.

"It is not a coincidence that America's acquisition of 'education' and 'culture' occurred simultaneously with the decline of genuine liberalism. For decades we have had with us an intellectual proletariat which has led in the promotion of 'education' and 'culture.' This proletariat has manifested little or none of the early American faith in a society composed of free individuals. While it professes allegiance to freedom and intellect, it is actually committed to the production of generations of pariahs who can be counted on to forever advance the cause of collectivism.

"This intellectual proletariat—speaking modern education—is not interested in truth about the world, but is concerned with changing the world. Marx was the one who originally contended that the proper task of philosophy is not to understand but to transform the world. He proposed to transform the world through the method of proletarian revolution; others who accept his basic premise of the necessity of changing the world are dedicated to his method or to such other methods as science, or social reform, or bigger and bigger education.

"The proletariat's naive idea of progress—a hangover from the nineteenth century which has been discredited by any person who has grasped what newspapers have been reporting for the last few decades—maintains that conditions are bound to be better tomorrow than they were yesterday, that we must effect changes and should adjust to them, and that certain principles have become outmoded and must be replaced by others. This notion of progress confuses change with improvement and does not concede the possibility that the new is not necessarily the better."

Members Of Congress Happy Over Prospects Of Pay Raise

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — Members of Congress are amazed and encouraged by the fact that the Presidential Commission's proposal to raise pay from $15,000 ($2,500 tax exempt) to $27,500 has provoked so little grumbling from those groups deriving from conditions over which they have only limited control. They do not have to stand up and be counted when the self-serving question arises.

Although increased living costs and taxes have hit them as hard as workers and farmers, for Washington is an expensive place to live, those groups derive from conditions over which they have only limited control. They do not have to stand up and be counted when the self-serving question arises.

MAXIMUM APPEARS TO BE $22,500 — As of today the figure most frequently mentioned as a maximum appears to be $22,500, with the total subject to taxation. Depending on the circumstances of the recipient—dependents, contributions, other tax payments, business expenses—it is estimated that the net return will hold down to about $15,000, far less than many business executives receive.

That sum is not regarded as excessive, in view of the variety of expenditures which do not burden the nonpolitical citizen. A member must maintain two homes the year around, pay out heavy transportation costs for periodical and essential trips to his state or district, contribute heavily to party and personal campaigns, entertain constituents visiting the Capitol, and generally live more handsomely because of the office he holds.

He must also welcome each birth and commiserate over each death with appropriate messages. And it will not hurt his future prospects, if he brightens wedding anniversaries, the major holidays and family reunions with a letter to the effect that he would be only too happy to celebrate with them, if it were not for "the pressure of public business."

CHIEF WOE — No member will toll his secret financial woes, if he knows what is politically good for him. For it happens to be the entertainment of visitors from home, including utter strangers, the demands which they make on the

The Doctor Says

By EDWIN J. JORDAN, M. D.

The thyroid gland which lies at the base of the neck is one of the most important glands of internal secretion. It produces a hormone which influences the general health, the rate of growth, the speed of the heart, and many other functions of the human body. The best-known difficulty with this gland is goiter.

When the thyroid falls entirely to manufacture its hormone in infancy or early childhood, the result is known as cretinism. An untreated cretin does not grow normally and is seriously underdeveloped. If the diagnosis of this condition can be made early enough, thyroid extract obtained from the glands of animals can be given as a substitute for the normal hormone. Cretinism is rare in most parts of the world.

A complete absence of the formation of the thyroid hormone in groupings results in a condition known as myxedema which is also not common. In myxedema the hair becomes thin, coarse and loses its sheen. The skin also gets thick and dry. The pulse is slow and there is a peculiar appearance as though there were fluid underneath the skin. The basal metabolism of a patient with myxedema is generally around minus 40. Anemia is almost always present, and there are other symptoms as a rule.

TREATMENT POSSIBLE
Myxedema symptoms can be completely relieved simply by giving the right dose of thyroid tablets by mouth. It is true that this treatment has to be kept up indefinitely, but it is painless, not expensive, and completely relieves the many symptoms.

Fair Enough... Trujillo's Anti-Commie Fight Receives A Bad Press In U. S.

By WESTBROOK FEGLER

(Copyright, 1954, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)
Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic — Rafael L. Trujillo is one of the great men of his time in the Western Hemisphere. Nevertheless, because he is aggressively anti-Communist, he has had a very bad press in the United States, which put him at a great disadvantage in his struggle to pull up his republic by its bootstraps.

Just before I left Brooklyn on the freighter Frances of the Bull Line I had a matter to take up with Robert Moses, another great achiever of the period, and when I told him I was coming here, he said: "That Trujillo has done wonderful things down there. When I was in Ciudad Trujillo he said he wished I could stay there and help on the public works of his administration. But then he said 'But there is only one job big enough for you and that is mine and of course that would never do.'"

Trujillo's picture and his wife's appear in the news papers of Ciudad Trujillo many times a week. He is constantly quoted on this and that and is almost invariably referred to as the generalissimo or the benefactor of the republic, or both. The title of generalissimo of this diminutive army is so grandiose that, in the mind of a continental American, it more than frustrates itself. That, however, is only a naive foible at worst, and there is absolutely no doubt that he is a benefactor of the republic. He took office after he had a hundred years' broke, disorderly and largely illiterate, barefoot nation in 1930 and within a few weeks the great hurricane demolished the capital city. There were 6,000 dead and 25,000 injured amid the ruins.

Mr. Moses has been the author of many monumental public works, but there has been a very important difference in their situations. Moses was not the governing authority but, in a manner of speaking, an employee hired by government to get things done. He has had no personal or political responsibility for raising the money. It was laid down for him to spend. Trujillo, on the other hand, had to pay off a colossal heritage of debt amassed by many short-time political adventurers over a hundred years. He had to defend his country from invasion and raise the money by taxation to create a modern country out of a jungle which for 100 years had been ruled by anarchy as its political system and tormented by the hideous pagan rites of voodoo, a savage religion which, in the United States, has been laughed off as mere comic manifestations of superstition.

But is Trujillo laughable by the same standards that his American enemies apply to their own heroes? Franklin D. Roosevelt, the god of the Democratic faith which is now being fed to American children and young adults in the public educational system, lost few opportunities to refer to himself as the commander-in-chief. To be sure he was the C-in-C by law, but no other President, including those who had been soldiers, some of them in combat, ever was a guilty of the same vanity. And Roosevelt was a civilian all his life, who ducked his great chance to take a personal part in the First World War, preferring to serve as assistant secretary of the Navy under the political patronage of his mother.

Trujillo joined the Dominican National Guard created by the U. S. Marines during the occupation from 1918 to 1924 and won his commission as a lieutenant under Marine discipline. He later rose to the rank of commanding general of the Dominican Army. He was not a military adventurer but refused to order Dominican soldiers to fire on Dominican civilians in a revolution against a typical indolent, incompetent Latin-American president in February, 1930.

If the pictures of Mrs. Trujillo are often seen in the press there is a precedent most awkward for Roosevelt's rashly absent Trujillo's detractors in the mountain of idolatrous publicity for wife, who has never been elected to any public office, has run with the Reds by choice for 23 years, has exploited the presidency for while graft in a substantial amount and demurely accepted the honorific "First Lady of the Land" and even "First Lady of the World." There is no suggestion that Senora-Trujillo ever wrung a peso of personal profit out of her husband's election returns. The analogy goes much further and the further it goes the worse for those who compare Trujillo to Mussolini and Hitler.

If Trujillo manipulated matters so that his brother became president after he bowed out of the titular position, Roosevelt admittedly selected both Hubert H. Wallace and Harry Truman to the place of succession. And he not only planted his son, Jimmy, in a White House job at $10,000 a year and made him colonel of the U. S. Marines when he didn't even know how to salute, but boosted the best, reputation Elliott to the rank of brigadier-general and hatched up a legal swindle whereby Elliott ducked debts of about $300,000. The people paid the income taxes on those defaulted loans. There have been no comparable scandals in the Trujillo administration in the Dominican Republic.

Furthermore, at one time, Roosevelt had 12 relatives on the federal payroll, including one impetuous lady for whom he created a special post of interior decorator for our embassy abroad at $6,000 a year, which was appreciable money in those days before the New Deal inflation, plus expenses, and a de luxe status wherever she went. So Trujillo has nothing on Roosevelt in the matter of nepotism and his wife's conduct has been in comparably more dignified and scrupulous.

This is not the Anglo-Saxon United States but a Latin-American island of only 2,250,000 souls to many of whom the mysteries of reading and writing were not revealed until they were mature people. It is not for North Americans to ridicule them in any case, for they have many advantages over us including a strange capacity for happiness and friendship. They are absolutely indifferent to the color line between white, Negro and mixed breeds of white, Negro and Indian. If they acclaim Trujillo that is their privilege subject to no veto from those millions of Americans who groveled at the feet of Roosevelt.

Looking Sideways

By WHITNEY BOLTON

A man sat in Sardi's at lunch the other day and said out loud that he had a bright wife. He said she was bright, had ideas, was often helpful to him, but he did not believe that a man and his wife could work together for long without running into domestic trouble of a major nature.

"It just isn't in the cards," he said. "You think of something that sounds all right, maybe better than all right, and you tell it to her and she says: 'Ummm— I've never heard of it, though she had poured a pitcher of cold water over your head or she gets a plot notion and tells it to you and you say: 'It's a little tired, dear,' and she could cut your throat. It's dangerous.'"

This man is crazy and I don't need a psychiatrist to certify him as such. Let's go down a contemporary list without taking the trouble to dig back too far. George S. Kaufman has for years been one of the better playwrights in New York. He is married to Lucretia McGrath. Miss McGrath (who says it is pronounced McGraw) is an actress, but in the last two years has become a writer. They are working together on a musical called "Silk Stockings" and to date neither has slacked the other. It's unlikely that they will. Judith Anderson is in a play called "In the Summer House." It was written by Jane Bowles and has incidental music by her husband, Paul Bowles. It is conceivable that Mr. Bowles would think some bars of his music better than some of his wife's writing, or vice versa, but there is no evidence at all to support such a supposition. They seem to complement each other beautifully. Fay and Michael Kamm manage to write plays and important motion picture scripts together, and I have never seen Mrs. Kamm with a black eye or Mr. Kamm with a cut across his forehead or his throat.

Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne have been acting and starring together for 10 these many years and those who know the Lunts best say right out that they never have heard a cross word. Katharine Cornell and Guthrie McClintic have been a theater and private life association for years. Miss Cornell seems to get her acting done and Mr. McClintic seems to get his producing of plays done without any hearth-side mayhem. Florence Tyroner and the late Colin Clive wrote books, plays, Little Theater operas, children's works and all manner of typewriting endeavor without throwing stones or andirons at each other. One of their plays was the hit, "Harriet," and another was the almost-hit, "Strange Bedfellows."

Jean Kerr is a writer. She has written plays, sketches for revues and other good works. Her husband is Walter Kerr, a drama critic and sometimes stage director. They certainly appear devoted and they go about their jobs with no audible complaints from each other. Indeed, Mrs. Kerr has a play coming up which Mr. Kerr will direct. Now it is well known that a playwright and a director do not always see eye-to-eye, but I doubt that Mrs. Kerr will throw anything at her director during the process of staging the play and it is almost a sure-fire bet that Mr. Kerr will not snarl at the playwright during the same process.

The playwrighting team of Ruth and Augustus Goetz is noted for its domestic serenity and even during the throes of putting "The Heiress" together they never even wrinkled a brow or pulled the corners of their mouths down in a frown. Currently, they have done "The Immortalist." The Spewacks, Bella and Sam, are another theater and movie couple with typewriters and a happy home life. John Emery and Tamara Gevs manage to be happy though actors, and each encourages the other when they are working on separate endeavors. Les Harrison and Lili Palmer have not thus far come to know blows and it is doubtful they do, yet each has a strong, positive nature.

Fastest Five Journeys To Bigger Tomorrow Night

PHSians Seeking 45th Straight In Bulldog Tilt

The 44-game winning streak of the Lubbock Bulldogs will be in danger tomorrow night when Coach Clifton McNeely's team journey to Borger to take on their arch rivals, the Borger Bulldogs. Borger has won 20 of 21 games this season, the lone loss coming at the hands of Amarillo (65-57). Since the Harvesters are undefeated and since their 18-victim list this season includes Amarillo, they will be slight favorites to win tomorrow's game.

But, with the home court advantage, the Bulldogs won't be any pushover by any means. The Bulldogs feature a fire-brand of play which makes up for their shortage of height. The Harvesters and Bulldogs each racked up a pair of wins over the weekend over Odessa and Midland. Pampa downed Midland 70-52, and Odessa 48-32, while Borger downed Odessa 51-48, and Midland 77-63. All four games were played on the Odessa and Midland courts. Elsewhere in the district last week, Amarillo stayed close on the heels of the Harvesters with three wins. The Sandies opened with a 69-57 win over Lubbock Tuesday night at Amarillo and then closed out with a 44-52 win over San Angelo Friday night and a 60-41 triumph over Abilene Saturday night. All three games being played on the sandia court.

The three wins left the Sandies trailing the Harvesters by a half-game for the lead. Amarillo has now won six of seven games in conference play. Lubbock and Amarillo are the only teams in the district who have finished their first round of the double-round-robin 3-AA schedule. The Sandies and Westerners, who would have originally played this coming Tuesday, moved their game up a week to avoid conflicting with the regional Golden Gloves tournament which starts tomorrow night in Amarillo. Four other teams in the district will wind up their first round tomorrow night. While the Harvesters will be meeting Borger at Borger tomorrow, Abilene will be hosting San Angelo Tuesday night. Jimmy Bond continued to pace the Harvesters scorers, adding 39 points in the two games last week to boost his season total to 132 in 16 games, an average of 20 points per game. In conference play, Bond has made 144 points in six games for a 24-point average.

Following are the 1-AAAA standings and the Harvesters scorers for the season:

Layne In Comeback Attempt Tonight

NEW YORK, Jan. 25-UP—This week's parade of excellent fights will get off to a slam-bang start Monday night at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena, where heavy-weight Rex Lewis tries a comeback against Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson in a television 10-rounder. The Layne-Jackson bout will be an important and bruising brawl although it naturally lacks the attention commanded by light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore and Joey Maxim in the week's featured fight at Miami Wednesday night. Layne of Salt Lake City, who was a stand-out contender three years ago, hits the comeback trail Monday night after a disastrous campaign in 1933, when he lost four of his five bouts. He was outpointed by Edward Charles and Roland LaStarra and knocked out twice by Earl Walls, Canadian champ. His only victory was a fourth-round kayo over one Bill McClure.

Layne Favored
Because of those 1933 defeats, 25-year-old Layne was rated a 7 to 1 underdog against the somewhat obscure but very tough young Jackson of Brooklyn. In his two years of professional fighting, Jackson met no "big-namers," he lost only one of his 14 bouts. He dropped a decision to Burt Whithurst last year. Jackson's five victories in 1933 included wins over Joe Lindsay and Archie McBride. Meanwhile, 37-year-old Archie Moore was favored at 1 1/2 to keep his light-heavy crown Wednesday night in his third title fight with underdog Charles. The former champion Morris and 35-yr. H. Frazier, Saturday night.

No Let-Up Period Seen For Harvesters In Drive For Repeating As 1-4A Champs

BACK TO THE OFFICE AFTER a week's vacation, we see the Harvesters continuing their winning ways during our absence. It's good to know that the Green and Golds can keep on winning even if we aren't around. We sincerely hope we don't "mix 'em tomorrow night when they after their 48th straight triumph. Borger, it looks like, is the best chance of knocking off the Harvesters fans will have to take in the Borger game via radio report tomorrow night since the tickets allotted to Pampa won't near take care of what is needed. However, according to the school business office this morning, about 90 tickets remain for the Borger clash. So there may still be time for you to pick up a ticket to the Borger game tomorrow morning if you hurry down to the business office in the City Hall.

This is going to be a busy week for the Harvesters. After tomorrow's Borger tilt, the PHSians will come home to face the Abilene Eagles Friday night and the San Angelo Bobcats Saturday night. The games this weekend will start the second round of the double-round-robin District 1-AAAA schedule as tomorrow's game at Borger winds up the first round. The Harvesters won't be able to rest easy anytime during the conference race. Their last three

Littler Wins S-Diego Open

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif., Jan. 25-UP—Youthful amateur Gene Littler, who won the $15,000 San Diego Open golf tournament, said Monday that winning the National Amateur was a greater thrill. "I think it was a greater thrill to win the National Amateur championship than the Open," the 23-year-old Navy man said, "although playing with the professionals is a really wonderful. They play a much faster pace."

Rawls Wins Tampa Tourney With 311

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 25-UP—Betzy Rawls is one golfer who can spot her rivals a bad round and still win most tournaments. The National Women's Open champion from Spartanburg, S.C., took an 83, eight strokes over par, in Monday's final round of the Tampa Open at the Ritz golf course. Heat or altitude don't stop the Globetrotters. In Guayaquil, Ecuador, they played in 95 degree temperature 2,000 feet above sea level. The following night they played 9,000 feet above sea level in Quito, Ecuador, in 45 degree temperature. Playing in Hong Kong, China before 14,000, the Globetrotters were bewondered by the hissing of the fans, especially as they thought they had been puding on a splendid exhibition. Abe Saperstein, who had been coaching the Globetrotters since 1948, and as a result, Larry Doby became the first Negro player in the American League and ahead of Patsy Berg of West Chicago, Ill. Miss Riley trailed Miss Rawls by three strokes going in the final round, but also soared well beyond par figures as she finished with an 82. Miss Stewart, meanwhile, turned in one of the best closing rounds as she climbed from sixth place with a 77 — only two strokes over women's par. Defending champion Louise Suggs of Atlanta and Betty Dodd of Tampa were bracketed at 315, while Babe Didrikson Zaharias finished with a 318 — five strokes back of the winner.

Everybody Can Bowl

(Seventh of 12 articles written for NEA Service)
By MARION LADEWIG
Four-Time Women's Champion
Most bowlers want to throw a hook. Even if they don't score well, they are happy if they can develop an impressive hook. Actually, unless you bowl more than once a week, you shouldn't develop a hook because you'll find it very difficult to control. If just learning, you should concentrate on throwing a straight ball from the corner for the 1-3 pocket. After you've mastered the straight ball, you can experiment with the hook. The best time to develop such a delivery, of course, is in open play. Finger action at the time of delivery is what causes the ball to hook. As you deliver the ball at the foul line, the thumb comes out of the ball first. The fingers come out last. Because you release the ball on the upswing, the fingers impart a slight lifting motion to the ball as they leave. It is this motion which causes the ball to hook toward the center of the alley and into the pocket. Most experts agree that the hook is the best delivery for scoring well under different types of conditions. It generally gets the best pin action.

K-City 5 Close Resemblance Of Harlem Globe-Trotters

If one gets the impression the flashy Kansas City Stars basketball team, which meets the House of David in Harvester Fieldhouse Wednesday night, looks a great deal like the famous Harlem Globetrotters in action, there's good reason for the close resemblance. The Stars are, and have been for almost a decade, owned and operated by the Harlem Globetrotters management as the No. 1 farm club for the fabulous team.

G-Trotter Dots-Dashes

Both in 1952 and 1953 the Harlem Globetrotters were received by Pope Pius XII. At the request of His Holiness, they staged an impromptu exhibition of ballhandling in his presence that delighted him greatly. The Harlem Globetrotters' first playing date was at Hinckley, Ill. Heat or altitude don't stop the Globetrotters. In Guayaquil, Ecuador, they played in 95 degree temperature 2,000 feet above sea level. The following night they played 9,000 feet above sea level in Quito, Ecuador, in 45 degree temperature.

Mid-Term Exams Slow TC Action

Texas Conference basketball teams take time out from conference warfare again this week to meet teams from the Southwest, Lone Star and Gulf Coast Conferences in four non-league games. Abilene Christian, which has won two games in 14 starts this year, meets Texas Christian at Abilene Monday night. The Wildcats will be seeking their first win in 11 starts against the Horned Frogs. Howard Payne entertains Sam Houston State at Brownwood Tuesday night and goes for its second victory of the season over Midwestern Friday night, also at Brownwood. Texas A&I, still leading the conference with two victories without defeat, takes on Pan-American College Saturday at Kingsville. Pan American defeated the Javelinas 60 to 52 earlier in the season. McMurry, the No. 2 team in the loop in conference play, is idle for the second straight week. Howard Payne lost to Hardin-Simmons 72 to 62 in the only game involving a conference team last week.

Nation's 4 Undeclared 5s Face Tough Foes This Week

By JOHN GRIFFIN
NEW YORK, Jan. 25-UP—Three of the nation's four major unbeaten basketball teams face challenges to their perfect records this week and trouble also lies ahead for the leaders of four of the biggest conferences. This week's court program is a comparatively slim one, due to term examinations, and Connecticut (14-0) is among those teams kept idle. But Duquesne (18-0) must put its record on the line twice, against Georgetown (D.C.) on Wednesday night in Pittsburgh and against St. Bonaventure in Buffalo, N.Y., Saturday. Kentucky (12-0) must tangle with Vanderbilt Saturday and St. Louis, third at 2-1, meets Tulsa Saturday. This week's games also will affect first place in the Southeastern, Skyline, and Pacific Coast Conferences. Louisiana State, defending its SEC title with a 4-0 record, plays Mississippi State on Saturday and Kentucky, 3-0, meets Vanderbilt the same night. The situation in the Southern Division of the PCC won't change, because California (4-0) and Southern California (2-2) both play only

Leading Tech, Buff 5s Idle This Week

By UNITED PRESS
The top rung of the Border Conference basketball standings this week since the co-leaders — Texas Tech and West Texas — skip conference play in deference to examinations. West Texas gets in one game against outstate Midwestern at Canyon Wednesday night — but Tech will stay off the court entirely as the two clubs nurse impressive 4-0 league records. Only two loop games are on tap with Temple State's capless Sun Devils figuring in both — against Texas Western at El Paso Friday night and against the New Mexico Aggies at Las Cruces Saturday night. Hardin-Simmons tests Texas Wesleyan at Fort Worth Saturday night, the only other game on the slate. Both Tech and West Texas added to their leads last week as Tech bumped Hardin-Simmons 78 to 66 and the Buffs trimmed New Mexico 87 to 60. Arizona also won a league game, trouncing Tempe 79 to 65, while HSU beat Howard Payne 72 to 62 in a non-conference affair. Tech's potent sophomore-studded club, boasting a 15-2 season record, has averaged 82.3 points per game in league play and 78.7 over the full season.

Irish Deny Tieup With Sugar Bowl

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 25-UP—Notre Dame officials denied a report in the Atlanta Constitution Monday that the school was on the verge of signing an agreement to play in the Sugar Bowl football game annually. Bishop's sports editor of the Constitution, said that a "consistently reliable" source told the paper that the New Orleans Mid-Winter Sports Association has offered Notre Dame a five-to-10-year contract to appear in the Sugar Bowl game. Bishop's dispatch added that Notre Dame officials, according to the source, were "leaning toward acceptance."

Olson Confident In Gavilan Bout

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25-UP—Midweight Carl Olson is confident he will win the title when he fights Kid Gavilan April 2 because "being champion gives me more confidence and makes fighting easier." Olson, whose next outing will be the title defense against the well-known champion, says he is confident of his victory Saturday night by knocking out tough Joey Rindone of Boston in the fifth round of a non-title fight. The champion looked better than ever in the nationally televised bout at his way to the Easterner for the full count with a series of rights and lefts at 2:04 of the fifth. The only other person to belt Rindone out for the count was former middleweight champ Ray Robinson. A crowd of approximately 7,500 paid $27,970 to see the Hawaiian rival defeat against them and succeed in winning the title from Randy Turpin last October. Olson weighed 165 pounds for the contest and Aindone 163 1/2.

New Penn Coach To Employ Style Used At Michigan State

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25-UP—New football Coach Steve Sebo laid plans Monday to trade in the single-wing attack-long used by Pennsylvania's Quakers for the "picky, complex attack he taught at Michigan State's flashy backfields. Sebo, backfield coach of Michigan State's Rose Bowl champions, was signed to a three-year contract as Penn's head coach Saturday after the university had considered about 80 candidates to succeed retiring Coach George (Red) Munger. Sebo still has to find a home here. And he'll have to study films and confer with Munger to find out what kind of material he'll have to work with in the 1954 season. And he realizes he must work under the Ivy League limitation of no spring training. But he already has begun laying plans for installing a Spartan-type attack at Franklin Field. "We'll use the unbalanced line (which Penn used under Munger)," said Sebo. "And there will be a variation of the T, single wing, double wing, and winged T. We'll split a lot."

Teams Play Saturday SMU-TCU Tilt Only Loop Game In SWC

The Southwest Conference basketball championship race sputters to a virtual standstill this week with only one title game on the schedule in which Southern Methodist will attempt to climb back into undisputed second place. Mid-term examinations, which have kept the top clubs idle for three weeks, are still making themselves felt, but there will be four non-league contests on tap as pace-setting Texas, defending champion Texas Christian, Baylor and Arkansas keep in trim. Arizona also won a league game, trouncing Tempe 79 to 65, while HSU beat Howard Payne 72 to 62 in a non-conference affair. Tech's potent sophomore-studded club, boasting a 15-2 season record, has averaged 82.3 points per game in league play and 78.7 over the full season.

Grapefruit Loop To Open March 6

NEW YORK, Jan. 25-UP—The 18 major league clubs will play 27 exhibition games this spring opening the "grapefruit circuit" season, March 6 and closing it April 12, it was announced Tuesday. American and National League clubs will engage in 182 inter-league contests. Apart from those games, American League clubs will play 28 intra-league games and 15 contests with minor league teams. National League clubs have scheduled 41 additional games, virtually all against each other. Twelve big league clubs will be situated in Florida this spring and the other four in Arizona. No teams will train in California this year for the first time since 1945 but the four teams training in Arizona, plus the St. Louis Cardinals, who will fly from St. Petersburg, Fla., are scheduled to travel to California for exhibition games.

REFeree Olson Confident In Gavilan Bout

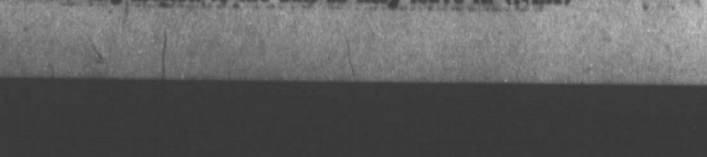

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25-UP—Midweight Carl Olson is confident he will win the title when he fights Kid Gavilan April 2 because "being champion gives me more confidence and makes fighting easier." Olson, whose next outing will be the title defense against the well-known champion, says he is confident of his victory Saturday night by knocking out tough Joey Rindone of Boston in the fifth round of a non-title fight. The champion looked better than ever in the nationally televised bout at his way to the Easterner for the full count with a series of rights and lefts at 2:04 of the fifth. The only other person to belt Rindone out for the count was former middleweight champ Ray Robinson. A crowd of approximately 7,500 paid $27,970 to see the Hawaiian rival defeat against them and succeed in winning the title from Randy Turpin last October. Olson weighed 165 pounds for the contest and Aindone 163 1/2.

New Penn Coach To Employ Style Used At Michigan State

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25-UP—New football Coach Steve Sebo laid plans Monday to trade in the single-wing attack-long used by Pennsylvania's Quakers for the "picky, complex attack he taught at Michigan State's flashy backfields. Sebo, backfield coach of Michigan State's Rose Bowl champions, was signed to a three-year contract as Penn's head coach Saturday after the university had considered about 80 candidates to succeed retiring Coach George (Red) Munger. Sebo still has to find a home here. And he'll have to study films and confer with Munger to find out what kind of material he'll have to work with in the 1954 season. And he realizes he must work under the Ivy League limitation of no spring training. But he already has begun laying plans for installing a Spartan-type attack at Franklin Field. "We'll use the unbalanced line (which Penn used under Munger)," said Sebo. "And there will be a variation of the T, single wing, double wing, and winged T. We'll split a lot."

Nation's 4 Undeclared 5s Face Tough Foes This Week

By JOHN GRIFFIN
NEW YORK, Jan. 25-UP—Three of the nation's four major unbeaten basketball teams face challenges to their perfect records this week and trouble also lies ahead for the leaders of four of the biggest conferences. This week's court program is a comparatively slim one, due to term examinations, and Connecticut (14-0) is among those teams kept idle. But Duquesne (18-0) must put its record on the line twice, against Georgetown (D.C.) on Wednesday night in Pittsburgh and against St. Bonaventure in Buffalo, N.Y., Saturday. Kentucky (12-0) must tangle with Vanderbilt Saturday and St. Louis, third at 2-1, meets Tulsa Saturday. This week's games also will affect first place in the Southeastern, Skyline, and Pacific Coast Conferences. Louisiana State, defending its SEC title with a 4-0 record, plays Mississippi State on Saturday and Kentucky, 3-0, meets Vanderbilt the same night. The situation in the Southern Division of the PCC won't change, because California (4-0) and Southern California (2-2) both play only

SOMETHING THAT I HATE FOR SALE MAY INTEREST A BUNNY MAN LIKE YOU, SIR... HAVE YOU EVER GIVEN A THOUGHT TO FERMONTATION?

ONLY WHEN IT FALLS ON A SUNDAY.

NOW I GOT A LITTLE SACKAWAS INSURANCE POLICY HERE... 50 CENTS TOMORROW, AT THE CRANK OF DAWN, YOU GOTTA BIT UP AN' GO TO WORK... OOH...!

YOU GOT A WIFE AN' NINETEEN CHILLUN' ALL A RELAYIN' AN' A SPECKLE DOG TO SUPPORT... BUT WHEN THE ALARM GOES OFF THERE YOU R... SUGK!

OOH... YOU AIN'T FOOLIN'!

YOU IS MORTAL, ALL! GOTTA STAY IN BED FOR THE REST OF YO' ANNUAL-BORN LIFE... NEVER DO A STROKE OF WORK ASIN.

SEE, THAT'S BETTER... FOR A MINUTE YOU HAD ME WORRIED.

The Jackson Twins

LOOK AT JILL GO!

FUNNY HOW SHE'S SUCH A GOOD SWIMMER! IT'S ONE OF THE FEW PLACES WHERE THE TWINS AREN'T OPPOSITES!

JAN'S NOISY AND SCATTER-BRAINED WHILE JILL'S QUIET AND RESPONSIBLE. JAN BURNS THE PARTY WHILE JILL BAKES THE CAKES.

JAN'S AN ALL-ROUND ATHLETE AND JILL ISN'T TOO GOOD AT SPORTS EXCEPT WHEN IT COMES TO SWIMMING. THE TWINS DON'T BALANCE!

THERE, JILL, REALLY SHINES!

THAT WAS YOUR BEST TIME YET, JILL. DO THAT NEXT WEEK AND MAYBE WE'LL QUALIFY FOR... FOR SOMETHING BIG?

Blondie

I'VE GOT A NEW BABY BROTHER, MR. BUMSTEAD.

THAT'S FINE, ELMO.

I THINK THEY SLIPPED SOMETHING OVER ON MY MOTHER AND FATHER.

THE BABY IS WRINKLED AND TOOTHLESS AND BALD.

WHAT'S SO TERRIBLE ABOUT THAT?

WHY DIDN'T THEY GET A NEW ONE?

Alley Oop

BELIEVE ME, MOOVAN, THIS HAS BEEN A GLORIOUS DAY FOR BRITAIN! METHANS THE NORMAN WILL LONG REMEMBER THIS DAY AT HASTINGS HILL!

WE'VE DONE AWRIGHT GO FAR, BUT... STOP TAKIN' OFF YOUR HELMET, Y'WANTA GET ONE IN TH' EYE? THIS DAY'S NOT OVER YET!

SO THE DUKE THINKS TO RIDE US DOWN WITH THE FLOWER OF HIS CAVALRY, EH?

THERE, YSEE WHAT I MEANT!

Bo

SEE NAME, BO WE MUST BE CUT OFF OUR FOOD—I CAN'T FIND ANY.

I DON'T MIND BOYS TO THE STOOD, MUM—ADNESS.

BUT IT'S GOLD OUT AND I CAN COOK UP SOMETHING FOR BO.

COME ON, BO, YOU'RE GONNA GET SOMETHING TO EAT FOR YOU.

WHAT A BOY WOULD DO FOR A DOG—NOW I TO ASKED HIM TO GET SOMETHING FOR OUR DINNER, MUM!

Buzz Sawyer

YOU MEAN ABOUT HIS TAKING UP AN UNIDENTIFIED PASSENGER LAST NIGHT?

YES, I WONDER IF I WAS WISE IN NOT CALLING A BOARD OF INVESTIGATION.

SAWYER'S OKAY.

SOME OF THE BOYS ARE COMING OVER FOR DINNER TONIGHT, BUZ. I HOPE YOU AND MRS. SAWYER CAN JOIN US.

THANK YOU, COMMANDER.

WELL, I'LL BE! WHAT'S COME OVER THE SHIPPER?

HE INVITED SAWYER TO DINNER.

HE EVEN CALLED HIM BUZ.

Chris Walkin

THE OLD SPACE PLATFORM HAS BEEN TOWED BACK TO ITS FORMER ORBIT...

ON VENUS, MAN METEOR PRAZ, LATELY OF EARTH, HAS BECOME A MISSIONARY OF WRESTLING SKILL.

I'VE MET MOST OF THE LEADIN' WRESTLERS ON EARTH AND FINED A FEW OF 'EM—I OUGHTA BE A BIG ATTRACTION HERE!

BUT I BEEN DRIVIN' ALL DAY, AND I STILL GOTTA SEE A TOWN WITH A RASPIN' CAN IN IT!

Mutt & Jeff

WELL, GET SET FOR YOUR NIGHTLY BEDTIME STORY, CIGERO!

LET'S SKIP IT TONIGHT, POP!

O.K.! WELL, THEN I'LL SING YOU A LULLABY!

NIX, POP! NOT THAT!

THEN WHAT CAN I DO FOR YOU, SON?

WELL, I'LL TELL YA, POP!

I'M TIRED TONIGHT! WHY DON'T YOU JUST GO AWAY AND LET ME SLEEP!

Bugs Bunny

I DID A SUPER JOB ON YER KNODDY PINE PANELING, IF I SAY SO MYSELF, BLAMEE!

IT LOOKS GWEAT!

I'LL SEND YA MY BILL TOMORROW!

VEVY WELL!

OH, NO?

Fred's Pop

HAZEL I HATE TO SEE YOU WORK SO HARD!

COME ON! WE'LL DO IT TOGETHER!

MY POP IS MOPPING UP THE FLOOR WITH A BRUSH, MOTHER!

OH, BRUTE!

SOMEONE OUGHT TO CALL THE POLICE!

WHAT HAPPENED?

MAN FROM THE INTERIOR MINISTRY WAS LANDIN' ON A SMALL AIRCRAFT...

THE BLOND YANKEE FILLED THE OFFICIAL AND THE PILOT FROM THE FIRE!

CANYON, EH? AN UNUSUAL NAME! HOW LONG HAS MR. CANYON WORKED FOR YOU, MAME, AULDOON?

I JUST ARRIVED, MR. MINISTER!... SIR, THE MEDIC SAYS YOU MAY BE MOVED...

... BUT THE PUBLIC HOSPITAL IS SO VERY CROWDED—PERHAPS MAME AULDOON WOULD LIKE YOU TO REST AT HIS VILLA WHILE ONE OF HER PILOTS FLYS TO YOUR HOME TO BRING YOUR WIFE TO BE AT YOUR SIDE!

WHY—AH—YES! YES, INDEED!

Vic Flint

A CON MAN AND HIS MOLL STAYED HERE—THEY HAD A ROY WITH THEM—AND AS BRINGS YOURS WEARING HIS MONEY CLOTHES, SHAKING DOLLAR COIN!

LOOK! L'L DOC, THAT'S MY UNCLE PETE THE PLUMBER!

IT'S MY UNCLE PETE THE PLUMBER!

WHAT A SILLY!

POOR, POOR UNCLE.

HE'S A CHAIN-SMOKER.

UNCLE TULLER.

Wash Tubbs

YOU SHOULD MAKE IT TO THE HIGHWAY WITH THOSE CHAINS ON, ANK, POPPER!

GOOD, LIL, I LOOK FOR YOU IN HOLLYWOOD SOON. I AM ANXIOUS THAT WALLY MICKLE SEE YOU!

WALLY MICKLE! GAW, HE'S THE BEST DIRECTOR IN PICTURES! TWO ACADEMY AWARDS—AND ONE OF 'EM FEW WHO NEVER TURNS OUT A BAD PICTURE!

YES, SOON WE START OUR FIRST PRODUCTION TOGETHER.

I'D LIKE TO MEET HIM. I WAS WITH HIS FATHER FOR SEVERAL DAYS JUST BEFORE HE WAS KILLED ON OKINAWA!

A GREAT ACTOR... IRVIN MICKLE, WALLY WORKS SHIPPED HIM, WELL, LOOK US UP WHEN YOU GET OUT TO THE COAST!

Boots

WENT IT SUPER? PAME AND JIM ARE IN LOVE! FALL OVER AGAIN!

EVERYTHING'S TURNED OUT JUZ' DANNY—'CEPT HAROLD IS WENT!

UH-H, YES! DORRY, I WANT TO TALK WITH YOU ABOUT—

I KNOW WHAT Y' MEAN BOO-AWW!

ROD, WUZIT WHAT DID YOU MEAN?

YOU KNOW, I'M NOT EXACTLY SURE!

Mickey Finn

WHEN DID THE GOVERNOR MAKE YOU THE OFFER, LOU?

THE DAY HE BROKE NINETY!

Y-YOU DIDN'T TELL HIM YOU'D TAKE IT, DID Y-YOU?

NO! I JUST SAID I'D THINK IT OVER!

LOOK, LOU! I-I DON'T CARE HOW MUCH HE SAID HE'D PAY YOU, I'LL—

HERE HE COMES, SHERIFF!

D-DON'T SAY ANY MORE ABOUT IT! IF HE ASKS YOU AGAIN, T-TELL HIM YOU STILL HAVEN'T MADE UP YOUR MIND!

OKAY!

Freckles

SO YOU'RE THE FAMOUS BAZOO BOTTS, THE GUY WITH THE PENETRATING VOICE PIPES?

WANNA MAKE SOMETHIN' OUT OF IT, FRECKLES?

OH, YEAH! THAT SCRATCH YOU CALL A VOICE COULDN'T BLOW ITS WAY THROUGH A SODA STRAW!

OH, NO?

Sassie Q. Smith

I GUESS IT'S SAFE TO GO DOWN NOW.

SEE, MOM, I FORGOT ALL ABOUT DOING THE DISHES!

Tornado Spotters Desired

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 — (AP) — Wanted immediately: Tornado spotters.

The Weather Bureau warned Saturday that the tornado season will start in a week, and advised cities and towns in the Rocky Mountain region to set up civilian warning systems, similar to those organized for spotting enemy aircraft.

The bureau said local communities should get everyone possible living to the southwest. West and Northwest to call immediately a warning center, such as the police station, when they spot a dark, rapidly spinning, funnel-shaped cloud extending toward the earth.

Such systems were a big factor in holding the loss of life to about 500 last year although there were more than 500 tornadoes.

Tornadoes occur every month but most frequently in the period Feb. 1 to July 1 — "the season."

The bureau also asked that its closest office be notified of tornadoes. The bureau gave seven safety rules for persons after they are warned of an approaching tornado:

1. If there is time, get in a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation.
2. If in open country, flee at right angles to tornado's path. If it is too late to get away, lie flat in a ditch or ravine.
3. If in a city or town, get inside a building, preferably a steel-reinforced one. In homes, the southwest corner of the lowest floor or in the basement is the safest place. Frame houses are much safer than brick or stone ones. Opening windows on north- and east-sides of houses will help reduce damage. Above all, stay away from windows.
4. If in schools, stay inside, away from windows, near an inside wall on a lower floor—but avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums—if it is a steel-reinforced building. If not reinforced, construction, get outside and into a storm shelter or ditch.
5. Factories should post their own lookouts and be prepared to shut off electrical circuits and fuel lines.
6. Keep calm.
7. Keep turned to local radio or television station for latest tornado advisories.

Not Contagious

CHICAGO, Jan. 25 — (UP) — Alderman Mathew W. Blumenthal rose with alarm at a council meeting discussing annexation of an unincorporated area.

"What's this contagious territory we are going to annex here?" he asked, pointing to a description of the area.

Alderman P. J. Cullerton assured him there were no epidemics in the area. It is "contagious" to the 19th ward, not "contagious," he explained.

Top O' Texas Realty Invites You To Stop In And Look Over Their Listings

One of the main assets of a good realty firm is service. Because service is important when you are dealing with so many people. They want courteous attention if they are interested in buying. And if they want to sell, they want it to be done efficiently and courteously.

Hoover Sees Too Many Of Bureaucrats

NEW YORK, Jan. 25—UP—Former President Herbert Hoover said Saturday the government has become so top-heavy with bureaucrats it is in danger of toppling.

He ridiculed "the theory of spending ourselves into prosperity" and indicated he thought the nation would be much better off if Americans returned to some of the teachings of Benjamin Franklin.

Mr. Hoover also indicated favored Senate investigations in general, though he did not mention by name the controversial Communist-hunting methods employed by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy. (R-Wis.)

The former President views the radio speech, broadcast by the Columbia Broadcasting System, which Mr. Hoover made on receiving the gold medal of the International Benjamin Franklin Society.

Mr. Hoover said that if the superstructure of government becomes too heavy for the foundations, "the building totters though assisted by outward props of art."

"I suppose the props of art he referred to was propaganda," Mr. Hoover said. "He would have been even more forcible on this subject if he were in my place as chairman of the commission on reorganization of the government."

Mr. Hoover said Franklin did much to stimulate investigation and research by founding educational and research institutions. He said among other institutions Franklin helped create was the U. S. Senate, whose "spirit of education and investigation would seem rewarding to him."

The former President said Franklin's famous stanzas extolling the virtues of "thrift and hard work" sank so deep into the American mind that for awhile the country practiced his teachings.

"However, that was before we discovered the theory of spending ourselves into prosperity," Mr. Hoover said.

A Comparison
In summing up Franklin's philosophy — one which could be compared with Mr. Hoover's public utterances during three decades — the former President said:

ing to do the right job for you. You can buy a home in one easy step by dealing with the Top o' Texas Realty and Insurance Co., LaNora Theatre Building.

In the one step you can: 1. acquire the house; 2. arrange the financing; and 3. insure the home.

Many buyers, M. G. Elkins, owner and operator of the Top o' Texas Realty and Insurance Company, said, are forced to get their new home in a first office, arrange the financing in another building, and get their insurance in a third building.

The Top o' Texas Realty has cut out the red-tape. All three arrangements are made in one efficient transaction in a friendly atmosphere.

Elkins promises you the very best deal in town. Property or realty is a wonderful investment and when you deal with qualified men and women who know the business thoroughly, you can't go wrong.

Elkins also offers you a property management and rental service. If you have property and wish to rent, Elkins will see to it that it stays rented, sees to the upkeep and takes the worry completely off your shoulders.

Top o' Texas also can help you to obtain just about any type of insurance. It handles policies for: fire, automobile, farm, poultry, life and inland marine insurance.

Courteous Service And Free Delivery At Service Cleaners

When you select a firm to take care of your home cleaning work, be sure you choose a firm who is known for dependability, courteous service and economical prices. When you select that firm you will probably choose Service Cleaners, located at 312 S. Cuyler.

They have been in the same location for 10 years, and have established a fine service in cleaning and renovation methods. Their prices are so low you will hardly believe it when you receive your clothing.

They offer you a free pick up and delivery service to help you when your days are crowded with the many activities going on. If you can't get down town to bring your clothing in, just call 4-9731 and a friendly driver will be right out to pick up your clothing. And when they are returned, you will find them looking fresh, bright as the day you bought them. Don't depend on inexperienced and faulty cleaning methods when Service Cleaners gives you a complete renovation process for less expense. They have the right methods, experienced help, and modern machinery to give you the best job in town.

As for prices, you can't beat Service Cleaners for giving you the best for less. Suits and plain dresses for only 75 cents and blouses, sweaters, pants and skirts for only 50 cents. Why not let them save you money and clothing. You don't want to trust your favorite clothing items to a firm who is careless and inexperienced. You have probably had clothing ruined by improper renovation methods and inexperienced operators. And sometimes, especially when that particular dress or suit is irreplaceable, carelessness can be quite expensive. So take your clothing to a dependable cleaning establishment that will give you the best renovation and personal service for less money. And too, don't forget the free pick up and delivery service which saves you money, time and effort. Remember, Service Cleaners is the right cleaner for you. They are located at 312 S. Cuyler.

HOUSE

HOUSE MAJORITY IS SLIM—The Republicans have a three-man majority in the House of Representatives, but President Eisenhower will have to bank on Democratic support for his program as the House opens its second session of the 83rd Congress. Of the 44 roll call tests during the first session, President Eisenhower won 31, and it was the Democrats that provided the winning margin in 30 cases. The Independent in the House is Frazier Reams, of Ohio.

Largest Stock Of Fine Seal Covers At Hall & Pinson's

If you need a new pair of seat covers, why not select them from one of the largest stocks in the Panhandle. At Hall & Pinson's, located at 700 W. Foster, you can find any and all types of seat covers that you need. This large stock consists of Arthur Fullmer seat covers, but you can't find a larger selection anywhere in this area. Whether you want plaids, stripes, solids, or combinations, you can find them at Hall & Pinson's.

You can obtain seat covers in many different color patterns and sizes. Maybe you have found a seat cover that you like, but perhaps it won't fit your individual looking car. At Hall & Pinson's, you don't have to worry about that. They have a large stock of fine seat covers to fit any model or make of car. And you'll find that you can get a seat cover that will give you many years of service with only a small amount to pay.

When you select your seat covers, you want to carry out an attractive color scheme. If your car is a sport model, perhaps you'd like a two-tone seat cover with quilted plastic seat tops and a plaid bottom. You can get these seat covers in either solid, plaid, stripe or check in nylon, plastic or fabric. Of course, the nylon and plastic are priced a little higher than the fabric, but then too you get longer wear, and a nicer material. Hall & Pinson has the seat cover to fit your individual needs. You'll get longer wear and your money's worth, no matter what seat cover you purchase.

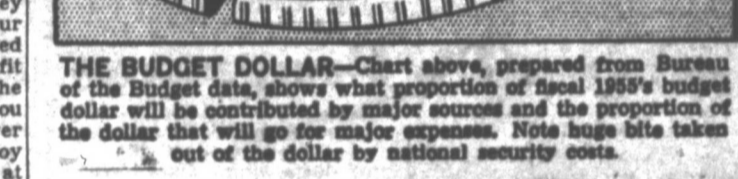

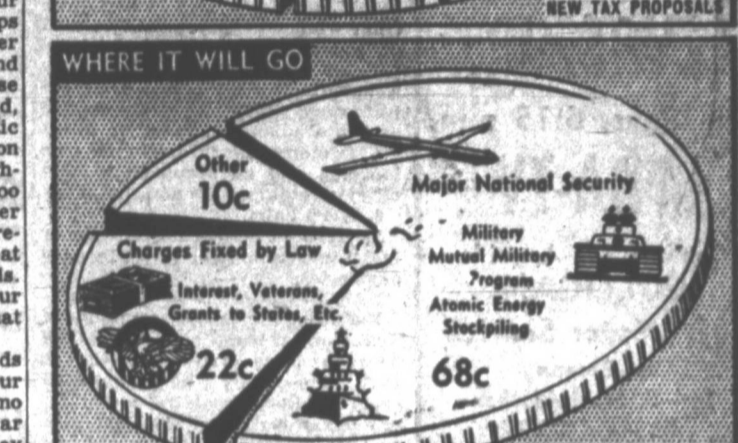

And of course, a lot depends on how they are fitted on your car. Hall & Pinson says that no seat cover is going into a car that doesn't fit correctly. They give you this service so that your seat covers will give you added wear. If a seat cover doesn't fit right, it will wear quicker and be wrinkled spots. So they give you the assurance that your seat cover is going to fit right. They employ courteous, dependable personnel at Hall & Pinson's to assure you that you get the best possible service.

Makes A Difference

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 23—UP—Glem Summers found the reason why so many robins had become "tame" and made no attempt to fly away when he approached them. He said their tail feathers were frozen.

The fastest game fish is the sailfin. It has been clocked taking out 100 yards of line in three seconds, nearly 70 miles per hour. They can do 80 m.p.h. with regularity. The slowest clocked is the bluegill at somewhere around 1 1/2 miles per hour.

THE BUDGET DOLLAR—Chart above, prepared from Bureau of the Budget data, shows what proportion of fiscal 1954's budget dollar will be contributed by major sources and the proportion of the dollar that will go for major expenses. Note huge bite taken out of the dollar by national security costs.
