Reds Increase War Shipping To Indo-China

Strategists Feel Rebels Preparing All-Out Campaign

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 - UP - There was a sharp and ominous increase recently in shipments of weapons and war equipment to the Communist rebels in Indo-China, it was learned Thursday.

This plus increased rebel activity has prompted the feeling that the Communists may be gearing for an all-out drive to force the French out of Indo-China and end the seven-year war.

Some strategists believe that one major defeat for the French and native anti-Communist forces could be disastrous. It would coincide with rising demands in France that the French quit the bloody guerrilla war, opening the floodgates for a Communist sweep of all southeast Asia.

Soldier Given Life Sentence On Guilty Plea

DALLAS, Feb. 4 - UP - Donald Joseph Sutcliffe, 22-year-old AWOL soldier from Detroit, Mich., was sentenced to life imprisonment Wednesday night for raping a 16-year-old girl.

Sutcliffe unexpectedly changed his plea to guilty and a jury sentenced him to life imprisonment after the 19-year-old girl and her 20-year-old husband testified they did not want him to die for his crime.

District Judge Harold B. Wright also gave Sutcliffe a second life sentence for robbing the woman and her husband.

The couple was kidnaped by Sutcliffe in downtown Dallas on Dec. 10. Sutcliffe forced his way into the couple's car, then made them drive him to Malvern, Ark.

Twice along the way he locked the husband in the trunk of the car, then raped the girl. He took the couple's shoes and left them bound to a tree in the woods near Malvern.

District Attorney Henry Wade said the girl came to him after jurors had been selected and told him she did not wish to see Sutcliffe executed.

Before that, Wade had been qualifying jurors for the death sentence. But Sutcliffe's attorneys agreed to plead guilty if the state would not press for the death sentence.

Russ Seek To Stop Escapes

TOKYO, Feb. 4 - UP - The Russians took extraordinary precautions Thursday to prevent any other members of their outlawed mission here from following a "very nervous" highly-placed officer of the Soviet spy ring in his desertion to democracy.

Two other secret police operatives who worked closely with second secretary Yuri Rastvorov before his Jan. 24 surrender to American intelligence, have been ordered home by the Kremlin.

They, along with five other adults and one infant, will leave Tokyo by train for Hiroshima this week end to board a small Soviet ship now undergoing repairs at Kasado on the inland sea.

Mission Becomes Frison - Meanwhile, the high-walled Soviet mission became a virtual prison for its occupants.

Japanese police said the Russians emerged only in pairs, apparently assigned to guard each other against further desertions.

An official of the Soviet mission made the illuminating disclosure that Rastvorov had been "very nervous" before his disappearance.

However, he attributed it to Rastvorov's three-year stay in Japan without his family.

Guatemala Denies Red Domination

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

Guatemalan President Col. Jacobo Arbenz has denied heatedly and repeatedly that his government is Communist or Communist dominated.

Opposing this view is Sen. Alexander Wiley, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, who calls Guatemala "the bridgehead of communism in Latin America."

Recent events lend considerable support to Wiley's view.

Last week the country's Communist-ruled General Labor Confederation held its second national congress. It had President Arbenz's blessing and it attracted such Red leaders as Giuseppe Di Vittorio of Italian Labor Confederation, Luis Sallant of the Red World Trade Union Federation, and Mexico's Vicente Lombardo Toledano, Latin America's No. 1 Red and head of the Latin American Labor Confederation.

Host to the meeting was Victor Manuel Gutierrez, a firm friend of Moscow, whose opening address called for "international labor solidarity"—presumably the Moscow brand.

Guatemala, one of the so-called banana republics, is about the size of Tennessee and has a population of 3,283,000 persons.

Only about 30 per cent of the population can read or write.

Here are the elements which are making Guatemala the No. 1 fly in the ointment of Western hemisphere good will:

A Moscow-disciplined party organization known as the Guatemalan Workers Party; anti-capitalist and anti-American propaganda; the "imperialistic capitalists" of the north; a land "reform" program in the classic pattern; secret arrests; campaign to control press and radio and expulsion of correspondents ruled "undesirable" by the state.

Coalition Controls Politics

Controlling Guatemala's politics is a four-party coalition called the National Democratic Front. The workers party is the dominant one. It claims only 1,500 members but through unions under its domination it actually controls 100,000 laborers.

The party's first aim has been to force a break in the friendly links between Guatemala and the United States. It has been accomplished, at least in part, through expropriation of the properties of the American-owned United Fruit Co., its charges that former ambassador Richard C. Patterson was "plotting" the overthrow of the Guatemalan government and its later demand that he be recalled; actions against the American op-

Court Upholds Death Sentence

AUSTIN, Feb. 4.—UP—The Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday upheld a death sentence assessed against Morris Addison, Austin Negro, and struck down a defense plea of racial discrimination in selection of the jury commission and the grand jury.

Addison was given the death sentence by a Travis county jury in connection with the Jan. 30, 1953, knife slaying of Thomas Alfred Hogan, at a San Antonio highway auto auction lot in Austin.

The defendant contended he had been denied due process of law, contending members of the Negro race were discriminated against in selection of the jury commission and in choosing the grand jury which indicted Addison.

However, the appeals court said, "There is absence of any evidence of express or intentional discrim-

Duck Hunting Party Starts Bricker Amendment Dispute

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 4.—UP—Shots fired in a southwest Missouri duck blind 35 years ago were reverberating in the U.S. Senate Thursday in the so-called Bricker amendment issue.

The shots sounded the start of a contest between an aroused state attorney general and the U.S. government. The battle ended with a decision in the U.S. Supreme Court which has played a prominent role in the Bricker amendment dispute.

Details of the duck hunt and the action that followed were told by the only living member of the hunting party, Clarence Evans, now 82, who last year retired as a member of Missouri's State Tax Commission.

They bagged 84 ducks.

Evans recalled how among three friends deliberately shot 84 ducks in the spring of 1919 to test the federal government's right to close the season in Missouri. The hunters carefully complied with state water-fowl regulations.

GOP Flayed For Smear Campaign

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 4.—UP—National Democratic chairman Stephen Mitchell accused Republicans Wednesday night of a "deliberate campaign" to label the Democratic party "the party of treason and disloyalty."

Mitchell, who lives near Taos, N. M., spoke at the annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner of New Mexico Democrats.

In attempting "to paint the Democratic party as the party of communism," Mitchell said, Republicans "make constant use of the words 'Red-winger' and 'Communist' as smear words to describe the party and its leaders."

Part of this same pattern was the despicable attempt of Attorney General Brownell to label as a traitor to his country a great and patriotic former president of the United States—Harry Truman.

Mitchell sharply criticized Republican statements that 2,300 "security risks" have been fired from the government since the change of administrations.

"Leading Republicans have gone a great pains to give the impression that most or all of the 2,300 were actual Communists," Mitchell said, "although everybody in authority knows the number contains few, if any Communists."

Mitchell said the employees were fired for many reasons, "for being drunk, or dishonest, or immoral or talking too much."

President Eisenhower, Sen. Joseph McCarthy and Gov. Thomas Dewey of New York all misused the 2,300 figure, Mitchell said, "Americans everywhere must be on their guard against a new and massive attempt to win a national election through the systematic use of slander," he asserted.

Martha Washington, the Nation's first First Lady, was the widow of Daniel Parke Catts when she was married to George Washington in 1789.

Twentieth Century Allegro Club Has 'Science Fiction & Civil Defense' Program

Mrs. Billy Davis began the program at the meeting Tuesday of the Twentieth Century Allegro Club in the home of Mrs. C. L. McKinney, 618 N. Frost, with a talk on "Scientific Fiction."

"Since primitive times men have looked at the night sky and wondered about the stars. Until astronomy developed into an exact science, however, superstition and fable reigned. But it is incredible to note how far back goes the history of man's knowledge of the existence of other worlds. Plato, the philosopher of ancient Greece, wrote about the structure of the Universe 800 years before Christ."

Mrs. Davis continued her talk telling of early scientific fiction in Greek novels of the Hellenistic times and of the development of ethnographic novels early in the 18th century. Mrs. Davis stated "The most obvious use of ethnographic material in science fiction is in the so-called lost-race story, which may be defined as a novel of adventure in hidden lands out of communication with the rest of the world." Other science fiction forms are "the stories of interplanetary exploration, of time-travel, or of future life." According to the speaker Jules Verne was one of the best known writers of scientific fiction. Others are H. G. Wells and Robert Heinlein.

The speaker pointed out how science fiction is in our everyday lives and that engineers and sci-

LEAVING PAMPA — One of the prized possessions of Mrs. J. W. Garman, 1125 Charles, is to be packed for a move to Tucson, Arizona, this week, is a portrait of her done by local artist, Mrs. Bob Vail. A series of farewell dinner parties honoring Mr. and Mrs. Garman have been given in the past few weeks by Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKernan, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gayden, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dunigan Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Boyd. Mrs. Garman was also honored at a luncheon by members of the Parish Council of the Holy Souls Church, of which Mrs. Garman has been very active. Mrs. Garman organized the League of Women Voters in Pampa in 1951 and served as state secretary of the organization. She has been a member of the Twentieth Century Club among other clubs and organizations and is an accomplished musician. Mr. Garman was manager and subsequently owner of the Central States Gas and Power Company for many years, the first chairman of the Community Chest here, and served as chairman of the Community Concert Association. H., who lives with his family in Dallas; and thirteen-year-old David Michael, who attends Moye Military School at Castroville, Texas.

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Grace Friend
I read your column every night and I think you give very good advice to a lot of people.
I couldn't think of anyone else to ask so I thought of writing you. I have heard that some firms pay people to address envelopes and compile mailing lists at home. I would like very much to do this or something else to earn a little money at home instead of having to go out to work and leave my children with a stranger.
Also do you know of any way of finding people who would like to have sewing done for themselves or their little girls? I would like to make little girls' dresses as a means of making some extra money.
Any information on these or any other ways of earning money at home will be greatly appreciated.
Mrs. D. C.

Dear Mrs. D. C.—
I don't know of any firms at present who are looking for women to address envelopes.
I think your idea of making children's dresses is a good one. Are your youngsters in school? Perhaps you could send letters to the mothers of little girls in your children's classes stating that you will make dresses and what you intend to charge. I am sure that you will find some interested mothers.
I know of a woman who was so successful that she eventually bought yardage and had it available for her customers to choose from. She had to have help in business grow so fast.
VALENTINE COLLECTION
Dear Grace Friend
You have had all sorts of requests in your column, but I have never noticed one from a school before.
We would like very much to have a display of very old valentines in our glass display case this week before Valentine's Day. Our students have never seen the fancy types of years ago and we would like to show them some of the lacy valentines of grandmother's day.
Do you suppose there is some person who has such a collection we might borrow? Or if folks had one or two they no longer wanted we might be able to have them and start off a collection of our own.
If anyone has a gift of an old valentine for us it could be sent to Garden Grove Union High School Library. If someone has a collection we might borrow, they could notify the library and we could get in touch with them about borrowing it.

Merten HD Club Has Cake Baking Program

Substantial cake baking was discussed and demonstrated by Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Helen Dunlap, as she demonstrated the making of a high altitude, feather sponge cake for the Merten HD Club in the George Dick home Tuesday. Miss Dunlap pointed out that more flour and moisture is needed in a high altitude sponge cake and thorough blending of the sugar and egg yolks insure a creamy mixture and finer texture. Miss Dunlap also demonstrated the making of a whipped topping, made of a non-fat dry milk that can be used as a substitute for whipped cream. The cake and topping were served later with ice cream and coffee.
Mrs. John Brandon, president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. J. O. Hollar read the new by-laws of the club. Members present were Misses R. N. Brandon, John Brandon, George Dick, J. O. Hollar, Elmo Hudgins, J. A. Lewis, D. A. Rufe, J. D. Skaggs, L. F. Watt and four children.
The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. D. A. Rufe, 1300 Christie, Feb. 16.

No Age Limit To Grooming

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor
Good grooming implies both self-respect and consideration for others. Everyone prefers the company of those who are attractive to see as well as hear.
This is true of people regardless of their ages. Because one has grandchildren, there is no reason to think it is unnecessary or unbecoming to take care in grooming.
The older woman should be as concerned as her daughter that her hair is attractively arranged, that her dress is dignified but not dowdy. Her shoes should be neither frivolous nor ungracefully sturdy.
Cosmetics can be used to avoid that faded look without acquiring a hard look in turn. A touch of powder, lipstick and eyebrow pencil can do wonders for the mature woman. Today cosmetics have such complete social acceptance that the woman who wears none at all is the one who now invites the stares.
And there is no age limit to the use of perfume and jewelry. While

Parent Education Club's Library Benefit Bridge Date Set For Feb. 25

Parent Education Study Club members completed plans for a benefit bridge tournament to be held at 2 o'clock Thursday, Feb. 25 in the Holy Souls Parish Hall, when they met this week in the home of Mrs. Ed Williams, 1204 Charles. A portion of the proceeds will be contributed toward books for Pampa's new City Library. Members will serve refreshments during the afternoon.
"Pet Peeves" were given in answer to roll call. Program chairman, Mrs. J. B. Venale Jr., introduced the speakers.
Mrs. George Hofess, who spoke on "Interiors," used as her reference, Wolfgang Langeweische's "The Next American House." Langeweische, who toured America's outstanding homes, came to the conclusion that the changing times are at long last being translated into architecture. He compared many homes being built today with the old coaches of yesterday. Through the years they enlarged, accumulated more gills, became slower and more cumbersome. The trend in today's homes seems to follow the engineer's philosophy of "small and better" rather than the amateur's "big and more cupids and the most." What is "cute" today may be silly five years from now. Trends which are born of necessity, should be stimulated.

Tulsa Proposing Toll Road Network

TULSA, Feb. 4. —UP—Tulsa Chamber of Commerce directors Wednesday plugged for a toll road from here to Dallas and Fort Worth, Tex., as part of a proposed network of turnpikes extending from Texas up to Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Yates Land, chairman of the chamber's highway committee, warned that Tulsa should get into the toll road movement quickly or Oklahoma City "may get the jump on us."

He said Oklahoma City highway boosters are already thinking about a superhighway running to Dallas. Any highway from either of the Oklahoma cities would require additional legislation, State voters last week approved three proposed toll roads, but the only one headed for Texas would be in the direction of Wichita Falls.

The chamber directors took an "informal vote" Tuesday and decided to promote the Tulsa - Dallas road. Chamber President Oakah Jones warned that the city might be "bypassed" if a system of suggested toll roads swings west from Kansas City to Topeka and Wichita instead of coming south through Tulsa.

Land said a Tulsa - Dallas - Fort Worth toll road would tie in with one of the turnpikes approved last week, from Tulsa toward Joplin, Mo., which has been envisioned as part of a thoroughfare all the way to Kansas City. He said efforts are being made to promote an all-midwestern system of toll roads running as far north as Minneapolis, Minn., and Milwaukee, Wis.

Movie King Free Lances

By ALINE MOBBY
HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 3—UP—Clark Gable has returned to Hollywood after 2 1/2 years, but he's a man without a job or even a girl friend.
 The "king" of MGM revivified Wednesday he will abdicate. He will not renew his studio contract when it expires March 3 "because I think it's better for the studio and better for me." After 23 years at the big studio, he said, he wants to freelance.
 Gable made his "no ties" resolution complete by not bringing French model Suzanne Dadole home from Europe as his bride. "She's a nice girl," hedged Gable with the famous grin that has sent female fans into sighs for two decades.
 "But marriage, I just haven't thought much about it one way or the other."
 He also hasn't given a thought, he went on, as to what movies he'll work in after his contract expires.
 "After I finish this present picture, I think I'll take a little holiday, he reflected. "I won't make any plans until after that."
 "I'm leaving the studio because I think I've been here too long. There's not a chance I'd sign with MGM again. I want to work when I feel like it. If MGM comes up with a good story, well, I'll come back here for a picture."
 "I also like the idea of making pictures overseas in the local where the plots occur. If a good story comes up with a European background, I'd be glad to go overseas again."
 "I'm not going to form my own movie company. But perhaps one of these days I may take a try at directing a movie."
 Gable has reopened his suburban Encino home "because I haven't seen it for more than two years and it's my home to come back to." Friends say he had the furnishings taken out that his ex-wife, Lady Sylvia Ashley, installed during their unhappy marriage.
 Gable is winding up final scenes for his last picture under his MGM contract, "Betrayed," which was filmed mostly overseas. Though the husky actor is a familiar fixture at MGM, he still caused a flutter even among other players when he strode into the commissary for lunch.
 But the graying Gable, who turned 53 Monday, hasn't dated any of the local beauties since his return.
 In fact, two weeks ago he bought a new white Lincoln convertible with red leather seats and I won the privilege of being the first female to ride in it. But we rode only half a block on the MGM lot and it was daytime.

Reneging Player Freed On Bond
KANSAS CITY, Feb. 4—UP—A 10-year-old basketball player, Percy E. Barnes, was free Wednesday under $1,000 bond on a fugitive warrant charging he obtained money under false pretenses by failing to enroll in Pittsburg State Teachers College, Pittsburg, Kan.
 John F. Lance, basketball coach at the school, said the youth accepted $110 from him and a trainer but failed to enroll.
 Barnes, former Kansas City high school star, surrendered at police headquarters. After the bond was made, Magistrate Stuart E. Blackburn set his preliminary hearing for Feb. 11.
 "In filing this complaint," Lance said, "I was acting only as an agent of the college. We don't have enough money in our scholarship fund to let it go like that."
 Lance said that the money was placed in the fund for the youth by an unidentified "benefactor."
 Barnes said, "I thought this money was just the same as mine. When I left Pittsburg I didn't feel that I should return it to the school because the man hadn't given it to the school. He just gave it to the school to keep for me."
 The basketball player left Pittsburg state Tuesday because "I decided I didn't like the school." He arrived only the day before.

The Pay-Raise Issue Has ... Members Of Congress Sifting On Uneasy Horns Of Dilemma

By HENRY McLEMORE
 If you have ever wondered what a man looks like on the horns of a dilemma, now is your chance to find out.
 All you have to do to satisfy your curiosity is to go to Washington and look up your Congressman. He is sitting right up there on the horns, and completely unsure as to what to do about it.
 His dilemma is whether or not to vote himself the whacking big raise in pay which a presidential commission has suggested that he do. And by whacking I mean just that, the commission having placed its approval on a boost of $12,500 a year, which would lift his salary to $25,000 per.
 Even though they don't look and act like it sometimes, Congressmen are human. And being human the thought of that extra chunk of dough makes their eyes gleam, their hearts thump, and their fingers itch. You can rest assured that the married ones have talked about that added $12,500 a hundred times, and between them have spent it on everything from a new kitchen to a mink coat.
 This desire for the raise is one horn they're perched on—that plus the fact that their constituents will take this big-headed, open-handed financial pat on the back by themselves. The Congressmen are not at all sure that all their constituents, especially the ones who haven't gotten their free goods as yet, those whose baby wasn't kissed at the last election, or the ones who got ptomaine at the barbecue or fish fry, will take this big bite with a smile.
 The press, for the most part, has been very sympathetic toward the idea of the Congressmen voting a new lining for their wallets, and some commentators have gone so far as to support them with the slightly cock-eyed argument that if Stan Musial, a baseball player, is worth $80,000 a year, and Marilyn Monroe, an actress, can get a four-figure salary each week, then the men who make the laws deserve the same sort of pay.
 Musial isn't just a baseball player—he is the best baseball player. And Miss Monroe's four-figure salary is based on a figure that is the best. All baseball players don't make Musial's salary, or even a fourth of it per annum, and the average pay for all the actors and actresses in the country last year was around $800.
 I am quite sure that there are Congressmen whose ability makes them worth almost any salary, but I am equally sure that there are quite a few who'd be overpaid if all they got was railroad fare to Washington and the price of a haircut once a month.
 If you should happen to ask me what I would do about the raise if I were a Congressman, I most surely would answer that I would be up bright and early the morning the bill was to be introduced so that I would have extra time to gargle. I would want a strong, ringing set of vocal chords when I started yelling "Aye." I would probably carry a megaphone, too.
 It isn't often that a man has the chance to better his savings account by more than ten grand a year simply by saying yes. A man who would let that opportunity slip by has no business helping govern a two-fish aquarium, much less the United States.
 If my Congressman doesn't vote himself the dough, then I'm going to vote for the Know-Nothing candidate next time in the hope of getting a more mature mind.

Timing In-Traffic Cuts Fuel Usage

PHILADELPHIA—UP—Auto mobile drivers who adjust their city driving to traffic flow and the timing of the traffic signals can cut fuel consumption of their cars nearly in half, according to the Keystone Automobile club.
 A fuel-saving of about 25 per cent also can be achieved by lowering country speeds by 20 miles an hour, said Samuel T. Milliken, service manager of the club.
 Pointing out that although the efficiency of engines and fuels has been increased greatly in the past 25 years, Milliken said the economical operation of a motor car still depends upon the driver.
 He listed these tips on economical driving:
 1. A light foot on the throttle can save up to half your gasoline when starting and shifting gears.
 2. Go easy on the accelerator when the engine is cold.
 3. Fill the gas tank often; air in the tank mixes with the fuel and leaves moisture which may cause corrosion inside the motor.
 4. Never overload the engine. Split into lower gears as necessary, avoid surging the throttle, let the motor act as a brake in stops.
 5. Criss-cross tires on wheels and spare rim every 5,000 miles. Keep tire pressure at the exact prescribed level.
 6. Use the right weight of oil. Incorrect weight can cost as much as 7-10ths of a mile per gallon.
 7. Keep the air filter clean, change exhaust lines and muffler every 30,000 miles.
 8. Make sure all battery connections are tight and corrosion free.
 9. Have complete car check-up twice yearly.

Coffee Trade Described As 'Cement' Of Pan-Americas

EDITOR'S NOTE: Coffee is the life-blood of trade between the United States and much of Latin America. The export of coffee finances purchases of American goods, from heavy industrial equipment to nylon hosiery. The importance of the current "coffee crisis" to this vital trade is described by United Press Staff Correspondent W. W. Copeland in the following dispatch.
By W. W. Copeland
RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Feb. 4—Billions of dollars in trade and investment are at stake in the current complaints expressed in American homes and the U.S. Congress over the rising cost of the breakfast cup of coffee.
 Coffee has been described as "the cement in the Pan American system."
 That single product is far and away the most important item of trade between the United States and many of the Latin American countries.
 That fact does not mean that it is important to Latin American coffee producers alone. It is important too to the American manufacturer who sells to the Latin American market and to the man who works in the U.S. plant producing goods sold here.
Crisis Requires Action
 It is because of the mutual importance of this trade that Brazilian and other South American planters and brokers, and Latin American governments, believe that neither they nor the United States can afford to let the current crisis do permanent damage to the coffee market.
 El Salvador, Guatemala and Colombia, for instance, depend on their coffee exports for more than 80 per cent of the all-important dollars with which they buy their imports from the United States.
 But even more important, in its effect on consumers and producers alike, is the trade in coffee between Brazil and the United States. It is an $800 million export which produces 75 per cent of all Brazil's foreign exchange.
Coffee - Dollar Foundation
 All the 14 Latin-American countries depend to a greater or lesser extent on their earnings from coffee for the dollars with which to buy United States exports.
 Brazil's coffee earnings have made it the top Latin American market for U.S. exports and one of

Defense Releases New Death List

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3—UP—The Defense Department made public Wednesday the names of a number of Army personnel who have been missing in action in Korea for more than a year where evidence exists they are no longer alive.
 A determination of death is made in cases where supporting evidence is available, usually from eyewitnesses, that a man has died even though his remains have not been recovered and identified by the Army, the Defense Department said.
 Army personnel from the Southwest now determined to be dead include:
LOUISIANA—Sgt. 1-C Jimmie R. Campbell, Shongaloo; Pfc. Willie Davis, Gretna, and Sgt. George J. Jacobs, New Orleans.
Missouri—Sgt. 1-C Olen Lewis, St. Charles.
OKLAHOMA—Sgt. Alvin L. Mack, Guthrie.
TEXAS—Cpl. Christopher C. Ancelet, Fort Arthur; Sgt. Cresenciano Garcia Jr., Laredo, and Pfc. Elmer G. Richard, San Antonio.

Stock Show At Houston Opened

HOUSTON, Feb. 4—UP—The 22nd Houston Fat Stock Show and Rodeo got underway "officially" with a downtown parade Wednesday though several breeds of show animals already were judged in an effort to keep the record-breaking number of entries on a schedule.
 The huge parade, including 71 Texas school bands, moved through crowded downtown streets under a bright, sunny sky to launch the stock show and its nightly rodeo.
 Also in the parade were the hundreds of saddle weary riders who started down the old Salt Grass Trail from Brenham Sunday, arriving at Houston's outskirts late Tuesday.
 Among winning animals already named was the steer of Dayton Grenwelge, 16, of Fredericksburg, which won the Hereford championship in the junior show.

Chinatown Plans Observance Of Annual New Year Festival

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4 — UP — A brilliantly-colored, half-block long ceremonial dance powered by 80 men will dance down the narrow streets of Chinatown here Friday to open a three-day Chinese New Year festival billed as an "Oriental Mardi Gras."

As the traditional, electrically-lighted dragon worms its way through the intriguing settlement, almond-eyed children will toss firecrackers from iron-lace balconies hanging over the street.

The dragon will be followed by the wide-eyed lion Chinese sword-dancers whipping the air with cold steel, and roving musicians playing wild melodies on the moon harp and other ancient Chinese instruments.

Chinatown's second "open house" festival, which begins Friday and ends Sunday night will be held in connection with a week-long observance of the 4622nd year of the Chinese lunar calendar.

Celebration Opened

Traditionally the 80,000 residents of Chinatown have celebrated New Year's privately but the community's energetic young American-born citizens decided last year the celebration should be open to the public.

"We had 140,000 people in the one day of last year's carnival," festival chairman Henry Lem said. "Because it was so successful we felt it should be enlarged this year. We're shooting for something like the Mardi Gras in New Orleans."

Lem said Chinatown also wanted to "show the world that here in San Francisco people of all races live, work and play together in harmony."

"We want to demonstrate that Chinese-Americans are free to celebrate what and when they wish," he said. "They don't observe New Year's in China anymore, you know. We think our festival will be effective anti-Communist propaganda."

Not "Bad Lady"

Co-Chairman James H. Loo said another goal of the festival was to promote the idea that Chinatown is not the "bad lady" she was a couple of decades ago.

Loo said Chinese living here continually strive to "retain some of our heritage and perpetuate the ancient customs" but he said "New Year's is the greatest of all days in the Chinese Year."

"Whatever happens on that day has a great influence on life throughout the year," he said. "Great care is taken not to say anything that might bring bad luck. Swearing and quarreling are taboo. This is the time of family reunions and friendly visitings."

Judge Excuses Defendant's Kin

EDINBURG, Tex., Feb. 3 — UP — The judge excused a potential juror in the murder trial of Jose Macal, 34, Tuesday because the man said he would not be willing to vote for Macal's electrocution if he were found guilty.

Assistant District Attorney Ralph Vidauri asked Pedro Martinez of Mission, "Do you have any objection to the death penalty?"

"Only in this case," Martinez replied. "Jose is my cousin."

As questioning of veniremen opened Wednesday, only four had been acceptable as jurors.

Macal is accused of shooting Romaldo Garza, a political enemy, Aug. 10, 1952, after a political argument in a tavern. Macal was a member of Starr county's "new" party and Garza belonged to the "old" party.

Wants Raise In Allowable

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 4 — UP — Railroad Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson expressed hope Wednesday that Texas' oil allowable can be increased "in fairness" some 200,000 barrels a day for March.

Texas' crude oil allowable production has been slashed five of the past six months, cutting more than 400,000 barrels from the state's output.

"It is my sincere hope," Thompson said, "that the evidence adduced at the state-wide oil and gas hearing on Feb. 19 will justify an increase in oil production of something like 200,000 barrels per day for Texas oil wells for each and every day of the month of March, 1954."

"In my opinion," he said in a statement, "after careful study of the stocks on hand, Texas is now entitled to this increase in oil production."

Thompson pointed out that Texas' crude oil stocks have been "materially reduced" during the past four months and total crude oil stocks nationally "are not excessive."

"Texas has 51.7 per cent of the oil reserves of the nation," Thompson added.

"Therefore, in fairness, Texas should produce something in the order of 50 per cent of the domestic daily oil production of the nation."

"An increase of 200,000 barrels per day for Texas oil production would mean an increase of about $50,000 per day in Texas income. This would mean about $15 million per month, or $180 million per year, added to Texas revenue at present crude oil prices," he said.

Thompson pointed out the nation's oil production for week ending Jan. 30 was 6,270,000 barrels a day.

"Texas' average calendar day allowable was 2,887,390 barrels as of Jan. 30."

The state's oil allowable production was cut more than 40,000 barrels for February following a state-wide production hearing last month. March allowable production will be set by the commission after the Feb. 19 hearing in Austin.

Table Falls On 'Mama'

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 — UP — The other night will go down as the time the table fell on mama. It happened at a banquet at which the Sertoma Club, a non-profit outfit which stands for "services to mankind" was holding its charter meeting here.

Dr. Ralph M. Roberts of Richmond, Va., was shouting the virtues of the Sertomas to the rafters. He shouted so loud he didn't even have to bang the table. The grub-board acted on its accord; it folded its limbs and landed in my lady's lap. Order was restored quickly and mama didn't even have a speck of salad dressing on her gown.

Point Re-Set

The doctor's point was re-stated after a few small boys replaced the table. He said the Sertomas were renamed four years ago. And that the parent club called "The Co-Operative Club" was formed in Kansas City in 1912. After that the idea caught on.

Now professional and business executives are members in nearly every big city in America—and smaller ones, too.

A lot of good has been done across the years, and without much fanfare.

In various towns, Sertoma clubs have provided citations for "conspicuous courtesy or safety in the operation of an automobile."

At Christmas time, the Sertoma clubs help the needy and care for the wants of the very young. Last Yule, for instance, in Minneapolis, the club there carried on a campaign which it called "dress a doll for Christmas." Some 1500 dolls were dressed and that many little girls were happy. It was the fourth year in a row that had happened in the Minneapolis City.

In Nashville and in other towns, camps for Girl Scouts are sponsored. There also are week-end outings: boating, swimming, and camping. The Boy Scouts are not neglected, either.

The clubs also are providing special printings of the Declaration of Independence to millions of school children in educational programs each year.

Youth Service Important

As the leaders of the Sertoma clubs put it, "service to youth is an important objective of the Sertoma club."

For one thing, the various clubs find jobs for kids. The leaders take into consideration extreme hardship cases and get boys work permits, when they are necessary.

A lot of boys had a lot of work to do—and they kind of liked it. In the first year of the youth employment service, their total return was $71,796.45. That was for one town: Glendale, Calif. Other Sertoma clubs must have piled up to a heap of money in similar projects around the country.

New Trend Seen Among Teenagers

NEW YORK — UP — The nation had better brace itself. The teenager is getting set to pop out with a new personality.

That's the word from President Eugene Gilbert of the Gilbert Youth Research Co., the only outfit concerned exclusively with the habits and behavior of the small and middle-ty.

Gilbert said the change has been in the making in the last 10 years, in dress, speech, manners and opinion.

In dress, for instance, he sees a teenager trend toward more formality.

"Saddle shoes and woven and sweaters began to drop out of sight. Then plaid shoelaces and colored corduroy slacks went.

"In recent months, some of our operators have spotted boys wearing ties at dances. They also found that crew tees and crazy haircuts like the 'apaches' were beginning to fade."

Gilbert, who has some 2,300 student researchers at work in 400 cities, said the language also is changing.

Parents just beginning to understand terms like "date bait," "swoon" and "big deal," now had better gear themselves for "crazy," "real gone," "flip," and "the most."

As for teenage thinking, the researcher produced all sorts of revelations. Politically, he said, most of the young folks of high school age are going from the Democrats to the Republicans.

"Eighty per cent of those polled in 1944 were pro-Roosevelt. . . now it's 65 per cent for President Eisenhower," said Gilbert.

Gilbert's researchers found that teenagers are starting to date a year earlier than they were 10 years ago—14's now around 14 for boys, and 13's for girls.

Girls Marrying Earlier

Over this span, the trend toward marrying younger accelerated for girls—the peak year for marriage is now 18, compared with 22 in the early 40's. For boys, however, it remained about the same—23 is the peak year for the man to get trapped.

There is a reason for this steadyness in the male marriage age, Gilbert said. His research showed that few high school males are making plans for the future—most wait until their military service is ended.

The attitude of girls has something to do with it also.

"The modern girl is much lazier than her mother and she admits it. She also is more interested in money. She wants her husband to be earning at least $100 a week at marriage."

6 Home Games Slated For 1954 Harvester 11

PHS To Open Sked At Home Against Austin Of El Paso

Harvester 1954 football schedule has been completed with six home games slated for next fall, coach Tom Tippa has revealed. In addition to the seven conference games, the Harvesters will meet Austin of El Paso, Vernon and Paschal of Fort Worth.

The only newcomer on the Harvester schedule is Vernon. The Lions are replacing Big Spring on the schedule.

The Harvesters will open against Austin of El Paso at Harvester Stadium, Sept. 17. It will be the fourth straight year the Harvesters have opened the season against the El-Paso school.

The Green and Golders will travel to Vernon for their first road game Sept. 24 and will return home Oct. 1 to host the Paschal Panthers of Fort Worth in their final pre-District T-AAAA warmup.

The Harvesters will play four of their seven District 1-4A games at home. Teams to be met here in conference play are San Angelo, Midland, Lubbock and Borger. Road games in conference play will be at Amarillo, Abilene and Odessa.

Walker Quits As Tech Line Coach

LUBBOCK, Tex., Feb. 4—UP—Texas Tech College had a line coach vacancy Thursday, after Wade Walker resigned the post he held since 1951 to take a similar job at Mississippi State.

In his new job, Walker, an All-America tackle at Oklahoma in the late 1940s, will join an old teammate, Darrell Royal, who was selected as Mississippi State's head coach Monday.

FITS FINE — Danny O'Connell tries on a Braves' uniform. Traded by the Pirates, the Paterson, N. J., Irishman will play third base, according to Manager Charley Grimm, Eddie Mathews to left field. (NEA)

Basketball, Boxing In Sports Limelight Here This Weekend

Two popular sports in Pampa, basketball and boxing, will share the limelight in this weekend's action-packed sports program on the local scene.

While the Harvester basketball team will be putting their 47-game winning streak on the line against Midland Friday night and Odessa Saturday night, the Pampa Boys Club will be hosting the Rowell Boxing Club Saturday night.

The two basketball games will be unrec'd at Harvester Fieldhouse while the boxing show will be held at the Junior High Gym.

The Boys Club officials have set their starting time back to 8:30 to enable all fans who would like to take in both attractions Saturday night to do so.

About 15 bouts are slated on the boxing program and the Boys Club officials are saving the "Open Division" bouts to the latter part of the program in order to accommodate the fans taking in both the basketball and boxing programs.

Both games with Midland and Odessa will begin at 8 p.m. The Harvesters, leading the District 1-AAAA race with a perfect 9-0 state, must win both games to retain their leadership. The Green and Golders have registered 19 straight wins this season to stack on top of their 28-game string they had at the outset of the current season.

The Harvesters went through a long practice session yesterday afternoon in their final strenuous drill prior to the weekend games with Midland and Odessa. Coach Clinton McNeely touched on just about every phase of the game in yesterday's drill.

On the boxing front, the top bouts of the excellent program lined up for Saturday night here will send two ex-state champions against a couple of high schools who will be representing the Pampa Boys Club.

Johnny Clees of Rowell won the New Mexico State Golden Gloves championship in 1952 and advanced to the finals in the national tournament in Chicago. Clees, at 147 pounds, will be meeting Pampa's fine glover in Bobby Wilhelm.

Wilhelm, who only last week won the regional Golden Gloves 147-pound title at Amarillo, will compete in the Texas State Golden Gloves tournament at Fort Worth, Feb. 17-22. This is Wilhelm's first year as an "Open" boxer and his match Saturday night promises to be the finest attraction ever brought to a local boxing ring.

Clees also went to the national tournament last year but was eliminated before getting to the semifinals. But the New Mexican will likely win his third consecutive trip to the national tournament this year. The New Mexico state tournament hasn't been unrec'd this year yet.

Another boxer with national tournament experience behind him is N. L. Akin. Akin reached the semifinals in 1952, the same year his teammate Clees went to the finals.

Akin, a 112-pounder, will be pitted against Dugie Jameson of Wellington and the Boys Club. Jameson also will be taking part in the Texas state GG tourney this month as result of winning the regional crown at Amarillo last week.

Tickets for both basketball and boxing shows are now on sale. Cage tickets may be obtained at the school business office while boxing tickets may be purchased at Richard's Drug and B & B Pharmacy.

DEAD EYE — Harold Lewis, above, left-hand shooting guard for the Hustlin' Harvesters, is rapidly finding his eye for the basket as the Green and Golders continue their bid in repeating as 1-AAAA champs. Lewis turned his highest scoring performance in the San Angelo game last Saturday with a 19-point output. Lewis has bucketed 59 points this season. He'll be seen in action this weekend against Midland and Odessa. (News Photo)

TO THE VICTOR — Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., won the Women's National Match Game Bowling Championship in Chicago for the fifth straight year. Marion has just completed a "Everybody Can Bowl" series which has appeared in the Pampa News, the 12th and last of the series being carried in today's edition. (NEA Photo)

Connecticut Suffers First Cage Defeat

NEW YORK, Feb. 4—UP—Fordham's impressive defeat of Connecticut left only three major unbeaten basketball teams in the nation Thursday—and two of those put their perfect records on the firing line Thursday night.

Connecticut, which had won 14 straight games to stamp itself as one of New England's most powerful teams, found itself simply out-gunned and its star player, Art Gulmby, badly outplayed by Fordham's big Ed Corbin Wednesday night in the 70 to 63 defeat at the Fordham gym.

As a result, Kentucky (14-0), Western Kentucky (20-0), and Duquesne (18-0) stand alone as the unbeaten elite among major colleges. And Kentucky must face Georgia Thursday night while Western Kentucky plays Stetson.

Notre Dame, ranked eighth nationally and also a strong NCAA possibility, scored its seventh straight victory in easy fashion Wednesday night, 95-58, over Butler at South Bend, Ind. Joe Bernard led the Irish scoring with 28 points as Notre Dame recorded its 18th straight home court win and ran its season record to 11 victories in 13 games.

Two teams tied in the national rankings at No. 12 spot fared differently in other games. Bradley was upset by Tulsa, 66-43, at Tulsa on three points in the last minute-and-a-half by Dick Nunnelly and one by Dick Courter, but Louisville scored its sixth straight victory as expected, 104-57, over John Carroll.

Cowpokes In Tough Contest With Wichita Five Tonight

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 4—UP—Oklahoma A&M, long a kingly in midland basketball, still has seven games to go, but if the Cowpokes get by high-scoring Wichita Thursday night, they will be knocking on the door of another Missouri Valley Conference championship.

That title automatically would mess a spot in the NCAA regionals, to be held this year on the Aggie's home court at Stillwater, March 12-13.

Oklahoma A&M, on its home court, is as tough as the Yankees in a World Series.

The Cowpokes boast one of the greatest home court records of any team in the nation. The current squad is riding a 27-game victory wave at Gallagher Hall, off-camp name of the Aggie fieldhouse.

Once A&M teams piled up 47 victories in a row at home before Southern California snapped the string, 28-25, in 1941.

Since the fieldhouse was opened in 1938, A&M teams have won a remarkable total of 170 games while losing only 18 in 18 seasons! Beaten only once by Minnesota, and by only one point, at that—A&M this season has a 17-1 record.

compiled primarily on the great scoring of Bob Matlick, the pivot perfectionist. The team's victims have included Southern California, Texas, Illinois, Colorado of the big seven twice—and Kansas, once beaten in Big Seven play.

"It could very well be a repeat of last year," one NCAA tournament follower commented, recalling the regional title they were held at Manhattan Kan., in 1953.

Kansas Won Last Time

Kansas and Oklahoma A&M won the Big Seven and Valley titles a year ago and collided in the NCAA regionals where Kansas was a 65-55 winner. But A&M airtily holds a 54-50 decision over the 1954 Jayhawks, achieved at Stillwater Jan. 12.

Coach Hank Iba, one of the nation's best basketball coaches, prefers not to think of the NCAA competition coming up in March.

"We are playing one game at a time," he said, "and right now our only concern is Wichita." The game is to be played at Wichita.

But the fact remained that an A&M triumph over Wichita would leave the defending champions with a spotless 5-0 record, with all over Valley teams showing at least two losses.

Houston Paper Says: Bear Bryant Will Be New Ag Grid Coach

HOUSTON, Feb. 4—UP—Paul (Bear) Bryant, Kentucky's successful young football coach, will be named head football coach and director of athletics at Texas A&M, it was reported here Thursday by a Houston newspaper.

Bryant, coach of one of the two teams which defeated Rice's Cotton Bowl champions in 1953, was expected to be appointed either Thursday or Friday in a meeting of the board of directors and the athletic council, the Scripps-Howard Press said.

In a story by sports writer Bob Rife, who said his information came from a "high source," Bryant reportedly will be hired at a salary of $15,000 yearly for the dual post.

Press sports editor George Wright also said in his column "Wrightway" Thursday that he expected Bryant to be named by nightfall.

Should Bryant's appointment come through as the Press said, it would mean that Barlow (Bones) Irvin apparently would not be retained in his present job as athletic director at A&M.

"Bryant has been the first choice of the board of directors at Texas A&M since the coaches convention at Cincinnati," wrote Rife.

He said delay in naming the successor to Ray George, who resigned Jan. 5, was in order to allow Aggie officials to make the financial manipulation necessary to pay what for Texas A&M is an unprecedented salary.

Only 1 Are Unsigned 33 Chisox Now In Fold For 1954

By UNITED PRESS

The Chicago White Sox, first major league club to sign up all their players during the past three seasons, seemed sure to defend their "pen-and-ink" title successfully with a total of 33 players already under contract for 1954.

Outfielder Jim Rivera, who batted .259 last season and was the only player to participate in all 156 games the White Sox played, and rubber-armed Harry Dorth, pitcher with a 10-4 record last season, became the 32nd and 33rd members of the club to sign Thursday. The White Sox now are only seven players shy of their goal.

Outfielder Minnie Minoza, who is seeking $30,000, may be the difficult player to sign.

The Milwaukee Braves, who obtained Bobby Thomson from the Giants last Monday, lost no time in signing him. Although terms were not disclosed, it was reported that Thomson received a $3,000 raise over the estimated $25,000 year.

Thomson "Well Pleased"

Milwaukee General Manager John Quinn, who talked with Thomson, said the outfielder said he was "well pleased" with his new contract.

The Braves also announced that they will play an exhibition game with the Red Sox at Chattanooga, Tenn., April 6, instead of an originally scheduled game with Brooklyn at Richmond, Va., that day. The Dodger game was cancelled because the Richmond stadium won't be ready on that date.

Veteran Catcher Wes Westrum, who batted .224 in 107 games last season, signed his contract with the Giants along with three rookies — Infielder Ronnie Sanford, First Baseman Gail Harris and Outfielder Ray Berns. The Giants now have 15 players under contract.

Freddie Roe, highest paid pitcher in Brooklyn history, signed a contract, calling for $38,000, a same salary he received last year. Roe, 38, compiled an 11-3 record last season.

Pittsburgh counted 20 players under contract with the signing of Outfielder Gene Hermanski, Pitcher Bob Hall and rookie Infielder John Beattie. Hermanski notified Pittsburgh officials that he had taken off 15 pounds and was in excellent physical shape. He was one of 13 six club players to come to Pittsburgh in the Ralph Kiner deal last summer.

The Red Sox announced the signing of Infielder Ted Lepcio and Pitcher Bill Werle while Detroit's signed Outfielder Bill Hofer to a contract with their Little Rock Farm of the Southern Association.

Youthful Ward Has Promise Despite Loss

DETROIT, Feb. 4—UP—Young Moses Ward of Detroit was a national ring sensation Thursday although he had suffered an eighth-round knockout Wednesday night in his magnificent nationally-telvised middleweight battle with Willie Troy of Washington, D.C.

Ward, 21, was little known and a 6-1 underdog when he entered the ring at the Olympia for his first widely televised bout. But his aggressive hooking attack against contender Troy brought about one of the grandest battles ever staged for TV.

Mauling Moses went down for the count in the eighth from the combined effects of exhaustion and a series of short punches to the head. The kayo was timed at 2:42.

Troy, also 21 and ranked ninth among the world's contenders, weighed 159 pounds to Ward's 161. Troy headed so furiously and persistently in every round that Referee Lou Jalloz never had to separate them, for there wasn't a single clinch. In the first round, Ward's booming hooks to the head appeared destined to stop Troy. And that threat loomed again and again during the see-saw fight until Ward began to tire in the fifth.

In that round, Ward slipped to the canvas when he missed a punch. There was no knockdown until the eighth when Ward went down for the count.

Troy registered his 26th victory and 20th knockout in 27 professional bouts. It was Ward's second defeat in 21 fights.

Steelers Acquire Johnny Lattner

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 4—UP—The Pittsburgh Steelers Thursday announced the signing of Johnny Lattner, Notre Dame's "bread and butter" halfback.

The announcement was made by Steelers Publicity Director Ed Kieley after a telephone conversation with Coach Joe Bach who signed Lattner in South Bend, Ind.

Frank Leahy, recently resigned coach of Notre Dame, pronounced Lattner the "bread and butter" player of the undefeated Irish squad of 1953.

Lattner passed up a chance to play Canadian football to accept the Steelers contract. Terms were not disclosed.

UP THEY GO—Niagara and Leslie players scramble for a rebound under the basket at Madison Square Garden. In front are Charley Hoxie, 3, and Johnny Donohue of the Niagara Falls squad. Behind them is Bob Mapple, 14, of the Philadelphia team, while his teammate, Frank Blatcher, awaits at the right the Up-New York Staters won, 69-50. (NEA)

Everybody Can Bowl Simple Rules Improve Game

(Last of 12 articles written for NEA Service)

By MARION LADEWIG

Four-Time Women's Champion Having covered the more important fundamentals, refresh your memory.

Here are the principal things to remember in connection with the major phases of the game.

Be comfortable in the stance. Most bowlers can use a four or five-step delivery.

The backswing should never be higher than the shoulder.

Coordinate the arms, shoulders, hips and legs.

Knees bent, body forward release the ball on the upswing. Bring the hand up even with the face in the follow through.

On spares, face, walk to and follow through to the target.

Practice weaknesses in open play. You can improve at least 10 per cent by a great deal more, by following these simple rules.

Each year I travel thousands of miles giving exhibitions and conducting instructional clinics. I can't show or tell my classes anything more than that.

Good bowling.

SPORTS Coach Puts St. Benedict On Grid Map

ATCHISON, Kan., Feb. 4—UP—The Benedictine monks who conduct St. Benedict's college on the bluffs overlooking the Missouri River haven't mentioned renewal of his one-year contract yet, but the odds are that Coach Ivan Schottel, a well-traveled individual, has found a permanent home—if he wants it.

Schottel gets around and gets things done. The head football coach and assistant basketball coach at St. Benedict's was born in King City, Mo., 23 years ago, attended North-west Missouri State at Maryville, where he won 11 athletic letters, and then spent four years flying here, there and everywhere for the Navy and Army in World War II.

After service, he entered coaching as tutor at Bolckow, Mo., high. Still inclined to move around, he left Bolckow frequently on 25-mile trips to St. Joseph, Mo., where he coached and won the former Rhodie Glanville. The Schottels now have two children—Steven, 4, and Stefanie, 2.

Continuing his travels, Schottel went to Atchison, Kan., high in January, 1949. In four years he built up such a record that last September St. Benedict's signed him as head football coach. In five months, Schottel has made himself a home.

His first college coaching venture brought a football championship—the first for St. Benedict's in the Central Intercollegiate conference since 1946. And his first year 7-2 record was the best ever compiled by a St. Benedict's coach in his initial year at the helm.

But that's only telling part of the story. Schottel, 4-8 and a 210-pounder, is a jinx smasher.

St. Benedict's has broken six major jinxes since Schottel first appeared on the campus. His football team began by beating Southwest Missouri State at Springfield. That was the first win over Springfield since the series began in 1929.

Later, his football team defeated Fort Hays, Kan., State (first win at Hays since 1942); beat Pittsburg, Kan., State at Pittsburg (first time since 1940); trimmed Emporia, Kan., State (first time since 1946) and with that victory won CIC football honors (first since 1946).

Schottel carried on in basketball. Recently, he and head coach Ralph Nolan took the St. Benedict's cagers to Fort Hays where St. Benedict's hadn't won since 1928-29. St. Benedict's triumphed 66 to 64.

While he hinted at a "rejuvenation" that his Split T is going to be basically a powerful but simple "grind-it-out" attack.

The system, featuring simple, straight-ahead blocking, will enable the use of bigger guards since they are seldom called upon to pull out and run interference.

Overall team speed isn't too important, Warmath said.

Patterson to Meet Durrelle
NEW YORK, Feb. 4—UP—Floyd Patterson, 20-year-old light-heavyweight from Brooklyn, N.Y., has signed to meet Yvon Durrelle of Loggville, New Brunswick, in an eight-round feature bout at eastern Parkway Arena, Feb. 18. The fight is restricted to eight rounds because Patterson, undefeated as a professional, is under 21.

144 To Compete In Phoenix Open

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 4—UP—The $10,000 Phoenix Open got underway Thursday with a pack of hungry lesser known golfers renewing an all-out 1954 campaign to unseat the name tournament players.

The final pre-tournament report showed 144 competing for the top prize money, captured the last two years by Lloyd Mangrum, the one-time Texan now from Niles, Ill. Mangrum, like most of his fellow big-name pros, has been having tougher sledding than usual this year, with the so-called unknown grabbing large shares of the prize money.

Dutch Sidelined
E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Ardmore, Okla., did the best job of defending the honor of the perennial tourney threats when he captured the Pebble Beach, Calif., tournament. But a bad back caused Mangrum to drop out of tournament play for the time being.

Fred Haas Jr., New Orleans, La., surprised the field at Palm Springs, Calif., last week and must rate among the chief contenders on the 8,978-yard Phoenix Country Club course.

Long, narrow fairways were expected to favor such long drivers as Jimmy Demaret, Klamath Lake, N.Y., and Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa. With no one standing out from the field in advance calculations, nearly all 15 other performers have rated consideration for the role of favorite.

Ford, Winger Favor
They included Doug Ford, Yonkers, N.Y.; Bo Winger, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Cary Middlecott, Memphis, Tenn.; and Fred Wampler, Indianapolis.

A look at scores in Wednesday's pro-amateur event showed even more possible contenders. Unheralded Al Balding, Toronto, Ont., and Bud Holscher, White Plains, N.Y., led the professionals with five-under par scores of 66, followed by Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., and Jim Ferrier, San Francisco, both with 67s.

Balding, playing with Bill Hule, of Phoenix, captured top money, winning the best ball-pro-amateur competition with a score of 60. The combined triumphs netted Balding $47.

Charles Due To Get 3rd Shot At Title

NEW YORK, Feb. 4—UP—Eschampion Essard Charles seemed destined to get a third shot at the heavyweight crown in June. Promoter Jim Norris is expected to announce next week a June match between Rocky Marciano and ex-champ Charles at March 11 defense has been rejected.

Manager Al Weill announced there will be no March defense for Rocky Wednesday night. Officials of the International Boxing Club had hoped Marciano would defend against Dan Bucceroni of Philadelphia at Madison Square Garden, March 23 or 24.

"Rocky will wait till June for his next defense," declared Weill after two days of conferences with IBC officials. "The June challenge probably will be announced next week when Promoter Jim Norris returns to New York from Miami."

Weill gave two reasons for rejecting the March defense. He said he doubted Marciano would be able to get into peak condition for a March defense. He needed more time. Also Weill, recovering from a recent bladder operation, was not in shape now to begin supervising the Brockton blockbuster's training.

Mother, Daughter to Race
MIAMI, Feb. 4—UP—The first mother-daughter act in racing history is on tap Thursday for Hialeah fans. The daughter is two-year-old Roxy's rocket who is entered in the opening race. The mother is seven-year-old Puff who is entered in the seven furlong seventh. Both horses are owned by R. W. Fincher of Miami.

2nd String Yank Catcher Silvera Is 'Top Paid Basebatter'

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4—UP—Quick now: Who is the highest paid player in baseball?

Ted Williams? Stan Musial? It's Charley Silvera, second-string catcher for the world champion New York Yankees.

Charley won't divulge his salary, but it is a good bet that he gets above $10,000 a year. On top of that his annual World's Series slice averages better than $5,000 per year.

I asked him if he would rather be catching for some other club where he would see more action. "I'm 29 years old, been in the majors five years, played on five world championship ball clubs," he answered. "Sure, I would like to do more catching. But would you give that up?"

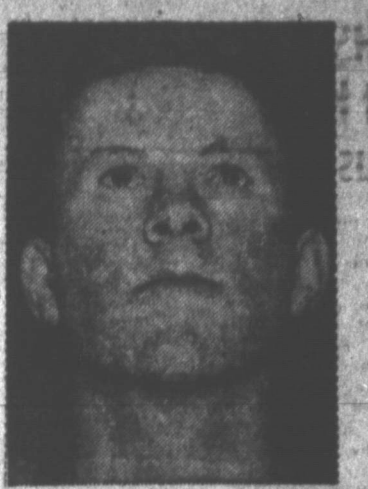

It is obvious that the blond young man is very happy where he is. There is a possibility that he realizes his own limitations when it comes to hitting.

"I'm a slap hitter," he says. "I just try to meet the ball squarely and knock it out of the infield. I hit about .280 last year while playing in about 40 games. However, my life-time major league average is above .300."

In his five years with the Yankees, Silvera figures he has appeared in between 150 and 200 games while undergirding for the great Yogi Berra. To be conservative, say he has earned $60,000, including his World Series money, during that time.

Some of the games he has appeared in only for an inning or two. Say he played in 175 games, five innings per game during the five years. That's approximately $70 every inning he plays.

Musial, at $80,000 per year, is expected to play the 152 games, nine innings per tilt or 1,368 innings. That pays off at about $60 per inning.

Selvy's 38 Per Tilt Tops College Play

NEW YORK, Feb. 4—UP—Superlatives are supposed to be corny and numbers are supposed to be dry, but in the case of Frank Selvy, the nation's top major-college basketball scorer with a 38.3 points-per-game average, both are justified, with the numbers supplied by the NCAA Service Bureau.

That 38.3 average is so unprecedented in major competition as to be all but unbelievable, and Thursday night Selvy takes it into the biggest spotlight he has yet entered, Madison Square Garden. He'll be playing against Manhattan, a team which held him to 18 points last year in a game which Furnham, lost by one point because Selvy hesitated just too long before sinking—just after the buzzer—what would have been the winning basket.

But since then, Selvy has appropriated all three-year and single-season major-college records, and is now shooting at four-year marks. He set the single-season standard at 29.5 points a game last year, after having 24.8 as a sophomore. His three-year average right now is a fantastic 32.3—higher than the best anyone has done for one year.

And recently he wiped out Clyde Lovellette's record for most points in three years. Selvy now has 1,668 in 77.

The four-year marks Selvy is after are 2,154 in 119 games for Jim Lacy, of Loyola of Baltimore; 1,970 in 104 games for Chet Giermak of William and Mary; and 1,844 in 84 games for Tony Lavelli of Yale. On a points-per-game basis, of course, Selvy is in class by himself.

He has scored 20 or more points in his last 23 consecutive games; he has scored 50 or more 23 times.

Murray Warmath To 'Rekindle' Gophers

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 4—UP—Murray Warmath, Minnesota's new head football coach, laid plans Thursday to "rejuvenate" the Gophers' old-style power football with a "grind-it-out" Split T attack.

Warmath indicated that he planned to switch Minnesota away from the traditional single-wing at a news conference Wednesday, then backed it up by importing four of his former assistants at Mississippi State to aid in the changeover.

While he hinted at a "rejuvenation" that his Split T is going to be basically a powerful but simple "grind-it-out" attack.

The system, featuring simple, straight-ahead blocking, will enable the use of bigger guards since they are seldom called upon to pull out and run interference.

Overall team speed isn't too important, Warmath said.

Patterson to Meet Durrelle
NEW YORK, Feb. 4—UP—Floyd Patterson, 20-year-old light-heavyweight from Brooklyn, N.Y., has signed to meet Yvon Durrelle of Loggville, New Brunswick, in an eight-round feature bout at eastern Parkway Arena, Feb. 18. The fight is restricted to eight rounds because Patterson, undefeated as a professional, is under 21.

Rotarians Slated To Name Directors

Directors for 1954 will be elected at next week's meeting of the Pampa Rotary Club.

Members of the club, at their meeting Wednesday noon in the Palm Room of the City Hall, selected 15 names from the club's roster, from which the seven directors will be elected.

Those selected were Fred W. Brook, Don Cain, L. J. Edmondson, John Frick, Dr. Lloyd M. Hicks, Dr. Calvin Jones, Gordon Lyons, Luck McClelland, W. J. McNeill, George Newberry, E. E. Shelhamer, Jimmy E. Thompson, Floyd Watson and Quentin Williams.

The new board of directors will select officers of the club, these officers taking over the leadership of the club next June.

Dr. Jack Walker, assistant professor of speech and chairman of public services at West Texas State College, Canyon, was the guest speaker, addressing the group on "Education."

TV Borrows Old Movies

By ALINE MOSSBY
HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 4 (UP)—Television has borrowed glamour stars and old films from the movies, and now video even has a Rin-Tin-Tin.

The latest star to join the list of screen celebrities switching to TV is Rin-Tin-Tin IV, the great-grandson of that famous canine movie star of the '20's.

Screen Gems, Inc., announced shooting begins next month on 28 TV films starting the new German Shepherd thespian. This makes Rin-Tin-Tin the first fourth-generation Hollywood star in history.

TV also has annexed another four-footed actor. Lassie, but Bert Leonard, who is producing the Rin-Tin-Tin series, appeared shocked at the idea that his bright-eyed star will become any competitor from that Greer Garson with fur.

"There's no comparison between the two dogs," he said. "Rin-Tin-Tin always has been known as a dog of action. Lassie is just a well-bred home dog."

"This new Rin-Tin-Tin can do anything. He has strength, intelligence, heart. He can look sad, cry, climb and jump."

The original Rin-Tin-Tin died in 1932 after earning $320,000 for his master. He starred in 22 pictures during his 10 years as a star, and was supported by such two-footed actors as Myrna Loy and Charles Farrell. He was credited with pulling Warner Studio out of the red.

The writer of the first Rin-Tin-Tin movie was Darryl F. Zanuck, who rose to become a vice-president at 20th Century Fox and an amateur trapeze artist or note.

In succeeding generations of Rin-Tin-Tin descendants, three puppies have been named after the great dog star. Rin-Tin-Tin II and III became movie actors and since have perished. The fourth Rin-Tin-Tin appeared in only one theater picture, "One Piece Bathing Suit," also starring the two-footed Esther Williams, before switching to TV.

The three-year-old dog actor lives on Rancho Rin-Tin-Tin in Riverside, Calif., with his trainer, Lee Duncan. A station wagon with his name imprinted will take him to the TV location, the set built for a movie, "Fort Apache," on nearby Corrigan ranch. The TV series will be laid in 1950 on an Army post and will co-star child actor Lee Aaker, who played in "Hondo."

"I've loved Rin-Tin-Tin since I was a boy," said Leonard. "I think his great grandson is a natural for children on television."

Costumes Asked At Banquet Here

Those attending the annual Teachers Appreciation banquet Feb. 15 are urged to wear showy costumes.

The decision to make this request was made at a meeting of the Goodwill and Reception Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce Wednesday in the chamber office, during which plans for the affair were made.

The banquet will be held in the Pampa High School cafeteria, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Definite program plans have not been made, but Jeff Bearden, chairman of the committee, promised teachers there would be nothing of a serious nature on the program. "We just want the teachers to have a good time," he said.

Pampans Attend Mission School

Seven young people and two adults from Methodist churches in the Pampa area will attend a Christian Mission Winters school in Plainview, Friday through Sunday. Churches of the nine Northwest Conference districts will be represented.

Purpose of the meeting is to train the youth in winning other young people to the church. After returning home, each representative will train the youth of his local church.

Those from this area who will attend the meeting include Rev. Edwin Hall, district youth director; Mrs. Grady Adcock of Miami, youth advisor; Jo Tooley, Nancy Coley, Wayne Griggs, all of Pampa; Linda Adcock and Myrna Montgomery, both of Miami; and unidentified representatives from Berger and Wheeler.

Rev. Doyle Regal, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Monday, and former professor at McMurry College, will direct the meetings.

Civil Service Positions Open

The Civil Service Commission has announced examinations are now being given for printer proof-reader positions and for student aid trainee, according to C. W. Stowell, Pampa's examiner in charge.

To qualify for the printer proof-reader positions, applicants must pass a written test and must have completed a printer's apprenticeship of five years, or have had five years of practical experience in the printer's trade. In addition, responsible experience in reading book, magazine or daily newspaper proof is required. There is no maximum age limit and the position pays $2.80 an hour. The openings are for work in the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.
